Moved by Councillors Webster and Eaton that the above named parties get a rebate for dog tax, as the dogs were either poisoned or otherwise disposed of prior to May 1st last.—Carried.

The following accounts were then read, viz: Roland Scriver, extending drain, $1.50, and repairing engine, $2; D. Maloney, building fence, $7.25; Jas Calder, appeals voters list, $7.72; N. H. Birt, building fence on sidewalk, $4.40.; Geo Peters, teaming, etc., $2.40.

Moved by Messrs. Greenbanks and Harrison, that the above accounts as read be paid.—Carried.

Moved by Messrs. Eaton and Webster that Mrs. Jas. Kellett be paid $5 last quarter salary as caretaker of the town hall.—Carried.

The council then adjourned to meet on Dec. 16th, at 8 o'clock.

Speaker's Sore Throat.

Public speakers and singers know how useless and sickening are cough mixtures, sprays, lozenges, etc., etc., for irritable and sore throat, and state that the most satisfactory remedy is Catarrhozone, the advantage of which is that it acts quickly and is convenient to use in public places. Catarrhozone relieves congestion, allays inflammation, and is a protection to the membrane. As a safeguard against colds and catarrh it has no equal. Rev. Dr. McKay, of Goderich, says, "Catarrhozone is an excellent remedy for throat irritation, arising from colds." Physicians, ministers and singers recommend Catarrhozone; druggists sell it for $1. Small size, 25c. By mail from Polson & Co., Kingston, Ont.

FIVE DOCTORS CRIED "HOPELESS"

But Jacob DeWitta wasn't going to cry quits without a fight for his life. He pinned his faith to Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart, and it saved him.

Jacob DeWitta, of Hay Island, had been under treatment with five doctors. Each in turn giving up his case as a hopeless case of Heart trouble, said he might drop dead any minute. He fell in weight from 214 to 143 pounds, but he "pinned his faith" to Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart, and he declares he owes his life to it. From the first dose he found benefit. To-day says he never felt better in his life. 85

SAN JOSE SCALE NOT SPREADING.

But Further Destructive Measures Will Be Asked For.

Cobourg, Dec. 5.—The Provincial Association of Ontario Fruit Growers opened here yesterday morning at 10 o'clock. Among the officials present are W. M. Orr, the president; G. C. Caston, vice-president, and thirteen directors, representing the thirteen agricultural districts of the province.

Invitations were sent from Walkerton and Orillia for the next annual meeting.

Professor Macoun of Ottawa and Professor Waugh of Burlington, Vt., addressed the meeting. Prof. Hutt reported on new fruits, including a new seedling from St. Joseph's Island, adapted to the cold north.

G. E. Fisher, Provincial San Jose Scale Inspector, said the scale had appeared in very few localities. Crude petroleum had proved the most effective remedy, but a mixture of lime, salt and sulphur, promised to be an insecticide and fungicide of great excellence.

Murray Pettitt of Winona introduced a resolution, asking for provincial legislation providing for the appointment of township inspectors of the San Jose scale, to insist on its destruction, either by burning or treating with crude oil, or whale oil soap.

E. D. Smith of Winona reported on the work done by the committee regulating the size of the baskets.

Dr. Saunders of the Experimental Farm, Ottawa, gave the results of some experiments, showing that bees do not do real injury to grapes.

G. C. Caston spoke on fruit-growing in Simcoe County, and said fine peaches could be grown on the south shore of Georgian Bay. He also showed some fine samples of apples grown in his grounds.

In the evening Hon. John Dryden addressed a public meeting in the opera house.

Pill Manufacturers Enraged.

The makers of all the various pills on the market are greatly troubled over the new medicine, Merrill's System Tonic. It is doing away with their business. System Tonic is not only a positive cure for Habitual Constipation, but a blood purifier and builder as well as a tonic for every organ in the body. One 50c. bottle cures to stay cured. Sold by Ormond & Walsh, druggists.

Judge Wurtele Accepts.

Ottawa, Dec. 4.—The statement telegraphed from Montreal that Judge Wurtele had been offered and had accepted the chairmanship of the commission to revise the Federal statutes is confirmed in official quarters and it is also stated that although no appointments have been made yet the secretaryship will be given to Mr. Charles Murphy, barrister, of this city.

Canadian Cattle in Quarantine.

Salem, Ohio, Dec. 4.—Dr. L. F. Vogelman of the Buffalo United States Bureau of Animal Industry, has arrived here and placed in quarantine a herd of 28 thoroughbred shorthorn cattle imported from Canada. The whole herd, the inspector says, is subject to confiscation and he is awaiting instructions from the Treasury Department.

WEST HURON VICTORY

Hon. J. T. Garrow Elected by a Majority of About 300.

THE FIGHT A STIRRING ONE

The Conservatives Spared No Effort to Win, But a Great Liberal Tide Swamped Them—Previous Election Majorities Eclipsed—Congratulatory Meeting at Goderich—The Members' Speech.

Goderich, Dec. 5.—A grand Liberal victory was scored in West Huron yesterday. Mr. Garrow's majority is about 300. Victoria Opera House was filled to overflowing with a most enthusiastic gathering to congratulate Hon. J. T. Garrow on his splendid victory. Mr. Garrow was called on by the chairman, Mr. Wm. Proudfoot, and was received with loud and prolonged cheering. Mr. Garrow stated that this was a most remarkable victory, as the Conservatives never before in Ontario made such an effort to win a riding. The riding had been overrun by all sorts and conditions of men, who left no means untried to defeat the Liberal party. The result shows that not only did our Liberal friends support us, but many fair-minded Conservatives, who realized that this was a wholly unnecessary election and had been forced on us by the Opposition. The Liberals for once were thoroughly aroused, and as never before came to the polls. To the young men of the audience Mr. Garrow said that they should read and educate themselves, not only when elections are on but all the time, and they could not fail to ascertain that the Liberal policy will commend itself as the best for Ontario and Canada. The platform will stand the closest examination, the policy is one of purity, honesty and progress. The Liberal Government of Ontario may have its faults, but, all in all, is the best Government ever seen on the continent of North America, and has as its head one of the best and ablest politicians Canada has ever produced, and it is for the best interest of Canada to keep him there. Mr. Garrow expressed sympathy for the defeated candidate, and regretted very much that he had been led into this unnecessary contest by the Tory machine from Toronto.

Speeches of congratulation were given by Mr. Kerr, editor of The Brussels Post, Messrs. Goetz of Perth, D. McGillicuddy; P. Holt, Warden of Huron; A. Saunders, M. G. Cameron and B. D. Grant. Mr. W. Proudfoot, who presided most ably at the meeting, announced that Mr. Garrow's majority would exceed 300, and expressed the hope that the Liberals of West Huron would continue to stand united, and at the general elections next June make as good a showing as they had to-day.

The following prominent Conservatives took part in the campaign on behalf of their candidate: Messrs. Whitney, Foy, Carscallen, Matheson, Wardell, Henderson and Hoyle, members of the House; Mr. Downey, candidate for South Wellington, and Messrs. Levitt and Wright, Conservative organizers.

The returns from the various municipalities are:

Iron and Steel Bounties.

Ottawa, Dec. 5.—W. G. Parmelee, Deputy Minister of Trade and Commerce, and J. Lorne McDougall, Auditor-General, have gone to Sydney, N.S., in connection with the payment of bounty upon the iron and steel output of the Dominion Works there. It appears that the Department has decided, in order to satisfy the Auditor-General as to the absolute correctness of all bounty claims, to institute a further check upon the smaller returns, and it is to devise such means that Messrs. Parmelee and McDougall are on their present mission. It is estimated that over three-quarters of a million dollars will be paid out during the present fiscal year in iron and steel bounties.

Protest Dropped.

Toronto, Dec. 5.—The protest against the election of Edwin Tolton, the Conservative member for North Wellington, has, it is said, been dropped, no additional papers having been filed since the formal petition was entered. This is the last protest on the list.

Conspiracy Case Ended.

Montreal, Dec. 5.—The famous conspiracy case was concluded yesterday afternoon, and the jury returned a verdict of not guilty. Alex. McCullough, who was accused of conspiring to defraud the Merchants' Bank, was defended by Messrs. Quinn & Bergeron, K.C.'s, with the result as just stated.

ONTARIO BEEKEEPERS.

J. B. Evans of Islington Elected President for Ensuing Year—Next Convention in Barrie.

Woodstock, Dec. 5.—The Ontario Beekeepers' Association Convention was opened yesterday morning by Prof. Shutt of the Ottawa Experimental Farm, who gave an address upon experiments he had conducted with uncapped, capped and partially capped honey, to ascertain the percentage of water in each. Professor Shutt has come to the conclusion that as yet there is no reliable way accurately determining the amount of water in honey.

The reports of Secretary Cowse, Treasurer Emigh, Apiary Inspector McEvoy and the Board of Directors were received at yesterday's session. All showed a most encouraging condition of affairs.

John Fixter, also of the Ottawa Experimental Farm, gave a paper on the oft-repeated accusations against the bee with reference to the damage to fruit. After careful study and practical investigation, Mr. Fixter has come to the conclusion that bees do not injure fruit to which they have access.

How one man alone managed 500 colonies was the subject of a paper by W. C. Hutchinson of Flint, Mich.

It was decided to hold next year's conference in Barrie.

The Officers Elected.

Following are the officers for the ensuing year: President, J B Evans, Islington; vice-president, James Armstrong, Cheapside; 2nd vice-president, W A Chrysler, Chatham; directors, District No. 1, W J Brown, Chard; District No. 2, J K Darling, Almonte; District No. 3, M B Holmes, Athens; District No. 4, C W Post, Trenton; District No. 5, J W Sparling, Bowmanville; District No. 6, J D Evans, Islington; District No. 7, A Pickett, Nassagaweya; District No. 8, J Armstrong, Cheapside; District No. 9, John Newton, Thamesford; District No. 10, F A Gemmell, Stratford; District No. 11, W A Chrysler, Chatham; District No. 12, Samuel Wood, Nottawasaga.

A Throat and Lung Treatment

That Has Been Largely Imitated but Never Successfully Rivalled is Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine.

There is no guesswork about the virtues of Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine. It has been before the people too long, and withstood too many a battle brunt from aspiring rivals, to be considered an experiment of unknown value.

Year by year, as the fall and winter seasons come and go, the sale of Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine increases steadily and certainly. It has proven its remarkable value won its laurels and continues to lead the van as the most popular and most largely used cough and cold medicine of this country.

Children especially are fond of Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine, because it is sweet and pleasant to the taste, and quickly relieves and cures them when gasping for breath with choked-up air passages, or tearing the linings of the throat and bronchial tubes with a severe and painful cough.

Bronchitis, whooping cough, croup, sore throat, severe chest colds and painful coughs are relieved and cured promptly and thoroughly by this famous preparation. It also frees the asthma sufferer from the dreadful paroxysms which cause him such keen agony and cures asthma, as has been proven in a hundred cases.

Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine aids expectoration, clears the throat and air passages, soothes and heals the inflamed linings of the bronchial tubes, and cures coughs of every description. But it is far more than a mere cough cure, for its action is far-reaching and it thoroughly removes the cold as well.

You cannot compare Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine with any remedy you ever used. It is unique as a treatment for throat and lung troubles. There are other preparations of linseed and turpentine put up in imitation of Dr. Chase's, and it is therefore important that that you be careful when buying. 25 cents a bottle; family size, three times as much, 60 cents. At all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

A Diplomatic Soldier.

According to the Paris Figaro, it was at Compiegne that the king of Rome, "The Eaglet," granted the first petition that was presented to him. He had reached the mature age of six months when an old soldier who had already received many favors from the emperor decided that he wanted more and thought it would be a good scheme to address his petition to the heir to the throne and thus work on Napoleon's sympathies. He addressed his petition to his majesty, the king of Rome.

Napoleon smiled when he read the address and ordered the Duke of Frioul to take the paper to the king and read it to him. This was done with due solemnity and state, and the duke returned to the emperor.

"What did his majesty say?" asked Napoleon.

"Nothing," replied the duke.

"Silence gives consent," said the emperor. "See that this old rascal of a soldier gets what he wants."

A HEALTHY WOMAN.

Queen Victoria lived to a glorious old age, but the very best care was taken of her health. She never suffered from headache, indigestion or dyspepsia, brought on in most cases by negligence at one time or another. "Climax" Iron Tonic Pills cure such complaints. PAVING WAY FOR SEIZURE.

British Ready to Assert Rights on Abyssinian Frontier.

New York, Dec. 5.—A letter from Jubiti, East Africa, in The Paris Journal Des Debats, quoted by the Paris correspondent of The London and The New York Times, credits Great Britain on her adroitness in her dealings with Emperor Menelik. It says Great Britain has induced the Negus to leave dormant the frontier question while the South African war lasts, and that Great Britain intends to settle this question finally in a manner detrimental to the Abyssinians. The writer of the letter asserts that the various British missions to Abyssinia were designed to pave the way for the seizure of the vast territory separating the Egyptian Soudan from Uganda. Meanwhile, he says, the Abyssinian Exploration Company has purchased from the Negus, for £85,000, the mines of the Equatorial Provinces. It is asserted that Col. Harrington skillfully gained an excellent footing with Emperor Menelik.

ROBERT J. FIFE IS DEAD.

A Former Peterborough Druggist Dies in Chicago.

A Telegram Received From a Chicago Undertaker Yesterday Evening Asking as to Disposal of the Remains.

Mr. Robert Fife, of Smith, yesterday evening received a telegram from Chicago informing him of the death of his son Robt. J. Fife, who has been a resident of that City for the past 12 months or so, and who was well known in Peterborough. The telegram was signed by a person puporting to be an undertaker, who asked as to the disposal of the remains—whether they should be interred in Chicago or sent to deceased's home. Mr. Fife immediately wired in reply to have the remains forwarded to Peterborough, intimating, of course, that all expenses would be paid at the end. This proposition did not apparently meet with the approval of the alleged Chicago undertaker, who asked that a couple hundred dollars be sent. Not being certain as to the bona fides and reliability of the Chicago correspondent, on the advice of friends, Mr. Fife decided to not forward so considerable a sum to a person of whose reliability he had no information. placed himself in communication with a nephew in Chicago, and received sad information of the correctness of the news of his son's death, receiving a telegram stating that the remains would leave Chicago to-night at eight o'clock, and arrive here per G. T. R. at 5.30 o'clock to-morrow evening. Particulars were furnished.

Mr. Robert Fife, jr., whose demise as stated, occurred in Chicago, was well known to business men of the town, and citizens in general. He was about 28 years of age, and has lived nearly all his life in Peterborough. He received his education at the local schools, and entered, as a student, the drug store of Messrs. Ormond & Walsh. He graduated from the Ontario College of Pharmacy, and after serving some little time further in Ormond & Walsh's drug store, he entered a partnership in the business with Mr. Dickson Davidson. About two years ago he retired from the business and went to the States. He was for some time the energetic President of the Peterborough Hockey Club, and had many warm friends.

He leaves a widow to mourn his demise.

The funeral will take place at two o'clock on Saturday from Mr. D. Belleghem's undertaking establishment, Hunter street, to the Little Lake Cemetery.

THE WATERWORKS PURCHASE.

At the meeting of the Town Council last night, the Special Committee appointed to investigate and report upon the condition, resources and revenue of the Peterborough Waterworks, reported, recommending the purchase of the works by the town at the price of $230,000, and to-night another special meeting will be held to consider a bylaw to be submitted to the votes of the ratepayers for the purchase of the works. The matter, therefore, rests with the ratepayers, and the question to consider is whether the purchase of the works would be a paying investment on behalf of the town. Assuming that the figures submitted by the committee are correct, and they should be, for it appears that the committee have taken considerable pains to collect all the data upon which to base a reliable opinion, then it seems that the acquirement of the works by the town would not be unwise. It is claimed that, judging by the increase of the revenue of the company for the present year, which, it is argued, will become greater as time goes on, the investment by the town of $230,000 in the purchase of the waterworks, would yield a clear revenue, which represents 7 per cent. upon the amount of purchase money. This cannot be regarded as a bad investment. Of course this, and much else, will depend upon the character of the management of the works should they come into the possession of the town. Under purely municipal management, that is, by a committee of the council, there is not much probability that the results will be satisfactory, or anything as good as they would be under a board of commissioners, comparatively independent, and consisting of some of our substantial and prominent business citizens. A committee of the council might be subject to influences connected with aims to gain local prestige with the electors, while a commission, being more permanent in character, and more independent of direct electoral influence, would be in a position to consider quite exclusively the interests of the town. Assuming, as before stated, that the ownership and operation of the works by the town would yield the profit suggested by the report of the special committee, there are other considerations which should lead to very careful and favourable consideration of the proposal to purchase. In the first place the ratepayers may rest assured that the Peterborough waterworks system is among the best in the province. The important parts of the plant are practically new, and of the best quality. The new, dam, the new pump house, and new pumps, were first used in June, 1894. The pumps and pumping machinery are first-class, having been put in by the William Hamilton Company, which took the utmost pains to do a first-class job in keeping with their reputation. The dam is new and of a capacity that will permit of the enlargement of the pumping plant, if found necessary, with comparatively small expense. In this dam the town will have something of considerable importance. It is capable of developing seven hundred horse power, and as only 200 are at present required or developed, there is a reserve of 500 horse power, which at the nominal figure of value of $10 per horse power per year, represents no unimportant advantage. The works have a large mileage of iron pipes well and solidly laid and practically permanent in character. Of the 17 1-2 miles of iron pipe, which compose the system, 14 3-10 miles have been laid under the personal supervision of Mr. Wilson Henderson, the superintendent for 17 years, a gentleman who has few superiors anywhere in this capacity, and any work done by him can be depended upon to be of the best both in adaptability to purpose and solid character of work. In 1883 when Mr. Henderson took charge there were only 3 1-5 miles of iron pipe; now there are 17 1-2 miles of iron pipe laid in first-class manner, and the street mains of the works may be regarded as among the best in the province, and superior in some respects. The force mains from the pump house of the Peterborough works are 16 inches in diameter while those of the City of Brantford with its 18,000 inhabitants are only 14 inches. In regard therefore to the substantial character of the Peterborough plant, there can be no doubt, so far as information is available, that the works are of first-class quality, and that in purchasing the works the town will be getting a good solidly built and efficient system of water works. The people have the proposition before them — or will have when the bylaw is prepared to-night to be voted upon on Jan. 6th, 1902, and it is for them to consider whether the price charged for a good system of water works and the alleged profits to the town from their operation, will justify them in ratifying by their votes an agreement to purchase the works.

Mr. James Goodwin Met With a Serious Accident

While Walking on the C. P. R. Tracks Yesterday Evening—How it Occurred.

James Goodwin, a labourer, who lives at No. 3, Lundy's Lane, in the south end of the town, met with a horrible accident at about six o'clock last night. This morning the unfortunate man was still living, but it is extremely doubtful if he will survive.

Mr. Goodwin was returning from his work in the evening, and was walking down the C.P.R. track. At about the "diamond" he stepped aside to allow the way freight to pass. He then again stepped on the track, and the engine of the freight which had just passed, proceeded to back up. Goodwin, who is hard of hearing, was not aware of its approach, and was struck with awful consequences. His left leg was severed above the knee by the wheels of the locomotive, and his left arm was horribly crushed. It was in fact split open from above the elbow to the wrist.

The accident was immediately noticed and the poor fellow at once given every care. Dr. Young and Dr. Grey, C.P.R. physicians, were telephoned for, and the injured man was removed to the "diamond" house, where his injuries were temporarily dressed. He was then taken to the Nicholls Hospital in the ambulance, where his leg was properly amputated by Dr. Young, assisted by Dr. McClelland and Dr. Pigeon. The amputation of the arm was not attempted last night.

The patient passed a very favourable night, and this morning was doing even better than might have been expected under such awful circumstances.

Mr. Goodwin is a married man with a large family. He is industrious and hardworking and generally respected. His friends will be grieved indeed to learn of his unforunate accident.

COUNCIL FAVOURS PURCHASE

Report of Special Committee Claimed That the Purchase Would be a Good Investment.

The Town Council met last night pursuant to adjournment to consider the report of the special committee appointed to negotiate with the Peterborough Water Company in regard to the purchase of the plant, works and interests of the company.

There were present Mayor Denne, presiding, and Messrs. Best, Corkery, Batten, Clinkscale, Roger, Shortly and Edgcumbe.

THE SPECIAL COMMITTEE'S REPORT.

Mr. Best, chairman of the Special Committee, presented their report as follows:

To the Council of the Town of Peterborough,—

Gentlemen, — Your Special Committee of the Town Council, who were appointed in the early part of the present year for the purpose of negotiating with the Peterborough Water Company for the purchase of the company's works, such action on the part of the Town Council being based entirely upon public opinion of the desirability of the town acquiring the waterworks through friendly negotiations with the directors of the company rather than wait for two years before the town could demand the right to take over the waterworks under arbitration, now beg leave to report as follows:

Your committee received from the directors of the Water Company an assurance of their willingness to negotiate upon private terms for the purchase of their works this present year.

Your committee not having any data to form a basis for negotiations with the company decided, with the full consent of the directors, to have a valuation made of the street plant, power house, dam and land belonging to the company. We corresponded with six engineers reputed to be experts in making such a valuation as we required. One of the six, Mr. William Kennedy, C. E., Consulting Engineer, of Montreal, we engaged to make the valuation in the month of May. Mr. Kennedy's instructions from the committee on his arrival here early in June were, that he should, after making a thorough inspection of the street plant, power house, dam, etc., make a net detailed valuation of the entire waterworks property as it then existed. We received on July 27th from Mr. Kennedy a detailed statement of the waterworks property, and his summary of his valuation was as follows:

Sundries as per list.....$	5,630 00
Pipe distribution, including hydrants, also service pipes...	130,135 14
Pump house...	3,000 00
Turbines, pumping machines, pipes, valves, etc., in pump house, including suction pipe	70,000 00
Water power site, including dam, land, etc	10,000 00
	$263,344 70
Say.....	$263,000 00

Having received this valuation, we secured the permission of the company to have an examination made of their books as to their revenue and expenditure for three years, and Mr. Albert E. Loch was employed to do this work. He made a thorough examination, going into the details of the revenue and expenditure, to arrive at the result, and made a report. His statement, covering the operation of the year 1900, the last year reported on, was as follows:

Expenditure.

Upkeep of mains and hydrants... ... ...$	72 01
Wages foreman and men on ditto...	952 77
Running pump house, sundry accounts	370 78
Wages two engineers...	1,621 10

Interest account...	5,234 29
Special rebate on account Ashburnham...	72 15
Bad debts written off...	366 87

	$20,778 20

Revenue.

Net revenue water supply account... ... ...$	20,778 20
By balance net profit...	9,683 00

Having received the reports of Mr. Kennedy and Mr. Loch, we again met the directors of the Water Company, and entered into negotiations for the terms of purchase. We had several conferences with the directors, who took the ground that the company should receive more than the estimate made by Mr. Kennedy, because Mr. Kennedy did not make any allowance for preliminary expenses, nor for the expense that is naturally and inevitably connected with the commencement of such an undertaking as the waterworks and getting it established on a sound, smoothly working and paying basis, and, further, because Mr. Kennedy's estimate did not take into account the company's agreement with the Village of Ashburnham, which gives a revenue of about $600 a year, and is increasing.

After conferences with the directors, they finally made this formal offer:

Peterborough, Nov. 19th, 1901.

Henry Best, Esq.,
Chairman of Committee,
Peterborough, Ont.

Dear Sir,—Pursuant to request from Committee of Alderman appointed by the Town Council to confer with the Directors of the Peterborough Water Company, I am requested to write you, as Chairman of such Committee, and advise, that after consideration of the proposal made on behalf of the town, subject, of course, to ratification by the votes of the ratepayers, to purchase the plant of the Water Company, the Board of Directors have decided to recommend to the shareholders of the Water Company that the purchase price of said plant be fixed at $230,000, as of January, A.D., 1902. We wish it distinctly understood that this offer is made without prejudice to our rights, should we be forced to arbitrate, and is not to be used in any way against the Company. The offer is made solely by reason of representations that have been made to Directors of the Company by your Committee, that in your opinion and in the opinion of the members of the Council, the feelings of the ratepayers are in favour of owning these works.

We know that the price fixed is much less than the plant is worth, and much less than we could sell to outside parties, could we or they be sure of an extended term, during which the Town would not interfere with our schedule of rates.

Our offer is made too for the sake of peace, and to avoid expensive arbitration, which cannot but result unsatisfactorily to either the Town or the Company, and would doubtless cause much bitterness of feeling.

We wish to avoid, too, imperilling the stock of the shareholders, so many of them being widows of deceased residents, who have invested, not for speculation, but relying on the standing of the men who have been and are at the head of the Company, expect to get their money back and at a fair rate of interest for the use of it.

The offer is made on the understanding that if the people vote down the by-law to be introduced for the purchase of the works, that a new term will be granted by this year's Council of ten or at least five years from the date of the expiring of the present one, during which term the town is not to have the option of purchasing the works or interfering with the schedule agreed on. This, you as business men know, is a most necessary provision for us to make to enable us to finance our bonds and shares to the best advantage.

In connection of an extended term of ten years, the Directors will recommend a discount of 20 per cent., and for five years a discount of 15 per cent., to private consumers for prompt payment as now provided for, off all schedule rates as fixed by by-law with the Town, excepting rates made by contract, and the present hydrant rate not to be interfered with, it being already too low, covering, as it does, street waterings, sewerage flushing and horse troughs; the street watering area having been materially increased, whilst no addition has been made to the number of hydrants for some years.

Yours Very Respectfully,
(Signed) G. W. HATTON,
Sec.-Treas. Peterborough Water Company.

We replied to this letter that we could not recommend any proposition conditional upon notification of the terms of the franchise, but that we would be prepared, without prejudice to the rights or position of the town, to recommend a purchase at $220,000. This led to a further conference with the directors, at which the terms were again discussed at length, and at which the representatives of the company assured us that they had placed the figure in their offer at the lowest sum they could accept, for it would require that amount to enable them to let their shareholders out without a loss of part of their money they had invested in the works. In deference to our objection, however, they withdrew the conditions as an extension of the term in which the town could take over the works by arbitration, and we agreed on a price to be paid, subject, of course, to the approval of the council, and the ratepayers, and of the stockholders of the company, and without prejudice to the rights of the town, should other proceedings become necessary, of $230,000 for the entire plant and property of the company.

We therefore beg leave to recommend that, without prejudice to the position or the rights of the town should arbitration become necessary, a provisional agreement be made with the company for the purchase at the price of $230,000, of the works, and that the Mayor be authorized to execute such an agreement for this purpose as may be approved by this committee, and also that, for confirmation of this agreement, a bylaw be prepared, to be submitted to the qualified ratepayers to authorize the purchase.

HENRY BEST,
Chairman.

As an addendum to the report Mr. Best submitted the following statement:

"Taking the purchase price at the figure we have arrived at, namely $230,000, and even allowing that we would have to pay four per cent. interest, and basing the sinking fund on the supposition that we would only receive three per cent. on the sinking fund accumulations (thus putting both sides of the estimate to the extreme limit against the town,) and taking the net earnings of the company for 1900, after paying working expenses, at $14,977,39, as shown by Mr. Lechs' statement, the result would be as follows, based on 30 years debentures:

Net Revenue	$14,977.39
Sinking fund on 3 per cent. basis	$4,634.44
Interest at 4 per cent, ...	$9,200.00
Total	14,034.44
Leaving a margin of net profit of	$943.95

"If, however, the money should be borrowed at 3 3-4 per cent. interest the margin would be increased to $1,517.95, and that after making adequate provision for the works to pay for themselves. These figures are based on the revenue of 1900, and the revenue has increased this year, and will be still further increased next year, especially through contracts with the new large manufacturing industries.'

Alderman Best, in commenting on the report, submitted that the revenue of the Waterworks Company for 1901, would be fully $1000 better than the figures mentioned in the report, which was that for 1900, and it was further pointed out that the net revenue represented a return of 7 per cent upon the purchase price of $230,000. This looked like a safe investment, and in addition to this there was to be taken into consideration additional profitable revenue. There was a prospect of greater prosperity, and of many new buildings. These would have to be equipped with modern improvements, which involved the use of water, and a corresponding increase of revenue for the waterworks. Another advantage urged was that the town's possession of the waterworks would admit of a revision of the schedule of rates to domestic or private consumers. Still another advantage would be that in relation to insurance rates. The insurance companies were considering a change in the system of classification. Each town would in the matter of rates be placed upon its own merits. Every town which owned its own waterworks would receive a more favourable classification, and lower insurance rates. By placing 6 or 8 new hydrants (every additional hydrant at present costs $65), a much lower rate of insurance would be obtained, and this would represent a large saving in the amount paid by the citizens for insurance.

Mayor Denne pointed out in addition to what Mr. Best had submitted, that the report of Mr. Kennedy, the engineer, showed that the available water power that could be developed by the waterworks dam was 700 horse power. Of this only 200 horse power was utilized, leaving 500 horse power placed at the disposal of the town for the purposes of the town.

On motion of Alderman Best, seconded by Alderman Shortly, the report was unanimously adopted.

A bylaw based upon the report to be submitted to the ratepayers on Jan. 6th, 1902, will be considered at the special meeting to-night.

The council then adjourned.

The Tablets have a strengthening and tonic influence on the weak urinary organs of children and enable them to retain their water naturally.

Don't let your child grow up with this weakness blighting his life. Have the trouble cured in time before it does permanent injury to the health.

THE DIFFICULTY REMOVED.

Mrs. W. M. Glover, Pearl Street, Brockville, Ont., says: "One of my children that had been suffering from sluggish kidneys read about Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets, and procured a bottle from F. R. Carry's drug store. They removed the whole difficulty promptly. That depressing pain over the kidneys stopped, dizziness and headaches ceased, and there was a general invigorating of the system. There is no question regarding the merits of these Tablets for the back and kidneys."

Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets are 50c. a Box, at all druggists or by mail, THE DR. ZINA PITCHER CO., Toronto, Ont.

NO MOUNTED PARADE

Nor Will Officers' Names Be Given Until Sanctioned by W.O.

MEN TO GO DIRECT TO HALIFAX

Col. Evans Seems to Be Pursuing a Business-Like Method of Mobilization, Which Will Now Take Place at Halifax—Description of the Men's Uniform—Arms Upon Arrival in South Africa.

Ottawa, Dec. 5.—Not until the War Office has sanctioned the selection of officers for Col. Evans' mounted regiment will the names be made public of those who have been given commissions in the force. This was the statement given out at the Militia Department last night.

It is quite possible that the force will not be mobilized at Ottawa, as at first intended, but that the men will be sent on direct to Halifax. If the necessary accommodation can be had in Halifax the mobilization will take place there. In any event there will be no mounted parade of the force before leaving for South Africa, as the saddlery will all be sent to Halifax, boxed up and ready for immediate shipment.

The force will leave Canada pretty well outfitted. Each man will have two suits of serge clothing and an extra pair of trousers for wear on shipboard. The uniform will be a darker shade than khaki, almost a seal-brown. Pony hat will be worn, looped up at the side and bearing a large maple leaf. The badges for the shoulder straps will be simply the name "Canada," in metal letters. A small maple leaf will be worn on each side of the collar.

The contracts for the clothing and equipment have been given mostly to firms which have been accustomed to supply the Militia Department; in very few cases were contracts given to new men, although scores applied to be given a share of the patronage.

The arms will be furnished to the force upon its arrival in South Africa.

TRAGIC DEATH OF MAJOR BOND.

Leading Temperance and Insurance Man Perished in the Flames at His Summer Residence in Phillipsburg.

Montreal, Dec. 5.—The friends of Major Edward L. Bond, son of Archbishop Bond, learned with horror that he was burned to death early yesterday morning.

Mr. Bond went to Phillipsburg, Que., Tuesday evening, where he has a summer residence. During the course of the evening Mr. Bond had a conference with Mr. Wells, the manager of the Phillipsburg Junction Railway, of which Mr. Bond was president. Mr. Wells left him at 10.30 p.m., Mr. Bond remaining in the house alone.

About 5 o'clock yesterday morning the house was found by the villagers to be in flames, and it was learned that Mr. Bond perished. Early during the morning work was commenced to find something that would indicate whether or not Mr. Bond escaped, and after a search his charred remains were found.

Major Bond was one of Montreal's most prominent business men, and manager of several large British and American Marine insurance companies. He was major in the Prince of Wales' Rifles, and saw active service in 1866 and 1870. He has for years been an office holder in the Dominion Alliance and Citizens' League, and was prominent in all efforts for the suppression of vice and the prohibition of the liquor traffic. His brother, Lieut.-Col. Frank Bond, is also a well known Montrealer.

LONDON'S SENSATION.

Bail Refused for Dr. Graham and Miss Kilbourne—Both in Jail.

London, Dec. 5.—Dr. Graham and Miss Kilbourne were brought before the Police Magistrate yesterday morning. The charge against them was murder, in that they did cause the death of Miss Kilbourne's infant child, the former by performing an operation whereby the child's death ensued and the latter by consenting to the operation.

P. M. Love fixed Friday for the hearing of evidence. Both the prisoners will be confirmed at the jail, no bail having been accepted.

Death of F. E. Marcon.

Windsor, Ont., Dec. 5.—Windsor citizens were shocked to hear of the sudden death Tuesday evening of Mr. Frank E. Marcon, sr., Clerk of the County Court, and Registrar of the Surrogate Court of Essex. He expired in bed about six o'clock, having only retired a few minutes previously. His demise was due to heart failure. Deceased was born in Norwich, Eng., 69 years ago. He came to Canada when a young man and took up the study of law at Toronto. He resided in Erin and Sandwich before removing to Windsor, where he practised his profession. In 1868 Mr. Marcon was appointed to his responsible position. Besides his widow, deceased is survived by five children.

In Behalf of Ex-Mayor Morris.

Ottawa, Dec. 5.—Six thousand names have been signed to the petition to the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council asking for the removal of the disqualification of ex-Mayor W. D. Morris, who lost his seat when he was convicted of buying liquor in an hotel after hours. The petition will be taken to Toronto by Mr. C. B. Powell, M.P.P., and he will present it to the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council. If a decision favorable to the ex-Mayor is given, Mr. Morris will enter the municipal contest in January as a Mayoralty candidate.

TO PROTECT THE PRESIDENT.

Bill Introduced Making Attempt on His Life a Capital Offence.

Washington, Dec. 5.—Senator Burrows yesterday introduced a bill "to provide for the exclusion and deportation of alien Anarchists." The first section of the bill is as follows:

"That no alien Anarchists shall hereafter be permitted to land at any port of the United States, or be permitted into the United States, but this prohibition shall not be construed as to apply to political refugees or political offenders other than such Anarchists."

The other sections make stringent provision for detecting and deporting Anarchists.

Senator Hoar yesterday introduced a bill for the protection of the President of the United States. It provides that anyone who shall kill the President or shall make an attempt upon the life of the President, shall be punished by death. Any person who shall counsel or advise the killing of the President shall be imprisoned twenty years. Any person who shall aid the escape of any person concerned in the killing, or counselling of the killing of the President, shall be punished equally as an accomplice.

Favors the Nicaragua Route.

Washington, Dec. 5.—The report of the Isthmian Canal Commission was sent to Congress yesterday. The commission favors the Nicaragua route, and makes an estimate of $189,864,062 as the total cost of construction of the canal through Nicaragua. The estimated cost of the Panama route is $144,233,358 but the report says it would cost $109,141,000 to obtain the Panama concern. The commission value the work done at $40,000,000.

Treaty Goes to Senate.

Washington, Dec. 5.—The President sent to the Senate yesterday the new Hay-Pauncefote treaty for an Isthmian canal.

Two Million Victims.

It is estimated that one-third the population of Canada are victims to the pill habit. Presbyterians Not a Unit.

Washington, Dec. 5.—The wide diversity of views of leaders of the Presbyterian Church on revision of the creed was demonstrated when the committee of 20, appointed by the General Assembly to perform this work, and submit it to the next assembly, began its labors here yesterday. It was found that none of the members of any sub-committee or section had united upon any report or statement. The General Committee decided to transact its work in full committee.

CANADIANS DROWNED.

British Ship Nelson, Loaded With Lumber for Cape Town, Sank With Crew off Astoria, Oregon.

Astoria, Oregon, Dec. 5.—The Bar tug Tatoosh, which has just returned to port, reports that the British ship Nelson, Captain Perriam, turned turtle last night, and went to the bottom with her entire crew.

The Nelson left Astoria Nov. 25. Monday night she was back at the river's mouth, and Tuesday was reported to have shifted her cargo. She had a bad list to starboard, and could go only one tack.

Tuesday afternoon the tug Tatoosh went out and picked up the Nelson, passing a hawser. The tug started off shore with the ship, owing to the gale.

It was the intention of Captain Bailey of the Tatoosh to remain with the ship during the night. The gale that raged was too severe for the vessel to withstand, and she broke from the tug and then turned turtle, sinking at once.

In the darkness it was impossible for the tug to render assistance to the members of the crew who were not carried down, and all perished. The Nelson carried a crew of 28 men all told. She was an old wooden vessel.

Captain George Woods, the Bar pilot, was to have been placed aboard the ship Tuesday night, but the weather was too rough to permit it. The Nelson carried a cargo of lumber, and was consigned to Cape Town, South Africa, by Taylor, Young & Co., of this city.

Following is a partial list of the crew:

Captain Perriam, First Mate W. A. Strachan, Second Mate J. J. Tilsley.

Seamen Vickmars, M. Peterson, Lars Peterson, D. Beste, A. Johansen, J. Jensen, F. Larson, J. Torell, John Mealey (St. John, N.B.), J. Ericcson, J. Burch, E. Sheehan (Queenstown).

Apprentices W. Terry and J. Beste.

Ten Lost in Bay of Fundy.

Halifax, Dec. 5.—The tug Gypsum King arrived at St. John yesterday afternoon, and the captain reports that at 3 o'clock that morning the two barges he was towing broke away from the tug in the Bay of Fundy. There are grave fears that the barges, with their crews of five men each, have been lost, as there was a terrible gale blowing at the time. The lost barges are each of 1,100 tons net, and are built of wood. They carried about 1,000 tons of gypsum and belong to the J. B. King Transportation Company of New York. As soon as the wind moderates the tug will go out in search of the missing vessels.

Torpedo Destroyer Ashore.

London, Dec. 5.—The torpedo boat destroyer Salmon and the Great Eastern Railway's Channel steamer Cambridge were in collision Tuesday night off Harwich, Essex. When the accident occurred most of the crew of the Salmon scrambled aboard the Cambridge, which succeeded in grounding the destroyer in a sinking condition.

A FIGHT IN GREENWICH.

The Difference Between It and the "Foreign" Street Conflicts.

The girl was from the south, and the man had been showing her New York. They had been "doing" the various quarters which have sprung up here and there in the lower part of Manhattan. They had wandered through streets where the windows are painted in strange Greek letters. They had tasted chop suey in Chinatown, and she had shuddered at the sight of an opium den. Then down a short, narrow street they turned into old Mulberry bend, where thousands of Italians were congregated for a breathing spell.

She had not talked much during their wanderings, but she looked a great deal and was evidently thinking.

"How these children fight!" she exclaimed as they came upon two Italian boys who were hammering one who was smaller than either. "Can't you make them fight fair?"

He stopped the fight with difficulty and found that they were trying to make the smaller boy give up a nickel which he had found in the street. "These foreigners don't know anything about fighting fair, as we call it," he said.

"Have we seen all the quarters?" she asked.

"There's the American quarter."

"American quarter! I don't understand. How can you have an American quarter in this American city?"

"Because there are so many foreigners in this part of town. Our American quarter holds about 70,000 people. In the days when the city was small it was Greenwich village, then the old Ninth ward. Let's go over there."

They crossed town on a car and got out at Jefferson market. A few blocks brought them into the quarter. The people were almost as poor as any they had seen in the foreign quarters. But there was a difference. They were cleaner, they held up their heads, and the children were less noisy about their play. They turned a sharp corner which brought them into a square, in the center of which stood a crowd of boys.

"It's another fight," said the man, "an American fight this time. You'll see the difference."

The boys had formed a ring, in the center of which two youths of practically equal weight were fighting. One boy held a watch and at the end of three minutes called time. Both boys stopped fighting until told to begin again. When they had been fighting perhaps fifteen minutes both began to show signs of severe punishment. Then an older boy stepped into the ring.

"You kids have been fightin' long enough," he said. "Stop it or you'll hurt each other. I give the fight to 'Reddy.'"

The boys stopped at once, and there was nothing more said about it. "Reddy" didn't crow over his victory, but took it as a matter of course. The crowd melted away.

"Now, that was a fair fight," said the girl, "the way Americans should fight. I'm glad you brought me to the American quarter."

APHORISMS.

Rebellion against tyrants is obedience to God.—Franklin.

Riches are apt to betray a man into arrogance.—Addison.

Revenge is the abject pleasure of an abject mind.—Juvenal.

Responsibility walks hand in hand with capacity and power.—Holland.

He who is firm and resolute in will molds the world to himself.—Goethe.

No man has a right to do as he pleases except when he pleases to do right.—Simmons.

He who wishes to secure the good of others has already secured his own.—Confucius.

He that easily believes rumors has the principle within him to augment rumors.—Jane Porter.

The superiority of some men is merely local. They are great because their associates are little.—Johnson.

No man can be provident of his time who is not prudent in the choice of his companions.—Jeremy Taylor.

A kind heart is a fountain of gladness, making everything in its vicinity freshen into smiles.—Washington Irving.

Rage is essentially vulgar and never more vulgar than when it proceeds from mortified pride, disappointed ambition and thwarted willfulness.

Saltmaking In Spain.

The Spanish method of producing salt, as employed near Cadiz, is by allowing the sun to evaporate the water from what are known as "pans," small ponds prepared for the purpose of a uniform depth of about eighteen inches. These are flooded directly from the sea three or four times a year, and in time there is left a deposit of about three inches of salt, which is piled in the open in the form of small pyramids until sold. This method has the advantage of being inexpensive and of not requiring machinery. The only requisites are a hot sun and a soil which will not permit the water to filter through, as the salt in solution would then be lost. Something depends also upon the analysis of the water. For instance, the water of the Mediterranean has a greater specific gravity than that of the Atlantic.

Old Book Terms.

The words folio, quarto, octavo, duodecimo and the like have almost if not quite lost their original meaning. At first they had reference only to the number of leaves into which the sheets used in making the books were folded. Thus if these sheets were folded once so as to form two leaves or four pages the book was called a folio; if the sheets were folded twice so as to form four leaves, the book was called a quarto; if they were folded four times so as to form eight leaves, the book was called an octavo, and so on.

His Accomplishments.

Good Health

Is doubtless the highest human good. It is especially so to women, to whom it means the preservation of beauty, happiness in the home, and the enjoyment of social duties. There can be no good health for any woman who suffers from womanly diseases. Her complexion fails. Her flesh loses its firmness. Her eyes are dull. She has no home happiness, no social enjoyment.

Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures the diseases which destroy the health. It establishes regularity, dries disagreeable drains, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness. It gives good health to women, which means tranquil nerves, a good appetite and sound sleep.

"I was a great sufferer two years ago with female trouble and I wrote to you for advice," says Mrs. Mattie Hays, of Tribulation, McDonald Co., Missouri. "You outlined a course of treatment for me. I followed your directions, and now feel like a different person. I never expected to hear from you when I wrote to you. In three days after I commenced taking your medicines I began to feel better. I took twenty dollars' worth of the 'Favorite Prescription' and 'Golden Medical Discovery,' I bought it five dollars' worth at a time, and also four vials of Dr. Pierce's Pellets. I would not take one thousand dollars for the good the medicine has done me. I can't praise it enough. I wish all who suffer with such troubles would give Dr. Pierce's medicines a fair trial. I can work all day—doing anything, walk where I please, and feel good. Many thanks to you for your kind advice."

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser, in paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of customs and mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

A Serious Fire.

Hamilton, Dec. 5.— Fire was discovered in the Duncan Lithographing Company's premises, South MacNab street, about 6 o'clock yesterday morning, and, before it was extinguished, about $20,000 damage was done. Most of the mischief was done on the third floor where a large amount of stock and printed matter was destroyed. The machinery and stones on the first floors suffered rather badly. The total insurance is $17,000. The building, owned by John Proctor, is damaged to the extent of about $3,000.

Carnegie's Offer.

Montreal, Dec. 4.—Mr. Andrew Carnegie's offer of $150,000 for a public library in Montreal is for the building only. The city's annual contribution of $15,000 must provide the books and pay for the maintenance. This information has been conveyed to Mayor Prefontaine in a letter from Mr. Carnegie.

Nominations in Winnipeg.

Winnipeg, Dec. 4.—The civic nominations were held yesterday. Mayor Arbuthnot, D. A. Ross and Ald. Carruthers were nominated for the Mayoralty.

CURE SICK HEADACHE.

BLOOD POISON

If you ever contracted any blood disease you are never safe unless the virus or poison has been eradicated from the system. At times you see alarming symptoms, but live in hopes no serious results will follow. Have you any of the following symptoms? Sore Throat, Ulcers on the Tongue or in the Mouth, Hair Falling Out, Aching Pains, Itchiness of the Skin, Sores or Blotches on the Body, Eyes Red and Smart, Dyspeptic Stomach, Sexual Weakness—indications of the second stage. Don't trust to luck. Don't ruin your system with the old fogy treatment, —mercury and potash—which only suppresses the symptoms for a time, only to break out again, when happy in domestic life. Don't let quacks experiment on you. Our New Method Treatment is guaranteed to cure you. Our guarantees are backed by bank bonds, that the disease will never return. Thousands of patients have been already cured by our New Method Treatment for over twenty years. No experiment, no risk—not a "patch-up," but a positive cure. The worst cases solicited. We treat and cure Nervous Debility, Sexual Weakness, Gleet, Blood Poison, Stricture, Varicocele, Kidney and Bladder Diseases, and all diseases peculiar to men and women.

EIGHT CONVINCING REASONS . . .

WHY YOU SHOULD INSURE IN

THE IMPERIAL LIFE ASSURANCE CO'Y OF CANADA.

1. It is a purely Canadian Company, having all its funds invested in Canadian securities, and transacting business only in Canada.

2. It maintains the largest Government Deposit of any Canadian Life Insurance Company.

3. It maintains relatively the strongest policy reserves of any Canadian Life Insurance Company.

4. Its past record — the greatest guarantee of the future — has been unparalleled in Canadian life insurance.

5. Its policy contract is one of the most liberal issued, consistent with safety and equity.

6. It has a Capital of $1,000,000, which makes policy-holders' security unquestionable. At the same time, the assured is practically in the same position regarding profits as if he held a policy in a mutual company, the Imperial's charter providing that at least 90 per cent. of all profits shall be divided amongst policy-holders.

7. For every $100 of liability to policy-holders it holds $120 of securely invested assets. These assets are all of the highest order, and will bear the closest scrutiny.

8. An Imperial policy never depreciates in value, but, on the contrary, is constantly becoming more valuable. It is the most valuable estate you can leave behind you.

A. P. POUSSETTE VS. DICKSON COMPANY.

Mr. Clarke's request, however, that he be allowed to put in further evidence was acceded to by Justice Meredith.

Continuing, to Mr. Watson Mr. Poussette stated that he ante-dated the agreement in order that Mr.Starr might use it in his trial. He was secretary and solicitor of the company and owed them obligations as such. His course of action did not conflict with this. He thought he should give Mr. Starr the document when he demanded it. As he was acting with Mr. Starr he would be also benefitted. In helping Mr.Starr he was helping himself. He had disclosed nothing about the ante-dated document in his affidavit of disclosure, as he had been advised that this had nothing to do with his own action. His counsel knew nothing of any letters between himself and Mr. Starr concerning the deal. He had said nothing about them, and did not expect them to be produced. He had to-day rebuked Mr. Caldwell, who had been given copies of the letters, as one interested in the deal, for handing them over to the defendants. He could not account for Mr. Starr stating in a previous examination that the agreement of sale had been dated at the time of its execution. He told the company at the time Starr issued his writ, that he could give no advice to them, as he was interested in the case. He was asked for a "statement of facts." He gave one which was full enough. He said nothing of the ante-dating of the agreement in his statement of claim.

Q.—Did not your duty and your your personal interests conflict?

A.—I don't know how to answer that; I didn't consider I owed the company a duty.

Q.—Yet you were secretary of the ...pany?

A.—Yes.

Q.—You were paid a salary, too, this time as solicitor?

A.—Yes, I was under salary.

Q.—You can see no breach of duty on your part?

A.—That is what I say.

Q.—If there was a breach of duty would you bring this action anyway?

A.—I don't know.

Q.—At the time Mr. McLaren was given a second option on the limits did you tell the company of your ante-dated agreement of sale with Mr. Starr?

A.—No.

Q.—You wanted an option in your name or Mr. Starr's?

A.—Yes;

Q.—You wanted it so that you would make your profits?

A.—Yes;

Q.—You didn't disclose to the company that you had made a sale to Mr. Starr?

A.—No;

Witness continuing stated that Mr. Caldwell, who had been instrumental in interesting Mr. McLaren in the purchase of the limits was to receive $7,500 from the expected profits of the witness' and Mr. J. B. McWilliams, who had valuated the limits, was to receive $15,000 for his trouble. He had not told the company that he was going to give Mr. McWilliams this sum. It was to come out of his own profits.

Mr. McWilliams proposed finding the money for the whole exploit at one time. As he had helped materially, witness always intended to give him a good round sum. Mr. McWilliams had made a report on the limits to him. He had not given this report to his principals. He had not told Mr. Hazlitt of it. At this time he was still acting for the company as an agent of sale. He did not consider he was under any obligation to show this valuation to them. It was true as stated in his letters to Mr. Starr that a number of citizens supposed to have influence with the ladies of the company had been secured to assist in getting them to agree to the sale to Mr. Starr. These ladies were members of the company which was paying him his salary for his services.

Extracts were read from a number of letters between witness and Starr in connection with the manner in which this influence was secured.

Witness remembered that his partner, Mr. Starr, had written to Mr. McLaren asking him to bring an action against the company for not carrying out the original agreement in regard to the sale. He had himself expressed the wish that Mr. McLaren would issue a writ.

Q.—So that you were hoping and advising other people to bring an action against your own clients?

A.—I expected a breach with them almost daily as the relations were becoming much strained.

Witness admitted writing a letter to Starr telling him if he saw anything in the Ottawa papers, or "thought he saw anything," relative to the fall in value of timber limits, to let him know, and it would have the effect of scaring h—— out of the ladies and induce them to sell.

Mr. Watson—"And this is the faithful secretary and solicitor?"

Q—By your correspondence with Starr you deliberately worked with your client to get him to lower the price of the property for your own benefit.

A.—My client was able to take care of himself.

Witness admitted writing a letter to Starr stating that timber limit values were going up by leaps and bounds, and it was difficult to keep the company in the dark concerning the fact.

Another letter to Mr. Starr from Mr. Poussette referring to keeping Hon. Mr. Dobell from making a bid for the property directly to the Dickson Company was read.

Mr. Watson — That is, Mr. Poussette, you did not wish anyone to negotiate with the Dickson Company but yourself and Mr. Starr?

A.—That was the idea.

The court then adjourned for the day.

THURSDAY MORNING.

A great deal of correspondence was filed this morning as between plaintiff and Mr. Starr, from which passages were submitted by Mr. Watson in his endeavour to show that there was in reality no bona fide sale as regarded Mr. Starr. Mr. Clark objected to letters being received as not affecting the case, but Justice Meredith held that they made important evidence on the point Mr. Watson was trying to make.

Mention was made in the letters of the fact that Mr. Chas. McGill, general manager of the Ontario Bank, who was one of the shareholders, and Mr. Richard Hall, were opposed to the sale, and had advised against it on account of the security they objected to.

Witness stated that he had been dismissed from the company, but up to that time had given no hint to the company of the alleged sale to Starr or of any claim which he, himself, intended to make. Mr. Starr had written many times to him to secure a new option. This was not to make good the present claim for damages.

Mr Watson—I propose putting in some twenty-five letters which will show that Mr. Starr wanted the option for that very purpose.

Mr. Poussette—I have no recollection of it, but if the letters say that is the case it must be so.

Correspondence between Mr Starr and Mr. Poussette in which each impugned the honesty of the other was excluded.

Witness had tried to persuade Mr. McGill to accept the security offered by Mr Starr. Mr. McGill would not even accept of a cash offer. Mr. Starr wanted to give a mortgage of $125,00 on a portion of the property valued by the company at $253,000. Mr McGill would not countenance this. Witness had nothing to do with the sale to the Cereal Company. He simply drew the conveyances, etc. This was the sale which he was waiting to see consummated before beginning his action against the company. He had estimated the value of the land sold to the Cereal Co at $160,000 in making the offer to Mr. Starr. It was sold for $400,000.

NO CLEMENCY

In the Cases of George A. Foy and Robert Smith now in the Central

This morning His Worship Mayor Denne received two letters from Joseph Pope, Under Secretary of the State, in reference to the petition from the people of this vicinity, asking that His Excellency the Governor General exercise his prerogative of clemency in the case of Robert Smith and George A. Foy, who are now serving terms in the Central Prison. The letters state that His Excellency does not intend interfering in the matter, so that the two convicts will have to serve out the full term.

Smith, it will be remembered, was sentenced for stealing copper wire from the Canadian General Electric Company, while Foy's crime is that of forgery and horse stealing, which offences were committed about a year ago.

REMARKABLE DISCERNMENT.

The Reading of Character, Disposition, Health and Events of Life by a Scientific Palmist and Phrenologist.

Prof. O'Brien, phrenologist and scientific palmist, who arrived in town about ten days ago, has been holding a remarkably successful series of demonstrations in the occult sciences at his offices on Reid street. Ever since the first day he was announced his rooms have been crowded. During the ten days he has diagnosed one hundred and thirty Peterborough citizens, and many others have called, whom he has been unable to wait upon. The Professor keeps a book for registering the names of his patrons, and the record in Peterborough shows the above number of genuine signatures up to the time of writing.

The general opinion expressed of Prof. O'Brien's delineations by those who have visited him is that he is wonderfully accurate. Numbers who called upon him quite sceptical of his ability, have come away surprised and convinced. Intelligent men and women frankly tell the same story that the Professor is a conscientious and careful student, decidely original, and successful in his methods. The Professor disclaims and resents all references to himself as a "fortune teller." He is an enthusiastic investigator with a legitimate science, which he has established through the Toronto courts, where he proved that what he demonstrated was not chance but carefully studied facts.

The Professor does not pretend to reveal in detail the future. He can describe your disposition, diagnose state of health, and tell you that at certain periods of your life such and such influences will be brought to bear upon your mind and career. He gives you the outlines of your career and advises and counsels young and old for their best interests.

CAPTURED 3 LAAGERS

Two Hundred and Fifty Boers Taken in One Day.

LARGEST CAPTURE IN LONG TIME

Gen. Bruce Hamilton, Near Ermelo—Gen. Methuen in Northwest Transvaal, and Major Dawkins—There Were Few Casualties—Dutch Government in Answer to Socialists Say Tribe They Cannot Intervene.

Pretoria, Dec. 5.—The largest capture of Boers made in many months occurred to-day when three columns secured an aggregate of 250 prisoners.

General Bruce Hamilton, near Ermolo; Major Dawkins, in the Westbury district, and General Mathuen in Northwest Transvaal, rounded up three laagers, with only a few casualties on either side.

They Cannot Interfere.

The Hague, Dec. 6.—The attempt of the Socialists in the Chamber to induce the Foreign Office to intervene in South Africa failed again yesterday, the Foreign Minister, Melvil Van Lyndon, informing the interpellators that the Government could not interfere in regard to the concentration camps except to relieve its own subjects, and could not take the initiative in any appeal to the powers.

Boers Are British.

Pietermaritzburg, Dec. 5.—Several Boers in the concentration camps in Natal have applied for and obtained leave to join the burgher corps forming in Pretoria. Others are contentedly working as navvies for different building firms here. The ladies of Pietermaritzburg on Saturday stood at street corners collecting funds for Christmas comforts for the troops. A gratifying feature was that several Boers voluntarily contributed, although earning very small wages.

Yates Asks Aid for Boers.

Springfield, Ill., Dec. 6.— Governor Yates last night issued a proclamation calling attention to the destitute and helpless condition of Boer women, children and other non-combatants, now confined in British military camps in South Africa, and calling upon all charitably disposed and humane citizens of Illinois to contribute money, medicine, food and clothing for use of the sick and needy prisoners in these camps.

Troopers From Malta.

London, Dec. 6.—In addition to the troops already announced as being under orders to sail for South Africa, it has now been decided, according to the Press Association, to send three companies of mounted infantry from Malta.

DECREASE OF SURRENDERS.

Weak-Hearted of Enemy Have Now Made Their Submission.

London, Dec. 6.—A despatch from Cape Town says: The "Argus" publishes the following summary of the weekly official reports of the Boer losses issued since May, 1, 1901: . 965 Boers killed, 785 wounded, 5,836 prisoners, 1,724 surrenders and 4,127 rifles, 592,526 rounds of ammunition, 4,852 wagons, 44,055 horses, and 128,359 cattle captured.

Lord Kitchener's weekly return accounts for 277 Boers, as against 356, 317 and 337 for the three previous weeks. The number of surrenders is the lowest recorded, being five, as against six last week, so it may be assumed that all the weak-hearted with the enemy have now made their submission.

In the Orange River Colony a new line of blockhouses is being carried out eastwards from Kroonstad. In Cape Colony the enemy are still being pressed, but another commando has crossed to the south of the Orange.

BRITISH TRANSPORTS

Will Convey the Third Canadian Contingent to South Africa.

THE MANHATTAN AND THE RANEE

How the Men Will Travel to Halifax the Place of Concentration—Staff of Col. Evans—Officers Recommended for Commission—With One Exception, Major Merritt, They Are All From the West.

Ottawa, Dec. 6.—The Minister of Militia has received a cablegram stating that the War Office is sending its own transports to Halifax, the Manhattan and the Ranee. The former vessel has a capacity for 17 officers, 450 men and 520 horses, and the latter can accommodate 20 officers, 450 men and 200 horses. The dates of arrival are not given. It has been definitely decided that all the troops are to proceed to Halifax for concentration, and they will be quartered in the Exhibition buildings there. The men from western Canada will be transported by the C.P.R. to Montreal. Those from Ontario will travel by the Grand Trunk. From Montreal the troops will be carried by the Intercolonial Railway to Halifax. Mr. Harland Smith, who is purchasing the mounts, has been instructed, at the request of the Quebec Minister of Agriculture, to visit Montreal, St. Hyacinthe and Quebec in order to see if suitable horses can be obtained at those points. Col. Borden stated last night that the names of the officers recommended for commissions will not be given to the public until they have been approved by the War Office. It may be stated, however, that the position of Quartermaster has been given to Quartermaster-Sergeant Graham of the Mounted Rifles, Winnipeg. The staff of the force will therefore consist of Commandant, Lieut.-Col. Evans; second in command, Major Hamilton Merritt; medical officer, Surgeon-Lieutenant Devine, Winnipeg; veterinary officer, Dr. Riddell, Winnipeg; adjutant, Sergt.-Major Church, N.W.M.P.; Quartermaster, Sergt.-Maj. Graham, Winnipeg.

Many Are Offering.

Winnipeg, Dec. 6.—It is more than evident that a great many of the western men who are anxious to go to South Africa with the Canadian Mounted Infantry will be disappointed, for, though the actual recruiting does not commence for over a week, some 200 have expressed a desire to enlist. The official number for Winnipeg is twenty. Dr. A. J. Devine is making all preparations to report at Ottawa Dec. 12, and considers himself very fortunate in having been chosen from so many. It is reported at the C.M.R. barracks that several officers who have applied for commissions in the new contingent will try and get a place in the ranks if their applications are not favorably considered at headquarters. Among the Strathconas there is hardly a man but is anxious to re-enlist, though many of them stated on their return that one experience was sufficient.

Pte. Hornibrook Accepted.

Toronto, Dec. 6.—Pte. J. L. Hornibrook has been accepted by Col. Otter for the third contingent and will leave for Ottawa next Tuesday. Pte. Hornibrook is the soldier who captured Cronje's adjutant at Paardeburg and who was mentioned by Col. Otter in the despatches. He has just completed a two months' course of instruction at Stanley Barracks.

UNKNOWN WENT DOWN.

All Hands on Board Perished Before Assistance Could Reach Her.

Halifax, Dec. 6.—Much damage has been done along the Nova Scotian coast by last night's storm. Shipping has suffered severely, and some loss of life has been reported. The schooner Soudan was driven ashore on the beach near St. Peter Canal and is considerably damaged. The schooner Harvest Holme broke from her anchorage in North Sydney Harbor, and the crew saved themselves from being driven to sea by beaching her. She is considerably damaged. In the Bay of Fundy several vessels had their sails carried away. Captain Peary of the schooner Elma reports that early yesterday morning in the bay he sighted an unknown vessel in a sinking condition and bore down on her, but before he could render any assistance she went down with all hands. The captain of the Prince Rupert, which arrived at Digby yesterday, reports having passed a vessel partly submerged. He ran around the vessel, but there were no signs of life. The two missing barges have been sighted along the main coast.

British Barque Helpless.

Bridgeport, Conn., Dec. 6.—The British barque Bristol of Windsor, N.S., from New York, was yesterday morning lying off Penfield Reef in distress, with sails and sheets frozen, and seven of her crew helpless from exposure. Captain D. E. Sanford of the Bristol came ashore on an oyster steamer. He communicated with R. Grace & Company, New York, and the latter firm will immediately despatch a tug to tow the Bristol to New York. Captain Sanford says that seven of the vessel's crew are badly frozen about the feet and hands and the other seven men on board are worn out by the trying experiences and work of Monday night and Tuesday, are unable to handle the sails.

THE WEST HURON LIBERAL VICTORY.

The result of the bye-election in West Huron, which gave the Liberal candidate the seat by a majority of 300, is a notable victory for the Ross Government. Ever since Hon. Mr. Ross took office, the Conservative journals have been sounding the doom of the Ross Administration, and asserting that the electors only wanted a chance to show their condemnation of the Government. The electors have had several chances. Since Mr Ross took office there has been some half-dozen by-elections, and the uniform result has been the return of the Liberal candidates by acclamation, or by largely increased majorities. And the most remarkable increase of Mr. Garrow's majority in West Huron on Wednesday gives the most gratifying evidence of the popularity of the Government, and of the confidence of the people in its platform and policy. West Huron is a close constituency. In the past eleven years there have been, including the last, 5 elections, and though the Liberal candidate was successful, the average majority in four contests was a little short of sixty. Then comes the last election, with its splendid majority of 300. Will Mr. Whitney and the other opponents of the Government, assert that this is evidence of the waning popularity of the Ross Government. On the contrary, it is an indication of an exactly opposite condition. The election contest was fought out under conditions which afforded a most admirable test. The Conservative candidate was a man of the widest local popularity, and in this respect he had better chances than any other candidate who could have been selected. The Conservative leaders threw their whole strength into the fight. All their prominent speakers were in the riding, and no stone was left unturned to to secure a victory against the Government. Yet we find that the do-nothing policy of the Opposition, and the broad, energetic progressive policy of the Ross Government, were a combination that neutralised the personal popularity and personal merits of the very strongest candidate the Opposition could place in the field. Mr. Whitney and the Opposition could not wish for a better opportunity and more favourable circumstances for testing the respective popularity with the public, of their policy and platform and the policy and platform of the Ross Government. The result in West Huron has developed the weakness of the Opposition and the strength of the Government in a most decided way. It was good politics for Mr. Whitney and the Opposition to try their very best as they did do, to give the Government candidate a sound drubbing. Had they succeeded, they could have said, to the neutral element in politics, "If you want to be on the winning side in the general elections come into the Opposition camp, see how we slaughtered the Government candidate. That is a sample of what we will do when the big fight comes on." But with the most determined efforts they only scored a disastrous defeat. Now in the splendid victory in West Huron they see a dark look-out for success in the coming general electral contest. The result in West Huron is a type of the general result. The people of that riding were well informed on public questions. The ablest speakers on both sides presented the case fully, and the deliberate judgment of the electors splendidly upholding the position of the Liberal Government is an indication of the result of the appeal that will be made to a wider field under similar circumstances of enlightenment of the electorate on public questions and upon the relative merits of the Government and Opposition policy and practice. The Ross Government is all right; its aim is to serve the best interests of the people of the province, and by an energetic and progressive policy, to "build up Ontario." Their progressive policy is in sympathy with the aims and aspirations of the most progressive people of the best province in Confederation.

"BUILD UP ONTARIO."

To build up Ontario is the aim and object of the Ross Government, and the following is the policy by which this is to be effected:

1. To aid settlement and increase prosperity by trunk colonisation roads and railways in order to make homes for the sons of Ontario, who otherwise might seek a home in another province or under another flag.

2. To apply a reasonable portion of the waste lands of the Province in aid of railways — the lands to revert to the Crown if not settled within a reasonable time.

3. To assist the Dominion Government in obtaining the quick and cheap transportation of the products of the farm, especially of horses cattle and dressed beef, to the markets of Great Britain, and to improve local transportation within the province by means of good roads, the removal of tolls, and cheap electric railways.

4. To expand and increase our agricultural wealth by improved methods of Husbandry, fruit-growing, cold storage, dairying, and the production of beet root sugar, and by reclaiming the undrained lands of the province.

5. To control and regulate the rate for passengers and freight on all railways subsidized by the province, and the ultimate control of such railways by the expressed will of the Legislature.

6. To manufacture within the province, and so far as practicable by Canadians, the products of our forest, such as pine and spruce, into lumber and pulp, and to smelt and refine our mineral products, such as iron, nickel and copper ore for the markets of the world.

7. To deal with our forest wealth with a view to its perpetuation by re-forestry, timber reserves and parks.

8. To insist upon the control of all local rights and franchises, so far as practicable, by the municipalities to which they properly belong.

9. To maintain with a firm hand the rights of Ontario against any other province or the Dominion.

10. To enforce all laws enacted for the protection of public morality with firmness and impartiality.

11. To improve the practical education of the artisan classes by the establishment of technical schools as is now done in England and the United States.

12. To maintain the efficiency of our system of education and to administer the same in the interests of the whole people, irrespective of class or creed.

Evidence of the fitness of the Government to carry out a policy like the above is to be had even from an enemy as shown by the following tribute to Hon. Geo. W. Ross, Premier of Ontario, by Sir Charles Tupper, ex-leader of the Conservative party:—"Mr. Ross is the ablest political leader that ever handled a party."

THE CHARITY OF ALL CHARITIES.

THE CARE OF THE SICK CHILDREN.

What The Hospital for Sick Children on College Street, Toronto, Has Done and Is Doing for the Little Sufferers of the Province of Ontario.

An institution that requires about $34,000 a year for maintenance, an institution that depends for support on the goodness of the generous people of the Province of Ontario, must needs have considerable faith in the love, affection and generosity of the people.

While the institution is located in Toronto its work is essentially provincial. It admits not only children from the city of Toronto but from every city, town, village and hamlet, yes, from every spot in the Province of Ontario.

So when you give—be your giving large or small—it goes for the benefit of every child of the province that is admitted and treated.

This statement is made because occasional reference is made to the Hospital as a Toronto institution for Toronto patients, whereas every sick child in Ontario has the same rights and privileges as those who live within the shadow of the great red pile on College street.

It costs about $34,000 per year, or a dollar per patient, per day, to maintain the Hospital. The Government of the province gives about $7,000 a year, or nearly eighteen cents per head, in other words, per patient per day. This amount is all expended in maintenance. The corporation of the City of Toronto does even more. It gives $7,500 per year or eighteen cents per head per day, and this too goes towards the maintenance, not only of Toronto patients, but for every patient in the Hospital, no matter from what part of the province the little one may come from. Yes, and this contribution of the corporation is increased by from $4,000 to $6,000 donated by citizens of Toronto for the maintenance of all patients, to say nothing of the $4,000 contributed yearly by Toronto people, the founders of maintained and named cots in the building.

During its lifetime the Hospital has handled 8,000 indoor patients and of these 4,000 were cured, and 2,700 were improved. Of these—and please note this—1,757 came from 1,205 places in Ontario and outside the city of Toronto.

Ten years ago the Hospital carried a heavy burden of debt. The building and its furnishings cost $150,000 and of this $20,000 was paid by the corporation of Toronto and $60,000 by its citizens. Year by year the debt has been reduced and it is now down to $13,000.

To clear the indebtedness this appeal is made. Hospital work cannot be carried on without money. Interest on mortgages has to be paid. An army of workers has to live. Nurses, domestics, officials are all human. They earn their wages whether they live in or ont of the Hospital.

A hundred and twenty children per day—yes, in some months a hundred and forty—once it was a hundred and fifty—all these to look after and care for. Thirty nurses continually at work. A half-dozen maids with brooms and dusters; cooks and table maids to prepare the food and serve it, clerks in the office who work like beavers, typewriters who tap the keys of their machines for hours a day, answering sheaves of letters, preparing accounts, watching every doing in the immense building on College street, that never closes night or day—all the year round—a hive of two hundred people, small and large, a little town doing what it can for God's suffering little ones.

True, it is, that some have to pay—yes, all who can afford it are expected to pay—but those who cannot pay and can produce the certificate of a clergyman or known ratepayer of the province to the effect that they are too poor to pay, can have maintenance and treatment free of charge.

If all could pay there would be no need to appeal for money, but eighty per cent. of the work is free work for the children of those who cannot afford to pay.

Fancy a great family of nearly one hundred and fifty sick children. You who have had perhaps one or two sick little ones at your own home, therefore know something of the work, but when you visit Toronto drop in and see what they are doing to win back little ones from the grave.

It would only weary the reader to go on with more story. This year a giant effort is being made to clear away the debt. Every dollar of this debt handicaps the Trustees. Every dollar sent in helps to lighten the load that is being carried.

If every reader would send but a dollar what a grand fund would be raised in a few weeks of time. Let every one who can spare a dollar, send it to Douglas Davidson, the Secretary-Treasurer of the Hospital, or to J. Ross Robertson, the Chairman of the Trust. And please send it in at once, for even the best of us are prone to forget our best intentions.

Halifax Board of Trade Takes the Initiative in Urging a Transfer of Intercolonial Railway to the C.P.R.

Halifax, Dec. 6.—The Halifax Board of Trade, at a special meeting, held yesterday afternoon, unanimously passed a resolution favoring the transfer of the management of the Intercolonial to the Canadian Pacific Railway.

The board also passed the following:

Therefore, Resolved, that this board communicate with the several Boards of Trade throughout the Dominion, and ask if they would unite in a memorial to the Federal Government favoring the transfer of the management of the Intercolonial Railway to the Canadian Pacific Company, provided such arrangements could be made with the company as would retain Government ownership of the road, promote local traffic and lead to the extensive development of Canada in export and import business, through the ports of Quebec, St. John, Halifax and Sydney.

A strong resolution was also passed urging upon the Dominion Government the necessity of establishing a fast steamship service. The resolution calls for a line of steamers equal to any running out of the port of New York.

Fruit Growers Want Department to Supply Practical Information.

Cobourg, Dec. 6.—At yesterday's session of the Ontario Fruit Growers' Association, Treasurer Woolverton read his report, showing that $7,000 had been expended in the interests of the industry.

A resolution was passed asking the Minister of Agriculture to issue a series of practical bulletins on the first principles of fruit growing.

Prof. Robertson, Ottawa, addressed the association for an hour on "Our Export Trade Fruits," saying the cold storage on shipboard was now fairly satisfactory.

E. D. Smith of Winona, Mr. Sheppard of Montreal, and G. E. Fisher of Burlington gave their experience of cold storage shipments, some showing excellent results.

H. W. Dawson of Toronto spoke on "Freight Rates"; Mr. Jackson of Port Hope gave an address on "Rose Culture" and J. E. Orr of Fruitland pointed out many mistakes in the application of spraying mixtures. The latter succeeded in keeping the scab off his Flemish Beauty pears and the rot off his cherry trees, while his neighbors' unsprayed trees produced no fruit fit for market.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier Will Attend Reception to Hon. Mr. Mulock.

Toronto, Dec. 6.—The meeting of the committee having charge of the arrangements for the reception to Hon. Wm. Mulock, Postmaster-General and Minister of Labor, was largely attended yesterday afternoon. Mr. R. C. Steele, President of the Mulock Club, presided. A letter was read stating that Sir Wilfrid Laurier will be present at the reception, and the committee decided to engage Massey Hall for the occasion. The first gallery will be reserved for ladies and their escorts. A number of committees were appointed, and Mr. E. T. Malone consented to act as Treasurer. It was also decided to open an office temporarily at 34 Victoria street, room 34, where the Secretary can be found at all convenient times for the purposes of the reception.

The German Tariff Bill.

Berlin, Dec. 6.—The most insignificant looking man in the Reichstag, Herr Bebel, broke its didactic monotony yesterday and lifted the tariff debate to emotional levels. Herr Bebel spoke to the breathless galleries. He often provoked his opponents, but sometimes he even enthralled them.

Herr Bebel, inspired by the tempestuous temper of the House, exclaimed: "This bill foments insurrection. The Chancellor aims to overrun Social order; we shall do our utmost to send this bill to Hades, and we only regret we can not send its authors and abettors there also."

Herr Moeller, the Minister of Commerce, said he regarded the new tariff as an effective weapon in the hands of the Government to force more conclusion favorable commercial treaties. The Reichstag then adjourned.

P. E. I. and Mainland.

Montreal, Dec. 6.—Hon. R. C. McLeod and W. A. Brannon of Summerside, arrived here yesterday from Ottawa, where they had been representing the Summerside Board of Trade in negotiations with the Acting Minister of Marine, in the matter of winter communication between Prince Edward Island and the mainland. The delegates report that as soon as the Point Du Chene route closes the Government steamer Stanley will be put in between Summerside and Tormentine, and thence by Senator Woods' Railway to Sackville on the I.C.R. The distance from Summerside to Tormentine is 17 miles, and Mr. McLeod says the Stanley will make the trip in one hour.

Teacher Saved Them.

Kingston, Dec. 6.—William Walker, Charles Grant and Harold Genge of Verona were skating on Rock Lake when they ventured out too far, broke through and went down. They were struggling in the water when Mr. Brown, their school teacher, noted their condition and gallantly risked his life in rescuing them.

Chinese Arrested.

Ogdensburg, Dec. 6.—Fourteen Chinamen, arrested near Rouse's Point, were brought here yesterday and committed by Commissioner Gray to jail for unlawfully entering this country. Two boys, 8 years old, are among them.

Earnings of C.N.

Montreal, Dec. 6.—Premier Roblin announced here yesterday that the Canadian Northern was already earning $130,000 a week, against a fixed charge and interest account of $29,000, and in other words will be able to pay all charges and a 4 per cent. dividend on a capital of $25,000,000.

The British ship Nelson, reported as having been lost off the Columbia River, is being towed into Port Townsend by the San Francisco steamship Walla Walla.

Spencer Eddy, first secretary of the United States Legation at Constantinople, has received a message via Saloniea that the American missionary, Miss Stone, and her companion, Mme. Tsilka, were well Dec. 2nd.

At St. Catharines on Thursday Mr. Thomas B. Bate, of the firm of Taylor & Bate, brewers, died at his home. He was born in Truro, Cornwall, England, in 1830, and came to this country when but a boy. He leaves seven sons and three daughters.

Reed Hill of Milwaukee, chief engineer on the steamer Homer Warren, was killed by a train in North Tonawanda Thursday night. Hill and a companion were on their way up town. Hill slipped and fell between the tracks. He leaves a wife and family in Milwaukee.

Nervous Dyspepsia.

A CURE FOR IT.

Not a Patent Cure all, nor a Modern Miracle but Simply a Rational Cure for Dyspepsia.

In these days of humbuggery and deception, the manufacturers of patent medicines, as a rule, seem to think their medicines will not sell unless they claim that it will cure every disease under the sun. And they never think of leaving out dyspepsia and stomach troubles. They are sure to claim that their nostrum is absolutely certain to cure every dyspeptic and he need look no farther.

In the face of these absurd claims it is refreshing to note that the proprietors of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets have carefully refrained from making undue claims or false representations regarding the merits of this most excellent remedy for dyspepsia and stomach troubles. They make but one claim for it, and that is, that for indigestion and various stomach troubles Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is a radical cure. They go no farther than this and any man or woman suffering from indigestion, chronic or nervous dyspepsia, who will give the remedy a trial will find that nothing is claimed for it, that the facts will not fully sustain.

It is a modern discovery, composed of harmless vegetable ingredients acceptable to the weakest or most delicate stomach. Its great success in curing stomach troubles is due to the fact that the medical properties are such that it will digest whatever wholesome food is taken into the stomach, no matter whether the stomach is in good working order or not. It rests the over-worked organ and replenishes the body, the blood, the nerves, creating a healthy appetite, gives refreshing sleep and the blessings which always accompany a good digestion and proper assimilation of food.

In using Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets no dieting is required. Simply eat plenty of wholesome food and take these Tablets at each meal, thus assisting and resting the stomach which rapidly regains its proper digestive power, when the Tablets will be no longer required.

Nervous Dyspepsia is simply a condition in which some portion or portions of the nervous system are not properly nourished. Good digestion invigorates the nervous system and every organ in the body.

Any druggist will tell you Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets give universal satisfaction.

Fatal Coal Gas.

Picton, Dec. 6.—Yesterday afternoon, when a neighbor went into the residence occupied by Mrs. Martha McKibbon, it was found that coal gas was escaping from the stove and upon investigation Mrs. McKibbon was found unconscious. Upon a physician being called, it was found that she had been dead for several hours. Mrs. McKibbon was a widow of about 70 years, who had been living alone since her late husband's death last summer. She leaves three children.

Strathcona's Condition.

Ottawa, Dec. 6.—Mr. Colmer cables to Sir Wilfrid Laurier as follows:

Doctors authorize the following statement yesterday morning: Lord Strathcona has had an attack of influenza, followed by sub-acute inflammation of the ear; the condition has nothing to do with the fall Lord Strathcona sustained in Montreal and from which he has entirely recovered.

Pill Manufacturers Enraged.

The makers of all the various pills on the market are greatly troubled over the new medicine, Merrill's System Tonic. It is doing away with their business. System Tonic is not only a positive cure for Habitual Constipation, but a blood purifier and builder as well as a tonic for every organ in the body. One 50c. bottle cures to stay cured. Superior to other tribes in intellect and physique, they carry on the practices of slave-raiding and human sacrifice.

Speaker's Sore Throat.

Public speakers and singers know how useless and sickening are cough mixtures, sprays, lozenges, etc., etc., for irritable and sore throat, and state that the most satisfactory remedy is Catarrhozone, the advantage of which is that it acts quickly and is convenient to use in public places. Catarrhozone relieves congestion, allays inflammation, and is a protection to the membrane. As a safeguard against colds and catarrh it has no equal. Rev. Dr. McKay, of Goderich, says, "Catarrhozone is an excellent remedy for throat irritation, arising from colds." Physicians, ministers and singers recommend Catarrhozone; druggists sell it for $1. Brannon of Summerside, arrived here yesterday from Ottawa, where they had been representing the Summerside Board of Trade in negotiations with the Acting Minister of Marine, in the matter of winter communication between Prince Edward Island and the mainland. The delegates report that as soon as the Point Du Chene route closes the Government steamer Stanley will be put in between Summerside and Tormentine, and thence by Senator Woods' Railway to Sackville on the I.C.R. The distance from Summerside to Tormentine is 17 miles, and Mr. McLeod says the Stanley will make the trip in one hour.

Teacher Saved Them.

Kingston, Dec. 6.—William Walker, Charles Grant and Harold Genge of Verona were skating on Rock Lake when they ventured out too far, broke through and went down. They were struggling in the water when Mr. Brown, their school teacher, noted their condition and gallantly risked his life in rescuing them.

Chinese Arrested.

Ogdensburg, Dec. 6.—Fourteen Chinamen, arrested near Rouse's Point, were brought here yesterday and committed by Commissioner Gray to jail for unlawfully entering this country. Two boys, 8 years old, are among them.

Earnings of C.N.

Montreal, Dec. 6.—Premier Roblin announced here yesterday that the Canadian Northern was already earning $180,000 a week, against a fixed charge and interest account of $29,000, and in other words will be able to pay all charges and a 4 per cent. dividend on a capital of $25,000,000.

Nervous Dyspepsia.

A CURE FOR IT.

Not a Patent Cure all, nor a Modern Miracle but Simply a Rational Cure for Dyspepsia.

In these days of humbuggery and deception, the manufacturers of patent medicines, as a rule, seem to think their medicines will not sell unless they claim that it will cure every disease under the sun. And they never think of leaving out dyspepsia and stomach troubles. They are sure to claim that their nostrum is absolutely certain to cure every dyspeptic and he need look no farther.

In the face of these absurd claims it is refreshing to note that the proprietors of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets have carefully refrained from making undue claims or false representations regarding the merits of this most excellent remedy for dyspepsia and stomach troubles. They make but one claim for it, and that is, that for indigestion and various stomach troubles Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is a radical cure. They go no farther than this and any man or woman suffering from indigestion, chronic or nervous dyspepsia, who will give the remedy a trial will find that nothing is claimed for it, that the tests will not fully sustain.

It is a modern discovery, composed of harmless vegetable ingredients acceptable to the weakest or most delicate stomach. Its great success in curing stomach troubles is due to the fact that the medical properties are such that it will digest whatever wholesome food is taken into the stomach, no matter whether the stomach is in good working order or not. It rests the over-worked organ and replenishes the body, the blood, the nerves, creating a healthy appetite, gives refreshing sleep and the blessings which always accompany a good digestion and proper assimilation of food.

In using Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets no dieting is required. Simply eat plenty of wholesome food and take these Tablets at each meal, thus assisting and resting the stomach which rapidly regains its proper digestive power, when the Tablets will be no longer required.

Nervous Dyspepsia is simply a condition in which some portion or portions of the nervous system are not properly nourished. Good digestion invigorates the nervous system and every organ in the body.

Any druggist will tell you Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets give universal satisfaction. They are sold at 50 cents per package.

Fatal Coal Gas.

Picton, Dec. 6.—Yesterday afternoon, when a neighbor went into the residence occupied by Mrs. Martha McKibbon, it was found that coal gas was escaping from the stove and upon investigation Mrs. McKibbon was found unconscious. Upon a physician being called, it was found that she had been dead for several hours. Mrs. McKibbon was a widow of about 70 years, who had been living alone since her late husband's death last summer. She leaves three children.

Strathcona's Condition.

Ottawa, Dec. 6.—Mr. Colmer cables to Sir Wilfrid Laurier as follows:

Doctors authorize the following statement yesterday morning: Lord Strathcona has had an attack of influenza, followed by sub-acute inflammation of the ear; the condition has nothing to do with the fall Lord Strathcona sustained in Montreal and from which he has entirely recovered.

Pill Manufacturers Enraged.

The makers of all the various pills on the market are greatly troubled over the new medicine, Merrill's System Tonic. It is doing away with their business. System Tonic is not only a positive cure for Habitual Constipation, but a blood purifier and builder as well as a tonic for every organ in the body. One 50c. bottle cures to stay cured. Massacre in West Africa.

Bonny, Dec. 6.—The Aros, against whom an expedition was recently sent, have renewed hostilities and have attacked Obagu, nine miles distant from Akwete. It is rumored that eighty friendly natives have been killed. The Aros are powerful tribes who exercise great influence between the Cross River and the Niger. Superior to other tribes in intellect and physique, they carry on the practices of slave-raiding and human sacrifice.

Speaker's Sore Throat.

Public speakers and singers know how useless and sickening are cough mixtures, sprays, lozenges, etc., etc., for irritable and sore throat, and state that the most satisfactory remedy is Catarrhozone, the advantage of which is that it acts quickly and is convenient to use in public places. Catarrhozone relieves congestion, allays inflammation, and is a protection to the membrane. As a safeguard against colds and catarrh it has no equal. Rev. Dr. McKay, of Goderich, says, "Catarrhozone is an excellent remedy for throat irritation, arising from colds." Physicians, ministers and singers recommend Catarrhozone; druggists sell it for $1. SAID FAREWELL.

Mr. F. W. Walden Organist of George Street Church is Leaving.

The members of the George street Methodist church choir last night assembled at the residence of Mr. F. W. Walden, their late choir master, and tendered him a most sincere farewell, ere he took his departure for his future home in Picton.

Mr. Walden has been organist and choir master in George street church for almost four years and during that time has made many warm friends and the members of the choir could not allow the occasion of his departure from town to pass without expressing to him their hearty good wishes for his future success. Mr. F. H. Debbin read a suitably worded address and at the same time Mr. and Mrs. Walden were presented with a beautiful couch. Mr. Walden replied in feeling terms, expressing his appreciation of the honour they had done him, and expressing to them his earnest hope for the success of the choir.

Refreshments were served and an enjoyable time was spent. Mr. Walden will leave for Picton next week.

PERSONALS.

MEETING POSTPONED.

The Fortnightly Club Members Will not Hear Hon. David Mills Until After New Years.

Hon. David Mills, who was to have lectured at the meeting of the Fortnightly Club on Tuesday evening next, has written to say that he finds it impossible to visit Peterborough until after New Years. An effort was made to have Rev. Dr. Symonds address the meeting but he, too, finds it impossible to come, so that the meeting is declared postponed for the present.

THE HOLY CITY.

The entertainment presented by the Holy City Opera Company in Bradburn's Opera House, last night, was worthy of a far better audience. The company is composed of seven singers — good singers. The first part consisted of sacred selections by a surpliced choral sextette, admirably sung, and several meritorious solos. The song, "Where is Heaven?" by a charming soprano, was quite a gem.

The second part consisted of the presentation of the story in picture of the song of the redemption, from the manger to the cross. The costumes were elegantly true to Oriental attire, and the scenery was splendid. Excellent limelight views of the scenes described in song were given. The singing of "The Holy City," by a good baritone, with the refrain taken by the company, and with a magnificent view of Jerusalem, was very fine. The spectacular effects were excellent, and the illustrations of scenes in our Lord's life on earth, had nothing inconsistent with the deepest reverence for sacred things. Altogether the entertainment was unique in its excellent entertaining features.

THE DICKSON CO. WON BOTH CASES.

Both Mr. Poussette and Mr. Starr Were Non-suited.

COSTS GO TO DEFENDANTS.

The Evidence of Only one Witness was Taken—The Defence not Called Upon—Almost a Quarter of a Million Dollars Involved.

The cases of Poussette vs. The Dickson Company and Starr vs. Hazlitt, were concluded last evening before Chief Justice Meredith, both being dismissed with costs to the defendants. The lady members of the company, who, being chiefly concerned, had followed the case through with the closest interest, and remained until the close, were warmly congratulated by their many friends when the decision was handed out.

The evidence as adduced since yesterday's issue was as follows:

MR. AYLESWORTH CROSS-EXAMINES

To Mr. Aylesworth the witness stated that there was never any idea that he, personally, would purchase the property. The option was given to facilitate his sale of the property. When the option expired there was never any discussion of extending it. Mr. Hazlitt had spoken to him, however, about continuing his negotiations. The terms were that the family should get $100,000 each. $100,000 was to be paid down and the balance stand secured on the property. These terms were never varied. Up to the time of Mr. Hazlitt's death in October, 1899 this was all that existed in the way of an agreement. It was a month after Mr. Hazlitt's death before he spoke with Mrs. Hazlitt on the matter. There was a recognition by her of the previous arrangement, but she never spoke directly authorizing him, herself, to proceed. The conversation was of the same nature with Mrs. Walsh. Mrs. Davidson had recognized the fact that he was trying to make a sale to Mr. McLaren. Witness had told her that her share would probably be $90,000 or $100,000. He had spoken to Miss Charlotte Dickson in December, 1899. This was shortly after Mr. Dobell's man had examined the limits. He had been asked how the sale was progressing. Miss Dickson had asked of the amount to be paid down. She was satisfied with $150,000 in this particular. One or two conversations with Miss Martha Dickson took place of the same character.

Q.—Were you ever told by any of the ladies that you could have for yourself all you received over $100,000 apiece for them?

A.—No; I never was;

Witness stated that as negotiations with other parties between himself and Mr. Starr fell through for the sale, the purchase of the property themselves would be discussed. On May 15th, in a letter to the company there was no mention made of his alleged sale, as agent, to Starr of the property. In the letter he urged that the sale be made. This did not argue that in reality he had not made the sale. He had met all the ladies on the return of the Misses Dickson in reference to their objection to Mr. Starr, as security for the $125,000 mortgage. He asked what additional security they wanted, but could get no answer. Witness denied inspiring a letter which was written by McLaren's secretary, threatening to issue a writ unless the sale was closed according to agreement. He had shown this letter but had not asked for it to be written. He would not have used threats in order to effect a sale. Witness stated that Mrs. Walsh and Mrs. Davidson had been elected in the place of the Misses Dickson in order that the sale might be closed. Even if all the members of the company stated the contrary, still this was the case.

RE-EXAMINATION.

To Mr. Clark, witness stated that he had not concealed the fact that the timber limits were to be sold to Mr. McLaren and the company's town property with the Street Railway, and Peterborough Electric Light Co. shares were to be exploited by himself and Mr. Starr. He had told this to Mr William Davidson. He did not remember telling this to anyone else. Mr. McWilliams was to receive the $15,000 mentioned for agreeing to endorse paper to the amount of $400,000, and for giving his assistance in trying to make a sale for witness and Mr. Starr. In Mr. McWilliams' position, any person wishing to purchase would go to him to make inquiries about the limits.

A large amount of evidence as adduced at the examination for discovery preliminary to the trial, was then handed in.

The balance of the letters in reference to the alleged agreement between Mr. Starr and Mr. Poussette in which Mr. Starr urged the latter to give him a written agreement of sale, and Mr. Poussette delayed doing so until the sale to the Cereal Company had been made, were put in without being read, as was the correspondence with Mr. Caldwell. In the case of either party objecting to the admissability of any of the letters the point would rest with Mr. Justice Meredith to settle either during the trial or afterwards.

Mr. Watson then moved for a nonsuit, and the Chief Justice decided to hear argument on the matter without hearing any more evidence.

Mr. Clarke addressed the Court at length. Mr. Watson followed, preceding Mr. Aylesworth. Mr. Clarke was then given an opportunity of replying.

THE CHIEF JUSTICE'S ADDRESS.

In summing up the evidence, as the result of which the cases of both Mr. Poussette and Mr. Starr were dismissed with costs, the Chief Justice spoke as follows:—"In the case of the Starr action which was brought against the individual members of the company, claiming damages for breach of contract alleged to have been entered into, not with the company, but with the individual defendants, and the plaintiff for the sale of the company's property, I have been unable to find a shadow of ground on which it can be found there ever was an authority given by any of the individual defendants to Mr. Poussette to sell the property on any terms whatever. It seems that Mr. Poussette in 1898 entered into an arrangement with Mr. Starr to consolidate the three concerns, the Dickson Company, the Peterborough Light and Power Company, and the Peterborough and Ashburnham Street Railway Company. There was no written agreement between them as to the syndicate, but the scheme fell through anyway. Mr. Hazlitt was anxious to see the affair wound up, and it was suggested to Mr. Poussette that he find a purchaser for the assets of the company. In October, 1898, Mr. Hazlitt gave Mr. Poussette an option on the company's property at $550,000, payable in cash. This has an important bearing on the case, as it shows for whom Mr. Hazlitt was acting. It was not the individuals, but the com-

SUCCESSFUL BAZAAR

By the Fraser Mission Band of St. Paul's Church Last Night—The Programme.

The Fraser Mission Band of St. Paul's church have in the past gotten up many successful entertainments, but perhaps none more successful than the bazaar which was held in the Sunday school room of the church yesterday afternoon and evening.

The members of the Fraser Mission Band are all hard workers. When they enter upon any undertaking, they do so with a determination to make it a success and, as just intimated, yesterday's affair proved no exception to the rule. For some time the young ladies have been very industrious in their work of making various kinds of articles, etc., which they proposed offering the purchasing public, and when they commenced business on a temporary scale yesterday afternoon there was quite a complete and decidedly handsome stock in trade.

The Sunday school room was very appropriately decorated for the occasion, and the alcoves proved to be ideal places for the respective departments. First there was the ice cream parlour, furnished in a homelike manner and decorated profusely with British ensigns and Chinese lanterns. Attentively catering to the visiting purchasers were Miss Jean Cameron, Miss Florence Hamilton, and Miss Effie Best. The fancy work department, the neighbouring shopkeepers of the ice cream stand, carried a very heavy and well assorted stock, and did a brisk business all the while. It was in charge of Miss Helen Hall, Miss Kate Ferguson, Miss Lissie Scott, Miss Ethel White, and Miss Annie Erskine.

The candy stand, laden down with all the richest delicacies imaginable, was in charge of Miss Bessie Connal, Miss Jessie Garrow, Miss Annie McDonald and Miss Helen Hay.

Next came the doll table, containing all kinds, colours, sizes, and ages of silent sellers. Those in charge were Miss Georgie Dennistoun, Miss Elsie Cameron, Miss Mamie Little, and Miss Mary Elliott.

Perhaps no department of the wonderful little departmental institution created more attraction by its unique equipment than the Japanese tea room. Japanese decorations were utilized in every possible manner, and the waitresses decked out in their Oriental garb, served tea, cake and coffee with the expertness of professionals at the business. The young ladies in charge were Miss Agnes Hall, Miss Mamie Hamilton and Miss Drummond. From 4.30 until well on in the evening the bazaar was visited by many, all of whom expressed their appreciation of the efforts of the young ladies.

In the evening an informal programme was rendered, those taking part being Miss Georgie Dennistoun, Miss Helen Hall, Miss Jean Cameron, Miss Annie McDonald and Mrs. Dr. Torrance. Miss Mable Pringle gave a recitation that was heartily enjoyed.

Altogether the Bazaar was a grand success and reflected much credit upon the young ladies who managed the same. Well on to $100 was realized.

CEREAL CO. NOTES.

The Globe: "Peterborough is soon to have one of the finest grain elevators in the Dominion, with a capacity of half a million bushels, to cost $160,000. The contract has just been let by the American Cereal Company to the Macdonald Engineering Company, who will build the structure after their own plans, and expect to have it in operation by July 1st, 1902. Work on the foundation has been commenced and the two million feet of lumber required, as well as all the machinery and other supplies, will be on the ground by March, when active work of erection will be begun. The building will be built on a semi-fireproof, or slow combustion plan, the outer walls being covered with brick and steel, while the interior arrangements will reduce the fire risk to a minimum. The machinery equipment will all be driven by electricity, generated by the company's own water power on the Otonabee River, and the handling capacity will be one hundred cars per day."

"WHELPS OF THE LION"

Supported by Colonies Britain May Ignore Enemies.

RECEPTION TO PRINCE OF WALES

Was Made the Occasion of a Demonstration in Favor of the Government and of Mr. Chamberlain—A Purely Family Affair, No Foreigners Being Present—Lord Salisbury's Speech.

London, Dec. 6.—The city entertained the Prince and Princess of Wales yesterday afternoon at a luncheon given in the Guildhall, and presented them with an address of congratulation on their successful tour of the British Empire.

The royal party drove from York House to the Guildhall in an open, four-horsed landau, escorted by Life Guards. They met everywhere with the heartiest reception from the sight-seers lining the brightly-bedecked and troop-guarded route. The scene in the library of the corporation's historic quarters, where Their Royal Highnesses were received by the Lord Mayor, Sir Joseph C. Dimsdale, and the corporation, was picturesque. Levee or diplomatic dress, uniforms or judicial robes, were worn by the majority of the guests, among whom were the agents-general of the colonies. Prominent among the other notables present were Lord Salisbury, Lord Rosebery, and Mr. and Mrs. Chamberlain.

The Prince of Wales seized the opportunity to make a long, statesmanlike speech on the relations between the Motherland and the colonies. Speaking about the Dominion, he said:

"To Canada was borne the message already conveyed to Australia and New Zealand, of the Motherland's loving appreciation of the services rendered by its gallant sons. In the journey from ocean to ocean, marvelous in its comfort and organization, we were enabled to see something of its matchless scenery, the richness of its soil, and the boundless possibilities of that vast and but partly explored territory. We saw, too, the success which has crowned the efforts to weld into one community the peoples of its two great races."

Mr. Chamberlain was accorded a tremendous reception when he rose to respond to Lord Rosebery's toast to the colonies, but neither he nor Lord Rosebery said anything of international importance.

Lord Salisbury, alone, referred to the topic of which everyone was thinking, namely, England's unpopularity abroad. He said:

"No doubt it is true just at this moment, that we have many enemies who are not very reticent in expressing their opinion, but on the other hand, to-day's celebration, which is largely due to the action and co-operation of their Royal Highnesses, has shown that we possess in the support of our distant kinsmen an approval and a sanction which, to us, is worth infinitely more than all the contempt and all the censure that we may receive from other nations."

This remark of the Premier was greeted with prolonged cheering, after which he continued, saying:

"I cannot admit that they are judges of our conduct, or that we can modify our proceedings in deference to their opinion. What we look to are the opinions of our own kinsmen, who belong to our own empire. We have received from all portions of that Empire an indication that we have lost nothing in the opinion they held of the justice of our claim."

Story of Tolstoi's Death.

London, Dec. 6.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of The Times, commenting on the circumstantial reports of the illness, death and burial of Count Tolstoi, which have recently appeared, contradicts them on the best authority. He says Count Tolstoi is suffering from a severe cold and fatigue resulting from over-indulgence in his favorite exercise, riding. There is, however, no immediate cause for anxiety regarding his condition. The circulation of the reports, says the correspondent, was caused by the widespread belief that when Tolstoi does die the news will be kept by the censorship from the public as long as possible.

Liquor in Candies.

Montreal, Dec. 6.—Miss A. Miller, the keeper of a candy store on Place d'Armes Hill, has been summoned to Police Court to answer a charge of selling liquor without a license. Miss Miller kept a stock of chocolates, the interiors of which were filled with brandy and other liquors, which she sold to boys and girls. Chief of Police Legault investigated the case, with the above result. A charge of selling liquor to minors will also be laid against her. The chocolates are said to have been manufactured in Toronto.

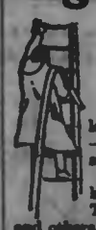
Fighting the Fires.



Hard life the plucky firemen lead; out in all sorts of weather,—losing sleep, catching cold and straining their backs.

Hard to have strong, well kidneys under such conditions. That's why firemen, policemen and others, who are exposed to the weather, are so often troubled with Weak, Lame Backs and with Urinary Troubles.

DOAN'S Kidney Pills

are helping hundreds of such to health.

Mr. John Robinson, chief of the fire department, Dresden, Ont., says:

"Prior to taking these pills I had kidney trouble which caused severe pain in the small of my back and in both sides. I had a tired feeling and never seemed to be able to get rested. However, I commenced the use of Doan's Kidney Pills, and after taking three boxes am completely cured. I have now no backache or urinary trouble, and the tired feeling is completely gone. In fact, I am well and strong."

SUES LORD KITCHENER.

An Interesting Sequel to Miss Hobhouse's Deportation.

London, Dec. 5.—An interesting sequel is promised to the Government's deportation from South Africa of Miss Hobhouse, who was the first person to agitate regarding the condition of the British concentration camps. The lady's uncle, Lord Hobhouse, has commenced suit in this country against Lord Kitchener, Lord Milner and others on the charge of false imprisonment and assault, thereby raising the constitutional question of how far a British subject can be deprived of liberty by martial law.

THE DANGER OF LOW VITALITY.

Severe Colds, Pneumonia, Consumption Find Easy Victims in Persons Whose Health is in Poor Condition—Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

At no season of the year is a low condition of health more likely to lead to serious results than at the present time. With vitality running low, the blood thin and nerves exhausted, one is made susceptible to colds and catarrhs on the slightest exposure. Gradually a persistent cough, hawking and spitting, is established, and each severe cold is accompanied by chills, fever, pains in the chest, and sometimes spitting of blood.

This is the short and deadly road that leads to pneumonia, consumption and other deadly lung troubles, and the only sure method of avoiding them is to keep the general health just as near to the high-water mark as possible all the time. It is because of its remarkable influence as a system-builder that Dr. Chase's Nerve Food has come to be so universally used as a means of increasing vitality and raising the standard of health.

There is no lesson which experience more strongly emphasizes than the importance of keeping the body well filled with health-giving vitality. When a weakened, run-down system is attacked by pneumonia, consumption, or even a heavy cold, there is small chance of ever shaking it off. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food instills into the blood the most potent blood-forming and nerve-invigourating elements which have ever been found in nature. You cannot possibly help but be benefited by this preparation, and even in long-standing cases of extreme debility and prostration there is good hope for recovery by the persistent use of this great food cure.

It is not wise to neglect the health at any time. Do not wait until you are completely exhausted and worn out before appealing to Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. Build up the system while yet there is some foundation to build on. Put new, rich blood in the shrivelled arteries, new vital energy into the nerves, and add firm flesh and solid muscles to the body, in order that in the day of trial, when attacked by disease, there may be some chance for fighting the great foe to human happiness.

Should you find yourself suffering from a cough, bronchitis, asthma, or any similar trouble, we can recommend you to use Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine, believing it to be the most thoroughly effective treatment that you can possibly obtain. It has time and again proven its power over asthma, and affords the greatest relief even in the most serious cases of pneumonia and consumption.

While Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine is aiding expectoration, clearing the choked-up air passages, healing and soothing the torn and ulcerated linings of the throat and bronchial tubes, do not lose sight of the value of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food as a means of restoring lost strength and vigour. It is a unique preparation of surprising effect as a blood and nerve restorative. Fifty cents a box, six boxes for $2.50. At all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

"A handsome and useful Christmas present for your mother or grandmother is a copy of Dr. Chase's last and complete Receipt Book. Illustrated folder free."

Barque Founders.

Victoria, B.C., Dec. 4.—The barque Highland City foundered off Vancouver Island during a gale, and the crew were brought here by the steamer Queen City, which arrived last night.

Two Million Victims.

It is estimated that one-third the population of Canada are victims to the pill habit. This should not be so as Merrill's System Tonic tones the liver, restores the natural muscular powers to the bowels and permanently cures habitual Constipation. The result is that dyspepsia, impure blood and nerve troubles disappear. One 50 cent bottle cures. Sold by Ormond & Walsh, druggists.

All Three Perished by Fire.

Halifax, Dec. 6.—A report reached Truro yesterday afternoon of a shocking accident at East Folly Mountain. The house of Robert Campbell, in an isolated position, was burned to the ground at an early hour Wednesday morning, and the remains of all the occupants were discovered in the ashes yesterday. Mr. Campbell had gone to the woods early in the morning, leaving his daughter Effie, aged 16; Myrtle, 7, and his son, Arthur, 11, asleep in bed. On his return he found the sickening sight of his house in ruins and his children all dead. It is supposed the father started a fire in the stove before leaving in the morning, and it burned up and caught the house before the children got up. It is supposed the older girl perished in an attempt to save the younger children, or that all suffocated before awakening.

Never Say Die.

You may be weak, miserable, nervous, sleepless, your digestion may be poor and you despair. Never say die, until you have used Ferrozone, the most wonderful blood maker, nerve strengthener and brain invigorator. It tones up the whole system. You can eat anything and digest it if you use Ferrozone. You sleep well, you make blood quickly, strength increases daily, and in a short time you are well. Try Ferrozone, which you can obtain at Ormond & Walsh's drug store.

Driven Before the Ice.

Quebec, Dec. 6.—News from River du Loup yesterday afternoon brought the startling information that the lighthouse keeper at Brandy Pots, Alphonse Richard, and his assistant, may have found a watery grave Wednesday night or yesterday morning. It appears from the news received that the two men, after the light was closed for the season, started to cross from the island to River Du Loup, a distance of some seven or eight miles, Wednesday afternoon, and had almost reached their destination when their boat was caught in an ice floe and carried out again, carrying the two unfortunates far from the shore, and before dark the boat had disappeared in the distance. When last seen it was drifting quite rapidly before the wind and ice.

Got Lame Back?

No need of that now. That sort of pain can be knocked out in short order, for Polson's Nerviline, which is five times stronger than any other, penetrates at once through the tissues, reaches the source of suffering, drives it out and thus gives relief almost instantly. Not magic, but strength that gives Polson's Nerviline this power, you will think it magic however if you try it, pain goes so quickly. Sold by dealers everywhere, in large 25 cent bottles.

Killed by a Tree.

Wiarton, Dec. 6.—A lamentable accident occurred near Wolseley on Tuesday morning, whereby John Abel was instantly killed. In company with his son he was felling timber and a tree which they were cutting broke at the top, the heavy limbs falling on the unfortunate man, striking him on the back of the head and killing him instantly. The son had a very narrow escape from sharing the same fate.

To Prevent Consumption.

Hard to cure; easy to prevent. Scott's Emulsion nourishes the body, keeps all the organs and tissues healthy, and the consumption germs cannot get a foothold.

OUR POSTAL SERVICE

Report of the Postmaster General of Canada for Past Year.

GROWTH IN VARIOUS WAYS

Great Extensions in the Service Throughout the Whole Dominion—Revenue Increased Under Lower Postal Rates—Postal Notes and Money Orders Increased 49 Per Cent—Savings Bank Branch.

Ottawa, Dec. 5.—The report of the Postmaster-General for the fiscal year ended the 30th of June, 1901, was issued yesterday, and shows great extensions of the service throughout the whole of the Dominion. During the year increased facilities were given to the public in various ways, no less than 619 miles of additional railway being utilized for mail purposes. The total annual mileage that the mails were carried by rail exceeded the total mileage of the previous year by 16,962 miles. The total mileage that the mails were carried by stage routes exceeded the total mileage of the previous year by no less than 460,609 miles. The frequency of the mail service was increased for 847 postoffices, while 227 new postoffices were opened, and 13,375,500 more letters were carried than in the previous year. The number of postal notes issued and paid during the year increased from 769,250 to 877,599, the aggregate value of the year's issue being $1,459,015, an increase of $108,349. This branch of the service was inaugurated in the month of August, 1898, the total sale of postal notes that month being 2,777, whilst for the month of June, 1900, it was 66,509. During the year 596 new postal note offices were established, being an increase for the twelve months from 3,160 to 3,756. In the money order branch 76,102 more money orders were issued than in the previous year. The aggregate value of the money orders for the year amounted to $17,956,257.87, being an advance over the previous year of $1,747,183.53, and an increase of $4,674,397.25 over the value of the money orders issued for the year ending 30th June, 1896, the last year of the Conservative Administration. The postal note and money order transactions of the department for the fiscal year just closed aggregated $19,415,273.62, being greater by $6,373,416 than the fiscal year closing 30th June, 1896, or an increase of 49 per cent. During the year the department arranged with the United States a plan for the simplification of the exchange of money orders and postal notes between the two countries, the result being that an agreement was come to whereby the United States pays all money orders and postal notes drawn upon it by the Dominion of Canada in the same manner as if the orders were to be paid in the Dominion itself. This arrangement adds to the list the names of some thirty thousand offices in the United States upon which the Canadian Postoffice Department may issue money orders and postal notes. Canada renders a similar service to the United States.

At the close of the year the deposits in the Postoffice Savings Bank amounted to $39,950,812.62, or an increase of $2,443,356.82, being the largest balance at the close of any year.

NOTED SURGEON DEAD.

Sir William MacCormack, Surgeon to Late Queen, Passes Away.

London, Dec. 5.—Sir William MacCormack, Bart., president of the Royal College of Surgeons, died at Bath yesterday morning. He was born in 1836.

Sketch of His Life.

Sir William MacCormick was a native of Belfast, and was educated at Belfast, Dublin and Paris. He was surgeon to the Anglo-American Ambulance, 1870, and was present at the battle of Sedan. He was created a First Baronet in 1879, a Knight in 1881, and a K.C.V.O. in 1898. In 1897 he was Surgeon in Ordinary to the Queen and to the Prince of Wales. He was an officer of the Legion of Honor of France and possessor of several other foreign orders. Sir William went to South Africa when the war broke out and remained there about a year in charge of the hospital arrangements. He wrote many valuable surgical works.

Governor Eyre Dead.

London, Dec. 5.—Edward John Eyre, who was Governor of Jamaica from 1862-66, died on Monday. He was 86. Governor Eyre's administration of Jamaica was bitterly assailed in England for its severity. It was, however, defended by Thomas Carlyle, and the special Commission which was sent to the island to investigate the matter found that praise was due to Governor Eyre for the skill, promptitude and vigor he displayed is suppressing the insurrection, but they condemned the prolongation of martial law and excessive punishments inflicted. Governor Eyre was suspended from office. The actions brought against him in the English law courts ended in his favor.

Commission Starts Out.

Winnipeg, Dec. 5.—The Agricultural College Commission started on a trip south and east yesterday afternoon. The members leaving were Messrs. Halse of Brandon, Irvine of Neepawa, Simpson of Virden and Miller of Manitou.

Wrecks During November.

London, Dec. 5.—According to the Board of Trade returns for November, 69 British vessels were wrecked during the month, involving the loss of 140 lives. These returns are, however, admittedly incomplete.

MARKET REPORTS.

Cables Are Again Higher—Wheat and Corn Advanced in Liverpool—The Latest Quotations.

Thursday Evening, Dec. 5.

Grain cables were firm again to-day. Wheat futures closed ½d higher in Liverpool and corn futures ½d to ¾d. Cash wheat advanced 1d to 1½d, and spot corn advanced ½d.

The Chicago market was active to-day, and the prices at one time showed good advances over yesterday. Profit-taking had its effect, however, and the closing in December wheat was the same as last night. December corn advanced ½c for the day and December oats ⅜c.

In Winnipeg No. 1 hard Manitoba closed at 78c; No. 1 Northern, 77c; and No. 2 Northern, 68c spot, ex-store.

The Dominion government has decided to provide at St. John accommodation and shipping facilities for the handling of 1800 head of cattle. This will enable shippers to send cattle by the Intercolonial direct to St. John, from which port they will be sent to Liverpool.

TORONTO LIVE STOCK.

The run of live stock at the Cattle Market was light, 43 carloads, composed of 700 cattle, 700 hogs, 400 sheep and lambs, with a very few calves.

The quality of fat cattle generally was poor, very few of good to choice quality being offered.

Trade was not brisk, but all cattle of good to choice quality sold readily at about the same quotations as on Tuesday. Cattle of common to inferior quality were slow of sale at low prices.

MONTREAL LIVE STOCK.

Montreal, Dec. 5.—There were about 600 head of butchers' cattle, 30 calves and 200 sheep and lambs offered for sale at the East End Abattoir to-day. The butchers turned out in large numbers, but trade was rather slow, as higher prices were demanded for anything good in the beef and mutton line. The best cattle sold at about 4c per lb., but they were nothing extra, and from that down to 3½c for medium beeves; common dry cows sold at from 2c to 2½c per lb., with the prospect of a good many remaining unsold to-day. The canners paid from 1½c to 2c per lb. for small bulls and lean cows. Calves sold at from $1.50 to $6 each. Sheep sold at from 2½c to 3c per lb., and the lambs at from 3½c to 4c per lb. Fat hogs sold at from 5¾c to 6c per lb., weighed off the cars.

Held by Etiquette.

When Dom Pedro, then emperor of Brazil, was entertained at the White House, he had been told by a confused senator that it would be expected that he, the emperor, should be the last of the guests to depart.

The president's wife, however, informed her other guests that they would be expected to follow, not precede, the royal party in leaving the house.

The result was that no one dared to go for fear of a breach of etiquette. But at 3 o'clock in the morning a tired woman pretended illness, and the deadlock was broken.

Great is etiquette, but common sense is sometimes allowable.

EIGHT CONVINCING REASONS . . .

WHY YOU SHOULD INSURE IN

THE IMPERIAL LIFE ASSURANCE CO'Y OF CANADA.

1. It is a purely Canadian Company, having all its funds invested in Canadian securities, and transacting business only in Canada.

2. It maintains the largest Government Deposit of any Canadian Life Insurance Company.

3. It maintains relatively the strongest policy reserves of any Canadian Life Insurance Company.

4. Its past record — the greatest guarantee of the future — has been unparalleled in Canadian life insurance.

5. Its policy contract is one of the most liberal issued, consistent with safety and equity.

6. It has a Capital of $1,000,000, which makes policy-holders' security unquestionable. At the same time, the assured is practically in the same position regarding profits as if he held a policy in a mutual company, the Imperial's charter providing that at least 90 per cent. of all profits shall be divided amongst policy-holders.

7. For every $100 of liability to policy-holders it holds $120 of securely invested assets. These assets are all of the highest order, and will bear the closest scrutiny.

8. An Imperial policy never depreciates in value, but, on the contrary, is constantly becoming more valuable. It is the most valuable estate you can leave behind you.

There will be another car. But the man can't wait. He chases the car and swings on, panting and hot, but satisfied. He keeps this gait up all day. He works that way, he lunches that way. He continues this until his stomach "breaks down" and nature compels him to "go slow."

Business men who have impaired their digestion by hasty eating will find in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery a cure for dyspepsia and other diseases of the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition. It does not give mere temporary relief, but it effects a radical cure. It strengthens the stomach, nourishes the nerves and purifies the blood.

"For six long years I suffered with my liver, kidneys, and with indigestion, which baffled the best doctors in our country," writes E. L. Bennett, Esq., of Woolsey, Prince William Co., Va. "I suffered with my stomach and back for a long time, and after taking a 'cart-load' of medicine from three doctors, I grew so bad I could hardly do a day's work. Would have death-like pains in the side, and blind spells, and thought life was hardly worth living. I began taking Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and 'Pleasant Pellets,' as advised. Before I had taken half of the second bottle I began to feel relieved. I got six bottles and used them, and am happy to say I owe my life to Dr. Pierce and his medicines."

Dr. Pierce's Pellets cure biliousness.

A cash payment of $100,000 would be satisfactory, with approved security. What reason would there be for finding that this method of negotiating, these being the contracting parties, be departed from? There never was a change from the company to the individuals of that company. Everything points to this conclusion. Mr. Starr's offer was to the company to purchase from it the property. All efforts were directed to getting the company to accept the offer and to get the company to carry out the transaction. Then a great deal of reliance had been placed by the plaintiffs on the communications between Mr. Poussette and the individual stockholders. Four of the ladies had the controlling power, and the idea of their being consenting parties was not as his principals but as a means by which the company would be persuaded to carry out the sale. They never went further than saying that the price was satisfactory. It is needless to speak of the security. That being so, both actions must fail, as both rest on contracts with the company, and not with the individuals. In the case of Starr, there are unparalleled difficulties in the way of any such action succeeding. There was no authority on the part of the company, under the seal of the company to Mr. Poussette to do anything on its behalf, and any affair to be legal would have to be effected under the corporate seal of the company. Than I am not satisfied that there ever was a contract between Poussette and Starr. At the time Poussette states he agreed to sell on the 10th of May on terms of a subsequent offer of Starr the McLaren deal had fallen through and so we must look behind those words for the real facts and looking at them we must conclude that they then being parties in an old transaction believed that they were justified in taking upon themselves the obligations of a purchase, intending to form a company and exploit the property. This was the nearest extent to anything that took place in the nature of an agreement. I cannot believe it possible if there was an agreement that there would be no writing to that effect, bearing in mind that Mr. Poussette is a lawyer of large experience and Mr. Starr had been for many years engaged as a promoter of similar enterprises, I cannot conceive that if they entered into any agreement they would not have evidenced it by writing. It was utterly inconsistent that if an agreement of sale had been made with Starr by Poussette that Starr should have made a later offer to the company. Then I can think of still further difficulties. Mr. Poussette's evidence is devoted to proving that his authority was to sell the property on behalf of his principals, yet that is not the pleading. The pleading is that he is to find a purchaser and present him to his principals for their acceptance. Then Mr. Poussette makes the claim for damages on the ground of the loss occasioned him through not getting the commission which would have accrued through Mr. Starr's offer of $530,000 being accepted. As Mr. Poussette was to receive only what he got after each one of six members of the family had received $100,000, it is obvious that he would have made nothing as agent. Then again Starr's offer did not comply with the terms which called for a $100,000 cash payment. He only offered $25,000 cash with payments of $25,000 on each succeeding 30 days. I cannot by any construction think this is in accordance with the terms of the mandate given Mr. Poussette. Again Mr. Poussette was bound to find a purchaser who would give as security the whole of the property for the unpaid balance, and Mr. Starr only proposed to offer a portion of the property as security. This was not in accordance with the terms and the principals were within their rights in refusing to accept such security. The company repudiated Starr's proposition. It was then open to Starr and Poussette to stand on their rights if there was an agreement of sale in existence. It was not open to them, after taking an option to Mr. McLaren from the company, to go back afterwards and take the position they say they were entitled to occupy. It was most unjust to the company. I cannot find that there was any contract with the individuals of the company which would be within the Statute. The most which was done was the signing of the documents to signify a willingness to sell if the security was satisfactory. A view which seems to be fatal to the case of Poussette is the computation of his claim, as presented on the record, for remuneration. He was to give $100,000 to each of six persons. He was then to have all he could make in excess of that sum. He sold, to Starr for $530,000. What would be his damages? It must be admitted that the whole $530,000 would go to the individual defendants and this would be the end of the case, as there was nothing for Mr. Poussette to lose. The only loss would be in the refusal of the company to carry out the contract with Starr in which event Poussette would fail to secure the profits if the property was sold for a larger sum. There was no contract and therefore I dismiss the cases.

may be muscular or rheumatic. The joints are hard to get at, and it requires a powerful, penetrating medicine to reach the affected parts. Polson's Nerviline exactly meets the requirements, for it both powerful and penetrating. The pain is expelled as if by magic, for one drop of Nerviline equals in strength five drops of other medicine. You won't often call the doctor if Nerviline is in the house. Price 25c.

EVANGELIST WALDEN.

Attendance Steadily Increasing — A Most Forceful Appeal Last Evening.

The interest in the meetings continues to increase, notwithstanding the many different circumstances which prevent a large number being present during Christmas season. Last night's address was a most forceful appeal to Christian and sinner alike to have confidence in a Saviour's work.

Mr. Walden took as the subject of his remarks, John 3, "The New Birth" and showed that many professed Christians were placing confidence in many things, excellent in themselves and commendable in themselves, but absolutely worthless so far as rightness with God is concerned. Only as men are born of the Spirit of God can they enjoy the life that God gives. This life will be evidenced, not in obedience to any outward, formal cremonial, but in a truly genuine life manifesting itself in a devoted and loving allegiance to Christ.

He spoke of the great blessing Christians lost who were not in a position to know their relation to God and His Spirit, and cited illustrations most apt regarding this great fact.

Mr. Walden then appealed to those who were not Christians and urged them to make their peace with God and no longer remain out of the fold.

As an evangelist, Mr. Walden has done a wonderful work in Nova Scotia. He is a man of supreme faith in God, and in the word of His grace. He desires to have Christians revived and working for others Salvation rather than himself be a "revivalist" in the professional sense, and in consequence where men and women have been thus minded he has been instrumental in leading them to keep near the Divine Source of Power, where throughout their lives they can be constant in His service. In this way alone can a truly successful quickening take place.

Remember the meeting to-night at eight o'clock. All are invited.

SPORTING PASTIMES.

HOCKEY.

A meeting of the executive of the Peterborough Hockey Club was held in the Y.M.C.A. last night when matters of considerable importance to the club came up for discussion. The delegates to the O.H.A. were given instructions regarding matters that will come up before the annual meeting of the Association to-morrow.

RUGBY.

The semi-annual meeting of the club will be held on Tuesday eveping.

CURLING.

The work of grouping the curling clubs throughout the province in the Ontario tankard series has been completed, and group No. five in which the Peterborough clubs are interested is as follows:

Bowmanville bye, Kingston bye, Bowmanville vs. Kingston, in second round, Cobourg vs. Port Perry, Oshawa vs. Whitby.

Lindsay, Peterborough Granites, Peterborough Thistles bye in first round, Lindsay vs. Peterborough Granites in second round, Peterborough Thistles play winner of Bobcaygeon-Campbellford match in second round.

Umpire, A. Dobson. Play, Lindsay or Peterborough.

BASKET-BALL.

The public will have an opportunity of spending a pleasant hour at the Y.M.C.A. gymnasium to-morrow evening commencing at 8.30, when the first matches of the newly formed league will be played. The teams comprising six, are scheduled according to numbers, 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, and 6. Two matches will be played each Saturday night until each team has played every other team. The games to-night will be Nos. 1 vs 5 at 8.30, and Nos. 3 vs. 4 at 9 sharp. The captains of these teams will choose the officials.

Y. M. C. A. GYMNASTICS.

A full attendance is asked this evening of all those taking part in the exhibition on Tuesday evening next. The work will be rehearsed in full and each man is asked to be at his post to make the affair a success. As there was no basket ball on Tuesday night, there will be a practice this evening at the close.

Something About Faith Cures.

What a great variety of faith cures there must be, some have faith in so-called divine healers, others in certain doctors and still others in the medicines they use. Every person who has tested Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills has faith in them, but faith or no faith they cure just the same, for they act directly and specifically on the kidneys, liver and bowels, and make these organs healthy, active and vigourous. Judging from the enormous demand for these pills there must be hosts of people that have faith in them.

Your Floral Wants.

Can be promptly filled at the West End Greenhouses. In addition to a splendid regular every-day display of Carnations, Roses, Chrysanthemums, and many other fragrant plants, you will find many splendid new varieties here worth coming to see. Nice decorative plants, full of bud and bloom, that will bloom all winter. Flowers for wedding and table decorations, cut flowers for bouquets — flowers for the sick room — flowers and wreaths for funerals. Ring up phone 21B. A. Blade, manager at G. M. Roger's. A DOUBLE DROWNING

Miss Bessie Blair and Mr. H. A. Harper the Ottawa's Victims.

BOTH WENT THROUGH THE ICE

Miss Blair, by Accident, While Skating Hand in Hand With Mr. Creelman, and Mr. Harper, Deliberately, in an Attempt to Save the Young Lady's Life—The Sad Particulars.

Ottawa, Dec. 7.—A shocking drowning accident occurred in the Ottawa River yesterday afternoon, and last night there are searchers out for the bodies of two members of a vice-regal skating party—Miss Bessie Blair, daughter of the Minister of Railways and Canals, and Albert H. Harper, Assistant Deputy Minister of Labor.

A lovely winter afternoon tempted a considerable number out to make up a skating party, organized at Government House. The ice appeared to be in splendid condition, smooth and solid; indeed, between New Edinburgh and Gatineau Point, horses and sleighs have been crossing for a couple of days. No danger was apprehended, therefore, by the skaters, who sped away down the river in little groups.

One of them consisted of the Misses May and Bessie Blair and Miss Snowball, daughter of Senator Snowball, who was their guest. They were accompanied by Mr. Treadgold, an English mining engineer, of Dawson City, and Mr. Harper and Mr. Creelman of the Imperial Bank. Miss Bessie Blair and Mr. Creelman were skating in advance of the others, when, suddenly, as the party neared Kettle Island, both were seen by Mr. Harper and Miss Snowball, who were a short distance behind, to disappear into the water.

Mr. Harper, with the determination of saving Miss Blair, rushed forward. Miss Snowball skated back, screaming frantically to those following to hurry to the rescue. When, with Miss May Blair and Mr. Treadgold, she arrived at the fatal spot, only one was seen on the surface — Mr. Creelman — and he was drawn out of the water in an unconscious condition. No sign of Miss Bessie Blair or the gallant Mr. Harper, who gave his life to save her, was to be seen. The bodies had evidently been carried down by the swift current beneath the ice.

When Mr. Creelman was rescued by Mr. A. N. C. Treadgold of Dawson City he was in an exhausted condition, and is now under medical treatment at his lodging-house. The bodies will probably not be found until next spring.

The accident happened about dusk, in the main channel of the Ottawa River, where the current is swift and the water about 35 feet deep. The party had gone several miles down the river from the city. They were returning, Miss Bessie Blair and Mr. Creelman skating hand-in-hand ahead; Mr. Harper and Miss Snowball about 40 yards behind, and Mr. Treadgold and Miss Blair some distance farther away. The ice was thin near the head of Kettle Island, where the party were, and Miss Blair and Mr. Creelman suddenly pitched head first into the air-hole. Both could swim, and did make a few strokes towards the ice.

Mr. Creelman shouted to Mr. Harper to keep away from the water, but Mr. Harper threw off his coats and gloves and made for them. He dived into the water to help Miss Blair, and that is the last Mr. Creelman saw of him.

Mr. Creelman tried to lift Miss Blair out upon the ice, and, in doing so, sank himself. When he came up his head struck the ice, and he broke his way through to clear air. Miss Blair had disappeared, and Mr. Creelman was alone in the icy water. He clung to the ice and shouted for help.

Meanwhile, Miss Snowball was skating to Gatineau Point to summon aid. She had time to arouse the men in the hotel, and they took whiskey and blankets and skated for the scene of the accident. Miss Snowball was skating in the direction of the thin, when Mr. A. N. C. Treadgold shouted to her to look out for danger.

He saw a dark object and made for it, while Mr. Creelman's cries for help could be heard more and more plainly.

The dark object was brave Harper's hat, and then Creelman warned Treadgold to look out, and the latter said he had a rope and told Creelman to hold on. The latter said he was all right. Meanwhile Treadgold was getting his rope ready, and Matthias Blais, who lives on shore, came out and pulled Creelman out of the water.

Creelman lost consciousness at Blais' house, but recovered enough to be taken to his boarding house, where doctors attended him. He is suffering from exposure, but will recover. Creelman had probably been in the water about 15 minutes when he was rescued by Blais. Miss Snowball was too agitated last night to tell a very connected story of the accident.

Harper showed pure grit, and his death is lamented by all who knew him. He was a native of Barrie, and about 27 years old. He was Master of Arts in Toronto University, and had been in newspaper work in Toronto, Montreal and Ottawa, where he represented The Montreal Herald as Ottawa correspondent until his appointment as associate editor of The Labor Gazette. For the past month he has been acting Deputy Minister of Labor, in the absence of Mr. W. L. Mackenzie King, the Deputy Minister.

Creelman, who was rescued, is a clerk in the Imperial Bank, and came here from Toronto. His brother is C.P.R. solicitor. Creelman says Miss Blair told him not to mind her, that she could swim, and she did strike out for the edge of the ice. He held her above water for some time, but at last the exposure began to tell, and the poor girl began to groan, and, in the final effort to save her, Creelman sank. When he arose again, Miss Blair had gone to her death.

Harper's parents are dead, but one sister lives in Barrie, another in North Bay, and he has a brother, a doctor, in New York, and another brother is a professor in Edinburgh University, Scotland.

Another party from Government House was also on the river, and Captain Bell, A.D.C., Mr. Gladwin MacDougall and the Misses Ritchie got into shallow water, but got out safely.

The Blair household is one of mourning. Her Excellency the Countess of Minto drove there as soon as the news of the fatality reached her, to offer her sympathy to the stricken sisters. The Minister of Railways and Mrs. Blair are at Clifton Springs, New York. The sad news of their daughter's death was wired to them late last evening, and they will return home to-day.

Five in Lake Winnipeg.

Winnipeg, Dec. 7.—A report was brought in last night that five persons were drowned in the northern part of Lake Winnipeg. The party was fishing, when the ice gave way. Two were Islanders, two Indians and one an Englishman.

INSTANT DEATH TO TWO.

Through Sliding of a Mass of Rock a C.P.R. Freight Plunged Headlong Into a Grim Fraser Canyon.

Vancouver, B.C., Dec. 7.—Through the sliding of a mass of overhanging rock, by which the track was swept away in what is by far the wildest section of the mountain district, an extra westbound freight train of the C.P.R. at 5.15 yesterday morning plunged headlong into the grim canyon on the Fraser, taking with it to instant death the driver of the locomotive, Randall, and Pottruff, his fireman. Their death must necessarily have been instantaneous, for a twinkling from the time it left the rail the engine with the forward portion of the train had plunged three hundred feet into the darkness below, and was being battered to fragments by the grinding rocks and raging waters. The accident illustrates how even the best precautions fail to entirely remove the hazard of railroading in such a region, for here the roadbed is incessantly patrolled in order that trains may be timely warned where rockslides or other mishaps threaten them. The patrolman had indeed twice crossed the scene of the disaster during Thursday night, the last occasion being after 4 o'clock, when nothing was amiss. A regular train had passed unharmed within two hours of the catastrophe. For the extra there was no sign of warning. It was proceeding slowly and uninterruptedly, when a roar and a rumble were heard, then a shaking of the after portion of the train, and a violent shock. A sudden rockslide near a curve of the deep cut canyon had swept away the track, the engine and five front cars had leaped the obstacle, and piled in splintered steel and timber in the canyon below, while the still falling masses of rock and loosened earth had cut the train in two, thereby saving Conductor Harris and his brakeman in the tail end caboose, the brakeman having but reached it from a visit to the locomotive.

Wholesale Drowning.

London, Dec. 6.—A despatch to The Daily Express from Bombay says that during the celebration of feast day of St. Francis Xavier, Dec. 3, at the Portuguese City of Goa, on the west coast of India, the sinking of a launch resulted in the drowning of 140 devotees, 50 yards from the shore.

FROM ACROSS THE RIVER.

Some Items of Interest From Ashburnham.

Municipal Matters—The Civic Association—The Gun Club.

Although the municipal nominations are only a few short weeks distant municipal matters are decidedly quiet. This is, no doubt owing to the fact that the village council of 1901 has been a most harmonious body, and has exercised excellent judgment during its tenure of office—whilst there is scarcely any probability of there being a contest for the reeveship, still it might not surprise many if some new candidates loomed up for honours in the way of representation at the council board. It is understood that Councillor Smith is being urged by some of his friends to take the field for the Chief Magistrate's chair, but then it is said that Councillor Smith thinks that he has a safe berth of it where he is and is satisfied with it for the present.

On Thursday afternoon the Gun Club had a shoot on the Riverside Park, and some fair marksmanship was the result. Amongst those who were present were Messrs. Dixon Jewett, Edg. Hartley, Michael Tooley, Sam Courier, Chas. James, Harry Neil, and J. Brooks. The shooting was done at blue rocks which did not work very satisfactorily. Next week there will be a shoot on the Riverside grounds for turkeys and geese when it is expected there will be a large list of competitors. The Ashburnham marksmen are endeavouring to re-organize the once flourishing Gun Club. Messrs. Tooley and Brooks will shoot for a barrel of cider.

The young people of the village are becoming impatient for another dance in the town hall. The young bachelors, a few weeks ago, it will be remembered, gave a very enjoyable assembly and a movement will be made to have them more frequently than in the past.

The Calcutt Brewing and Malting Co. have just issued a handsome calender to their patrons which is quite in keeping with the progressive management of the institution. The calendar is an exceptionally large one and contains four elegant cuts of soldiers, representing the Gordon Highlanders, the Bengal Lancers, 11th Fusiliers and the New South Wales Lancers. The calendar is being much admired.

Ashburnham possesses excellent skating, and has, in fact, had such since Thanksgiving Day. However, it is only recently that the skaters have considered it safe and from the Ashburnham shore of the Little Lake the ice is black with young people, who are enjoying Canada's premier winter sport. The canal, too, is a favourite resort, and from above the lift lock to Auburn, there is an excellent sheet of ice.

It is not likely that the Riverside Park skating rink will be in operation this winter. Manager Wood did not make much of a success of it last winter. The means of flooding the rink are very poor, and severely handicap any efforts to make it a success.

What has become of the Ashburnham Civic Association? This is a common question on the streets of Ashburnham. The Association started out with a very large membership about a year ago, and its future looked exceedingly rosy. Meetings were to be held once a month at which matters of public interest were to be discussed. Had the officers of the Association not better call a meeting to see where the institution is at present?

The sound of the shipbuilder's hammer will not be heard this winter in the Ashburnham dock yards.

LAWN BOWLING CLUB BALL.

Sub-Committees Appointed to Complete the Arrangements.

At a meeting of the Ball Committee of the Lawn Bowling Club, last evening, with Dr. Boucher in the chair, it was finally decided that the refreshments would be provided by a caterer, and that the kindness of the ladies would not be taxed in this respect.

A sub-committee composed of Messrs. A. H. Stratton, Harry LeBrun, F. H. Dixon and Dr. Moher has charge of the matter.

Other sub-committees appointed last night were as follows:

Committee on Decorations—Messrs. R. C. McHarrie, Robt. Kerr, R. H. Ross, Dickson Davidson and H. Rush.

Committee to meet Lady Patronesses—Messrs. W. D. Parker and E. C. Complin.

Invitation Committee—Messrs. H. Rush, R. Kerr and Alf. Terrill.

Music and Hall Committee—Messrs. P. Campbell, D. Davidson, H. Rush and A. H. Stratton.

The Ball Committee will meet on Thursday evening next at half past seven in the Canada Life Board Room to receive the reports of the various Sub-Committees.

KEEPING SHOW WINDOWS CLEAN OF FROST.

A Plan That is Simple and Said to be Effective.

Merchants go to great trouble to make elegant and elaborate window displays, and it is annoying, or disappointing, to have these displays hidden completely from public gaze by a thick coating of frost. A correspondent supplies the following:

"I have a method which is simple, and which, I think, is quite good, in that it is sure to do required work, and is less expensive than the idea of "bexing" and "ventilating" a window.

My windows are not enclosed or "boxed," but open right into the store, therefore giving the windows plenty of opportunity to "steam and frost." My idea is to place at one side a window and about one foot away from the glass, a common electric fan. The fan should be placed on a small stand, about two feet high, and at an angle so that wind of fan will be blowing across the window then direct against the glass. By experimenting a little, any one can soon tell at what angle to set the fan. I have used the plan for two winters, and find it very effective. While in extreme cold weather it may not keep the glass entirely free from frost, it will keep the glass clear enough for any display to be seen without any trouble, as the only part of glass that will not be clear will be at extreme top or directly beside the fan; but you will always be sure of being able to see the display.

The permanent lights in my windows are turned on by baby-knife switches just back of windows in place, and to these switches I connect the cord which is attached to the fan. The fan runs day and night.

I have tried inclosing and ventilating windows, also, but the idea of the fan has proven far more successful with me. Hoping this idea will prove beneficial to some of your readers."

Miss Marion Cunningham, the Popular Young Treasurer of the Young Woman's Club of Emporia, Kans., has This to Say of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Your Vegetable Compound cured me of womb trouble from which I had been a great sufferer for nearly three years. During that time I was very irregular and would often have intense pain in the small of my back, and blinding headaches and severe cramps. For three months I used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and aches and pains are as a past memory, while health and happiness is my daily experience now. You certainly have one grateful friend in Emporia, and I have praised your Vegetable Compound to a large number of my friends. You have my permission to publish my testimonial in connection with my picture. Yours sincerely, MISS MARION CUNNINGHAM, Emporia, Kans."

SATURDAY, DEC. 7, 1901.

TWO WAYS.

A despatch states that Mrs. McKinley, widow of the assassinated President of the United States, is slowly wasting away.—"She spends her time in weeping and thinking of the one she loved so well." This is very sad, but if Mrs. McKinley, instead of being left desolate with an income of several thousand a year, was left desolate with a family of half a dozen orphams and no income, as tens of thousands of widows are left, and had to provide a roof and existence for her little flock of orphans, she wouldn't have time to waste away in idle grief. There's many a shipload of sham and misplaced sympathy in the world, for the sentimentally afflicted, especially when endowed with a wealth of this world's goods; but there's mighty little practical sympathy for the bereaved poor with greater responsibilities and no means to meet them. The sorrow that eats out its own heart in its little narrow circle of self, forgetful of its obligations towards others, is petty and paltry compared to that of the sorrow that bravely takes up the burdens of life, and the discharge of duty towards helpless dependents. Yet the one especially when associated with wealth to meet every mutual want is burdened with sympathy, while the other, the widow with a big family of orphans, when the bread winner is taken away, has to face the cold world, alone, with no prospect for to-morrow's bread for her little brood, or a brand to warm them. The mother's grief instead of being selfishly wasted on herself is absorbed in the greater grief that rends her heart for her helpless children, and must give way to the insistent call of love and duty to action, for the sake of the living and dependent. The grief for the bread-winner must be buried in his grave. There is no time to pine away in idle grief. If we cannot apply common sense to our Christianity we are unprofitable servants.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The "handwriting on the wall" has become very dim in West Huron.

The King of Italy should "go on strike." There is a movement on foot to reduce his salary to something under three millions of dollars. The down trodden wage earner never gets a "fair show."

The fact of Toronto aldermen dining in the new city stables is a clear case of diversion of the buildings from their legitimate use. The stables were built for the accommodation of horses not a— aldermen.

Mr. Whitney quotes New Ontario as "the land of the stunted poplar." He now has reason to regard West Huron as "the land of the stunted popularity of the Opposition leader and cause."

There are now fourteen vacancies in the representation in the House of Commons. Of these six are in seats that were held by the Opposition. It is probable that after the by-elections some of these seats will be held by Liberals.

The Christian Guardian says of prohibition: "We would strongly favour a somewhat extended period of preparation, within which the strongest campaign of moral suasion and education ever conducted in Ontario, should be undertaken by the Provincial Alliance and all its allied organizations."

It is asserted by some that vaccination is no protection against smallpox. The health officer of Ottawa states that in the new cases of smallpox coming to light, not one of the patients has been vaccinated. Those who hve been vaccinated, escape infection. That seems to prove something.

Fuller census returns show that the population of Ontario is 2,180,278. The population in this province of French extraction, is 162,647, an increase of 61,000 over what it was in 1891, showing that it is from this element that the increase in our population in the past ten years has been chiefly drawn.

The decision of the three County Court Judges in the Toronto case declaring the scrap iron amendment of last session invalid and inoperative does not seem to be generally respected. The "scrap iron assessment" is again in question, this time in Ottawa, where the assessment of several corporations is before a Board of judges; the effort to have the cases disposed of on the strength of the Toronto decision failed, the judges deciding to deal with each case on its merits.

The Conservative party claims to be perfectly harmonious. This claim, especially as applied to their newspapers, is just. The latter show the same beautiful harmony in re-framing from editorial reference to the pro-Boer speech of Mr. Monk, the deputy-Conservative leader, and the discussion of the result in West Huron, where, according to current report, an election took place, resulting in a decided victory for the Liberal Government of Ontario.

The speeches of Mr. Monk can be explained. So can the speeches of Mr. Bourassa. The clear intent of Mr. Monk is to inflame French Canadian prejudice into a tribunal which will try and condemn Wilfrid Laurier for the crime of Imperialism. — Toronto Telegram.

Monk, says the Hamilton Times, seeks to make capital against Laurier in Quebec by painting him as a rabid Imperialist, and the Tory leaders in Ontario try to make it appear that he is not half willing enough to shed Canadian blood and dollars in the interest of the Empire. It's the same old game they tried to work last election. The telegraph, the press, the post, and all the advantages of education and intercommunication are leagued against such a scheme.

HE "ROCKED THE BOAT."

Toronto Star.

Hugh John Macdonald is coming in for praise in some quarters because he passed a prohibition enactment in Manitoba, yet his successors in the Manitoba Government are probably classing him as a young man who "didn't know it was loaded," or who "rocked the boat," and spilt them in the drink question, leaving them to struggle there while he got safely out of it.

Mr. Macdonald admits that he does not, and did not when he passed the measure believe in prohibition. He does not think that public opinion will enforce a prohibitory law. But he passed such a law, resigned his post, and left the unworkable enactment for Mr. Roblin to struggle with.

Before Mr. Macdonald is accorded too much praise for his course, it would be well to secure some positive assurance that when he brought down the legislation referred to he did not know that he would scuttle out of Manitoba politics and leave to others the consequence of his action. If he thought the law to be ultra vires of the Legislature, and knew that if it were intra vires he would be elsewhere and not concerned in the result, he deserves no credit for exploiting so great a question in a manner so irresponsible.

GROWING BABIES.

Need Watchful Care to Prevent Overfeeding and the Evils That Follow.

All children at some period of their infancy are subject to indigestion, diarrhoea, or constipation. While the symptoms of these troubles greatly differ, the origin of each is due to the same cause—improper food or overfeeding. This results sometimes in diarrhoea, sometimes in constipation. In either the treatment is to remove the cause, and this can only be speedily, safely and effectually done by the use of Baby's Own Tablets, a purely vegetable medicine guaranteed to contain no opiate nor any of the poisonous stuffs found in the so-called soothing medicines. Mothers who once use Baby's Own Tablets for their little ones never after experiment with other medicines, and always speak of them in the highest terms. Mrs. Geo. R. Johnston, Wall street, Brockville, says: "I have been using Baby's Own Tablets for over a year, always keep them in the house and always find them satisfactory. If my little boy—two years of age—is troubled with constipation, indigestion or diarrhoea, I give him the tablets and he is soon relieved. The tablets regulate the bowels and do not cause after constipation as many medicines do. I have also found them beneficial in teething."

Baby's Own Tablets are a certain cure for all the minor ailments of little ones such as colic, sour stomach, constipation, indigestion, diarrhoea, etc. Children take them readily, and crushed or dissolved in water they can be given with good results to the youngest infant. Sold by druggists or sent post paid at 25 cents a box by addressing the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

CANADIAN SHIPBUILDING.

A Promising Future—British and American Capital Will Compete in Developing Canada's Iron and Steel Resources.

The visit of Sir Christopher Furness to Canada and the United States has been important to shibuilding and other interests, if the reports sent from New York on the occasion of his sailing, are well founded. He has gone home with a pocket full of contracts for steamships. A round dozen large freighters are to be built in the Old Country with American capital. This will be a boon to British ship carpenters and engineers, and give an impulse to business of all kinds in shipbuilding towns.

But what concerns Canada most is the announcement that Sir Christopher has arranged with the Clergue interests at the Canadian Soo, for the erection of a $10,000,000 shipbuilding plant and steel works, the raw material for which is to be supplied by Canadian iron and coal mines. This is just the kind of thing we want. For years and years we have been trying to get the surplus capital of Great Britain flowing this way, but the slow going Englishman could not be induced to launch out into enterprises which have since been developed by United States and Canadian capital. But now that that American competition has forc the Englishman to look about for means of meeting it, there is a disposition to turn to the colonies and see whether or not the stream of business, which is pressing Engl'sn iron and steel workers so hard, cannot be tapped near its source and diverted. American capital has got the first foothold in Canada for iron and steel products, developed from Canadian raw material, but there is ample room for British capital yet, and, if the Briton and the Yankee engage in a contest for supremacy in developing our mineral and other resources, this country will boom as never before. With the Dominion Iron and Steel Company at Sydney, C.B., the proposed shipbuilding plant at or near Halifax, the Cramp-Ontario Steel Works at Collingwood, and the Clergue and Furness plants at Sault Ste. Marie, Canada, bids fair to become one of the greatest shipbuilding countries in the world. With the increased settlement of Northwestern Ontario, Manitoba and the Territories, there will be necessity for a great expansion of lake-carrying facilities. Even this season, there has been a great scarcity of vessels, and what would the situation be with twice the population, and twice the area of land under cultivation! Ships are and will be needed to carry the wheat to market, and there will be ample scope for both the Collingwood and Soo plants.

Now, that Sir Christopher Furness has shown the way, let us hope that other British capitalists will follow, to the end that the immense resources of Canada may be developed, and this colony made more than ever a prop and stay for the Motherland —a field for enterprises that will yield large returns.—Toronto World.

THE WEST HURON TRIUMPH.

Results of Vigorous Educational Campaign.

Premier Ross Expresses Great Satisfaction at the Result and Predicts That the Province Will be Carried in the Same Way.

(Toronto Globe.)

The result of the West Huron bye-election was regarded with very great satisfaction by Liberals in the city yesterday. It was felt to be a perfectly safe augury of victory in the coming general elections, having in view the desperate efforts of the Opposition campaigners who filled the riding, and who failed to overcome the sober judgment of the electors when once they understood the significance of the Liberal policy. Premier Ross, when seen by a representative of The Globe, regarded the result with great satisfaction. "The Government was confident from the outset," the Premier said, "that West Huron would support the Liberal candidate if the electors were fully informed as to the policy of the Government, and accordingly from the very beginning the campaign was conducted on educational lines. It was with this object that several members of the Government visited the riding, and also with the same view secured the valuable assistance of leading members of the party. The local leaders, including the candidate, applied themselves with great energy to the work of organization, and to the platform as well.

"I am convinced," the Premier said, "that a campaign similarly conducted throughout Ontario is the surest way to victory. Every elector seized the importance of the watchword of the Government, 'Build up Ontario,' and whether a Conservative or a Reformer, cannot but appreciate the advantage of developing the resources of old Ontario as well as opening up New Ontario to settlement and colonization. Against this was placed the feeble criticisms of Mr. Whitney and his colleagues on the policy of the government. They had nothing to offer of a constructive character, and it is gratifying to find that the electors are not prepared to pull down a Government with such a splendid record as the Liberal party of Ontario has made for itself in order to place in power their opponents, who depend upon misrepresentation and partisan criticism for their policy.

"Apart from the satisfaction which the victory affords, it is gratifying to know that Mr. Garrow's sterling abilities as a Liberal and a professional man have been recognized by the people whom he has served so long and so well.

"The record of the bye-elections this year ought to go to show that the Liberal party in Ontario is united as well as aggressive. The vacancy in East Kent was filled by the election by acclamation of Mr. John Lee. The vacancy in London gave that stalwart old Liberal, Col. Leys, a majority over his opponent of 1,655, and now West Huron increases its Liberal majority five-fold. Who says it is time for a change?"

One of the chief points of Abbey's Effervescent Salt is its superiority as a laxative—taking the place of nauseating draughts and other harsh remedies. It is particularly useful in cases of obstinate constipation, without being attended with debility of the stomach and bowels; not having the reactionary effect peculiar to most aperients and cathartics.

All druggists sell Abbey's Effervescent Salt, 25c. and 60c. a bottle.

HELD ON CHARGE OF MURDER.

Dr. Graham and Miss Kilbourne Charged With Death of an Infant.

London, Dec. 7.—The preliminary examination of Dr. Alex. Graham and Emma Anges Kilbourne, charged with the murder of the latter's infant child by the performing of an operation, was proceeded with at the Police Court yesterday morning. The testimony of Mrs. Jessie Clark and also of her husband was taken yesterday afternoon and evening, but nothing new was adduced from either, and the court adjourned till this morning

ON THE FOUR-SQUARE PLAN.

The four-square plan means that all customers, regardless of rank or station, receive the same careful attention and treatment at our store. We are as particular with the child who is sent to purchase some small article as we are with the experienced adult. We never substitute inferior drugs when filling your doctor's prescription. We never recommend the "something just as good." Sure and Unfailing.

Under all circumstances of sickness and disease Paine's Celery Compound is safe, sure and unfailing. It cleanses and purifies the blood, braces the nerves, corrects digestion, and builds up those who are weak and run down. If you are nervous or sleepless, try one bottle; the results will surprise you. Our stock of Paine's Celery Compound is always fresh and pure. H. H. Edmison, druggist, Peterborough, Ont.

VICTIM OF THE DUEL

Major VanTets of Queen Wilhelmina's Bodyguard Dead.

AFTERMATH OF THE MEETING

Served the Dainty Dutch Queen With Chivalrous Devotion and Sealed It With His Blood—Said That Her Majesty Stanched VanTets' Wounds With Her Own Fair Hands.

London, Dec. 7.—A despatch to The Central News from Amsterdam says that Major VanTets died last Thursday evening. This is the aftermath of the duel between Prince Henry and the deceased.

Major "the Getreen" VanTets is one of ten noble youths who formed the bodyguard of the smiling young Queen when she was married in February, and who have since been at their Royal Mistress' beck and call on every occasion. They pride themselves on their servitude, and in this matter-of-fact twentieth century their chivalrous devotion to Queen Wilhelmina is a pretty thing to see. It is whispered that every man of the ten handsome young youths who surround Her Majesty's carriage when she drives abroad, skate with her when she skates, ride with her when she rides, and dance attendance on her generally has been at one time or another over head and ears in love with the dainty little lady in whom Holland's hopes are centred.

Official contradictions notwithstanding, nobody at The Hague doubts for a moment that the Queen and her consort have been at loggerheads practically since the wedding. Wilhelmina is not a woman to allow herself to be neglected with impunity.

It is said that she stanched VanTets' wound with her own hands, and insisted on her husband's begging pardon of the Jonkherr as well as of herself before she would forgive him.

A HEALTHY WOMAN.

Queen Victoria lived to a glorious old age, but the very best care was taken of her health. She never suffered from headache, indigestion or dyspepsia, brought on in most cases by negligence at one time or another. "Olimax" Iron Tonic Pills cure such complaints. Each box contains ten days' treatment. Price 25 cents, at all druggists, or mailed on receipt of price. Address: The Dr. Hall Medicine Co., Kingston, Ont.

Referred to Exchequer Court.

Ottawa, Dec. 6.—An Order-in-Council has been passed referring the claim of Messrs. Mackenzie & Mann for their work in connection with the proposed all-Canadian route to the Yukon, which the Senate defeated, to the Exchequer Court. It was stated that this was to be done by the Premier last session. The amount of claim which Mackenzie & Mann now presents is $302,717 and interest. The Exchequer Court will decide how much ought to be paid to the firm who were going to build an all-Canadian road, but for the action of the Senate in throwing out the bill, which had passed the committee by a large majority.

Mr. Garrow's Majority.

Goderich, Dec. 6.—No. 2, East Wawanosh, gives a majority for Mr. Garrow of 3, and No. 3, East Wawanosh, a majority for Mr. Garrow of 25. These additions give Mr. Garrow a total majority of 285.

A royal commission has been appointed to elaborate plans for the re-organization of the Swedish police.

That Whoop!

Have you had it in your house? It's cough and cough and cough, and then that terrible whoop! Don't upset the stomach more by giving nauseous medicine. Just let the child breathe in the soothing vapor of Vapo-Cresolene. It goes right to the spot that's diseased. Relief is immediate, and in a very few days the cure is complete. You can't say the same of any other treatment. For asthma, catarrh, and colds it's equally good.

Vapo-Cresolene is sold by druggists everywhere. The Vaporizer and Lamp, which should last a lifetime, and a bottle of Cresolene complete, $1.50; extra supplies of Cresolene 25 cents and 50 cents. Illustrated booklet containing physicians' testimonials free upon request. Vapo-Cresolene Co., 180 Fulton St., New York, U.S.A.

LIVE STOCK EXPOSITION.

Championship Prizes That Come to Canada—Big Prices Realized.

Chicago, Dec. 7.—Judging in the championship classes for the leading breeds of cattles was the feature yesterday of the International Live Stock Exposition. The attendance was nearly as large as Thursday, when 85,000 persons visited the show during the day and evening.

Another notable sale of the day was made in the swine department, where D. C. Flatt & Sons of Millgrove, Ont., sold four head of Yorkshires for $1,650. One boar sold for $700.

Among the championships awarded were the following:

Among the champions awarded in the sheep were:

Champion Leicester ram, any age, John Kelly, Shakespeare, Ont.

It remained for the shorthorns to carry off the honors in the sale ring, as 69 head of that breed brought $43,760, an average of $634 a head. Fifty-two cows sold for $33,675, or $647 each, and 17 bulls for $10,085, an average of $593. The highest priced cow was "Mishie," 153d. bred and imported by W. S. Marr of Aberdeenshire, Scotland, and sold to W. C. Edwards of Rockland, Ont., for $6,000. This cow was just out of quarantine and was imported expressly for this sale.

The Fruit Growers Conclude.

Cobourg, Dec. 7.— The last session of the Ontario Fruit Growers' Association opened here yesterday morning. Reports of the special committees were received. There was an exhibit of cold storage apples from Buffalo. Mr. Robert Thompson, St. Catharines, then addressed the meeting on "Lessons on Cold Storage From the Pan-American." Mr. E. D. Smith, Winona, gave an address on "Our Export Trade in Fruit." At the afternoon session Mr. E. B. Stevenson read a paper on "Promising New Varieties of Strawberries." Mr. M. Pettit, Winona, read a paper on "Profitable Grapes," and Mr. W. H. Dempsey of Trenton one on "Our Best Commercial Apples," and Mr. Harold Jones, Toronto, one on "How to Produce Fine Apples." The meeting was brought to a close after the several papers had been discussed.

Walkerton has been chosen as the next place of meeting.

Something About Faith Cures.

What a great variety of faith cures there must be, some have faith in so-called divine healers, others in certain doctors and still others in the medicines they use. Every person who has tested Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills has faith in them, but faith or no faith they cure just the same, for they act directly and specifically on the kidneys, liver and bowels, and make these organs healthy, acitve and vigourous. Judging from the enormous demand for these pills there must be hosts of people that have faith in them.

Dean O'Meara Dead.

Winnipeg, Dec. 7.—About 3 o'clock yesterday morning the death of Very Rev. Dean O'Meara occurred. He has been ill for some time with typhoid fever, and his death did not cause a surprise. He had been Dean for somewhat over four years, and lived here for more than 20 years, and his name was dear throughout Manitoba and the Northwest. He was a most eloquent preacher and a frequent speaker on public occasions.

Very Rev. James Dallas O'Meara, Dean of Rupert's Land, was born at Manitowaning, Ont., in 1849, son of Rev. Canon F. A. O'Meara, L.L.D., rector of St. John's Church, Port Hope. He was educated at Georgetown and Toronto University, graduating in 1870, with a gold medal in metaphysics.

W. E. H. Massey's Will.

Toronto, Dec. 7.—The will of the late Mr. W. E. H. Massey has been filed for probate. The value of the estate, real and personal, was fixed at $760,118.17, and was made up chiefly of stock in the Massey-Harris Company, Sawyer & Massey Company, and other various interests with which he was connected, and Dentonia Park Farm. The residence on Jarvis street belonged to Mrs. Massey, and the life insurance was payable to her and the children.

Suit For Millions.

Victoria, B.C., Dec. 7.—Suit was taken yesterday against the White Pass and Yukon Railway for all the freight and the passenger rates paid since the railway began operations. The ground of the suit is that the rates schedule was not approved by the Dominion Government, and that the point that Skaguay was being claimed by Canada cannot be raised. The operations on the foreign soil involve many millions of dollars.

Wife sues for Alimony.

St. Thomas, Dec. 7.—Andrew Grant, barrister, acting on behalf of Mrs. Annie Pearson of this city, Thursday issued a writ for alimony against Jacob L. Pearson. The latter has been living in the United States, but recently returned to the Township of Bayham. Barrister Grant secured an order for Pearson's arrest on the ground that he was going to leave the province. The sheriff accordingly took Pearson into custody and he was lodged in jail.

WHAT CAUSES DEAFNESS.

The Principal Cause is Curable but Generally Overlooked.

Many things may cause deafness, and very often it is difficult to trace a cause. Some people inherit deafness. Acute diseases, like scarlet fever, sometimes cause deafness. But by far the most common cause of loss of hearing is catarrh of the head and throat.

A prominent specialist on ear troubles gives as his opinion that nine-tenths of ten cases of deafness is traced to throat trouble; this is probably over-stated, but it is certainly true that more than half of all cases of poor hearing are caused by catarrh.

The catarrhal secretion in the nose and throat finds its way into the Eustachian tube and by clogging it up it very soon affects the hearing, and the hardening of the secretion makes the loss of hearing permanent, unless the catarrh which caused the trouble is cured.

Those who are hard of hearing may think this a little far-fetched, but any one at all observant must have noticed how a hard cold in the head will affect the hearing and that catarrh, if long neglected will certainly impair the sense of hearing and ultimately cause deafness.

If the nose and throat are kept clear and free from the unhealthy secretions of catarrh, the hearing will at once greatly improve and anyone suffering from deafness and catarrh can satisfy themselves on this point by using a fifty-cent box of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, a new catarrh cure, which in the past year has won the approval of thousands of catarrh sufferers, as well as physicians, because it is in convenient form to use, contains no cocaine or opiate, and is as safe and pleasant for children as for their elders.

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets is a wholesome combination of Blood Root, Guaiacol, Eucalyptol and similar antiseptics, and they cure catarrh and catarrhal deafness by action upon the blood and mucous membrane of the nose and throat.

As one physician aptly expresses it, "You do not have to draw upon the imagination to discover whether you are getting benefit from Stuart's Catarrh Tablets; improvement and relief are apparent from the first tablet taken."

All druggists sell and recommend them. They cost but fifty cents for full sized packages, and any catarrh sufferer who has wasted time and money on sprays, salves and powders, will appreciate to the full the merit of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets.

Bye-Election in York, N.B.

Ottawa, Dec. 7.—The writ for the bye-election for the House of Commons in York, N.B., was issued yesterday. The election will take place on the 28th inst., and nominations a week earlier. Mr. Gibson, ex-M.P., who was unseated, will be the Liberal candidate, and Rev. Mr. MacLeod the Conservative nominee. Sheriff Sterling is the returning officer.

Speaker's Sore Throat.

Public speakers and singers know how useless and sickening are cough mixtures, sprays, lozenges, etc., etc., for irritable and sore throat, and state that the most satisfactory remedy is Catarrhozone, the advantage of which is that it acts quickly and is convenient to use in public places. Catarrhozone relieves congestion, allays inflammation, and is a protection to the membrane. As a safeguard against colds and catarrh it has no equal. Rev. Dr. McKay, of Goderich, says, "Catarrhozone is an excellent remedy for throat irritation, arising from colds." Physicians, ministers and singers recommend Catarrhozone; druggists sell it for $1. Small size, 25c. By mail from Polson & Co., Kingston, Ont.

A FIRE THAT KILLED.

Mother Loses Life ... to Save Children—Father Rescues Some, But Is Too Late to Save Wife.

Pittsburg, Pa., Dec. 7.—Two persons were burned to death and seven injured in a fire at Carnegie, Pa., yesterday morning.

The dead are: Mrs. Sarah Klee, aged 43, and Mary Klee, her daughter, aged nine.

The fire was in a grocery store, kept by Samuel Klee, and the rest of the house was occupied by the family. The fire was discovered about 4.40 o'clock, and Klee and his wife realized that there was but one way to save the children, and that was to throw them from the window, a distance of about twenty feet.

One by one the children were brought to the front window and dropped to the ground by the father. All of them were more or less seriously injured, but all escaped death from the flames, except Mary. By the time Harry, the baby, was reached, not only was the father exhausted with his exertions and the terrible conditions under which he worked, but the flames were fast making his efforts impossible. When he was able to get Harry, it was found that the fire had already reached him, and that the little one's face and feet and hands were blistered and burned. H was snatched from the burning building just in time and it is thought that he will survive.

After rescuing his baby, the father looked round for his wife, whom he had missed from his side for some time. Unable to locate her, he called to those whom he had saved for the purpose of ascertaining if she had joined them. She had not, and the husband became almost distracted with fear and panic. It seems, however, that while the father was rescuing the youngest and most helpless child, she was making an attempt to save the life of Mary, and in doing so gave up her own life.

The house was entirely destroyed.

Brandy Pot Man Safe.

Ottawa, Dec. 7.—Lieut.-Col. Gourdeau, Deputy Minister of Marine, has received the following telegram from the agent of the department at Quebec: "The keeper of the lights at Brandy Pot and his man, who were adrift in the ice, have landed on the Pilgrims. A flag of distress is up. He is supposed to be injured by the frost. I am sending Koenig by rail, with ice canoe and men, to St. Andre, to cross over and bring them away. (Signed) J. N. Gregory."

Control of Tien Tsin.

Pekin, Dec. 7.—The principal object of the visit to Pekin of Yuan Shi Kai, the new viceroy of Chi Li, who arrived here Dec. 3, is to induce the foreign powers to relinquish their control of the Government at Tien Tsin. Yuan Shi Kai has assured all the ministers of foreign powers that he is personally able and willing to maintain order at Tien Tsin and in the province.

Consumption

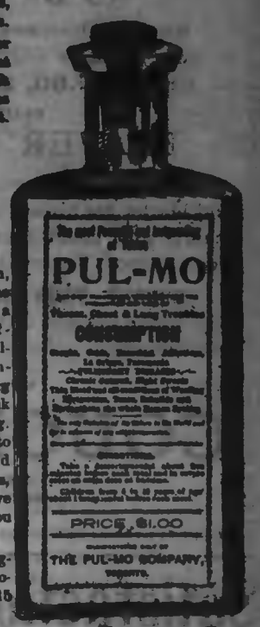
A cure that cures Consumption and its many kindred ailments is now within the reach of every sufferer. PUL-MO was perfected after many years of study and experimenting by a well-known German scientist, and has effected more cures than any other preparation which has been offered to the public. PUL-MO, while somewhat new in Canada, has been and is curing thousands of cases, and we have on file many testimonials and kindly letters written us by grateful people who have been returned to perfect health.

PUL-MO is the only absolute cure where there is Consumption, Throat and Lung trouble, Coughs, Colds, La Grippe, Bronchitis, Night Sweats, Chills, Fevers, or any other symptoms which may indicate a tendency toward consumption. PUL-MO has cured thousands of cases which had been treated by physicians without success, and finally pronounced by them as hopeless.

PUL-MO stands alone—the use of any other medicine as an assistant is not necessary. Use good plain nourishing food, get plenty of fresh air and out-door exercise, and use PUL-MO as directed, that is all—Nature will do the rest.

Large Sample FREE

We know positively that it does all we claim, and to demonstrate our implicit faith in the merits of PUL-MO, we will gladly mail a sample bottle free of charge, direct to your post-office address, securely sealed in a patent mailing tube or box; but as we have gone to considerable expense in securing these mailing tubes for the convenience of our patrons, we ask you to send 10 cents to cover the cost of mailing. Only one sample of PUL-MO will be sent to any one person. Give PUL-MO a trial and convince yourself that it cures. All we ask is, that you take it as directed. Remember, we pay the expense of the trial, it will cost you nothing.



PUL-MO is inexpensive, being sold by druggists at $1.00 per large bottle, or you may procure a sample bottle from your druggist at 10 cents.

Suffered Agony.

Rodger Pilson Spent Hundreds of Dollars to Get Well of Eczema—Cured by Powley's Liquified Ozone.

The usual annoyance Eczema causes.

It is with much gratitude that I send you my testimonial for what Ozone has done for me. For eight years I have suffered with eczema in both legs and in the thigh. During this time I spent hundreds of dollars with doctors in the city of Toronto, and used every remedy that was recommended for this disease. At this time I was driving a wagon for the C. P. R., but owing to the seriousness of my trouble I was obliged to throw up my position.

In the Spring of 1901, a friend advised me to try Powley's Liquified Ozone, which I decided to do. I purchased a large bottle at W. H. Burgess' drug store on Yonge St., Toronto, and applied it locally and also took it internally. Before I had used three large bottles I was completely cured.

My wife has also used it for nervous prostration and is at present taking it with great results. I consider this preparation to be the best and will always keep it in the house for family use. I will be pleased to answer any inquiries in regard to this preparation or give any information that any sufferer may wish to know.

Wishing you every success, I am very truly yours,
(Sgd.) RODGER PILSON,
Lot 6, 4th Concession, West York, Downsview, P. O., Ont.

For eight years Mr. Pilson suffered with eczema. All these years he underwent the torture and humiliation of this dreadful scourge. He spent hundreds of dollars with physicians, and in the end a few bottles of Powley's Liquified Ozone made the cure. Its simple enough and yet how wonderful. If you are similarly afflicted, a few dollars will enable you to get a positive cure. Ozone—you apply it yourself; take it inwardly and are cured.

Powley's Liquified Ozone is oxygen in stable form. Nature's way of curing. It makes healthy flesh and blood; destroys the germs of disease. Ozone is life.

STRENGTHENS THE STATE.

Life Insurance is for the protection of those dependent on a man's life; their dependence makes it an unavoidable duty. Those dependent we assume to protect by our contract, at his personal cost; our duty to them is to make that contract as large, as secure, and as certainly available to them as possible; thus every Policy written conserves the interest of the State. A man with a Life Insurance Policy is apt to be a good citizen. Anarchists have no use for Life Insurance, and the state has no use for anarchists. The State should encourage every citizen to carry insurance. This Strengthens the State, abolishes alms-houses, and creates property that can be taxed. Further, the income from Your labour ends with Your life. The cost of living to the family continues. Take measures to have the income continue also. The Life Insurance Policy Does It.

The most enterprising and progressive of all the Canadian Life Offices to-day is the Sun Life of Canada. Ten years ago the Company had Life Assurance in force to the extent of $16,759,355,-92. On the 31st of December last, this amount had been increased to $57,980,634.68. The increase, therefore, of Life Assurance in force during the last ten years amounted to the tremendous sum of $41,221,278.76.

THE BAND CONCERT.

A Very Delightful Programme Rendered in the Market Hall Last Night.

The second of the winter series of concerts in the Market Hall to be given by the 57th Regt. Band, was held last night, and notwithstanding several counter attractions, was fairly well attended. For some months the band has been practicing very diligently on some new music, and as a result those who were at the market hall last night received the benefit of their labours. A number of new selections were rendered and heartily enjoyed by the assemblage. Mr. Harry Clarke proved to be as popular as ever in his trombone solos, whilst the descriptive selection, the Hunting Scene, while it has been heard before, was well received.

The attendance at these concerts should continue as large as they have been in the past. There is no finer concert band in Ontario than the band of the 57th Regiment, under the able leadership of Prof. Gliddon, and it keeps improving all the time.

The programme last night was as follows:

March, "Noble Grand," ..... Pearson
Overture, "Pique Dame," ... ...Von Suppe
Trombone Solo, "Love's Old Sweet Song," ..... Molly
Mr. Harry Clark.
March, "A Frangeasa," ....Costa
Medley, "Sounds From The Cotton Fields," ....Costerno
Serenade, "The Whistles," ..... Peace
Waltzes, "Homage to the Ladies,"... ....Waldteufel
"Ma Ragtime Baby," ... ...Mackie
Descriptive, "A Hunting Scene," ....Burcalosi
GOD SAVE THE KING.

St. Luke's Church.

The Mission will commence to-morrow (Sunday) when the following services will be held: Holy Communion at 8.30 a.m., Morning Prayer at 11 a.m., Sunday School and Bible class at 3 p.m., Children's Service, (to which the parents are also invited), at 3.30 p.m., and evening prayer at 7 p.m. Rev. Arthur Murphy, M.A., will be the preacher throughout. During the week services will be held at 4.15 p.m., and 8 p.m., every day. The evening service will begin with a service of song at 7.30. All are cordially invited to attend this effort of extending the Kingdom of God in the hearts of the people.

Miss Delaney's Holiday Sale.

Next to the littlencss of prices, the best news of this sale is the superior qualities and refined taste in millinery and other dress needs. Everything is charmingly new — you see the sparkle of fashion everywhere. New styles, new patterns, new ideas — in fact a wealth of seasonable novelties. The best that Europe and America can produce has not been considered too good for this important holiday sale. Exquisitely trimmed hats, as well as quiet gentlewomen's hats, fashionable veilings, pretty fancy collars, novelties in neckwear, new conceits in belts, etc. Untrimmed hats, ready for the finishing touches, which many a lady prides herself on doing herself. Also many new things which fancy dictates in evening wear, and for Christmas gifts.

MISS DELANEY.

THE COUNTY COURT SITTINGS

Will Open Next Week Before His Honour Judge Weller.

There is one Criminal Action and Three Civil Actions on the Docket—Henry Doonan's Case.

The winter sittings of the County Court of the County of Peterborough and General Sessions of the Peace, open at one o'clock on Tuesday, before His Honour Judge Weller.

There is only one criminal case on, being that of Henry Doonan, who is charged with perjury. The case arises out of the seduction action of Scriver vs. Richardson, which was tried at the Fall Assizes here, and in which it is alleged that Doonan gave false evidence. The accused formerly lived at Hastings, but is now a resident of Bracebridge.

There are several civil cases, the first of which is a jury action.

WALSH V. TROTTER.

The plaintiff in this case is John Walsh, a farmer residing in the Township of Asphodel, and the defendant is Thomas Trotter, also a farmer, residing in the same Township. The action is brought by the plaintiff to recover the sum of $200 on an alleged account, and also damages. The plaintiff says that in or about the twentieth day of April, 1899, the plaintiff delivered to the defendant five cows, to be safely kept and taken care of and fed by the defendant during the year 1899. The defendant was to deliver all the milk of said cows to a certain cheese factory, the plaintiff to get half the proceeds and return the cows at the end of the season. It is alleged that the defendant did not return the cows, nor did he give an account of the milk sold.

In his statement of defence the defendant, while admitting that he entered an agreement regarding the cows, denies that he converted them to his own use, or deprived the plaintiff of the use and possession of the said cows or any of them; that he did not wrongly detain any of the said cows from the plaintiff, and that the plaintiff did not demand said cows from the defendant before such action, and also that the defendant has paid to the plaintiff his full share and value of milk produced.

W. A. F. Campbell, Norwood, for the plaintiff; Geo. Sherry for defendant.

DOBBIN V. DOBBIN.

The plaintiff is Robert Dobbin, and the defendant Andrew Dobbin, both farmers residing in the township of North Monaghan. They are brothers, and the action arises out of the estate of the late John Dobbin, of the Town of Peterborough, and father of the parties in the action. The plaintiff claims damages for wrong alleged to have been suffered by him, also a declaration of the Court that the plaintiff is the owner of a certain lane on Lot 5, in the 11th concession of the Township of North Monaghan, as a tenant in fee simple, subject to the life estate of Margaret Dobbin; that the plaintiff has the right to hold, use and occupy the said lane as a tenant to the said Margaret Dobbin; that the plaintiff be entitled to water cattle at a certain spring in said lane, as well as a mandamus, commanding the defendant to remove certain fences, etc.

The defendant sets up amongst other things that he has been by himself and his tenants in open and peaceable and continuous possession of the said lane and of the spring as owner thereof, ever since the spring of 1888, and claims the benefit of the statute commonly known as the Real Property Limitation Act, as a bar to the plaintiff's claim.

O'Connel & Kerr for plaintiff; Edmison & Dickson for defendants.

WARD V. MOORE.

Joseph Ward and John S. Clunie, trading together under the firm name of The Canadian Dairy Supply Co. ask the sum of $200, money that is alleged to be payable by the defendant, C. H. Moore, for goods delivered by the plaintiff. The goods referred to are cream separators, etc.

The defendant's statement of defence pleads breach of contract on the the part of the plaintiff.

Messrs. Stratton & Hall for plaintiffs; Dennistoun, Peck & Stevenson for defendants.

TO-DAY'S MARKET.

It Was Rather Brisk—The Prices That Were Asked.

There was a rather brisk market this morning, the good roads having brought many farmers into town. The outside market contained a great quantity of beef and pork. Beef was selling freely at 4 and 5 cents, and pork found a ready market at $6.75 for dressed hogs. Live hogs were selling at 5 1-2 for selects. A quantity of hay was offered at $8 and $9, and wood sold from $4 to $5 a cord.

The inside market was very heavy and prices were generally firm. Butter went at 18 to 21c, eggs 20 to 22c, geese 50 to 70c, turkeys 60c to $1.25, chickens 35 to 45c a pair, and ducks at 50 to 75c. The geese were of an exceptionally good quality, but the turkeys were not so good.

BROKE HER LEG.

Mrs. Robert Graham of Water Street Fell With Serious Results.

Mrs. Robert Graham, No. 547 Water street, had the misfortune to fall yesterday and break her leg.

Mrs. Graham, it appears, was walking in the rear of her residence when she slipped and fell on the icy ground with the above mentioned result. Mrs. Graham was conveyed into the house, and Dr. Boucher, who was summoned, set the bone. Mrs. Graham is a sister of Mr. Jas. Stevenson, ex-M.P.

JAMES GOODWIN DEAD.

Victim of a Recent Railway Accident Passed Away Last Night.

Mr. James Goodwin, who had the misfortune on Thursday night to have his left leg cut off and his arm badly mutilated by a locomotive, died last night at 7 o'clock as the result of injuries. On the evening of the accident Mr. Goodwin was taken to the Nicholls Hospital where his leg was amputated. The amputation of the arm was not attempted. The patient underwent the operation very hopefully and the following morning was a great deal better than might have been expected. Yesterday he commenced to sink and at 7 o'clock last night he passed away.

The deceased gentleman was about 56 years of age and lived at No. 3, Landy's Lane. He was a hard-working and industrious citizen, and highly respected. He was a native of England and the funeral will be conducted under the auspices of the Sons of England.

He leaves a wife and family. The funeral will take place at 2.30 o'clock on Sunday afternoon.

LAID AT REST.

The Funeral of the Late Robert J. Fife Took Place To-day.

The remains of the late Robert J. Fife, whose demise occurred in Chicago on Tuesday, arrived here per G.T.R. at 5.30 o'clock last night, and were taken to the residence of Mr. D. Belleghem, undertaker. They were viewed by many of deceased's friends and former acquaintances yesterday evening and last night.

The funeral took place at two o'clock this afternoon from Mr. D. Belleghem's, to the Little Lake Cemetery. The services at the house and the grave were conducted by Rev. Dr. Torrance, pastor of St. Paul's Presbyterian church. Many of Peterborough's citizens paid their last tribute of respect to the deceased by following the remains to the cemetery.

The pall bearers were: Messrs. W. G. Morrow, Alex. Gibson, F. D. MacKay, Dr. King, Theodore McWilliams and Dickson Davidson.

The many beautiful floral tributes were ample evidance of the esteem in which the late R. J. Fife was held. Amongst these received was a very pretty wreath from the deceased's mother, with the words "Mother" thereon. There were also wreaths from Mr. F. D. MacKay, the Peterborough Hockey Club, the Misses McKee, Miss Nellie Sherin, Peterborough Lodge A.F. & A.M., Mr. Dickson Hall, Miss Nicholls, Miss Bennett, and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Stapleton.

BANK IMPROVEMENTS.

The Ontario Bank has Two Handsome New Teller's Cages.

There have been changes of considerable importance going on to the interior of the local offices of the Ontario Bank, which when completed will more enable the staff to cope with the volume of business done. During the past few days workmen have been engaged in placing in a second new teller's cage which is situated next to the window facing on Simcoe street. The cages are as fine a specimen of work of the kind as one would wish to see, and are made by the Preston Furniture Company. From this time forward the local branch will have a paying and receiving teller's department as well as the savings teller's department. Owing to press of business to-day the bank had four tellers on duty.

UNSTATED DAMAGES.

George Forbes who Lost Both Hands Goes to Law.

Messrs. O'Connel & Kerr, barristers, Peterborough, have at the instance of Henry Boarer, acting on behalf of George Forbes, issued a writ for unstated damages against the Cordova Exploration Company.

The defendants in the action are an English Syndicate carrying on a gold mining business at Cordova, in Peterborough county. Forbes, who is having Henry Boarer acting in his behalf, is 19 years of age, which accounts for this procedure. The accident from which the action arises occurred on the 10th of May, 1901, in one of the mines of the company, and resulted in Forbes losing both his hands. The writ alleges negligence on the part of the company and its officials.

PERSONALS.

Dr. Andrew Scott is in Toronto for a day or two.

Mr. H. A. Wilson, of Hastings, was in town yesterday.

Mr. C. D. Henry, business manager for the "Vip-tack Co." is registered at the National.

CORDAGE CO. NOTES.

Operations Have now Reached a Most Interesting Stage Down at the Works.

The Cordage Company's works will doubtless be visited by hundreds of citizens to-morrow as operations have now reached a stage where a view of the buildings is most interesting.

The boiler house is completed in its entirety and the equipment is now being placed in position by the William Hamilton Mfg. Co. The Preparation Building, 74 x 122, is also finished and ready for the machinery, and the Spinning Building, 92 x 140, in size, is also in an advanced stage, the roof being already on, and men engaged in tinning it. The Rope Department, 92 x 120, is ready for the roof, and the brick work of the Repair Shop, 30 x 44, is almost completed. Three motor houses, each 12 x 14, are finished, and the stonemasons are hustling on the foundations of the Warerooms, which will be 53 x 280 in size. Ground has been broken for the erection of the Tar House, 24 x 72, and when that is finished, the Tank House, 20 x 20, and the offices have yet to be finished. These buildings fill in the entire block compassed by Perry, Bethune, Lake and Aylmer streets, and they will be packed in very closely together at that.

Contractor Hartley has certainly shown of what he is capable when it is taken into account the enormous amount of stonework which has been done, including many transverse walls beneath the buildings to support the placing of the heavy machinery.

The railway siding, concerning which there has been considerable dispute, is already laid, and men are engaged in putting in the ballasting.

THE LABOUR UNION.

45 New Candidates Enrolled at Last Night's Meeting.

When the municipal elections come on in the course of a few weeks, the candidates for aldermanic honours will have to reckon with an organization that has sprung into existence during the past year, and which has grown in membership of late by leaps and bounds. This organization is the Peterborough Union of Federation of Labour. The Peterborough Branch of the Federation has been very prosperous since its institution, and the meetings each Friday night are always well attended. Last night there were no less than 45 new members enrolled, and the membership now numbers over 600.

Enthusiastic speeches were made, and preparations are now going on for the visit to Peterborough of Grand Organizer J. E. Flett, of Hamilton, who will likely be here next week.

ELECTRIC LIGHTING EQUIPMENT.

Used on Grand Trunk Train, Received Gold Medal at Pan-American Exposition.

During the summer season the Grand Trunk Railway inaugurated a system of lighting several of its trains by electricity, also supplying the dining cars, and cafe parlour cars with electric fans, the current used for both the lighting and fan being generated from the axle of the wheels, an innovation very much appreciated by the travelling public.

The Consolidated Electric Lighting and Equipment Co., which installed this system, was awarded the gold medal at the Pan-American exposition by a jury composed of railway and electrical experts, after a critical examination of the various car lighting equipments.

EVANGELISTIC MEETINGS.

Mr. Walden in Close Touch With His Audience Last Night.

The evangelistic services last night in St. Andrew's Church hall, were the best of the series. A goodly number assembled and profitted very much from the earnest and practical address of Evangelist Walden.. He will give the addresses at both services in St. Andrew's tomorrow, and a very cordial invitation is extended to all, especially strangers. The special offering at the morning service will be for Home Missions, (by envelope), and in the evening for evangelistic work.

A LOCAL SONGSTRESS.

Miss Clara Belleghem Made a Most Favourable Impression in Tweed.

The Tweed News in referring to the anniversary services held in connection with the Methodist church of that place last Sunday, speaks as appended concerning one of Peterborough's most gifted young singers:

"The very efficient choir was assisted in the musical portion of the services by Miss Belleghem, a popular solo singer of Peterborough. At the morning service she rendered "The Man of Galilee" and at the evening service "A Clean Heart" and "Fear Not Ye." Miss Belleghem certainly made a good impression as a soloist upon those who were fortunate enough to hear her. She possesses a clear, strong and sweet voice, over which she seemed to have excellent control. One thing in her singing that was very much admired and brought forth considerable commendation was her very distinct enunciation. If Miss Belleghem should ever appear before a Tweed audience again we can assure her it would be one that would give her a very hearty reception. As a mark of appreciation of her services the Board of Trustees presented her on Monday morning with a gold piece. Both the pastor and the congregation have every reason to be gratified over the success of this year's anniversary."

Have you seen the latest in artistic photography at the entrance to Whiten's studio? Nothing in town to surpass the quality and style of photos at Whiten's.

THE SPORTS OF THE DAY.

The Annual Meeting of the Trent Valley Hockey League.

It Will be Held on Saturday Night—Other Items of Interest in the Athletic World.

One week from to-day the annual meeting of the Trent Valley League will be held and the clubs of the various towns connected therewith are preparing for the event. The success of the Trent Valley League during the past year or two has been encouragement for its officers to go into the work this season with renewed energy. The secretary has been in correspondence with the management of the clubs and they all express their utmost fidelity to the organization. Madoc has not yet been heard from, but it is expected that they will fall into line once more and they will likely run up against Stirling, a town which is booming the game this season at a great rate. Marmora, it is feared, will have to drop out. They are experiencing some difficulty with their rink management, a feature too glaring in all parts of the province, and they have some doubts as to whether they will be able to place a team on the ice, or speaking more to the point, it is doubtful if they will have ice on which to place a team. This is to be generally regretted as in the past Marmora has shown itself to be sportsmanlike to the back bone. It is to be hoped that they will be able to tide over the difficulty. Campbellford was perhaps never so enthusiastic and with their enthusiastic supporter, Mr. Fred Wood, they intend showing the Hockey public a thing or two. Norwood, the popular runners up in the League last year, are marking time until the ice arrives, while Keene, the old standbys from the home of President Wallace, are anxious to get into the series once again.

The Lakeviews anticipate having a husky seven this winter and the management of the club will exert every possible effort to down all comers. Joe Picard who played with Campbellford last season, and who figured so prominently on the local Rugby team, will chase the puck with Manager Bradburn's organization. Parnell of last year's Peterboroughs, will play with the Lakeviews and it is said that he is not the only one;—Crowley who is originally a Lakeview man may return to the fold, as well as several others. There is, it is understood, a probability of Christy Graham donning the Lakeview colours. Dick Watt is also slated for the local Trent Valley team.

After an absence from the hockey arena of about three years, Millbrook has organized and will have a delegate at the Trent Valley League meeting. They have a number of good players amongst them being, Jack Nattrass, who played on the Ontario Lacrosse team, of Port Hope, this season.

Omemee will join the T.V.L., while Lindsay will, as last year, have a team in both the O.H.A. and T.V.L.

Mr. Maurice Welsh, the secretary of the Bobcaygeon team in writing to the secretary of the League, says "Although our time in it is short when we get playing, still that makes no difference, but we want to make the League a success." It is to be hoped that the same spirit will be shown by the other clubs in the League.

Fenelon Falls, the champions of 1900-1, have lost their energetic secretary, Mr. Rollins, but Genial Junkins will engineer the boys through the season. Altogether the prospects for the Trent Valley League are exceptionally rosy.

Mr. George B. Henwood, of Port Hope, is a candidate for a position on the executive of the O.H.A. Mr. Henwood is a popular young barrister of Port Hope and would make a most capable committee man. He should have no trouble in being elected.

The Sporting Editor of the Examiner has received the following communication from one who evidently is a junior:

"Many people are enquiring how Peterborough is going to stand in the O.H.A. this year. Last year's Junior Champions will be in the Intermediate Series this winter, and beyond this our town is entirely out of the hockey circle. There may be no chance of a Senior Team, but why not a Junior? There is plenty of good material to pick a team from, and if someone was to take an interest in the thing and help it along, he would be well repaid for his efforts. Thanking you for your space, I remain, yours truly. Junior."

We heartily concur with what our correspondent says, and the younger players should not be neglected.

ABOUT LONDON.

The executive of the O. H. A. met last night in Toronto.

The case of the London Club was disposed of by a recommendation in conformity with the opinion of counsel, which was to the effect that the evidence showed no doubt of the right to prosecute and the right to convict, but that on account of the local feeling it would be difficult to reach the people concerned in a London court.

Several new documents were put in. One was Hern's declaration that he had his tuition paid at a London Business College, and received $7 a week from the end of October until the hockey season opened. Then he got $10 a week. He gave the names of the officers of the London Club, who made a bid carried out the agreement. His declaration stated that when his standing was under investigation, he was induced by two officers of the club to sign false affidavits, which he and they knew to be false. Hern was not twenty years of age when he went to London a year ago, and he pleaded his youth and inexperience under pressure from the club's officers.

Frank Winn, of Montreal, also sent in a declaration describing how a relative of one of the London's Club's officers engaged him in Montreal to go to London last January. He told of his meeting with the London officers, and their instruction that he was to play under the name of Campbell Lindsay, which, he says, he declined to do. He does not tell what he got in addition to his ticket and expenses.

P.R. Ashplant, one of the London team, put in an application for reinstatement, supported by a statutory declaration that he believed Winn to be Lindsay, because Winn was so introduced to him by W. A. Mace, Secretary of the club.

Hern's application was refused. He is now in Pittsburg playing hockey at a salary of $16 a week. That of Ashplant was laid over, and he will be given a personal hearing by the Executive, if he so desires.

WANTS $5000

For Trespass, Assault and Alienation of Wife's Affection.

A writ has been issued in the High Court of Justice for the County of Peterborough by Thomas Edward Jery, of Douro, against John Wilson, for $5000 damages for trespass and unlawfully entering upon the plaintiff's lands, and for assault, and also for alienation of his wife's affections.

The writ was issued by the plaintiff's solicitor, Mr. O. A. Langley, barrister, Lakefield, and an appearance has been duly entered by Messrs. Stratton & Hall, solicitors, for the defendant in the action.

SUTCLIFFE'S SUCCESSFUL BUSINESS.

A Consistent Cash Store and its Influences.

The weather may deceive, bureau prognostications prove incorrect, but the advent of the holiday season is so plainly demonstrated at Messrs. J. Sutcliffe & Sons' dry goods store, that one can remain no longer in ignorance of the fact. The month of holiday happiness and big selling has brought early displays of thousands of distinctive things that make this store resplendent with gift-giving suggestions.

The conscientious efforts made by this growing firm to prove their determination to represent goods as they believe them to be, have exercised a strong influence on shoppers. All goods are marked in plain figures and the marked price is religiously adhered to. The "money-back" principle of the firm has helped to still further instil confidence, and goes to show that Sutcliffe & Sons consider their goods equal to the money they ask for them.

It has been noticed, too, that customers of this cash store do not hesitate to ask to be shown goods — as special pleasure is always taken in showing their wares, independent of a purchase. All patrons are treated alike, and each one's money is as good as another's.

The buying facilities of the firm are excellent. It is no hearsay that they buy for cash. Their resident Toronto buyer as well as the local resident buyer, cross the "pond" several times a year to search the best market for each class of goods required, and their ripe experience in the foreign markets cannot fail to be an invaluable help in securing goods at the very closest prices.

The stock carried is extensive and varied. The firm lay much stress on their silks and dress goods. All the newest textures and incidentials being shown. Ready-to-wear garments receive special attention, and they claim to have raised the standard of these garments in Peterborough. Their suits, mantles, outside and inside skirts, blouses and whitewear are very favourably spoken of by ladies. Their separate skirt and blouse trade has grown remarkably owing to their keen perception of the wants of the ladies, and their special facilities for manufacturing these garments on their own premises. Long coats are also greatly in evidence in their mantle department.

There are many ladies in Peterborough who have been made constant customers at Sutcliffe's by their modish millinery. This particular department is just now enjoying unusual activity owing to a holiday sale of headwear. Satisfying results of a good season have caused the firm to be careless of profits in this department for the balance of the season—the only thought being to clear this season's novelties, so that new goods may greet the eye next season.

Messrs. Sutcliffe & Sons are also ready for Christmas with many novelty lines in pretty and attractive fancy goods, purses, shopping bags, notions, etc., specially suitable for gift-giving. The whole store tells of Christmas cheer, but there is one large Santa-Claus room on the second floor devoted to displaying novelties in gifts, which a visit will particularly interest hosts of shoppers.

THE CHICAGO, MILWAUKEE & ST. PAUL RAILROAD.

Many people unacquainted with the geography of the west, imagine that because the names, "Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul," are used in the corporate title of the railway owning the short line between Chicago and Omaha, they must go via the the cities of Milwaukee and St. Paul to reach their destination—and if it be Omaha or west thereof. This is a mistaken idea. On a map the line running directly east and west would look like this:

Omaha——————Chicago.

There is nothing more simple than that, and it is less than 500 miles between Chicago and Omaha. Two through trains daily in each direction with the best Sleeping Car and Dining Car Service, and all regular travellers know and appreciate the merits of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway's Short Line between the East and the West.

A DOUBLE DROWNING

Miss Bessie Blair and Mr. H. A. Harper the Ottawa's Victims.

BOTH WENT THROUGH THE ICE

Miss Blair, by Accident, While Skating Hand in Hand With Mr. Creelman, and Mr. Harper, Deliberately, in an Attempt to Save the Young Lady's Life—The Sad Particulars.

Ottawa, Dec. 7.—A shocking drowning accident occurred in the Ottawa River yesterday afternoon, and last night there are searchers out for the bodies of two members of a vice-regal skating party—Miss Bessie Blair, daughter of the Minister of Railways and Canals, and Albert H. Harper, Assistant Deputy Minister of Labor.

A lovely winter afternoon tempted a considerable number out to make up a skating party, organized at Government House. The ice appeared to be in splendid condition, smooth and solid; indeed, between New Edinburgh and Gatineau Point, horses and sleighs have been crossing for a couple of days. No danger was apprehended, therefore, by the skaters, who sped away down the river in little groups.

One of them consisted of the Misses May and Bessie Blair and Miss Snowball, daughter of Senator Snowball, who was their guest. They were accompanied by Mr. Treadgold, an English mining engineer, of Dawson City, and Mr. Harper and Mr. Creelman of the Imperial Bank. Miss Bessie Blair and Mr. Creelman were skating in advance of the others, when, suddenly, as the party neared Kettle Island, both were seen by Mr. Harper and Miss Snowball, who were a short distance behind, to disappear into the water.

Mr. Harper, with the determination of saving Miss Blair, rushed forward. Miss Snowball skated back, screaming frantically to those following to hurry to the rescue. When, with Miss May Blair and Mr. Treadgold, she arrived at the fatal spot, only one was seen on the surface — Mr. Creelman — and he was drawn out of the water in an unconscious condition. No sign of Miss Bessie Blair or the gallant Mr. Harper, who gave his life to save her, was to be seen. The bodies had evidently been carried down by the swift current beneath the ice.

When Mr. Creelman was rescued by Mr. A. N. C. Treadgold of Dawson City he was in an exhausted condition, and is now under medical treatment at his lodging-house. The bodies will probably not be found until next spring.

The accident happened about dusk, in the main channel of the Ottawa River, where the current is swift and the water about 35 feet deep. The party had gone several miles down the river from the city. They were returning, Miss Bessie Blair and Mr. Creelman skating hand-in-hand ahead; Mr. Harper and Miss Snowball about 40 yards behind, and Mr. Treadgold and Miss Blair some distance farther away. The ice was thin near the head of Kettle Island, where the party were, and Miss Blair and Mr. Creelman suddenly pitched head first into the air-hole. Both could swim, and did make a few strokes towards the ice. Mr. Creelman shouted to Mr. Harper to keep away from the water, but Mr. Harper threw off his coats and gloves and made for them. He dived into the water to help Miss Blair, and that is the last Mr. Creelman saw of him.

Mr. Creelman tried to lift Miss Blair out upon the ice, and, in doing so, sank himself. When he came up his head struck the ice, and he broke his way through to clear air. Miss Blair had disappeared, and Mr. Creelman was alone in the icy water. He clung to the ice and shouted for help.

Meanwhile, Miss Snowball was skating to Gatineau Point to summon aid. She had time to arouse the men in the hotel, and they took whiskey and blankets and skated for the scene of the accident. Miss Snowball was skating in the direction of the thin, when Mr. A. N. C. Treadgold shouted to her to look out for danger.

He saw a dark object and made for it, while Mr. Creelman's cries for help could be heard more and more plainly.

The dark object was brave Harper's hat, and then Creelman warned Treadgold to look out, and the latter said he had a rope and told Creelman to hold on. The latter said he was all right. Meanwhile Treadgold was getting his rope ready, and Matthias Blais, who lives on shore, came out and pulled Creelman out of the water.

Creelman lost consciousness at Blais' house, but recovered enough to be taken to his boarding house, where doctors attended him. He is suffering from exposure, but will recover. Creelman had probably been in the water about 15 minutes when he was rescued by Blais. Miss Snowball was too agitated last night to tell a very connected story of the accident.

Harper showed pure grit, and his death is lamented by all who knew him. He was a native of Barrie, and about 27 years old. He was Master of Arts in Toronto University, and had been in newspaper work in Toronto, Montreal and Ottawa, where he represented The Montreal Herald as Ottawa correspondent until his appointment as associate editor of The Labor Gazette. For the past month he has been acting Deputy Minister of Labor, in the absence of Mr. W. L. Mackenzie King, the Deputy Minister.

Creelman, who was rescued, is a clerk in the Imperial Bank, and came here from Toronto. His brother is C.P.R. solicitor. Creelman says Miss Blair told him not to mind her, that she could swim, and she did strike out for the edge of the ice. He held her above water for some time, but at last the exposure began to tell, and the poor girl began to groan, and, in the final effort to save her, Creelman sank. When he arose again, Miss Blair had gone to her death.

Harper's parents are dead, but one sister lives in Barrie, another in North Bay, and he has a brother, a doctor, in New York, and another brother is a professor in Edinburgh University, Scotland.

Another party from Government House was also on the river, and Captain Bell, A.D.C., Mr. Gladwin MacDougall and the Misses Ritchie got into shallow water, but got out safely.

The Blair household is one of mourning. Her Excellency the Countess of Minto drove there as soon as the news of the fatality reached her, to offer her sympathy to the stricken sisters. The Minister of Railways and Mrs. Blair are at Clifton Springs, New York. The sad news of their daughter's death was wired to them late last evening, and they will return home to-day.

Five in Lake Winnipeg.

Winnipeg, Dec. 7.—A report was brought in last night that five persons were drowned in the northern part of Lake Winnipeg. The party was fishing, when the ice gave way. Two were Islanders, two Indians and one an Englishman.

INSTANT DEATH TO TWO.

Through Sliding of a Mass of Rock a C.P.R. Freight Plunged Headlong Into a Grim Fraser Canyon.

Vancouver, B.C., Dec. 7.—Through the sliding of a mass of overhanging rock, by which the track was swept away in what is by far the wildest section of the mountain district, an extra westbound freight train of the C.P.R. at 5.15 yesterday morning plunged headlong into the grim canyon on the Fraser, taking with it to instant death the driver of the locomotive, Randall, and Pottruff, his fireman. Their death must necessarily have been instantaneous, for a twinkling from the time it left the rail the engine with the forward portion of the train had plunged three hundred feet into the darkness below, and was being battered to fragments by the grinding rocks and raging waters. The accident illustrates how even the best precautions fail to entirely remove the hazard of railroading in such a region, for here the roadbed is incessantly patrolled in order that trains may be timely warned where rockslides or other mishaps threaten them. The patrolman had indeed twice crossed the scene of the disaster during Thursday night, the last occasion being after 4 o'clock, when nothing was amiss. A regular train had passed unharmed within two hours of the catastrophe. For the extra there was no sign of warning. It was proceeding slowly and uninterruptedly, when a roar and a rumble were heard, then a shaking of the after portion of the train, and a violent shock. A sudden rockslide near a curve of the deep cut canyon had swept away the track, the engine and five front cars had leaped the obstacle, and piled in splintered steel and timber in the canyon below, while the still falling masses of rock and loosened earth had cut the train in two, thereby saving Conductor Harris and his brakeman in the tail end caboose, the brakeman having but reached it from a visit to the locomotive.

Wholesale Drowning.

London, Dec. 6.—A despatch to The Daily Express from Bombay says that during the celebration of feast day of St. Francis Xavier, Dec. 3, at the Portuguese City of Goa, on the west coast of India, the sinking of a launch resulted in the drowning of 140 devotees, 50 yards from the shore.

FROM ACROSS THE RIVER.

Some Items of Interest From Ashburnham.

Municipal Matters—The Civic Association—The Gun Club.

Although the municipal nominations are only a few short weeks distant municipal matters are decidedly quiet. This is, no doubt owing to the fact that the village council of 1901 has been a most harmonious body, and has exercised excellent judgment during its tenure of office—whilst there is scarcely any probability of there being a contest for the reeveship, still it might not surprise many if some new candidates loomed up for honours in the way of representation at the council board. It is understood that Councillor Smith is being urged by some of his friends to take the field for the Chief Magistrate's chair, but then it is said that Councillor Smith thinks that he has a safe berth of it where he is and is satisfied with it for the present.

On Thursday afternoon the Gun Club had a shoot on the Riverside Park, and some fair marksmanship was the result. Amongst those who were present were Messrs. Dixon Jewett, Edg. Hartley, Michael Tooley, Sam Courier, Chas. James, Harry Neil, and J. Brooks. The shooting was done at blue rocks which did not work very satisfactorily. Next week there will be a shoot on the Riverside grounds for turkeys and geese when it is expected there will be a large list of competitors. The Ashburnham marksmen are endeavouring to re-organize the once flourishing Gun Club. Messrs. Tooley and Brooks will shoot for a barrel of cider.

The young people of the village are becoming impatient for another dance in the town hall. The young bachelors, a few weeks ago, it will be remembered, gave a very enjoyable assembly and a movement will be made to have them more frequently than in the past.

The Calcutt Brewing and Malting Co. have just issued a handsome calender to their patrons which is quite in keeping with the progressive management of the institution. The calendar is an exceptionally large one and contains four elegant cuts of soldiers, representing the Gordon Highlanders, the Bengal Lancers, 11th Fusiliers and the New South Wales Lancers. The calendar is being much admired.

Ashburnham possesses excellent skating, and has, in fact, had such since Thanksgiving Day. However, it is only recently that the skaters have considered it safe and from the Ashburnham shore of the Little Lake the ice is black with young people, who are enjoying Canada's premier winter sport. The canal, too, is a favourite resort, and from above the lift lock to Auburn, there is an excellent sheet of ice.

It is not likely that the Riverside Park skating rink will be in operation this winter. Manager Wood did not make much of a success of it last winter. The means of flooding the rink are very poor, and severely handicap any efforts to make it a success.

What has become of the Ashburnham Civic Association? This is a common question on the streets of Ashburnham. The Association started out with a very large membership about a year ago, and its future looked exceedingly rosy. Meetings were to be held once a month at which matters of public interest were to be discussed. Had the officers of the Association not better call a meeting to see where the institution is at present?

The sound of the shipbuilder's hammer will not be heard this winter in the Ashburnham dock yards.

LAWN BOWLING CLUB BALL.

Sub-Committees Appointed to Complete the Arrangements.

At a meeting of the Ball Committee of the Lawn Bowling Club, last evening, with Dr. Boucher in the chair, it was finally decided that the refreshments would be provided by a caterer, and that the kindness of the ladies would not be taxed in this respect.

A sub-committee composed of Messrs. A. H. Stratton, Harry LeBrun, F. H. Dixon and Dr. Moher has charge of the matter.

Other sub-committees appointed last night were as follows:

Committee on Decorations—Messrs. R. C. McHarrie, Robt. Kerr, R. H. Ross, Dickson Davidson and H. Rush.

Committee to meet Lady Patronesses—Messrs. W. D. Parker and E. C. Complin.

Invitation Committee—Messrs. H. Rush, R. Kerr and Alf. Terrill.

Music and Hall Committee—Messrs. P. Campbell, D. Davidson, H. Rush and A. H. Stratton.

The Ball Committee will meet on Thursday evening next at half past seven in the Canada Life Board Room to receive the reports of the various Sub-Committees.

KEEPING SHOW WINDOWS CLEAN OF FROST.

A Plan That is Simple and Said to be Effective.

Merchants go to great trouble to make elegant and elaborate window displays, and it is annoying, or disappointing, to have these displays hidden completely from public gaze by a thick coating of frost. A correspondent supplies the following:

"I have a method which is simple, and which, I think, is quite good, in that it is sure to do required work, and is less expensive than the idea of "boxing" and "ventilating" a window.

My windows are not enclosed or "boxed," but open right into the store, therefore giving the windows plenty of opportunity to "steam and frost." My idea is to place at one side a window and about one foot away from the glass, a common electric fan. The fan should be placed on a small stand, about two feet high, and at an angle so that wind of fan will be blown across window, not away from it. I have tried several plans for two winters, and find this effective. While in extreme cold weather it may not keep the glass entirely free from frost, it will keep the glass clear enough for any display to be seen without, only two or three inches of the glass at the top or directly beside the fan; but you will always be sure of being able to see the display.

The permanent lights in my windows are turned on by baby-knife switches. Just behind windows in store, and to these switches I connect the cord which is attached to the fan. The fan runs day and night.

I have tried inclosing and ventilating windows, also, but the idea of the fan has proven far more successful with me. Hoping this idea will prove beneficial to some of your readers."

Miss Marion Cunningham, the Popular Young Treasurer of the Young Woman's Club of Emporia, Kans., has This to Say of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Your Vegetable Compound cured me of womb trouble from which I had been a great sufferer for nearly three years. During that time I was very irregular and would often have intense pain in the small of my back, and blinding headaches and severe cramps. For three months I used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and aches and pains are as a past memory, while health and happiness is my daily experience now. You certainly have one grateful friend in Emporia, and I have praised your Vegetable Compound to a large number of my friends. You have my permission to publish my testimonial in connection with my picture. Yours sincerely, MISS MARION CUNNINGHAM, Emporia, Kans."

TWO WAYS.

A despatch states that Mrs. McKinley, widow of the assassinated President of the United States, is slowly wasting away.—"She spends her time in weeping and thinking of the one she loved so well." This is very sad, but if Mrs. McKinley, instead of being left desolate with an income of several thousand a year, was left desolate with a family of half a dozen orphans and no income, as tens of thousands of widows are left, and had to provide a roof and existence for her little flock of orphans, she wouldn't have time to waste away in idle grief. There's many a shipload of sham and misplaced sympathy in the world, for the sentimentally afflicted, especially when endowed with a wealth of this world's goods; but there's mighty little practical sympathy for the bereaved poor with greater responsibilities and no means to meet them. The sorrow that eats out its own heart in its little narrow circle of self, forgetful of its obligations towards others, is petty and paltry compared to that of the sorrow that bravely takes up the burdens of life, and the discharge of duty towards helpless dependents. Yet the one especially when associated with wealth to meet every mutual want is burdened with sympathy, while the other, the widow with a big family of orphans, when the bread winner is taken away, has to face the cold world, alone, with no prospect for to-morrow's bread for her little brood, or a brand to warm them. The mother's grief instead of being selfishly wasted on herself is absorbed in the greater grief that rends her heart for her helpless children, and must give way to the insistent call of love and duty to action, for the sake of the living and dependent. The grief for the bread-winner must be buried in his grave. There is no time to pine away in idle grief. If we cannot apply common sense to our Christianity we are unprofitable servants.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The "handwriting on the wall" has become very dim in West Huron.

The King of Italy should "go on strike." There is a movement on foot to reduce his salary to something under three millions of dollars. The down trodden wage earner never gets a "fair show."

The fact of Toronto aldermen dining in the new city stables is a clear case of diversion of the buildings from their legitimate use. The stables were built for the accommodation of horses not a— aldermen.

Mr. Whitney quotes New Ontario as "the land of the stunted poplar." He now has reason to regard West Huron as "the land of the stunted popularity of the Opposition leader and cause."

There are now fourteen vacancies in the representation in the House of Commons. Of these six are in seats that were held by the Opposition. It is probable that after the by-elections some of these seats will be held by Liberals.

The Christian Guardian says of prohibition: "We would strongly favour a somewhat extended period of preparation, within which the strongest campaign of moral suasion and education ever conducted in Ontario, should be undertaken by the Provincial Alliance and all its allied organizations."

It is asserted by some that vaccination is no protection against smallpox. The health officer of Ottawa states that in the new cases of smallpox coming to light, not one of the patients has been vaccinated. Those who have been vaccinated, escape infection. That seems to prove something.

Fuller census returns show that the population of Ontario is 2,180,276. The population in this province of French extraction, is 162,647, an increase of 61,000 over what it was in 1891, showing that it is from this element that the increase in our population in the past ten years has been chiefly drawn.

The decision of the three County Court Judges in the Toronto case declaring the scrap iron amendment of last session invalid and inoperative does not seem to be generally respected. The "scrap iron assessment" is again in question, this time in Ottawa, where the assessment of several corporations is before a Board of judges; the effort to have the cases disposed of on the strength of the Toronto decision failed, the judges deciding to deal with each case on its merits.

The Conservative party claims to be perfectly harmonious. This claim, especially as applied to their newspapers, is just. The latter show the same beautiful harmony in refraining from editorial reference to the pro-Boer speech of Mr. Monk, the deputy-Conservative leader, and the discussion of the result in West Huron, where, according to current report, an election took place, resulting in a decided victory for the Liberal Government of Ontario.

The speeches of Mr. Monk can be explained. So can the speeches of Mr. Bourassa. The clear intent of Mr. Monk is to inflame French Canadian prejudice into a tribunal which will try and condemn Wilfrid Laurier for the crime of Imperialism. — Toronto Telegram.

Monk, says the Hamilton Times, seeks to make capital against Laurier in Quebec by painting him as a rabid Imperialist, and the Tory leaders in Ontario try to make it appear that he is not half willing enough to shed Canadian blood and dollars in the interest of the Empire. It's the same old game they tried to work last election. The telegraph, the press, the post, and all the advantages of education and intercommunication are leagued against such a scheme.

HE "ROCKED THE BOAT."

Toronto Star.

Hugh John Macdonald is coming in for praise in some quarters because he passed a prohibition enactment in Manitoba, yet his successors in the Manitoba Government are probably classing him as a young man who "didn't know it was loaded," or who "rocked the boat," and spilt them in the drink question, leaving them to struggle there while he got safely out of it.

Mr. Macdonald admits that he does not, and did not when he passed the measure believe in prohibition. He does not think that public opinion will enforce a prohibitory law. But he passed such a law, resigned his post, and left the unworkable enactment for Mr. Roblin to struggle with.

Before Mr. Macdonald is accorded too much praise for his course, it would be well to secure some positive assurance that when he brought down the legislation referred to he did not know that he would scuttle out of Manitoba politics and leave to others the consequence of his action. If he thought the law to be ultra vires of the Legislature, and knew that if it were intra vires he would be elsewhere and not concerned in the result, he deserves no credit for exploiting so great a question in a manner so irresponsible.

GROWING BABIES.

Need Watchful Care to Prevent Overfeeding and the Evils That Follow.

All children at some period of their infancy are subject to indigestion, diarrhœa, or constipation. While the symptoms of these troubles greatly differ, the origin of each is due to the same cause—improper food or overfeeding. This results sometimes in diarrhœa, sometimes in constipation. In either the treatment is to remove the cause, and this can only be speedily, safely and effectually done by the use of Baby's Own Tablets, a purely vegetable medicine guaranteed to contain no opiate nor any of the poisonous stuffs found in the so-called soothing medicines. Mothers who once use Baby's Own Tablets for their little ones never after experiment with other medicines, and always speak of them in the highest terms. Mrs. Geo. R. Johnston, Wall street, Brockville, says: "I have been using Baby's Own Tablets for over a year, always keep them in the house and always find them satisfactory. If my little boy—two years of age—is troubled with constipation, indigestion or diarrhœa, I give him the tablets and he is soon relieved. The tablets regulate the bowels and do not cause after constipation as many medicines do. I have also found them beneficial in teething."

Baby's Own Tablets are a certain cure for all the minor ailments of little ones such as colic, sour stomach, constipation, indigestion, diarrhœa, etc. Children take them readily, and crushed or dissolved in water they can be given with good results to the youngest infant. Sold by druggists or sent post paid at 25 cents a box by addressing the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

CANADIAN SHIPBUILDING.

A Promising Future—British and American Capital Will Compete in Developing Canada's Iron and Steel Resources.

The visit of Sir Christopher Furness to Canada and the United States has been important to shipbuilding and other interests, if the reports sent from New York on the occasion of his sailing, are well founded. He has gone home with a pocket full of contracts for steamships. A round dozen large freighters are to be built in the Old Country with American capital. This will be a boon to British ship carpenters and engineers, and give an impulse to business of all kinds in shipbuilding towns.

But what concerns Canada most is the announcement that Sir Christopher has arranged with the Clergue interests at the Canadian Soo, for the erection of a $10,000,000 shipbuilding plant and steel works, the raw material for which is to be supplied by Canadian iron and coal mines. This is just the kind of thing we want. For years and years we have been trying to get the surplus capital of Great Britain flowing this way, but the slow going Englishman could not be induced to launch out into enterprises which have since been developed by United States and Canadian capital. But now that that American competition has forced the Englishman to look about for means of meeting it, there is a disposition to turn to the colonies and see whether or not the stream of business, which is pressing English iron and steel workers so hard, cannot be tapped near its source and diverted. American capital has got the first foothold in Canada for iron and steel products, developed from Canadian raw material, but there is ample room for British capital yet, and, if the Briton and the Yankee engage in a contest for supremacy in developing our mineral and other resources, this country will boom as never before. With the Dominion Iron and Steel Company at Sydney, C.B., the proposed shipbuilding plant at or near Halifax, the Cramp-Ontario Steel Works at Collingwood, and the Clergue and Furness plants at Sault Ste. Marie, Canada, bids fair to become one of the greatest shipbuilding countries in the world. With the increased settlement of Northwestern Ontario, Manitoba and the Territories, there will be necessity for a great expansion of lake-carrying facilities. Even this season, there has been a great scarcity of vessels, and what would the situation be with twice the population, and twice the area of land under cultivation! Ships are and will be needed to carry the wheat to market, and there will be ample scope for both the Collingwood and Soo plants.

Now, that Sir Christopher Furness has shown the way, let us hope that other British capitalists will follow, to the end that the immense resources of Canada may be developed, and this colony made more than ever a prop and stay for the Motherland—a field for enterprises that will yield large returns.—Toronto World.

THE WEST HURON TRIUMPH.

Results of Vigorous Educational Campaign.

Premier Ross Expresses Great Satisfaction at the Result and Predicts That the Province Will be Carried in the Same Way.

(Toronto Globe.)

The result of the West Huron bye-election was regarded with very great satisfaction by Liberals in the city yesterday. It was felt to be a perfectly safe augury of victory in the coming general elections, having in view the desperate efforts of the Opposition campaigners who filled the riding, and who failed to overcome the sober judgment of the electors when once they understood the significance of the Liberal policy. Premier Ross, when seen by a representative of The Globe, regarded the result with great satisfaction. "The Government was confident from the outset," the Premier said, "that West Huron would support the Liberal candidate if the electors were fully informed as to the policy of the Government, and accordingly from the very beginning the campaign was conducted on educational lines. It was with this object that several members of the Government visited the riding, and also with the same view secured the valuable assistance of leading members of the party. The local leaders, including the candidate, applied themselves with great energy to the work of organization, and to the platform as well.

"I am convinced," the Premier said, "that a campaign similarly conducted throughout Ontario is the surest way to victory. Every elector seized the importance of the watchword of the Government, 'Build up Ontario,' and whether a Conservative or a Reformer, cannot but appreciate the advantage of developing the resources of old Ontario as well as opening up New Ontario to settlement and colonization. Against this was placed the feeble criticisms of Mr. Whitney and his colleagues on the policy of the government. They had nothing to offer of a constructive character, and it is gratifying to find that the electors are not prepared to pull down a Government with such a splendid record as the Liberal party of Ontario has made for itself in order to place in power their opponents, who depend upon misrepresentation and partisan criticism for their policy.

"Apart from the satisfaction which the victory affords, it is gratifying to know that Mr. Garrow's sterling abilities as a Liberal and a professional man have been recognized by the people whom he has served so long and so well.

"The record of the bye-elections this year ought to go to show that the Liberal party in Ontario is united as well as aggressive. The vacancy in East Kent was filled by the election by acclamation of Mr. John Lee. The vacancy in London gave that stalwart old Liberal, Col. Leys, a majority over his opponent of 1,655, and now West Huron increases its Liberal majority five-fold. Who says it is time for a change?"

VICTIM OF THE DUEL

Major VanTets of Queen Wilhelmina's Bodyguard Dead.

AFTERMATH OF THE MEETING

Served the Dainty Dutch Queen With Chivalrous Devotion and Sealed It With His Blood—Said That Her Majesty Staunched VanTets' Wounds With Her Own Fair Hands.

London, Dec. 7.—A despatch to The Central News from Amsterdam says that Major VanTets died last Thursday evening. This is the aftermath of the duel between Prince Henry and the deceased.

Major "the German" VanTets is one of ten noble youths who formed the bodyguard of the smiling young Queen when she was married in February, and who have since been at their Royal Mistress' beck and call on every occasion. They pride themselves on their servitude, and in this matter-of-fact twentieth century their chivalrous devotion to Queen Wilhelmina is a pretty thing to see. It is whispered that every man of the ten handsome young youths who surround Her Majesty's carriage when she drives abroad, skate with her when she skates, ride with her when she rides, and dance attendance on her generally has been at one time or another over head and ears in love with the dainty little lady in whom Holland's hopes are centred.

Official contradictions notwithstanding, nobody at The Hague doubts for a moment that the Queen and her consort have been at loggerheads practically since the wedding. Wilhelmina is not a woman to allow herself to be neglected with impunity.

It is said that she stanched VanTets' wound with her own hands, and insisted on her husband's begging pardon of the Jonkherr as well as of herself before she would forgive him.

Referred to Exchequer Court.

Ottawa, Dec. 6.—An Order-in-Council has been passed referring the claim of Messrs. Mackenzie & Mann for their work in connection with the proposed all-Canadian route to the Yukon, which the Senate defeated, to the Exchequer Court. It was stated that this was to be done by the Premier last session. The amount of claim which Mackenzie & Mann now presents is $302,717 and interest. The Exchequer Court will decide how much ought to be paid to the firm who were going to build an all-Canadian road, but for the action of the Senate in throwing out the bill, which had passed the commitee by a large majority.

Mr. Garrow's Majority.

Goderich, Dec. 6.—No. 2, East Wawanosh, gives a majority for Mr. Garrow of 3, and No. 3, East Wawanosh, a majority for Mr. Garrow of 25. These additions give Mr. Garrow a total majority of 285.

LIVE STOCK EXPOSITION.

Championship Prizes That Come to Canada—Big Prices Realized.

Chicago, Dec. 7.—Judging in the championship classes for the leading breeds of cattles was the feature yesterday of the International Live Stock Exposition. The attendance was nearly as large as Thursday, when 85,000 persons visited the show during the day and evening.

Another notable sale of the day was made in the swine department, where D. C. Flatt & Sons of Millgrove, Ont., sold four head of Yorkshires for $1,650. One boar sold for $700.

Among the championships awarded were the following:

Among the champions awarded in the sheep were:

Champion Leicester ram, any age, John Kelly, Shakespeare, Ont.

It remained for the shorthorns to carry off the honors in the sale ring, as 69 head of that breed brought $43,760, an average of $634 a head. Fifty-two cows sold for $33,675, or $647 each, and 17 bulls for $10,085, an average of $593. The highest priced cow was "Miskie," 153d. bred and imported by W. S. Marr of Aberdeenshire, Scotland, and sold to W. C. Edwards of Rockland, Ont., for $6,000. This cow was just out of quarantine and was imported expressly for this sale.

The Fruit Growers Conclude.

Cobourg, Dec. 7.— The last session of the Ontario Fruit Growers' Association opened here yesterday morning. Reports of the special committees were received. There was an exhibit of cold storage apples from Buffalo. Mr. Robert Thompson, St. Catharines, then addressed the meeting on "Lessons on Cold Storage From the Pan-American." Mr. E. D. Smith, Winona, gave an address on "Our Export Trade in Fruit." At the afternoon session Mr. E. B. Stevenson read a paper on "Promising New Varieties of Strawberries." Mr. M. Pettit, Winona, read a paper on "Profitable Grapes," and Mr. W. H. Dempsey of Trenton one on "Our Best Commercial Apples," and Mr. Harold Jones, Toronto, one on "How to Produce Fine Apples." The meeting was brought to a close after the several papers had been discussed.

Walkerton has been chosen as the next place of meeting.

Something About Faith Cures.

What a great variety of faith cures there must be, some have faith in so-called divine healers, others in certain doctors and still others in the medicines they use. Every person who has tested Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills has faith in them, but faith or no faith they cure just the same, for they act directly and specifically on the kidneys, liver and bowels, and make these organs healthy, acitve and vigourous. Judging from the enormous demand for these pills there must be hosts of people that have faith in them.

Dean O'Meara Dead.

Winnipeg, Dec. 7.—About 3 o'clock yesterday morning the death of Very Rev. Dean O'Meara occurred. He has been ill for some time with typhoid fever, and his death did not cause a surprise. He had been Dean for somewhat over four years, and lived here for more than 20 years, and his name was dear throughout Manitoba and the Northwest. He was a most eloquent preacher and a frequent speaker on public occasions.

Very Rev. James Dallas O'Meara, Dean of Rupert's Land, was born at Manitowaning, Ont., in 1849, son of Rev. Canon F. A. O'Meara, L.L. D., rector of St. John's Church, Port Hope. He was educated at Georgetown and Toronto University, graduating in 1870, with a gold medal in metaphysics.

W. E. H. Massey's Will.

Toronto, Dec. 7.—The will of the late Mr. W. E. H. Massey has been filed for probate. The value of the estate, real and personal, was fixed at $760,118.17, and was made up chiefly of stock in the Massey-Harris Company, Sawyer & Massey Company, and other various interests with which he was connected, and Dentonia Park Farm. The residence on Jarvis street belonged to Mrs. Massey, and the life insurance was payable to her and the children.

Suit For Millions.

Victoria, B.C., Dec. 7.—Suit was taken yesterday against the White Pass and Yukon Railway for all the freight and the passenger rates paid since the railway began operations. The ground of the suit is that the rates schedule was not approved by the Dominion Government, and that the point that Skaguay was being claimed by Canada cannot be raised. The operations on the foreign soil involve many millions of dollars.

Wife sues for Alimony.

St. Thomas, Dec. 7.—Andrew Grant, barrister, acting on behalf of Mrs. Annie Pearson of this city, Thursday issued a writ for alimony against Jacob L. Pearson. The latter has been living in the United States, but recently returned to the Township of Bayham. Barrister Grant secured an order for Pearson's arrest on the ground that he was going to leave the province. The sheriff accordingly took Pearson into custody and he was lodged in jail.

WHAT CAUSES DEAFNESS.

The Principal Cause is Curable but Generally Overlooked.

Many things may cause deafness, and very often it is difficult to trace a cause. Some people inherit deafness. Acute diseases, like scarlet fever, sometimes cause deafness. But by far the most common cause of loss of hearing is catarrh of the head and throat.

A prominent specialist on ear troubles gives as his opinion that nine out of ten cases of deafness is traced to throat trouble; this is probably over-stated, but it is certainly true that more than half of all cases of poor hearing are caused by catarrh.

The catarrhal secretion in the nose and throat finds its way into the Eustachian tube and by clogging it up it very soon affects the hearing, and the hardening of the secretion makes the loss of hearing permanent, unless the catarrh which caused the trouble is cured.

Those who are hard of hearing may think this a little far-fetched, but any one at all observant must have noticed how a hard cold in the head will affect the hearing and that catarrh, if long neglected will certainly impair the sense of hearing and ultimately cause deafness.

If the nose and throat are kept clear and free from the unhealthy secretions of catarrh, the hearing will at once greatly improve and anyone suffering from deafness and catarrh can satisfy themselves on this point by using a fifty-cent box of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, a new catarrh cure, which in the past year has won the approval of thousands of catarrh sufferers, as well as physicians, because it is in convenient form to use, contains no cocaine or opiate, and is as safe and pleasant for children as for their elders.

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets is a wholesome combination of Blood Root, Guaiacol, Eucalyptol and similar antiseptics, and they cure catarrh and catarrhal deafness by action upon the blood and mucous membrane of the nose and throat.

As one physician aptly expresses it, "You do not have to draw upon the imagination to discover whether you are getting benefit from Stuart's Catarrh Tablets; improvement and relief are apparent from the first tablet taken."

All druggists sell and recommend them. They cost but fifty cents for full sized packages, and any catarrh sufferer who has wasted time and money on sprays, salves and powders, will appreciate to the full the merit of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets.

Sholtz Murder Trial.

Woodstock, Dec. 7.—Mrs. William Leonard has left for Sault Ste. Marie to give evidence in the murder case against the man Sholtz, who is about to be tried there. The trial is fixed for Monday. The shooting with which Sholtz is charged took place in a boarding house conducted by Mrs. Leonard in Sault Ste. Marie last spring.

Bye-Election in York, N.B.

Ottawa, Dec. 7.—The writ for the bye-election for the House of Commons in York, N.B., was issued yesterday. The election will take place on the 28th inst., and nominations a week earlier. Mr. Gibson, ex-M. P., who was unseated, will be the Liberal candidate, and Rev. Mr. MacLeod the Conservative nominee. Sheriff Sterling is the returning officer.

Speaker's Sore Throat.

Public speakers and singers know how useless and sickening are cough mixtures, sprays, lozenges, etc., etc., for irritable and sore throat, and state that the most satisfactory remedy is Catarrhozone, the advantage of which is that it acts quickly and is convenient to use in public places. Catarrhozone relieves congestion, allays inflammation, and is a protection to the membrane. As a safeguard against colds and catarrh it has no equal. Rev. Dr. McKay, of Goderich, says, "Catarrhozone is an excellent remedy for throat irritation, arising from colds." Physicians, ministers and singers recommend Catarrhozone; druggists sell it for $1. A FIRE THAT KILLED.

Mother Loses Life ...g to Save Ch...l—Father Rescues Some, But Is Too Late to Save Wife.

Pittsburg, Pa., Dec. 7.—Two persons were burned to death and seven injured in a fire at Carnegie, Pa., yesterday morning.

The dead are: Mrs. Sarah Klee, aged 43, and Mary Klee, her daughter, aged nine.

The fire was in a grocery store, kept by Samuel Klee, and the rest of the house was occupied by the family. The fire was discovered about 4.40 o'clock, and Klee and his wife realized that there was but one way to save the children, and that was to throw them from the window, a distance of about twenty feet.

One by one the children were brought to the front window and dropped to the ground by the father. All of them were more or less seriously injured, but all escaped death from the flames, except Mary. By the time Harry, the baby, was reached, not only was the father exhausted with his exertions and the terrible conditions under which he worked, but the flames were fast making his efforts impossible. When he was able to get Harry, it was found that the fire had already reached him, and that the little one's face and feet and hands were blistered and burned. H was snatched from the burning building just in time and it is thought that he will survive.

After rescuing his baby, the father looked round for his wife, whom he had missed from his side for some time. Unable to locate her, he called to those whom he had saved for the purpose of ascertaining if she had joined them. She had not, and the husband became almost distracted with fear and panic. It seems, however, that while the father was rescuing the youngest and most helpless child, she was making an attempt to save the life of Mary, and in doing so gave up her own life.

The house was entirely destroyed.

Brandy Pot Man Safe.

Ottawa, Dec. 7.—Lieut.-Col. Gourdeau, Deputy Minister of Marine, has received the following telegram from the agent of the department at Quebec: "The keeper of the lights at Brandy Pot and his man, who were adrift in the ice, have landed on the Pilgrims. A flag of distress is up. He is supposed to be injured by the frost. I am sending Koenig by rail, with ice canoe and men, to St. Andre, to cross over and bring them away. (Signed) J. N. Gregory."

Control of Tien Tsin.

Pekin, Dec. 7.—The principal object of the visit to Pekin of Yuan Shi Kai, the new viceroy of Chi Li, who arrived here Dec. 3, is to induce the foreign powers to relinquish their control of the Government at Tien Tsin. Yuan Shi Kai has assured all the ministers of foreign powers that he is personally able and willing to maintain order at Tien Tsin and in the province.

Consumption

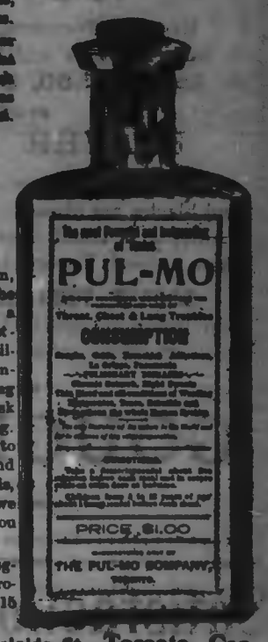
A cure that cures Consumption and its many kindred ailments is now within the reach of every sufferer. PUL-MO was perfected after many years of study and experimenting by a well-known German scientist, and has effected more cures than any other preparation which has been offered to the public. PUL-MO, while somewhat new in Canada, has been and is curing thousands of cases, and we have on file many testimonials and kindly letters written by grateful people who have been returned to perfect health.

PUL-MO is the only absolute cure where there is Consumption, Throat and Lung trouble, Coughs, Colds, La Grippe, Bronchitis, Night Sweats, Chills, Fevers, or any other symptoms which may indicate a tendency toward consumption. PUL-MO has cured thousands of cases which had been treated by physicians without success, and finally pronounced by them as hopeless.

PUL-MO stands alone—the use of any other medicine as an assistant is not necessary. But good plain nourishing food, get plenty of fresh air and out-door exercise, and use PUL-MO as directed, that is all—Nature will do the rest.

Large Sample FREE

We know positively that it does all we claim, and to demonstrate our implicit faith in the merits of PUL-MO, we will gladly mail a sample bottle free of charge, direct to your post-office address, securely sealed in a patent mailing tube or box; but as we have gone to considerable expense in securing these mailing tubes for the convenience of our patrons, we ask you to send 10 cents to cover the cost of mailing. Only one sample of PUL-MO will be sent to any one person. Give PUL-MO a trial and convince yourself that it cures. All we ask is, that you take it as directed. Remember, we pay the expense of the trial, it will cost you nothing.



PUL-MO is inexpensive, being sold by druggists at $1.00 per large bottle, or you may procure a sample bottle from your druggist at 15 cents.

Suffered Agony.

Rodger Pilson Spent Hundreds of Dollars to Get Well of Eczema—Cured by Powley's Liquified Ozone.

The usual annoyance Eczema causes.

It is with much gratitude that I send you my testimonial for what Ozone has doue for me. For eight years I have suffered with eczema in both legs and in the thigh. During this time I spent hundreds of dollars with doctors in the city of Toronto, and used every remedy that was recommended for this disease. At this time I was driving a wagon for the C. P. R., but owing to the seriousness of my trouble I was obliged to throw up my position.

In the Spring of 1901, a friend advised me to try Powley's Liquified Ozone, which I decided to do. I purchased a large bottle at W. H. Burgess' drug store on Yonge St., Toronto, and applied it locally and also took it internally. Before I had used three large bottles I was completely cured.

My wife has also used it for nervous prostration and is at present taking it with great results. I consider this preparation to be the best and will always keep it in the house for family use. I will be pleased to answer any inquiries in regard to this preparation or give any information that any sufferer may wish to know.

Wishing you every success, I am very truly yours,

(Sgd.) RODGER PILSON,

Lot 6, 4th Concession, West York, Downsview, P. O., Ont.

For eight years Mr. Pilson suffered with eczema. All these years he underwent the torture and humiliation of this dreadful scourge. He spent hundreds of dollars with physicians, and in the end a few bottles of Powley's Liquified Ozone made the cure. Its simple enough and yet how wonderful. If you are similarly afflicted, a few dollars will enable you to get a positive cure. Ozone—you apply it yourself; take it inwardly and are cured.

Powley's Liquified Ozone is oxygen in stable form. Nature's way of curing. It makes healthy flesh and blood; destroys the germs of disease. Ozone is life.

STRENGTHENS THE STATE.

Life Insurance is for the protection of those dependent on a man's life; their dependence makes it an unavoidable duty. Those dependent we assume to protect by our contract, at his personal cost; our duty to them is to make that contract as large, as secure, and as certainly available to them as possible; thus every Policy written conserves the interest of the State. A man with a Life Insurance Policy is apt to be a good citizen. Anarchists have no use for Life Insurance, and the state has no use for anarchists. The State should encourage every citizen to carry insurance. This Strengthens the State, abolishes alms-houses, and creates property that can be taxed. Further, the income from Your labour ends with Your life. The cost of living to the family continues. Take measures to have the income continue also. The Life Insurance Policy Does It.

The most enterprising and progressive of all the Canadian Life Offices to-day is the Sun Life of Canada. Ten years ago the Company had Life Assurance in force to the extent of $16,759,355,-92. On the 31st of December last, this amount had been increased to $57,980,634.68. The increase, therefore, of Life Assurance in force during the last ten years amounted to the tremendous sum of $41,221,278.76.

THE BAND CONCERT.

A Very Delightful Programme Rendered in the Market Hall Last Night.

The second of the winter series of concerts in the Market Hall to be given by the 57th Regt. Band, was held last night, and notwithstanding several counter attractions, was fairly well attended. For some months the band has been practicing very diligently on some new music, and as a result those who were at the market hall last night received the benefit of their labours. A number of new selections were rendered and heartily enjoyed by the assemblage. Mr. Harry Clarke proved to be as popular as ever in his trombone solos, whilst the descriptive selection, the Hunting Scene, while it has been heard before, was well received.

The attendance at these concerts should continue as large as they have been in the past. There is no finer concert band in Ontario than the band of the 57th Regiment, under the able leadership of Prof. Gliddon, and it keeps improving all the time.

The programme last night was as follows:

March, "Noble Grand," ..... Pearson
Overture, "Pique Dame," ... ...Von Suppe
Trombone Solo, "Love's Old Sweet Song," ..... Molly
Mr. Harry Clark.
March, "A Frangeasa," ....Costa
Medley, "Sounds From The Cotton Fields," ....Costerno
Serenade, "The Whistles," ..... Peace
Waltzes, "Homage to the Ladies,"... ....Waldteufel
"Ma Ragtime Baby," ...Mackie
Descriptive, "A Hunting Scene," .....
....Buccalossi

THE COUNTY COURT SITTINGS

Will Open Next Week Before His Honour Judge Weller.

There is one Criminal Action and Three Civil Actions on the Docket—Henry Doonan's Case.

The winter sittings of the County Court of the County of Peterborough and General Sessions of the Peace, open at one o'clock on Tuesday, before His Honour Judge Weller.

There is only one criminal case on, being that of Henry Doonan, who is charged with perjury. The case arises out of the seduction action of Scriver vs. Richardson, which was tried at the Fall Assizes here, and in which it is alleged that Doonan gave false evidence. The accused formerly lived at Hastings, but is now a resident of Bracebridge.

There are several civil cases, the first of which is a jury action.

WALSH V. TROTTER.

The plaintiff in this case is John Walsh, a farmer residing in the Township of Asphodel, and the defendant is Thomas Trotter, also a farmer, residing in the same Township. The action is brought by the plaintiff to recover the sum of $200 on an alleged account, and also damages. The plaintiff says that in or about the twentieth day of April, 1899, the plaintiff delivered to the defendant five cows, to be safely kept and taken care of and fed by the defendant during the year 1900. The defendant was to deliver all the milk of said cows to a certain cheese factory, the plaintiff to get half the proceeds and return the cows at the end of the season. It is alleged that the defendant did not return the cows, nor did he give an account of the milk sold.

In his statement of defence the defendant, while admitting that he entered an agreement regarding the cows, denies that he converted them to his own use, or deprived the plaintiff of the use and possession of the said cows or any of them; that he did not wrongly detain any of the said cows from the plaintiff, and that the plaintiff did not demand said cows from the defendant before such action, and also that the defendant has paid to the plaintiff his full share and value of milk produced.

W. A. F. Campbell, Norwood, for the plaintiff; Geo. Sherry for defendant.

DOBBIN V. DOBBIN.

The plaintiff is Robert Dobbin, and the defendant Andrew Dobbin, both farmers residing in the township of North Monaghan. They are brothers, and the action arises out of the estate of the late John Dobbin, of the Town of Peterborough, and father of the parties in the action. The plaintiff claims damages for wrong alleged to have been suffered by him, also a declaration of the Court that the plaintiff is the owner of a certain lane on Lot 5, in the 11th concession of the Township of North Monaghan, as a tenant in fee simple, subject to the life estate of Margaret Dobbin; that the plaintiff has the right to hold, use and occupy the said lane as a tenant to the said Margaret Dobbin; that the plaintiff be entitled to water cattle at a certain spring in said lane, as well as a mandamus, commanding the defendant to remove certain fences, etc.

The defendant sets up amongst other things that he has been by himself and his tenants in open and peaceable and continuous possession of the said lane and of the spring as owner thereof, ever since the spring of 1888, and claims the benefit of the statute commonly known as the Real Property Limitation Act, as a bar to the plaintiff's claim.

O'Connel & Kerr for plaintiff; Edmison & Dickson for defendants.

WARD V. MOORE.

Joseph Ward and John S. Clunie, trading together under the firm name of The Canadian Dairy Supply Co. sue the sum of $700, money that is alleged to be payable by the defendant, C. H. Moore, for goods delivered by the plaintiff. The goods referred to are cream separators, etc.

The defendant's statement of defence pleads breach of contract on the the part of the plaintiff.

Messrs. Stratton & Hall for plaintiffs; Denniston, Peck & Stevenson for defendants.

TO-DAY'S MARKET.

It Was Rather Brisk—The Prices That Were Asked.

There was a rather brisk market this morning, the good roads having brought many farmers into town. The outside market contained a great quantity of beef and pork. Beef was selling freely at 4 and 5 cents, and pork found a ready market at $6.75 for dressed hogs. Live hogs were selling at 5 1-2 for selects. A quantity of hay was offered at $8 and $9, and wood sold from $4 to $5 a cord.

The inside market was very heavy and prices were generally firm. Butter went at 18 to 21c, eggs 20 to 22c, geese 50 to 70c, turkeys 60c to $1.25, chickens 35 to 45c a pair, and ducks at 50 to 75c. The geese were of an exceptionally good quality, but the turkeys were not so good.

BROKE HER LEG.

Mrs. Robert Graham of Water Street Fell With Serious Results.

Mrs. Robert Graham, No. 547 Water street, had the misfortune to fall yesterday and break her leg.

Mrs. Graham, it appears, was walking in the rear of her residence when she slipped and fell on the icy ground with the above mentioned result. Mrs. Graham was conveyed into the house, and Dr. Boucher, who was summoned, set the bone. Mrs. Graham is a sister of Mr. Jas. Stevenson, ex-M.P.

JAMES GOODWIN DEAD.

Victim of a Recent Railway Accident Passed Away Last Night.

Mr. James Goodwin, who had the misfortune on Thursday night to have his left leg cut off and his arm badly mutilated by a locomotive, died last night at 7 o'clock as the result of injuries. On the evening of the accident Mr. Goodwin was taken to the Nicholls Hospital where his leg was amputated. The amputation of the arm was not attempted. The patient underwent the operation very hopefully and the following morning was a great deal better than might have been expected. Yesterday he commenced to sink and at 7 o'clock last night he passed away.

The deceased gentleman was about 56 years of age and lived at No. 3, Lundy's Lane. He was a hard-working and industrious citizen, and highly respected. He was a native of England and the funeral will be conducted under the auspices of the Sons of England.

He leaves a wife and family. The funeral will take place at 2.30 o'clock on Sunday afternoon.

LAID AT REST.

The Funeral of the Late Robert J. Fife Took Place To-day.

The remains of the late Robert J. Fife, whose demise occurred in Chicago on Tuesday, arrived here per G.T.R. at 5.30 o'clock last night, and were taken to the residence of Mr. D. Belleghem, undertaker. They were viewed by many of deceased's friends and former acquaintances yesterday evening and last night.

The funeral took place at two o'clock this afternoon from Mr. D. Belleghem's, to the Little Lake Cemetery. The services at the house and the grave were conducted by Rev. Dr. Torrance, pastor of St. Paul's Presbyterian church. Many of Peterborough's citizens paid their last tribute of respect to the deceased by following the remains to the cemetery.

The pall bearers were: Messrs. W. G. Morrow, Alex. Gibson, F. D. MacKay, Dr. King, Theodore McWilliams and Dickson Davidson.

The many beautiful floral tributes were ample evidence of the esteem in which the late R. J. Fife was held. Amongst those received was a very pretty wreath from the deceased's mother, with the words "Mother" thereon. There were also wreaths from Mr. F. D. MacKay, the Peterborough Hockey Club, the Misses McKee, Miss Nellie Sherin, Peterborough Lodge A.F. & A.M., Mr. Dickson Hall, Miss Nicholls, Miss Bennett, and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Stapleton.

BANK IMPROVEMENTS.

The Ontario Bank has Two Handsome New Tellers' Cages.

There have been changes of considerable importance going on to the interior of the local offices of the Ontario Bank, which when completed will more enable the staff to cope with the volume of business done. During the past few days workmen have been engaged in placing in a second new teller's cage which is situated next to the window facing on Simcoe street. The cages are as fine a specimen of work of the kind as one would wish to see, and are made by the Preston Furniture Company. From this time forward the local branch will have a paying and receiving teller's department as well as the savings teller's department. Owing to press of business to-day the bank had four tellers on duty.

UNSTATED DAMAGES.

George Forbes who Lost Both Hands Goes to Law.

Messrs. O'Connel & Kerr, barristers, Peterborough, have at the instance of Henry Boarer, acting on behalf of George Forbes, issued a writ for unstated damages against the Cordova Exploration Company.

The defendants in the action are an English Syndicate carrying on a gold mining business at Cordova, in Peterborough county. Forbes, who is having Henry Boarer acting in his behalf, is 19 years of age, which accounts for this procedure. The accident from which the action arises occurred on the 10th of May, 1901, in one of the mines of the company, and resulted in Forbes losing both his hands. The writ alleges negligence on the part of the company and its officials.

PERSONALS.

Dr. Andrew Scott is in Toronto for a day or two.

Mr. H. A. Wilson, of Hastings, was in town yesterday.

Mr. C. D. Henry, business manager for the "Vip-tack Co." is registered at the National.

Miss May Robertson, Reid street, left last evening to spend a week with friends in Millbrook.

Messrs. F. D. Kerr and A. W. McPherson are attending the annual meeting of the O.H.A. in Toronto.

The Knickerbocker Club's dances have proved to be so enjoyable that the members have decided to extend the series.

Mr. Clayton Stapleton has so far recovered from his recent illness that it is expected he will be able to leave the Nicholls Hospital this evening.

Miss Margaret Cox left this afternoon for Toronto where she will spend a few days visiting her uncle and aunt, Hon. Senator Cox and Mrs. Cox.

The last number of the Trinity University Review, contains a fine half-tone portrait of Mr. Fred J. Sawers, B. A., who won the Prince of Wales prize in the June examinations. At present he holds a mastership of classics in Trinity College School, Port Hope.

500 MEN WANTED.

To attend the special service for men to be held in St. Luke's church to-morrow afternoon at 4.15., when Rev. Arthur Murphy, M.A., will deliver an address on "A Good Choice."

LADIES!

You are cordially invited to visit Mrs. Appleby's Christmas Display of Fancy Goods and Novelties at 422 George street.

CORDAGE CO. NOTES.

Operations Have now Reached a Most Interesting Stage Down at the Works.

The Cordage Company's works will doubtless be visited by hundreds of citizens to-morrow as operations have now reached a stage where a view of the buildings is most interesting.

The boiler house is completed in its entirety and the equipment is now being placed in position by the William Hamilton Mfg. Co. The Preparation Building, 74 x 122, is also finished and ready for the machinery, and the Spinning Building, 92 x 140, in size, is also in an advanced stage, the roof being already on, and men engaged in tinning it. The Rope Department, 92 x 120, is ready for the roof, and the brick work of the Repair Shop, 28 x 44, is almost completed. Three motor houses, each 12 x 14, are finished, and the stonemasons are hustling on the foundations of the Warerooms, which will be 53 x 280 in size. Ground has been broken for the erection of the Tar House, 24 x 72, and when that is finished, the Tank House, 20 x 20, and the offices have yet to be finished. These buildings fill in the entire block compassed by Perry, Bethune, Lake and Aylmer streets, and they will be packed in very closely together at that.

Contractor Hartley has certainly shown of what he is capable when it is taken into account the enormous amount of stonework which has been done, including many transverse walls beneath the buildings to support the placing of the heavy machinery.

The railway siding, concerning which there has been considerable dispute, is already laid, and men are engaged in putting in the ballasting.

THE LABOUR UNION.

45 New Candidates Enrolled at Last Night's Meeting.

When the municipal elections come on in the course of a few weeks, the candidates for aldermanic honours will have to reckon with an organization that has sprung into existence during the past year, and which has grown in membership of late by leaps and bounds. This organisation is the Peterborough Union of Federation of Labour. The Peterborough Branch of the Federation has been very prosperous since its institution, and the meetings each Friday night are always well attended. Last night there were no less than 45 new members enrolled, and the membership now numbers over 600.

Enthusiastic speeches were made, and preparations are now going on for the visit to Peterborough of Grand Organizer J. E. Flett, of Hamilton, who will likely be here next week.

ELECTRIC LIGHTING EQUIPMENT.

Used on Grand Trunk Train, Received Gold Medal at Pan-American Exposition.

During the summer season the Grand Trunk Railway inaugurated a system of lighting several of its trains by electricity, also supplying the dining cars, and cafe parlour cars with electric fans, the current used for both the lighting and fan being generated from the axle of the wheels, an innovation very much appreciated by the travelling public.

The Consolidated Electric Lighting and Equipment Co., which installed this system, was awarded the gold medal at the Pan-American exposition by a jury composed of railway and electrical experts, after a critical examination of the various car lighting equipments.

EVANGELISTIC MEETINGS.

Mr. Walden in Close Touch With His Audience Last Night.

The evangelistic services last night in St. Andrew's Church hall, were the best of the series. A goodly number assembled and profitted very much from the earnest and practical address of Evangelist Walden. He will give the addresses at both services in St. Andrew's to-morrow, and a very cordial invitation is extended to all, especially strangers. The special offering at the morning service will be for Home Missions, (by envelope), and in the evening for evangelistic work.

A LOCAL SONGSTRESS.

Miss Clara Belleghem Made a Most Favourable Impression in Tweed.

The Tweed News in referring to the anniversary services held in connection with the Methodist church of that place last Sunday, speaks as appended concerning one of Peterborough's most gifted young singers:

"The very efficient choir was assisted in the musical portion of the services by Miss Belleghem, a popular solo singer of Peterborough. At the morning service she rendered "The Man of Galilee" and at the evening service "A Clean Heart" and "Fear Not Ye." Miss Belleghem certainly made a good impression as a soloist upon those who were fortunate enough to hear her. She possesses a clear, strong and sweet voice, over which she seemed to have excellent control. One thing in her singing that was very much admired and brought forth considerable commendation was her very distinct enunciation. If Miss Belleghem should ever appear before a Tweed audience again we can assure her it would be one that would give her a very hearty reception. As a mark of appreciation of her services the Board of Trustees presented her on Monday morning with a gold piece. Both the pastor and the congregation have every reason to be gratified over the success of this year's anniversary."

Have you seen the latest in artistic photography at the entrance to Whiten's studio? Nothing in town to surpass the quality and style of photos at Whiten's.

Men's Cloth Caps.

A lucky pick-up of 75 dozen men's cloth caps, bought at a great bargain, will be retailed at about half regular prices. Splendid winter caps; well-made, well trimmed, and very comfortable. Best cap value in town. H. LeBrun & Co.

NAVIGATION CLOSED.

List of Excursions Handled Last Season by the Peterborough Navigation Company.

As Little Lake is frozen over so solidly that skaters are passing to and fro between the town and Ashburnham, it is evident that navigation has closed for the season, and in this connection the appended list of excursions handled by the Peterborough Navigation Company, will be of interest:

Coldsprings S. S. to Peterborough.
Wm. Sailsbury, Business Men's first Annual Excursion to Idyl Wild and Jubilee — a great success.
S.O.E. Moonlight Excursion.

September.
St. Peter's T.A.S. to Jubilee. This was the excursion of the season. The steamers City of Peterborough, North Star, Water Lily and palace barge, with a total capacity for the accommodation of 900 passengers, being found necessary to convey the party to Jubilee.
River Road Union S.S. excursion.
A. Reynold's, L.O.L. excursion to Jubilee.

The fact that it was late in July before the "City" was in shape to run, resulted in much business being lost to the company in the way of excursions.

THE SPORTS OF THE DAY.

The Annual Meeting of the Trent Valley Hockey League.

It Will be Held on Saturday Night—Other Items of Interest in the Athletic World.

One week from to-day the annual meeting of the Trent Valley League will be held and the clubs of the various towns connected therewith are preparing for the event. The success of the Trent Valley League during the past year or two has been encouragement for its officers to go into the work this season with renewed energy. The secretary has been in correspondence with the management of the clubs and they all express their utmost fidelity to the organization Madoc has not yet been heard from, but it is expected that they will fall into line once more and they will likely run up against Stirling, a town which is booming the game this season at a great rate. Marmora, it is feared, will have to drop out. They are experiencing some difficulty with their rink management, a feature too glaring in all parts of the province, and they have some doubts as to whether they will be able to place a team on the ice, or speaking more to the point, it is doubtful if they will have ice on which to place a team. This is to be generally regretted as in the past Marmora has shown itself to be sportsmanlike to the back bone. It is to be hoped that they will be able to tide over the difficulty. Campbellford was perhaps never so enthusiastic and with their enthusiastic supporter, Mr. Fred Wood, they intend showing the Hockey public a thing or two. Norwood, the popular runners up in the League last year, are marking time until the ice arrives, while Keene, the old standbys from the home of President Wallace, are anxious to get into the series once again.

The Lakeviews anticipate having a husky seven this winter and the management of the club will exert every possible effort to down all comers. Joe Picard who played with Campbellford last season, and who figured so prominently on the local Rugby team, will chase the puck with Manager Bradburn's organization. Parnell of last year's Peterboroughs, will play with the Lakeviews and it is said that he is not the only one—Crowley who is originally a Lakeview man may return to the fold, as well as several others. There is, it is understood, a probability of Christy Graham donning the Lakeview colours. Dick Watt is also slated for the local Trent Valley team.

After an absence from the hockey arena of about three years, Millbrook has organized and will have a dele gate at the Trent Valley League meeting. They have a number of good players amongst them being, Jack Nattrass, who played on the Ontario Lacrosse team, of Port Hope, this season.

Omemee will join the T.V.L., while Lindsay will, as last year, have a team in both the O.H.A. and T.V.L.

Mr. Maurice Welsh, the secretary of the Bobcaygeon team in writing to the secretary of the League, says "Although our time in it is short when we get playing, still that makes no difference, but we want to make the League a success." It is to be hoped that the same spirit will be shown by the other clubs in the League.

Fenelon Falls, the champions of 1900-1, have lost their energetic secretary, Mr. Rollins, but Genial Junkins will engineer the boys through the season. Altogether the prospects for the Trent Valley League are exceptionally rosy.

Mr. George B. Henwood, of Port Hope, is a candidate for a position on the executive of the O.H.A. Mr. Henwood is a popular young barrister of Port Hope and would make a most capable committee man. He should have no trouble in being elected.

The Sporting Editor of the Examiner has received the following communication from one who evidently is a junior:

"Many people are enquiring how Peterborough is going to stand in the O.H.A. this year. Last year's Junior Champions will be in the Intermediate Series this winter, and beyond this our town is entirely out of the hockey circle. There may be no chance of a Senior Team, but why not a Junior? There is plenty of good material to pick a team from, and if someone was to take an interest in the thing and help it along, he would be well repaid for his efforts. Thanking you for your space, I remain, yours truly. Junior."

We heartily concur with what our correspondent says, and the younger players should not be neglected.

ABOUT LONDON.

The executive of the O. H. A. met last night in Toronto.

The case of the London Club was disposed of by a recommendation in conformity with the opinion of counsel, which was to the effect that the evidence showed no doubt of the right to prosecute and the right to convict, but that on account of the local feeling it would be difficult to reach the people concerned in a London court.

Several new documents were put in. One was Hern's declaration that he had his tuition paid at a London Business College, and received $7 a week from the end of October until the hockey season opened. Then he got $10 a week. He gave the names of the officers of the London Club, who made and carried out the agreement. His declaration stated that when his standing was under investigation, he was induced by two officers of the club to sign false affidavits, which he and they knew to be false. Hern was not twenty years of age when he went to London a year ago, and he pleaded his youth and inexperience under pressure from the club's officers.

Frank Winn, of Montreal, also sent in a declaration describing how a relative of one of the London's Club's officers engaged him in Montreal to go to London last January. He told of his meeting with the London officers, and their instruction that he was to play under the name of Campbell Lindsay, which, he says, he declined to do. He does not tell what he got in addition to his ticket and expenses.

P.R. Ashplant, one of the London team, put in an application for reinstatement, supported by a statutory declaration that he believed Winn to be Lindsay, because Winn was so introduced to him by W. A. Mace, Secretary of the club.

Hern's application was refused. He is now in Pittsburg playing hockey at a salary of $16 a week. That of Ashplant was laid over, and he will be given a personal hearing by the Executive, if he so desires.

WANTS $5000

For Trespass, Assault and Alienation of Wife's Affection.

A writ has been issued in the High Court of Justice for the County of Peterborough by Thomas Edward Jory, of Douro, against John Wilson, for $5000 damages for trespass and unlawfully entering upon the plaintiff's lands, and for assault, and also for alienation of his wife's affections.

The writ was issued by the plaintiff's solicitor, Mr. O. A. Langley, barrister, Lakefield, and an appearance has been duly entered by Messrs Stratton & Hall, solicitors, for the defendant in the action.

SUTCLIFFE'S SUCCESSFUL BUSINESS.

A Consistent Cash Store and its Influences.

The weather may deceive, bureau prognostications prove incorrect, but the advent of the holiday season is so plainly demonstrated at Messrs. J. Sutcliffe & Sons' dry goods store, that one can remain no longer in ignorance of the fact. The month of holiday happiness and big selling has brought early displays of thousands of distinctive things that make this store resplendent with gift-giving suggestions.

The conscientious efforts made by this growing firm to prove their determination to represent goods as they believe them to be, have exercised a strong influence on shoppers. All goods are marked in plain figures and the marked price is religiously adhered to. The "money-back" principle of the firm has helped to still further instil confidence, and goes to show that Sutcliffe & Sons consider their goods equal to the money they ask for them.

It has been noticed, too, that customers of this cash store do not hesitate to ask to be shown goods — as special pleasure is always taken in showing their wares, independent of a purchase. All patrons are treated alike, and each one's money is as good as another's.

The buying facilities of the firm are excellent. It is no hearsay that they buy for cash. Their resident Toronto buyer as well as the local resident buyer, cross the "pond" several times a year to search the best market for each class of goods required, and their ripe experience in the foreign markets cannot fail to be an invaluable help in securing goods at the very closest prices.

The stock carried is extensive and varied. The firm lay much stress on their silks and dress goods. All the newest textures and incidentials being shown. Ready-to-wear garments receive special attention, and they claim to have raised the standard of these garments in Peterborough. Their suits, mantles, outside and inside skirts, blouses and whitewear are very favourably spoken of by ladies. Their separate skirt and blouse trade has grown remarkably owing to their keen perception of the wants of the ladies, and their special facilities for manufacturing these garments on their own premises. Long coats are also greatly in evidence in their mantle department.

There are many ladies in Peterborough who have been made constant customers at Sutcliffe's by their modish millinery. This particular department is just now enjoying unusual activity owing to a holiday sale of headwear. Satisfying results of a good season have caused the firm to be careless of profits in this department for the balance of the season—the only thought being to clear this season's novelties, so that new goods may greet the eye next season.

Messrs. Sutcliffe & Sons are also ready for Christmas with many novelty lines in pretty and attractive fancy goods, purses, shopping bags, notions, etc., specially suitable for gift-giving. The whole store tells of Christmas cheer, but there is one large Santa-Claus room on the second floor devoted to displaying novelties in gifts, which a visit will particularly interest hosts of shoppers.

THE CHICAGO, MILWAUKEE & ST. PAUL RAILROAD.

Many people unacquainted with the geography of the west, imagine that because the names, "Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul," are used in the corporate title of the railway owning the short line between Chicago and Omaha, they must go via the the cities of Milwaukee and St. Paul to reach their destination—and if it be Omaha or west thereof. This is a mistaken idea. On a map the line running directly east and west would look like this:

Omaha——————Chicago.

There is nothing more simple than that, and it is less than 500 miles between Chicago and Omaha. Two through trains daily in each direction with the best Sleeping Car and Dining Car Service, and all regular travellers know and appreciate the merits of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway's Short Line between the East and the West.

VARICOCELE

No matter how serious your case may be or how long you may have had it, our NEW METHOD TREATMENT will cure it. The "wormy veins" return to their normal condition and hence the sexual organs receive proper nourishment. The organs become vitalized and manly powers return. No temporary benefit, but a permanent cure assured. NO CURE, NO PAY. NO OPERATION NECESSARY. NO DETENTION FROM BUSINESS.

STRICTURE

Thousands of young and middle-aged men are troubled with this disease—many unconsciously. They may have a smarting sensation, sharp, cutting pains at times, weak organs, and all the symptoms of nervous debility—they have STRICTURE. Don't let doctors experiment on you by cutting, stretching or tearing you. This will not cure you, as it will return. Our NEW METHOD TREATMENT absorbs the stricture tissue, hence removes the stricture permanently. It can never return. No pain, no suffering, no detention from business by our method. The sexual organs are strengthened, the nerves are invigorated, and the bliss of manhood returns.

Cures Guaranteed

We treat and cure BLOOD POISON, NERVOUS DEBILITY, IMPOTENCY, STRICTURE, VARICOCELE, SEMINAL LOSSES, BLADDER and KIDNEY DISEASES. CONSULTATION FREE. BOOKS FREE. CHARGES MODERATE. If unable to call, write for QUESTION BLANK for HOME Treatment.

BOER CHIVALRY.

Alleged Reason for the Continuance of Fight by the Boers.

London, Dec. 7.—A correspondent of The Times, writing from Pietermaritzburg, Natal, says the Boer generals would probably have given up the sponge long ago but for the loyalty of the Cape rebels to the Boer cause.

The bulk of the enemy in Cape Colony consists of rebels. For the Boers to surrender without protecting the rebels would be regarded as the height of contemptible meanness by all the Afrikanders and Boer sympathizers, and would produce such a revulsion of feeling on the part of the colonial rebels against the republicans as would be the best safeguard against any future rising of the Dutch colonists.

The truth is, says the correspondent, that neither side can accept peace on any terms the other can grant, and, therefore, there is nothing left but to rely on the effects of attrition.

British Scour West for Horses.

New Orleans, Dec. 7.—The largest number of British transports ever in this port at any time may now be seen at Port Chalmette. There are seven at the docks and one in midstream, each waiting for its turn to receive a cargo of horseflesh. Still another, the Indin, sailed last night. The eight vessels now in port represent 8,000 head of horses and mules. For the past 90 days, the shipments have broken all records, and agents of the British Government are scouring the West with greatly increased energy for more horses and mules.

WEAK AND NERVOUS.

Magistrate Dauphine's Deplorable Condition.

Despite Medical Treatment, he Became Weaker and Weaker, Until he Could Scarcely Sign His Name.

Mr. James Dauphine, of East Bridgewater, or as he is better known as ex-Councillor Dauphine, has been a sick man for the past three years. His health gradually forsook him, until by degrees he was forced to give up doing all kinds of work. He consulted a physician and took a large quantity of medicine, but it did him no good and he gradually grew weaker and weaker. His duties as a magistrate necessitated his doing much writing, and being an excellent penman in his days of good health it came very hard to him when his hand shook so much he could scarcely keep it steady enough to sign his name. His daughter, seeing his deplorable condition, advised him to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and after a bit of coaxing he was induced to try them. There was no noticeable change in his condition until he had started taking the third box. From that on the improvement was rapid. He grew stronger every day, his appetite increased, the weariness and lassitude departed from his limbs, some of the lustre of his youth returned to his eye, and by the time five boxes were used, Mr. Dauphine felt a new man. The weight of years and the burden of sickness have rolled from his shoulders, his hands are now steady and his pen can run as rapidly as ever. He attributes his cure to the ministration of a good wife and Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Mr. Dauphine is 73 years of age, but feels as young and vigorous as he did years ago, and is ever ready to praise in the warmest terms the health-giving qualities of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are the friend of the weak and ailing. They surpass all other medicines in their tonic, strengthening qualities, and make weak and despondent people bright, active and healthy. These pills are sold by all dealers in medicine, or can be had by mail, postpaid, at 50 cents per box, or six boxes for $2.50, by addressing the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

THE NEW CONTINGENT

It Is Not Expected That the Force Will Be Increased.

THE TRANSPORT ARRANGEMENTS

Alleged Boer Chivalry Responsible For the Continuance of the War—Those in the Field Stay There Because of Loyalty to the Cape Rebels —Process of Attrition Only Hope of Peace.

Ottawa, Dec. 7.—Col. Evans was unable to leave for Toronto last night, as he had anticipated, but expects to do so this evening. He has heard nothing, he says, about the report that the force for South Africa is to be increased to 900 men. The story probably arose from the fact that the two transports to be sent out would have accommodation for that number. Col. Hon. F. W. Borden went to Montreal this afternoon, but before leaving stated that as far as he knew the force would not be increased beyond 600 men, but the probability was that more horses would be sent.

The Mounted Rifles.

Additional recruiting for the Mounted Rifles has been authorized at the following points: Edmonton, 10; Calgary, 10; Maple Creek, 15; Pincher Creek, 10, and Moosomin, 5, making a total of 50. There is still a number to appropriate before the full strength of the contingent is recruited. It is probable that the balance will be held until a number of men on their way out from the Yukon reach civilization. A number of telegraphic applications were received from Dawson, and the men are hurrying out over the ice.

Non-commissioned officers and men of the permanent corps will not be accepted for enlistment in the Canadian Yeomanry now being organized for service in South Africa except under special authority from headquarters.

The Transport Arrangements

It is likely that the Mounted Rifles and the horses will be divided between the two transports Manhattan and Ranee, which are being sent out to Halifax by the War Office. In this event Col. Evans will command one attachment on the way across and Major Merritt the other. Col. Evans expects to go to Toronto tonight to say farewell to some friends.

It will be the last opportunity he will have, as he proposes leaving for Halifax towards the latter end of next week, and taking control of matters there until embarkation. The Colonel sees no reason why the force should not be in readiness to embark by January 1, or soon after. Inspector Primrose of the Northwest Mounted Police, who is here at present, will likely be given command of one of the companies. A non-commissioned officer from the permanent corps in each military district will proceed to the principal towns in such districts on dates to be fixed by the D.O.C. for the purpose of recruiting men for the third special service battalion at Halifax, which is to be maintained on service for 12 months longer from July 1st next. N.C. officers detailed for this duty will be allowed 50 cents per man recruited by them. Recruits will be sent to the headquarters of the district for final approval and enlistment, and while there will be attached to the unit of the permanent corps for rations and quarters. When five or more have been recruited they will be forwarded to Halifax in charge of acting non-commissioned officers to be appointed from their number, as hereunder: Up to 10 inclusive, an acting corporal; from 11 to 20 inclusive, an acting sergeant; if more than 20, an acting sergeant and corporal.

Imperial War Gratuities.

Ottawa, Dec. 7.—Mr. Borden, the accountant of the Militia Department, is sending to the War Office a statement of the moneys paid out to Canadian soldiers in the shape of Imperial war gratuities. Up till Oct. 31 last, the sum of £15,000, or $75,000, had been distributed to the beneficiaries, numbering about 2,000 officers and men.

An Orangeville Suicide.

Orangeville, Dec. 7.—The body of John Grey, an unmarried man of thirty years of age, was found in a swamp on a farm adjoining his father's, in Amaranth Township, by a trapper, who went out to ascertain his catch. Grey's head had been pierced by a bullet, through the forehead. He had left home five days before, but his family were not alarmed, for he was of temperate habits, and frequently left the farm for a few days. It is said that the young man had been paying attention to the daughter of a neighboring farmer, but that his advances were not acceptable to the young woman. Finally her father consulted a lawyer, and Grey, it is said, was notified that he would be prosecuted if he did not cease annoying the farmer's daughter. This is said to have preyed on Grey's mind.

Landseer Fell Off the Train.

Winnipeg, Dec. 7.—The remains of F. Parkman were picked up yesterday on the track near Fort William. He had evidently fallen off the train. His identity was discovered by his wife missing him from the train at Winnipeg. Parkman was about 32 years old, came from London, Ont., and was on his way to the Kootenay division of the Canadian Pacific Railway, where he was to have taken the position of fireman.

Fell Overboard.

Halifax, Dec. 7.—The body of Thomas Redpath, assistant engineer of the Government quarantine steamer Argus, was found by a driver in Cunard dock yesterday afternoon. He fell overboard on Wednesday night and was drowned. He leaves a widow and four children.

Child Burned to Death.

Wiarton, Dec. 7.—Mr. Kettley's little girl, about two years old, was burned to death yesterday morning. The child was left alone in the house and in some manner its clothes caught fire, and before assistance arrived it was burned beyond recovery.

Cured of Itching Piles.

Edward Dunellen, Wilkesbarre, Pa.: "For seven years I was scarcely ever free from the terrible torture of itching piles. I tried all sorts of remedies. Was told a surgical operation might save. One 50 cent box of Pyramid Pile Cure cured me completely." All druggists sell it. It never fails to quickly cure piles in any form. Free book by mail on piles, causes and cure. CLEVER AT TRADING

A SOUTH CAROLINIAN'S YARN ABOUT A HORSE DEAL.

The Nag Survived the Swapping Process, Was Won Back and May Even Live to Supply Excitement in Another Transaction.

"You don't have any fun swappin' and sellin' horses up here," remarked a South Carolinian the other day in an uptown horse exchange.

"We don't, eh?" was the response. "Why, you folks down there never sell a mare for $3,000—like the one that was handed over just now. And $3,000 is cheap here."

"It's not the money that makes the sport," answered the other. "Did you ever know a man to buy a plug for $2.90? Well, I did. And did you ever know the man to sell the same plug for $5.75? No? Nearly $3 profit! Think of it! When folks get to changin' these fancy prices, as you do here, then all the fun's out of it. Give me my old market town for real good sport in the horse tradin' business.

"Let me tell you about a deal I made last year. I wouldn't have missed that deal for all your thousand dollar fillies. No, sir! I had a sorrel mare; a big, lumbering old thing. She'd been a good horse in her day, but that was some eighteen years ago, and when last fall came round she'd been fallin' away for two or three seasons, till she was badly off. I reckon she was 'bout the worst horse in the county, but somehow seemed taken about the farm so long that I hated to swap her off. However, seein' she was likely to die any day, my wife and I concluded it was best, and, as I was always rather much on a swap, I didn't have any doubt but what 'twould turn out O. K.

"You know we farmers have to ride a long way to get to market town down south. Well, I wanted to take the old mare to town for swappin', but I knew 'twould half finish her up to walk there, seein' it was some twenty miles off. She hadn't been out of the stalls for a long bit, and, to tell the truth, she was hardly able to get her forefeet over the log at the bottom of the stall door. Such bein' so, I reckoned I'd lead her to town pretty slow a day ahead of time, so she'd look kind of fresh when time came to swap.

"The night before market day—it was Saturday we went to town generally—I got on another horse and rode in, leadin' the old mare by the halter. We didn't get out of a walk, but she was clean winded when we reached the edge of town. I gave her a lot of oats out of a bag I'd brought to bolster her up. Then I tied her and the other nag to a tree, and the three of us slept till mornin', after which we started into town just as though we'd come straight from home.

"Now, the very first man I met was a fellow from my neighborhood. We said how d'ye do to each other, and he looked at the nags.

"'Geel' he said. 'I didn't know that old thing could travel to town and keep goin' so good.'

"'Get off!' said I. 'She's as good as she was ten years ago.'

"He seemed mightily surprised. We rode to the main street and stopped at the grocery store, and pretty soon horse swappin' began. One fellow said he'd take my mare for an old cow he had at home; another 'lowed he'd give a cow and a bird dog together for her; another said he'd go one better and make it two bird dogs. Everybody seemed to want my mare, but I said I couldn't part with her.

"'She's worth at least $12,' I said to 'em, 'and she would be worth fifteen, but age takes down prices on horses.'

"Toward evenin', though, I took up an offer. A fellow named Smith—a cheeky youngster that thought nobody could teach him things about swappin' plugs—said he'd give me a cow, a big sow and eight little pigs for the mare. 'It's a go,' I said, and he took off the sorrel, leadin' her by the halter.

"Well, the youngster took the mare home. When he got there—I heard afterward—she was pretty near gone up. I reckon he said nice things about me. But he couldn't go back on the swap. Half the farmers in the county had heard of the bargain, so he just had to cough up that cow and the big sow and the eight little pigs. He was so mad that he didn't bring 'em over to my place himself, but sent a man with 'em. It was the man that told me how mad Smith was. He said Smith was ravin' all over—mad enough to chew up tenpenny nails and not feel 'em. He didn't say, though, that the cow—a fine lookin' beast—was goin' to die in two hours, and he didn't say the sow and the pigs were goin' to die, either.

"It wasn't long after the man left that the cow fell on the ground and rolled over and moaned. Then she died. Before the day was gone the sow was dead, too, and all of the pigs—except one. By the way, I never did understand why that last pig didn't go out. He must have had a cast iron stomach.

"What was the matter with all of them?" asked an old habitue of the exchange.

"Now, didn't I tell you how you folks up here didn't know anything about horse swappin'?" answered the South Carolinian. "What was the matter with 'em? Why, Smith had poisoned the whole bunch—to get even. I knew it when I saw 'em dyin'. As soon as they were dead I sent to the doctor's, two miles away, and told him to come over and make an autopsy. He found enough rat poison in that cow and them pigs to have killed Jumbo. Then I got him to swear he'd found the poison and sign up a paper to that effect. A few months later I went to law. Smith was in court. He hadn't got over his madness yet, and the looks he gave me would have frose you fellows, because you ain't used to the discomforts of genuine, orthodox horse swappin'.

"And the outcome of it all was that the jury made Smith give me $10 damages and the old mare into the bargain. She's livin' yet, and I don't know but I'll swap her off again."

BACK-ACHE ?

How many mothers realize that when the baby's advent is expected they need strength for two instead of one. Women, weak, nervous, "just able to drag around," find themselves confronted with coming maternity. They have not strength enough for themselves, how can they have strength to give a child? We don't look for the birth of strong ideas from a weak mind. Why should we expect the birth of strong children from weak mothers?

The way to ensure health and strength to mother and child is to use Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription as a preparative for motherhood. It brings the mother's strength up to the requirements of nature, so that she has strength to give her child. It nourishes the nerves and so quiets them. It encourages a natural appetite and induces refreshing sleep.

"Favorite Prescription" makes weak women strong and sick women well.

There is no alcohol in "Favorite Prescription" and it is free from opium, cocaine and all other narcotics.

"I wish to let you know the great benefit my wife derived through taking your 'Favorite Prescription,'" writes Mr. Robert Hardee, of Brandon, Manitoba. Box 235. "It was when her baby came. We had heard so much of your medicine that my wife decided to try it if I may say my wife's age was thirty-three and this was her first child). She commenced to take 'Favorite Prescription' five months before her child was born. We have a fine healthy girl, and we believe that this was mainly owing to the 'Favorite Prescription,' taken faithfully according to directions. We shall certainly recommend it wherever we can."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of customs and mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

LAUNDRY LINES.

Add a few drops of ammonia to the bluing water to whiten the clothes.

If curtains are allowed to dry before being starched, they will last clean quite a month longer.

To clean black cashmere wash the goods in hot suds containing a little borax. Rinse in very blue bluing water and iron while damp.

Clothespins need washing occasionally to keep them in good condition. It is a good plan to put them in the copper after the clothes have been taken out. After they have had a good wash they should be thoroughly rinsed in clean water.

Woolen goods when washed in soap and water shrink and acquire the odor of the soap. Therefore steep the articles in a warm solution of washing soda for several hours and then, after the addition of warm water and a few drops of ammonia, wash and rinse in lukewarm water.

Starch for table linen is made by putting one tablespoonful of dry starch into two quarts of boiling water after having first dampened the starch with cold water. Let this boil for ten minutes, stirring constantly and adding a little wax, lard or butter. Fine, heavy damask table linen does not require starch.

Tibetan Skull Drums.

A drum of an extreme repulsiveness of nature is one used by the lamas of Tibet at some of their church ceremonies. For this the craniums of two skulls, preferably children's, are taken, and over the concave side of each is stretched the skin of a snake. The two skulls are then cemented at their vertices to either side of a wooden disk covered with a cotton cloth, the stretched skins being outermost. These drums are often ornamented by having the heads of devils and such like horrors, the more repulsive the better, painted upon them in red and blue colors. The method employed in playing them is rather curious. To the wooden disk between the two halves a cord is fastened by which the drum can be suspended and then rapidly rotated. Two short cords with knobs at their ends hang down in such a way that as the drum revolves they strike alternately on either face and thus produce a regular "tum, tum."

A Matter of Identity.

"Here's another story about 'the oldest inhabitant,'" he remarked, looking up from his paper.

"Who is he?" she asked, although without displaying much interest.

"I know," broke in the bright little girl.

"So do I," asserted the smart little boy.

"You know who the oldest inhabitant is?' repeated the father in surprise. "Well, who is it, Ethel?"

"It's the man who dies so often," answered the bright little girl. "You're always reading about him in the paper."

"Huh!" ejaculated the smart little boy scornfully. "I guess you don't know what you're talking about. It's the fellow that's always remembering about cold winters and hot summers when the weather's bad."

A Curious Barometer.

A curious barometer is said to be used by the remnant of the Araucanian race which inhabits the southernmost province of Chile. It consists of the castoff shell of a crab. The dead shell is white in fair, dry weather, but the approach of a moist atmosphere is indicated by the appearance of small red spots. As the moisture in the air increases the shell becomes entirely red and remains so throughout the rainy season.

THE BEAVER IN WINTER.

His Curious Method of Breathing Under the Ice.

"The beaver is really a sort of portable pulp mill, grinding up most any kind of wood that comes his way. I once measured a white birch tree, twenty-two inches through, cut down by a beaver. A single beaver generally, if not always, amputates the tree, and when it comes down the whole family falls to and has a regular frolic with the bark and branches. A big beaver will bring down a fair sized sapling—say, three inches through—in about two minutes and a large tree in about an hour.

"One of the queerest facts about the beaver is the rapidity with which his long, chisel shaped teeth recover from an injury. I have known beavers to break their teeth in biting a trap, and when I caught them again ten days afterward you couldn't see a sign of the break—the teeth had grown out to their former perfection in that short period.

"As compared with the otter or mink, the beaver is a very slow swimmer. His front legs hang by his side, and he uses only his webbed hind feet for purposes of swimming. It is easy to capture one in a canoe if you can find him in about water. He is a most determined fighter, but clumsy and easy to handle. If he could get hold of you with his teeth, he would almost take a leg off; so you want to watch him sharply. The place to grab him is by the tail.

"The ability of a beaver to remain under water for a long time is really not so tough a problem as it looks. When the lake or pond is frozen over, a beaver will come to the under surface of the ice and expel his breath, so that it will form a wide, flat bubble. The air, coming in contact with the ice and water, is purified, and the beaver breathes it again. This operation he can repeat several times. The otter and muskrat do the same thing.

"It almost takes a burglar proof safe to hold a newly captured beaver. I once caught an old one and two kittens up the north branch of the Sou-west, put them in a barrel and brought them down to Miramichi lake. That night she gnawed a hole through the barrel and cleared out, leaving her kittens. They were so young that I had no hope of feeding them, so I released them in the hope that the mother might find them. Soon after that I caught a big male beaver. I made a large log pen for him of dry spruce, but the second night he cut a log and disappeared.

"Beavers, when alarmed, generally make up stream, so I went to the brook where a little branch came in, and I thought I would go up that a little way, and I hadn't gone more than ten rods before I came across my lad sitting up in the bed of the brook having a lunch on a stick he had cut. He actually looked as if he knew he was playing truant when he caught sight of me out of the side of his eye.

"I picked him up by the tail, brought him back, put him in the pen, supplied him with plenty of fresh poplar and he seemed as tame as possible and never gave me any more trouble. I brought him out to Stanley, where he lived a long time. Turnbull had a mongrel dog which was jealous of the beaver, and one day attacked him. He did that only once, for the beaver nipped the dog's tail off quicker'n a cat would catch a mouse."

Memories of the Tan.

In the old circuses the tan used to fly up now and then and dust the stalls, and now and then a horse's hoof would beat against the side of the ring with a heavy thud. All this is gone. There are no brazen discords now, no heavy thuds, no flying aromatic tan, and no stables. It used to be a rapture to go through the stables in the interval—down the long, sloping passages, with gas jets in wire cages—and find oneself between the tails of countless piebald horses extending as far as the eye could reach. Here and there a glimpse might be caught of an acrobat or a clown or, more exquisite sight, of a fair equestrienne. The friendly, warm scent of those stables I can recall at this moment. Now it is no more. It used to puff out into the street and act as a more attractive invitation to the passerby than any prismatic poster. And with it came muffled strains of the band and the crack of a whip, all combining in the late comer to work his anticipation to intensity.—Cornhill.

People in Many Towns Cured by Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets.

COBOURG.

A Lady's Strong Endorsation.

Mrs. David Mann, Cobourg, Ont., endorses Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets in the following manner:—"Having been bothered with Backache and Kidney Trouble and hearing of Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets, I procured a bottle of the same from A. J. Gould, druggist, and must say that they acted finely, and not alone with me but with others I gave them to. All trouble disappeared and strength and appetite returned as the pain left. I did not use an entire bottle, and can recommend them strongly to others with the same trouble."

ALMONTE.

Unable to Work.

"Yes, sir, Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets removed from my back that lumbago that afflicted me all winter and rendered me unfit for work," said Edward Garwood, whose home is Almonte." I have had great relief from kidney trouble, too. The urine was scanty and scalded. I had no energy to do anything, and pains in my head were frequent. Since using these Tablets there is no longer any urinary trouble, my back is strong and free from pain, and I can only give the Tablets my strongest endorsation."

BROCKVILLE.

A Child's Sufferings Relieved.

Mrs. W. M. Glover, Pearl street, Brockville, says: "One of my children that had been suffering from sluggish kidneys, read about Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets and procured a bottle. They removed the whole difficulty promptly. That depressing pain over the kidneys was stopped, dizziness and headaches ceased, and there was a general invigorating of the system. There is no question regarding the merits of these tablets for the back and kidneys. We have great confidence in them, and recommend them highly."

SMITH'S FALLS.

Back Caused Misery.

Mrs. W. J. Smith, Elizabeth street, Smith's Falls, says: "I think Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets, which I secured from Wm. Johnston, the druggist, did me more good than any remedy that I have used. My kidneys and back caused me much misery, but they promptly relieved me. I gave them to my little girl with the most satisfactory results. She had suffered from weakness of the kidneys and they invigorated her. My mother has used them, and she thinks there never was a kidney medicine to equal them. We are pleased to recommend them."

CARLETON PLACE.

Prompt Relief.

Mrs. Geo. Inman, residing on William street, Carleton Place, Ont., writes: "We have used Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets in our family, and have obtained the most satisfactory results from them. I have only taken a box myself, having been troubled with backache, but they gave me prompt relief. I procured the Tablets from Dr. Muirhead's drug store for my husband who had been suffering from an acute lameness in the back and a constant nagging pain when on his feet. To stoop or to assume an upright position after sitting awhile, was excruciating. Then his kidneys bothered him; the secretions were not normal. He says he never had anything to come up to Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets. They acted so promptly and efficiently in giving relief and curing him."

KINGSTON.

Sharp Twinges.

Mrs. Hiram Casey, 309 Brock street, Kingston, says: "I have used Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets, and I found them good. I had pain and lameness in my back that caused me sharp twinges when stooping or lifting and sapped me of energy. Added to this I had pains in the back of my neck, and annoyance from the kidney secretions. The tablets invigorated my kidneys, they strengthened my back, removed the indigestion that was beginning to assert itself, and I have no hesitation in recommending them."

BELLEVILLE.

Lumbago Leaves.

Mr. William Smith, Pinnacle street, Belleville, says, "Before using Pitcher's Kidney Tablets I was much afflicted with lumbago. Since I used a bottle I am not only free from that but I am sleeping better. The nervous restlessness has ceased. The dull aching in the small of my back has disappeared. Backaches took all the energy from me and left me depressed and weary. I can vouch for Pitcher's Tablets being a reliable remedy for pain and lameness in the back."

WHAT DR. PITCHER'S TABLETS CURE.

Dr. Pitcher does not claim that his Backache Kidney Tablets will cure everything. They are designed for diseases and disorders of the kidneys, bladder and urinary organs, symptoms traceable to derangement of these organs, such as:

Backache, Lame or Weak Back, Pain in the Back or Between the Shoulders, Swelling of the Feet and Legs, Bloating, Puffiness under the Eyes, Puffy and Pasty Appearance of the Face, Dropsy, Bright's Disease and Diabetes, (except in the last stages) Gravel, Stone in the Bladder, Brick Dust Deposits in the Urine, Scalding or Irritation in the Urine, Frequent Calls during the Day or Night, Inflammation of the Bladder or Cystitis, Catarrh of the Bladder, Milky Colour of the Urine, High Coloured or Foul Smelling Urine, Sudden Stoppage of the Flow of the Urine, Scanty Flow of the Urine, Dribbling Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Pains in the Joints or Hips, Uric Acid in the Blood, Heavy feeling of Pain in the Head, Impure Blood, Drowsiness, Rapid Loss of Flesh, Great Thirst, Excessive Quantity of Urine, Specks Floating Before the Eyes, Bad Taste in the Mouth (especially in the mornings), Constipation, Torpid Liver, Dragging Pain in the Loins, Sense of Weight or Pressure in the Region of the Bladder, Kidney Troubles of Old People, Bed-wetting of Children, Kidney Troubles of Women, and all symptomatic indications of Kidney Derangements.

Price 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50, at all druggists, or sent by mail by addressing the Dr. Hins Pitcher Co., Toronto, Ont.

An Interesting Account of a Local Volunteer's Experience on the 2nd. Canadian Contingent—The Impressions he Gained.

(Lt. Robert Johnston, 45th Regiment)

CHAPTER XII.

This was and is my theory and I always governed myself accordingly. I am so confirmed in my opinion that all the V.C's. ever made in England would be no incentive to ignore those stringent laws. In the foregoing we granted our officers were talented men, but on the other hand weren't many of us equally so? Where is the regular regiment where you will find so many Masters of Arts, Doctors of Law, Philosophy, Medicine; so many Bachelors of Science and other professional men or skilled mechanics as in the Colonial Contingents? You may search the world over and your labour will be lost. There was just as much and possibly more intellectuality in the ranks as in the staff, and the former were filled with men of sound principle, sterling character, having filled honourable positions in society and were just as efficient in military affairs as our officers. In view of all this we were ground down under the same laws that govern a body of men who laugh and sneer at a comrade if he happens to say anything sensible. It was to my mind unnecessary and I don't believe our staff was justified in treating us as they did. Some called their actions tyrranical, but I think it was more due to a great lack of judgment. Our noble Minister of Militia, and none greater or better qualified ever held the portfolio, had the boys drawn from all over our fair Dominion with this object, that when they returned home they would still remain in the service and the militia would reap the benefit of their practical experience abroad. But, alas, his grand purpose was almost completely frustrated by our officers' folly. It is utterly impossible to take a man out of civilian life and transform him into an efficient soldier in a moment of time. His education must be gradual otherwise you will in all probability have a modified type of anarchist—one who resents and despises authority. This remodelling process was so rapid we couldn't easily assume or retain the dignified and soldierly bearing our officers desired, and it was while this was being hurried to completion, we became calloused and soured. As civilians we enjoyed perfect freedom in the exercise of our mental faculties and were governed according to the dictates of our own conscience, and now we naturally disapprove of this new plan where these powers must remain inert and we become as little children. Our superiors were, as a general thing, exceedingly particular that we carry out regulations to the very letter, but, like many of their fellow-comrades at home, they were a little lax in the proper discharge of their own duty. For instance we must pay compliments with all the ease, perfection and alacrity of a regular soldier and sometimes a salute properly rendered would be returned in a most slovenly and unsoldierly manner, as the officer raised a hand in which he firmly clutched a walking stick and pair of gloves, half way to his cap. It would be just as permissible and just as soldierly for me to salute him with a hand in which I held a loaf of bread or a coffee-pot. Discipline is essential to the maintenance of order and the proper execution of manoeuvres at home or abroad. Without it an army is simply a mob and we appreciate discipline we abhorred those rules which we considered a menace to manliness. However, it is all past and gone forever, and we hope, if occasion ever demands the mobilization and despatch of another contingent to any part of the Empire, those who are entrusted with its care will be profited by past experience and exercise greater vigilance and discretion.

I will now proceed to describe other other events transpiring previous to embarkation. Everybody—soldiers and civilians—looked forward with fervent interest to Wednesday, the 21st of January. The former, because it was the day on which he would sail for the theatre of war, where abundant opportunities would present themselves to perform the many hero'c deeds which, in his fancy, he had dexterously executed scores of times; the latter because it was to be a half holiday; in which there would be something to appeal to the aesthetic side of Nature and gratify the inate curiosity of everybody. For weeks past excursions from various parts had been arranged for, and everything was indicative of immense crowds to give the boys a "rousing send-off."

The morning dawned clear and mild. In the forenoon we marched to the docks with our saddle-valises and selected our sleeping apartments for the trip, then returned to consummate all preliminary arrangements for embarking. From early morning the crowd upon the street was hourly assuming more prodigious proportions, and at the time appointed for the parade hundreds of thousands thronged the line of march. Shortly after noon we proceeded to the Armouries, where many complimentary addresses were delivered by naval, military and state officials, after which, precisely at three o'clock, we started for the quays.

The procession, as nearly as I can remember, was purely military, free from the crowding and jostling we experienced in Montreal. It was a solemn time, and everybody seemed to fully realize the seriousness or might—I say awfulness—of the hour. There were, at times, outbursts of wild hurrahs and exclamations of brave and encouragement, but the vast majority were content to silently wave us a last fond farewell with that old flag of England whose colours are warranted not to run. In the midst of all this turmoil and confusion we advanced with steady tread, and as we passed the School for the Blind the band of that institution struck up the familiar and inspiring air—"Soldiers of the Queen," "Rule Britannia," and "The Maple Leaf Forever." It was a pathetic scene, long to be remembered. On one of the main streets some zealous citizen had our old friend (?) Mr. Kruger in effigy suspended from a telegraph pole, and this representative individual became the subject of much abuse, being greeted with hisses, sneers, and groans, and finally receiving a well delivered volley of snow-balls. Frequently would be heard such humorous remarks or venemous threats as these—"There's no hope for Kruger now," "Kruger may make his will," "Bring home some of Kruger's whiskers," "We'll hang Paul Kruger to a sour apple tree," etc., etc., which would provoke a smile on the worst cynic. Pea-nuts, candies and apples were bountifully showered upon us from the second storey of some wholesale confectionery establishment, but the greater part of these found a berth in the muddy streets. At the dock-yards there was a perfect jam of people, all eager to gain access, but a strong guard prevented many from doing so. These guards are to some a perfect nuisance, just as they were to me in London, for I would have interviewed Her Majesty at Buckingham Palace several times if it hadn't been for the pestering officiousness of a man at the gate with a gun. The people this time, however, full of determination, were apparently unanimous in their resolve to overpower the guard and force their way through to where the last solemn adieus were to be freely interchanged. With this intention, the resolute throng, the moment we had entered the gates, made a mad rush, and it was really amusing to see big brawny policemen and stalwart soldiers promiscuously seizing men, women and children in their arms, only to let them free again to grasp others. Talk about love and affection! Why they were the most loving people I have ever seen, for they indiscriminately hugged and caressed everybody that came within their reach. The crowd, however, rushed forward prematurely, or perhaps it was previously designed, and many gained admission to the grounds before the massive iron gates could be closed. When this was done, and they were securely fastened, it was learned that they were shut too soon and had cut off one section of "our boys," from the main body. How exasperating! They must needs be reopened to admit four men, and a recurrance of what was enacted before they were closed apparent and inevitable. Again the crowd rushed forward and since the pressure was from the rear there was no use arresting those in front, for they could do nothing but go in, and this they did without objection. The moment the leading section of the Contingent wheeled around the curve leading to the wharf, the old Milwaukee, decked in gala colours, began firing a salute, and before the last report had died away we were formed up in close order to listen to a few more addresses, at the conclusion of which we marched up the steep inclining gangways into our new home. It was now 4.30 p.m., and tea was waiting for us down below, but we were so filled with enthusiasm and curiosity, we had no room for tea, and forthwith repaired to the upper deck to witness the final proceedings, which were not terminated till 5.55 p.m., when the great ocean monster was cut loose from her moorings, and slowly swung her bow towards sea. At this moment we reach the climax in our farewell ovations. From our lofty eminence we could survey the vast concourse below, and I believe the grandest and most pathetic scene it was ever my privilege to behold now lay before me. Hundreds of thousands, apparently, packed together like sardines, of one accord bidding us farewell. Some were joyful, some were sad; some in peals of merry laughter; some weeping convulsively; thousands of handkerchiefs, flags, etc., waving majestically in the air; cheer after cheer, mingled with the melody of bands, almost rent the heavens; whistles blowing on all sides of us, and salutes being fired, increased the hullabulloo, and assisted in making the scene one of deep impressiveness. As we slowly steamed down the harbour bay various kinds of craft blew a salute of three long blasts which were returned by our transport. Crowds were to be seen in every available position that proved a place of vantage and every old musket was called from the cellar or garret to fire a grand farewell salute to the boys in khaki. A tug, with a band on board, followed us down the stream quite a distance, but the ocean giant's speed soon became too fast for the presumptuous little barque, and it was left behind, the band playing "Auld Lang Syne," as it turned for home. For a short time we gazed wistfully toward the land of our birth; the land that we were proud to call our own, but soon, too soon, the setting sun sank behind the western hills, and the gathering shades of night dropping as the sparkling dew from heaven, gently cast a gloom over land and sea, and prevented us from longer viewing the enchanting scene.

Breathes there a man with soul so dead,
Who never to himself has said,
This is my own, my native land?"

IN LOCAL MILITARY CIRCLES.

Applications for Service in South Africa.

Capt. Cockburn's Little Incident—Lieut. Shaw Wants to go to the Front.

The feature in local military circles this week will be the supper that will be given in the Crown Hotel on Thursday evening by the members of No. 4 Company. The boys of this company, with their usual enterprise, are entering upon the affair upon an elaborate scale, and of course Mine Host Jackson can put up a pretty nice spread.

The recruit class continues to be well attended, and a number of well qualified non-coms. will be added to the strength of the Regiment next season.

Lieut. Alf. Shaw, of B. (Millbrook) squadron, 3rd Dragoons, has applied for a commission on the Canadian Yeomanry. Lieut. Shaw is the youngest officer in the Dragoons, and is an enthusiastic soldier. He possesses excellent qualifications, and his friends will hope that he is successful in getting on the strength of the new corps.

Lieut.-Col. Greer, of the 45th Northumberland Regiment, has quite recently taken unto himself a partner in life. Lieut. Greer's Peterborough friends will join in wishing him much happiness.

When Capt. Ronald A. Cockburn was home in Peterborough last summer he told a rather pleasing experience he had on the day on which he joined his regiment in Western Africa. Capt. Cockburn, after many weeks of travelling reached his post on the far off western coast. He knew not a soul. When he entered the mess room of his corps the few British officers who were there were strangers to him. After introducing himself his eyes fell upon a newspaper that was lying on a table, and he read the heading "Peterborough Examiner." At first Capt. Cockburn could hardly believe his eyes, and then he began to enquire as to how the paper came to be there. It so happened that the surgeon of the regiment was a Dr. C. Thompson, originally from Otonabee, and his relatives here forward him a copy of the Examiner once in a while. Needless to say, Capt. Cockburn devoured every word in the paper.

Applications for service on the strength of the Canadian Yeomanry continue to be made to Surgeon Major Young, of the Dragoons. The Mounted Rifles are to be taken to South Africa on an Imperial Transport. A private message received in Ottawa yesterday conveyed the intelligence that the transport Monlyn Castle, returning from Cape Town to England, had been intercepted at Cape Verde and ordered to proceed to Halifax without delay.

The kit which will be furnished to the Mounted Rifles will be a somewhat extensive one, as the following supplies have been ordered by the department: horse blankets, great coats, bandoliers, kit bags, mess bags, ankle boots, brushes of all kinds, button sticks, binoculars, field service caps, gloves and belts, dubbing, drawers, frocks of tartan serge, field dressing, knives, forks and spoons, beldails, housewives, pony mats, spurs, razors, head ropes, field ropes, feeding ropes, canvas shoes, sponges, putees, picketing pegs, shirts, socks, saddlery, towels, hoof-pickers, handkerchiefs, haversacks, jerseys, camp kettles, boot-laces, clasp knives, tin mugs, forage nets, trousers, circular tents, waterproof sheets, etc.

THE DANGER OF LOW VITALITY.

Severe Colds, Pneumonia, Consumption Find Easy Victims in Persons Whose Health is in Poor Condition—Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

At no season of the year is a low condition of health more likely to lead to serious results than at the present time. With vitality running low, the blood thin and nerves exhausted, one is made susceptible to colds and catarrhs on the slightest exposure. Gradually a persistent cough, hawking and spitting, is established, and each severe cold is accompanied by chills, fever, pains in the chest, and sometimes spitting of blood.

This is the short and deadly road that leads to pneumonia, consumption and other deadly lung troubles, and the only sure method of avoiding them is to keep the general health just as near to the high-water mark as possible all the time. It is because of its remarkable influence as a system-builder that Dr. Chase's Nerve Food has come to be so universally used as a means of increasing vitality and raising the standard of health.

There is no lesson which experience more strongly emphasizes than the importance of keeping the body well filled with health-giving vitality. When a weakened, run-down system is attacked by pneumonia, consumption, or even a heavy cold, there is small chance of ever shaking it off. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food instills into the blood the most potent blood-forming and nerve-invigourating elements which have ever been found in nature. You cannot possibly help but be benefited by this preparation, and even in long-standing cases of extreme debility and prostration there is good hope for recovery by the persistent use of this great food cure.

It is not wise to neglect the health at any time. Do not wait until you are completely exhausted and worn out before appealing to Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. Build up the system while yet there is some foundation to build on. Put new, rich blood in the shrivelled arteries, new vital energy into the nerves, and add firm flesh and solid muscles to the body, in order that in the day of trial, when attacked by disease, there may be some chance for fighting the great foe to human happiness.

Should you find yourself suffering from a cough, bronchitis, asthma, or any similar trouble, we can recommend you to use Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine, believing it to be the most thoroughly effective treatment that you can possibly obtain. It has time and again proven its power over asthma, and affords the greatest relief even in the most serious cases of pneumonia and consumption.

While Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine is aiding expectoration, clearing the choked-up air passages, healing and soothing the form and ulcerated linings of the throat and bronchial tubes, do not lose sight of the value of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food as a means of restoring lost strength and vigour. It is a unique preparation of surprising effect as a blood and nerve restorative. Fifty cents a box, six boxes for $2.50. At all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

"A handsome and useful Christmas present for your mother or grandmother is a copy of Dr. Chase's last and complete Receipt Book. Illustrated folder free."

Infants too young to take medicine may be cured of croup, whooping cough and colds by using Vapo-Cresolene—they breathe it.

FATAL FIRE AT SOUTHSEA.

Guests Escaped From Burning Hotel in Night Clothes.

London, Dec. 9.—The Queen's Hotel at Southsea was burned yesterday morning. Forty of the guests escaped from the building in their night clothes. Two chambermaids were suffocated. The hotel was a fashionable resort. Among those rescued from the building were the Rev. Thomas Teignmouth Shore, Canon of Worcester and Chaplain-in-Ordinary to King Edward and his wife; Major-Gen. Francis William Collis, and Col. Manton and their wives. Scenes of terror attended the burning of the hotel.

THE CONCENTRATION CAMPS.

New Proposal Concerning Them May Be Laid Before Parliament—Distribution of Refugees in the Settled Districts Is Suggested—Holland Wants the Refugees Says a Standard Despatch.

Pretoria, Dec. 8.—Morley's Scouts have been included in the newly-formed corps of National Scouts, which has now three wings doing service in the field. Two former Boer field Cornets, Meyer and Collins, have joined the scouts, and brought with them a considerable number of burgher recruits from the Rustenburg district. This is a new and important addition to the movement for a volunteer constabulary as the best means of ending the war.

Dutch Anger Flames Up.

The Hague, Dec. 9.—The confiscation of the Dutch Red Cross outfit outside of Pretoria, and the imprisonment of the staff on the Island of Ceylon, was again the subject of heated comment in the Chamber here Saturday, the members denouncing the action of the British as being contrary to the Geneva Convention. The Foreign Minister, Meivil van Lyndon, explained that the Geneva Convention was only applicable to the ambulances of belligerents, but even their staffs could be made prisoners if they violated neutrality. The Government, he added, had frequently demanded that the Netherlanders be released on parole, but Great Britain is not obliged to release them until after the close of the war.

The Concentration Camps.

London, Dec. 9.—It is reported that, when Parliament reassembles, the British Government will bring forward a new proposal in regard to the concentration camps in South Africa.

It is believed that the proposal will suggest the distribution of the refugees in the settled districts.

According to a despatch from Brussels to The Standard, Holland has asked the powers to support her in a demand that the people in these camps be brought to Holland.

What the War Has Proved.

London, Dec. 9.—The military authorities have decided at last to institute an enquiry with the object of ascertaining whether horses suitable for remount purposes can be bred in the United Kingdom in sufficient numbers to provide for any emergency.

The war has proved two things: That sufficient troop horses cannot be obtained in these islands, and that horses secured on the continent are inferior to those bred in Ireland.

The question that the War Office is considering is, How can encouragement be given to Irish farmers to breed horses suitable for cavalry and mounted infantry purposes?

SUDDEN DEATHS.

TELLS OF A SEA TRAGEDY.

Letter From Captain Who Killed His Steward and Then Himself.

St. John, N.B., Dec. 9.—Through a letter found on the barque Hiram Wood, it has been learned that Capt. C. M. Morris of the vessel committed suicide by jumping overboard through remorse for having shot and killed his steward, Charles Jeffries. The letter, which is dated Nov. 20, says: "To whom it may concern. This is to certify that I shot and killed the steward, Charles Jeffries, and I shall pay the penalty by my own hands. Let no man censure me too badly, but pray to God that he may never be placed in the same position. What I have done was no part of my nature. I have done no man wilful wrong. I write this to clear the officers and crew of any responsibility for what has happened, not to clear myself in any way or to ask sympathy from the world. I know what I have done and the sin I have committed.

"C. M. Morris."

Protection For Englishmen.

Colon, Columbia, Dec. 9.—The British cruiser Tribune returned yesterday from Bocas del Toro, whither she went to investigate the complaints of British subjects that they had been ill-treated by the Government troops. The complaints in regard to the treatment of British subjects was investigated. Provision was made to secure protection in the future for all English subjects.

Thomas Byrne of Sault Ste. Marie will be an independent candidate at the approaching Provincial elections.

THE MOUNTED RIFLES

Arrangements for Transporting the New Contingent.

SPECIAL TRAINS TO BE PROVIDED

No Increase in the Number of Men, but 400 Additional Horses Will Be Sent—Change of a Transport—List of Officers Supposed to Be Ready for Publication on Tuesday.

Ottawa, Dec. 9.—A special train, conveying the men enrolled in the Canadian Mounted Rifles for service in South Africa, will leave Victoria, B.C. on Dec. 10 and Vancouver on Dec. 11, and proceeding eastward, will pick up all those enlisted in the territories and Manitoba.

The men enrolled in Ontario will mobilize in Montreal on the 13th. A special train conveying them will leave London in the afternoon and Toronto on the night of Thursday, the 12th. The Ottawa recruits will leave for Montreal on Friday morning.

There will be no increase in the number of men to compose the contingent under Col. Evans. Six hundred is to be the full complement enrolled. It has been decided, however, to send nearly 400 additional horses. The transport Victorian will carry 472 horses, and 520 will be sent by the Manhattan, making 992 in all. The men will be divided equally between the two steamers.

It is not expected that the list of officers will be available for publication before Tuesday, as the names were only cabled for approval to the War Office after the meeting of Council on Saturday afternoon.

Col. Evans in Toronto.

Toronto, Dec. 9. — Col. Evans, C. B., who will command the third Canadian contingent in South Africa, was in this city over Sunday. He returned to Ottawa last night. The Colonel stated last night that the men would proceed to Halifax, under the command of Major Merritt on the 12th, and the Northwest men would likely pass through Ottawa for the east about the 16th. Col. Evans will have charge of these men.

The troopship Victorian has been substituted for the Ranee. She is quite as big as the Manhattan, being capable of carrying 450 men and 500 horses. It is the present intention, however, to divide the force into two equal battalions, one going by the Manhattan in command of Col. Evans, the other by the Victorian in command of Major Merritt. The whole will combine at Cape Town. The extra horse accommodation on the ships will be taken up with remounts for the contingent.

MAY EVACUATE TIEN TSIN.

Yuan Shih Kai's Request Will Probably Be Granted by Ministers.

Pekin, Dec. 8.—Yuan Shih Kai, the new Viceroy of Chili Province, has finished his formal calls at the various legations. The argument he has presented in favor of the evacuation of the native city of Tien Tsin by the troops under the provisional government is a very strong one.

Yuan Shih Kai made a more favorable impression here than any other Chinaman since the siege of the legations. Several foreign Ministers, including Mr. Conger, the American representative, are in favor of the evacuation of Tien Tsin. The final decision is in the hands of the military commanders, several of whom recently declared that it would not be safe to relinquish control of the city to the Chinese.

It is believed now that a meeting of the Ministers and commanders will be held to consider the matter. It is recognized that Yuan Shih Kai is a capable man who can keep the peace, which he promises to do if the city is evacuated. The strange thing about Yuan Shih Kai is that, although he is one of the foremost men in China, and a pro-foreigner, he is a protege of Yung Lu, the adviser of the Empress Dowager and the highest officer in China, who is notoriously an anti-foreigner.

Death Not Confirmed.

Amsterdam, Dec. 9.—It is impossible to obtain confirmation of the reported death of Major Vantet, aide de camp to Queen Wilhelmina, who is said to have fought and been wounded in a duel with Prince Henry, the Queen's consort. The Amsterdam Telegraaf asserts Major Vantet passed a quiet night last night, that Prof. Narath had performed an operation upon him and is satisfied with his patient's condition. At the hospital in Utrecht, however, and in official circles no information of this matter is obtainable.

SUPPRESSING ANARCHY.

Anarchy in the United States does not seem disposed to be disposed of summarily. The answer of Chicago anarchists to President Roosevelt's message and the proposed action of the Senate, was to wildly cheer Czolgosz, the assassin of President McKinley, at a public meeting in the "Windy City." Anarchy is a decidedly hard nut to crack. There does not seem any particular use of passing drastic laws against a system, whose apostles glory in becoming martyrs, if not for the "principles" they profess, then for the notoriety they secure. The extreme and practical anarchist does not fear punishment; without punishment he will have something less than the full share of notoriety he so earnestly covets, that he is willing to risk his life in its attainment. It is proposed in the United States Senate to make it a crime punishable with death, for any person to kill, attempt to kill, threaten to kill, or to, incite others to kill, a President of the United States. It is easy to pass such a law, but, for the reasons stated, it would have, if enforced, little effect in suppressing anarchy. It would, of course, put out of business one outflaming anarchist, who, with the satanic bravado shown by these desperados, would glory in bringing himself within the penalties of such a law. But that would be all. He represents in concrete form and action perhaps a million smouldering brands, who, instead, of being deterred by the death of their champion for a crime to which they were possibly parties, would thirst for revenge, or emulate what, to their disordered minds, would seem the heroism of their champion. Senator Hoar in speaking on the bill in question, suggested that anarchists should be banished from every civilized country, and hived in some tract of country where they might be at liberty to apply to themselves their principles of no law. This might have some good effect, but the difficulty would be to define an anarchist. If we accept as a fair definition, a class which believes in acting in an individual capacity, without regard to the regular processes of law, Senator Hoar's proposal would go a long way towards depopulating some of the States of the Union. Senator McComas, who introduced the bill mentioned, if he wishes to exterpriate anarchy, will have to extend his law to those who, in flagrant disregard of law and order, supersede and take the law into their own hands in the shape of roastings and murdering of negroes, or the hanging of persons, charged, condemned and executed, without trial, and often without any sort of proof of guilt. It is no wonder that foreign anarchists, of whom Senator McComas stands in so much dread, flock to a country, where the the principles of anarchy, represented by lynchings and burnings, with all the horrors of medieval barbarity, are practiced, and permitted or, if not permitted, not suppressed, and to some degree, popularly condoned.

LACK OF FAITH.

The Hamilton Spectator, rabidly Conservative, says that "The greatest obstacle to Canadian progress is lack of faith in the future of Canada and the future of the Empire." With similar reasoning it may be asserted that the greatest obstacle to Mr. Whitney's progress in popular favour is his lack of faith in the future and resources of Ontario, especially New Ontario. This portion of the province Mr. Whitney described as "the land of the stunted poplar." The contempt thus expressed is singularly unhappy, unpatriotic and short sighted. This is seen when one considers the rich resources of a portion of the province thus slandered by Mr. Whitney has given in only their initial development, employment to ten million dollars of capital, and the work is still going on at the rate of $750,000 per month, or $9000,000, or nearly a million dollars per year in wages and materials. And when one considers that in addition to enterprises which have already led to the expenditure of ten millions and which will require another ten million to carry out plans now in motion, other great enterprises are on foot, the situation is greatly emphasized. We are informed that Sir Christopher Furness, acting for British capitalists has arranged with the Clergue syndicate for the expenditure of ten millions of dollars in establishing a ship building plant and industry at the Canadian "Soo." Besides the Clergue syndicate, is said to have arranged for the establishment of great steel and iron tube works at the Soo. The smelting works at Midland, Deseronto, Hamilton, and the great ship building enterprise at Collingwood all depend upon New Ontario for the supply of raw material which maintains these great works in active employment of capital and labour. All this immense employment of capital, and, incidentally, of labour, too, is based upon and warranted by the extent and value of the almost inexhaustible resources of that very portion of Ontario which Mr. Whitney described as "the land of the stunted poplar," a synonym plainly intended to convey the idea of uselessness.

The preachers of Toronto are hot after the gamblers. This is only a spurt, for the whole ministration of preachers is a contest with gambling. A large proportion of their congregations gamble on the chances of living worldly self-indulgent lives and coming out all right in the celestial wind-up of earthly affairs.

PREMIER ROBLIN ON MANITOBA PROHIBITION.

Judicial decisions are queer things, for it seems difficult to procure one that decides. The decision of the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council, demonstrates that Manitoba had the power to pass a prohibitory act, but according to Premier Roblin, in this case prohibition does not prohibit absolutely. In a recent interview with the Montreal Star, (Dec. 4th) the Premier of Manitoba, after stating that the interpretation of the judgment is simply that the province is absolute as regards the sale of liquor within its confines, said:

"However, this does not prevent the importation of liquor from outside into Manitoba. It prevents the importation or exportation of liquor by those within the province."

"Can liquor then be brought within the province?"

"Yes, for if a resident in the province, wishes for instance, to get a case of liquor, he goes outside the province, say to Rat Portage, and purchases his supplies there. He then, having done this, take his liquor into the province, to his own home and consumes it there. Mark you, he cannot sell in the province what he has thus obtained from an an outside source."

"What course would be open to Manitoba brewers or distillers, supposing you had any?"

"Well, if we had such a class of manufacturers in the community, they would simply have to ship their liquor to some point outside the province, and there make their sales. The goods under these circumstances, as I interpret the ruling, could then be brought into Manitoba, and be consumed, but not sold, there."

"What will the action of the government be as regards this decision?"

"That I cannot tell. The ministry has decided upon absolutely nothing as yet. The full text has not, so far, come before the government. We will carefully consider the matter, however, but absolutely no stand has as yet been taken as regards this question."

"There is no doubt, however, but what your government will introduce some legislation on the lines laid down in the the Privy Council decision?"

"Probably, but of that I cannot speak definitely at present."

Could Not Give Away More.

London, Dec. 9.—The Times, in an editorial on the Hay-Pauncefote canal treaty, says it is hard to see how Great Britain could concede more without pretending to give what she did not possess, namely, the rights and incidents of territorial sovereignty. "This fact, however," says The Times, "would not weaken the objections of those senators anxious to oppose anything making for good relations with Great Britain. President Roosevelt and public opinion both seem to favor this treaty, and we venture to hope it will surmount the threatened obstruction."

To Check Advance of Russia.

London, Dec. 9.—Sir Henry Drummond Wolff, formerly British Ambassador at Madrid, is urging the establishment of Persia as a neutral territory, the independence of which would be guaranteed by the great powers, thus forming a kind of oriental Belgium. In common with other prominent politicians of both parties Sir Henry Drummond Wolff views with alarm Russia's power in Persia, which is steadily increasing, while that of England is just as steadily decreasing.

Will Prosecute Connor O'Kelly, M.P.

London, Dec. 9.—The Government has decided to prosecute Connor O'Kelly, M.P., and chairman of the Mayo County Council, and several officials of the County Mayo under the crimes act for holding meetings and delivering intimidating speeches in defiance of the orders of the police.

LABOR FEDERATION.

Some of the Questions It Will Pass Upon This Week—Addresses by the Foreign Delegates.

Scranton, Pa., Dec. 9.—The American Federation of Labor, which has been in session here for three days, completed its organization Saturday, and the real work of the convention will begin to-day. The official roll of the federation shows the presence of 312 delegates, the largest number in the history of the organization. During the last two days 197 resolutions were presented for consideration by the convention, and all of them were referred to committees. Among the large number of resolutions presented were several relating to the vital question of trade jurisdiction. Other important resolutions introduced were these:

Asking for an appropriation of $5,000 to aid the San Francisco Iron Workers; increasing the salaries of the national organizers 15 per cent., and also increasing the salary of the president from $175 to $200 per month, and that of the secretary from $150 to $200 per month.

Demanding municipal, state and governmental ownership of railroads, telegraph lines, etc.

Asking workmen to aid in the acquirement of the power of Government for the purpose of nationalizing industrial combinations.

Demanding the organization of an independent political party.

Protesting against ship subsidy legislation.

Expressing sympathy for the Boers.

For the establishment of Socialism.

Increasing the number of vice-presidents of the association from 6 to 8.

Providing for the organization of State Labor Federations in Tennessee and Pennsylvania.

To financially aid the woollen mill workers of Knoxville, Tenn., and Carriage Wagon Workers of Cincinnati, O.

Providing for the organization of school teachers.

Requesting the working men to hold aloof from the militia, and endorsing the Swiss military system.

Frank Chandler of the Amalgamated Association of Carpenters and Joiners, who is here as one of the fraternal delegates from Great Britain, was introduced at the opening of the Saturday afternoon session. He reviewed the labor conditions as they now prevail in the British Islands.

Benjamin Tillett of the British Trades Union Congress made an address advocating Socialism. He said that the force that is doing more for labor than any other is the "intellectual force of Socialism."

P. M. Draper of the Canadian Trades Union Congress, pleaded for more aid from the federation. He said Canada presented a wide field for missionary work in the interest of organized labor. He touched on the Chinese exclusion act, and said that Canada should also resist Mongolian immigration, instead of admitting the Asiatics on the payment of a poll tax of $100.

President Gompers replied to the foreign delegates on behalf of the delegates.

Pain in the Joints

may be muscular or rheumatic. The joints are hard to get at, and it requires a powerful, penetrating medicine to reach the affected parts. MOVED BY SYMPATHY

All Classes Condole With Mr. and Mrs. Blair in Great Loss.

MESSAGE FROM PRINCE OF WALES

Mr. and Mrs. Blair Have Returned to Ottawa—The Time For the Funerals of the Ottawa River's Victims Fixed—Floral Tributes to the Late Miss Blair and Mr. Harper.

Ottawa, Dec. 9.—Expressions of sorrow and sympathy with the parents of the late Miss Bessie Blair came not alone from those who called at the house of mourning yesterday. From all parts of the world telegraphic messages of condolence, hundreds in number, have reached them.

His Excellency, the Governor-General, has received a telegram from the Prince of Wales, desiring him to convey to Hon. Mr. Blair and the family the heartfelt sympathy of the Prince and Princess of Wales. A message of condolence was also received by Mr. Blair from Mr. Joseph Chamberlain, Secretary of State for the colonies, and Lord Strathcona also cabled an expression of sympathy with the Minister and Mrs. Blair.

Mr. and Mrs. Blair reached the city at 6 o'clock yesterday morning. At the railway station to meet them were their daughter, Miss May Blair, Hon. W. S. Fielding and Mr. Payne, the Minister's private secretary. Mrs. Blair, despite her recent illness, bore up bravely under the dreadful affliction.

Owing to telegrams for Clifton Springs being detained over night at Buffalo, the message apprising Mr. Blair of Miss Bessie Blair's death did not reach him on Friday evening, and it was in the local paper that he first read the shocking intelligence at 8 o'clock Saturday morning. An hour later the grief-stricken parents were on their journey home.

Mr. George Blair of St. John, N. B., the Minister's son, and Mr. R. T. Randolph and Mrs. Randolph, Hon. Mr. Blair's daughter, arrived Saturday from Fredericton. Floral tributes almost fill the room upstairs in which the body of the fair young girl lies with the calmly sweet expression of peace upon her countenance. The obsequies will take place this afternoon.

Hundreds yesterday viewed the remains of the late H. Albert Harper, the other victim of Friday's double drowning, as they lay at the residence of Rev. Dr. Herridge, and beautiful wreaths and other floral emblems testified to the sympathy of a sorrowing community. The funeral will take place this afternoon to St. Andrew's Church and from thence to the C.P.R. depot to be forwarded by the 7 p.m. train to Barrie for burial.

THE FEAR OF HUMBUG

Prevents Many People From Trying a Good Medicine.

Stomach troubles are so common and in most cases so obstinate to cure that people are apt to look with suspicion on any remedy claiming to be a radical, permanent cure for dyspepsia and indigestion. Many such pride themselves on their acuteness in never being humbugged, especially in medicines.

This fear of being humbugged can be carried too far, so far, in fact, that many people suffer for years with weak digestion rather than risk a little time and money in faithfully testing the claims made of a preparation to reliable and universally used as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Now Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are vastly different in one important respect from ordinary proprietary medicines for the reason that they are not a secret patent medicine, no secret is made of their ingredients, although they are sold by all druggists under protection of trademark, but analysis shows them to contain the natural digestive ferments, pure aseptic pepsin, the digestive acids, Golden Seal, bismuth, hydrastis and nux. They are not cathartic, neither do they act powerfully on any organ, but they cure indigestion on the common sense plan of digesting the food eaten thoroughly before it has time to ferment, sour and cause the mischief. This is the only secret of their success.

Cathartic pills never have and never can cure indigestion and stomach troubles because they act entirely on the bowels, whereas the whole trouble is really in the stomach.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets taken after meals digest the food. That is all there is to it. Food not digested or half digested is poison, as it creates gas, acidity, headaches, palpitation of the heart, loss of flesh and many other troubles which are often called by some other name.

Commerce of the Philippines.

Washington, Dec. 9.—A comparative statement of the commerce of the Philippine Islands for the fiscal year, 1901 and 1900, prepared in the division of insular affairs of the War Department, shows that the value of imports of merchandise from the United States was $2,850,685, an increase of 72.4 per cent. over the previous year; of the United Kingdom $6,956,145, increase of 76.3 per cent.; of Germany $2,135,252, increase of 76.5 per cent., and of France $1,683,829, increase of 246.7 per cent. The value of exports of merchandise to the United States was $2,572,021, a decrease of 27 per cent.; United Kingdom $10,704,741, increase of 72 per cent.; Germany $81,526, decrease of 16.8 per cent.; France $1,834,256, increase of 88.9 per cent.

DOCTORS AT SEA.

Many a man has to abandon his desk because of neuralgia. The torture sometimes is almost unbearable. E. C. Dean, city editor of the Daily British Whig, Kingston, Ont., suffered with neuralgia in the head for twelve months. Six physicians failed to relieve him, but three bottles of Dr. Hall's Rheumatic Cure completely cured him. This great blood purifier is put up in bottles containing ten days' treatment. Price 50 cents at all drug stores or The Dr. Hall Medicine Co., Kingston, Ont.

"BED-RIDDEN FOR YEARS"

Such cases are not hopeless when the right treatment is resorted to. South American Rheumatic Cure has cured hundreds of so-called "incurables." Relieves in six hours.

The marvellous curative power and effectiveness of South American Rheumatic Cure is in the quickness with which it acts and the almost "lightning change" for the better in the Rheumatic Victim after taking a few doses. It seems next to incredible—but there is no deception—It's work is apparent, and every step taken toward recovery is a permanent one. History repeats itself daily in this wonderful treatment—it never fails. 84

STRENGTHENS THE STATE.

Life Insurance is for the protection of those dependent on a man's life; their dependence makes it an unavoidable duty Those dependent we assume to protect by our contract, at his personal cost; our duty to them is to make that contract as large, as secure, and as certainly available to them as possible; thus every Policy written conserves the interest of the State. A man with a Life Insurance Policy is apt to be a good citizen. Anarchists have no use for Life Insurance, and the state has no use for anarchists. The State should encourage every citizen to carry insurance. This Strengthens the State, abolishes alms-houses, and creates property that can be taxed. Further, the income from Your labour ends with Your life. The cost of living to the family continues. Take measures to have the income continue also. The Life Insurance Policy Does It.

The most enterprising and progressive of all the Canadian Life Offices to-day is the Sun Life of Canada. Ten years ago the Company had Life Assurance in force to the extent of $16,759,355.92. On the 31st of December last, this amount had been increased to $57,980,634.68. The increase, therefore, of Life Assurance in force during the last ten years amounted to the tremendous sum of $41,221,278.76.

FOUND CURE FOR LOCKJAW.

Pittsburg Physician Tested Theory on Three Subjects Only.

Pittsburg, Dec. 9.—Dr. Leteve of the C. L. Magee Pathological Department of Mercy Hospital has discovered, which has every indication of being a successful serum treatment for tetanus, or lockjaw. After a year of patent experimenting on lower animals, the doctor, within the last three weeks, had the opportunity of testing his theory on human subjects, a middle aged man, a middle aged woman and a boy of 10 years old. According to the physician's statement, when the patients were first given the injections of the serum they were violent, being in spasms and convulsions. The treatment soon brought them around and within five or six days they were restored to their former health."

When the Bowels Are Constipated

Health Cannot be Good—Digestion and Other Bodily Functions Cannot be Properly Performed—Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

The character of food, sedentary habits, and neglecting the calls of nature, may be set down as the usual causes of constipation. The accompanying derangements are indigestion, stomach trouble, liver and kidney diseases, and an endless amount of pain and suffering. Poisonous impurities when left in the blood, are bound to find lodgment in some weak spot of the system and the result is disease of the most deadly nature.

It is a serious matter to neglect constipation. You may do so for a time, only to find that your health has been undermined by bodily derangements of the most deadly kind. You should have a movement of the bowels every day. To accomplish this, avoid concentrated foods, use vegetables and fruits freely, and take one of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills before retiring, two or three times a week, or oftener, if required.

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills are not an ordinary cathartic. They have a specific and combined action on the kidneys, liver and bowels, and consequently cure constipation, and the accompanying derangements, thoroughly and well, by removing the causes. For the information of those who are not yet familiar with the peculiar merits of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, we might add that they are purely vegetable in composition, pleasant and natural in action, and remarkably prompt and far-reaching in effect, even in the most serious and chronic cases of constipation, kidney and liver diseases.

Persons with weak kidneys are peculiarly susceptible to sudden change of temperature, and for this reason need to be on a sharp lookout during the fall and winter seasons, lest the cold settle on these filtering gorgans and bring on Bright's disease of the kidneys, by far the most painful and fatal of diseases. Scores and hundreds of people make a practice of keeping Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills in the house, and take one whenever the symptoms of constipation and kidney derangements make themselves known. Scanty, highly-coloured urine, painful urination, and pain in the back and limbs are the danger signals of kidney disease.

Whatever else you may neglect, do not overlook the importance of keeping the bowels, the kidneys, and liver in healthful, vigourous action. There is no surer way of avoiding serious disease and prolonging life, and the evidence of the people of this country seems to prove conclusively that by far the most effective treatment in bringing about these results is the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, one pill a dose; 25 cents a box; at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates and Co., Toronto.

"A handsome and useful Christmas present for your mother or grandmother is a copy of Dr. Chase's last and complete Receipt Book. Illustrated folder free."

Too Brave to Be Killed.

The Atlanta Journal is authority for the statement that General Stonewall Jackson saved the life of William McKinley. "At the battle of Antietam," it says, "one of General Jackson's men raised his gun to fire at the Union soldier, who stood just opposite the creek. As he was about to fire General Jackson said: 'Stop! Lower your gun. I have watched that boy all day. He is too brave to be killed.' The boy in blue was our late president, then only seventeen years of age."

No Doubt About It.

"Was he wounded accidently?" asked the reporter, hurrying to the scene of the affray.

"He was," briefly answered the policeman. "Did you think it was in self?"—Chicago Tribune.

THE SAILOR ASHORE

HOW JACK TAR IS GOBBLED UP BY THE LAND SHARK.

Whisky the Bait That Is Used by the Boarding House Master—His Absolute Dominion Over the Seaman. Jack's Crazy Holiday.

"When a deep water sailing ship arrives at her home port, the men in the forecastle, from being nothing but bedevilled scallawags, become the spoiled children of fortune," says Carl Hovey in Alsdon's. "They are men of mark; they are tremendously sought after; their entry is triumphal. In half a dozen sharp boats which have been expeditiously fetched to the sides of the vessel people stand up and beseak the favor of the poor sailors, offering gifts. The sailors knew it would be so all along, so they are not surprised by these attentions, flattering as they are. The boarding masters have rowed down for them, and little tailors and inferior crayon portrait and dance hall men have rowed down specially to meet them; even the missionaries representing wealthy and conservative philanthropic organizations have sent emissaries to bring them safely in. It is all but a certainty that the foolish sailors will never be permitted to leave the ship in peace, walk to the consulate, draw their $60 or $100 or $200 wages and then depart to spend it as they please.

"A sailor falls into a position when he goes ashore like that of the foreign notability who happens to be the municipal guest. They present him with the freedom of the city and then turn him over to his keepers. The boarding masters are his keepers every time. They make him the largest kind of promises down the bay. They can well afford it, since they own him when he touches land. Not that the fact that the common sailor is naturally an absurdly helpless object in a great city, just as helpless and absurd as an ordinary business man would be who should suddenly find himself thrust in charge of a 'gallant, bounding bark,' has escaped the attention of our lawmakers. By no means. Congress has passed numerous acts intended to serve as safeguards for Jack's course ashore. Some of these measures afford him the greatest annoyance. All are apt to be far less real to him than the boarding master's promise, coupled as it is with brilliantly labeled plugs of tobacco and glorious ten cent bottles of whisky. He needs a foster father, and he knows he wants a friend. He finds both at once in the flashy, red faced, jolly, smooth talking individuals who know exactly what his wishes are and prove it to him on the spot.

"As soon as a vessel passes quarantine the small boats draw alongside, and the boatmen, who understand their business, make fast at once by throwing an iron hook attached to a rope over the rail.

"'Halle, boys, what ship is this here?' one of the boarding house runners asks conversationally. 'How long you been out? Nasty bit o' sea you might 'a' struck. Well, you'll be willin' to take it easy for awhiles. Sure, I got just the place for a fine set o' men like you fellers to spend a little holiday ashore.'

"Meanwhile the foolish sailors have swung buckets overside, which the landsmen fill up with the gaudy bottles of drink, disposing their business cards conspicuously. They watch the buckets with cats' eyes as the group of seamen leaning on the rail haul them up swaying, for the sailor who takes out the 'hard stuff' belongs to the man who put it in.

"Great palavering continues on the part of the men in the boats, responded to freely by the sailors, after which the boarding masters and their crowd, having learned which pier the ship is bound to, draw off and pull away.

"A short time ago they would have scrambled aboard the vessel like pirates and poured into the forecastle to do their business there. They used to carry the entire crew away with them then and there, sometimes with the permission of the captain, often as not without it. The captain of a fine ship may be an outrageous bully at sea, but he is apt to be a lamb when he comes to deal with the crowd that own the water front. The authorities, however, have put a stop to boarding vessels in the stream.

"When the ship touches her pier, the boarding masters are there, ready and waiting to pick their men out.

"'You're McCarthy's man,' says one.

"'You're Tom Bodine's man,' says another. 'You've got his card.'

"'Step along o' me, Mustard Top,' puts in a third genially. 'You took my whisky, friend.'

"And so, with a little confusion, maybe a scuffle, matters are arranged, and the small, spare, rather pallid seamen (sailors in the merchant service are not the bronsed athletes you see on men-of-war) troop away with their large, well fed, thick necked companions to the Cherry street settlement of crazy boarding houses where men convene from round the Horn, from China, from Sydney and the Indies for a brief, ridiculously costly holiday in the slums and rookeries 'long shore. The reason why he must go with the boarding master is plain. The law allows the ship four days in which to pay its men. In credit, and as the man who has 'run the meantime Jack must live entirely on casting down' wants a 'good time' and wants it quick the bargain is soon struck, from which he never gets away until he finds himself at sea again minus a month's advance.

"It was a typical instance when a sailor lounged out of the door of the British shipping office in New York the other day, having been told that the ship would not pay until the end of the week. It was only Wednesday then, and the man's face told a tale of disappointment that was instantly marked by the loafers on the sidewalk. 'What'll you give for a drink?' one asked.

"'A dollar,' said the sailor, brightening up. 'Go dry,' returned the other nonchalently. 'Two dollars,' the sailor offered. The land shark made him the same reply. It was not until the sailor had raised his offer to $5 that his new friend consented, and they went away together. When this crew was finally paid off, it is a certainty that the land shark was there in the dingy old room and that he took his reward for his expenditures at a rate of dollars to dimes."

A BUDDING HUMORIST.

Merry Memories of a First Meeting With Artemus Ward.

On going into the Cleveland Plain Dealer editorial rooms one morning I saw a new man, who was introduced to me as Mr. Browne.

He was young, cheerful in manner, tall and slender, not quite up to date in style of dress, yet by no means shabby. His hair was flaxen and very straight; his nose, the prominent feature of his face, was Romanesque—quite violently so—and with a leaning to the left. His eyes were blue gray, with a twinkle in them; his mouth seemed so given to a merry laugh, so much in motion, that it was difficult to describe.

It seemed as though bubbling in him was a lot of happiness which he made no effort to conceal or hold back. When we were introduced, he was sitting at his table writing. He gave his leg a smart slap, arose, shook hands with me and said he was glad to meet me. I believed him, for he looked glad all the time. You could not look at him but he would laugh. He laughed as he sat at his table writing. When he had written a thing which pleased him, he would slap his leg and laugh.

I noticed that George Hoyt and James Brokenshire at their tables were pleased with his merriment and indulged in broad smiles. As I bade him and the others good morning he said, "Come again, me liege." I thanked him, said I would, and went my way, thinking what a funny fellow he was.

Within a month thereafter appeared in the columns of The Plain Dealer a funny letter signed "Artemus Ward." The writer said he was in the show business, had a trained kangaroo, "a most amoosin' little cuss," some "snaix" and a collection of wax figures, which he called a "great moral show." As he was coming to Cleveland to exhibit, he made a proposition to the proprietor that they "scratch each other's backs"—the publisher to write up the show vigorously and the showman to have the handbills printed at his office and give him free tickets for all his family. So I found my young friend of the gurgle and hay colored hair to be an embryo humorist just bursting into bloom. Artemus, as from that time he was best known, soon had a city full of friends, myself and family among them.—James F. Ryder in Century Magazine.

FLOWER AND TREE.

Never buy a plant in bloom.

Never water plants in flower from above.

In planting out an orchard do not plant more than can be manured and cared for well.

A yard or lawn always looks barren without some choice ornamental trees and shrubs. On this account every lawn should contain a few choice specimens of these ornamental trees.

Scale insects on plants, such as the oleanders, the fragrant olive, roses, etc., are among the most difficult pests to overcome. A mixture of white hellebore powder with dissolved soap rubbed in is a good remedy.

Keeping all young trees carefully staked leads to the formation of clean, straight stems. These in their turn are conducive to the growth of large, healthy, fruitful heads. One stout stake should be placed by each tree when it is planted.

Crocus must be planted in October to insure spring blooms. It makes a fine appearance if thickly planted upon a lawn. Make a cut with a spade three or four inches deep in the sod, tuck in a couple of bulbs and press the sod back into place with the foot.

Too Small to Share.

Barnes—Yes, I guess it is true that it is the little things that count.

Howes—So you have come to that conclusion, have you?

Barnes—Yes. You see, I was walking with Tedworth, and he said if he should find a million dollars he'd give me half. Presently he picked up a dime, and when I asked him to share it with me he abused me like a pickpocket.

THE WAY OF A TORNADO.

One That Was Remarkable Both in Appearance and Action.

"A tornado that was remarkable both in appearance and in action was one that traveled from Texas across Oklahoma and Indian Territory in May, 1896," says Earl W. Mayo in Alsdon's. "A man in Sherman, Okla., who had exceptional opportunities for observing the storm, instructs us he was caught up in it and carried several hundred yards before descending to earth again, is certain that it was not funnel shaped. He says of it:

"'It looked to me like a great ball of vapor rolling over and over toward me. When I first saw it distinctly, it was at a hill perhaps an eighth of a mile away. It seemed to be about 300 yards wide and 100 feet high. The motion was that of a ball rolling over and over, not spiral, and it came on rather slowly, perhaps thirty miles an hour. Whatever the ball of cloud struck was lifted right off the ground.

"'I saw it pick up house after house between the hill and me, and the cloud seemed to be full of flying boards and timbers. When the ball reached Mrs. C.'s, the house nearest me, it went straight up off its foundations. The house remained intact until it was about twenty or twenty-five feet from the ground, then it burst open and the fragments flew in all directions. It looked like an exploding bomb. The corn and cotton standing a hundred feet on either side of the storm's path were uninjured, but whenever the cloud struck the higher ground it spread out, covering a wider strip of the surface.

"'When the cloud struck me, I went up lightly and easily and the sensation was not unpleasant, but I came down hard and was badly shaken up, although not seriously injured. On the highway north of Sherman fence wires were torn from the posts and pounded into the hard surface of the road a distance of two or three inches.'"

The Reconciliation.

"I un'stan's," said Miss Missal Brown, "dat you done made reffence to me as a coon."

"You does me wrong," answered Mr. Bristow Pinkley. "My regards foh yoh is sich dat if I was to make any comparisons dat would be 'sides mentioned but chickin' or possum."

An Impertinence.

"I think," she said earnestly, "that a woman who truly loves a man always has his best interests at heart."

"Perhaps," he quietly answered, "but"—

"What were you going to say?"

"If that's the case, what makes her marry him?"

A Social Success.

"That French balloonist is making a social success of his dirigible airship," said Mr. Bellefield.

"How is he making a social success of it?" asked Mr. Bloomfield.

"He is moving in the higher circles."—Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegraph.

In the Far North.

"Hi," yelled the walrus, "look out for that pot hunter! He's after you!"

"I don't give a wrap!" replied the humorous seal as he disappeared below the waves just in time.

What Any Clever Youth Would Do.

"She said I might kiss her on either cheek."

"What did you do?"

"I hesitated a long time between them."

Those "Off" Days.

There are days when every single thing you try to do goes wrong;
You cannot even twist your necktie right;
You cannot get your hair to part sensibly as it should;
Your breakfast will not come an opposite,
Every hunger that you have seems to be made into a thing;
Your brain cannot be brought around to think,
And everything you try to do goes just the other way,
And then you stick your pentebrush in the ink!

There are days that come to all of us when matters take a twist;
The very morning paper makes us mad;
We do not like the way the sun comes shining from the east;
We vow our luck's the worst we ever had.
The man we want to pleasantly impress does not appear;
Instead there comes some one from whom we shrink,
And, taken altogether, life is such a hollow thing;
'Tis then you stick the pentebrush in the ink!

Now, that's the fiercest climax to all these unlucky things;
It coaxes all our swear words to the front;
To jab the blasted inkwell with the idiotic brush
Will make a man average a swearing stunt,
And then it is the jingles fail to jingle as they should,
And pointless jokes are all that one can think;
Of all entirely days the hoodoo settles on the one
That sees us stick the pentebrush in the ink!

Putting Winter Sports On a Good Footing!

We have winter nipping us at the front door, and all we can do to keep the fires going. But it's winter weather; and it brings in winter sports. And winter sports, to be enjoyed, call for the facilities. You need to get on a good footing at once. Here are the necessities of good sport:—

No Chance For Him.

"Just one," he pleaded.

"Only one?" she asked coyly.

"Only one," he said.

"You will be satisfied with just one little one?"

"Yes," he answered, drawing her closer. But at this she broke away.

"In that case," she said coldly, "you are utterly lacking in the modern accumulative spirit that brings prosperity, and I do not feel that my future would be safe in your hands."

Saddest Words of Tongue or Pen.

"It's too bad about your son being hurt so seriously in that football game, Mrs. Wilkins. I'm as sorry as I can be for you."

"Yes, it's a dreadful thing. If his injuries should prove fatal, it wouldn't be right for Myrtle to go to the game on Thanksgiving, and she's got such an elegant costume especially for it."—Chicago Record-Herald.

Strangers Fellowship Club.

This organization is doing more to help men than any other feature of the Y.M.C.A. The interest among the members was shown by the largely attended meeting on Sunday evening. An open meeting to which all members of the association are invited will be held on Saturday evening of this week at 7.30 p.m.

It was Large.

The men's meeting at the Y.M.C.A. yesterday was well attended and a good practical address on Daniel was given by Rev. J. G. Potter. Mr. E. S. Watson sang "No room in the Inn," and led in the verses of the closing selection, "Have courage my boy to say no." The third Man of Reality will be taken up by Rev. J. P. Wilson next Sunday.

Their Last Sunday.

Yesterday was the last Sunday in Peterborough as organist of Mr. F. W. Walden, and Rev. J. P. Wilson made suitable mention of the fact at the Sunday school service and in the evening as well. Speaking in the afternoon, Rev. Mr. Wilson made mention of the fact that both Mr. and Mrs. Walden taught classes, in which work they had been very successful. Their removal from town would be a loss to the Sunday school, but he wished them every success in their new home in Picton.

'XMAS BOXES!

Call and see the great stock of handsome wool goods, both useful and ornamental. We have them in almost endless profusion, seasonable, comfortable and pretty—The Port Hope Knitting Works.

NEWS NUGGETS.

—The streets were in a very bad condition yesterday evening.

—The weather clerk seems to be shaping things for a green Christmas.

—Prof. O'Brien has removed from Reid street, to No. 283 Hunter street, terrace, near railway crossing.

—The County Court and General Sessions of the Peace, open to-morrow before His Honour Judge Weller.

—At the police court this morning a case of indecent exposure came up for hearing and was enlarged until to-morrow morning.

—Men were engaged this morning scattering sand on the slippery pavements making walking much more comfortable and safe.

—The price of cheese has advanced since the factories closed, the demand being good at 11 cents. What is now in stock is being held with the expectation of the price being higher.

—The Bank of Commerce will be opened from nine until ten o'clock on the evening of the Saturday before Christmas and also on Christmas Eve. for the convenience of customers desiring to make deposits.

—As the early bird, proverbially gobbles the worm, so does the early shopper get the cream of the holiday goods now oozing so prominently is evidence in our shops. This applies especially in good times when money for holiday purchases is plentiful.

Notes on Singing.

It is of interest to every singer to hear such voices as the members of the Macdonald Male Quartette possess. Every one who cares for first class vocal music will be pleased with them. Plan opens for subscribers, on Thursday, Dec. 12, at Ormond & Walsh's.

Foregather To-night.

A special meeting of Camp Clan Alpine, Sons of Scotland, is called for this evening in their hall, Simcoe street. Grand Camp Organizer Nimmo will again be present with a supplementary batch of new members, and a grand rally of the clans will likely take place.

Men's Cloth Caps.

A lucky pick-up of 75 dozen men's cloth caps, bought at a great bargain, will be retailed at about half regular prices. Splendid winter caps; well-made, well trimmed, and very comfortable. Best cap value in town. H. LeBrun & Co.

But 13 Shopping Days Till Xmas.

And now it's Christmas shopping in earnest? But thirteen days for you to make selections. The Peterborough Bookstore has a variety of gifts nowhere else to be seen. For Christmas cards, booklets, and calendars, specially, we urge early selections, as each succeeding day the crowds grow more dense. Canada's Art League Calendars are admirably adapted for sending to friends in the Old Country. We can put aside your purchases till wanted. A. H. Stratton & Co.

Royal Chorus.

There was a very fair attendance of the members of the Royal Chorus and others at the meeting in the Y.M.C.A. Friday night. Mr. George Matthews occupied the chair and introduced the discussion which was entered into by several present. It was unanimously resolved to organize the chorus permanently if the financial part can be satisfactorily arranged, but owing to the near approach of the holiday season it was agreed that the next meeting be held the first Tuesday in January.

THE MISSION IN ST. LUKE'S.

The Representative of the Parochial Mission of England Speaks.

SERVICES LARGELY ATTENDED

Most Interesting Addresses Delivered by one of the Most Eloquent Divines Who has Ever Visited the Town.

Rev. Arthur Murphy inaugurated a mission in the church of St. Luke the Evangelist, yesterday, which promises to yield results of a nature which will be of great benefit to the entire parish of Ashburnham and to Peterborough as well. The services yesterday were largely attended not only by the members of the congregation but by representatives from almost every church in town.

The impression made by the speaker was a most favourable one. He has a wonderful command of language and speaks with great force, fire and vigour, showing himself also to be possessed of that personal magnetism which is such an essential attribute to the winner of souls. The tempestuous manner in which he gives utterance to his thoughts and the deep earnestness, which is imbued into his pleading holds his hearers as though under a spell, and doubtless this evening and the succeeding days of his stay will find him greeted by very large audiences. As the result, evidently, of a most devoted study of the Word in connection with a marvellous memory, the texts which he requires in illustration of his remarks are always apt, ready and to the point.

The service for children in the afternoon was very interesting, as was the special address to men.

Last evening he introduced his subject by speaking of the preparations made by his parents before leaving Ireland for Canada—their eager inquiries and search for information concerning their new home. Every possible means was taken to acquire particulars and he supposed it was the same with all who were about to change their home. If this was the case was it not but natural that those intending to seek Heaven, as their home for eternity should eagerly search for information concerning the Home above? And there was but the one way to acquire this information — through the perusal of the Book, wherein is found the story of the life of the Saviour.

The question is often asked concerning who will be met in Heaven. We read, said the speaker, that angels are there as ministering spirits, and we know that the Almighty reigns supreme. In the scriptures it is implied that we will know all, there. Those dear ones who have gone on before will be easily recognised. In Genesis xxv. chap., 8th verse, we find,

"Then Abraham gave up the ghost and died in a good old age, an old man, and full of years; and was gathered to his people."

He was gathered to his people. Again in Genesis xlix chap. 33rd verse, it is found,

"And when Jacob had made an end of commanding his sons, he gathered up his feet into the bed, and yielded up the ghost, and was gathered unto his people."

Turning to Deuteronomy xxxii. chap., 50th verse, it reads,

"And die in the mount whither thou goest up, and be gathered unto thy people; as Aaron thy brother died in mount Hor, and was gathered unto his people."

In the New Testament further confirmation will be found of the fact that we will find those we know as shown in the following verse: Matthii. chap., 11th verse:—

"And I say unto you, That many shall come from the east and west and shall sit down with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, in the kingdom of Heaven."

Just previous to one of the great battles in the Civil War of the United States, the soldiers on one of the opposing sides, recognizing the danger which they would face on the morrow wrote their names on the inside of their coats, in order that they might be recognised if they were killed, and in this manner many bodies were identified, and forwarded to God's acres in many parts of the country to be interred by their sorrowing friends. But when we are preparing for death we should know that our names are written—not in our coats, but in God's Book of Life, as it is said in Luke x, 20th verse:

"Notwithstanding in this rejoice not, that the spirits are subject unto you; but rather rejoice, because your names are written in heaven."

and in Revelation, xx, 15th verse:

"And whosoever was not found written in the book of life, was cast into the lake of fire."

The query was then put in eloquent terms, as to whose name was written in God's Book—not the Bible, and not the church book, but in the book which effects an entrance into Heaven.

A narrative was then told of the arrival in a strange city of a party who wished to take apartments at one of the hotels, but found that all the rooms were taken. Only one of the party had taken the precaution to telegraph some days before for a room to be kept. Have you, asked the speaker, telegraphed on ahead to have a mansion above reserved for you? You are now travelling on an express train which starts from your birth, and the destination of which is Death. When you arrive at the station, if you have not arranged ahead for a mansion you will hear the dread mandate, "Depart from Me, I know ye not."

The object of this mission, continued Rev. Mr. Murphy, is to have your name written in God's Book, and God grant that you may not rest until it is inscribed there.

MUNCIPAL RESPONSIBILITY.

A Montreal Decision in Regard to Icy Walks.

The following from the Montreal Star has an interest for Peterborough:

"The decision against the city in which a lady was awarded damages for injuries sustained by slipping on the sidewalk during a winter day, should make people thoughtful. The courts hold that although the weather had been very changeable on the day in question, the fact that ice had previously been allowed to accumulate there was ground for awarding damages. This conveys a lesson. If the sidewalks be kept clear of ice and snow, and then some stress of weather causes an unusually dangerous condition, there may be some chance of escaping payment of damages. Where the ice is allowed to remain, bad weather is not accepted as an excuse."

The new snow bylaw itself does not seem to work well. This morning there were stretches of pavement in front of vacant lots in a most dangerously slippery condition, while the walk on each side was clean and smooth.

PERSONALS.

Mr. J. H. McClellan is in town to-day.

Mr. R. J. Winch has returned from a business trip to Cobourg.

Mrs. A. H. Stratton and Master Wilfrid left this morning for Toronto.

Miss Estelle Davis, of town, is visiting the Misses Northcote in Lakefield.

Mrs. W. H. Hubel, of Perry street, has returned home after an extended visit to her father and brother.

Rev. Arthur Murphy and Mrs. Murphy while in town will be the guests of the Misses Mills, Ashburnham.

Rev. C. B. Kenrick was in Port Hope yesterday, preaching in St. Mark's in the morning and St. John's at night.

Mr. Alex. Sutherland, an old Ashburnham boy, who left the village fifteen years ago, is in town on a visit. He has lately been residing in Buffalo.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. McAllister observed the ninth anniversary of their wedding on Saturday by inviting a number of friends to high tea at seven o'clock, with cards afterwards.

Mr. J. B. Waddell, manager of the Norwood branch of the Union Bank, last week received notice of his promotion to the position of manager of the agency at Carleton Place, and he left on Tuesday to enter upon his duties there. Mr. Waddell's successor has not arrived in Norwood, and in the meantime Mr. Ross Cameron is filling the position under the supervision of Mr. A. U. Bailey, manager of the Hastings branch. Mr. Waddell's departure is regretted by the citizens of Norwood and vicinity by whom he was held in high esteem.

POUSSETTE VS. DICKSON CO.

Our attention has been called to an omission from our report of the conclusion of this case which in fairness to Mr. Poussette we feel it our duty to supply. His Lordship Chief Justice Meredith after stating his reasons for dismissing the action spoke as follows:

"No man however exalted, would care to have his private correspondence exposed to the public gaze. Friends were bound to see something that had better not have been written, but as far as he could see any allegation that Mr. Poussette had acted dishonestly or neglected his duty was without foundation. Mr. Poussette was dealing at arm's length with the parties. When he entered into the contract that he was to get all over a certain figure, there was a complete separation between him and the company, and he then stood entitled to do what he thought was right to protect his own interests and prevent information being known that might have led to the withdrawal of the mandate to sell. He was unable to see anything in this connection that indicated improper conduct on Mr. Poussette's part. These observations did not apply to the means taken to induce some relatives to aid him by influencing others. It would have been far better if this had not been done. He thought it an unwise and improper act."

CHURCH CHIMES.

GEORGE STREET CHURCH.

At George street church the choir sang with fine effect, last evening, the "Tantum ergo" by Rossi. Miss Clara Belleghem sang the solo "Fear Not Ye," by Spross, in excellent voice. Mr. Mulligan and Mr. Miller sang a duet "The Bird with a broken Pinion." Mr. Walden and the men of the choir sang solo and chorus "Him that Cometh." The number is in town to-day.
gregation were present in full numbers.

ST. ANDREW'S CHURCH.

Evangelist Walden gave the address at both services in St. Andrew's church yesterday, the pastor, Rev. J. G. Potter, conducting the devotional part of the service. At the evening service, the choir, under the leadership of Prof. Davies, sang in a most inspiring way, "Row Manifold are Thy Works." In the morning Mr. Walden took as his text Matt. xxii. 42, "What think ye of Christ?" and in the evening an exceedingly powerful and practical address was given from I Cor. iii. 11, "Other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ.

Mr. Walden referred to the foundation other than the true upon which men were building to-day, and urged all to seek to build their lives, not upon the sand, but upon the Rock of Ages.

The special meetings will be continued each night this week, beginning with song service at 7.45. All are cordially invited.

BETHANY TABERNACLE.

Rev. Dr. Watson of Pittsburg, Pa., began a series of special meetings at Bethany Tabernacle yesterday, which promise to be fruitful of results. Dr. Watson is a well-known Bible student and scholar, whose work has been richly owned of God in other places. He will address meetings every evening, except Saturday, at 7.45 o'clock.

Your Floral Wants.

Can be promptly filled at the West End Greenhouses. In addition to a splendid regular every-day display of Carnations, Roses, Chrysanthemums, and many other fragrant plants, you will find many splendid new varieties here worth coming to see. THEY WANT TO ENLIST.

Lieut.-Col. Lessard Recruiting This Afternoon.

Twenty-two About 40 Applications From Peterborough—Lieuts. Price, Johnston, Shaw and Hayward Want to go.

Judging by the number of applications in Peterborough [illegible] in the Canadian Yeomanry, there should be no difficulty in raising the 600 men who will constitute the 2nd Canadian Contingent to South Africa.

Lieut.-Col. Lessard, the recruiting officer, arrived in Peterborough at noon to-day and this afternoon he is engaged in selecting 12 men from the 20 or more from around here, who are anxious to serve their country on the Canadian Yeomanry. Only 12 men are to be taken on the strength from here and as the number of applicants is far in excess of this number the men selected will have to possess the very best qualifications. Surgeon-Major Young of the the 3rd Dragoons, who is the examining officer, has for some days been besieged with applications and at 2 o'clock to-day when Col. Lessard and Surgeon-Major Young arrived at the drill shed of the 57th Regiment, they found a small sized regiment of men awaiting them. The enlisting is taking place this afternoon.

Amongst those who are endeavouring to get on the strength again, are several commissioned officers of the local regiments. These are Percy Roberts Price, of the Dragoons, who served in South Africa before, as well as Lieut. Robert G. Johnston, of the 46th Regt., who, as is well known, also saw service in the Boer war. Lieut. A. E. Shaw, of Millbrook, and Lieut. Hayward, two other officers of the Dragoons, will also try to get on the strength. Amongst those who have applied are also Messrs. Reg. Turner, Dick Boyle, Tom Henry, of town, several from Port Hope, and two or more from Norwood, and the remainder from the surrounding townships.

Mr. George Might, a former member of the 57th, and who has just completed three years service in the American army, is also an applicant.

Dr. Poole, V. S., is looking up suitable remounts for South Africa. The type of horse wanted is a cobby compactly built animal showing quality with good strong clean limbs and active, they must be sound, age from 5 to 8 years and height from 14.3 to 15.3 hands. Any person having such for disposal should show them to the Dr.

TREWERN FACTORY.

A Statement of the Business of the Factory for the Past Season.

Trewern cheese factory closed on November 11th, after a good season. On Thursday, December 5th, a meeting of the patrons was held, quite a number being present.

The secretary read a report of the business done at the factory this season, which compares very favourably with former years. Much of the success is due no doubt to the co-operation of the patrons and the untiring efforts of our efficient salesman, Mr. E. M. Elliott.

The price of cheese was not so high as last year, and this factory was affected the same as all others; however, Trewern is able to show very satisfactory results. All papers and accounts were examined by Mr. C. Blewett and Mr. Wm. Pethick, the auditors, who pronounced them correct.

The number of patrons were 47.
Total lbs. of milk, 1,282,413.
Total lbs., of cheese, 117,346.
Total lbs. of butter fat, 89,060.26.
Average lbs. of milk per lb. of cheese, 10.92.
Average price per lb. of butter fat paid to patrons, 12.70 cents.

The subject of feeding turnips was cussed and it was resolved unanimously that no turnips were to be fed while the milk was being sent to the factory.

After a vote of thanks had been passed to all who are in anyway connected with the factory, and also to Mr. Chittick for the commodious building which he had erected during the past past year, the meeting was brought to a close.

A GOOD WORD FOR THE Y.W.C.A.

Minister of Education Endorses its Missionational Work.

At the opening of the handsome building of the Y.W.C.A. at Brantford last Friday night, the chief address was given by Hon. R. Harcourt, Minister of Education. In congratulating the ladies on the result of their labours, said the educational their labours, he said the educational specially commended itself to him as a valuable adjunct to the educational department. Our teachers in this province did their best during six hours a day for five days in a week, but the work of education went on outside of school hours and school days. He sympathized with every institution that furthered that education. Youth was especially subject to formative influences. The field of operations for the Y.W.C.A. was an wide as the womanhood of the world.

Ashburnham Civic Association.

On Tuesday evening, December 17th, a meeting of the Ashburnham Civic Association will be held in the Council Chamber, Ashburnham. Reeve Adams will discuss the bonusing of the beet sugar factory, and Mr. R. B. Rogers will be asked to discuss the necessity of a sewerage system for the village. All men are welcome to attend and take part in the discussion.

Miss Delaney's Holiday Sale.

Next to the littleness of prices, the best news of this sale is the superior qualities and refined taste in millinery and other dress needs. Everything is charmingly new — you see the sparkle of fashion everywhere. New styles, new patterns, new ideas — in fact a wealth of seasonable novelties. The best that Europe and America can produce has not been considered too good for this important holiday sale. Exquisitely trimmed hats, as well as quiet gentlewomen's hats, fashionable vellings, pretty fancy collars, novelties in neckwear, new conceits in belts, etc. Untrimmed hats, ready for the finishing touches, which many a lady prides herself on doing herself. Also many new things which fancy dictates in evening wear, and for Christmas gifts.

Desires His Liberty.

The friends of Reginald Hooper of Port Hope, who is serving a term of 25 years for the murder of his wife, are again active towards securing his release from prison. He has already served ten years of his time and his friends think that is enough. His good qualities before the crime was committed are being brought prominently to the front, which may be carefully considered by the Minister of Justice.

A Handy Machine.

Peter Heintz, of Barrie, is in Toronto with an invention which he is perfecting with the object of disposing of if to the government. Heintz's invention is an ingenious automatic contrivance which will obviate one of the most prolific sources of annoyance to those whose correspondence is light—the difficulty of securing stamps after certain hours in the evening or in certain localities. The machine, which Heints proposes to attach to the letter boxes, has two compartments. If you drop a five-cent piece in a slot on one side of the machine the same amount in coppers is passed out. Two coppers placed in the other side of the machine is rewarded with a stamp, and all you have to do is to moisten the stamp, affix it, drop the letter into the letter box, and then away home again. Heints has been working upon the idea for some time, and now has it in perfect order. He is confident of its acceptance by the government. The machines are not costly.

Two Million Victims.

It is estimated that one-third the population of Canada are victims to the pill habit. This should not be so as Merrill's System Tonic tones the liver, restores the natural muscular powers to the bowels and permanently cures habitual Constipation. The result is that dyspepsia, impure blood and nerve troubles disappear. One 50 cent bottle cures. Sold by Ormond & Walsh, druggists.

Annual Meeting of the Ontario Hockey Association.

The Trent Valley League Meeting Will be Held on Saturday Morning Next —Other Notes.

RUGBY.

The semi-annual meeting of the Peterborough Rugby Club, will be held in the Y.M.C.A. at 8 o'clock to-morrow night. It is especially requested that there be a full attendance of members as the business of the season will be formally wound up. The Secretary-Treasurer will make his report and a delegate to the annual meeting of the O.R.F.U. will be chosen. Every member of the club should be in attendance.

GYMNASTIC EXHIBITION.

The first gymnastic exhibition of the season at the Y.M.C.A. will be held to-morrow evening under the direction of the physical director, Mr. H. E. Ayers. It promises to be largely attended as it is given in aid of the Young Women's Christian Association fund now being raised by the young men to equip the gymnasium and bath of the former. The participants will include a number of groups of men and boys of the many who are in the classes. The programme will be a very entertaining one with a number of new features. The following will be the order:—Music, Y.M.C.A. orchestra; pyramids, by senior class; marching, letter and military, by senior boys; squad apparatus work, 30 men; first half basket ball match, Brownies vs Intermediates; wheel barrow race Harriers vs. Electricians; advanced work on apparatus, by leaders' class; second half basket ball match, Brownies vs. Intermediates.

HOCKEY.

The annual meeting of the Trent Valley Hockey League will be held in the parlours of the Oriental Hotel on Saturday morning next at 9.40 o'clock.

At the annual meeting of the Ontario Hockey Association in Toronto on Saturday, the following officers were elected.

Pres.—J. Ross Robertson, Toronto
First Vice-Pres.—A. A. Macdonald, Upper Canada College, Toronto.
Second Vice-Pres.—Dr. W. P. Thompson. St. George's, Toronto.
Secretary—A. H. Beaton, Toronto.
Treas.—W. A. Buchanan, Toronto.
Executive Committee — F. Nelson, Toronto, W. Hanley, Osgoode, J. W. Chowen, Stratford, J. G. Slaght, Simcoe. Two more will be chosen by the executive at their first meeting.

Secretary A. H. Beaton was voted $250 as a mark of appreciation for his services to the association. With votes of thanks to the retiring treasurer, Mr. J. D. McMurrich as well as to Mr. J. Ross Robertson, president of the association for 1902, the meeting adjourned.

In referring to the London case, the president, Mr. J. Ross Robertson, spoke as follows:

"Your Executive in maintaining the honour of the genuine amateur of the association has had to meet a good deal of off-side work. We thought that bitter experience had taught us all we could possibly learn of ways that are dark and tricks that are vain. The London Hockey Club however proved that the heathen Chinee was a back number; we had yet a lot to learn. We found that in the fine art of perjury there were men to the fore that could give the child-like Oriental cards and spades in this particular line of business. The making of a false declaration may rank as a fine art in some associations, but your Executive are determined that in the O.H.A. it shall rank as one of the lost arts. The case has been fully reported in the press, so that a summary of it will suffice for my purpose. The game took place on the 16th January, 1901.

"London, in its match with Stratford, on its own ice, played a man whom it alleged to be a resident who lived in a township near that city. This resident had been given permission to play with London. The night of the match, everybody, with the exception of those who had arranged the deal, thought that the stranger on the ice was the man from the township. That belief might have been held until this minute, and many minutes hereafter, had not a spectator acquainted with the township man, discovered that it was not he who was playing the phenomenally fast game on the London team, but a tourist, a hockeyist from Montreal. The game ended; London won. Stratford protested the game, claiming that London had played a "tourist." London defended the case. It startled the Executive by filing an affidavit from the township man declaring that he had played on the night of the 16th January in London, against Stratford.

A member of the Executive visited the locality in order to unravel the mystery. He found the township resident. He saw his employer. The latter stated that the young man had not been off the farm on the night of the 16th January. The township man saw that the game was on. He acknowledged signing the declaration that he had played for the London club, and admitted that what he had declared was false from beginning to end. He then tried to make amends. He saw that he was up against the criminal code. He realized his position. He said that in order to help London out of the hole he had made a false declaration, and in set terms made a second declaration that he had not played against Stratford. The member of the Executive reported the position of matters to the London club. Their ignorance indicated a large range of probabilities. Your executive acted, and London's career as an amateur hockey centre fell with a dull thud. The officers of the club and the team were expelled and professionalized. To make matters worse, your Executive found that another player on the London team had received financial inducements at a match in Tavistock, and later that he had been paid to play in London. The Montreal player finally admitted his guilt. He told the truth, the whole truth, and, I think, nothing but the truth. In an affidavit he gave the details of how the scheme was put up and carried out, showing the event as a disgrace to all who had been connected with it.

Your Executive took action. It was guided by the best legal advice. It went to the limit of its power, and it is not its fault if the powers of the law were not also exercised. Your Executive did not thirst for vengeance, but did think that perjury should not be regarded as a mere boyish folly. The legal adviser of the Association — an eminent counsel — gave every consideration to the evidence. His opinion was that there was a good case for prosecution, but that the difficulties arising out of local sentiment in favour of the offenders would make success very doubtful. Your Executive had, therefore, to rest the case in the hope that public opinion, even in London, would yet put the brand o its condemnation on the organization which attempted to disgrace the noble name of hockey, and only succeeded in disgracing itself. The London Hockey Club might have failed in honest rivalry with the Stratford hockey team. It tried to gain by stealth what it could not gain by strength and skill, and even if your Executive has failed to pursue these affidavit-makers into the courts of the land, the fate of the London Hockey Club will stand as a monument to our purpose of keeping the game of hockey in the front rank of clean and honest sport.

It is said that Stratford has had 22 candidates for positions on the intermediate and junior teams in training at both indoor and outdoor work for some weeks past. Ability is one half the game, the other half is getting it out of the players, to do which the men must be in condition. Stratford is on the proper tack and its about up to the local people to get their candidates at work. A poor team in good condition will beat a good team in poor condition at the first of the season and thus obtain a lead which it is often difficult to overcome.

WOULDN'T THIS JAR YOU.

The London News says: — "The London club has in all its long and illustrious history not one dishonourable act on its record, and while other clubs, and the Toronto teams especially, are playing professionals and are making dishonest affidavits, the London team has no pay roll and is composed of sincere, honest amateurs."

PETERBOROUGH VS. BIRCHBARK.
(By St. Croix.)

It is almost heresy to suggest that after all the birchbark canoe is not quite perfect. In the popular mind it is invested with qualities and perfections utterly beyond the possibilities of boats built by skilled white labour. You may go to the most cunning artisan, open your purse strings, and direct him to fashion an alluring craft planked with white cedar, finished with mahogany, and clenched with the best lake copper—yet do not be so foolish as to suppose that the man in the street will ever credit your canoe with one-half the excellencies of the alleged fairy craft of the forest.

Now, I myself am a heretic—without desire for repentance or wish to be shrived. I, too, once worshipped at the shrine of the birchbark; knelt in spirit before the creation of the Indian; believed in Longfellow's panegyric, and scoffed at those practical men who hinted at my imperfections in it. But I have had a change of heart.

A cedar, or basswood canoe may be made considerably lighter than a birchbark of equal length and capacity, even when each craft is new, and after they have been a couple of weeks afloat there may be forty pounds difference in a 16-foot canoe. A 15-foot cedar-rib canoe, 31 inches beam, weighs 99 pounds, new, and becomes little heavier, even after several weeks' flotation. A birchbark of equal length weighed 78 lbs. pounds at the beginning of a cruise last summer, and tipped the beam at 90 pounds three weeks later. Birchbark absorbes water and rapidly increases in weight. When compelled to use one of these canoes for a long voyage, it should be painted or varnished. But the old Indians never did this! No, because, you see, they had no paint or varnish. For similar reasons they did not use screws, nor copper rivets, nor electric lights.

As to speed, the lines of a birchbark are not what a naval designer would call 'fair.' That is they are full of hollows and swellings, highly prejudicial to speed. Given equally good men in a cedar and in a birchbark canoe, and on still water the former will draw away from the later one foot in every ten. Against a current the advantage will be still more marked. "But," say the advocate of the more primitive craft, P"A Peterborough (generic term) cannot live with a good birchbark in a gale on open water, nor is it so handy in a rapid. Such arguments do not seem to me to have much weight. It is merely a question of model. If a Peterborough be designed with too straight a floor, she will not be handy in a rapid, and unless she has sufficient depth, her gunwale will not be carried sufficiently high to escape the crests of swells caused by gale or rapid. These are mere details, and a cedar canoe may be had surpassing the birchbark in every respect. The latter is a good enough make-shift, but an exasperatingly imperfect craft, with scarcely any of the admirable qualities with which romantic minds have invested it. There is no unnecessary glamour about a dead-slow and leaky old birchbark.

NEGRO SOCIETIES.

THE SOUTHERN COLORED MAN'S LOVE OF POMP AND CIRCUMSTANCE.

Wonderfully Named Organizations to Provide For Members' Sick Benefits and Funeral Expenses—How They Flourish In Charleston.

The southern negro's love of pomp and circumstance is nowhere exemplified more forcibly than in the manner in which he multiplies his charitable organizations. Inordinately fond of company, he has few societies founded with the sole view of promoting social enjoyment. For the most part, whatever foundations he makes have a semireligious trend, the dues entitling members to sick benefits and funeral expenses. There is usually an elaborate regalia and an intricate ritual. Not a few negroes of a southern city, such as Charleston, belong to no less than a score of these orders, the names of which are oftentimes curiously and wonderfully made. What, for instance, would the ordinary patron of secret organizations think of possessing membership in the Sons and Daughters of the Seven Golden Candlesticks In Charity or in the Sons and Daughters of I Will Arise?

The sons and daughters idea is worked to the limit of endurance. There is scarcely a well known name in Biblical history that is not tacked on to it. There are in Charleston alone no less than seventy-five of these societies with charters from the state of South Carolina, and how many there are that have no legal status no man may say with confidence.

Dues are paid weekly, and, strange as it may seem when the great poverty of the negro of the south is considered, the arrears list is a brief one indeed. Of course the charges are small, usually about 25 cents a month, but when it is remembered that many individuals belong to six or eight or even more orders it is little short of marvelous how the funds necessary to meet the demands of the collectors are found, and yet it is so deep a disgrace to be expelled that instances of the kind are very rare. To hold membership in a number of societies is regarded as a badge of honor.

Meetings are held monthly in private residences, in public halls or, more frequently still, in churches. These gatherings begin at the fashionable hour of 10 p. m. and continue not infrequently throughout the night. Refreshments are to be had for a small consideration, and as these are for the most part of a liquid nature the sons and daughters are prone to be conspicuous by their absence from their several places of employment next morning. Often the police have to interfere to restore that harmony in which brothers and sisters should ever dwell together.

Among the societies in Charleston are the Sons and Daughters of the Pilgrims, the Sons and Daughters of the Twelve Disciples, the Sons and Daughters of the Bearer of the Cross, the Sons and Daughters of the Evening Star, the Sons and Daughters of the Seventh Star, the Sons and Daughters of the Celestial Travelers, the Sons and Daughters of the Good Samaritan, the Sons and Daughters of the East, the Sons and Daughters of Lazarus, the Sons and Daughters of Christian Love, and there might be added to these fully twoscore of others. The devotion of the negroes to these organizations and their loyalty to their fellow members are absolute.

The funeral of a colored man or woman who holds membership in a half dozen of these orders is a spectacle worth witnessing. Occasionally bitter feuds arise between rival societies for the possession of a corpse, for the negro's love of a funeral is not second even to his love of melons. The ceremonies usually begin the night before the actual interment is to take place. There are sermons, prayers and personal experiences interspiced with wild bursts of incoherent melody, which arouses religious fervor to fever height. Men and women faint in the course of the exercises, many others fall into trances and talk of visions of their dead friends enthroned in glory.

The ceremonies culminate in a formal procession. It is forming for an hour before the residence of the late lamented son or daughter. Negroes from the uttermost parts of the city gather in the streets. The occasion is a festive one. They ran and shout and caper. The members of the organizations to which the dead person belonged stand in solemn order, clad in elaborate uniforms and bearing the banners and other insignia of their respective orders, and when the cortege finally moves, wending its way at times through miles of the city's streets, it is followed by a mad rush of men, women and children, who block the thoroughfares, and traffic for the time being has to be suspended. The hope of such a funeral is the inspiration of many a negro's whole life. He slaves and deprives himself of actual necessities for years to meet the demands of the collectors of the societies in order that he may go to his last resting place in the midst of such strangely weird pageantry.—Charleston Letter

Hymns at $1000 a Yard.

A musical composer once said to Mr. Sankey with more frankness than courtesy that he could write such tunes as those of the "Gospel Hymnbook" by the yard if he were willing to come down to it. Mr. Sankey quietly replied, "Well, sir, all I have to say is that I am willing to pay five hundred dollars a yard, either to you or to anybody else, for all the tunes you can bring me like those in our 'Gospel Hymnbook.'"—Ladies' Home Journal.

Habits of Seals.

The habits of seals are very interesting. The very young seal is helpless in the water until he is taught by his mother to swim. She takes him into the water daily on her fin and dumps him in, and when he gets tired of floundering about places him on her fin again and returns to her camp. When the young seals are well grown, they suddenly disappear with their mothers and the bull seals. No one knows where they go, and their return is equally as sudden as their departure. The bulls are the first to put in an appearance at the camping ground. When they arrive, they commence at once to prepare a camp for their mates, which they stake off, and for which they fight until they die. In the meantime the female seals remain quite a distance from land, floating lazily on the water and seemingly having a good time.

Bound to Sound Their "H."

The English middle classes have had so much fun poked at them for dropping the letter "h" and for carrying it forward and placing it where it should not be, possibly thus to obey the laws of compensation, that they have become sensitive on the subject, and many aspirate the "h" with double force when the letter should be aspirated. Instead of saying "before him," as Americans do, with a light aspiration, they will say "before him," taking a full and deep breath when they utter the second word, shooting it out as if it came from a popgun. Dropping the "h" is not new for ordinary English folk. It is a new trick to aspirate it with double the force required.

WEAR OF THE EARTH

HOW THE FACE OF OUR GLOBE IS CONTINUALLY CHANGING.

Geological Agents That Are Always Busy in Nature's Great Workshop. Where Man Has Comparatively Little Influence.

The atmosphere plays its part in geological operations. Its corroding power, backed by rain and wind, helps to decay and disintegrate those rocks which are exposed to its influence. Rain completes the work thus begun. Wind blows dust, sand and volcanic ashes over large tracts of earth—in fact, over the whole of it.

It is only of late years that geologists have discovered that fine volcanic dust is carried over the whole of the earth's surface and plays a very important part in the deep sea deposits. On deserts and nearly rainless regions blown sand will wear away the hardest rocks by beating against them. Some sandstone formations appear to have been piled up by winds.

Winds cause ocean currents, waves and storms. The great denuding power of the sea is largely due to the atmosphere. Some parts of the English coasts are being rapidly washed away. Plants and animals have their distribution considerably affected by winds and ocean currents. Again, whether living in water or on land, animals live on the oxygen supplied from the atmosphere, and land plants absorb carbonic acid from the same source.

Rain acts in two ways: (1) chemically by dissolving certain substances, such as lime, out of the rocks, and (2) mechanically by wearing down their surfaces as it flows over them. Any old building—a ruined castle or cathedral, for instance—shows a "weathered" surface resulting from the action of rain and wind. In sandstone structures the details of carving are often lost, and on old tombstones the lettering can hardly be deciphered. Rainwater, too, in rainwater collecting in rocks and rising to the surface. Rivers are fed by rains and springs.

A river is a very powerful geological agent. In the hardest rocks rivers gradually carve out a valley or gorge. This is accomplished partly by chemically dissolving certain mineral substances, but chiefly by mechanical erosion, the stones, sand and mud wearing away the bed of a stream as they run and tumble over it.

The finest examples of river action are the famous canyons of Colorado, which in some places are gorges 5,000 or even 6,000 feet deep, with vertical sides. But, as already pointed out, rivers have a constructive action quite as important as their destructive action. By bringing down their burden of sediment into lakes, estuaries and seas they build up great piles of rock and "sow the dust of continents to be."

Glaciers are rivers of ice fed by the "eternal snows" of high mountain ranges such as the Alps. They wear out their own valleys as rivers do; they transport mud, sand and stones to great distances, in some cases sending them sealed up in icebergs to float far out to sea and on melting deposit their burdens on the sea floor. Off the coast of Newfoundland northern icebergs are depositing a great mass of "glacial drift."

The sea is a great denuding agent; but its work is more constructive than destructive. It is the workshop where nearly all the stratified, rocks have been accumulated and ranged in layers or strata. The rivers and ocean currents continually bring in fresh supplies of debris even for hundreds of miles.

Man, compared with the lower animals, produces but little effect as a geological agent. Still the human race has considerably modified the distribution of plants by cutting down forests and by cultivating certain plants to supply food. So with animals. Certain useful species have been cultivated and enormously increased at the expense of others which prove useless or harmful.

But plants and animals have had, and still have, far more influence geologically. Coal seams are made up of vegetable remains of former periods. Forests have an important influence on climate and on animal as well as plant life. In the comparatively unknown world of the ocean marine plants doubtless have important functions.

Marine animals accomplish a vast amount of geological constructive work. Great deposits thousands of feet thick owe their existence to small calcareous creatures living in the sea. Coral reefs afford the most familiar illustration.

The force known as heat is of great importance. The earth is hotter below the surface and probably has a very high temperature toward its center. In some places not very far below its surface it contains highly heated rock, which occasionally flows over the surface during volcanic eruptions. In other places we find hot springs in connection with volcanic action.

Heat exercises a powerful influence on rocks deeply buried below the earth's surface, chiefly by means of heated water and steam. In this way rocks have been very much altered or "metamorphosed." The crystalline schists have thus been brought to their present state by a series of chemical changes due to heat, and there is no doubt that they were once ordinary deposits of clay, sand, etc.—Hutchinson's "Autobiography of the Earth," the Appleton Company.

Mamma—Yes, but your appetite is usually fast.

Two Million Victims.

It is estimated that one-third the population of Canada are victims to the pill habit. This should not be so as Merrill's System Tonic tones the liver, restores the natural muscular powers to the bowels and permanently cures habitual Constipation. The result is that dyspepsia, impure blood and nerve troubles disappear. One 50 cent bottle cures. Sold by Ormond & Walsh, druggists.

Doctors Order It.

Doctors see at once the advantage of taking a medicine right to the part that is sick. You see the doctor orders his own medicines for the disease, and has his patient use Vapo Cresolene at the same time. It destroys all germs of diphtheria, scarlet fever, measles, and other contagious diseases; and there is no remedy its equal for croup, sore throat and hard colds. You now see why it often cures whooping-cough in a few days.

Vapo-Cresolene is sold by druggists everywhere. A Vapo-Cresolene outfit, including the Vaporizer and Lamp, which should last a life-time, and a bottle of Cresolene, complete, $1.50; extra supplies of Cresolene 25 cents and 50 cents. Illustrated booklet containing physicians' testimonials free upon request. Vapo-Cresolene Co., 180 Fulton St., New York, U.S.A.

Recommended and sold in Peterborough by H. H. Ednieson, druggist.

MAKING ATONEMENT.

A Little Known Story About One Who Bore Benedict Arnold's Name.

Touching on the treason of Benedict Arnold there is a little known story which had for the scene of its action the four years of the war of secession, says the Chicago Times-Herald. In response to the first call of Abraham Lincoln for troops a young man appeared at a Detroit recruiting office and enlisted. He went to the front and in the course of six months was made a commissioned officer. He was of a retiring disposition, always courteous to his fellow officers and just to his men, but he sought no close friendships. He was known throughout the command as a man whose devotion to duty amounted to a passion. He once sought and secured a change of command in order to have more frequent hand in the heavy fighting. He was wounded three or four times and was so restlessly anxious to get back to duty that the surgeons found him a hard patient.

This soldier rose to the rank of major. At the battle of Lookout Mountain he was desperately wounded. He was in the hospital for some months. Then convalescence came and with convalescence the restive desire to get to the front again. He told the surgeon that he was fully able to report for duty. The surgeon told him that he was not and that he must stay on the sick report for some time longer. Then the major wrote a letter to his colonel in the field and asked him if the obeying of the doctor's ordest was compulsory. The colonel, who knew his man, wrote back that it was as much a part of a soldier's duty to obey the surgeon as it was to obey a commanding officer who ordered a charge on a breastworks in the face of shrapnel. This satisfied the major, and he underwent the rest of his confinement in the hospital resignedly if not cheerfully.

Finally the major went back to the front. He was offered at one time a colonelcy. He declined. He fought in every battle of the later Richmond campaign and was in at the end at Appomattox. The major headed his battalion in the great parade of the returning victors up Pennsylvania avenue. Then there came the final mustering out of the troops. Less than a month afterward the colonel of a fighting line regiment received a letter bearing a Toronto postmark. It was from the major. It said in part: "I served all through the war under an assumed name. I trust that I did my full duty. I wish you now to know that I did what I did in order that I might in some little way make atonement for the deed of one of my family. Sir, I am a Canadian by birth, and my name is John Benedict Arnold."

"NO TONGUE CAN TELL."

The Pain Endured by Mrs. Bradley was Beyond Description—For Over Nine Years She Never had a Good Night's Sleep—She Couldn't Eat, and had Given up Hope—Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets Cured Her.

Mrs. Jas. Bradley, of Smith's Cove, Digby County, N. S., is a very happy woman. For years she suffered a great deal with Dyspepsia. She kept on doctoring, but without relief, and for the last few months had practically given up hope of ever being any better.

Now she is well. How this came about is best told in her own words:

"I have had Dyspepsia for over nine years, and I have tried the best doctors in this place, and never got any relief.

"I have had to starve myself until I was very weak. I could scarcely eat anything.

"After so many trials and failures I had given up hope of ever being any better. No tongue can tell what I have suffered. I cannot describe it.

"Some time ago I saw an advertisement of Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets. I purchased six boxes, and have taken nearly all of them, and I am thankful to say that I am entirely cured. I can now eat almost anything.

"For years, before using the Tablets, I had never enjoyed a good night's rest. Now I can sleep comfortably all night, something which I never expected to do again in this world.

"I advise all who suffer as I have to use Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets, for they are the best remedy that ever was discovered, and I hope that this may be read by many who suffer from Dyspepsia, for I am sure that if I could make them see what Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets have done for me it would be the means of saving many others from continual suffering."

Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets always cure, no matter how chronic the case, or how wrong you have suffered.

The fact that other medicine has failed to cure you, doesn't prove that Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets will fail. They never disappoint the sufferer with Stomach Trouble. If you suffer try a box and be convinced. They will do for you what they have done for Mrs. Bradley and many others.

Providence on His Side.

"Dis fall weather des suits me," said the old man.

"Like it, do you?"

"Yes, suh! Ketched six possums last night, en de res' er de fambly is all down sick en los' dey appetite, en I gwine ter eat de las' one er dem possums myse'f. Ef de fambly had been up en stirrin', dey wouldn't er been mo' dan des a taste all roun'. Hit do look lak de Lawd will provide!"

One Who Knew.

"Women wouldn't spend so much money," said the man with the white spot on his mustache, "if they knew how hard it is to get it."

"My wife knows how hard it is," said the man with the loud necktie, lighting a cigar, "for whenever we get hard up she's the one that always has to go to her rich uncle to borrow some."—Chicago Tribune.

ON THE VERGE OF SUCCESS

The Many Stewards and the Audacious "Cheeker."

A man walked into one of the uptown college clubs one morning and sat down in the smoking room. His air of assurance was hardly in accord with his tattered clothes. It was early, and none of the members was about. He rang the bell, and the steward responded.

"It seems good to get back into the club again," he remarked.

"Yes, sir," said the steward.

"I used to be a member here, but I've had hard luck and can't afford it any longer."

"Yes, sir; I'm sorry, sir," said the steward.

"By the way, I'm a little short of car fare this morning," said the nervy stranger. "Could you let me have ten cents until I call here again?"

The surprised steward reached into his pocket and handed out a dime.

"Thank you," said the man. "Now, I'm also a little hungry, having had no breakfast. Do you suppose you could gather me up a little luncheon?"

The steward was stupefied by such a display of nerve.

"And a little whisky with a dash of bitters would not go badly with the food."

The steward fled as one of the members entered. The stranger saw the new arrival and rose hastily.

"I am too early for my friend," he said as he walked toward the door. "I will return later." Then he added in an undertone, which the doorboy heard: "Too bad, too bad! That steward was easy. He'd given me the club if I'd asked for it. It's a wonder those members wouldn't stay away." The man of nerve walked down the street with his head bowed in deep thought. "How to get that luncheon without paying for it" was his theme.

Something About Faith Cures.

What a great variety of faith cures there must be, some have faith in so-called divine healers, others in certain doctors and still others in the medicines they use. Every person who has tested Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills has faith in them, but faith or no faith they cure just the same, for they act directly and specifically on the kidneys, liver and bowels, and make these organs healthy, active and vigorous. Judging from the enormous demand for these pills there must be hosts of people that have faith in them.

The Big Ships of the Past.

Gigantic as are the sea monsters devised by the modern shipwright, we have not reached the dimensions of the Mannigafusl of Frisian legend, whose masts were so high that a boy sent aloft to "bear a hand" came down a gray headed man, whose deck was so spacious that the captain had to gallop about on horseback to give his orders and whose length was so great that when swinging in the channel her stern scraped the cliffs of Albion white, while her bowsprit swept the forts at Calais.

But we have exceeded in some respects the dimensions of Ptolemy's great ship, which was 420 feet long, 57 feet broad and 72 feet in depth of hold and which carried 4,000 rowers and 3,000 mariners, besides unnumbered soldiers and passengers. Of the great ship of Hiero, king of Syracuse, the dimensions have not been recorded, but she was at least as large as Ptolemy's, considering that her freightage was "00,000 measures of corn, 10,000 jars of salt fish, 20,000 talents' weight of wool and of other cargo 20,000 talents, in addition to the provisions required by the crew," and that she was so large no harbor in Sicily could contain her.

This problem of harbor accommodation is one that is already troubling the owners of modern steam monsters and is placing a limit on their growth. —Monthly Review.

Life Insurance for Fifty Cents.

Any one wishing to insure themselves against heart, stomach, kidney or liver troubles, can do so by taking Merrill's System Tonic. This wonderful medicine combines the blood building properties of iron with the blood purifying and nerve toning powers found in herbs—skilfully compounded by a reliable druggist. 50 doses for 50 cents. Sold at Ormond & Walsh's drug store.

The Tugboat Captain.

A tug lay hard by, and the captain added his bit to my sociological nocturne, as I sat in the pilot house and peered out on the water, where red lights and green lights, with many of yellow and white, dripped zigzag fashion down from the wharfs and ships.

"Where do you sleep?" questioned I.

"Why, here," he replied, "in this very pilot house on that nice fluffy bunk you're a-settin' on; an' sometimes I sleep at that wheel a-steerin' this boat, sir. Can't be helped, sir. The hours we work would starve in a trained nurse an' send a sentinel to be shot. Why, man, I've seed the time when I've stuck by that wheel twenty grim hours at a stretch. Once it was forty-two hours. And when you read in the paper about towin' a big propeller clean through a dock or jammin' her into her next door neighbor fer keeps don't you say us tug folks are Johnnie Raws. Just say we're worked and worked till we sleep at the wheel. For that's God's truth, sir."

Woman is as old as She Looks.

It is not age but disease, weakness and ill-health that makes women look old, care-worn and wrinkled. You cannot look your best unless you feel well, strong and vigorous with pure, rich blood and steady nerves. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food makes good looks because it makes good health, restores the healthful glow to the complexion, rounds out the form and gives elasticity to every motion of the body.

WHAT TWO DOLLS WROUGHT.

The Brute Woman Lectured After a Short and Stormy Experience.

On three successive days she had enabled her fare-finger at the conductor to let him know that she wanted to get off at the next corner, and on three successive days he had smiled amiably back at her, with his hands in his pockets, and straightway proceeded to allow her to be carried two blocks beyond her destination. On the fourth day the woman made up her mind to be self reliant. She had dispaired too long upon inefficient public servants who calmly disregarded her wishes, and she refused to depend upon them longer. Accordingly, when the car neared the corner where she wished to alight, she did not even look toward the conductor, but stood up and rang the bell herself.

For an irate passenger to ring the bell when conductory fail to do their duty is no extra sweetness, but that woman in her mad overshot the mark. She rang the bell twice, and the motorman, after looking half way round and grumbling under his breath, "What ails that fellow, anyhow?" turned on an extra current, and the car went spurting along to the next corner. The woman grew even redder then than the temperature warranted and jerked the rope twice again. Again the motorman turned his head and muttered, and again the car went shooting past the crossing on toward the third corner.

The conductor was awake to the situation, and he stood on the rear platform with his arms folded, smiling and saying nothing. A third time was this little comedy of the two bells enacted, and finally the woman found herself four blocks beyond her home. Then she turned and shook her fist at the conductor.

"Do you want to get off, madam?" he said suavely.

"Do I?" she stormed. "What do you suppose I have been jerking this rope that way for all this time?"

"That is what I was wondering about," he said innocently. "To ring twice means to go on, and I'm sure we were already going as fast as the law allows, even without all that extra urging. I guess the motorman must have thought I had lost my senses."

The car stopped then, and the woman was obliged to get off without taking time to make a reply, which, judging by her looks, was probably just as well for all concerned.

Four T's Makes Good Singers.

A FISHING FICTION.

THE "MAGIC EYE" OF THE SAULT STE. MARIE INDIANS.

An Old Guide's Explanation of the Indian Whitefish Hunter's Method of Getting His Glistening Catch From Under the Rapids.

"The first time I fished in the Sault Ste. Marie rapids," said a well known Lake Keuka sportsman, "I landed in an hour twenty-one brook trout that weighed forty-five pounds; so I was ready and willing to believe anything I heard or read about the possibilities of those waters or the astounding things that men who fished in them were able to do.

"Consequently I believed what they told me about the marvelous feats the Indian fishermen of the Sault Ste. Marie could perform in the way of netting whitefish. Few who have toured the great lakes have not heard of those same feats, witnessed them and, of course, could do nothing but go away believing that they were all they seemed to be.

"Particularly will they marvel, as I did, at the Indian whitefish fisherman's magic eye with which he seems to look down through ten feet or more of foaming, rushing water and see whitefish that to the white man's eye would be invisible five inches beneath the surface. It would have been strange if I had not marveled at it, having witnessed more than once manifestations of its alleged power. That was before I talked with old Guide Gagnon.

"The astounding feats of the Indian whitefish netters of the Sault Ste. Marie that the guidebooks and the hotel keepers and steamboatmen insist on telling tourists about are performed by two Indians in a canoe. One occupies the stern and manipulates the paddle to keep the canoe's head pointed up stream. The Indian in the bow, standing upright, uses a pole to aid in propelling the canoe or in keeping it steady.

"Lying ready to his hand is a dip net four feet in diameter, fastened to the end of a pole perhaps fifteen feet long. The fishing is done at the foot of the rapids, where the water boils and tumbles furiously. With his pole the Indian in the bow keeps the boat moving about in the rapids and paces constantly into the water, which is often ten feet or more deep.

"Suddenly the Indian in the bow will seize the net handle with one hand, never ceasing to manipulate the canoe with his pole in the other nor for an instant removing his staring gaze from the water. The net is not more than in his hand before he has plunged it perhaps ten feet distant from the boat, thrusting it at the same instant to the bottom. Then he gives it a peculiar twist, draws it up and, surrendering the care of the canoe for the moment to the Indian with the paddle, he draws the net up, never without from three to half a dozen glistening whitefish in it, frequently weighing five pounds each.

"The wondering spectator, seeing nothing but the boiling water, the sudden start of the Indian and his quick and dexterous plunging and drawing up of the net with its invariable load of whitefish, can do nothing but acknowledge to himself the necromancy of the Indian's piscatorial art. I know that I did, and for two seasons gave myself away to the fascination of that mysterious fishing. Then one day I marveled at it greatly to Guide Garros, the shrewd and cunning old Frenchman who knows every rock and eddy and whirlpool of the rapids and all the wiles and tricks that any other guide knows and a whole lot that no other one does know, and Garros's little black eyes twinkled.

"'Ah!' he chuckled. 'Zat mageeck bye. He von gr-r-rand hombog!'

"Then he explained in his voluble and picturesque patois the apparent mystery of the Indian whitefish fisherman's magic eye. Whitefish are natural denizens of the still, silent waters of the great lakes. To get from Lake Huron to Lake Superior these fish must fight their way up the fierce and stubborn Sault Ste. Marie rapids. In doing this they travel by easy stages. They can brave the rapids but a short distance at a time, when, almost exhausted, they drop into the shelter of the friendly rocks that pile the bottom of the rapids.

"Huddled sometimes by the score behind these rocks, getting wind, as it were, to overcome another stage of their journey, the whitefish, if the water is not too deep, can be lifted out by the hand of the fisherman, they are so nearly exhausted. The Indians as well as the white fishermen know this and, knowing well the location of these sheltering rocks, have only to thrust their nets down behind them and draw them up filled with fish.

"The cunning of the Indian led him long ago to give visitors the impression that he could penetrate the troubled depths of the rapids with his gaze and discover the whitefish on the bottom. The wonder of it spread, and it has been one of the fondest and best paying fictions of 'Squaw Mary,' as the natives give you the pronunciation of the Sault Ste. Marie."

An Anecdote of Genius.

The following anecdote of Leigh Hunt was once related by "Orion" Horne. Horne on a bitterly cold day in winter went to see Hunt, and found him in a large room with a wide, old fashioned fireplace. He had dragged his piano on to the hearth, close to a large fire, leaving only room for himself and his chair, and was playing with the greatest enjoyment.

"My dear fellow," cried Horne, "are you aware that you are ruining your piano forever and ever in that heat?"

"I know—I know," murmured Hunt, "but it is delicious."

"I did not sleep a night for seven long weeks."

That prolonged period of sleeplessness is most expressive of the pain and suffering caused by womanly diseases. It is pleasant to contrast the medical inefficiency which said "I could not be cured" with the prompt and permanent cure effected by the use of Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription. This great medicine for women establishes regularity, dries enfeebling drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness.

"I take great pleasure in recommending Dr. Pierce's medicines to other suffering women," writes Mrs. Mary Adams, of Grassycreek, Ashe Co., N. C. "I had internal trouble very badly until it resulted in ulcers of the uterus. I was troubled with it so that I did not sleep a night for seven long weeks. The doctors said I could not be cured, but I commenced taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and 'Pleasant Pellets.' After taking two bottles I could sleep all night, and after taking six bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and two of 'Golden Medical Discovery' and three vials of 'Pleasant Pellets' my case was cured. I had told my husband that I would have to die, as it seemed I could not live. He told me to put faith in Dr. Pierce's medicines, for it had cured others and would cure me. So it did, and I thank God and your medicine for saving my life."

DOANS KIDNEY PILLS CURE BACKACHE LAME BACK RHEUMATISM DIABETES BRIGHT'S DISEASE DIZZINESS AND ALL KIDNEY & URINARY DISEASES ARE CURED BY DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS

Mrs. I. Greaves, Edgett's Landing, N.B., writes on Jan. 18, 1901: "In the fall of 1899 I was troubled with a severe pain in the back. I could scarcely get up out of a chair and it gave me great pain to move about. I took one box of Doan's Kidney Pills and was completely cured. I have not been troubled with it since."

MOROCCO'S DESTINY.

GREAT BRITAIN AND FRANCE INTERESTED IN THE COUNTRY.

Each Is Making Efforts to Develop Its Wealth, With England Now in the Lead—Interesting Personality of Morocco's Young Sultan—A Queer Mixture of Oriental Ignorance and Western Advancement.

Now that the Soudan has, speaking comparatively, quieted down, European diplomats and statesmen are turning their eyes to another quarter of North Africa. Morocco is the country whose future fate is engaging the minds of old world governments. A keen contest is going on between Great Britain and France for the control of the semi-barbarous kingdom.

Renewed interest in Morocco has just been aroused by the recent visit of the Moroccan Embassy to London. Sultan Abdul Aziz sent a representative to congratulate his "brother," Edward VII. on the latter's succession to the throne. As a result of the friendship shown by the English to the ambassador British influence in Morocco has gone up another peg, and the excitable Gauls are correspondingly depressed. The contest between the two countries is very interesting, for the prize is one well worth gaining. These two only have chances to become paramount in Morocco, for the other European nations have no real interest in the country.

Morocco has been known for centuries as an extremely wealthy land, although it is undeveloped and neglected. It is rich in soil, in climate, in minerals, and in all that goes to make up a prosperous nation save that its people are slothful and unprogressive. They are almost completely ignorant of modern civilization; but, although they are bigoted and intolerant Moslems at present, it is believed that they can be awakened to the benefits of modern life. That is the goal that is sought by England. Of course both countries look forward to reaping rich rewards from the introduction of railroads, telegraphs, etc., into Morocco and from the development of its great natural resources. They are quietly but none the less energetically fighting an advance battle of the future commercial warfare.

Government in Morocco, like that of most Moslem countries, is centered in the head, there known as the sultan. Moroccan administration of law, justice and order is, according to the few emigrants that have reached Canada, in a thoroughly corrupt condition, Bribery is the only method of securing justice known to natives and the handful of foreigners residing in the country. This system, it is said, extends from the sultan down to the smallest judge in the meanest Moroccan village.

The present Sultan of Morocco, Abdul Aziz, has an interesting personality, for he is a queer mixture of oriental ignorance and western advancement. Abdul Aziz is now about 21 years old and succeeded to the throne in 1894. Although his earlier years were passed in deepest ignorance, he has recently learned much of the outside world. Abdul Aziz, according to all accounts, is intelligent and quick to learn. He has taken greatly to a number of the white man's inventions, finding in them constant sources of delight. Among them are the bicycle, the camera and the cinematograph, or moving picture reproducer. The last named is his especial joy.

Since the Mohammedan religion forbids the reproduction of the human form in any manner and since the Sultan of Morocco is ex-officio "Prince of the Faithful," Abdul Aziz's picture was secured by a curious subterfuge. He was persuaded to have the picture of his bicycle taken, and the camera caught him at the same time. That was not his fault, he argued, but that of the photographer. The latter, however, luckily did not incur thereby the ill will of the despot.

The advancement of Abdul Aziz in modern civilization is largely due to Sir Henry Aubrey de Vere MacLean, known as the Kaid MacLean, who commands His Majesty's army of about 30,000. As his name tells, Sir Henry is a Scotchman. He was formerly an officer in the British army and was chosen by the father of Abdul Aziz to instruct the Moroccan soldiers in modern tactics. By his ability he has raised himself to a position second only to that of the Sultan. Kaid MacLean was one of the most important members of the recent Moroccan Embassy to London.

General Lee's Answer.

After the surrender of Appomattox, General Wise came riding down the road furiously to where General Lee and his staff were grouped. He was splashed with mud from head to heels, and there were great splotches of mud dried and caked upon his face. Addressing General Lee, he asked in a theatrical voice, "Is it true, General Lee, that you have surrendered?"

"Yes, General Wise, it is true."

"I wish, then, to ask you one question, What is going to become of my brigade, General Lee, and what is going to become of me?"

General Lee looked at the splashed warrior for a full minute and then said calmly and in a low tone, "General Wise, go and wash your face."

Speaker's Sore Throat.

Public speakers and singers know how useless and sickening are cough mixtures, sprays, lozenges, etc., etc., for irritable and sore throat, and state that the most satisfactory remedy is Catarrhozone, the advantage of which is that it acts quickly and is convenient to use in public places. Catarrhozone relieves congestion, allays inflammation, and is a protection to the membrane. As a safeguard against colds and catarrh it has no equal. Rev. Dr. McKay, of Goderich, says, "Catarrhozone is an excellent remedy for throat irritation, arising from colds." Physicians, ministers and singers recommend Catarrhozone; druggists sell it for $1. Small size, 25c. By mail from Polson & Co., Kingston, Ont.

Quoted the Bible.

Several years ago a Baptist minister who was anxious to be appointed to a vacancy in a Georgia church went to one of the old residents and asked him what he should preach about in his trial sermon. He was informed that a good topic would be the proper raising of children, who in that section were greatly neglected. When the would be pastor arose to preach the next morning, he started out this way:

"I'm gwine to preach to you today on de subjec' of chillun. You ain't raisin' 'em right. Instid of dem bein' in Sunday school dey is strayin' away, fightin' and playin' marbles, and de Bible is bitterly ag'in de las' one of dese acts, bec'se it says in two or three places, 'Marble [marvel] not I say unto you.'"

The Stone Tree.

There is a tree which grows in Mexico called the "chijol," or stone tree. It is of enormous proportions, both in circumferences and height. It has a number of branches spreading out widely and carrying leaves of a yellowish green color. The wood is extremely fine and easily worked in a green state. It is not given to either warping or splitting. The wonderful part about it is that after being cut the wood gets gradually harder, and in the course of a few years it is absolutely petrified, whether left in the open air or buried in the ground. From this timber houses can be built that would in a few years become completely fireproof and would last as though built of stone.

When a Man Can See 200 Miles.

About 200 miles in every direction is the distance a man can see when standing, on a clear day, on the peak of the highest mountain—say, at a height of 20,000 feet, or a little over five miles above the level of the sea. An observer must be at a height of 5,667 feet above sea level to see objects at a distance of 100 miles. The distance in miles at which an object upon the surface of the earth is visible is equal to the square root of one and a half times the height of the observer in feet above the sea level.

Some allowance has to be made for the effect of atmospheric refraction, but as the refraction varies at different heights and is affected by the various states of the weather no precisely accurate figures for general purposes can be given. Probably one-fourteenth to one-tenth of the distance given by the formula would have to be deducted, owing to the refraction of the atmosphere.

EIGHT CONVINCING REASONS . . .

WHY YOU SHOULD INSURE IN

THE IMPERIAL LIFE ASSURANCE CO'Y OF CANADA.

1. It is a purely Canadian Company, having all its funds invested in Canadian securities, and transacting business only in Canada.

2. It maintains the largest Government Deposit of any Canadian Life Insurance Company.

3. It maintains relatively the strongest policy reserves of any Canadian Life Insurance Company.

4. Its past record — the greatest guarantee of the future — has been unparalleled in Canadian life insurance.

5. Its policy contract is one of the most liberal issued, consistent with safety and equity.

6. It has a Capital of $1,000,000, which makes policy-holders' security unquestionable. At the same time, the assured is practically in the same position regarding profits as if he held a policy in a mutual company, the Imperial's charter providing that at least 90 per cent. of all profits shall be divided amongst policy-holders.

7. For every $100 of liability to policy-holders it holds $130 of securely invested assets. These assets are all of the highest order, and will bear the closest scrutiny.

8. An Imperial policy never depreciates in value, but, on the contrary, is constantly becoming more valuable. It is the most valuable estate you can leave behind you.

EXPECTATION OF LIFE.

The Years Yet Before You, According to the Insurance Tables.

What are your chances of living to that ripe old age the poets tell of? If you don't know, we do, and we'll tell you. At least we have the mortality and expectation tables of the life insurance gentlemen, and we're willing to accept the figures as reliable; for the life insurance gentlemen go into this thing in a spirit the reverse of sentimental. They simply take 100,000 humans and figure out a percentage just as if the 100,000 humans were chalk on a blackboard.

Proceeding on the understanding that the 100,000 are considered at the age of ten years, each will have 48.7 more years to live. Of course some will die before collecting their life inheritance, but the 48.7 represents the average. As a matter of carefully ascertained fact there will be 749 deaths among the 100,000 before the eleventh year is reached.

This leaves 99,251 survivors, with a chance of 48.1 more years in the land of the living. But 746 of these will die before becoming twelve-year-olds.

And so it goes. If you are interested in learning how the insurance gentlemen figure these matters, look at the following table and reckon how long a tenure of life the experts give you:

LIFE EXPECTATION TABLE.

Completed age.	Number surviving at each age.	Deaths in each year.	Expectation years.

Why He Is a Suburbanite.

"You should strive to teach your children patience."

"I realize that," said Mr. Staxon. "It was my purpose in taking up my residence on a suburban car line."

When a friend comes up to you and says, "Now I want you to tell me the truth," prepare to lie, or else say something disagreeable.

Don't ignore a man because he is in the lightweight class. It is easier to throw a cannon ball a mile than it is to throw a feather ten feet.

LOCKOUTS AND STRIKES

Declared Illegal in Australia—Disputes Between Labor and Capital Must Be Referred to a Competent Court.

Sydney, N.S.W., Dec. 9.—By the passage of the industrial arbitration bill through its final stages, the Government compels reference of all disputes between employers and employes to a competent court with power to enforce its orders and awards, and makes a strike or a lockout before or pending such reference a misdemeanor punishable by a fine or imprisonment.

The court, which will pass upon these disputes, is to be presided over by a judge of the Supreme Court, and will have most extensive powers, including the power to declare a standard wage and to direct that other things being equal, an employer shall give preference to unionist over non-unionist laborers.

There is no appeal from the decisions of the court.

GUELPH COMES SECOND.

Next to Iowa, Which Gets the Spoor Trophy at Live Stock Show.

Chicago, Ill., Dec. 9. — The judging of exhibits at the International Live Stock Exposition in all the live animal classes was concluded Saturday, but it was necessary to postpone the judging of dressed beef carcasses until Monday, the carcases not having cooled sufficiently for cutting into commercial sizes.

The awards in the intercollegiate students live stock judging contest were announced on Saturday, Iowa being awarded the Spoor trophy, and Guelph, Ont.; Illinois, Michigan; Wisconsin, Ind., and North Dakota being placed in the order named. The grand total of averages by points follows: Iowa, 3,756 points; Guelph, 3,610 points; Illinois, 3,488½ points; Michigan, 3,326½ points; Wisconsin, 3,320 5-6 points; Indiana, 3,312 4-6 points; North Dakota, 2,825 2-3 points.

Ideas of News.

Justice John M. Harlan of the United State supreme court, when a practicing lawyer in Louisville, once tried his hand at newspaper work, taking the place of a personal friend, then editor of the Louisville Commercial. The justice got along all right writing editorials, but had ideas as to news that were at variance with those of the city editor.

One of the reporters had written a clever account of a man who had fallen from the fourth story of a building and escaped without serious injury. It made a story of about a column in length. With a proof of the article in his hand the temporary editor came to the city editor and said:

"Mr. Smith, please have this story cut down. I can't see anything in it that makes it worth that space."

"But it's the 'star' story of the day, Mr. Harlan," gasped the astonished news man. "I think it's a remarkable story and well worth all the space given to it."

"I don't," said Justice Harlan. "If a man had jumped up four stories, it would certainly have been remarkable, but even a fool could fall down four stories, or half a dozen, for that matter."

The Driver's Point of View.

The hotel coach was filled with a crowd of happy, jubilant visitors, and the horses toiled splendidly up the hills. As each eminence was reached and at every turn in the road the crowd would burst forth into cries of wonder and delight at the magnificent scenes which burst upon their view. The mountain john alone preserved a dignity and silence which rather awed the others. At length, after a particularly lovely view had been passed, one of the guests at the driver's left hand remarked:

"You don't seem to take much interest in the scenery. No doubt it's an old story to you."

The driver shook his head. "No, that's not it," he answered. "I just don't care." Then he leaned a little closer and whispered: "But I knows just how you folks must feel. You all come from a long distance just to see things, and you're bound to enjoy it anyhow so as to get your money's worth and not feel as though you was cheatin' yourselves. Oh," said this driver in a superior tone, "I don't mind it when I understand how 'tis."

IN THE CAR KITCHEN

SNUG MANNER IN WHICH EATABLES ARE STOWED AWAY.

Methods by Which Stores Are Replenished Which Give Out En Route—The Room For the Waiters. The Cooks and Their Work.

The actual standing room in the car kitchen consists of an aisle only wide enough for two men to pass each other and about fifteen feet long. On one side is an unbroken row of ranges, the very best sort invented, for when men do women's work they are not content with makeshift tools. On the other side is a steam table for keeping things hot, other tables and some of the refrigerators, for there are many. Hot water and cold is held in cylinders which lie along the ceiling and look like the projectiles used on torpedo boats.

One refrigerator is devoted exclusively to fish, which lie shining on blocks of clear ice as tempting as in any fish market. Until I had actually seen this refrigerator it had been my practice to refuse fish in traveling, feeling there was some mystery about its preservation, but now—indeed, no such thing. I had fancied the whole menu cooked at once in enormous quantities, like a soldiers' mess at camp, and my fastidious car appetite had revolted and faded away during the first course, but now I eat with relish, knowing the condition of the source of supply.

Another refrigerator is entirely for meats and game, another for fruit, and even bread and cake are kept in a refrigerator that they retain their moisture. Outside the kitchen there is a sacred icebox under lock and key, and no man may put his hand therein except the steward or housekeeper of the dining car. There twenty-five kinds of wine are kept, and there will be shown to you, with a manner awed but proud, the royal family of champagne with cool, gold crowned heads sitting on an icy throne.

But, to go back to the kitchen, that apartment is occupied by three men all in white, with perhaps a blue cordon for tradition's sake, who serve deftly and capably the hiveful of waiters that swarm at the open square at the inner end of the room. It is a wise provision that prevents close contacts, for cooks are apt to be "redhot" at the crucial hour of dinner serving, and, besides, the car kitchen can contain no more men than the three cooks, who broil, roast, stew and fry the numberless fancies of the patrons' palates. These men work hard. The head cook, whose salary is about $70 per month, stands farthest from the window where the waiters clamor and is a bit more serious. The middle cook, on $45 salary, is lively or submissive according to the man he addresses, and the end cook finds time to chaff the owners of the dark faces who call orders, and sometimes he sings as happily as a conceited boy who fancies his future on the operatic stage.

These three men make up the white capped trio we see peering out of the windows of the dining car as it slips into the station. All the other employees of the train come into contact with passengers and have interesting experiences, but these are confined in the galley and are eager for scant glimpses at the station. Sometimes the car has a little balcony at the end, where they can escape the heat of their quarters, a needed relief in summer time.

The waiters have a pantry adjoining the kitchen and opening into it only by the little square window with a counter on either side. When your order is given and the waiter disappears, this is where he has gone. Here are kept supplies of dishes and silver, and here it is the waiter makes up the dishes of cakes, fruit and cheese you call for with which to tie up the ends of your appetite.

Before the dining car is drawn away from the caryards the special housekeeper who has it in charge must see that every sort of supply is on hand and in sufficient, but not too lavish, quantity. Sometimes there are ninety persons to feed, sometimes one-third that number, but the probable number on the various runs is known. In long journeys there are commissary stations along the way where the car may be satisfied, but this is seldom judiciously except with such perishables as cream and milk. Have you ever heard a potter agitating that subject with striking employees at Buffalo or elsewhere? That means the emergency has arisen in the dining car. Such things might easily happen in a larder where demands are irregular and marhin scores of miles away. It is a wonder they do not happen oftener when we reflect that economy in perishable things is enacted from the steward housekeeper.

Just before he sends his black commissary to announce dinner to the hungering passengers every man slips on jacket and apron of whitest linen and by this little act of costuming is converted at once from the nondescript man of the streets into the most spruce of servitors. Then, with everything ready in the kitchen and with his flock of assistants about him, the housekeeper of the dining car awaits the coming of his guests. And in they come, thoughtless blessing takers, with never a reflection on the hours of preparation by the army of men that it has taken to give them the degree of comfort which is purchasable for a dollar bill.

A Woman's Reason.

"You say," said the lady who had never been a mother, "you weigh your baby six times a week? Dear me! Why?"

"Well," the new mamma explained, "you see, I was brought up in a very religious family, and I've never been quite able to overcome the feeling that it is wrong to do anything on Sunday that can possibly be put off."—Chicago Record-Herald.

She'd Keep It.

"But can you keep house?" he asked doubtfully, for he was above all things a practical man.

"If you get a house and put it in my name," she replied promptly, "I'll keep it all right enough."

Matters being thus satisfactorily settled, their engagement was announced.—Chicago Post.

Loneliness and Health.

A medical journal has of late been discoursing on the indigestion of loneliness. By this title is meant to be indicated the disorders of digestion which are believed to follow the practice of taking one's meals in solitary state. The topic is by no means an uninteresting one. Thousands of men and women living alone are compelled to take their meals for the most part without company. Week in and week out they feed themselves without a soul to talk to, and the medical journal devotes its energies to showing that the practice is not one that is likely to be conducive to digestion, to proper bodily nourishment or to health. The solitary man soon tires of merely eating, and, if he is not of a literary turn of mind, his tendency is to hurry through his meals to escape from his loneliness into the society of his fellow men. Herein, it is held, lies a danger to health.

GOUDIE ARRAIGNED.

Prosecution Claim to Have Direct Evidence Against the Prisoner.

London, Dec. 10.—Thomas Peterson Goudie, the former bookkeeper of the Bank of Liverpool; "Dick" Burge, the English pugilist, and F. J. Kelly, the bookmaker, of Bradford, were arraigned at the Bow street Police Court yesterday morning in connection with the Liverpool Bank frauds. Prosecuting counsel announced that Goudie admitted he had forged cheques, but disputed the aggregate amounts. The statement of counsel was only a reiteration of facts already known. The most interesting point was the announcement made by counsel that as would be able to prove that after Kelly had "milked" Goudie to the extent of £72,000, Burge got wind of the situation, and, in conjunction with Lawrie Marks, the American bookmaker, who is said to have committed suicide by jumping overboard from a Channel steamer, and James Mances, a bookmaker well known on the American tracks, decided not to leave Goudie in the hands of Kelly. The trio thereupon despatched Mances to interview Goudie, with the result that they accumulated £91,000, of which Burge received one half, Mances one-third, and Marks one-sixth.

OTTAWA IN MOURNING

The Funerals of Miss Bessie Blair and Mr. H. A. Harper—Proposal to Erect a Memorial to the Latter's Memory.

Ottawa, Dec. 10.—The citizens of Ottawa will erect a monument to commemorate the gallantry of H. Albert Harper, who lost his life on Friday last in the heroic endeavor to rescue Miss Bessie Blair from drowning, after she and a companion had skated into open water on the Ottawa River. A meeting was held last evening in the City Hall, the Mayor presiding, at which a committee was appointed to collect funds for this purpose.

Hon. William Mulock, Postmaster-General, in moving a resolution favoring the erection of a monument to Harper, said that the suggestion came from the Minister of Railways, the father of the drowned girl.

The funeral of Miss Blair, which took place yesterday afternoon, presented the unusual spectacle of nearly the entire Cabinet walking in solemn procession. Sir Richard Cartwright and Hon. David Mills occupied a carriage. Mr. Sifton, Minister of the Interior, was the only absentee, being at present in Manitoba.

After the hearse walked the father, Hon. A. G. Blair, his two sons, Mr. A. George Blair and Master Donald Blair, and Hon. Mr. Blair's son-in-law, Mr. R. F. Randolph, of Fredericton, N.B.

His Excellency the Governor-General and Lady Minto were present at the service in the Blair residence, conducted by Rev. Dr. Herridge of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church.

The body was taken to Beechwood.

The floral tributes were the most magnificent seen at a funeral in Ottawa for many years.

The funeral of H. Albert Harper took place later from Dr. Herridge's residence to the railway depot. Most of the Ministers attended it also. During the day Her Excellency the Countess of Minto called upon Miss Harper and spent an hour with the bereaved young lady in womanly efforts to console her for her brother's death.

CHRISTMAS CHEER!

Will be brought to many little folks, middle aged folks, and older folks through the gladsome surprises that will greet the hundreds who rely on this store for the neat, tasty and suitable gifts we have always gathered together at this time of the year—and sell so cheaply. MANY ANXIOUS TO GO

Canadians Are Not Backward in the Service of the Empire.

THE FORCE MAY YET BE 1,000

Recruiting at Ottawa, Montreal, Toronto, Vancouver and Rossland—In Every Case Double the Number Wanted Offer to Go—South African Veterans Get the Call—Progress Already Made.

Ottawa, Dec. 10.—The War Office is said to be willing to take more than the stipulated 600 men provided for in the new corps being raised for South Africa, and numbers of young Canadians are willing to enlist. It seems hard to debar these young men from serving the empire, and it is likely they will be given a chance. The transports Manhattan and Victoria, between them, have accommodation for one thousand men, and if the War Office says the word the force may be raised to pretty nearly that number; at any rate two more squadrons will be added, which means that eleven more commissions, including an additional Major, will be available. Lieut.-Col. Evans returned yesterday morning from Toronto, where he spent Sunday. He will leave for Halifax towards the latter part of next week.

Ottawa's Quota.

Twenty-five recruits have offered themselves here for the quota of twelve required for the contingent. The men will be tested in equitation and proficiency in shooting, and, other things being equal, those who had previous experience in South Africa, will be given the preference.

Many Anxious to Enlist.

Montreal, Dec. 10.—Recruiting for the new Canadian force, which is being sent from Canada to South Africa, commenced yesterday at the Brigade Office, under the direction of Lieut.-Col. Roy, D.O.C., and Major Stewart, brigade major. Surgeon-Captain Cameron of the Montreal Bearer Company, was medical inspecting officer.

The applications were most numerous, upwards of between 80 and 90, presenting themselves for enlistment. More than half of these were destined to disappointment, however, as the Militia Department is only taking 35 men from the fifth and sixth military districts, which include St. John's and its military school. And the school wants to send along its proper quota. Not more than 30 applicants can, therefore, be taken from this city.

Recruiting at Toronto.

Toronto, Dec. 10.—Yesterday over 200 applicants appeared at the Armouries for the purpose of undergoing the medical examination and inspection in riding and shooting, that if passed successfully would place them on the new mounted force for service in South Africa. Toronto is expected to supply 60 men, and in all probability the full quota will be raised from men who have seen active service in South Africa.

Dr. Nattress examined 28 men, and of this number 26 were successful in passing the examination. Out of this number 24 were veterans of the present South African campaign. The recruiting will be continued at the Armouries to-day and to-morrow, between the hours of 10 a.m. and 12 a.m., and 2 p.m. and 4 p.m.

Paardeberg Heroes Wants to Go.

Vancouver, Dec. 10.—Recruiting for the third Canadian contingent commenced here yesterday morning. Only 20 men are required and applications from men who had served with the Strathcona Horse and the Royal Canadian Regiment almost reached that number. In all, 75 men have passed the preliminary examination. These include Corp. Lohman and Pte. Pelkey, who were wounded at Paardeberg. Several Northwest Mounted Police, a former trooper in Cape Mounted Police, and a number of members of the local militia regiment, the 6th Duke of Connaught's Own.

Rossland Recruits.

Rossland, B.C., Dec. 10.—Capt. John Leckie, D.S.O., was in the city yesterday recruiting for the Canadian Mounted Rifles. Ten vacancies were allotted to Rossland, and there were thirty-five volunteers. The choice finally fell on the following: Joseph Squires, George McKugo, F. R. Maitland, J. Brent, E. J. Haywood, P. Hendry, D. Murray, J. Ross and A. K. Cape. The men leave on Wednesday night, and will be given a send-off by local militiamen and citizens. Captain Leckie leaves in the morning for Nelson, where he will recruit another ten men.

What Canada Says.

London, Dec. 10.—Some criticism is forthcoming in the Opposition newspapers because the Dominion Government is not defraying the expense of fitting out the new mounted contingent. It is pointed out in reply to this objection that the Canadian authorities are paying $1,000 a day to maintain the infantry regiment at Halifax which took the place of the regulars sent to South Africa.

CONCENTRATION CAMPS.

Now Under Civil Authorities—Liberty to Visit the Coast.

London, Dec. 10.—Lord Onslow, Parliamentary Secretary of the Colonial Office, speaking at Crewe last night, announced that the concentration camps in South Africa had now been placed under the control of the civil authorities, that no pains or expense would be spared to place them in the healthiest possible condition and that those concentrados wishing to go to the coast would be freely permitted to do so.

Still Work to Be Done.

New York, Dec. 10.—A Pretoria despatch from London to the Times says that much remains to be done in partitioning the country with blockhouses before the Boers can be cleared from the Transvaal. The British public must, therefore, be patient. North of the Delagoa Bay railway line, the Boers are momentarily free from the presence of the British columns. The mountain ranges afford endless hiding places for the enemy. Supplies are plentiful and wheat, which finds its way all over the country, is carefully concealed for future use. It is impossible to avoid this unless the Boers are kept moving, and to effect this many more troops are required. The most noticeable development is the Orange River Colony is the concentration under Dewet, south of Heilbron, of a thousand men.

Won the Victoria Cross.

London, Dec. 10.—Lieut. L. A. E. Price Davies, D.S.O., who is serving with the King's Royal Rifle Corps in South Africa, is to be awarded the Victoria Cross for an act of conspicuous bravery at Blood River Poort on September 17th. The Boers had overwhelmed the right of the British column, and about 400 of them were galloping round the flank and rear of our guns, calling on the drivers to surrender. Lieut. Davies, on the order to fire at the charging Boers being given, at once dashed among them and fired in a most gallant and desperate attempt to rescue the guns. He was immediately shot and knocked off his horse, but was not mortally wounded, although he had ridden apparently to certain death.

MISS STONE LOCATED.

Macedonians Given Precise Information as to Her Place of Captivity.

Sofia, Bulgaria, Dec. 10.—According to information received from Salonica, Miss Ellen M. Stone and Madame Tsilka, her companion, are concealed in the vicinity of Rile, about five miles south of Dubnitza, in Bulgarian territory. The news was brought by a Macedonian, who left there Dec. 1, and who furnished precise information regarding the hiding places and the names of the agents supplying food for the brigands and their captives. It is understood that the information is regarded as reliable enough to justify the American officials in Turkey despatching emissaries to treat with the bandits, and application has already been made to the Turkish Government for the free passage of the emissaries across the Turkish frontier, which is vigilantly guarded by troops stationed at every hundred yards.

Smallpox on a Train.

Winnipeg, Man., Dec. 10.—Passengers who arrived from the west on yesterday's C.P.R. train are greatly alarmed because of the presence of smallpox on the train. A patient suffering from the dread disease boarded the train at a station west of Brandon. He was not detected, and rode as far as Brandon, where he was removed and taken to the quarantine.

Dead in His Cell.

Kingston, Ont., Dec. 10.—James Parker was found dead Sunday night in his cell in the penitentiary. No cause is attributed. He was all right during the day and attended service in the chapel in the morning. Deceased came from near Lindsay.

The jury in the case of James Parker, the dead convict, reported death from natural causes. It was heart failure.

Barrie Man Shot Himself.

Barrie, Dec. 10.—Mr. Richard Tuthill, a prominent resident of this town, shot himself yesterday. Whether it was intentional or not is not known. He was 45 years of age, and leaves a wife and a son. He was out on Saturday and attended to his business as formerly. No reason for the rash act is given.

Three Crushed by Falling Tree.

Newton, Miss., Dec. 10.—Manager Johnson of the Postal-Telegraph Company, his son, and a negro driver, were killed three miles from town yesterday by a falling tree. They had gone to repair a telegraph line when a tree fell across the road, crushing them to death.

King in Blinding Storm.

London, Dec. 10.—Severe storms have swept over Scotland and many parts of England. King Edward left Sandringham for London yesterday morning in the midst of a blinding snowfall. Railroad traffic in the Highlands is much interferred with by the storms.

Canadian Girl Suicide.

Buffalo, N.Y., Dec. 10.—In a room in George Haney's Hotel, Canal street, a woman who was known as Fanny Evans committed suicide last night by taking carbolic acid. The woman's name was not Evans. She had assumed it. Her parents live in Canada.

Gunshot Wound in Shoulder.

Toronto, Dec. 10.—Mrs. Elizabeth Norman, who lives near North Bay, was admitted to the General Hospital yesterday morning suffering from a severe gunshot wound in the right arm and shoulder. It was accidentally inflicted by her husband.

Died of Hunger.

Winnipeg, Dec. 10.—F. D. McCarthy, the 15-year-old son of M. McCarthy, engineer on the Kitchener steam shovel, was found dead within a half-mile of Kitchener, B.C., where he had expired from hunger and exhaustion.

Will Be Hanged Friday.

Montreal, Dec. 10.—Justice must be satisfied, and on Friday, Dec. 13, J. B. Laplaine will be hanged in the jail yard in the city for the murder of Mrs. Louis Lefebvre last fall.

Diphtheria and scarlet fever cannot spread where Vapo-Cresolene is used. All Druggists.

ABOUT THE SUGAR BEET.

A Few Facts That are of Interest to Many

And Which the Farmers of This Locality Should Acquaint Themselves With.

Those farmers who say that beet culture is not profitable are the ones who neglected to take the necessary care, for the prices paid by the factories are remunerative.

The remunerative results from any crop depends largely upon the manner of cultivation. It is particularly so with sugar beets.

Beets should be treated as a garden plant, and the seed bed in which they are planted should be as well attended to as a garden plot.

A beet field must be free from weeds at all times, and the best, and cheapest way to keep it clean is to "take time by the forelock" and cultivate it before the weeds start.

An acre is further good for $15 of tops and $10 of pulp for stock Sheep and cows eat the beet tops in the field and fertilize the soil.

The preparation for the seed bed depends greatly on the nature of the soil, but it must be by all means firm and compact, for in this state it will retain the moisture better and the seed will germinate quicker, but especially will this prove of great benefit if the land is plowed but a short time before seeding.

The depth of the plowing is very important, and ought in no case to be less than ten inches, but fourteen is better in order that the roots may penetrate to the greatest depth, for on the length of the root depends tonnage.

In farming districts where sugar factories are located, lands have doubled and tripled; mortgages are paid and farmers happy.

The beet sugar industry is primarily an agricultural industry, and that the farmers have a greater interest in its success than any other class of our population.

The direct returns to the farmer from growing beets are greater than from almost any other crop without counting the great value of the by-products of sugar manufacture, which are returned to him, chief which is the beet pulp, which is being recognised more and more as an exceedingly valuable stock feed.

Then there are the indirect advantages, chief among which is the fact that beet sugar culture leads to intensive and scientific farming, and emancipates the farmer from the accidents of climatic conditions and changes, which, under the present system, where farmers confine themselves largely to one or two crops, make them the victims of speculation in the great markets of the world.

Creed Revision Committee.

Washington, Dec. 9.—Two sessions were held Saturday of the Revision Committee on the General Presbyterian Assembly. A statement issued by the committee says: "The committee is making progress, but it is evident that in discussing the great questions before it, progress must be slow, and nothing final can be arrived at for a week or more."

Probably Fatal Burning.

Montreal, Dec. 9.—A woman named Poirier, the wife of a French-Canadian painter, was probably fatally burned here on Saturday evening. A pot of varnish had been left to boil on the stove, and boiling over set the house on fire. Mrs. Poirier, in attempting to subdue the flames, was so badly burned that her recovery is regarded as doubtful.

Wagon Went Over Him.

Woodstock, Dec. 9.—An accident that may prove fatal befel Fred. Baltron, a young married man of Innerkip. He was riding on a load of hay and fell over the front of the load, which passed over the centre of his body, injuring him internally.

Smallpox House on Fire.

St. John, N.B., Dec. 9.—A house in which some smallpox patients were caught on fire Saturday night, and as the house was locked the people within were greatly alarmed. Very little damage was done and none of the patients suffered any injury.

"Man is Filled With Misery."

This is not true of all men. The well, sound of lung, clear of eye, buoyant with health, are not miserable, whatever may be their social condition. To be well is to be happy, and we can all be well by getting and keeping our bodies in a healthy state. Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil will help all to do this.

TO WAIT ON MR. ROSS

Methodist Prohibition Committee Appoints Its Deputation

THOSE WHO WERE PRESENT

The Report of the Sub-Committee Gives the Views of the Conference—Text of the Report—A Straight Request That the Government Bring Down a Prohibition Law This Session.

Toronto, Dec. 10.—The Ontario section of the Prohibition Committee of the Methodist General Conference convened yesterday at the Wesley Buildings in response to a special call in consequence of the recent Privy Council decision.

All the members were present, viz.:

Rev. Dr. Carman, Toronto; Rev. W. Kettlewell, Mount Forest; Rev. D. L. Brethour, Niagara Falls; Rev. J. S. Ross, D.D., Walkerton; Rev. H. S. Matthews, Toronto; Rev. G. J. Bishop, London; Rev. A. C. Crews, Toronto; Rev. W. Rigsby, Kincardine; Rev. C. T. Scott, London; Rev. T. M. Campbell, Trenton, and Rev. D. N. McCamus, Sarnia. Laymen: Johathan Ellis, Port Dover; N. Wesley Rowell, Q. F. Marter, M.P.P., F. S. Spence, Toronto; L. G. Jackson, Newmarket; Prof. Bowman, London; H. L. Rice, St. Mary's.

Rev. Dr. Tovell, Rev. C. O. Johnson, Rev. Dr. Courtice, editor of the Christian Guardian; Rev. Dr. Griffin and other representative Methodists were present, but did not take any part in the proceedings.

Rev. Dr. Carman called Rev. W. Kettlewell, chairman of the committee, to the chair.

Rev. Dr. Brethour, secretary of the committee, read the call for the meeting.

Rev. Mr. Kettlewell congratulated the committee on now being in a position to call upon the Ontario Government to fulfil its promise.

After brief congratulatory speeches a sub-committee, with Rev. Dr. Ross as chairman, was appointed to draft a resolution defining the committee's attitude, which, as indicated by the speeches, was for an immediate enactment of provincial prohibition. No suggestion of a referendum was made.

The sub-committee reported at the evening meeting as follows:

Whereas the Legislature of Ontario has declared in favor of the prohibition of the liquor traffic by memorializing the Dominion government to enact such legislation;

And whereas the electorate of the province, on two occasions, by very large majorities, pronounced in favor of prohibition, as the legal remedy for the evils of the liquor traffic;

And whereas Sir Oliver Mowat, Feb. 6, 1894, declared the government's adoption of the policy of prohibition;

And whereas, on the same date at a public meeting, the Hon. G. W. Ross, the present Premier of this province, declared his pleasure at Sir Oliver Mowat's declaration, and stated that a government taking such a position was the only kind of a government he would be a member of;

And whereas, on Feb. 13 of the present year, the Hon. G. W. Ross, in reply to a deputation, again stated that the government was always prepared to go as far as the law would allow, and had not receded from that position, and a week later said to a deputation representing the Methodist Church:

"You know what our past record has been, and what our predecessors have agreed, and what is the general policy of the government upon that question, that need not be repeated over and over again, because we know exactly where we stand. We stand where we always did."

And whereas a recent decision of the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council has affirmed that a province has power to prohibit transactions in intoxicating liquors for beverage purposes within its own borders;

And whereas the prohibition of the liquor traffic is admittedly the only right and effective legislative remedy for the evils of intemperance;

Therefore, resolved, that a deputation wait upon the Government and request a fulfillment of its promises by the introduction at the approaching session of a bill to prohibit the liquor traffic to the extent of its ascertained powers.

Rev. William Kettlewell and the secretary were appointed to arrange for the earliest available date to meet the Government. The resolution will be presented by this deputation: Rev. William Kettlewell, Rev. Dr. L. Brethour and Jonathan Ellis, Hamilton Conference; Rev. H. S. Matthews, L. W. Jackson, Toronto Conference; Rev. Walter Rigsby, Prof. Bowman, London Conference; Rev. T. M. Campbell and T. M. Wickett, Bay of Quinte Conference. The deputation will represent about 900 Methodist circuits in Ontario.

ON THE FOUR-SQUARE PLAN.

The four-square plan means that all customers, regardless of rank or station, receive the same careful attention and treatment at our store. We are as particular with the child who is sent to purchase some small article as we are with the experienced adult. We never substitute inferior drugs when filling your doctor's prescription. We never recommend the "something just as good."

Alleged Bigamist Arrested.

Port Arthur, Dec. 9.—Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Boyd are under arrest here, the former charged with bigamy, and Mrs. Boyd with entering into an unlawful marriage. Boyd is alleged to have left a wife and family of four daughters at Sudbury, and to have met Mary Snidell at North Bay. Miss Snidell is alleged to have been aware of Boyd's previous marriage, and an elopement was planned, the couple going to Toronto, where they were married on June 13th.

THE MIDWINTER FAIR.

Choicest Collection of Live Stock and Poultry Ever Exhibited in Canada.

Guelph, Dec. 10.—The doors of the big Winter Fair Building were swung open to the public this morning at 8 o'clock, when can be seen the largest and choicest collection of live stock and poultry ever exhibited in Canada. Yesterday afternoon it was a busy place; the stock was rapidly being placed in position, and by night the entire building was well filled. The stock entry list last year numbered 883, while this year the number exceeds 1,200. The management have everything in first-class shape, and the accommodation is far more ample and satisfactory than heretofore. Already a large number of stockmen have arrived, some from distant parts, and in point of magnitude the Fair is expected in every particular to surpass anything of the kind previously attempted.

The program for to-day includes lectures at the Ontario Agricultural College, and judging of live stock at the Winter Fair. All live stock is to be in at 1 o'clock. At 2 o'clock the Experimental Union meets at the O.A.C., and at 8 o'clock the judging of cattle, sheep and bacon hogs will begin at the Fair. Lord Minto, the Governor-General, will arrive at the C.P.R. station at 5.40 o'clock.

At 6.45 in the evening the Experimental Union will banquet at the O. A. C. At 7.30 the Canadian Barred Plymouth Rock Club meets in the Council Chamber, and at 8.30 lectures on bacon hogs will be given at the Fair.

WHY NOT INVESTIGATE?

While we claim to have the most complete dispensing department, the best assorted stock of pure drugs and medicines, as well as superior facilities for serving our patrons, we ask you to favour us with a visit in order that you may fully investigate for yourself.

Great results from one bottle.

One bottle of that marvellous medicine, Paine's Celery Compound is often sufficient to banish the seeds of dangerous diseases, to cleanse the system and establish good health. Paine's Celery Compound is the true medicine for the cure of Bright's disease, Diabetes, Blood diseases and Stomach troubles. We have always the genuine Paine's Celery Compound in stock. Ban Against Jewish Pupils.

St. Petersburg, Dec. 9.—The Minister of Public Instruction, Gen. Vannovski, has ordered the universities, the technical, high, secondary and elementary schools to restrict the number of Jewish pupils to a certain percentage. In the case of the Moscow University, this has been fixed at 2 per cent. In Odessa University, where the number of Jewish students is very high, no more will be accepted until that number has decreased to the new legal level.

Sister of Hugh Miller.

Galt, Dec. 9.—A sister of the great Scottish geologist, Hugh Miller, died at 1 o'clock yesterday in the person of Mrs. Robert Williamson, at the residence of her son Hugh Miller Williamson, East River road. She had been ill three weeks, and was aged 76 years. The deceased was born at Cromarty, in Scotland.

Committed for Trial.

London, Dec. 9.—The Graham-Kilbourne case was continued at the Police Court Saturday morning. After the medical evidence and that of the nurses, the prisoners were committed for trial at the Winter Assizes.

Away Down in Mexico.

there grow two plants known and used before Columbus discovered America. One is a specific for inflamed membranes and the other a certain cure for bronchitis. Combined with Tar, Tamarac, Tolu and other herbs they go to make up Four T's, the only positive cure known to-day for whooping cough and bronchitis. A 25c bottle cures an ordinary cough in 24 hours. Sold at Ormond & Walsh's drug store.

Like Diluted Brandy.

Montreal, Dec. 10.— City Analyst Hersey has made an analysis of the Toronto made liquor sweet chocolates, seized by the police a few days ago in a candy store on suspicion that they contained brandy. He reports that the chocolates contain 3.08 per cent. of absolute alcohol by volume and, as brandy contains an average of 50 per cent. of absolute alcohol by volume, the liquid in the chocolate drops contained 2 per cent. of alcoholic liquor, equivalent to diluted brandy.

Against Annexation.

London, Dec. 10.—There is an interview in yesterday's Daily Chronicle with Mr. N. A. Belcourt, M. P. for Ottawa, in which that gentleman, referring to recent United States despatches, said: "No man of any standing in Canada favors annexation to the United States, and certainly not French-Canadians."

MONTREAL LIVE STOCK.

Montreal, Dec. 9.—There were about 600 head of cattle, 50 calves and 600 sheep and lambs offered for sale at the East End Abattoir to-day. There was a large attendance of the butchers, and an active demand for anything good in the best line, but there were no really good fat cattle on the market to-day. Medium cattle sold at from 3½c to 4c per lb., and a few prime animals were sold at the stockyard this morning at 4¼c per lb. The common stock sold at from 2c to 3c per lb., and a considerable number of them will not be sold to-day. Canners paid from 1½c to 2c per lb. for small bulls and lean cows. There was an active demand and pretty high prices were paid for anything good in the veal line, but the "scobs" brings low figures. Calves were made at from $2 to $15 each. Sheep sold at from 2½c to 3c per lb., and the lambs at from 3½c to near 4c per lb. Fat hogs are advancing in price, and sold at about 6¼c per lb. for good straight lots, weighed off the cars.

ANTHONY TROLLOPE.

Miseries and Irritations Incident Upon His Start In Life.

Anthony Trollope's start in life was unpromising. As he knew no languages, ancient or modern, he became classical usher at a school in Brussels, with the promise of a commission in the Austrian army. Then he was suddenly transferred to a clerkship in the London postoffice. He was disqualified for the new position by general ignorance and special incapacity for the simplest arithmetic. A vague threat that he must pass an examination was forgotten before it was put into execution, and Trollope characteristically takes occasion to denounce the system of competitive examination by which he would have been excluded. Meanwhile he was turned loose in London and attempted to live like a gentleman on £90 a year. The results are indicated by a couple of anecdotes.

A money lender once advanced him £4, for which, first and last, he paid £200. This person, he says, became so much attached to him as to pay a daily visit to his office and exhort him to be punctual. "These visits were very terrible and can hardly have been of service to me in the office." This mild remark applies also to the visits from the mother of a young woman in the country who had fallen in love with him and to whom he "lacked the pluck to give a decided negative." The mother used to appear with a basket on her arm and an immense bonnet upon her head and inquire in a loud voice before all his companions, "Anthony Trollope, when are you going to marry my daughter?"

No wonder that he was miserable. He was hopelessly in debt and often unable to pay for a dinner. He hated his work, he says, and he hated his idleness; he quarreled with his superiors, who thought him hopelessly incapable and felt that he was sinking "to the lowest pits." At last he heard of a place in the Irish postoffice which everybody despised and was successful on applying for it, because his masters were glad to get rid of him. At the same time they informed his new superior that he would probably have to be dismissed on the first opportunity.

Nature's Destiny In Niagara Falls.

The waterfall at Niagara opened an economic drama by damming up the main waterway of the northern states. But for the unnavigable rapids and whirlpool of the Niagara and but for the falls Governor Clinton would doubtless have ended his ditch digging originally planned to connect New York city with the fur yielding red man's lands of the upper lakes at Oswego and saved a hundred miles and more of costly construction. In that case Oswego and not Buffalo would have become the sixth commercial city in the world. But the falls were long of vision, they had set their hearts on larger things than even DeWitt Clinton dared fancy; they foresaw the growth of the west and resolved upon mining for their own purpose the swollen bulk of traffic which must soon be tided eastward. Shrewd strategy, was it not?

On and Off.

When Lionel Barrymore, son of Maurice Barrymore, first went on the stage, he got a very small part in a play. He was greatly disappointed, of course, but was glad to be there at all. Speaking of his appearance to a friend the next day, the friend said:

"Why, I saw the play, but I didn't see you."

"You must have winked," replied Lionel.

The great majority of artificial eyes are used by workmen, especially by those in iron foundries, where many eyes are put out by sparks. It is seldom that a woman has a glass eye.

Doctors Order It.

Doctors see at once the advantage of taking a medicine right to the part that is sick. You see the doctor orders his own medicines for the disease, and has his patient use Vapo Cresolene at the same time. It destroys all germs of diphtheria, scarlet fever, measles, and other contagious diseases; and there is no remedy its equal for croup, sore throat and hard colds. You now see why it often cures whooping-cough in a few days. 15

Vapo-Cresolene is sold by druggists everywhere. A Vapo-Cresolene outfit, including the Vaporizer and Lamp, which should last a life-time, and a bottle of Cresolene, complete, $1.50; extra supplies of Cresolene 25 cents and 50 cents. Illustrated booklet containing physicians' testimonials free upon request. Vapo-Cresolene Co., 180 Fulton St., New York, U.S.A.

Recommended and sold in Peterborough by H. H. Ednison, druggist.

A POTATO ANALYZED

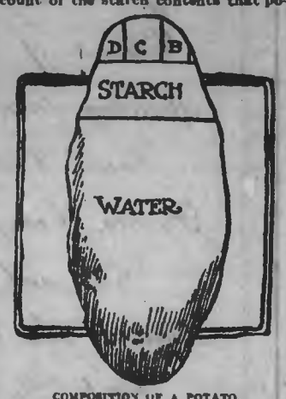
THE MUCH-USED TUBER IS A SOURCE OF MUSCULAR ENERGY.

A Diagram Which Illustrates Graphically the Composition of the Ordinary Potato—Its Constituents Do Not Serve to Repair Bodily Tissue—A Table Showing Its True Food Value.

The accompanying diagram, which illustrates graphically the composition of the ordinary potato, has been prepared for the Department of Agriculture and appears in one of its recent publications. We quote the following description:

"The popularity of the potato as a foodstuff is well founded, and is due to its prolific yield, superior keeping qualities, ease of propagation, and agreeable flavor. It was introduced into America at the time of Raleigh's voyages to Virginia, and has steadily increased in popularity ever since.

"Every school child is aware that potatoes are classed as starch foods, and that their bulk is made up largely of water . . . . It is chiefly on account of the starch contents that potatoes are eaten, and while they are apparently not economical foods, owing to the large proportion of water which they contain, this is not actually the case. In other foods, for instance, rice, there is four times as much nourishment as in an equal weight of potatoes, but then water or milk is added to the rice in preparing it for the table, so that when ready to be eaten it very much resembles potatoes in the assimilable proportion, bulk for bulk. Equal weights of the two foods do not cost as much in each case.



COMPOSITION OF A POTATO.
A, fat; B, crude fibre and other carbohydrates, exclusive of starch; C, protein; D, ash.

"Being chiefly starch, the potato is valuable as a source of muscular energy and does not serve to build or repair the body tissue, except in a very small degree. This explains why potatoes are generally served with foods rich in tissue-making properties, such as meats, and why it is that large numbers of the country population of Ireland and Germany are so poorly nourished. Potatoes alone are a very one-sided diet.

"The accompanying table shows at a glance how the potato is proportioned as regards its food value:

	Per cent.
Water	75.2
Starch, or energy-producing material	18.4
Nitrogens, or tissue-producing material	2.2
Fats	.01
Mineral matter, chiefly potash salts	1.00

"It is often asserted that the potato is unwholesome, but there is no scientific basis for it. Eaten alone potatoes, of course, would form a very badly-balanced diet. As a matter of fact its universal popularity and consumption are evident in that it forms nearly 14 per cent. of the total food of the people, furnishing about 4 per cent. of the total proteins, or nitrogenous foods, and nearly ten per cent. of the total carbohydrates or starches.

A Big Quarter's Worth

is always found in a bottle of Polson's Nerviline, the best household liniment known. It cures rheumatism, neuralgia, toothache, headache, sick-stomach, in fact is good for everything a liniment ought to be good for. Mothers find it the safest thing to rub on their children for sore throat, cold on the chest, sprains and bruises. Never be without Polson's Nerviline. It will cure the pains and aches of the entire family and relieve a vast amount of suffering every year.

The Kitson Oil Lamp.

The Kitson oil lamp, which seems to be meeting with some favor in London, Portland Place being now lighted by means of it, uses petroleum stored in cylinders partly filled with air under 40 or 50 pounds pressure. From the cylinder a narrow bore copper pipe is carried to a vaporizing tube over the burners. When the cock is opened and the burner lighted, the oil and air which are forced by the pressure into the heated vaporizer are vaporized and are then burned as a gas for heating an ordinary incandescent mantle—like the Welsbach, for instance. The makers claim that the Kitson lamp is for equal candle power the cheapest form of illumination known.

Coronation Kisses.

"The sound of a kiss is not so loud as that of a cannon," remarked the professor at the breakfast table, "but its echo lasts a deal longer." Latterly it seems to last before it begins.

Nearly a year before his coronation King Edward announced that the ceremony of kissing by the peers would be omitted. "Imagine me compelling Devonshire to kiss me!" he is said to have exclaimed. "He would never survive the ordeal."

William IV., who objected to this part of the ceremony, submitted to it, but declared he would renounce the kingship rather than repeat the experience.

There is no surer beginning for a home than simple furnishing. In simplicity lie safety, reason and art. There is nothing finer nor higher. It is supreme.—Ladies' Home Journal.

Refreshing Sleep

COMES WHEN

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills

ARE USED.

Miss Margaret Brown, 627 Colborne St., London, Ont., says:—"My mother has been afflicted with nervousness and general debility for a long time. She suffered a great deal with insomnia, and found it almost impossible to sleep.

"I went to W. T. Strong's drug store and got a box of Milburn's Heart and Nerve pills, which she took, and derived so much benefit from them that I bought another box for her. They have done her a wonderful lot of good, making her nervous system much stronger, giving her restful sleep, and removing many other symptoms which previously distressed her.

"I can truly say that these pills are a great remedy for any one suffering from weak nerves, general debility, sleeplessness or heart trouble."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50c. a box or 3 for $1.25, at all druggists.

INDIAN PRAIRIE DOG HUNTS

The Little Animals Are Deemed a Dainty Dish by the Navajoes.

The Navajo Indian, while he cannot be prevailed upon to eat a rabbit, is greedily fond of fat prairie dogs. Large communities of these small animals abound on the western plains, and the Navajo has resorted to many ingenious methods for trapping his coveted dainty. One of them is by the aid of a bit of mirror placed at the entrance to a burrow. When the animal ventures from his bedroom, deep under ground, he sees a familiar image mocking him at the front door, and he hurries out to confront the impudent intruder, when he is pinned to the ground with an arrow.

But the most effective method is what the Indians call the rain hunt. As soon as the steady downpour of summer rains begin every Navajo who can walk repairs to the prairie dog village with hoes, sharp sticks or any digging implement. With these they hollow out trenches that will lead the storm water into as many burrows as possible. Soon a little stream is pouring down each small home, and the inmate, much disturbed, pops out to see what the matter can be. Many of the animals remain under ground until they are drowned, and their bodies float to the surface.

After such a hunt, in which many pounds of prairie dogs are generally secured, there is a feast for many days in the Navajo huts.

Eczema's Itch Is Torture.

The Most Exasperating of all Skin Diseases—The Most Difficult to Cure—Dr. Chase's Ointment Proven to be an Effective Treatment.

Eczema's itch is torture, the skin seems on fire with the burning, stinging humour; at times it becomes almost unbearable, and in desperation you could tear the skin to pieces. You dare not exercise for fear of aggravating the itching, neither can you sleep, for no sooner does the body become warm than the trouble begins and instead of restful, refreshing, sleep, it is scratch, scratch, scratch, all night long. There is scarcely a moment's respite from this maddening malady at any time. Of course, you have tried nearly all the washes, salves, lotions and medicated soaps, but, like thousands of others, have been disappointed and disgusted.

Mrs. Ann McDonald, Kingsville, Ont., states: "For about three years I was a dreadful sufferer from Eczema. At times the patches of raw, flaming flesh would extend from my waist to my neck, and from the knees to the ankles. The intense itching almost drove me crazy, and though I tried all the local physicians, they could not even relieve the suffering. The flesh would crack open, and I do not believe that anyone ever suffered more than I did.

"I was told of Dr. Chase's Ointment, but did not believe that it could help me. After the fifth application of this preparation I began to feel the benefit of its soothing, healing effects, and now attribute a cure to the persistent use of this wonderful remedy. It is truly worth its weight in gold, and I never tire of recommending it to other sufferers."

You may be skeptical regarding the ability of Dr. Chase's Ointment to cure you. Most people are, after trying in vain to get relief from a host of remedies, but Dr. Chase's Ointment will not disappoint you. You will be surprised at the marvellous control which it has over all itching, burning inflammations of the skin, and the wonderful healing powers which it possesses. It takes time to thoroughly cure Eczema, but Dr. Chase's Ointment will do it. You will find relief after a few applications, and gradually, and naturally, the cure will follow. Besides being a positive cure for Eczema, Dr. Chase's Ointment comes useful in a hundred ways in every home for every form of skin irritation and eruption, chapped skin and chilblains. 60 cents a box at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto. 7

"A handsome and useful Christmas present for your mother or grandmother is a copy of Dr. Chase's last and complete Receipt Book. Illustrated folder free."

HIS NOSE WAS SAFE.

But His Nerves Were In a State of Cold Chill Collapse.

"I was sitting on the veranda of a far western hotel one afternoon," said the Boston drummer, "and was lazily smoking one of the nicest meerschaum pipes you ever saw when out of the tail of my eye I saw that a native down at the other end of the veranda had his gun sighted at me. They were a wild lot around there, and I couldn't tell whether he meant to shoot me or the pipe. The chances were in favor of the pipe, however, and it seemed a good chance to test my nerve. I made up my mind to let him shoot and to pretend a careless air, but I'm telling you in the ten or fifteen seconds of waiting the sweat came out at every pore and my heart pounded my ribs sore. I felt a sort of tick at the bowl of the pipe, heard the crack of the gun and knew that the bullet had passed through the pipe. I got a brace with my hands and feet and waited for a second bullet, and it went through the bowl after the first. I sat there until his fourth bullet had hit the pipe and knocked the bowl off the stem, and then the shooter sauntered up to me and laughingly said:

"'Excuse me, stranger, but I thought it was imitation.'

"'Same as you are,' I replied.

"My gibe hurt him, but he was man enough to tell everybody about my nerve, and the boys chipped in sufficient nuggets to buy me this fifty dollar smoker. Say, do you know what happened to me when I made an excuse to go up stairs after my old corncob? I had no sooner got into my room than my knees gave out, chills galloped up my spine, and I'll be hanged if I didn't faint away and lie there for ten minutes. It had suddenly occurred to me that the bowl of that pipe was only six inches from my nose while the fellow was doing his shooting, and I have not yet got over touching my nasal organ now and then to see if it is safe."

Woman is as old as She Looks.

It is not age but disease, weakness and ill-health that makes women look old, care-worn and wrinkled. You cannot look your best unless you feel well, strong and vigourous with pure, rich blood and steady nerves. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food makes good looks because it makes good health, restores the healthful glow to the complexion, rounds out the form and gives elasticity to every motion of the body.

IN THE COUNTY COURT.

It Opened Before His Honour Judge Weller To-day.

The Grand Jury—The Cases That are Down for Hearing.

The County Court of the County of Peterborough and the General Sessions of the Peace opened at 1 o'clock to-day before his Honour Judge Weller. There is only one criminal case for disposal and there are four civil actions, one of which will be tried by the jury.

When His Honour entered the court room at one o'clock, the following representatives of the bar were in attendance: County Crown Attorney R. E. Wood, D. W. Dumble, R. M. Dennistoun, E. R. Hall, D. O'Connel, F. D. Kerr and George E. Sherry and W. A. F. Campbell, of Norwood.

THE GRAND JURY.

The Grand Jury was empannelled as follows:

R. W. Grubbe, banker, Peterborough, foreman; D. H. Burritt, gentleman, Peterborough; Duncan Cameron, cutter, Peterborough; Jas. W. Dawson, farmer, Monaghan; Hamilton Humphries, farmer, Dummer; Isaac Lean, farmer, Burleigh; Wm. Purdy, farmer, Belmont; Jas. Roberts, farmer, Smith; Jacob Snelgrove, farmer, Smith; R. N. Scott, farmer, Smith; Thos. Berland, farmer, Otonabee.

His Honour Judge Weller in addressing the Grand Jury said that in the choice they had seen fit to make in the selection of their foreman, he was quite satisfied that the duties would be carefully performed. The docket showed that there was not much crime apparently existing in the county, as there was only one criminal case for them to consider. There was no one confined in the gaol awaiting trial, but there was one young man who was out on bail; he was charged with perjury. Perjury, His Honour explained, was the making of a false statement, either in writing or verbally, knowing such to be false, in the hope that it may deceive some person or some court. The accused in this case is charged with making a certain statement in evidence before the Hon. Mr. Justice Falconbridge, at the recent non-jury sittings. They will have to ascertain whether he made such a statement, whether such a statement is true, but the petit jury will determine whether or not complainant knew this to be false.

His Honour also reviewed the duties which the jury might perform in the matter of visiting the public institutions.

Mr. Walden's Meetings.

The evangelistic meetings in St. Andrew's church last night, were very successful. Mr. Walden's text was Eph. v, 14, "Awake Thou that sleepest; arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light." Another meeting will be held this evening to which the public is cordially invited.

New Grocery.

Mr. John Malans, a long resident of Ashburnham, has taken over the grocery and butcher shop in the Albion Block, formerly occupied by Mr. James, and has put in a complete new and fresh stock of groceries and meats. He hopes by keeping the best of goods at prices as low as elsewhere, consistent with good stock, to merit a share of the patronage of the village and vicinity.

Court Littlejohn C. O. F.

There was an unusually large attendance at the regular meeting of Court Littlejohn, C.O.F., on Monday evening. The movement made for increasing the interest in the meetings, and for a revival of the good old times, with crowded court room, was productive of good results. Nearly sixty members responded to the urgent call of Chief Ranger Sanders, for a rallying meeting. The members seemed to be stirred by the appeal made for a more regular attendance, and everyone by a standing vote promised to be present at the Court once a month. The first nominations of officers for the ensuing term took place, after which refreshments were served in the dining hall.

A TRIP TO DAM NO. 5.

The Scene of Operations a Hive of Busy Workmen.

OPERATIONS BEING RUSHED.

The Raceway is Almost Completed, the Crib Work is Done and the Power House is Under Course of Construction.

"Dam No. 5" was a term to conjure with, politically, for a few weeks, until the Government put a quietus on adverse comment in connection with its lease, by placing the power on the market and calling for tenders for its rental.

By the appearance of the work of development at Dam No. 5, however, the term will soon become that of a conjurer more than one to be conjured with. The lease for the property was only granted on Thanksgiving day, and yet the operations have reached such a stage that from a view of the work a very fair idea can be gained of the general outlines.

The easiest approach to Dam No. 5 is by the west side of the river, the Fourth Concession Line of Smith having been extended from the Lakefield Road east to the river.

That the Otonabee Power Company is sparing no effort to get as much of the work done as possible before the steady, cold weather sets in, is apparent from the circumstance that the spot is fairly alive with men, who are engaged in constructing the long 400-foot pier used in connection with the raceway, and in excavating and deepening that portion of the river which is to be utilised for this purpose. Operation on the erection of the power house are being pushed ahead rapidly at the same time, and altogether the progress which is being made in the endeavour to supply power by the early part of the year is something marvellous.

The dam, as is well known by this time, is located just at the foot of the 4th line, where it touches the river, and was erected by the Government in connection with the Trent Valley Canal system, and will therefore of necessity have to be maintained in the interests of navigation by the Government. A raceway is in course of construction, running south from the dam and situated on the west side of the river. It is 400 feet in length and about sixty in width, being separated from the river by a cribwork which required over 2,000 cords of stone for filling. The magnitude of this character of work is difficult to realise as a large portion of it is done beneath the surface of the river and is not apparent to the casual eye.

The power house founda ns are in course of construction, and that building will extend across the race, which is now being deepened. A Government dredge has been secured and is being used in excavating the tail race, this being the cheapest and most expeditious manner of doing the work.

It is satisfactory to note that the manufacturers of the town appreciating the great benefit to be derived from the acquirement of cheap power have already contracted for the major portion of the 1,500 horse power which is being developed. In this connection it might be stated that while 1,500 horse power will be available in the very near future, preparations are already under way to increase the horse power to 2,000 as soon as necessity demands the increase.

It would appear that wherever possible every department of the work is being carried on simultaneously, as while the operations are in full swing at the power house, another big gang of men has been engaged in placing the poles in position which are to be used for the transmission of the power, and they now stretch along the railway track all the way in to the northern boundary of the town, arrangements being already completed for a switch at Nassau, where the Canadian General Electric Co's power can be utilized at any time in case of an accident, and the latter company can also be accommodated in the same manner by the Otonabee Power Co., should assistance be needed.

The amount of work which is being furnished to the artisans and mechanics of Peterborough by the construction of the Otonabee Power Company, cannot be measured by the work which is being done at Dam No. 5, as account must be taken of the fact that the company has placed an order with the William Hamilton Mfg. Co. for hydraulic machinery to the amount of $15,000, and an order with the Canadian General Electric Company for $40,000 worth of electric machinery. As will be observed, home industries have been patronized in the case of both these large orders.

The immense possibilities of electricity are only beginning to be realized, and as the new inventions are utilized whereby the electric fluid is utilized for cooking and heating purposes, the Otonabee Power Company will evidently not have a particle of power at its command of which disposition cannot be made. The recent patent of Edison's new storage battery, also opens up an enormous field for the profitable use of electricity as a propelling power for horseless carriages, delivery wagons, and other freight carrying vehicles, and as a medium which will supersede the trolley in connection with street car systems.

To any having a spare hour or so at their disposal, the time cannot be spent in a more profitable or interesting manner than by a visit to Dam No. 5.

THEY WANT TO GO

On the Canadian Yeomanry to Fight the Boers in South Africa.

The recruiting for the Canadian Yeomanry has been in progress in Peterborough since yesterday afternoon before Col. Lessard, R. C. D., and Surgeon-Major Young, 3rd Prince of Wales Canadian Dragoons. There have been about 45 applicants put through a very rigid examination and of course only the best of these will be taken. The list of the 12 man who will go from Peterborough will be made known to-night. It would have been possible to take on 25 fully qualified men from Peterborough if necessary. It is surprising too, to learn of the number of former South African men who desire to return to the scene of operations.

LONG SERVICE MEDALS.

Seven Officers of the 57th to Receive Them Shortly.

Any officer, non-commissioned officer or man, of the 57th Batt., or any other regiment, who has been a member of the Canadian militia for 20 years, should send in his application to the officer commanding the corp with which he was last identified. It is not necessary for the applicant for a long service medal to be a member of any one corps for the 20 years, but provided he has been a member of the service for the specified length of time, he has fully qualified in this regard.

Amongst the officers and ex-officers of the 57th who will receive their medals will be the following: Lieut. Col. J. Z. Rogers, Lieut.-Col. H. C. Rogers, Lieut.-Col. R. W. Bell, Lieut.-Col. E. B. Edwards, Major Miller, Major Langford and Major Grover of Norwood.

AN ACCIDENT.

A Workman Fell From the Roof of a Building This Morning.

A workman named Batiste, who is employed by W. E. Dillon, of Toronto, who has the contract of roofing the transformer building of the Canadian General Electric Co., met with an accident this morning that will lay him off work for some time. Mr. Batiste fell from the roof, breaking the ankle of his right foot. He was attended by Dr. Carmichael, and removed to the Nicholls Hospital.

KINDLY REMEMBERED US.

The Examiner to-day received from Mr. John Bickell, now of Conway, Washington, a neat little package of roses and marguerites, accompanied by the following note:

Conway, Washington, Dec. 8.

Gentlemen, — I am pleased to enclose you some roses and marguerites gathered from the open garden to-day. Mrs Bickell and myself are now in the best of health, and are enjoying the land of sunshine and flowers splendidly. A well wisher of the Examiner.

JOHN BICKELL.

Mr. and Mrs. Bickell's Peterborough friends will be pleased to know that they are enjoying the best of health.

"BOATS OF THE BIBLE,"

Was the Subject at the Regular League Meeting Last Night.

The subject under consideration at the regular literary meeting of the George street Epworth League last evening, was "Boats of the Bible," the address being given by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Wilson.

Rev. Mr. Wilson, in a very interesting manner, took up the different boats mentioned in the Bible, with special reference to the Deluge, and the ark built by Noah.

The Misses Hill were listened to in a very pleasing vocal duet, and the League Male Quartette gave a selection in their usual good style.

The members of the society are reminded of the concert to be given by the League next Monday evening. Full practice of the dialogues and drill will be held this evening, and it is hoped that all those taking part will be present.

Miss Delaney's Holiday Sale.

Next to the littleness of prices, the best news of this sale is the superior qualities and refined taste in millinery and other dress needs. Everything is charmingly new — you see the sparkle of fashion everywhere. New styles, new patterns, new ideas — in fact a wealth of seasonable novelties. The best that Europe and America can produce has not been considered too good for this important holiday sale. Exquisitely trimmed hats, as well as quiet gentlewomen's hats, fashionable veilings, pretty fancy collars, novelties in neckwear, new conceits in belts, etc. Untrimmed hats, ready for the finishing touches, which many a lady prides herself on doing herself. Also many new things which fancy dictates in evening wear, and for Christmas gifts.

MISS DELANEY.

THE ODDFELLOWS WERE "AT HOME."

Nineteenth Anniversary of Otonabee Lodge No. 13.

ENTERTAINING PROGRAMME.

Major Miller was in the Chair—Refreshments Were Served and an Informal Hop Afterwards.

The nineteenth anniversary of the resuscitation of Otonabee Lodge, No. 13, Independent Order of Oddfellows, was observed last evening by a very pleasing entertainment in the lodge rooms, which took the form of an "At Home." The adoption of a regulation whereby each member was invited to issue cards to two guests, prevented the rooms from being overcrowded, as on former occasions, and proved to be a most satisfactory arrangement.

The chair was occupied by Major Miller, Past Grand, and in his usual hearty manner he extended a most cordial welcome to the guests of the evening. In the course of a few introductory remarks, he drew attention to the home which is being erected by the Oddfellows as a retreat for aged members and for the care of the orphans of deceased members, giving a brief outline of the benefit which would be derived from the establishment of such an institution by the Order.

The first number on the programme was a vocal solo, "Out on the Deep," by Mr. Milne, whose exceptionally pleasing voice was heard for the first time by many of those present. Miss Aggie Patterson gave a number of recitations during the evening, which were received in a manner quite complimentary to this bright little elocutionist, who is evidently fulfilling the promise which she gave when younger of doing some very clever work.

Mr. Crane's male quartette, composed of Messrs. John Crane, Robt. Mein, Harry Milne and James Dawson, was very popular with the audience and the humourous numbers which they gave fairly brought down the house. A flute solo by Mr. Ernie Hodgson was most capably given, as was Miss Clara Bellegham's vocal solo "He is Coming Home To-day," which was sung in most sweet voice. Mr. C. N. Brown read the story about O'Rourke's pup, in Irish dialect, which called forth rounds of applause, but Mr. Brown could not be persuaded to give a repeat number. Mr. Gilbert Scott's number consisted of one of his characteristically ludicious selections, which was given in his usual happy style. Mr. Sorsoliel was listened to with rapt attention as he related the adventures of Mr. Midrib in his attempt to try a bee-sting as a remedy for the rheumatism. Mr. Sorsoliel knows how to tell a story well and he excelled himself last night. The Canadian General Glee Club gave one of the most popular numbers on the programme and of course had to respond to an encore. The Club is trained by Mr. G. W. Mulligan and is thirty-five strong.

At the conclusion of this portion of the programme refreshments were served and an informal hop took place afterwards at which the music was furnished by the Misses Hurley.

THE STONY LAKE COTTAGERS

Hold a Special General Meeting Last Night

And Discussed Various Matters of Interest—Mr. J. W. Flavelle's Letter to Lieut.-Col. Edwards.

A special general meeting of the Stony Lake Cottagers' Association was held in the Board Room of the Central Canada Loan and Savings Co., George street, last night.

Amongst those in attendance were B. Shortly, Pres., R. F. McWilliams, Secretary-Treasurer; J. J. McBain, Geo. Cochrane, T. W. Robinson, E. B. Edwards, A. C. McCallum, W. G. Morrow, T. M. D. Croly and others.

The chairman announced the object of the meeting, which was not the annual meeting, but it was called for the purpose of discussing several matters of importance, that demanded urgent attention. The annual meeting would be held sometime in March.

The treasurer, Mr. R. F. McWilliams, gave a minute account of the finances of the Association. There had been $33.75 collected as fees, outside of that which had been collected for the regatta. The church collections amounted to $61.36, making a total of $103.11. Then there was 36 cents interest from money which was in the bank to the credit of the Association. Against this there was an outlay for advertising, rent of pavilion, payment on wharf, and $19, the amount that was expended in placing fish from the Ontario Hatchery, in all amounting to $63.25, leaving a balance of $42.22. The Regatta Committee collected $51 from the cottagers and campers, and the expenses including Mr. Piper's railroad expenses from Toronto to a meeting of the Association amounted to $52.60, leaving a small indebtedness.

The finances were summed up in this manner,—There was on hand a balance of $42.22 in the hands of the treasurer. This $42.22 was the amount of the church service collections and according to a resolution on the books of the Association, the church collections were to go to the Children's Aid Society of the County of Peterborough after paying all necessary expenses in connection with the church and the church services.

The question which then arose, and which as a matter of fact the Association had been called together to consider was, whether this $42.22 could be devoted to the paying off of the amount owing on the construction of the new wharf that was built at Juniper Island last summer. The balance of $42.00 came, in this manner. At the annual meeting of the Association last spring it was decided that a wharf was necessary for canoeists at Juniper, and $15 was appropriated for the construction of the same, with Messrs. B. Shortly, and J. J. McBain, as a committee to look after the construction of the wharf in conjunction with Mr. Robinson, who agreed to give $10 towards the fund. It was found later that $25 would only go a small way towards defraying the cost of a wharf such as was needed, and Mr. Robinson, thinking that the money would be forthcoming from the Association, incurred an additional expenditure of $42, which is owing the Dickson Company.

Messrs. J. J. McBain and George Cochrane contended that the money on hand had been collected for a certain purpose, viz., for the Children's Aid Society, and in devoting it to the payment of the wharf they were misappropriating it and deceiving the public.

The question then arose, Was the wharf a necessity for church services and was its construction for the purpose of accommodating those who came to Juniper to attend service? If so, the money might justly be applied to the outstanding account.

After a great deal of discussion the Association assumed the debt, but decided that the same must stand until other funds are raised, and the church service money shall be given to the Children's Aid Society.

The wharf, it may be stated, is a most substantial structure, and no one objects to it having been built.

MR. FLAVELLE'S LETTER.

Lieut.-Col. E. B. Edwards said that he had received the following letter from Mr. J. W. Flavelle, of Toronto:

Toronto, Sept. 12, 1901.

Mr. E. B. Edwards,
Peterborough, Ont.—

Dear Sir, — In passing through Stony Lake a few weeks ago on the house-boat I was very much struck with the healthy condtion of the young pine trees on the various islands. My last visit to the lake was fourteen years ago. The improvement in the young timber since then is very marked, and brought forcibly before me the excellent results secured through the care that the various cottagers are exercising to save the trees on their islands. Do you not think that the Association should go a step further and arrange with the cottagers to have young pines planted in the low dips on their islands as well as to have attention given to planting on the odd bare islands which are not occupied by anyone? It would doubtless mean some trouble and a good deal of disappointment, but the results, if even fairly satisfactory, would be so good that I think it would repay the effort.

I am sure that you will not think I am intruding in making this suggestion. I can never forget my obligation to Stony Lake, and the other Kawartha Lakes, for the summers I spent on them in my boyhood, and growing young manhood. I have therefore a sense of pride and satisfaction in seeing the improvemnets particularly noticeable in Stony Lake.

If at any time any such movement were to be undertaken and it was decided to ask for subscriptions from the various cottagers and others who are interested in Stony Lake, I would be glad if you would remember me, and give me an opportunity of joining in the fund.

Yours very truly.
J. W. FLAVELLE.

Those present expressed their pleasure at the interest Mr. Flavelle displayed in the Kawartha Lakes. It was a move in the right direction, and there was no doubt but that the lakes could be improved in this particular line.

Mr. Edwards moved, seconded by Mr. McBain, that the Association recognizes the interest Mr. Flavelle has taken in the matter.

Mr. John Crane was appointed auditor, and the meeting then adjourned.

BEET ROOT SUGAR MANUFACTURING.

What a Factory Means to a Community.

THE PROCESS DESCRIBED

From Beets to Crystallized Sugar in 15 Hours—What Beets Have Done for Michigan.

In a former issue the Examiner gave considerable information regarding the profits of raising sugar beets; and below is given some interesting details regarding sugar beet factories, and the mode of manufacture of beet root sugar:—

"Few people understand what a 600-ton sugar factory means to a community.

It means the expenditure of $600,000 in the erection of a plant; the annual expenditure of $25,000 for machinery and repairs; the payment of $30,000 to railroads each season for freights; the yearly manufacture of 12,000,000 pounds of granulated sugar; the production of by-products which will winter 8,000 head of cattle; fostering the dairy industry; putting into local circulation $600,000 each year; good returns on $600,000 invested capital; the employment of 350 men at the factory during four months of the year; the employment of the factory hands and 1,000 more men and boys during six other months in raising beets; the use of every work team within a radius of twenty miles of the factory; an opportunity for every man and boy within the same radius to find work at good wages; better roads throughout the country; the yearly consumption of 24,000 tons of coal, 6,000 tons of limestone and 5,000 tons of coke; the local manufacture of 5,000 barrels per year; the payment of $300,000 to farmers each year for beets; the cultivation of the best paying crop a farmer can raise; improving the methods of agriculture; advancing the price of available farm property from ten to twenty dollars per acre; doubling the rental value of such property; erecting better farm buildings; paying mortgages; increasing bank deposits; giving to the entire country the buoyancy of hope, the pleasure of success, the assurance of prosperity."—Beet Sugar Gazette.

WHY THE PLANT IS COSTLY.

Of late we have heard a good deal about beet-sugar factories, and the one thing more than any other which has struck the most of us has been the immense cost of the plant. From half a million to $800,000 that it costs to build and equip a factory seems a vast sum to spend for the carrying out of a simple process. No one, however, who has seen one of these factories will wonder at their costliness. They are immense structures of brick, with steel framework and cement floors, scarcely any wood being used in their construction. The costly vats and evaporating pans, diffusion cells, carriers, driers, ect., are all on a gigantic scale.

HOW SUGAR IS MADE.

There are three main divisions in a sugar factory: the beet sheds, the factory proper, and the lime kiln. In some cases there is a fourth—a cooper shop, where the sugar barrels are made. Usually each of these divisions is in a separate building. A beet shed is a long, low building with several driveways, on either side of which unloading can be done, besides one or two tracks for cars. When empty, 80 or more team-loads can be unloaded at once. Capacity, 10,000 tons and upwards. The beets are floated from the sheds to the factory by water running in narrow sluiceways. They are then washed in warm water by machinery, elevated to the top floor, automatically weighed and dumped into the shredder.

The shreds are about the size of a large straw. They are conveyed to the diffusion battery, a long row of steel cylinders, where 95 per cent. of the beet juice is washed out by the forcing of warm water through the shredded beets. The liquid is then mixed with lime, and carbonic acid gas passed through it. By this means the impurities present are rendered insoluble and are extracted by filtering. After being treated with sulpher fumes to further purify and bleach it, the liquid is boiled down. This is done in vacuum pans, the heat being applied by steam pipes passing through. Upon leaving the last vacuum pan, the mass, partially crystallized, is passed to the crystallizers, where the process is completed as far as possible. The sugar and molasses are separated in the centrifugals. These resemble immense cream separators, except that the walls of the bowl are of fine wire gauze hooped with perforated steel, through which the molasses flies, leaving the sugar inside. The sugar is then dried and barreled. In 15 hours from the time the beets enter the factory the sugar drops.

THE AUXILIARY MATERIALS REQUIRED.

The lime kiln needs no description. When asked why they did not buy lime already burned, the answer was that they not only wanted lime fresh, but it must be burned in a special way. At Bay City the limestone used is brought from a distance by train, as only limestone of a certain purity will answer.

A 1,000-ton beet-sugar factory requires each day over five million gallons of water, and in a season of 150 days, 22,000 tons of coal, 2,500 tons of coke, and 9,000 tons of limestone. The working season, called the campaign, begins about the middle of October, and except for two or three stops to clean up, or a break, continues night and day, Saturday and Sunday, for 100 to 150 days. The daily output is about 800 barrels of refined sugar. No other kind is sent out. In working over molasses, brown sugar results, which is again refined to the desired grade.

VALUE OF BY-PRODUCTS.

The waste products hitherto have been pulp and molasses. The pulp has been allowed to accumulate and rot; the molasses run into the river.

This waste will not long continue, however. One factory-owner said that in a few years' time they expected to make enough out of their waste to run the factory. When asked why the farmers did not haul away the pulp for stock food, he said: "Because they're no good. That's why." A milkman near Bay City, who keeps 15 cows, uses it regularly. He gives to each cow about three bushels per day, and finds that it saves his hay, increases his milk yield and has no bad results. The molasses, a certain remainder of which it has been found impossible to crystallize, is now being bought up by a firm which is building a large factory for the manufacture of alcohol from this by fermentation and distillation.

THE INDUSTRY IN MICHIGAN.

Four years ago the first beet-sugar factory in Michigan was built; now there are 13 in operation, four more contracted for, and several projected. The first factories had a capacity of 250 to 450 tons of beets per day, now there are none less than 600 and most of 800 tons capacity. There was considerable trouble and several months delay before the capital for the first factory—which was built in Bay City—was secured. Amounts of $1,000 and even less were accepted. When the second factory—also in Bay City—was projected, capital $500,000, a million dollars was offered in one evening. — Farmer's Advocate.

PERSONALS.

Miss Margaret Cox has returned from Toronto.

Mr. W. A. Stratton, K.C., is east on a business trip.

Dr. Andrew Scott, who has been in Toronto for the last few days, returned this morning.

Mr. James Byrne, who has been visiting in the vicinity of Sudbury and Nairn Centre during the past five weeks, has returned home with a renewed lease of life. He spent most of his time in the extensive Hall timber limits, as well as in the mineral districts, and while recruiting his health, gleaned much interesting information respecting these great Ontario resources.

MISSION AT ST. LUKE'S.

The Services Which Rev. Arthur Murphy is Conducting Prove Most Interesting.

The Mission services were continued yesterday. A prayer meeting was held in the Vestry at 12.30, and at 4.15 a children's service in the Sunday School. About 100 children were present, who listened with much interest and attention to Mr. Murphy's forceful address on Song of Solomon ii;15. The subject was "Sin," and it was illustrated by the text, comparing "sin" with "foxes," small and great, destroying the lives of the children.

In the evening the Evangelistic service was held, which was preceded by a service of song. Rev. Arthur Murphy took for his text Judges 16; 4, "And it came to pass afterwards that he loved a woman in the valley of Sorek, whose name was Delilah." "It has been said," Mr. Murphy "that the sweetest names that we have in the English language are 'Home,' 'Mother,' 'Jesus.' But the most awful word that any language can have is 'Sin.' There is in it the hiss of the flame, and the hiss of a serpent. One would not tell the truth if one would say, there was no pleasure in sin. Indeed there is, but it is a distructive pleasure. Samson was fascinated by the beauty of Delilah, there was a great pleasure in being loved by her, but he was made helpless by her, and she became his curse. He was a mighty man, a strong man. He took the gates of Gaza, on one occasion, took the doors and the posts of the city and carried them seven miles to Hebron. On another occasion he tore the ropes with which he had been bound, and tore them like threads. Again, when his hair had been fastened to the web, he carried away the pin of the beam and the web. But notwithstanding all his strength, he became powerless in the hands of Delilah.

"Sin is of the same characteristic. A man will lose all his strength, all his energy, because of sin.

"Sin is deceptive. Samson loved Delilah, but she did not love him. All the time, in spite of her appearent affection she deceived him. So is sin. It appears to be attractive, but it brings in the end death.

"Sin is blinding. Samson was blind to all the attempts of Delilah to ruin him. Though the Philistines, his enemies, were waiting to over-power him, the fascination of that wicked woman had made him blind. Blinding people is the great characteristic of sin; it lulls a man into sleep; it makes man unconscious of the danger he is in. No unsaved person would go to sleep, but would rather walk the floor all night and wrestle for salvation, were it not for the devil who has blinded the people's eyes. (ii. Cor. iv.;4.)

"Sin is degrading. It was so with Samson. He had been the Judge of Israel for twenty years, people looked up to him and were attracted by his strength, and splendid physique. But this same man, through sin, had become the laughing stock of his enemies, they made sport of him.

"This sin is not local but universal. 'All have sinned.' No one is exempted. Every one is contaminated with it. But this sad fact of the evil propensities of all, and the condemnation that awaits the unforgiven sinner, is made bright and hopeful by the immediate and accessible remedy that God has provided for all in Christ Jesus. 'His Blood cleanseth from all sin.'"

To-night Mr. Murphy will speak on "The Grace of God." Service begins at 7.45.

Gymnastic exhibition Y. M. C. A., Tuesday, December 10, 7.45 p.m. Tickets 15c, 2 for 25c. Proceeds in aid of Young Men's Fund for Y.W.C.A.

A WISH.

So let me brave an end
Whose gist in the world has been dreamed out and done—
One that hath fairly earned and spent,
In pride of heart and jubilance of blood,
Each wage, be day counted bad or good,
As Time, the old taskmaster, was moved to pay.
And having warred and suffered and passed on Those gifts the arbiters preserved and gave,
Pure, grateful and content,
Down the dim way,
Whereby more immemorable have gone
Into the silent universe of the grave.

Grateful for what hath been,
For what my hand hath done, mine eyes have seen,
My heart been privileged to know;
With all my lips in love have brought
To lips that yearned in love to them and wrought
In the way of wrath and pity and sport and song—
Content, this miracle of being dive
Dwindling, that I, thrice weary of worst and best,
May shed my dole and go
From right and wrong
And, ceasing to regret and long and strive,
Accept the past and be forever at rest.
—W. E. Henley in North American Review.

THE OLD BLUE JAR

Before Clementine went down to Milltown for the summer she made up her mind that she would bend all her energies to wheedle Aunt Phœbe out of the old blue ginger jar that Uncle Julius had brought home from China, little thinking that the old slant eyed, fat sided mandarin would take such a jocular interest in her joys and sorrows.

The old blue jar had perched for many years on the corner of the high mantelpiece in the old fashioned country parlor, and Aunt Phœbe knew that if she gave it to Clementine she would have a dreadfully lonesome feeling every time she stood on a chair to dust the old clock, the shells, the peddler vases, the leather fans and other companions of its lofty abode. But Clementine was an accomplished wheedler, and the fond old aunt finally said she might have her wish.

When Aunt Phœbe gave over to Clementine her right and title to the old blue jar, Randall was leaning in the window and idly sifting rose leaves from the old climbing vine through the meshes of his tennis racket. He sympathized with her lively admiration for the antique and unique in china and was glad that she had attained her heart's desire, but a more absorbing interest possessed his manly breast.

Clementine was going home in the morning, and he had been trying in vain for several days to get the feeble courage of his ardent convictions up to the declarative point. She was such a lively, fun loving girl, and love, you know, is such intensely serious business. Several times Randall fancied he had found her in a sober and properly receptive frame of mind, when with a trifling jest she would defeat his intention and put the little god to flight.

Now, however, when the slant eyed mandarin on the blue jar winked at him through the vines, Randall said to himself enthusiastically:

"Well, old boy, that's the very thing! Thank you for the bright idea! Are they all as clever as you are over in China?"

That night, in his room under the eaves, he constructed an eloquent letter to Clementine and in the early morning sneaked into the parlor and deposited it in the robust bosom of the old blue mandarin.

"If she finds it before she goes home, it is all right," said the timorous, adoring fellow, "and if she doesn't find it until afterward it will be all right too."

But the mandarin felt a little funny that day, so when Clementine packed her trunk he inspired her to stuff the ginger jar full of her silken hose, that the precious article might take no risks of breakage in its voyage. So when Randall parted from her at the station she made no sign of knowing anything in particular, and his hopeful heart decided that she would surely find the letter when she reached home, and he would then hear from her.

Now, Clementine was a girl who always had a great many things on her mind, and when she had unpacked the treasured jar and placed it on a dainty table in her pretty parlor—with a self congratulatory thought that it was so respectable to have things that one's relative had brought from China—she wholly forgot the curious load that the mandarin had on his breast. She missed her silken hose, of course, and pestered Aunt Phœbe with messages about them.

In Milltown, as you may imagine, Randall waited for the answer to his letter. Awhile he waited patiently, then impatiently awhile, and then dived into his law books with that "composure of settled distress" which lovers have known in every age and clime. He did not dream that the slant eyed mardarin would be guilty of the ungentlemanly trick of intercepting a love letter.

But the fun loving mandarin knew what he was about. He was not without experience in these matters, and he wanted to punish Clementine a trifle and bring her to the proper condition of seriousness.

And Clementine was feeling the situation with all the sobriety that was desirable. She had suspected all summer that Randall had a tender feeling for her which she felt qualified to reciprocate, but she was a proud girl and could not by a feather's weight influence the balance of his attentions. Therefore behind her smiles she had been not a little wounded that he had allowed her to come home without having given expression to his sentiments.

So she, too, now took on a sober countenance and banished thought and regret by joining several new clubs and taking membership in two or three more charitable organizations.

Just before Christmas Randall one day experienced in his breast a sort of imperative intimation—perhaps direct from the slant eyed mandarin, who knows?—that he might hear of something to his advantage if he should go down to the city and call upon Clementine; so after some futile resistance to the message he betook himself thither.

He was graciously received by Clementine—that is, graciously enough for a young man who had played the trifler with her invisible affections—and he seated himself in a cozy chair near the pretty table which held his old friend—the blue jar.

As he talked with Clementine, a little constraint being apparent on both sides, he toyed with the lid of the jar, and the slant eyed mandarin appeared to wink at him three times very knowingly.

Under some occult but imperative pressure Randall removed the lid and touched with his finger the silken texture of some mysterious contents.

Curiosity further constrained him, and he pulled from the bosom of the now jubilant mandarin a pale blue article of singular description for a parlor ornament, and, following it, he extricated a pale pink strip of similar shape and structure.

Turning to Clementine for explanation of these unforeseen apparitions, he found her speechless with wild eyed astonishment, and without a word or gesture she seized the old blue jar and hurried from the room.

Randall smiled the first real, soul felt, refreshing smile that he had indulged in for several months and vowed by the pigtail of the old slant eyed that he would stay rooted to the spot until Clementine returned.

What she said to the genius of the jar as she flew up stairs with it only the mandarin can reveal.

As Randall paced the parlor, pulling his mustache and wondering if Clementine's keen sense of humor would carry her safely through the trying hour, she came shamefacedly into the room, bearing in one hand the blinking old mandarin and in the other the pleading letter he had borne so long hid in his clever old bosom.

Randall met the dear girl more than half way, and as she whimpered gently on his shoulder he promised never, never, never to tell.

And when they were married, if you believe me, that ridiculous old ginger jar accompanied them on their wedding trip, and Randall packed the bosom of the grotesque mandarin full of Clementine's bridal roses, there to fade and there forever to remain.

Now, as Randall never told and Clementine never told, the entire responsibility of this revelation lies between you and me and the ginger jar.

EASY TO FIND

When you find a medicine that makes your regular food taste good, when you find a medicine that strengthens a weak stomach—then you know you're going to put some flesh on.

Scott's Emulsion does these things. We recommend it whenever the system needs more flesh. If you are thin and able to eat begin regular doses. That's your part. Scott's Emulsion will do the rest. Not flabby—but solid flesh.

We'll send you a little to try, if you like.

"NO TONGUE CAN TELL."

The Pain Endured by Mrs. Bradley was Beyond Description—For Over Nine Years, She Never had a Good Night's Sleep—She Couldn't Eat, and had Given up Hope—Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets Cured Her.

Mrs. Jas. Bradley, of Smith's Cove, Digby County, N. S., is a very happy woman. For years she suffered a great deal with Dyspepsia. She kept on doctoring, but without relief, and for the last few months had practically given up hope of ever being any better.

Now she is well. How this came about is best told in her own words:

"I have had Dyspepsia for over nine years, and I have tried the best doctors in this place, and never got any relief.

"I have had to starve myself until I was very weak. I could scarcely eat anything.

"After so many trials and failures I had given up hope of ever being any better. No tongue can tell what I have suffered. I cannot describe it.

"Some time ago I saw an advertisement of Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets. I purchased six boxes, and have taken nearly all of them, and I am thankful to say that I am entirely cured. I can now eat almost anything.

"For years, before using the Tablets, I had never enjoyed a good night's rest. Now I can sleep comfortably all night, something which I never expected to do again in this world.

"I advise all who suffer as I have to use Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets, for they are the best remedy that ever was discovered, and I hope that this may be read by many who suffer from Dyspepsia, for I am sure that if I could make them see what Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets have done for me it would be the means of saving many others from continual suffering."

Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets always cure, no matter how chronic the case, or how wrong you have suffered.

The fact that other medicine has failed to cure you, doesn't prove that Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets will fail. They never disappoint the sufferer with Stomach Trouble. If you suffer try a box and be convinced. They will do for you what they have done for Mrs. Bradley and many others.

TROPICAL MEDICINES

PROGRESS ATTAINED ON "MR. CHAMBERLAIN'S FEVER FARM."

The School Famous for Its Discovery That the Spread of Malaria Was Due to Mosquitoes—Already This Year There Have Been Other Important Discoveries in a Similar Direction.

An interesting account is given in the current number of The Harmsworth London Magazine of the methods employed and the progress attained on "Mr. Chamberlain's Fever Farm"—as the London School of Tropical Medicine has been aptly christened. Last year the work of the school was rendered famous by the discovery which demonstrated the spread of malaria by mosquitoes. During the past year, also, another very important piece of work has been done. It has long been known that a series of terrible diseases, of which elephantiasis may be mentioned as an example, are spread through the agency of the mosquito, which acts as the intermediate host of the thread-like worm known as filaria nocturna, which plugs up the small lymphatic vessels and causes grave mischief. It had been previously supposed by leading medical authorities that man acquired the disease through drinking water polluted by the dead bodies of infected mosquitoes. The investigations carried out at the school by Mr. Low, the present holder of the Craggs Scholarship, have proved that this is not the case, but that the filaria is conveyed by the agency of the mosquito bite, thus proving, as in the case of malaria, that immunity can be guaranteed simply by avoiding being bitten.

"MR. CHAMBERLAIN'S FEVER FARM."

Every morning from 10 to 11 the students of the school are engaged in ward work in the adjacent hospital, where a large ward under the special care of Dr. Patrick Manson, C.M.G., is set apart for tropical cases.

The list of such diseases admitted from October, 1899, to October, 1900, included four cases of bubonic plague, two of leprosy, twenty-one of beri-beri, 59 of malaria, seven of guinea worm, three of filariasis, and many others.

From 11 to 1 the students are engaged in the pathological laboratory, which occupies the ground floor of the school buildings. An abundant light is necessary, one side of it consists of a huge window. A long table is placed before this, and is fitted with every kind of appliance for microscopic research.

The hours from 2 to 4 are devoted to pathological research and to chemical instruction in the wards and outpatients' department. This is usually followed by an hour's lecture from 4 to 5 p.m. Some of the diseases develop their peculiar characteristics only at night, so the students are often engaged at the hospital and school during other hours than those mentioned.

Pimples and Blotches.

How unsightly, sometimes disgusting, mortifying to the sufferer and unpleasant to all. An evidence of poor blood and lowered vitality of the eliminating organs. They need toning up—the whole system does. You can quickly bring about the improved condition by using Ferrozone. Poisons are driven out of the blood, organs grow stronger, the blood richer, the nerves stronger. Pimples and blotches disappear, colour becomes good. Glad! just try and see how much joy can be gotten out of a box of Ferrozone. Sold by Ormond & Walsh.

Pound Foolishness.

One of the commonest forms of pound foolishness is countenanced by many high authorities. This is the purchase of certain household provisions in large quantities. Few writers on domestic topics fail to lay stress upon the economy of buying groceries in bulk. That sugar and flour, potatoes and apples should be bought by the half or whole barrel, cereals by the case, butter by the tub and other things in like proportion is one of the early precepts in the "Young Housekeeper's Complete Guide to Domestic Economy."

The ignorant young things buy the provisions first and the experience afterward. The flour grows musty, the cereals develop weevils, the potatoes and apples rot long before they can be eaten, and the cook exercises a lavishness in the use of the butter and sugar she would never show were they bought in such limited amounts that the housekeeper could hold close watch over them. Even after these events the young mistress feels as if she were absolutely reckless and no manager at all when she so far departs from household law as to buy food in small quantities.

A Boon to Business Men.

The man who from business pressure has to bolt his food, suffer mental worry over business and then lose his sleep, will find Morrill's System Tonic a pearl of great price. This medicine purifies the blood, builds up the system, strengthens the nerves, and is the greatest blood regulator known. One bottle is worth $50 to an over-worked man 50 pleasant-to-take doses 50c. Sold at Ormond & Walsh's drug store.

Excluded Him.

He—I saw an interesting educated pig the other day that—

She—Oh, indeed! I—

He—Come, now! Don't say it! You were going to say you suppose I looked in a mirror, weren't you?

She—Not at all. I don't consider you interesting or educated.

PEN AND BRUSH.

Edwin Westcott, the author of "David Harum," had an exceptionally rich and mobile baritone voice and might have attained eminence as a singer.

Sarah Grand, the novelist, was born in Ireland. Her father was Edward J. Clarke, a lieutenant in the navy, and her mother the granddaughter of Robert Bell of Humbleton House, Yorkshire.

Baron Imbert de Saint Armand was writing almost to the day of his death and explained his great number of books to a critical friend by the naive justification, "Well, I have a horror of idleness."

Marie Corelli once said, "I have never written anything in my life with a desire to be praised for it, and I never, though often accused of doing so, 'advertise myself.'"

Mr. Frith, the Royal academician, once painted two pictures for Charles Dickens. The subjects were selected by the novelist and were Dolly Varden and Kate Nickleby. Dickens paid him £40 for the two, and after the novelist's death the former was sold for £1,000.

Marcus Clark, the author of "His Natural Life," related to a friend that he had once discovered a French novel that he considered a work of genius. He translated it into English, and when a Melbourne firm brought it out publisher and translator were astounded at discovering that he had merely Englished a French translation of one of George Eliot's works.

If Men Only Would.

If the young men who are measuring tape and laces would surrender their work to the young girls who are seeking employment and turn their attention to the pursuits of agriculture, there would be less misery and more contentment in the land; there would be more independence and less servility; more men and fewer creatures; more happy wives with comfortable homes, healthful children and cheerful tempers.—Southern Farm Magazine.

A DUEL AND A JOKE.

Count Boni de Castellane's First Affair Upon the Heels of Monge.

Count Boni de Castellane's first duel was when he had just come from school. Little he was, he could ride, shoot and handle a sword, but he was still very young, very beardless, and very green. At the club to which he had just been admitted some of the men, whom life made cynical, began to guy him. It was easy to stir up his anger, for they chattered scandal about a woman he knew. He pulled over the table and struck one of the men. The next day he received a challenge. In good faith he selected two good clubmen as his seconds. To all this the club fellows saw only a joke, and when the arrangements were hurried and the two opponents stood face to face in a meadow near the Seine the pistols were loaded—with blackened bread crumbs.

"One, two, three!" They fired together. The clubman gave a great cry and fell to the ground groaning.

"He's fatally wounded—dying!" the seconds exclaimed, choking with laughter.

De Castellane felt the heart in him run away like water. He had killed a man. It was not possible!

"Dead?" he asked anxiously.

"Yes," said the corpse and sat up grinning.

The schoolboy looked at the laughing clubmen and saw the joke they had played on him. He stooped and caught the corpse by the ankle, dragged it a bit and with a sudden jerk sent it ten feet into the river.

"There I'll bury it," said he.

As the clubman crawled from the river, dripping mud and weeds, they decided the joke was on him.

THE COLOSSUS OF RHODES.

One of the Ancient Seven Wonders of the World.

The ancients succeeded in making that alloy of copper which is known as bronze. Among the seven wonders of the world was the famous statue, wholly made of bronze, historically known as the colossus of Rhodes. It represented Phœbus, the national deity of the Rhodians. It was begun by Chares, a pupil of Lysippus, the sculptor, and was completed by Lachus 288 B. C. The popular belief is that it stood astride the harbor of Rhodes, that it was 105 feet high and that ships could easily sail between its legs.

Pliny said that few men could clasp its thumb. It was cast on metal plates, afterward joined together, and this process occupied twelve years. In the interior was a spiral staircase reaching into its head, and in a great mirror suspended to its neck were reflected the coast of Syria and the ships sailing to Egypt.

After it had stood for sixty-four years this colossus was overthrown by an earthquake, and its remains lay on the shore for 923 years—that is, until A. D. 672—when they were sold by the Saracens to a Hebrew dealer. The original cost was 300 talents—say, $0,000,000—and it is not too much to say that a similar image might be constructed now in one-fourth of the time and at one-third of the original cost. Rhodes, by the way, must have had colossus on the brain, for Pliny relates that the port was adorned with 1,000 colossal statues of the sun.

Men's Hatboxes.

"It might seem," said a trunk and bag manufacturer, "that a man's hatbox was just a hatbox; but, as a matter of fact, men's hatboxes are made in very considerable variety. They are oval and square and oblong as to form, of sole leather, or harness leather and of enameled leather as to material and of various capacities, from boxes designed for one hat to boxes for four hats. And there are made in the oval shape boxes with a removable center section in which, according as that section is taken out or left in, can be carried one hat or three.

"And some hatboxes have a tray for collars and cuffs, and so on, and in some the hat bowls are removable, so that upon occasion the box can be turned into a good sized plain case that can be used for any purpose whatever."

Both Rather Flippant.

There is a curious parallelism between two stories told respectively of the late Mr. Spurgeon and of Dean Swift.

Mr. Spurgeon, on hearing of the devastation wrought by an earthquake in Essex, merely remarked, "I am glad to hear that my county is moving at last."

The dean of St. Patrick's, Dublin, was watching with a friend the roof of a building on which several men were at work fixing slates. Suddenly one of the men vanished. Thereupon the dean turned to his companion and said, "I like to see a man go quickly through his work."

A Sentimentalist.

Johnny Sizzletop—Electricity is a great thing!

Willie Boerum—W-why, yes, but there isn't half the fun pushing electric buttons at folks' front doors that there is pulling the old fashioned doorbells!

Deceived.

Edith—You say old Mr. Goldley deceived Edith dreadfully about his age?

Gladys—Yes, poor girl! After they were married he confessed that he was only sixty instead of seventy-five.

Because you are better than the man you despise does not mean that you are not worse than those who despise you.

Tomorrow is not elastic enough in which to press the neglected duties of today.

THE WOMAN WHO FAINTED.

A Lesson on Courtesy in a Crowded London Theatre.

Here is an example of the courtesy and good feeling of the twentieth century. How are we to account for it? The worst of it is that in such a case the innocent suffer for the guilty. When a woman does really faint, there will be some hesitation before she receives a seat, consolation and brandy.

In an overcrowded pit of one of the London theatres the other night a lady, who was standing, suddenly became very faint, and another lady sitting near kindly offered her her seat. Not only this, but, seeing that she did not recover quickly, she went and fetched some restoratives from the refreshment room, whereupon the lady quickly recovered and began to thoroughly enter into the spirit of the play, apparently quite oblivious of her benefactress.

As time went on she was asked by her benefactress if she would object to her sitting down again. But the other would none of it. "Now I have a seat I mean to keep it!" she replied. Whereupon her benefactress gently reminded her that she had paid for her seat and thought that she had every right to return to it. But no amount of talking would apparently move the former.

A gentleman sitting near, having watched the episode, leaned forward and said, "Do you intend to give up your seat?" "No," was the reply. Up he sprang and gently lifted her out of it. An onlooker said to a lady next to her, "I like that man." "Thank you," was the reply; "he is my husband."

There seems to be no limit to the resources used by some people to secure what they have not paid for. The lady was no more faint than any one else in the audience.—London Free Lance.

The Necessity of Salt.

Although in treaties on dietetics salt figures as a condiment, it is universally recognized to be something more; indeed it is an indispensable element of the food of man and animals. A well known authority asserts, says The Medical Press and Circular, that whenever the annual consumption of salt falls below twenty pounds per head of population the public health is likely to suffer. The deprivation of salt does not produce a definite disease, but reduces the vitality of the organism as a whole, so that the victims of administrative measures which restrict the consumption of salt more readily fall prey to prevailing epidemics, as well as to endemic maladies.

"And I don't know what to make of him!"

"My dear friend, what on earth can you expect of a great genius?"

Doing His Best.

In the early morning I went to the postoffice in an Alabama town to inquire for mail, but found I was half an hour too early. I was walking away when the colored janitor who was sweeping out called to me and asked:

"Was yo' procrastinatin' around yere arter yo'r mail, sah?'

"Yes, but I see I'm too early."

"Yes, sah, too airly. An' was yo' a stranger in dis town?"

"Yes."

"An' hain't yo' no one to talk to?"

"No."

"Den, sah, if yo' don't keer to eliminate about de street fur half an hour yo' can stop right yere, an' I'll do my best to considerate de reciprocity of de situashun an' make yo' feel to home!"

A Civil Word.

A French king once said: "If a civil word or two will make a man happy, he must be a churl indeed who would not give them to him." If this feeling were acted on, how much happier the world would be! We may say of this kindly temper that it is like lighting another man's candle by one's own, which loses none of its light by what the other gains.

Slow Payer.

Neuralgia

is Rheumatism of the face. Uric Acid left in the blood by disordered kidneys lodges along the nerve which branches from the eye over the forehead, and across the cheek to the side of the nose. The cause is the same as in all Rheumatism—disordered Kidneys. The cure is likewise the same—

WEAKNESS

OF MEN AND WOMEN

Could we read the hearts of every man we meet, what a load of sorrow and despair would be disclosed. Nervousness and Blood Diseases have caused more physical and mental wrecks than all other causes combined. They strike at the foundation of manhood; they sap the vital forces; they undermine the system, and not only do they often disrupt the family circle, but they may even extend their poisonous fangs into the next generation. If you have been a victim of early sinful habits, remember the seed is sown, and sooner or later you will reap a harvest. If your blood has been diseased from any cause do not risk a return later on. Our New Method Treatment will positively cure you and you need never fear any return of the disease. We will give you a guarantee bond to that effect. We would warn you sincerely against the promiscuous use of mercury, which does not cure blood poison but simply suppresses the symptoms.

WE CURE OR NO PAY.

Don't Let your Life be Dragged Away, which weakens the intellect as well as the body. There is no room in this world for mental, physical or moral dwarfs. Our New Method Treatment will Stop all Unnatural Losses, Purify the Blood, Strengthen the Nerves, Restore Vitality, and make a man of you. If you are in trouble, call and consult us. Consultation Is Free. We treat and cure Rupture, Blood Diseases, Varicocele, Stricture, Unnatural Discharges, Gleet, Kidney and Bladder Diseases. No cutting or operations. No detention from business. Everything confidential. Consultation Free. Books Free. Question Blank Free for Home Treatment.

A Prevailing Scourge.

The "Blighting White Plague." How Catarrh Does Its Deadly Work.

Cooling Off—Taking Cold. Doctor Says it is Catarrh. Has Developed Bronchitis. In the Grasp of Consumption.

It is just the same old story of exposure to cold. The neglected cold becoming chronic catarrh. Catarrh extending along the delicate mucous membrane to the bronchial tubes and developing chronic bronchitis, manifest coughing and expectoration. Still neglected, further extension, the lungs are reached, catarrhal consumption is established. The "White Plague" secures another victory and the grave conceals the record of neglected catarrh. A well-worn road to a withering blight and untimely death. Thousands upon thousands have traveled it, and thousands upon thousands more will travel it. Every year develops a multitude of new victims.

Consumption the fell destroyer is most alarming in its frequency and dire in its results for it annually summons to their long rest over 300,000 victims in the United States alone. It is a disease which spares neither age, nor sex, rank or fortune. It is like the vampire that drinks up the vital stream and still fans with its wings the hopes which perpetually flutter in the hectic breast. It is a terrible and insatiable tyrant, marching down the aisles of time, blasting, devastating, destroying, establishing a gloomy empire of misery and death.

Catarrh is a forerunner of most cases of consumption. The presence of catarrh is evidence of a predisposition to the "Whitening White Plague." Do not let it progress, stop it, cure it, before it has reached the lungs you can do this with very little effort and expense. Stuart's Catarrh Tablets are a sovereign remedy for the peculiar constitutional condition or systemic dyscrasia that permits of chronic catarrh. They drive catarrh out of the system and heal the evidences of its ravages so long as the destructive processes have not been allowed to progress to a point beyond possibility of repair. They will cure catarrh of the head, nose, throat, ears, bronchial tubes, and the alimentary tract, but if once lung substance is destroyed and in the cheeks the hectic spots burn brightly like signal lamps of death, then they are powerless to save. There is a point in the destructive processes of progressive catarrh beyond which no medicine can cure, where no agency yet discovered will arrest or save.

Be timely wise, cure your catarrh while yet it may be cured. Take no chances of some exposure fanning the smouldering fire of chronic catarrh into a devastating conflagration of consumption. You can buy Stuart's Catarrh Tablets at any drug store for 50 cents a box. Try them and you will become their advocate and friend.

Mr. F. N. Benton, whose address is care of Clark House, Troy, N. Y., says: "When I run up against anything that is good I like to tell people of it. I have been troubled with catarrh more or less for some time. Last winter more than ever. Tried several so-called cures, but did not get any benefit from them. About six weeks ago I bought a 50 cent box of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets and I am glad to say that they have done wonders for me and I do not hesitate to let all my friends know that Stuart's Catarrh Tablets are the right thing."

Mr. Geo. J. Casanova, of hotel Grifton, West 6th street, New York City, writes: "I have commenced using Stuart's Catarrh Tablets and already they have given me better results than any catarrh cure I have ever tried."

Mr. A. B. Fernbank of Columbus, Ohio, says: "I suffered so many winters from Catarrh that I took it as a matter of course, and that nothing would cure it except a change of climate, which my business affairs would not permit me to take.

"My nostrils were almost always clogged up, and I had to breathe through the mouth causing an inflamed, irritated throat. The thought of eating breakfast often nauseated me and the catarrh gradually getting into my stomach took away my appetite and digestion.

"My druggist advised me to try a fifty cent box of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, because he said he had so many customers who had been cured of Catarrh by the use of these tablets, that he felt he could honestly recommend them. I took his advice and used several boxes with results that surprised and delighted me.

"I always keep a box of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets in the house and the whole family use them freely on the first appearance of a cough or cold in the head.

"With our children we think there is nothing so safe and reliable as Stuart's Catarrh Tablets to ward off croup and colds, and with older people I have known of cases where the hearing had been seriously impaired by chronic catarrh cured entirely by this new remedy."

Send a postal card to F. A. Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich. requesting their free book on catarrh. Write for it to-day.

CATHERINE II.'S RULES.

The rules, inscribed on a tablet now in the Hermitage, the famous St. Petersburg Museum of Art, are as follows:

I. Leave your rank outside as well as your hat and sword.

II. Leave your right of precedence, your pride and any similar feeling outside the door.

III. Be gay, but do not spoil or gnaw anything.

IV. Sit, stand, walk as you will, without reference to anybody.

V. Talk moderately, not loud, so as not to make the heads or ears of others ache.

VI. Argue without anger and without excitement.

VII. Neither sigh nor yawn, nor make any one feel dull or heavy.

VIII. In all innocent games, whatever one proposes, let all join.

IX. Eat whatever is sweet and savory, but drink with moderation, so that each may find his legs on leaving the room.

X. Tell no tales out of school. Whatever goes in at one ear must go out at the other before leaving the room.

Whoever offends against rule X shall never again be admitted.

Our grande dame will call these rules her Ten Commandments.

A Galt Lady Saved $50.

Mrs. Nesbit of Galt was sure her daughter was dying of consumption. So were two physicians and all the neighbours. Three 25c bottles of Four T's put the girl on her feet. As a positive, safe and speedy cure for coughs, colds or congested lungs this Four T's can't be beaten. Large bottles 25c at Ormond & Walsh's drug store.

The Terrapin Disease.

The terrapin is thought to have much influence in causing sickness, and the terrapin disease is either a rheumatic affliction about the chest and ribs or possibly some pulmonary trouble. The association of the terrapin with diseases in this portion of the body doubtless originates from the fact that the ribs of the terrapin are not free, as in the case of most of the higher animals, but are united into one piece.

An Indian who was ill applied for relief to a shaman and was asked, "Did you not when a boy tie strings to the terrapin's tail and worry the creature?"

The patient admitted that he did.

"Well," said the medicine man, "that is what is the matter. It is the terrapin's turn now, and the terrapin is paying off old scores. You have the terrapin sickness, and all your ribs have grown together and to your breastbone."

The shaman administered the proper remedy prescribed in such cases—I forget what it was—and the man thought he was cured.

Why Catarrh is Fatal.

Because it pours a flood of poisons into the circulation that saps strength and digestion so materially, as to render the body incapable of resisting disease and consumption is the result. Catarrh is quickly cured by Catarrhozone, a fragrant germ-destroying vapour that goes to the root of the disease. It soothes and heals the inflamed mucous surfaces, clears the head and throat and positively never fails to cure Bronchitis, Asthma and Catarrh. Nothing is so good for diseases of the respiratory organs as Catarrhozone. Large outfit, $1; small size, 25c. Druggists, or by mail from Poison & Co., Kingston, Ont.

Oyster Shells.

One thousand bushels of shucked oysters leave about 1,100 bushels of shells, which accumulate in great heaps about the shucking houses. The oyster shells landed on the shores of Maryland during the last ninety years have been reckoned at 12,000,000 tons—a quantity twice sufficient to overload and sink every sailing vessel steam vessel, barge and canalboat in America.

Your Weak Spot.

Perhaps it is your throat or your bronchial tubes. If you take cold easily take Scott's Emulsion. It checks any tendency in your system to serious lung trouble.

A Newspaper Motto.

There is a newspaper in Kansas whose motto is "Lie, steal, drink and swear," and it is thus explained by the editor: "When you lie, let it be down to pleasant dreams; when you steal, let it be away from immoral associates; when you drink, let it be pure water; when you swear, let it be that you will patronize your home paper, pay your subscriptions and not send your jobwork away from home."

HERE IS A POINTER.

Have you cold hands and feet, chills, pains in the back? If so your blood is impoverished and your constitution run down. "Climax" Iron Tonic Pills will positively restore perfect health. As a blood maker and nerve strengthener they are unequalled. Each box contains ten days' treatment. Price 25 cents, at all druggists, or mailed on receipt of price. EIGHT CONVINCING REASONS . . .

WHY YOU SHOULD INSURE IN

THE IMPERIAL LIFE ASSURANCE CO'Y OF CANADA.

1. It is a purely Canadian Company, having all its funds invested in Canadian securities, and transacting business only in Canada.

2. It maintains the largest Government Deposit of any Canadian Life Insurance Company.

3. It maintains relatively the strongest policy reserves of any Canadian Life Insurance Company.

4. Its past record — the greatest guarantee of the future — has been unparalleled in Canadian life insurance.

5. Its policy contract is one of the most liberal issued, consistent with safety and equity.

6. It has a Capital of $1,000,000, which makes policy-holders' security unquestionable. At the same time, the assured is practically in the same position regarding profits as if he held a policy in a mutual company, the Imperial's charter providing that at least 90 per cent. of all profits shall be divided amongst policy-holders.

7. For every $100 of liability to policy-holders it holds $180 of securely invested assets. These assets are all of the highest order, and will bear the closest scrutiny.

8. An Imperial policy never depreciates in value, but, on the contrary, is constantly becoming more valuable. It is the most valuable estate you can leave behind you.

Prof. O'Brien,

CANADA'S GREATEST PHRENOLOGIST and the only recognized SCIENTIFIC PALMIST (by law) has removed to 242 Hunter street, Terrase, near the railway crossing. See name in window. As Prof. O'Brien is a very busy man, he will not be able to leave Peterborough for a few days yet. The more people he examines the more he has to examine, which fact alone speaks for his ability and the esteem and popularity he has gained during his short stay in Peterborough. It will be well for skeptics of either science to investigate before condemning either Phenology or Scientific Palmistry. The latter should not be confounded with the common fortune telling. Professor O'Brien has proved in open courts before Crown witnesses at the Toronto General Sessions, March 14th, 1901, that Palmistry as demonstrated by him is a pure science, and has no connection with the so-called fortune telling. Anyone wishing to be enlightened on the science should call on Professor O'Brien who will be pleased to explain his scientific methods. A photo read free to patrons. Over 100 persons have consulted him during his short stay in Peterborough. Remember there is only ONE Professor O'Brien. Don't forget his new address. Office hours, 10 a.m. to 12; 1 p.m. to 6 p.m.; 7 p.m. to 10 p.m.

SPORTING PASTIMES.

RUGBY.

The members of the Peterborough Rugby Club are asked to bear in mind the semi-annual meeting which will be held in the Y.M.C.A. this evening at 7.30 o'clock sharp. As the business of the season will be finally wound up a very representative meeting is requested. The meeting will commence at 7.30 sharp.

HOCKEY.

The Lakeviews' annual meeting will be held to-morrow evening at the Oriental at 7.30 o'clock. All those who desire to become identified with the Trent Valley Team this winter, should attend.

Toronto Telegram: "Why under the sun cannot outside towns follow the example of Markham by building a respectable rink? Here is Markham, with a population of about 1,200 people, building a 85,000 rink, while a hockey centre like Peterborough is content to trail along with a veritable soup plate. Peterborough has a population of ten times that of Markham, and yet season after season they continue to thatch the roof of the rink and play ball. Port Hope is another that needs to get a hustle on and build a good rink. The Ports have a splendid team down there and should show their appreciation thereof by covering their heads with something respectable to skate under."

EAST EMILY CHEESE FACTORY.

A well attended meeting of the patrons of East Emily cheese factory was held on Nov. 27th, for the purpose of winding up the business of the past season. Mr. George Ward was appointed chairman.

The following is the secretary's report of the season's make:

Total lbs. of milk delivered, 1,-289,096.
Total lbs. cheese manufactured, 117,583.
Average lbs. milk to lb. of cheese, 10.95.
Average price per lb. cheese 9.11c.
Average net value to patrons per cwt. milk, 70c.
Total value of season's make, $10,-711.36.

After being approved by the unanimous vote of the patrons it was moved by Mr. J. T. Switzer, seconded by Mr. W. Sullivan, that the secretary's report be received. —Carried.

Mr. J. R. Boate, on behalf of the patrons, moved a vote of thanks in favour of Mr. W. Deyell, president, and Messrs. J. T. Switzer, T. M. Caldwell, M. O'Donnell, and W. Lowes, directors for their voluntary services in endeavouring to promote the interests of the factory.

A hearty vote of thanks was tendered Messrs. W. C. Switzer and J. F. Collins for their satisfactory management of the financial affairs of the factory for the past season.

A NEW TURN IN LIFE.

"I have taken a new turn in life," says a well-know Ottawa lady. "After using that marvellous health breakfast cereal, Malt Breakfast Food, for nearly four months, I have gained ten pounds in weight and feel more active and stronger than ever before. It is the only breakfast food that has quite agreed with my weak digestion." This is encouraging information for men and women weak and run down, and subject to stomach troubles. Malt Breakfast Food is guaranteed to contain more nutriment for the body and nerves than any other food on the market. Try it for a week. Your Grocer sells it.

To Give $10,000,000.

Chicago, Dec. 10.—Andrew Carnegie is to give $10,000,000 to the cause of university extension in the United States. Announcement of this great gift to education will be made at White House on Tuesday. Mr. Carnegie has for some time had the project under consideration, and has consulted in regard to it with some of the most eminent educators in the United States. It has been thought best to create a national board to handle this munificent benefaction, and to institute the work on a scale commensurate with its importance.

Killed by Electric Shock.

Montreal, Dec. 10.—Alfred Desmarchais, aged 35, an employe of the Dominion Foundry Supply Company, went to the dark basement to fix the furnace, carrying an electric light attachment to a long cord in his hand. Instead of hanging the light on a hook provided for the purpose, Desmarchais held the bulbs in one hand and opened the furnace door with the other, thus forming a complete circuit. He was instantly killed.

Thirteen Cases in Two Days.

Ottawa, Dec. 10.—The smallpox outbreak in Ottawa has once more assumed a serious outlook, 13 cases having been reported in 48 hours. Ottawa University is under quarantine, six smallpox patients having been removed from the institution to Porter's Island yesterday.

Death of Mr. J. G. Currie.

St. Catharines, Dec. 10.—J. G. Currie, registrar of the County of Lincoln, died at his home here on Sunday afternoon of pneumonia. He represented the county in the Legislative Assembly for many years, and was at one time Speaker of the Legislature.

Clergymen to Pay Full Fare.

Toronto, Dec. 10.—Heretofore clergymen have been granted a reduced rate on Canadian railways, paying only one and one-half cents per mile. After Jan. 1, 1902, clergymen will have to pay full fare.

FREE FIGHT IN CHINA

Indian Troops and Germans Kill Each Other.

TIEN TSIN, SCENE OF TROUBLE

Indian Sentry Runs Amuck With Disastrous Results—Three of a Punjab Company Killed and Several Wounded —Three Germans Killed and an Officer Wounded—The Germans Opened Firing.

Tien Tsin, Dec. 9. — A sentry belonging to an Indian regiment stationed here ran amuck yesterday and killed two of his comrades. A company of Punjab Infantry was at once turned out to secure him.

In the meantime the sentry had been shot by German troops, who then opened fire on the Punjabites. A free fight ensued, as a result of which three German privates were killed and a German officer mortally wounded, while three of the Indian troops were killed and several were wounded.

The German troops have been confined to their barracks until further orders.

RIOTS AT SCRANTON, PA.

Arise Out of the Street Car Strike—Miners Attack Detectives.

Scranton, Pa., Dec. 10.—The most serious in many riots that have taken place here in connection with the street car strike occurred yesterday afternoon.

Special Officer Frank Schoffield, accompanied by Detective Cosgrove, attempted to arrest a man in a saloon, and no sooner was the warrant exposed than a crowd of miners attacked them with drills, clubs and bottles and put them to flight.

As they were retreating backwards down the sidewalk, protecting themselves with drawn revolvers, someone in the mob fired two shots. At this time the officers and a non-union motorman who accompanied them, began to shoot into the crowd, and, after emptying all the chambers of their revolvers, beat a retreat.

As they fled the mob kept up a steady fire from places of concealment.

Three of the mob were shot, but their wounds are not serious. None of the company men were hit.

Magistrate Millar says he will serve the warrant if he has to send the whole police force to back up his officer.

Boycott Was Not Favored.

Scranton, Pa., Dec. 10.—The convention of the American Federation of Labor was in session only two hours yesterday, adjournment being taken until to-day in order to enable the several committees to consider the large number of resolutions still in their hands. There was a lively discussion on the floor of the convention over the question of boycotting machine made cigars, but ultimately the committee reported the resolution back with the recommendation that the word "machinery" be stricken out, and the resolution was adopted.

Mr. Halliday Retains His Seat.

Toronto, Dec. 10.— The North Bruce election case was settled yesterday at Wiarton, and to-day the judges will issue the necessary order confirming James Halliday, M.P., in his seat. Messrs. DuVernet & Jones looked after the interests of the Conservatives, and A. B. Aylesworth the Liberals. Chancellor Boyd and Judge MacMahon left yesterday for Wiarton, but it was not necessary for the Toronto solicitors to go, as they received word that no evidence would be called, and, accordingly, the case was left in the hands of the local solicitors. Particulars of 25 charges were filed, which the respondent was able to have evidence to meet, if they had been pressed.

If the case had been gone on with it would have been a lengthy one.

Will Fight the Scale.

Toronto, Dec. 10.—George E. Fisher, Government Inspector of the San Jose Scale, conferred with the Minister of Agriculture yesterday in connection with the course that will be pursued next year to exterminate the pest. Mr. Fisher's reports are not very satisfactory. He says the scale is spreading. The Government has again decided to furnish crude petroleum and whale oil soap to combat the scale.

It may be only a trifling cold, but neglect it and it will fasten its fangs in your lungs, and you will soon be carried to an untimely grave. In this country we have sudden changes and must expect to have coughs and colds. We cannot avoid them, but we can effect a cure by using Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup, the medicine that has never been known to fail in curing coughs, colds, bronchitis and all affections of the throat lungs and chest.

HARMFUL BATHING.

Too Much Soap and Water Is Not Good For the Skin.

It is a familiar boast of English people that we are above all others a washing nation. Soap and water is a standing dish in Great Britain, but so little were we disposed to credit the habitual cleanliness of foreigners that a piece of soap in the valise was till recently the habitual companion of an Englishman on his travels. All kinds of theories have been raised to account for this national tendency to ablution, and most diverse qualities have been attributed to its possession.

The familiarity of islanders with water and the use of it occasioned by the national custom that led the ancient Britons to paint their bodies are solemnly urged as the foundation of the English proneness to washing, and the fresh complexions and smooth skins of young Englishmen are held to replace the more dusky and hirsute countenances of the Latin races because of their closer and more frequent acquaintance with the articles of the washstand.

It is quite obvious that even in England there are people who wash too little. It is not so generally recognized that some people wash too much. The skin is not well adapted to frequent applications of water accompanied by even the least irritating of soaps. A tendency arises to maceration of the superficial part of the epidermis, which is too frequently removed and occasions probably too rapid a proliferation of the cells of the Malpighian layer.

There is no doubt that many cases of roughness of the skin of the face come from the frequent applications of water. It is a good thing to rub the face with a soft, clean, dry towel two or three times a day. If, in addition, water is used in the morning and at night, the skin will be kept in a sounder, smoother and healthier state than if, as is often the case, soap and water are used three or four times a day.

Men are not often offenders in this respect, most men sparing little time for the refinements of the toilet. Women and children, whose skins are the most easily affected by superfluous ablution, are the very persons in whom such excess is too common. They should be taught that there are dry methods of cleanliness as well as wet ones.—Lancet.

PADEREWSKI GOT $20.

But It Cost Him That to Get His Clothes Out of Pawn.

Paderewski's first really important engagement as a pianist was in Paris long after the death of his beloved wife. He was engaged to play in the drawing room of a lady famous for her musicales, and his fee, which seemed to him enormous, was $20. He managed to persuade the humane agent to pay him in advance, and when Paderewski had redeemed his dress suit from pawn and paid for shoes, gloves, tie and other essentials he had no money left for cab hire, so he was forced to walk to the scene of his engagement.

The music loving audience inspired him. He played with feeling, passion and mastery of his instrument as never before. His success was instant and unmistakable. The poor player had suddenly become the lion of the hour, his dream had become a reality, and fame and fortune were assured him.

At last, after disengaging himself from his admirers, he turned to leave, when his hostess, remembering with regret the smallness of the fee for so marvelous a performance, offered him her carriage for his return home. But Paderewski's pride came to the rescue. In his courteous yet reserved way he made a formal bow, and saying, "No, thank you, madame; my own is waiting," he stepped out for his long walk homeward.

A Living Emetic.

A servant who did not find her way very promptly to the kitchen one morning was visited by her mistress, who found her in bed suffering from pain and violent sickness. She explained that she had a cold and had taken some medicine which had been recommended for the children.

"How much did you take?" asked her mistress.

"Well, mum, I went by the directions on the bottle. They said, 'Ten drops for an infant, thirty drops for an adult and a tablespoonful for an emetic.' I knew I wasn't an infant or adult, so I thought I must be an emetic, and the pesky stuff has pretty nigh turned me inside out."

The "Extra Horse."

A lover of horses recently noticed a custom in France which he thinks ought to be adopted in this country. On every street in France which has a steep grade there is stationed an "extra horse." The law compels draymen and others to make use of this horse until the summit of the hill is reached, and there is a heavy fine for refusing to hire the extra horse at a small fixed rate. Placards by the roadside indicate the point where the extra horse should be taken on and also where he may be dismissed with.

Evolution.

"He boasts very proudly that he's a self made man."

"I thought it was his money that made him."

"But, then, it was that machine he invented that made his money."

"Ah! Then he's really a 'machine made man.'"

The Boy and the Text.

"Hit was a mighty cold day," said the old deacon, "an dey was some excuse fer de parson makin' dat big mistake in his text, fer stidder sayin' 'Many is called, but few is chosen,' he give hit out, 'Many is cold, an a few is frozen.'"

His Sphere of Excellence.

"Was your son Josiar a leader of any of his classes?"

"I reckon," answered Farmer Corntossel. "I have been told that a good many of the young men who 'tended Josiar's school b'longed to the leisure class, an' from what I have seen of Josiar durin' harvest time I should guess that he'd be right up clus to the top."—Washington Star.

Fashion's New Fad.

"What is the nature of the newfangled malady which they call the 'golfing spine?'"

"That," responded Cynicus, "is easy. 'Golfing spine' is what the old man used to have after a hard day's plowing, but he called it the backache."—New York Times.

What's the Use?

"My good man, don't you often long to be out of this place?"

"Naw. As soon as I come out they'll send me back again."—New York Journal.

An Afflicted Brother.

Brother Dickey was under the weather the other day. In describing his symptoms he said: "Yes, suh, hit's true dat I ain't feelin' half well. In de fust place, I 'dicted wid rattlin' er de bones; den I troubled wid battin' er de eyelids, liftin' er de lef' leg, wobblin' er de right foot en crackin' er de top skull. All I needs now ter finish me complete is six months er de unjinted rheumatism!"

Substitute For Soap.

There are a few people to whose skins soap seems an irritant. They should use bran. The sons of one of the old kings of Holland were forbidden the use of soap. They were to use bran and a slice of lemon, the latter to remove freckles. Napoleon never used soap, but kept his hands beautifully white by the use of bran.

The Time For Planting Bulbs.

There is no definite rule to be laid down as to the length of time in which bulbs should be left in cold storage. As a general thing, top growth will not begin until root growth is completed. This nearly always takes from six weeks to two months. It is therefore generally safe to begin bringing October planted bulbs to the living room in December. Those desired for later flowering can be left in cold storage, where they will remain dormant as to top growth. By bringing bulbs to light and warmth at intervals of a week or ten days we secure a succession of bloom which makes it possible for us to brighten our windows with their beautiful flowers during the greater part of winter.

Halliday Is Safe.

Wiarton, Ont., Dec. 11.—In accordance with an agreement arrived at between counsel for both parties, the North Bruce Dominion election protest was dismissed yesterday by Chancellor Boyd and Judge MacMahon, James Halliday, M.P., being confirmed in his seat.

Rebellion Is Not Over.

Kingston, Jamaica, Dec. 11.—The British steamer Antillian, Capt. Huster, trading between Liverpool, West Indian ports and Colon, arrived here yesterday from Colon. She reports continued fighting in the Department of Panama.

Marconi Selects a Site.

St. John's, Nfld., Dec. 11.—Mr. Marconi yesterday selected a site on Signal Hill for his wireless telegraph station. He expresses his conviction that the station which it is proposed to erect will be one of the most important in the world.

LAST WEEK'S WORK

Over 400 More Boers Out of the Conflict.

LORD KITCHENER'S REPORT.

Extension of Blockhouse System Enables Lord Kitchener to Carry Out Systematic Operations—Southeastern Orange River Colony—Boers Still in Force in Cape Colony—Canada's New Contingent.

London, Dec. 11.—Lord Kitchener, in a despatch from Pretoria, dated Monday, Dec. 9, reports that the result of the week's work is 31 Boers killed, 17 wounded, 352 made prisoners, 35 surrenders and quantities of supplies captured.

By advancing the line of blockhouses in the eastern part of the Transvaal Lord Kitchener is now able, for the first time, to carry out systematic and continuous operations in the vicinity of Ermelo, Bethel and Carolina.

Columns have captured the southern districts of the Orange River Colony, and are now operating northward of the Thabanchu line.

The Boers are still in force in the extreme west of Cape Colony. They are there commanded by Maritz, who recently attacked Tontelboschkop. The Boers were driven off and Maritz was severely wounded.

The Concentration Camps.

London, Dec. 11.—Lord Onslow, Secretary of the War Office, said last night that the large concentration camps were being broken up into smaller ones of from two thousand to three thousand persons each, and that if the Government found things did not go better in the future it would not hesitate to turn to the experience gained in India in dealing with the plague.

AT TORONTO.

Thirty-One Men Sworn In—Some Recruiting Incidents.

Toronto, Dec. 11. — The second day's recruiting for the new Canadian mounted corps was marked by as much, or even more enthusiasm than on the opening day. Those who were told on Monday to be on hand again yesterday morning were there bright and early, but most of them found that this was only a polite way of refusing their application, as very few of these were called yesterday. The total number of those sworn in so far is 31, of these 28 have seen active service in South Africa.

Yesterday's proceedings were marked by many incidents pathetic and humorous. "Happy" McIlroy, a South African veteran, was sworn in on Monday, and yesterday, his wife of only two months, called on Col. Otter, and with tears in her eyes asked him to reject her husband. As McIlroy has been sworn in this will be a difficult thing to do, and the Colonel could not give her any definite assurance.

One young fellow, with no previous military experience, but who had a local reputation as a boxer, was most earnest in his desire to enlist, and on being told that his constitution would not stand the rigors of a campaign in South Africa, he exclaimed with warmth that he would like to see the man in the building who could stand up in front of him for five minutes. Although he stood 6 feet 2 inches in height the Colonel did not deem it advisable to pass him.

To-day will be the last day for recruiting in Toronto, and 25 more men are needed, there is still a chance for a few good, sound men. Col. Otter was assisted in his work yesterday by Capt. Shanley. Those already sworn in have been notified to hold themselves in readiness for departure for Halifax to-morrow night.

Montreal's Quota Complete.

Montreal, Dec. 11.—The thirty-five men in Montreal's quota to the third contingent were selected yesterday at the drill hall after a very severe examination. Over one hundred presented themselves before Col. Roy for enlistment, and the Montreal boys selected are a fine looking lot of soldiers.

While Kruger's Away.

Ottawa, Dec. 11.—In a letter to a gentleman in this city, Col. Steele says: "Oom Paul's quarters, having been taken possession of by the mess of my division causes an unusual animosity on the part of the burghers of this town. They stare in apparent blank amazement at our cheek. The house having been held sacred up to date causes this, I suppose."

Col. Steele goes on to say: "Jones who was a private in Strathcona's Horse, is now a lieutenant in the Scottish Horse. He had a very hot fight on a recent trip, in which four of his troops were wounded, one through the lungs. He and his men made a very gallant fight, the last of it at close quarters. All our fellows here have done that sort of thing; they have a good name here."

Col. Steele states that Major Ogilvie is out with a portion of B Division, South African Constabulary, co-operating with Kitchener's column. South Africa, he says, is no place as yet for civilians.

Set Back to Pro-Boers.

Montreal, Dec. 11.—The pro-Boers received a bad setback last night at the Letellier Club, a leading Liberal organization. The meeting was called to discuss a motion censuring the Government sending the several contingents to South Africa. The motion, however, was only supported by the mover and seconder, about a dozen speakers holding that it was Canada's duty to assist the Empire.

WANT TO EXCLUDE CHINESE.

But Labor Federation Did Not Vote to Keep Out Other Asiatics

Scranton, Pa., Dec. 11.—The exclusion of Chinamen, Japanese and other Asiatics from America, ticket scalping legislation, and advisability of adopting a universal label for union-made goods, were the principal questions that claimed attention of the delegates at yesterday's two sessions of the American Federation of Labor.

The resolutions advocating the exclusion of the Chinese were adopted by the convention with considerable hurrah, but in the matter of excluding natives of Japan and other Asiatic lands a snag was struck and this part of the anti-Mougolian agitation was killed, as far as the present convention is concerned.

W. H. K. Redmond's Prayer.

London, Dec. 11.—A telegram from Dublin to The Times says that William H. K. Redmond, M.P., speaking at a Gorey, County Wexford, meeting of the United Irish League, said there never was a time when there was a better chance than at present to strike a blow for Ireland. Thanks be to God they had lived to see the day when John Bull had been caught by the throat by the men in South Africa, who were giving him the greatest whaling he ever got. Mr. Redmond said he prayed that God might strengthen the Boers until they danced on John Bull's chest.

Australia Will Meet Canada.

Melbourne, Dec. 11.—The Right Hon. E. Barton, Prime Minister of Australia, has cabled Sir Wilfrid Laurier, the Canadian Premier, accepting the suggestion of the latter that representatives of the Dominion of Canada and the Commonwealth of Australia meet and confer in London next June upon trade and other matters.

Condemns American Engines.

London, Dec. 11.—Bad design, bad workmanship and bad material characterize the mogul engines supplied the Burmah railways by the Baldwin Works of Philadelphia, according to the official report made to the Government of India by C. E. Cardew, superintendent of locomotives for Burmah.

Guilty of Murder.

Sault Ste. Marie, Dec. 11.— The jury at the fall assizes here yesterday returned a verdict of guilty of murder against Fred Lindsley, alias Shoults, for the murder of Mrs. Craig, then supposed to be his wife, on Aug. 7 last. Judge Britton will sentence him this morning.

days in bed with intense pain and suffering. I was under the physicians care for over a year without any relief, when my attention was called to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound by several of our Mormon women who had been cured through its use. I began its systematic use and improved gradually in health, and after the use of six bottles my health was completely restored, and for over two years I have had neither ache or pain. You have a truly wonderful remedy for women. Very sincerely yours, MRS. HULDA JAKEMAN, Salt Lake City, Utah."

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The Sons of Temperance don't seem to be very anxious to be the Fathers of Prohibition.

No matter what the third Canadian contingent for South Africa is called—"Yeomanry" or "Mounted Rifles"—they may be depended upon to do their duty and make a name for themselves.

We have a great many people speaking for the "down-trodden" Boers, but nobody raises his voice to plead for the poor Philippinos. Judging from the progress the United States troops make in subduing them they seem pretty fairly able to take care of themselves.

The refusal of the Toronto hospitals to admit consumptive patients, has apart from considerations of humanity one redeeming feature. If it emphasizes the fact in the public mind that consumption is a contagious disease it will lead to the adoption of greater and more general precautions against contagion and thus tend to discourage the spred of the "white plague."

Pimples and Blotches.

how unsightly, sometimes disgusting, mortifying to the sufferer and unpleasant to all. An evidence of poor blood and lowered vitality of the eliminating organs. They need toning up—the whole system does. You can quickly bring about the improved condition by using Ferrozone. Poisons are driven out of the blood, organs grow stronger, the blood richer, the nerves stronger. Pimples and blotches disappear, colour becomes good. Glad? just try and see how much joy can be gotten out of a box of Ferrozone. Sold by Ormond & Walsh.

PROHIBITION BY NEXT ASSEMBLY.

Dr. Potts Says Present Government was not Elected With That Mandate.

Dr. John Potts is a stalwart prohibitionist, as a contemporary suggests, but his advocacy of that reform is not a blind, but a thinking advocacy. Therefore, he does not believe it is wise for a dying Legislature to initiate legislation of such importance. This view he reiterated this morning when approached by a Star representative.

"I believe," he said, "that if Ross is re-elected he should straightway pass a prohibitory law. The present Government was not elected in view of prohibition, and would not feel under the same obligation as one elected under the decision of the Privy Council, and in view of the educational work that can be accomplished with the people and the candidates between now and June next."

"Do you think there is sufficient public sentiment behind such a law to secure its enforcement?"

"It can be enforced if the Government will do what it ought to do—provide machinery to enforce its own laws. I do not think private individuals should have to become detectives."

"Was the vote at the last plebiscite sufficient, in your opinion, to warrant a law?"

"I think that there would need to be a very large vote in favour of prohibition, which I think can easily be ascertained in connection with the Provincial elections. I would personally be in favour of a plebiscite or referendum being taken at that time, and if, as I believe, there should be a large majority in favour of prohibition, I think prohibitory legislation should be enacted."

"Do you consider it necessary to have a majority of all the qualified voters, as is suggested?"

"I suppose the matter must be determined by those who go to the polls, but it occurs to me that nearly every person will go to the polls at the coming election. I would not care to see prohibition enacted on a bare majority, because I believe it would be an injury rather than a help to the cause of temperance."

"Would it be possible to enforce a law in Toronto with a majority against it such as there was at the plebiscite?"

"I think any law put upon the statute book of Ontario can be enforced if the Government undertakes to do it, and I think the Government should undertake to enforce its own laws."

"The objection is urged against the referendum that it would relieve the Government of its responsibility?"

"My understanding of a referendum would be that it would indicate to the Government the actual majority in favour of prohibition, and that it would be a command to them to initiate such legislation. I would not approve of the suggestion if it would weaken the responsibility of the Government."

MADE IN CANADA.

At the manufacturers' dinner recently Mr. Fielding said there was one kind of national policy that everybody could practise, namely, to make it an invariable rule to buy Canadian goods when everything else was equal. It would be idle to advise a man or woman to buy an inferior article at a higher price just because it was Canadian. No policy could be founded on such a basis as that. But it is fair to ask that the purchaser should be sure that the Canadian article is inferior and higher-priced before rejecting it. He should be sure that his judgment is not affected by prejudice. "Far-away fields look green" is a failing that holds in shopping as well as in some other things, and in comparing a Canadian article with a foreign article we should at least give the product of our own people the benefit of the doubt. "Made in Canada" should be a high recommendation for an article. There is, of course, a converse side to it. Manufacturers should strive to make such a legend a guarantee of honest quality at least.

The idea is beginning to be worked on the other side of the lines. The New York Sun the other day, commenting on the automobile show, challenged Americans for preferring French-made machines. It put forward the claim that in every valuable feature the American make of machine was as good as the French. Rich Americans paid fancy prices for French automobiles which had made a record for speed, but which were superior to the home manufacture in no other particular. It virtually said that under such conditions it was un-American to favour the foreigner.

However that may be, is there not something in the idea of favouring, as far as possible, the products of your own country, of your own neighbours? The man who could stand up and say that from his boots to his hat everything he wore had been manufactured in Canada would perhaps be doing more for native industry than if he wrote columns in favour of compelling people to buy them by running up the tariff. The two things are different. Compelling a man to buy Canadian goods relieves the manufacturer of the necessity of making a good article. If he felt that he would not, at least, suffer prejudice if he made an article as good and as cheap as the foreigner, he would be encouraged to do his best. As it is, it is to be feared that he has to make it better and cheaper before his own countrymen will give him a show. Make it a habit to ask for Canadian makes, and judge them fairly. You will help the workman and his employer by doing so, and the tendency will be for the quality to improve. Larger sales are always an incentive to still greater improvement in quality.—Globe.

Doctors Agreed.

Every doctor who has been shown the formula of Merrill's System Tonic, has expressed great admiration for its scientific and medical ingenuity. It is a thorough blood purifier, a great muscle, blood and tissue builder, and an excellent and permanent cure for constipation. 50 pleasant-to-take doses, 50 cents. Sold at Ormond & Walsh's pharmacy.

Asthma.

You've tried almost everything for it, haven't you? And we presume you are about discouraged. Now what do you think of our idea of breathing in the medicine, bringing it right up to the diseased part? It looks reasonable, doesn't it? And it's successful, too.

When you inhale Vapo-Cresolene your breathing becomes easy, the wheezing ceases, and you drop to sleep. For croup and whooping-cough it's a quick cure. 16

Vapo-Cresolene is sold by druggists everywhere. The Vaporizer and Lamp, which should last a lifetime, and a bottle of Cresolene complete, $1.50; extra supplies of Cresolene 25 cents and 50 cents. Illustrated booklet containing physicians' testimonials free upon request. VAPO-CRESOLENE CO., 180 Fulton St., New York, U.S.A.

Recommended and sold in Peterborough by H. H. Edmison, druggist.

WINTER FAIR, GUELPH

Representative Stockmen From All Parts of the Country.

PAN AND CHICAGO WINNERS.

Judging the Stock—Arrival of Lord Minto, Governor-General of Canada—He Will Speak at the Public Meeting, as Will Also Hon. Sydney Fisher—The Experimental Union.

Guelph, Dec. 11.—Judged from every standpoint this has been a memorable day in the history of the Royal City. The twentieth annual recurrence of the Provincial Fat Stock Show, so far as exhibits and attendance are concerned, have proved an unqualified success. Yesterday the city was all animation and bustle, but no apprehension is feared as to the ability of the citizens to provide ample accomodation for all who may enter her gates. By reason of the liberal grants to the society by the Provincial Government, the city of Guelph and the County of Wellington, supplemented by private subscriptions, a fine building has been erected, commodious, well heated and well lighted. As a clearcut, well-defined evidence of what Canada can produce in the way of thoroughbred stock the provincial show is a success.

Yesterday representative stockmen from all parts of the province were present. In Shorthorns, J. and R. McQueen, E. Jeffs & Son, H. Smith, J. Fried & Sons and J. and W. B. Watts; in Herefords, F. W. Stone, W. Hall, Samuel Younk and James Hall, and in Galloways, A. M. and R. Shaw, W. J. Reid, D. McRae, are leading exhibitors. In grade cattle, J. Lloyd Jones, James Leask, E. Brien & Sons and John Dickinson make a creditable exhibit.

In sheep the display is exceptionally large and meritorious, Cotswolds and Shropshires predominating. In Cotswolds, Park & Son and E. Brien & Sons and leading exhibitors. In Lincolns, J. T. Gibson and G. Walker made the largest display. In Leicesters, J. M. Gardhouse, J. and W. B. Watt, A. and W. Whitelaw, Orr & Lillico and H. Parks have some fine specimens. Shropshires are represented by J. Lloyd Jones, John Campbell, R. Gibson and W. E. Wright. The exhibit of Southdowns is especially large, many of them being winners at the Pan and Chicago shows.

In hogs, it would be difficult to find a more creditable display, and a most commendable feature is the evident determination to produce a class of hogs that will meet with the greatest favor in the British markets, and for which the leading pork packing companies of the province have denoted generous prizes.

The upper flat of the society's building is devoted exclusively to the exhibition of poultry, and here may be seen probably the finest and most extensive display ever gathered together in this province. In no branch of agriculture or farm life has so much material progress been made within the past few years as in this particular line. Improved facilities for transportation in cold storage, coupled with the dissemination on this matter may be responsible for this altered condition.

Lectures of Hog Raising.

The best methods of fattening were well illustrated yesterday in the section devoted to that purpose. Yesterday morning at 8.30 F. W. Hodson of Ottawa gave an address on "Desirable and Undesirable Joints of Bacon Hogs," and was followed by Prof. G. E. Day, Guelph, on how to select, breed, care and feed for the production of such animals. Both lectures were attended by fair-sized audiences.

In the City Hall yesterday afternoon, under the auspices of the Ontario Agricultural and Experimental Union, Prof. H. L. Hatt, O.A.C., gave an interesting report on co-operative experiments with small fruits, and contended that the system of distributing small fruits from the O.A.C. to farmers throughout the country was attended with gratifying success.

Dr. W. H. Wiley, chief chemist, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, gave a somewhat lengthy address on the culture of sugar beets and the manufacture of beet sugar. The doctor is a firm believer in the sugar beet as a mortgage-raiser, and succeeded in investing a somewhat dry and technical subject with a great deal of interest.

One of the most interesting and profitable lessons of the day was that given during the judging of cattle yesterday afternoon. In a building well adapted for the purpose, flanked on both sides with rows of seats, before a deeply-interested gathering, Robert Miller of Stouffville and Thomas Crawford, M.P.P., Toronto, proceeded to judge the cattle, awarding the prizes, and in every instance giving well-grounded reasons for the awarding of the same.

Arrival of Lord Minto.

Considerable doubt and uncertainty existed in the minds of the officials of the society and city as to the date of the arrival of His Excellency the Governor-General. A rumor prevailed that he would arrive in a special car over the C.P.R., but, after waiting at the station for some time, a stampede was made to the G.T.R., at which His Excellency arrived shortly after 7 p.m. After considerable delay, His Excellency disembarked, and, escorted by President Mills and F. W. Hodson, headed by the 30th Battalion, under Captain Wideman, the party were driven in carriages to the Agricultural College, where a banquet was held, attended largely by ex-students of the college. To-day His Excellency will make a tour of the city, visit the fair, and leave in the evening for Ottawa.

To-day is expected to bring in large recruits to the visitors, and a public meeting will be held in the City Hall at 7.30 p.m. to be addressed by the Hon. Sydney Fisher, Minister of Agriculture, and the Hon. G. W. Ross.

The Experimental Union.

The feature of yesterday morning's session of the Ontario Agricultural and Experimental Union was an address by Mr. J. A. Ruddick, Department of Agriculture, Ottawa, on needed improvements in dairy interests. He held that Canadian cheese manufacturers had not shown improvement in keeping with the high standard which won them such a great reputation at the Chicago World's Fair. The large increase in the number of smaller factories, flimsy boxes for shipping and inferior buildings and equipment were to some extent responsible. Butter making was showing steady improvement, the makers evidently profiting by the work of the dairy schools and instructions. Hon. Sydney Fisher and others took part in the discussion.

Let Me Tell You How to Get Well.

Send no money; simply state the book you want. It will tell you what I spent a life time in learning.

With the book I will send you an order on your druggist for six bottles of Dr. Sheop's Restorative; and he will let you test it a month. If satisfied, the cost is $5.00. If it fails I will pay your druggist myself.

I do just as I say. Over half a million people have secured my treatment in that way, and 39 out of each 40 have paid for it, because they were cured. Not a penny is accepted if it fails.

There are 39 chances in 40 that I can cure you. No matter how difficult the case, I take the entire risk, for those half million cases have proved what my remedy can do.

My way is to strengthen the inside nerves.

I will bring back the nerve power, which alone makes each vital organ do its duty. No other remedy does that; and in most chronic diseases there is no other way to get well. Don't let doubt or prejudice keep you from asking about it.

Simply state which book you want and address Dr. Sheop, Box 47, Racine, Wis.

Book No. 1 on Dyspepsia.
Book No. 2 on the Heart.
Book No. 3 on the Kidneys.
Book No. 4 for Women.
Book No. 5 for Men (sealed).
Book No. 6 on Rheumatism.

Mild Cases, not chronic, are often cured by one or two bottles. At all druggists.

H. A. HARPER AT REST.

Remains Interred at Cookstown—Numerous Floral Tributes.

Toronto, Dec. 11.—The remains of the late Henry A. Harper, who lost his life in trying to save Miss Blair at Ottawa, passed through the city this morning from Ottawa to Cookstown, where the funeral took place during the afternoon. The body was accompanied by Dr. J. C. Harper of Carbondale, Pa., Mr. W. F. Harper of New York, and deceased's sister, Miss Emma Harper.

The body arrived on the C. P. R. train at 7.15 o'clock this morning, and went west at 8.25. A number of Toronto people went to Cookstown to attend the funeral.

A Barrie despatch says: The funeral of the late H. A. Harper left here at 1.30 to-day for Cookstown, accompanied by a large crowd of Barrie friends. The floral tributes were numerous and beautiful.

The H. A. Harper Memorial.

Ottawa, Dec. 11.—The Harper Memorial Committee has already raised about $800, and it is expected that this amount will be largely increased in the next few days. It is not intended to go outside of Ottawa for contributions, but if any friends of Harper in Toronto, Montreal, Barrie and other places decide to send money, the committee will be glad to get it. Hon. Wm. Mulock has given $100, John Coates, president of the Board of Trade, $100, and Mr. W. L. Mackenzie King $50.

SENT UP FOR TRIAL.

Dr. Graham and Miss Kilbourne Formally Committed.

London, Dec. 11.—Dr. Alex. Graham and Miss Emma Agnes Kilbourne appeared in Police Court yesterday morning and were formally committed to stand trial on the charge of murdering the latter's infant child.

The Police Magistrate, after reading the customary warning that their utterances might be used as evidence, asked the prisoners if they had anything to say. Dr. Graham answered firmly, "I have nothing to say, only that I am innocent of the charge." Miss Kilbourne did not answer at once, and her counsel answered for her that she was innocent. The magistrate replied that she must answer for herself, and she said, in a barely audible voice, "Innocent of the charge."

The Police Magistrate then announced that he committed the prisoners for trial, and ordered court adjourned.

The defence announced that they will apply for bail before a high Court Judge in Toronto at the earliest possible moment.

A Big Quarter's Worth

is always found in a bottle of Polson's Nerviline, the best household liniment known. It cures rheumatism, neuralgia, toothache, headache, sick-stomach, in fact is good for everything a liniment ought to be good for. Mothers find it the safest thing to rub on their children for sore throat, cold on the chest, sprains and bruises. Never be without Polson's Nerviline. It will cure the pains and aches of the entire family and relieve a vast amount of suffering every year.

Ought to Be In Practice.

"I've been hearin', John," said the old farmer to the son who had just returned from college, "that ye spent a good deal of yer time in chophouses."

"Well, yes," admitted the boy, "I suppose I did frequent them quite a bit."

"I'm glad to know it, John," asserted the farmer with a sigh of relief. "I was afraid ye might git out of trainin' while ye was away an' forgit how to handle the ax. Our chophouse, John, is in the same old place, right back of the kitchen, an' ye can't git to work there too soon to suit me. There's nigh on to six cords of wood that needs to be cut right away."

An Easy Mark.

"John, did you split the kindling?"

"Yes, dear."

"Is the coal in?"

"Seven buckets full."

"Now come and help me get the children to bed, and when the house is perfectly quiet you can have the dining room to yourself and write a short story to pay the house rent and a poem or two for the gas and water bills, and see if you can write a love song that you can sell for enough to pay the milkman and the washerwoman."

Johnnie Wanted to Know.

"Pa, what's a bookworm?"

"A bookworm, my boy? It's a species of worm that is found in very old books."

"Is it bad for dogs?"

"For dogs? I guess it wouldn't do 'em any good."

"Then I'm sorry I let Fido eat the insides out of that old book that you said was worth more'n forty dollars."

A LIBERAL FIELD DAY

Mr. Robert Beith, ex-M.P., Nominated for West Durham.

A VERY POPULAR CANDIDATE.

Hon. W. S. Fielding, Minister of Finance, Delivers a Rousing Address Showing Canada's Prosperity—The Dominion Under Sir Wilfrid Laurier Had Five Years of Peace—Crowded Mass Meeting.

Bowmanville, Dec. 11.—The Liberals of West Durham had a veritable field day here yesterday. In the afternoon Mr. Robert Beith, ex-M. P., was nominated at an enthusiastic and united convention to bear the Liberal banner in the bye-election for the seat made vacant by the voiding of Mr. Thornton's election for bribery by agents. Last night at a crowded mass meeting in the Town Hall Hon. W. S. Fielding, Minister of Finance; Mr. Wm. Ross, M.P. for South Ontario, and Mr. Beith delivered rousing speeches, setting forth the record of the Laurier Administration. Bowmanville's factories work until 9 o'clock at night in an effort to keep up with their orders, and after a fourteen hours' day most of us would prefer to rest, but last night many of the workmen from the Dominion Organ Factory and the Rubber Works came to the hall, and, crowding into the doorways and Council Chamber, stood during Mr. Fielding's address. Neither the meeting nor the convention could possibly have been more successful or more encouraging to Mr. Beith. At the convention a resolution of condolence with Mr. Blair was adopted, and a reference at last night's meeting to the dual tragedy of the Ottawa was received in a manner that showed how deeply the heroic death of young Harper and Miss Blair has impressed the people of Ontario.

Hon. W. S. Fielding.

Mr. Fielding was received with more than the usual applause, for he has been heard here before. He spoke of the ability of Mr. Beith, saying that there was not in the House a man who was more esteemed and respected by his friends, and more readily and attentively listened to when he had anything to say in the councils of his country. (Cheers.) Under the leadership of Sir Wilfrid Laurier we had had five years of peace in this country. He contrasted the condition of the country to-day with that when the Manitoba school question caused dissension throughout Canada. Now under Sir Wilfrid Laurier's wise and statesmanlike rule that question was so completely lost sight of that they might ask him why he recalled it. We had had five years of prosperity unexampled in the history of Canada. In illustration of this statement he quoted the figures of the increase in the aggregate trade of Canada. In the eighteen years of Conservative rule the aggregate foreign trade increased from $172,000,000 in 1878 to $239,000,000 in 1896, an increase of only $66,000,000 in eighteen years. Under the Liberal Government and policy in five years there was an increase of $147,000,000, or an average annual increase under Conservative rule of $3,700,000 and under Liberal rule of $29,500,000. Taking the imports, the figures were $19,000,000 increase in eighteen years under Conservative rule and $70,000,000 in five years under Liberal rule. In exports the trade in eighteen years under Conservative rule was $41,000,000, and in five years under Liberal administration $67,000,000. Under Conservative rule the exports increased $2,300,000 a year and under Liberal rule $13,500,000. In manufactures the increase in exports in eighteen years of Conservative rule was $5,060,000, and in five years of Liberal rule $6,600,000. Whether they looked at the trade of Canada generally or at the particular interest of manufacturers, in either case they had five years of successful business operations, for which in some measure at least they would give the Government credit. Then they had had five years of great financial prosperity, having regard to the Government of the Dominion. In the five years of Liberal administration there had been an average surplus of $4,000,000 a year.

The Conservatives charged that the Liberals had added to the debt of the country, but they must compare these additions with the additions made by the Conservatives to the debt. The Liberals had added some $2,000,000 a year to the debt, but the Conservative Government had added an average of $6,000,000 a year during the whole eighteen years of their term of office. He defended the Government from the charges of extravagant expenditure. Some of the expenditure, which was not greater in proportion to population than that of the previous Governments, did not add a cent to the taxation of the country. This was the case with $5,000,000 spent on the Yukon, and the additional capital invested in the Intercolonial. When the Opposition allowed 99 per cent. of the Government's estimates to pass unchallenged, it was too late for them to charge the Government with extravagance. So far from making any effort in the House to keep down the expenditure, the Conservatives had constantly urged greater outlays. One member had demanded the double-tracking of the Intercolonial, which would cause an additional outlay of one million dollars. Then Mr. Monk had complained because they had not spent a million more on the improvement of the St. Lawrence route, and he did not know how much to send somebody out to look for the north pole. The two members for Toronto had urged the deepening of Toronto harbor, and Mr. Maclean had demanded that the Government should purchase all of the railways of the country. In the whole five years there had not been one earnest effort by the Conservatives to secure retrenchment. Then, under Liberal administration, there had been five years of magnificent development of Imperial sentiment. In this connection Mr. Fielding enlarged upon the part that Canada had played in fighting the battles of the Empire, contrasting it with Sir Charles Tupper's declaration that in building the Intercolonial and the C. P.R. across the continent Canada had done all she was called on to do for the Empire.

The meeting closed with ringing cheers for the King, the Premier, Mr. Fielding and Mr. Beith.

THE FEAR OF HUMBUG

Prevents Many People From Trying a Good Medicine.

Stomach troubles are so common and in most cases so obstinate to cure that people are apt to look with suspicion on any remedy claiming to be a radical, permanent cure for dyspepsia and indigestion. Many such pride themselves on their acuteness in never being humbugged, especially in medicines.

This fear of being humbugged can be carried too far, so far, in fact, that many people suffer for years with weak digestion rather than risk a little time and money in faithfully testing the claims made of a preparation to reliable and universally used as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Now Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are vastly different in one important respect from ordinary proprietary medicines for the reason that they are not a secret patent medicine, no secret is made of their ingredients, although they are sold by all druggists under protection of trademark, but analysis shows them to contain the natural digestive ferments, pure aseptic pepsin, the digestive acids, Golden Seal, bismuth, hydrastis and nux. They are not cathartic, neither do they act powerfully on any organ, but they cure indigestion on the common sense plan of digesting the food eaten thoroughly before it has time to ferment, sour and cause the mischief. This is the only secret of their success.

Cathartic pills never have and never can cure indigestion and stomach troubles because they act entirely on the bowels, whereas the whole trouble is really in the stomach.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets taken after meals digest the food. That is all there is to it. Food not digested or half digested is poison, as it creates gas, acidity, headaches, palpitation of the heart, loss of flesh and many other troubles which are often called by some other name.

Hit by Piece of a Stump.

St. Catharines, Dec. 11.—Edward Secord, a prominent farmer of Pelham, was killed by an explosion of dynamite on his farm Monday. Mr. Secord had been clearing a five-acre field of stumps with dynamite, and was blowing up the last stump when the accident happened which killed him.

He had put in an extra heavy charge with only a short fuse and was trying to get away when the explosion occurred. A piece of the stump struck him in the back of the head and inflicted a deep gash. He died of his wound at midnight.

The deceased was a most respected resident of Pelham, and leaves a family and many relatives to mourn his loss. He was 45 years of age.

Because He Couldn't Find Work.

Calumet, Mich., Dec. 11.—While in a fit of despondency over his inability to find work and provide for his family, John Kinonen, living at Cooper Falls, 22 miles from here, early yesterday rose from bed, and while the family was sleeping he cut his wife's throat, the throat of a son 16 years of age, slashed a younger son less seriously, and then committed suicide by cutting his own throat. Kinonen is dead, but the other members of the family, while in a serious condition, are not fatally wounded, and the attending physicians think they will recover. The younger boy, with blood streaming from his gashed throat, ran to a neighbor's, and the physicians were soon summoned.

STRENGTHENS THE STATE.

Life Insurance is for the protection of those dependent on a man's life; their dependence makes it an unavoidable duty. Those dependent we assume to protect by our contract; at his personal cost; our duty to them is to make that contract as large, as secure, and as certainly available to them as possible; thus every Policy written conserves the interest of the State. A man with a Life Insurance Policy is apt to be a good citizen. Anarchists have no use for Life Insurance, and the state has no use for anarchists. The State should encourage every citizen to carry insurance. This Strengthens the State, abolishes alms-houses, and creates property that can be taxed. Further, the income from Your labour ends with Your life. The cost of living to the family continues. Take measures to have the income continue also. The Life Insurance Policy Does.

The most enterprising and progressive of all the Canadian Life Offices to-day is the Sun Life of Canada. Ten years ago the Company had Life Assurance in force to the extent of $16,759,355,92. On the 31st of December last, this amount had been increased to $57,980,634.68. The increase, therefore, of Life Assurance in force during the last ten years amounted to the tremendous sum of $41,221,278.76.

THE COUNTY COURT.

The Grand Jury's Presentation—True Bill Against Henry Doonan for Perjury.

The County Court of the County of Peterborough and General Sessions of the Peace, which opened at one o'clock yesterday before His Honour Judge Weller, has spent most of the time so far in hearing the case of Walsh vs. Trotter.

The Grand Jury at ten o'clock this morning brought in the following presentment;

May It Please Your Honour,—

The Grand Jury of our Sovereign Lord the King, of the County of Peterborough, beg to present as follows:—

We are pleased that this county is so free from crime, there being only one criminal case for us to enquire into.

As directed by Your Honour we visited and inspected the County Gaol, and are pleased to report that we found it carefully looked after, everything being cleanly kept, and found the inmates carefully guarded and cared for. We are very sorry to see that the majority of the inmates are old men, whose only crime is poverty. Of those at present confined in the gaol, one is insane, and awaiting removal to the asylum, one is for larceny, and the rest are vagrants. we think that it would be very desirable to have erected a House of Refuge, in which the old and infirm could be properly cared for, without having to be confined in the county gaol, and we would strongly urge upon the Town and County Councils to join in the erection of such an institution.

We are glad to see that the County Council has greatly improved the lighting in the Court House by placing electric lights therein.

We join in wishing Your Honour and the officers of the Court, the compliments of the season.

R. W. GRUBBE,
Foreman.

The Grand Jury brought in a true bill against Henry Doonan who is charged with perjury.

AT ST. ANDREW'S.

Evangelist Walden Warns Against a More Convenient Season.

A most impressive address was given in St. Andrew's church last night by Evangelist Walden, from the text, Acts xxiv, 25, "A more convenient season."

There are many who listen to faithful preaching for years, and yet their constant attitude to the truth was, "Go thy way for this time." The question addressed to the congregation was extremely practical and pointed, "What is your convenient season?" Some make it the time when their hearts will be right, and consequently they wait until they feel a good experience; others are quite determined to accept the truth when Satan gives up the struggle, but it is well to remember that this will never be. To accept Christ as a personal Saviour means the preparation and better equipment for the life to which we are called. Other times of convenience are waiting till we have a time of leisure, when there is no cross to be borne, when the gate is wide, when my friends and associates come, when all professors of religion will be consistent, when I am in sickness or trouble, I will call upon Him. In all these cases we are under the delusion of Satan.

The meetings will be continued to-night at 7.45 in song service, and everybody is welcome.

Presentation to a Teacher.

Mrs. William Henry of town, wife of the caretaker of the Children's House of Refuge on Charlotte street, has received an invitation to attend a presentation event in the village of Cameron, Fenelon Township, on the evening of the 27th December. Mrs. Henry was a pupil of Mr. John Cundal, who, after 37 years teaching in that section, is retiring from the profession. His old scholars propose marking the occasion by expressing their esteem for their faithful teacher in a tangible form. The committee having the presentation in hand, have sent a written invitation to Mrs. Henry regarding her attendance, or, if unable to be present, to send a short address in token of her esteem and kind remembrance for her former teacher. Mr. Cundal is held in very high respect by all who have come within his influence. He is said to have sent out more teachers than any other in the province from a rural district.

Private, 3rd Dragoons.

Fred S. Hubbs,
Trumpeter, 3rd Dragoons.

George Daniels,
Late of Howard's Scouts.

W. P. K. Milligan,
Captain, 45th Regiment.

John R. Dundass,
Gunner, 14th Field Battery.

Richard Boyle,
Sergeant, 14th Field Battery.

Reginald H. Turner,
Corporal, 57th Regiment.

Alfred Trussler,
Sergeant, 57th Regiment.

The above is the list of men who were sworn in yesterday at Peterborough for service in the Canadian Yeomanry, that will leave next week for South Africa under the command of Lieut.-Colonel Evans. It was no trouble to get recruits in Peterborough, and three times the required number of men could have been taken on the strength here, and they were all men that would have done credit to any corps which Canada might have sent to South Africa. When it was announced that the recruiting would take place here yesterday with Surgeon-Major Young as Medical Examiner, and Col. Lessard as Recruiting Officer, the officers of the local corps, as well as anyone else, who might have had influence in getting men on the strength, their qualifications being equal, were besieged with applications. Yesterday about fifty men were examined, and only the choicest twelve of these were sworn in. There were of course many disappointed ones, but the preference was given first to those who had served before in South Africa, to those who were members of the volunteer force, and to unmerried men.

Perhaps no greater evidence of a desire to serve his country in suppressing the guerilla warfare in South Africa, can be cited than the case of Major Brown, of the 3rd Dragoons.

Major Brown is a resident of Colborne, and for twelve years or more commanded "A" Squadron of the 3rd Dragoons. He obtained his majority a year or two ago after completing a splendid record as Squadron Commander. He is younger than most Majors and is every inch of him a soldier. When the first Canadian contingent went to South Africa he applied for a commission, and it is said he was also unsuccessful in this regard when the second contingent was organized. However, there was one more chance for Major Brown to see service in South Africa, and to make sure that he would get on the strength he came to Peterborough and volunteered as a private. He had no trouble in passing the necessary examinations, and he was sworn in as a member of of the Canadian Yeomanry. Major Brown's persistence and his action in resigning his commission as Major to serve in the ranks will be generally admired.

Lieut. Percy Roberts Price as is well known is a South African veteran, and could not resist the temptation of the excitement of war and the opportunity to serve his country and has once more been allured away from his old regiment the 3rd Dragoons. The same may be said of Lieut. Hayward.

Pte. Frank G. Craig is a son of Mr. Joseph Craig, of Ashburnham, and has served for three years in the 3rd Dragoons. Pte. F. J. E. McDonnell has also been to camp with the Dragoons for several years.

Trumpter Fred Hubbs is a son of Mr. C. E. Hubbs, Ashburnham, and has seen quite a few military camps. George Daniels has been home from South Africa for a few months only. While there he served in the late Major Howard's Scouts. Capt. Milligan is one of the best shots in the district and is a very enthusiastic soldier. His home is near Bowmanville.

Sgt. Trussler and Sgt. Boyle have been to South Africa on the second Canadian contingent. Corp. Turner is a brother of "Chill" Turner, who was in South Africa, and had he not been taken on the strength, his brother would have applied again and most likely would have been accepted.

John R. Dundas is a splendid type of soldier and has been a member of the 14th Field Battery for some time.

The men were measured for their clothing and they will leave here at midnight to-morrow night for Montreal, per C.P.R. They are around to-day bidding their friends a farewell. There is a probability of there being more men enlisted in Peterborough, as word has been sent to the militia department stating that a number of good men are still available, and as there is some difficulty in getting recruits down east, several more may be taken on here. Col. Lessard will remain in town to-day awaiting developments.

The Dragoons are very proud of the showing they have made, there being six out of the twelve chosen who are members of that corp.

The boys will be given an enthusiastic send off to-morrow night.

At the I.O.G.T. entertainment last night the meeting gave three rousing cheers for Sgt. Trussler, who will leave with the contingent, and who is a member of the local lodge of Good Templars.

Major Brown has been appointed Corporal provisionally.

The men of the 57th will turn out in large numbers to give the volunteers a send-off at the station.

BOTH LEGS AMPUTATED

Of the Young Girl who was Frozen in Colborne.

It was found necessary yesterday to remove the legs of the little Barnardo Home girl, who was so severely frozen while working at Dr. Mallory's residence in Colborne, through running away and remaining out all night.

ST. LUKE'S MISSION.

Large Congregations Continue to Greet Rev. Mr. Murphy.

Last night a large congregation was present to listen to the earnest words of the missioner, Rev. Arthur Murphy. He s, e from II Sam., ix, 3, "And the King said, Is there not yet any of the house of Saul that I may show the grace of God unto him?"

The reverend gentleman said that various definitions were given of the grace of God. Some call it "unlimited love," others, "undeserved favour," but the best one was given by a school boy who said that the grace of God was "getting everything from God for nothing."

Mephibosbeth, who is mentioned in the 9th chapter of II Samuel, represents a lost soul. The people of the present age do not care to hear sermons on Hell and on Sin. They do not want the dark background. But to show to better advantage the grace of God it was necessary to have the black back ground of sin.

Mephibosbeth was a lost soul. He came from Lo-debar, which meant "a place without grass; no pasture." This is an illustration of the world; it has plenty to satisfy the carnal man, but absolutely nothing to satisfy a soul.

Mephibosbeth was separated from the Kingdom, because of the sin of his grandfather, Saul. Through the sin of Adam all mankind is separated from the Kingdom of God.

Again, Mephibosbeth was worthless. He said of himself that he was a dead dog. A dog was the most despised animal to the Jew. Man's estimate of greatness in the world was money, education and influence. God's estimate of all that was nothing.

Mephibosbith was lame on both feet, a cripple, not able to move about. Man is crippled and paralysed through sin. All this pictures the dark background of a lost soul.

Y. M. C. A. ANNUAL MEETING.

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Directors of the Y.M.C.A. was held last night. Mr. B. F. Ackerman presiding.

It was decided to hold the annual business meeting on Thursday, Dec. 19th, at 8 o'clock. The following Nominating Committee was appointed: Messrs. Bennet, Carton, Dixon, S. Hall and R. Merrill. Auditors,—R. J. Kidd and J. S. Knapman.

The officers are making a strong effort to meet the current expenses for the association year, and as funds are yet required in order to do so, it is earnestly hoped that generous citizens who have not yet assisted will do so at once, either to the treasurer, Mr. J. H. Consal, or to the office of the association. Any whose subscriptions or fees are not yet paid are requested to pay the same in order to be reported in good standing at the annual meeting.

Miss Delaney's Holiday Sale.

Next to the littleness of prices, the best news of this sale is the superior qualities and refined taste in millinery and other dress needs. Everything is charmingly new — you see the sparkle of fashion everywhere. New styles, new patterns, new ideas — in fact a wealth of seasonable novelties. The best that Europe and America can produce has not been considered too good for this important holiday sale. Exquisitely trimmed hats, as well as quiet gentlewomen's hats, fashionable veilings, pretty fancy collars, novelties in neckwear, new conceits in belts, etc. Untrimmed hats, ready for the finishing touches, which many a lady prides herself on doing herself. Also many new things which fancy dictates in evening wear, and for Christmas gifts.

Successful Gymnastic Exhibition Last Night

AT THE LOCAL Y. M. C. A.

For the Purpose of Putting in Baths in the Young Women's Christian Association Building, George Street.

The very successful gymnastic exhibition which was given in the Y.M.C.A. last evening was indicative of many things. It manifested at the very outset that a spirit of cordiality and of co-operation exists between those two institutions which are carrying on so valuable a work in the community—the Y.M.C.A and the Y.W.C.A. The object of the exhibition was to assist, in a pecuniary way, the purpose of the Y.W.C.A. to equip a gymnasium. Further, the exhibition testified to the excellence of the physical training which is available to young men of Peterborough through membership in the Y.M.C.A., and the fact of the popularity of the gym. was never more strongly emphasized than it was last night. The gymnasts were not only physically fit and accomplished, but their numerical strength appeared unlimited, and ages had a wide range. The large attendance which filled every available place in the gallery of the gym. was, likewise, an evidence of popularity, the predominating numbers of the ladies probably going to show that they had some interest in the auspicious outcome of the undertaking.

The physical instructor of the Y.M.C.A., Mr. H. E. Ayers, is certainly to be congratulated upon the success of an exhibition which was so eloquent of the good results of his efforts, and so complimentary thereto. The programme was full of pleasant surprises and so arranged that interest was ever at its keenest. Mr. Jas. Connal, chairman of the Physical Committee, presided, and prefaced the programme with an expression of thanks to those who, by their attendance, had conduced to success. The first selection was a medley of Scotch airs played by the Y.M.C.A. orchestra with acceptance.

A squad of twenty school boys contributed a very interesting feature, and one that did them much credit. This was military and letter marching performed with an alacrity and a precision that was most remarkable. The forming of the letters P.Y.M.C.A. was unmistakably clever and hearty applause was the reward of the marchers.

The formation of pyramids by men of the senior class was significant of the strength, steadiness and self-control imparted by a proper muscular development. The men performed a difficult task with great success.

The apparatus work by three squads of men under the leadership of Messrs. F. Trollope, E. E. Lord and Sanford R. Hall, was one of the best numbers on the programme. Performers on the horizontal bar, the parallel bars and the horse gave exhibitions of their accomplishments. All were very efficient and went through the various feats as directed by their respective leaders with eclat. The performance was very interesting and many features were most amusing.

The basket ball match between the Brownies and Intermediates was no half-hearted struggle, the lusty young players going into the game with great spirit, and they had the undivided attention of enthusiastic spectators. The teams were well matched, a surplus of speed seeming to favour the Brownies, but it was well on to close of the first half when the initial goal was scored by Howson for the Intermediates, from a Brownie foul.

The second half was even swifter, and in this Howson, Parker and Tully scored from fouls, thus making a total of four in favour of the Intermediates to two for the Brownies, scored by Miller from play.

The members of the teams were: Intermediates — J. Tully, J. Cameron, L. Johnston, R. Parker, F. Howson.

Brownies—G. Miller, N. Miller, H. Daly, R. Hall and G. Ferguson.

Officials — Umpires, Trollope and Hall; referee, H. E. Ayres.

The wheelbarrow race provoked much merriment. Representatives of the Harriers and Electricians participated. The men forming the barrow, and the wheeler in each case was blindfolded and at a signal the several outfits scurried across the gym, to the opposite side and return. The head of many a barrow, in its obscurity came in contact with the hard wall of the gymn., but the unconcern of the real article was exhibited. The Electricians won out.

The advanced apparatus work by class leaders was brilliant. The squad consisted of F. Trollope, E. Payne, S. R. Hall, A. O. Sawyer, J. G. Tate, Chas Anderson, E. E. Lord and H. Finney. Their work upon the parallel bars and the horizontal bars was marvelled at, for the gymnastic feats were of no ordinary character, many being both difficult, in the estimation of the spectator, and of considerable daring. It is no disparagement on the other performers to say that Sanford Hall and F. Trollope are apparently the embodiment of all the physical education that can possibly be acquired by constant practice in the gymnasium. Their exploits would do credit to professional acrobats. The mat work by the class was also quite clever, and repeated applause expressed the approval of the interested gathering.

A tug of war between teams captained by C. Anderson and F. Trollope was well contested, the latter team winning.

A thoroughly enjoyable entertainment and, it is to be hoped, not the last of its kind, was brought to a close with the National Anthem.

The accompanistes for the evening were Misses Macdonald and Bradd.

The Physical Department of the Y.M.C.A. desire to thank all those assisting in the entertainment in any way.

You think I look so much better; yes, and I feel better—Miller's Compound Iron Pills did it. Sold by W. Madill.

Nasal Catarrh Cured

By Powley's Liquified Ozone---W. H. Gould of London Makes Strong Statement.

Nasal catarrh nine times out of ten is one of natures evidences of a weakened system. It's the red flag that warns of lung trouble, wasting and consumption. Powley's Liquified Ozone will quickly rid you of catarrh and system weakness. It will make you healthy and give you the healthy man's immunity to the germs of disease.

Gentlemen: For some time I have been troubled with catarrh in the nose, and general run down condition. I decided to try your remedy, Powley's Liquified Ozone, and after taking two bottles it has completely cured me. You are at liberty to use this testimonial in any way you desire for the benefit of other sufferers.

(Signed) W. H. GOULD, Jr., 217 Hamilton Rd., London, Ont.

It doesn't take very long for Powley's Liquified Ozone to make its beneficial action felt. It will build the system in a remarkably short time. Local applications for nasal catarrh are best applied by atomizer or as a douche. They consist of ½ teaspoonful Ozone, ½ teaspoonful glycerine to eight parts of water. Internal doses should be taken three times a day and at bed time.

FOUND AT LAST.

But the Lady Sincerely Wished That It Had Remained Lost.

"My wife will be careful hereafter how she takes liberties with the truth," said Jones, with a grin. "We had our minister with us the other day for dinner, and the conversation turned upon absent-mindedness, and my better half had to tell her story.

"'I am dreadfully absentminded,' said she. 'I remember some six or seven years ago a friend of mine gave me her celebrated recipe for making jam. When I reached home, I carefully put it away where I would be sure to find it when I wanted it. But, do you know, a few weeks later, when I needed it, I couldn't remember for the life of me where I had put it, and to this day I have never been able to find it.'

"After dinner she turned to the Rev. Mr. Thirdly and said sweetly:

"'Would you mind reading a chapter in the Bible? We make it a rule to read at least one chapter every night.'

"This statement caused me to look at her in surprise, for it was news to me.

"The reverend gentleman consented graciously, and she brought the family Bible, which she had carefully dusted and placed in a conspicuous spot before he had arrived.

"As he turned the leaves a paper fluttered to the floor.

"'Goodness!' gasped my wife as she picked it up, not realizing how her words were going to sound after her somewhat pious statement; 'it is that recipe for jam!'"

An Appeal To Mothers

To Protect the Little Ones From Coughs and Colds That so Frequently Lead to Consumption in Later Years.

It is possible that you have been accustomed to consider that every advertisement is for the benefit of the advertiser only. In this you have been mistaken, as you will probably admit if you read about Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine, and have an opportunity of testing its value in your family.

Every mother is anxious to learn of effective means of combating the ills which cause her children to suffer. Many have learned how to conquer croup, bronchitis, whooping cough, sore throat, severe coughs and colds, by reading the advertisements of Dr Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine. Some mothers have even taken the trouble to write letters thanking us for making known to the public the merits of this great cough and cold medicine. They realized that to them the advertising was news of great value.

It almost seems like wasting space to tell of Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine. So many know about it, have tested its virtues, and seek its healing power whenever in need of treatment for throat and lungs. But there are many rivals and many imitations. Hosts of druggists stand ready to offer a substitute if the buyer is not first in his demands for the genuine and reliable Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine.

You cannot afford to let your cold run on and on, developing into chronic bronchitis, serious lung trouble or consumption. You cannot plead ignorance of effective treatment. Prudence suggests the wisdom of keeping Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine in the house all the time to protect the children, and grown people as well, from the ills of cold weather. 25c a bottle. Family size 60 cents. At all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto. 6

"A handsome and useful Christmas present for your mother or grandmother is a copy of Dr. Chase's last and complete Receipt Book. Illustrated folder free."

TORONTO LIVE STOCK.

The run of live stock at the Cattle Market was fairly large—78 carloads, composed of 1090 cattle, 761 hogs, 1814 sheep and lambs and about 20 calves.

The quality of fat cattle offered was very much improved, several lots of well-finished exporters, as well as butchers' cattle for the local Christmas trade, being offered.

Trade for well-finished shipping cattle and choice butchers' steers and heifers, for Christmas purposes, was good, but all other grades of butchers' cattle were slow of sale, not being wanted.

Million Dollars for Horses.

Toronto, Dec. 11.—The British War Office has so far purchased, through Col. Dent in Canada, 7,567 horses, and besides this he has instructions to buy 340 more for the new contingent. This means that about $1,000,000 has been spent in the country among horse dealers. Of the animals purchased, between 5,000 and 6,000 were secured in Ontario.

To Try Capital Punishment.

Christiania, Dec. 11.—The Adelsthing (one of the houses of Parliament), which has under consideration a new penal code, has decided to abolish capital punishment. Only a small minority voted for its retention. No execution has taken place in Norway for 22 years, and crime is steadily decreasing.

EXPENSIVE DINNERS.

Two That Were Served in Delmonico's Old Place in New York.

Probably the most expensive dinner ever given at Delmonico's old restaurant, on Fourteenth street, New York, was that given by Mr. Morton Peto to the tea and coffee merchants of New York, 200 in number. It cost $25,000. The rarest wines and the most elaborate decorations were mere incidents. The menu cards were of gold, and the guests sat on silk cushions on which their names were embroidered. In the center of the table was a miniature lake in which swam swans taken from Central park. Clara Louise Kellogg received $1,000 for singing two songs at this feast and a present besides of a diamond bracelet. The salon was smothered in flowers.

Another dinner given at one of the Delmonico establishments for ten people cost $400 a plate. It was luxurious enough to be classical. The waiters, five of them, were dressed as sailors. The host was a yachtsman, and he bought the waiters' clothes. The guests drank, or, rather, tasted, every vinted liquor that ever has been brought to America. They finished with a pousse cafe made of eleven liqueurs. Before each plate sat a cut glass basin about twenty inches in diameter and four inches deep. Each was nearly filled with water perfumed with attar of roses, on the surface of which floated half open pond lilies. In the basin a perfect model of the yacht owned by the host was placed. It was cut in red cedar wood, with cabin, rail, wheel for steering, brasswork, such as belaying pins and binnacles, manropes worked and trimmed with sailor knots, scraped pine masts and booms, rigging of silken cords colored as it would be in the original, and sails of satin. There were a gold oar and many other gewgaws.

"NO TONGUE CAN TELL."

The Pain Endured by Mrs. Bradley was Beyond Description—For Over Nine Years, She Never had a Good Night's Sleep—She Couldn't Eat, and had Given up Hope—Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets Cured Her.

Mrs. Jas. Bradley, of Smith's Cove, Digby County, N. S., is a very happy woman. For years she suffered a great deal with Dyspepsia. She kept on doctoring, but without relief, and for the last few months had practically given up hope of ever being any better.

Now she is well. How this came about is best told in her own words:

"I have had Dyspepsia for over nine years, and I have tried the best doctors in this place, and never got any relief.

"I have had to starve myself until I was very weak. I could scarcely eat anything.

"After so many trials and failures I had given up hope of ever being any better. No tongue can tell what I have suffered. I cannot describe it.

"Some time ago I saw an advertisement of Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets. I purchased six boxes, and have taken nearly all of them, and I am thankful to say that I am entirely cured. I can now eat almost anything.

"For years, before using the Tablets, I had never enjoyed a good night's rest. Now I can sleep comfortably all night, something which I never expected to do again in this world.

"I advise all who suffer as I have to use Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets, for they are the best remedy that ever was discovered, and I hope that this may be read by many who suffer from Dyspepsia, for I am sure that if I could make them see what Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets have done for me it would be the means of saving many others from continual suffering."

Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets always cure, no matter how chronic the case, or no wrong you have suffered.

The fact that other medicine has failed to cure you, doesn't prove that Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets will fail. They never disappoint the sufferer with Stomach Trouble. If you suffer try a box and be convinced. They will do for you what they have done for Mrs. Bradley and many others.

CLERICAL ANECDOTES.

How the Parson Is Sometimes Worsted by the Layman.

He very occasionally gets it in church, as in the classic case instanced by the late Dean Ramsay, who relates that on a sultry summer Sunday afternoon a country congregation felt and yielded to the temptation to drowsiness with a remarkable unanimity. Almost the only person apparently wide-awake was the village idiot, who sat in the front of the "loft," with steady gaze fixed on the minister. Singling him out as an example, the parson sharply rebuked his flock for their sleepiness. "Why," he exclaimed, "even the poor afflicted one, Daft Jamie, as ye call him, can manage to keep awake." "Aye; but, minister," retorted Jamie, not quite comprehending the situation, but dimly resenting the sudden publicity given to his doings, "if I hadna been an idiot I wad ha' been sleepin' too."

In a small church in Yorkshire well known to the writer one of the most regular and attentive attendants was a countryman who always closed his eyes to listen to the sermon. It helped him to think, he used to say, and that he really listened no one who undertook to question him about the discourse would doubt. On one occasion when the pulpit was occupied by a youthful cleric from a neighboring place there came a pause in the sermon. Suspecting what it meant, but not troubling to open his eyes, old John said: "Tha can ger on wi' thy preachin'. I'm nean asleep."

Out of church the parson sometimes receives a "nasty one," deliberately administered. I regret to say that my own grandfather once, in a moment of angry outspokenness, likened his vicar—in the presence of that worthy—to the guide-post at the cross lanes in the parish; "for," said the irate and blunt old man, "it points people the road, but doesn't travel in it itself." The astonished vicar was too much taken aback to reply while his censor was within hearing, or he might have made the retort which was made by a Kentish clergyman to a similar charge. "What!" said he, "Why, you're never content. Here I tell you what you ought to do on Sunday and show you what you ought not to do the rest of the week. What more do you want? You're never satisfied."

TWO CAPTAINS.

One Dies For His People, the Other's People Die For Him.

Ruskin in his "Essay on War" says: "It is wholly inconceivable to me how well educated princes who ought to be of all gentlemen the gentlest and of all nobles the most generous and whose title of royalty means only their function of doing every man 'right'—how these, I say, throughout history should so rarely pronounce themselves on the side of the poor and of justice, but continually maintain themselves and their own interests by oppression of the poor and by wresting of justice, and how this should be accepted as so natural that the word 'loyalty,' which means faithfulness to law, is used as if it were only the duty of a people to be loyal to their king and not the duty of a king to be infinitely more loyal to his people.

"How it comes to pass that a sea captain will die with his passengers and lean over the gunwale to give the parting beat its course, but that a king will not usually die with, much less for, his passengers—thinks it rather incumbent on his passengers in any number to die for him? Think, I beseech you, of the wonder of this.

"The sea captain, not captain by divine right, but only by company's appointment; not a man of royal descent, but only a plebeian who can steer; not with the eyes of the world upon him, but with feeble chance, depending on one poor boat, of his name being ever heard above the wash of the fatal waves; not with the cause of a nation resting on his act, but helpless to save so much as a child from among the lost crowd with whom he resolves to be lost, yet goes down quietly to his grave rather than break his faith to those few emigrants.

"But your captain by divine right, your captain with the hues of a hundred shields of kings upon his breast, your captain whose every deed, brave or base, will be illuminated or branded forever before unescapable eyes of men, your captain whose every thought and act are beneficent or fatal from sun rising to setting, blessing as the sunshine or shadowing as the night—this captain as you find him in history for the most part thinks only how he may tax his passengers and sit at most ease in his cabin."

A Duck's Suicide.

Sportsmen who hunt ducks on inland streams and lakes have frequently known them to dive when wounded and fail to appear again.

A professional guide who has shot ducks for many years along the upper Hudson says he has solved the mystery. He shot a wood duck that fell wounded and dived in still water. It did not reappear, and when he came to look for it under water he could see the bird hanging with its bill to a root. It was quite dead, and considerable force was necessary to loosen its hold.

The hunter firmly believes that the duck committed suicide by drowning to keep from falling into the hands of its mortal enemy—man.

Planting a Vine.

Remember when you plant a vine that you are planting for time, and make a good provision for its growth. Don't dig a hole just large enough for the plant and thrust it in, leaving it to "sink or swim, survive or perish," as best it may. Rather do you give it a fair show for its life. Choose a place in good sunlight. Dig a hole two feet deep and a foot and a half square. Cart away the earth and fill the hole with well rotted compost, putting good garden soil on top in which to set the plant. You have thus supplied it with something to grow on, and the plant will reward you accordingly.

Nosebleed.

To stop nosebleed apply cold water or ice to the forehead and nose or ice to the back of the neck or to the roof of the mouth. If this does not check the bleeding, insert in the bleeding nostril a plug of dry cotton or wet the cotton first in a strong solution of alum water. Raising the arms high above the head sometimes stops the bleeding.

Blood Disorders

are simply kidney disorders. The kidneys filter the blood of all that shouldn't be there. The blood passes through the kidneys every three minutes. If the kidneys do their work no impurity or cause of disorder can remain in the circulation longer than that time. Therefore if your blood is out of order your kidneys have failed in their work. ROAD BUILDING.

Three Important Points to Observe in Making Highways Are Grade and Cost of Construction and Maintenance.

The first three important points to consider in the construction of a road, says a road engineer, are grade, cost of maintenance and cost of construction.

Speaking of the grade, he says that theoretically a level road is the one sought after, but experience teaches that a one-half or one per cent. grade is preferable, securing better drainage, which is the basis of life of a road. A level road through low lands is a very expensive thing. A road needs the sun as much as a crop and should have locations on the sides of hills to suit the sun. Distance should always be sacrificed in favor of grade. The grade should never break in a fill, but at either end, so as to keep as much of the water off the grade as possible. Ditches should be made on all embankments to prevent washes.

After the establishment of the grades with cuts and fills by the engineers, the preparation of the roadbed is turned over to the pathmaster. He depends almost entirely upon road machines in placing the earth for a bed with the same crown which is ready for the macadam. The bed is now rolled, depressions are filled and spongy places cut out, and filled with dry earth. The surface is now ready to receive the bedrock.

The bedrock consists of six inches of broken stone passed through a three-inch ring. These broken stones should be spread with a dumping wagon or with a shovel. It is bad to dump the stone from a wagon in one place and spread with a rake by pulling. This always leaves the most stone where the dump was. A heavy harrow should be used in leveling the broken stone.

The second layer should consist of three or four inches of stone broken to go through a two-inch ring, with everything which will go through a one-inch ring taken out. This layer should be sprinkled and rolled until perfectly smooth.

The third and last layer should consist of the screenings and any stone less than one inch in diameter, spread to a thickness of one and a half to two inches. If possible, it is best to flood this last coat with water and let it stand over night. This should be done instead of using the rolls when the road is dry. The top coat should be rolled until it is hard enough so that it will crush like material when rolled on its surface, instead of forcing the solid pieces down into the road. The experiment of throwing pieces under the roller should be tried frequently.

This would appear to be a solid and enduring piece of road. And it is. But it needs attention. The repairing of a macadam road requires more skill and attention than the original construction. For the first few years the loosening of any depression and the filling up of the same with broken stone will keep the road in good shape if care is used. But after five years, resurfacing with four or five inches of stone is necessary.

ON FIRE.

An exploding lamp; the clothing in a blaze; a paragraph in the paper telling of horrible suffering from burns. Tragedy in this form moves a man to tears. But for women who are daily being consumed by the smouldering fire of disease there is little sympathy.

Inflammation, with its fierce burning; ulceration, eating into the tissues; the nervous system almost shattered by suffering; these are only part of the daily agonies borne by many a woman.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription puts out the fire of inflammation, heals ulceration, and cures female weakness. It tranquilises the nerves, restores the appetite, and gives refreshing sleep. "Favorite Prescription" is the most reliable put-up medicine offered as a cure for diseases peculiar to women. It always helps. It almost always cures.

"When I first commenced using Dr. Pierce's medicines," writes Mrs. George A. Strong, of Greenwood, Saratoga Co., N. Y., "I was suffering from female weakness, a disagreeable drain, bearing-down pains, weak and tired feeling all the time. I dragged around in that way for two years, and I began taking your medicine. After taking first bottle I began to feel better. I took four bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, two of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' one vial of the 'Pleasant Pellets,' also used one bottle of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. Now I feel like a new person. I can't thank you enough for your kind advice and the good your medicine has done me."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, paper bound, is sent free on receipt of 31 one-cent stamps to pay expense of customs and mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

THE HOME DOCTOR.

Ice cream is said to be an infallible remedy for hoarseness.

Skin cleanliness, or, in other words, frequent ablution of the whole person, is a powerful preservative against all infectious and contagious diseases.

To cure a sprain bruise a handful of sage leaves and boil them in a gill of vinegar for five minutes. Apply this in a folded napkin as hot as it can be borne to the part affected.

For inflamed eyes use the white of an egg beaten to a froth and add to it a tablespoonful of rosewater. Apply with a piece of cotton wool, which must be changed as often as it dries.

A soothing drink for sore throat that is recommended is made of a pint of barley water brought to a boil over a hot fire, to which is added while stirring until dissolved an ounce of the best gum arabic. Sweeten to taste.

Light being an element of cheerfulness, as much of it as the patient can bear without discomfort should always be admitted to the sickroom, care being taken to keep reflecting objects, such as crystals and looking glasses, out of the invalid's view.

Woman is as old as She Looks.

It is not age but disease, weakness and ill-health that makes women look old, care-worn and wrinkled. You cannot look your best unless you feel well, strong and vigorous with pure, rich blood and steady nerves. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food makes good looks because it makes good health, restores the healthful glow to the complexion, rounds out the form and gives elasticity to every motion of the body.

Infusorial Earth.

In the whole catalogue of "chemicals, minerals and rare elements," the prices of which are quoted every week by trade journals, perhaps no name is more puzzling to the uninitiated than "infusorial earth." Still, if one knows much about dynamite he is aware that this is the stuff employed as an absorbent to hold the nitroglycerin of that famous explosive. It was Nobel, the great Swedish engineer, who founded a number of attractive prizes to encourage scientific progress, who first discovered the trick by which nitroglycerin could be safely handled. Infusorial earth is composed of the silicious shells of minute vegetable organisms, diatoms which reveal wonderfully complicated and beautiful structures under the microscope.

It Reached Him.

A letter was received at the postoffice in Washington directed to the biggest fool in that city.

The postmaster was absent, and on his return one of the younger clerks informed him of the receipt of the letter.

"And what became of it?" inquired the postmaster.

"Why," replied the clerk, "I didn't know who the biggest fool in Washington was, so I opened it myself."

"And what did you find in it?" inquired the postmaster.

"Find?" replied the clerk. "Why, nothing but the words, 'Thou art the man.'"

EIGHT CONVINCING REASONS . . .

WHY YOU SHOULD INSURE IN

THE IMPERIAL LIFE ASSURANCE CO'Y OF CANADA.

1. It is a purely Canadian Company, having all its funds invested in Canadian securities, and transacting business only in Canada.

2. It maintains the largest Government Deposit of any Canadian Life Insurance Company.

3. It maintains relatively the strongest policy reserves of any Canadian Life Insurance Company.

4. Its past record — the greatest guarantee of the future — has been unparalleled in Canadian life insurance.

5. Its policy contract is one of the most liberal issued, consistent with safety and equity.

6. It has a Capital of $1,000,000, which makes policy-holders' security unquestionable. At the same time, the assured is practically in the same position regarding profits as if he held a policy in a mutual company, the Imperial's charter providing that at least 90 per cent. of all profits shall be divided amongst policy-holders.

7. For every $100 of liability to policy-holders it holds $130 of securely invested assets. These assets are all of the highest order, and will bear the closest scrutiny.

8. An Imperial policy never depreciates in value, but, on the contrary, is constantly becoming more valuable. It is the most valuable estate you can leave behind you.

THE BEET SUGAR FACTORY.

Peterborough's Committee Losing no Time in Taking Steps to Ascertain Information.

The committee which was appointed at the recent meeting of those interested in the sugar beet question has prepared the circular which will be found appended, and is forwarding it to the Township Councils in the County, and also to Cavan and Emily.

If it can be arranged for the deputation to go to Michigan, the farmers can be seen at the factories, as the beets are being brought in at just about this season of the year.

The circular reads as follows:—

Peterborough, Dec. 7th, 1901.

Gentlemen, — A largely attended meeting was held in Peterborough on December 3rd, 1901, to confer with Mr. Moody, of London, regarding the establishment of a beet sugar factory, and it appearing from the discussion that such a factory would be of great advantage to the farmers and to the business men, a committee was appointed to take the matter up.

Among the statements brought out at the meeting were that Mr. Moody's company proposed to erect a factory of 1000 tons a day capacity. It would cost $800,000 to erect and equip it, and the annual expenditure would amount to $760,000, principally for the beets and labour. They would pay $4 a ton for beets as required by the Government the first year, and figures were given of the results elsewhere, which show that the beets were a very profitable crop—the most profitable that could be grown. A number of farmers in this county last year grew plots of beets, under the direction of Prof. E[illegible]lsworth, of the Agricultural College, and demonstrated that excellent beets could be grown here, for they contained the highest precentage of sugar of any place in the province.

The conditions here are very favourable for a sugar factory, and a successful factory, affording a near-by market for the beets, would introduce a new and profitable crop, which would be most beneficial for the farmers.

Mr. Moody's proposition was that this company would erect, equip and carry on the factory, provided they were given a bonus of $50,000. To secure the factory some inducement will have to be given, as other localities are offering bonuses. Wallaceburg has given $30,000 for a much smaller factory, while the Town of Berlin and Waterloo Township are offering $45,000.

The people of the Town, it is said, are willing to pay a share of this bonus and it is believed that the Townships, or those who would be most benefitted, would pay the balance. But before this is decided upon, and in order that the farmers of our Municipality may learn just what value the establishment of such a factory would be to them, we, the committee appointed at the meeting, ask you to choose a deputation of a couple of representative men, and send them to Michigan, where there are a number of factories, to learn exactly what benefits are derived from such factories. The County of Victoria has already arranged for a deputation for this purpose.

To other municipalities the same request is made, and we would like to be informed of your action as soon as possible, so a day may be fixed, and rates obtained for the trip, for by all going together better rates will be secured. We are advised that the last week in this month is the best time to visit the factories and interview the farmers.

If you will also give the matter a bonus your consideration, it will facilitate matters in securing the factory.

Yours very truly,
ADAM HALL,
Chairman of Com.
DAWSON KENNEDY,
Secretary.

THE RUGBYISTS ANNUAL MEETING.

Business of the Season Wound up.

THE OFFICERS' REPORTS.

The Club is a Little behind in its Finances but had a Very Successful Year—The Delegates to the O.R.F.U. Annual Meeting.

The semi-annual meeting of the Peterborough Rugby Club was held in the Y.M.C.A. last night, when the reports of the various officers were received and the business of the Club finally disposed of for the season.

The chair was occupied by the president of the club and there were also in attendance Messrs. H. R. H. Kenner, A. W. McPherson, Dr. Scott, Bal. B. Burnham, R. N. Bell, Wm. Crowley, Ed. Dillon, C. G. Graham, E. S. Clarry and others. The minutes of the last meeting of the club were read and adopted, after which several communications were disposed of.

SECRETARY-TREASURER'S REPORT.

The secretary-treasurer, Mr. E. S. Clarry, submitted the following report:—

In presenting my annual report for the season of 1901, I may state that we all join in congratulating the representatives of your club on the field, in having for the second time during the past three years, won the Intermediate Championship of the O. R. F. U., and the Canadian Rugby Union. But, while the Club has been successful in this regard, still the past season has had its discouraging features. Only four matches were played, two of which were victories and two defeats. The first match was played in Ottawa on October 12th, against the Ottawa Intermediates and resulted in our being defeated by 1—0. The return game here one week later proved to be a splendid exhibition of Rugby, and the locals succeeded in reversing matters, and ran up a score of 7 to 4 against the Senators, thus winning the round by two points.

In the next round Peterborough was drawn to play against Toronto, but this team defaulted, and therefore deprived the people of the town of a game here, as well as depriving Peterborough of whatever gate receipts we might have been able to collect.

The circumstances concerning our final game for the Ontario Championship are too fresh in the minds of you all to require a rehearsal to any extent here. However, I might state that the Ontario Rugby Football Union ordered that the contest between Peterborough and our old-time rivals, London, should be home and home games, the first of which was to have been played in London on the King's Birthday, and the return game here the following week. Peterborough was to receive a cash bonus of $50 from the London club for the game in that city, and in addition to this we were to keep all of our gate receipts from the game to be played here. This arrangement was adopted in order that the travelling expenses of the two teams might be equalized, Peterborough having already at this time done more travelling than the western men. In accordance with this arrangement the Peterborough men travelled to London for their first game. Unfortunately they were short a few of their best men and were defeated by a rather decisive score. However, the disappointing feature of the round was that the London club with characteristic crookedness played a professional and were thrown out of the series, thus depriving the citizens of Peterborough of another game which should have been played here. More than this, the London club have so far failed to give to Peterborough the $50 guarantee, which has somewhat crippled our resources. The locals were awarded the championship by reason of London's breach of the rules of the governing body.

The game for the Canadian Championship was played in Montreal on Thanksgiving Day against the Quebec team, and resulted in our carrying off the honours of the day by a score of 16 to 9. The match was played in the snow, which had a tendency to prevent the best class of Rugby, but the event was keenly contested, nevertheless, and for the second time in three years, as before stated, we carried off the two championships.

The past season has brought to my notice many features in connection with Rugby which would, I feel certain, be well to mention. It is to be regretted that the public of Peterborough had not an opportunity of witnessing more than one match here during the season. It was no fault of the management of the club, however, as circumstances developed in this manner through the default of the Toronto and London teams. Notwithstanding this fact, the financial support the Peterborough public gave our club in the way of contributions to the general fund, is worthy of the heartiest praise. Next year the management should make a special effort to have as many local matches as possible, even if it is at a financial disadvantage.

Our club, as is the case with other athletic organizations in town, is severely handicapped for the want of proper athletic grounds, but I understand that a movement is being made with a view of remedying this evil.

The annual dance of the Club took place on the evening of Nov. 29th, and proved a great success in every particular, and especially in regard to the financial end of the affair is this true, as a handsome sum was realized, towards the funds of the Club. The committee is deserving of our hearty thanks but I might particularly mention the faithful work of the Hon. Secretary, Dr. Scott, and the Treasurer, Mr. A. W. McPherson. I feel that no words of ours, can express to the patronesses of the dance, our appreciation of their untiring efforts, but I would suggest that a vote of thanks be tendered to each of them as a slight recognition of our gratitude. The merchants and other people of the town aided us very materially in the getting up of our annual dance.

At a meeting of your Executive some days ago, a resolution was passed recommending to the O.R.F.U. that the age limit in the junior series be abolished, and that the snap-back system of play in Rugby be adopted. As you will be required to-night to appoint a representative to the annual meeting of the O.R.F.U., you might instruct him more fully on this line.

During the season, Lieut.-Col. Edwards very kindly placed at our disposal the drill shed of the 57th Regt., for practices at night, an accommodation which I am sure was much appreciated by the members of the team, and the Club in general. The use of the Y.M.C.A., in which we have held our Executive meetings, and the use of a dressing room; the use of the Nicholls oval, and the support given us by the press of the town, might be referred to.

The duties of Secretary-Treasurer have to a very great extent been lightened by the frequent Executive meetings, the harmony that prevailed among the officers of the Club, and the hearty co-operation of all for the success of our organization. However, I am particularly indebted to my able assistant, Mr. Harry Rush, who relieved me of a vast amount of work.

It has been our object to keep the game in Peterborough free from professionalism, and in every way strictly in conformity with the rules of the governing body with which we are affiliated. Let this be our aim in the future as well, and let us exert every effort next year to again land the Canadian and Ontario championships of the Intermediate Series.

The finances I deal with elsewhere.

Respectfully yours,
E. S. CLARRY,
Secretary-Treasurer Peterborough Rugby Club.

The report was on motion adopted.

The report of the treasurer was submitted as follows:—

The finances of the Peterborough Rugby Club are in a rather uncertain state at the present time. There is in the hands of the Treasurer the sum of 46 cents. There are outstanding accounts to the extent of $24, leaving a deficit of $23.54. Against this there is a probability of our getting $50 from London, and $10 from Toronto, which that club owes us by reason of their default. This would leave the finances of the club in a healthy condition. We started the season with a debt of about $14 owing from last season, so that even if we should not realize the $50 from London and the $10 from Toronto, we have pretty nearly held our own, notwithstanding meeting with adverse circumstances.

About $494.40 passed through the Treasurer's hands this season, the receipts amounting to that amount and the expenses amounting to $492.94. Our travelling expenses were exceptionally heavy, but the sum of $33.70 was realized from the dance, which helped us out considerably. There were 37 one dollar, 2 two dollars, 3 five dollars, and 1 three dollar subscriptions.

The books of the Club will give the receipts and expenditure in a more detailed state, and I ask the inspection of the same by the members of the club. I would also ask that the auditors be appointed to-night.

E. S. CLARRY,
Treasurer.

The report was adopted and Messrs. R. N. Bell and H. M. Morden were appointed to audit the books.

Votes of thanks were passed to the patronesses of the recent dance for their efforts in behalf of the club, and the secretary was instructed to forward a copy of the resolution to each of the patronesses.

Votes of thanks were also passed to the Dance Committee, to Lieut.-Col. Edwards and the officers of the 57th Regiment, for the use of the drill shed, to Dr. Burnham for the use of the P.A.A.A. grounds, to the Y.M.C.A. for accommodation afforded the club and to the press for its liberal support it gave throughout the season.

On motion of Mr. Kenner, seconded by Mr. Graham, Mr. A. W. McPherson was appointed as the club's delegate to the annual meeting of the O.R.F.U., with instruction to support the amendments to the rules of the game recommended by the Executive some time ago.

Capt. Burnham then presented to Mr. Kenner, the ball which was used in the championship match at Montreal, in recognition of the support that gentleman gave the club during the season, and as a matter of fact during previous seasons.

The Hon. President made a suitable reply of acknowledgement.

The meeting then adjourned.

Thirty Million Bushels—This Season's Turn-over.

Winnipeg, Manitoba, December 9.—Some idea of this year's enormous yield of wheat and other grains in Manitoba and the Northwest may be gathered from the fact that from September 1st, the beginning of the present crop year, to December 7th, the total amount of grain delivered by farmers was 32,431,490 bushels, as nearly as can be estimated at the present time. This amount is over ten million bushels in excess of the corresponding deliveries of any previous year.

A WONDERFUL INVENTION. — THE Super-Asbestos Fireproof Safety Wick ranks among the foremost inventions. Every lamp and lantern should be equipped with it. It affords superior light to cotton, and there is less trouble, dirt, and danger. It lasts about eight years, and prevents explosions. Prices, 15c, 20c and 25c for small, medium and large sizes respectively. Samples of wick, material, etc., sent to any address for two 2c stamps. Dominion Supply Co., Springville, Ont. d98. w14tf.

Prof. O'Brien,

CANADA'S GREATEST PHRENOLOGIST and the only recognized SCIENTIFIC PALMIST (by law) has removed to 263 Hunter street, Terrace, near the railway crossing. See name in window. As Prof. O'Brien is a very busy man, he will not be able to leave Peterborough for a few days yet. The more people he examines the more he has to examine, which fact alone speaks for his ability and the esteem and popularity he has gained during his short stay in Peterborough. It will be well for skeptics of either science to investigate before condemning either Phrenology or Scientific Palmistry. The latter should not be confounded with the common fortune telling. Professor O'Brien has proved in open courts before Crown witnesses at the Toronto General Sessions, March 14th, 1901, that Palmistry as demonstrated by him is a pure science, and has no connection with the so-called fortune telling. Anyone wishing to be enlightened on the science should call on Professor O'Brien who will be pleased to explain his scientific methods. A photo read free to patrons. Over 100 persons have consulted him during his short stay in Peterborough. Remember there is only ONE Professor O'Brien. Don't forget his new address, Office hours, 10 a.m. to 12; 1 p.m. to 6 p.m.; 7 p.m. to 10 p.m.

War Cloud Grows Larger.

Valparaiso, Dec. 12.—The conferences yesterday between the Chilean Secretary for Foreign Affairs, Senor Yanze and the Argentine Minister, Senor Pertela, over the pending dispute, were fruitless. The war fever, which is ardently encouraged by the Argentine press, and which is instigated by Peruvian and Bolivian diplomacy, is assuming an ominous character, owing to the alarming news from Buenos Ayres.

BAGS BOER COMMANDO

Gen. Bruce Hamilton Captures 131 and Kills Seven.

METHUEN CAPTURES 29 BOERS.

Provisional Officers—Commands in Col. Evans' Force Filled For the Time—War Office Signifies Acceptance of Second Canadian Mounted Rifles as Name in Lieu of Yeomanry.

London, Dec. 12.—Lord Kitchener, in a despatch from Standerton, Transvaal Colony, dated Tuesday, Dec. 10, announces that Gen. Bruce Hamilton, after a night march, surprised and captured practically the whole of the Boer Bethel commando at Trichard's Fontein, early that morning. Seven Boers were killed and 131 were made prisoners. He adds: "Methuen has captured all of Liebenberg's wagons and cattle, and also 29 prisoners."

Kitchener Produces the Facts.

London, Dec. 12.—Lord Kitchener's promised statement specifying 37 separate instances in which natives have been shot by the Boers and which involves the loss of 84 lives, was issued by the War Office last night. In some of the cases mentioned the blacks were shot after an informal court-martial, or upon being charged with spying, but in numerous instances Lord Kitchener indicates the natives were shot in cold blood in order to hide traces of movements of Boer commandoes. The period covered by Lord Kitchener's statement is over one year.

Reserves For South Africa.

London, Dec. 12. — Additional drafts for the militia, yeomanry and the regulars are already being prepared for transportation to South Africa. The British Government has decided to call out for the South African service all reservists who have not completed their 12 years of service.

The Federal Government of Australia is also considering the sending of further contingents to South Africa.

PROVISIONAL OFFICERS.

Commands in Col. Evans' Force Filled for the Time.

Ottawa, Dec. 12.—Pending the receipt of orders from the War Office, the following officers have been detailed to proceed to Halifax with the third contingent on the troop train: Superintendent Primrose, N.W.M.P., Lethbridge, N.W.T.; Capt. Elmsley, R.C.D., Toronto; Lieut. J. H. Leckie, Fort Steele, B.C.; Capt. P. E. Thacker, R.C.R., Quebec; Major Macdonald, 37th Dunnville, Ont.; Lieut. Clarkson, R.C.R., Kingston; Lieut. J. Callaghan, Maple Creek, N.W.T.; Lieut. Markham, St. John, N.B.; Lieut. Richards, N.W.M.P., Maple Creek; Lieut. Homer Dixon, R.C.R., Halifax.

The War Office has signified its approval of the change of the title of Colonel Evans' force from Yeomanry to the Second Canadian Mounted Rifles. The Ottawa recruits, numbering twelve, were attested and sworn in yesterday morning. Colonel Evans has made a recommendation that pack saddles be purchased for the regiment. This will permit of supplies for four days being taken on the horses when the scouts of the regiment are out.

TWENTY-TWO MORE SWORN IN.

Recruiting Will Be Continued to Obtain Extra Men Needed.

Toronto, Dec. 12.—Yesterday was supposed to be the last day for recruiting for the new Canadian mounted force for South Africa, but Col. Otter and Dr. Natress were not able to examine and swear in the necessary number to make up the 60 required from Toronto. When the recruiting office closed at 5 o'clock, it was found that 22 men had been sworn in during the day and that several more had passed the medical examination. This makes a total of 52 sworn in.

The remaining eight will be taken on this morning, and as Toronto has on previous occasions been called on to supply men to bring detachments from other centres up to strength, a number of extra men will be sworn in.

The men from Toronto will leave to-night at 10 o'clock by the C.P.R. express for Montreal. The men from London, Hamilton and Guelph will arrive here earlier in the evening, and will accompany the contingent. They will be joined at Peterboro and Kingston by the men from those centres.

The men of the force will be mounted on the best horses that it is possible to secure in Canada. The 220 secured were paraded before Mr. Robert Beith, Government inspector, yesterday afternoon at the Exhibition grounds, and Mr. Beith was most enthusiastic over the excellent selection. The horses are what are known as cobs, averaging a little over 15 hands in height and weighing in the neighborhood of 1,050 pounds. They will be shipped to Halifax this afternoon. It is the intention of the authorities to obtain 300 more animals in Ontario.

Blight on British Farmers.

London, Dec. 12.—In a speech here yesterday the Right Hon. Robert William Hanbury, president of the Board of Agriculture, deplored the unsatisfactory condition of agriculture in Great Britain, which he compared with that of the American farmers. He regretted that although the condition of agriculture here was somewhat brighter in 1901, there was, taking the country throughout, not only a diminishing area of grain, but a decrease in the number of stock. British agriculture was deliberately sacrificed 50 years ago to manufacturers.

Lord Strathcona Improving.

New York, Dec. 12.—Lord Strathcona is a good deal better, but he was unable to take the chair at the Colonial Institute Tuesday night, when Howard Angus Kennedy read a paper on the "French-Canadians," says a London despatch to The Tribune. Mr. Kennedy traced briefly the history of the French in Canada, and his account of the home life of French-Canadians was listened to with evident interest.

70 Cent Gas.

Detroit, Dec. 12.—As a result of much local agitation as to the proper charge on the part of the Detroit Gas Co. for fuel and illuminating gas, the Common Council last night amended the existing ordinance so as to require the gas company to deliver both kinds of gas at 70 cents per 1,000 feet. At present the price of illuminating gas is $1, and of fuel gas 90 cents per 1,000 feet.

Goes Down For Life.

Montreal, Dec. 11. — Yesterday morning's session of the Court of King's Bench was not a lengthy one, but it was one fraught with terrible importance to those concerned. In less than twenty-five minutes Amabile Barile had been sentenced to imprisonment for life for attempt to murder. Zephirin Labelle had been condemned to three years penal servitude for theft from his employers; Joseph Young to three years for robbing a stranger, and George Bissonnette to two months imprisonment for manslaughter.

Winnipeg Municipal Elections.

Winnipeg, Dec. 11.—Yesterday's civic elections resulted as follows: Mayor, Arbuthnot, re-elected, majority about 600; Ward One, Ald. Campbell, re-elected; Ward Two, Barclay re-elected; Ward Three, Capt. J. H. McCarthy; Ward Four, Sharp, re-elected; Ward Five, D. A. Ritchie, Ward Six, J. Wells. The by-law to raise money for a system of suburban fire halls was defeated.

Guilty of Manslaughter.

Ottawa, Dec. 12.—Wabey, the Indian charged with the murder of McCabe, the fur trader, was found guilty of manslaughter at Hull yesterday morning. The jury added a recommendation for mercy.

A Barroom Murder.

Quebec, Dec. 12.—In a barroom at Thetford Mines, Edward Landry was struck by a small hammer in the hands of O'Dilon Gregoire, and had his skull fractured. He died yesterday. Gregoire is arrested.

LAKEFIELD NEWS.

Personal Mention in the Village to the North—Council Meeting.

Mrs. Dobie, of Owen Sound, is visiting in the village, the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Butchart, Regent street.

Miss Hendershot, of Chatham, spent a few days in the village this week.

We are very sorry to say that Master Clayton McEwen's condition is still very serious.

The Pansy Mission Band, of the Presbyterian church, held a most successful bazaar on Tuesday afternoon and evening in the town hall.

On Tuesday night, Dec. 3rd, one of our best known and highly respected citizens passed to his last rest, in the person of Mr. Timothy Sullivan. Mr. Sullivan had been suffering from a more or less severe illness for the past summer, but it was not considered serious, and his demise came unexpectedly. He leaves to mourn his loss a widow, five sons and two daughters. The funeral took place on Friday morning to Douro cemetery.

The meeting of the village council was held on Monday evening. Those present were Reeve Fitzgerald, in the the chair, Councillors Harper, Kelly, H.S. Fitzgerald and Graham.

Minutes of the previous meeting were read and confirmed.

The Finance Committe gave the following report:

To the Municipality of the Village of Lakefield:

Gentlemen,—We, your Finance Committee having examined the following accounts, properly vouched for, and finding them correct, would recommend payment of the same:

C Quinn, roads	5 00
A J Kidd, repairs	7 00
S Nelson, coal, etc.	3 85
Jos. Fitzgerald, trimming trees...	00
O L Bickell ,repairs	1 30
C J Bloomfield, Ins. town hall ...	25 00
W H Casement, supplies	3 30
R Carter, alabastine	3 00
Madill Bros., electric light ... .105	00
W Sherin, postage	2 25
S Sherin, postage	1 00
Dr. D. Fraser, vaccination	12 00

All of which is respectfully submitted.
M. GRAHAM,
Chairman.

Moved by Councillors Graham and H. G. Fitzgerald that the Finance report be received and adopted. —Carried.

Bylaw No. 357, entitled "Bylaw to make provision for the election of Reeve, Councillors and School Trustees for the village of Lakefield, for the year 1902," received its several readings and was passed, signed and sealed by the Reeve and Clerk.

Moved by Councillors Graham and H. G. Fitzgerald that a rebate of taxes be made as follows: John Hall $3.60, Mrs. Ellen Robinson $2.98, H. R. Patterson $1.28.—Carried.

On motion of Councillors Graham and Fitzgerald the meeting was adjourned.

Good Digestion Should Wait on Appetite

To have the stomach well is to have the nervous system well. Very delicate are the digestive organs. In some so sensitive are they that atmospheric changes affect them. When they become disarranged no better regulator is procurable than Parmelee's Vegetable Pills. They will assist the digestion so that the hearty eater will suffer no inconvenience and will derive all the benefits of his food.

THE NEW NEST OF TRAITORS.

A Challenge to Whitney and Wright.

Plotting in the Tory Camp to Give Whitney the Knife and rid the Party of an Incompetent Leader.

The following is the rejoinder of the author of the "Mabee Pamphlet" to the strictures of his critics:

"Sound the fellows, and see how they feel about a new leader," says Organizer Wright. "I can't pound an ounce of sense into Whitney's head." "See Wright," says Dr. Pyne, "He has had lots of experience in American campaign methods."

Owing to the fact that A. W. Wright, late of Philadelphia, U.S.A., the Conservative organizer, has furnished interviews written by himself to the Tory papers with reference to the Mabee pamphlet I have decided to give to the public a few more details of the plot hatched in the Tory headquarters to depose the present leader of the Conservative party and of the organizer's connection therewith.

I feel now and always have felt that Wright's action in this respect was in the best interests of the party and were it not for the fact that he has deliberately misled the public in the interviews above referred to I would not feel it my duty to give this information to the public.

Some time ago I sent out a few of the facts in my possession in the form of a declaration, and I know the effect of the same. I am, if there is a false statement made in the declaration, liable to criminal prosecution. When I made the first declaration, I did not deem it necessary to go any further than simply to protect myself. I, however, am obliged to publish a little more of the information which I have in my possession, and it is for Wright and his friends to think it over before they make any more reckless assertions and urge me on to still further reveal the plot they hatched against Mr. Whitney. The books of the banks will show that I got money from the Conservatives for compiling a book for them. These facts cannot be disputed. I challenge Wright to produce proof to the contrary. Let him produce the bank books, and he will there see recorded that I was paid by the Conservatives as stated. Let Wright show his sincerity by making a declaration before a proper legal official embodying the statements he has made to the press. Let him do so and abide the consequences.

The whole matter rests between myself and Wright and the others who associate with him at the Opposition headquarters, and in my declaration given below I give to the public some additional information on this matter, and I may, for my own protection, be obliged to further disclose the plot hatched by Wright and others. In the meantime, I challenge him to disprove any statement I have made and to give under oath the statements he so freely sends to the press. Little did myself or Mr. Whitney know of the plot when Mr. Whitney wrote saying he thought the idea of the American book a good one, and when he examined with me the cartoons for the Conservative book, and then recommended me to some of his followers, who then sent me to Wright.

My presence in the political game in Ontario is due entirely to Mr. Whitney, his supporters and organization. Let Wright furnish his statements, as I do, under oath, and the people can then judge between us for themselves. I again challenge Wright to give under oath the statements he has been issuing in letters and interviews.

This little pamphlet is issued by myself at my own expense, and is merely intended to correct the false impressions Wright and the Tory press have attempted to create.

C. R. Mabee.

Province of Ontario,
Dominion of Canada,
County of York.
To Wit,—

I, Charles Ralph Mabee, of the City of Toronto, in the County of York, publisher, do solemnly declare:

1. In the month of September, A.D. 1900, I sent to Col. Tisdale, M. P., for South Norfolk, a copy of the book, "McKinley in the Witness Box," and wrote him a letter, asking him if he thought a similar book could be got out for the Conservative party in the Dominion campaign then going on. I wrote to him, as I knew him personally, as I had lived in his riding for years, and my family were amongst his strongest supporters. Col Tisdale wrote me in reply to the effect that but it would have to be done at once to be of any use. He gave me the address of the Conservative headquarters in Toronto, and told me to write them at once and make a proposition. I did nothing more about it, as I concluded that the time was too short to get out an effective book.

THE IDEA WAS A GOOD ONE,

WHITNEY ENDORSED THE IDEA.

2. I came home to Canada early in January, A.D., 1901, and shortly afterwards I became acquainted with Mr. R. Southam, the manager of the Mail Job Printing Company. I showed him a copy of the book, "McKinley in the Witness Box," and he sent it on to Mr. Whitney. On or about the 11th day of February, A.D., 1901, Mr. Southam handed me a letter which he had received from Mr. Whitney, dated February 9th, A.D., 1901, in which Mr. Whitney stated that he had the American campaign book, and thought the idea of a similar book in Ontario a good one. The said letter is now in my possession and was marked as an exhibit to a former declaration made by me.

WHITNEY WRITES TO MABEE.

3. After this, and during the month of February, I devoted some time to gathering material for a book in the interests of the Conservative party, and had some cartoons prepared, which I sent to Mr. Whitney. On the 8th of March, A.D., 1901, I received a letter from Mr. Whitney asking me to come and see him, either at the Parliament Buildings or at the Grosvenor House, with reference to the book. This letter is now in my possession and was marked as an exhibit to a former declaration made by me. Among other matters in said letter is a reference to the cartoons which I had sent to him.

MAYBEE INTERVIEWS WHITNEY.

4. In answer to said letter I went and saw Mr. Whitney in his private room in the Parliament Buildings, when he told me he was convinced that a publication similar to the American book, issued in the interests of the Conservative party, would be of material benefit to the party. At this time he had in his possession some of the cartoons which he and some of his followers have since denounced, and was quite delighted with them. He told me to go and see Dr. Pyne, and J. J. Foy, with reference to the book, and to meet him next time at his rooms in the Grosvenor House.

PYNE AND FOY ENDORSE THE IDEA.

5. On the following Sunday morning I had an interview with Dr. Pyne at his residence, and on Monday I had an interview with J. J. Foy in his office on Church street in the City of Toronto.

Both of these gentlemen coincided with Mr. Whitney's view of the matter and said that they thought the idea of such a book was a splendid one. Mr. Foy had a copy of the American book in his office and told me that he had talked the whole matter over with Mr. Whitney. Dr. Pyne advised me to go and see A. W. Wright about it, as Mr. Wright had had considerable experience in American campaign work, and ought to be able to give some valuable assistance.

WHITNEY'S INSTRUCTIONS TO MABEE.

6. Shortly after this I met Mr. Whitney in his room in the Grosvenor House and we then and there decided to publish the book. The chief topic of discussion between us was whether the book should be sent out free or a charge made for it. Mr. Whitney inclined to the view that it should be issued to candidates free and said that he thought it could be arranged with the Southam Publishing Syndicate to publish the book without any charge being made for it, as in the event of the Conservatives coming into power in Ontario this Syndicate would have the monopoly of all the Government printing. He said that there were only two other Conservative printing houses in Toronto and that one of them, W. S. Johnston & Company, Adelaide street west, was a small concern and did not have large enough plant to do the Government work, and the other, Charles Roddy, Lombard street already had the patronage of the City of Toronto and should be satisfied with that. He further said that he expected the Southam Syndicate to contribute very liberally to the Conservative campaign fund as his election would be worth a very great deal to them, and that they might as well do this work as part of their campaign contribution. He told me to see Mr. A. W. Wright and that he would also see him at once to instruct him to furnish me with material to assist me with the book and that he would also instruct him to make arrangements with the publishers.

CARRYING OUT THE INSTRUCTIONS.

7. I went several times to the Conservative headquarters to see Wright but the office was always closed and it was a week or ten days after the above interview that I succeeded in finding Mr. Wright. He and Dr. Beattie Nesbitt were together and I introduced myself to Mr. Wright. He in turn introduced me to Dr. Nesbitt. I asked to see Wright alone, but he said he knew all about it and that we could talk quite freely before the Doctor. They were both very enthusiastic about the book and said it should be issued as soon as possible. Mr. Wright said that the Mail Job Printing Company would print it and take the financial risk.

SEVERAL TOOK A HAND.

8. I prepared some of the matter for the book myself, and some was furnished me by Mr. Wright, Mr. Whitney, Dr. Pyne and others, and I put this into shape. I remember that Mr. Whitney supplied me among other things, with some matter about the cost of maintenance of public institutions and the Royal commission for the investigation of the financial standing of the province. As I got the proof sheets from the printer I handed them to Mr. Wright who read the proof and made corrections in his own hand-writing, and told me that he in turn handed them over to Mr. E. B. Osler, M. P., Mr. Whitney, M.P.P., Mr. Foy, M. P. P., Dr. Pyne, M.P.P. and others. Finally Mr. Wright told me that the Literature Committe of the Conservative party had approved of the matter contained in the proofs and had decided that the book should be issued at once.

PUBLISHERS EXPECT SOME RETURN.

9. On several occasions Mr. R. Southam told me that he did not like the idea of taking the financial risk on the publication of the book, and thought that he should have some guarantee against any loss. I mentioned this to Wright who said I would see Mr. Whitney about it. He afterwards told me that he had spoken to Mr. Whitney about the matter and that Mr. Whitney had instructed him to go to Hamilton and see Mr. Southam, Senior, as he thought more could be done with him than with his son. About the end of May or first part of June, Wright and I went to Hamilton together and had an interview with Mr. Southam, Senior. Wright told him that he had been sent to him by Whitney and was authorised by him to say that he wanted Mr. Southam to see that the book was issued, and that in the event of Mr. Whitney winning the next election, he, Mr. Southam, would be well repaid. Mr. Southam then made some remarks about the sacrifices he had made for the Conservative party and how much the printing companies and newspapers controlled by him had done for the party, and said, "I certainly expect some return." He promised us that he would write his son Richard instructing him to go on with the printing of the book and said it would be issued even if he lost money on it. Wright had the proofs of the book with him and asked Mr. Southam to look them over as there was some "good hot stuff" in them. He said they were all right as Mr. Whitney had read them over and approved of them. Mr. Southam did not appear to be anxious to look at them, and dismissed us with the remark that he supposed they were all right as Mr. Whitney approved of them.

WHITNEY READ THE PROOFS.

10. A few days afterwards I saw Mr. Southam, Senior, in the Mail office and he told his son Richard in my presence, that he had learned from Mr. Wright that Mr. Whitney had read the proofs and had given his approval of them. It appeared to be settled that the Mail Job Printing Company were to go on and issue the book. Shortly after this Mr. Richard Southam made some further objection to taking the financial risk. He told me that his Company had an old claim against the Conservative organization for campaign literature which never had been paid, and he thought he would prefer not to have anything to do with the book until the claim was paid. He said, that as manager of the Company, the responsibility was on him to make a good financial showing at the end of the year. I told Wright about this and he asked me to go to W. S. Johnston and ask him to submit figures on the work. I went to Johnston's place of business on Adelaide street west, and he then went down to Wright's office where he obtained a copy of the American book and was asked to submit figures on a similar book. A day or so after this the Mail Job Printing Company finally decided to go on and issue the work, and the negotiations with Johnston were dropped. Wright afterwards laughed and said he thought he had done a pretty clever thing in using Johnston to bring Southam to time. I learned later, however, that Mr. Southam knew nothing about Wright's scheming with Johnston.

MABEE RECEIVED TORY MONEY.

11. During the time that the book was in course of preparation I received from the Mail Job Printing Company several sums of money, partly in cash and partly in cheques on the Molson's Bank, and I also received from the said Company money for travelling expenses, paid to me partly in cash and partly by cheques on the said Molson's Bank. I also received about May or June, either three or four cheques from Dr. Beattie Nesbitt, payable to my order at a branch bank on Spadina avenue. These were given to me by Dr. Nesbitt as he said "on the side" and to help along with the book. He asked me to give him anything that I thought would be "red hot" and new in the way of material for a speech, and said he would like to have me prepare some material for him on the personal expenses of the Cabinet Ministers, such as cab hire, street car tickets, etc. He said this was great stuff to catch the voters.

(Concluded to-morrow.)

And I make this solemn declaration conscientiously believing it to be true, and knowing that it is of the same force and effect as if made under oath and by virtue of the Canada Evidence Act, 1893.

Declared before me at the city of Toronto, in the County of York, this 15th day of November, A. D., 1901.

Burdock Blood Bitters.

CURES SCROFULA

Mrs. James Carr, Umfraville, Hastings Co., Ont., says: "My little boy, two and a half years old, was in a terrible condition and suffered a great deal from scrofulous sores. My husband bought a bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters for him and gave it to him, and by the time he had finished the second bottle there was not a sore to be seen. On account of this wonderful cure I can honestly recommend B.B.B. to all who suffer from any disease arising from bad blood.

CURES BOILS.

Mr. Oliver J. Murray, Charlottetown, P.E.I., writes as follows: "About six months ago I was troubled with painful boils, for which I could get nothing to cure me. As a last resort I tried Burdock Blood Bitters. One bottle completely rid me of boils, and my health was never better than at present.

TO SPEAK TO-DAY.

Marconi Expects to Get His Apparatus Ready to Signal Lucania.

St. John's, N.F., Dec. 12.—Mr. Marconi was at Signal Hill all day yesterday, testing the balloons. A balloon was floated 208 feet above Signal Hill, and fastened by stays so as to be almost motionless. It holds up the wire which will be used in his experiments. He hopes to have everything completed by Thursday or Friday, when he will try and communicate with the Cunard steamer Lucania, which left Liverpool on Saturday. The experiments are exciting keen interest here. St. John's merchants are considering the advisability of having the system installed on the sealing steamers. There are about twenty steamers which leave here every spring for the ice fields to hunt seals. Mr. Marconi estimates that each steamer can be fitted for $750. The Canadian Government is awaiting results of Mr. Marconi's experiments here, preparatory to having the system installed along the entrance to the Gulf of St. Lawrence.

MANITOBA LIBERALS

Great Provincial Convention Held at Winnipeg.

ALL UNITED ON GREENWAY.

The Old Leader Will Remain in the Position—Manitoba's Grand Old Man Enthusiastically Greeted—A Great Convention—Resolutions Adopted—Confidence in the Laurier Government.

Winnipeg, Dec. 12.—The greatest political gathering in the history of Manitoba, the first Liberal convention in the Prairie Province for the past fifteen years, opened yesterday morning in Friendship Hall, McIntyre Block. The hall was crowded and standing room was at a premium. Unofficial delegates on the platform were: Hon. Clifford Sifton, Hon. Thomas Greenway, Mr. W. F. McCreary, M.P., Dr. Rutherford, Valentine Winkler, M.P.P., and many other prominent Provincial Liberals. Mr. D. W. Bole, Chairman of the Provincial Executive, presided. As Hon. Thomas Greenway entered the hall three cheers were called for Manitoba's grand old man. Other prominent Liberals were welcomed with applause.

Tribute to Mr. Greenway.

At the afternoon meeting Mr. T. C. Norris, member for Lansdowne, made an excellent speech, and moved the following resolution: "This convention desires to express its profound sense of the great services given to Manitoba and the Liberal party by Hon. Thomas Greenway during his twenty-two years of public life in the Provincial Legislature. The record of his Government was a record of economy, careful legislation and just administration, and this convention desires to express its confidence that the Liberal party, with Mr. Greenway at its head, will again give to the Province another period of wise and good government."

Chairman Bole then put the resolution, and amid most rousing and enthusiastic cheering, Mr. Greenway, Manitoba's grand old man, stepped on the platform just as the resolution was carried unanimously by a standing vote.

Mr. Greenway's Reply.

The cheering continued so that at first Mr. Greenway could not be heard. He said that he had thought he was out of politics, and had enjoyed the freedom from the worry and excitement of political life during the past year. He thought his friends were fully seized of his intentions to retire, and he was surprised to find that they wanted him for leader. A man were not human who did not appreciate the enthusiasm and efforts of such a convention and the resolution asking him to be leader. He did not think he was the man they wanted; they must remember he was not so young as he was after 22 years of political life; he had not such ambitions as he formerly had; there was nothing in politics for him, and they must not expect so much from him as formerly. He then referred to the planks of the Liberal party, and said that it was a matter of great pride that the party had made an honest endeavor to carry out every plank. He felt that, when political prejudices were laid aside, the impartial historian of the future would say that the Greenway Government was the best that had ever existed in a Canadian Province. (Great applause.) If the people were satisfied with the present Administration he would not complain, but what had it done for the Province? Not one plank of the Conservative platform had been carried out. Yes, there was one, over which he imagined the present Ministers had formed a mutual admiration society, and this was the prohibition bill. Concluding, Mr. Greenway said he would do all he could to help the Liberal party to redeem itself in Manitoba. He could not do it alone, or to the same extent as of old. The admirable speeches of the younger men who had just preceeded him showed that they were enthusiastic workers. The Conservative party had got hold, and it was not to be rooted out very easily. The people must be educated. The additional taxes imposed the last two years were doing that. He referred to the present Provincial franchise act as simply ridiculous in a British country. Mr. Greenway sat down amidst a burst of applause which brought every one to his feet.

Hon. Clifford Sifton.

Hon. Clifford Sifton, in reply to the resolution of confidence in the Laurier Government, said that if Liberals did not try to get a knowledge of the principles of their party the would elect representatives out of touch with those principles. He thanked the convention for the expression of loyalty and confidence in the Laurier Government.

Grand Trunk Reaching Out.

Sacramento, Cal., Dec. 12.—Articles of incorporation have been filed in the office of the Secretary of State for the Grand Trunk Western Railway Co. The principal place of business is given as Detroit, Mich. The articles show that the Port Huron and Indiana Railway and the Indiana and Illinois Railway have decided to consolidate under the above title. There has been talk of the Grand Trunk striking for a Pacific Coast terminus, and railroad men think this may be a step toward that end.

A Prevailing Scourge.

The "Blighting White Plague." How Catarrh Does Its Deadly Work.

Cooling Off—Taking Cold. | Doctor Says It Is Catarrh. | Has Developed Bronchitis. | In the Grasp of Consumption.

It is just the same old story of exposure to cold. The neglected cold becoming chronic catarrh. Catarrh extending along the delicate mucous membrane to the bronchial tubes and developing chronic bronchitis, causing coughing and difficult breathing. Still neglected, further extension, the lungs are reached, catarrhal consumption is established. The "White Plague" scores another victory and the grave conceals the record of neglected catarrh. A well-worn road to a withering blight and untimely death. Thousands upon thousands have traveled it, and thousands upon thousands more will travel it. Every year develops a multitude of new victims.

Consumption the fell destroyer is most alarming in its frequency and dire in its results for it annually summons to their long rest over 200,000 victims in the United States alone. It is a disease which spares neither age, nor sex, rank or fortune. It is like the vampire that drinks up the vital stream and still fans with its wings the hopes which perpetually flutter in the hectic breast. It is a terrible and insatiable tyrant, marching down the aisles of time, blasting, devastating, destroying, establishing a gloomy empire of misery and death.

Catarrh is a forerunner of most cases of consumption. The presence of catarrh is evidence of a predisposition to the "White Plague." Do not let it progress, stop it, cure it. Before it has reached the lungs you can do this with very little effort and expense. Stuart's Catarrh Tablets are a scientific remedy for the peculiar constitutional condition or systemic dyscrasia that permits of chronic catarrh. They drive catarrh out of the system and heal the evidences of its ravages so long as the destructive processes have not been allowed to progress to a point beyond possibility of repair. They will cure catarrh of the head, nose, throat, ears, bronchial tubes, and the alimentary tract, but if once lung substance is destroyed and the cheeks the hectic spots burn brightly like signal lamps of death, then they are powerless to save. There is a point in the destructive processes of progressive catarrh beyond which no medicine can cure, where no agency yet discovered will arrest or save.

Be timely wise, cure your catarrh while yet it may be cured. Take no chances of some exposure fanning the smouldering fire of chronic catarrh into a devastating conflagration of consumption. You can buy Stuart's Catarrh Tablets at any drug store for 50 cents a box. Try them and you will become their advocate and friend.

Mr. F. N. Benton, whose address is care of Clark Horses, Troy, N. Y., says: "When I run up against anything that is good I like to tell people of it. I have been troubled with catarrh more or less for some time. Last winter more than ever. Tried several so-called cures, but did not get any benefit from them. About six weeks ago I bought a 50 cent box of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets and I am glad to say that they have done wonders for me and I do not hesitate to let all my friends know that Stuart's Catarrh Tablets are the right thing."

Mr. Geo. J. Cassavoy, of hotel Grifton, West 6th street, New York City, writes: "I have commenced using Stuart's Catarrh Tablets and already they have given me better results than any catarrh cure I have ever tried."

Mr. A. R. Fornbank of Columbus, Ohio, says: "I suffered so many winters from Catarrh that I took it as a matter of course, and that nothing would cure it except a change of climate, which my business affairs would not permit me to take.

"My nostrils were almost always clogged up, and I had to breathe through the mouth causing an inflamed, irritated throat. The thought of eating breakfast often nauseated me and the catarrh gradually getting into my stomach took away my appetite and digestion.

"My druggist advised me to try a fifty cent box of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, because he said he had so many customers who had been cured of Catarrh by the use of these tablets, that he felt he could honestly recommend them. I took his advice and used several boxes with results that surprised and delighted me.

"I always keep a box of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets in the house and the whole family use them freely on the first appearance of a cough or cold in the head.

"With our children we think there is nothing so safe and reliable as Stuart's Catarrh Tablets to ward off croup and colds, and with older people I have known of cases where the hearing had been seriously impaired by chronic catarrh cured entirely by this new remedy."

Send a postal card to F. A. Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich. requesting their free book on catarrh. Write for it to-day.

WORKINGMEN AGAINST FARMERS.

Organizations Attack United Irish League and Appeal to America.

London, Dec. 12.—Land and labor organizations, resulting from the extended franchise conferred by the Local Government act, says the Cork correspondent of The Times, are affording to the laborers an opportunity of battling against the farmers. While the United Irish League continues to fight the Unionists generally, and the landlords particularly, it finds itself attacked in the rear by the labor organizations. A resolution adopted by the Ballyneal Branch Labor Association "respectfully asks its presidents, Maud Gonne and Major McBride, to petition the American people, for Almighty God's sake, to save the Irish laborer & workingman from extermination by the greedy, selfish, purse-proud farmers and the United Irish League."

The Trainmen Win.

Brockville, Dec. 12.—At the County Court, before Judge Macdonald yesterday, the case of Frechette and Calcut v. the Town of Brockville and Constable Sweet, was heard. This was an action for false arrest. Plaintiffs were G.T.R. firemen, and on Aug. 29, last year, left their engines to come down town here for a lunch. Their clothes and persons were soiled with coal dust, and they were pointed out to the constable as suspicious characters. About that time there had been a series of incendiary fires, and the police were instructed to question suspicious looking strangers. Constable Sweet asked Frechette and Calcut their business in town. The men resented the question, and some heated discussion followed. The constable finally handcuffed one of them and took both to the police station. They were released after their identity was established. The case was given to a jury, who returned a verdict of $50 for each plaintiff.

"Man is Filled With Misery."

This is not true of all men. The well, sound of lung, clear of eye, buoyant with health, are not miserable, whatever may be their social condition. To be well is to be happy, and we can all be well by getting and keeping our bodies in a healthy state. Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil will help all to do this

Federation of Labor.

Scranton, Pa., Dec. 12.—The Resolution Committee appointed yesterday will report on resolutions not accepted. Among the resolutions adopted was one requesting terracotta pressers to affiliate with the International terracotta makers or lose their charter; recommending that an effort be made to organize school teachers; favoring sending Federation delegates to railway organizations; endorsing label of Wood Carvers' Association; instructing executive to secure passage of an international law protecting union labels. The Executive report disapproves of the application of certain trades unions to boycott a cash register company in Ohio. The "Don't patronize" list will be revised.

Buried Under Ore.

Halifax, N.S., Dec. 12.—John Healy, aged 18, of Conception Bay, Nfld., was instantly killed at Sydney last evening. He was buried under ten tons of iron ore.

To the Jury To-Day.

Washington, Dec. 12.—The jury will get the evidence in the Bonine murder trial to-day.

A Galt Lady Saved $50.

Mrs. Nesbit of Galt was sure her daughter was dying of consumption. So were two physicians and all the neighbours. Three 25c bottles of Poor T's put the girl on her feet. Sutcliffe's Successful Business.

In a paragraph in Saturday's issue under the heading of "Sutcliffe's Successful Business," it was stated that "The Toronto buyer of the firm, as well as the local resident buyer, cross the 'pond' several times a year to search for goods." This is not literally correct. The representatives of Sutcliffe & Sons have crossed the "herring pond," and have made arrangements in the old world by which the best skill is at all times available for the purchase in the best markets, and on the best terms, of the splendid goods with which their stores are stocked.

MR. REG. TURNER'S "SEND-OFF"

By the Members of the 20th Century Club Last Night—Songs and Speeches.

The 20th Century Club last night tendered Mr. Reginald H. Turner a farewell banquet on the eve of his departure to South Africa on the 2nd Canadian Mounted Rifles.

Mr. Turner has for some years been one of the most enthusiastic members of the Twentieth Century Club, and the esteem in which he is held by his fellow members was amply demonstrated last night at the Crown Hotel, when eulogistic speeches were made of the guest of the evening, his health heartily toasted and the best wishes for his safe return were expressed.

The chair was occupied by Mr. Willis Garrow, president of the Club, whilst to his right sat the guest of the evening, and to his left sat Mr. Levi Fallis, secretary. The vice-chair was occupied by Mr. C. Manhart, vice-president of the club, and amongst others in attendance were Messrs. Harry Milne, Herb Fallis, J. Conners, Wm. Armstrong, R. Adams, B. Hutchison, Fred Clarke, Robert Henderson, F. Brown, A. Weddell, J. Comstock, S. S. Moore, W. Young, H. Conway, Jas. McGill, Toronto, L. Scott, and J. J. Turner, jr.

After doing justice to a most sumptuous spread, the toast of the King was duly honoured. This was followed by "The Defenders of the Empire," responded to by Mr. R. H. Henderson, a South African veteran, who said the felt sure that Mr. Turner would come up to what they expected of him in South Africa.

Mr. Turner in reply to the toast of "The Guest of the Evening," said he thanked the boys for their kindly references to him, and said that with the blessing of God he hoped to be back amongst them again in twelve months or so.

Mr. Harry Milne followed with a song, after which Mr. L. Armstrong spoke on behalf of the ladies.

Speeches were also made by Messrs Alex. Weddell, J. J. Turner, jr., L. Fallis and Leslie Scott. Songs were sung by Messrs. Fred Browne, J J. Turner, jr., Bruce Hutchison and altogether a very enjoyable evening was spent.

AT ST. ANDREW'S.

The One Great Need Essential to Every Life.

Rev. xxii, 17th, formed the basis of Evangelist Walden's address at last night's meeting. "And whosoever will let him take of the water of life freely."

Christ is spoken of as "The Bread," "The Light," "The Light of Life," but here as "The Water of Life." All are necessary, but if there is one thing that man cannot get along without it is water. What water is to the body, Christ is to the soul; as water is needed by all classes, so Christ is a necessity to the lives of all, whoever and whatever they may be. Some of the purposes for which water is required can in every case very aptly be applied to Christ.

1. Allaying thirst — "Let him that is athirst come.
2. For cleansing purposes.
3. As a fire extinguisher; so Christ extinguishes the fire of iniquity from the soul.
4. Water is power; when harnessed it is capable of driving immense machinery. So Christ says, "All power is given unto Me."

There is much water tainted and permeated with poisonous germs, that men are preferring to the Water of Life to-day—but there is only death in the draught.

The Water of Life is procured by the receiving.

Mr. Walden's addresses continue to be of a very interesting and forceful character, and it is hoped that for the next two nights a much larger number will avail themselves of the opportunity of hearing him. To-night the song service will begin at 7.45 sharp, and all who can sing are earnestly invited to be present and bring a friend.

EVERYONE TURN OUT

The Peterborough members of the 2nd Canadian Mounted Rifles, which will leave for South Africa under the command of Lieut.-Col Evans, will be given a suitable send-off to-night. The 12 men that were enlisted in Peterborough are due to leave per C. P. R. at 12.20 o'clock, and the citizens of the town are asked to turn out and assist in doing honour to them. The band of the 57th has very kindly volunteered to accompany the boys to the station. The band and the 57th Regiment will meet at the drill shed at 11.30 p.m.

DOONAN GOT THREE MONTHS

At the General Sessions of the Peace To-day for Perjury.

At the General Sessions of the Peace this afternoon, before His Honour Judge Weller, Henry Doonan of Bracebridge, and formerly of Hastings, was found guilty of perjury, and sentenced to three months in the county jail.

The case arose out of the seduction action of Scriver vs. Richardson, which was tried at the recent assizes before Honourable Mr. Justice Falconbridge. Doonan gave evidence of a nature calculated to besmirch the character of the girl, whose father was the plaintiff in the case. The criminal action that followed brought out many conflicting statements, but the jury were apparently of the opinion that Doonan had perjured himself.

County Crown Attorney Wood conducted the prosecution, and Mr. Godson of Bracebridge, defended the prisoner.

The case of Walsh vs. Trotter was concluded yesterday. The plaintiff in this case was John Walsh, a farmer residing in the Township of Asphodel, and the defendant was Thomas Trotter, also a farmer, residing in the same Township. The action is brought by the plaintiff to recover the sum of $200 on an alleged account, and also damages. The plaintiff stated that on or about the twentieth day of April, 1899, the plaintiff delivered to the defendant five cows, to be safely kept and taken care of and fed by the defendant during the year 1899. The defendant was to deliver all the milk of said cows to a certain cheese factory, the plaintiff to get half the proceeds and return the cows a tthe end of the season. It is alleged that the defendant did not return the cows, nor did he give an account of the milk sold.

In his statement of defence the defendant, while admitting that the entered an agreement regarding the cows, denies that he converted them to his own use, or deprived the plaintiff of the use and possession of the said cows or any of them; that he did not wrongly detain any of the said cows from the plaintiff, and that the plaintiff did not demand said cows from the defendant before such action, and also that the defendant had paid to the plaintiff his full share and value of milk produced.

The defendant was allowed $6.98 on a counter claim, with costs.

W. A. F. Campbell, Norwood, for the plaintiff; George Sherry, for the defendant.

PERSONALS.

Dr. McCullough was in Port Hope on professional business yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Armstrong and Master Albert, of Mt. Julian, are in town for a day or two visiting friends.

Mrs. Thomas Bradburn, Miss Mabel Bradburn and Mr. and Mrs. Hewson left at noon to-day for Toronto where they will reside for the winter.

Lindsay Watchman-Warder— Mrs. John Brown and Mrs. Seymour of Peterborough were in town on Thursday last attending the funeral of the late G. W. Douglass.

Rev. A. J. Harvey Strike, of Lindsay, formerly of Ashburnham, spoke as follows in a sermon to young men recently:—"Young men, treat all women as you want other men to treat your mothers and sisters."

Mr. R. S. Cook, formerly of town, has been elected by acclamation as a member of the Town Council, of Prince Albert, Saskatchewan. Mr. Cook, it will be remembered, was a member of the Peterborough quota of the Midland Battalion which fought at Batoche. His many friends in town will be pleased to learn of his success in the west.

NEWS NUGGETS.

—The annual dinner of No. 4 Co., 57th Regt., will take place in the Crown Hotel this evening.

—Will the lady or gentleman who borrowed a copy of "Mistress Nell," kindly return to the owner?

—The White Rose Club intend holding the second of their popular assemblies in the Foresters' Hall, Simcoe street, on Christmas Eve.

—The evenings are now at their shortest, and the sun will hereafter set a little later each night. The mornings, however, will be some ten minutes shorter.

—The Ball Committee of the Lawn Bowling Club meets this evening at half-past seven in the Canada Life Board Room, when the sub-committees will make their report.

SPORTING PASTIMES.

CURLING.

The Granite curling club meets to-night at the rink. All members are asked to be present.

WHO CAN THIS BE?

The London News Says: — "From the records of the case it will be seen that certain men were expelled for having played proffessional baseball. If this thing is followed out a distinguished member of the Peterborough football team (champions of the committee room for 1901) is lucky that he is not beyond the pale. This gentleman, on his own story, not only played with, and against Chancer Elliott and others, but himself personally whiled away the dull summer months by filling engagements as a baseball player at the rate of $10 per engagement."

HOCKEY.

A meeting of the Lakeview Hockey Club was held in the Oriental Hotel last night. Owing to the committee not having been able to make definite arrangements with the rink management, the election of officers was deferred for a few days. The members of the Lakeviews feel that it will be useless for them to organize if they are not sure of ice.

FIRE IN GALWAY.

A Widow Loses Everything in the Flames Which Destroyed Her Home.

Mrs. Peter Clark, widow of the late Peter Clark, had the sad misfortune to have her dwelling destroyed by fire last Thursday. The fire broke out shortly before noon and although the day was very calm, the flames were soon fanned into fury, and in less than an hour what was once a comfortable home had gone up in smoke. As the house contained no chimney, it is supposed that the fire originated through some defect in the stovepipe, and gained a strong hold before it was discovered by any of the inmates. The neighbours arrived only in time to save a few articles of furniture.

What makes the circumstances so very deplorable is the fact that Mrs. Clark was recently bereft of her husband, and left with two small children to provide for. Unfortunately there is no insurance to cover any of the loss.

THE CITIZENS AND THE SNOW BYLAW.

Some Cases Before His Worship D. W. Dumble.

HE DISMISSED THEM ALL.

Is the Bylaw Workable?—The Magistrate Asks Questions Concerning it —Those who Were up This Morning.

At the police court this morning the vexatious snow bylaw came in for some little discussion and was the means of drawing to the court room, citizens who were charged with violating the provisions of the bylaw and citizens, who had, perhaps, some doubt as to the possibility of its being carried into effect.

Ever since the first fall of snow which fell this fall there has been trouble between the town officials and the property owners within the fire limits. After the first fall of snow which fell a few weeks ago the chief had a number of summons made out against property owners who failed to have their pavements cleaned according to the provisions of the bylaw. Upon second thought the blue papers were not served and the citizens were merely warned to be ready for the next fall of snow. This came a few days ago, and according to the town officials, the bylaw was grossly violated by certain property owners of the town. Amongst those were many of Peterborough's prominent business and professional men, but there was a comparative few of them turned up at the police court this morning. They either ignored the summons or through their absence from town were not given a personal service.

At the police court this morning Mr. E. B. Edwards appeared on behalf of the town to conduct the prosecution of the cases. The first name called was that of T. N. Greer, M.D., who was not present. Next came Thos. McGrath, who answered to his name. He was charged with not cleaning the pavement in front of his property, of snow, within the time specified by the snow bylaw of the town. To the magistrate Mr. McGrath said that he had tried his best to do so, but he found it impossible to get the pavement as clean as required by the bylaw. He had used sand and had employed other means to accomplish this end, but it was no use, he could not get the pavement entirely clear of snow and ice.

The magistrate told him to stand aside and John Cousins' name was called. John intimated to the magistrate that he was present, and then he was asked by the court why he did not clean his sidewalk.

"I hadn't time, sir, I had to go to work."

Why did you not have your wife do it, then? inquired His Worship. To which John replied that she was not able nor was he able to pay any one for doing the work for him.

"T. P. Attrill," shouted P. C. Adams, but Mr. Attrill was not present.

R. A. Morrow's name was called but he also was not present. The chief made an explanation to the court regarding Mr. Morrow's case, and then the proceedings developed into a free and easy discussion of the feasibility of the bylaw.

Mr. Edwards said that the object of the bylaw was to facilitate the proper cleaning of the streets. The bylaw had been enacted some time ago, but had not been any too well observed. It was desired on the part of the town to take it in hand resolutely at the beginning so that there would be no difficulty during the remainder of the season. A conviction under the bylaw would be a lesson that would be felt.

His Worship asked how it would be if it rained on the sidewalk, and then snowed—would the bylaw ask that the snow be cleaned off and leave a slippery surface?

The town solicitor held that that was not the case they were dealing with.

Continuing, the magistrate said that the bylaw states that the snow shall be cleaned off by 10 o'clock, but it does not state on what day it shall be cleared. To this Mr. Edwards replied that it meant the day on which the storm occurred providing it occurred before 10 o'clock. The bylaw, he said, was framed after the Toronto bylaw that is put into effect every winter. It gives a man plenty of time to remove the snow in the morning.

Mr. F. D. Kerr, who was present, contended that it did not — suppose the fall of snow commenced at 9.50 o'clock, a property owner would have to hustle. There was another supposition. Mr. Dumble asked, that, suppose a man might dump a load of dirt on the pavement in front of a property owner's house, would he be obliged to clean it up under the provisions of the bylaw?

"You might say if there was an earthquake that covered the pavement 200 feet deep with dirt, would the property owner be obliged to clear it?" retorted Mr. Edwards. "If it can be shown to the satisfaction of the magistrate that it was impossible to clear the pavement under certain conditions, there will be no penalty imposed."

Mr. Dumble—I am not going into the evidence; a good deal of the snow is better on than off. I would ask Mr. Edwards to allow the cases to stand.

Mr. Edwards—The object of the prosecution is not to get money, or to inflict fines—we are simply here to enforce the bylaw. I certainly would not allow the cases to be dismissed with my consent.

Mr. Dumble—The law provides for something being done which cannot be done. If it were to provide for something being done that can be done it would be different. Should a coating of ice form on the pavement, you can't use an axe to chop it; you can't use salt to melt it, and what are you going to do.

Mr. Edwards said that if there was ice left on the pavements, the town would become liable for accidents as in the past.

The magistrate held that there was not sufficient grounds for complaint so far and he dismissed all the cases with a warning.

Wear Lech's Real Furs

Wearing REAL FURS is something like wearing real Diamonds. The tendency, so far as our sales go, is to wear better Furs, which is real economy.

LECH'S REAL FINE FURS are not dear. Neither are those next to the finest kinds. Anybody can afford to wear the Furs we are making, both from a standpoint of quality and price.

With cold weather ready to sweep down on us any day, it is wise to have an early choice of our full stock.

A WESTWOOD WEDDING.

Marriage of Miss Jennie Lancaster and Mr. William Elmhurst.

A pretty wedding took place at St. Michael's church, Westwood, on Thursday, 5th of Dec., when William Elmhirst, son of Mr. Philip Elmhirst of Otonabee, led to the altar of hymen Miss Jennie Lancaster, only daughter of Mr. J. Lancaster, sr., of Otonabee. The officiating clergyman was the Rev. McKee McLennan, pastor of the church.

The church was very nicely decorated for the occasion by the friends of the bride. Miss Lillie Faux was bridesmaid, while Mr. Fred Elmhirst, of the Royal Canadian Dragoons, assisted the groom.

The bride was attired in a dress of white cashmere trimmed with ribbon and lace, and wore the conventional veil and orange blossoms. The bridesmaid was gowned in pale blue cashmere.

After the ceremony the guests drove to the residence of Mr. Lancaster, where they, to the number of ninety, sat down to a bountiful and recherche wedding repast.

The presents were numerous and costly including a gold watch from the groom, twenty-five dollars in gold from her uncle, Mr. Wm. Lancaster, a clock and berry spoon from the congregation.

BLOOD POISON

If you ever contracted any blood disease you are never safe unless the virus or poison has been eradicated from the system. At times you see alarming symptoms, but live in hopes no serious results will follow. Have you any of the following symptoms? Sore Throat, Ulcers on the Tongue or in the Mouth, Hair Falling Out, Aching Pains, Itchiness of the Skin, Sores or Blotches on the Body, Eyes Red and Smart, Dyspeptic Stomach, Sexual Weakness—indications of the second stage. Don't trust to luck. Don't ruin your system with the old fogy treatment, —mercury and potash—which only suppresses the symptoms for a time, only to break out again, when happy is domestic life. Don't let quacks experiment on you. Our New Method Treatment is guaranteed to cure you. Our guarantees are backed by bank bonds, that the disease will never return. Thousands of patients have been already cured by our New Method Treatment for over twenty years. No experiment, no risk—not a "patch-up," but a positive cure. The worst cases solicited. We treat and cure Nervous Debility, Sexual Weakness, Ghost, Blood Poison, Stricture, Varicocele, Kidney and Bladder Diseases, and all diseases peculiar to men and women.

Ate Companion's Body.

Washington, Dec. 12.—Cannibalism has appeared in the varied list of crimes charged against Filipinos by American military courts. According to the record of a court-martial convened in the department of the Viscayas, P.I., which has been received at the War Department, Raymundo Fonto, a native, found his working companion, Liberato Emliro, sleeping in his (Fonte's) boat. Fonte became enraged, killed the slumbering man with a blow of an oar, cut off his nose and ears, and, according to his own confession, cooked and ate part of the body. He was sentenced to be hanged at Capiz, Panay, on the 18th instant.

Assaulted With a Bible.

Victoria, B.C., Dec. 12.—A telegram from Sendai to the Japanese Herald says that an American missionary named Sneider has been arrested for assaulting a Japanese boy by striking him with a Bible.

Doctors Agreed.

Every doctor who has been shown the formula of Merrill's System Tonic, has expressed great admiration for its scientific and medical ingenuity. It is a thorough blood purifier, a great muscle, blood and tissue builder, and an excellent and permanent cure for constipation. 50 pleasant-to-take doses, 50 cents. Sold at Ormond & Walsh's pharmacy.

Farmer's Backache.

There is scarcely a farmer in this country but knows what backache is. The hard work and heavy lifts, the constant grind of toil from early morning till late at night, frequently bring the stabbing pain in the back or the dull grinding ache that knows no let up. Then too there are often urinary troubles, swelling of the feet and ankles, puffiness under the eyes, rheumatic pains in the joints and muscles.

Dr. Pitcher ought to be held in high esteem by every farmer in the land on account of his Backache Kidney Tablets, which are doing such a grand and noble work in banishing backache, kidney and urinary troubles, which are such universal complaints on the farm.

HEAVY WORK.

Mr. C. E. Lane, King Street East, Ingersoll, Ont.: "I have been subject to attacks of backache and kidney trouble for some years, owing to heavy work on the farm in my early days. Every attack of cold aggravated it. I have tried other remedies in the past but with little effect, and decided to try a bottle of Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets. I got a bottle from A. E. Gayfer, druggist, using at first three and then two at a dose, as they proved a little too laxative. With the two tablet dose the pain and other trouble disappeared, and since then there has been no return, consequently I am sure they are a good medicine."

Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets are 50c. a Box, at all druggists or by mail, THE DR. ZINA PITCHER CO., Toronto, Ont.

SLAVES IN ALABAMA.

Negro Arrested for Selling Others to Manager of Plantation.

New Decatur, Ala., Dec. 12.—Ben Milam, a negro, and formerly a slave, of Lawrence County, is under arrest, charged with kidnapping negroes and selling them as slaves to the manager of a Tennessee River plantation, several miles below Decatur. It is claimed that Milam would induce negroes to accompany him to the island with the promise of securing positions for them on the plantation at good wages, and when they reached there he would sell them into bondage, after which they were confined within stockades. A negro who recently escaped from the island told the story, and caused the arrest. He reports that a kidnapped negro has been confined on the island as a slave for seven years.

When the Bowels Are Constipated

Health Cannot be Good—Digestion and Other Bodily Functions Cannot be Properly Performed—Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

The character of food, sedentary habits, and neglecting the calls of nature, may be set down as the usual causes of constipation. The accompanying derangements are indigestion, stomach trouble, liver and kidney diseases, and an endless amount of pain and suffering. Poisonous impurities when left in the blood, are bound to find lodgment in some weak spot of the system and the result is disease of the most deadly nature.

It is a serious smatter to neglect constipation. You may do so for a time, only to find that your health has been undermined by bodily derangements of the most deadly kind. You should have a movement of the bowels every day. To accomplish this, avoid concentrated foods, use vegetables and fruits freely, and take one of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills before retiring, two or three times a week, or oftener, if required.

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills are not an ordinary cathartic. They have a specific and combined action on the kidneys, liver and bowels, and consequently cure constipation, and the accompanying derangements, thoroughly and well, by removing the causes. For the information of those who are not yet familiar with the peculiar merits of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, we might add that they are purely vegetable in composition, pleasant and natural in action, and remarkably prompt and far-reaching in effect, even in the most serious and chronic cases of constipation, kidney and liver diseases.

Persons with weak kidneys are peculiarly susceptible to sudden change of temperature, and for this reason need to be on a sharp lookout during the fall and winter seasons, lest the cold settle on these filterin gorgans and bring on Bright's disease of the kidneys, by far the most painful and fatal of diseases. Scores and hundreds of people make a practice of keeping Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills in the house, and take one whenever the symptoms of constipation and kidney derangements make themselves known. Scanty, highly-coloured urine, painful urination, and pain in the back and limbs are the danger signals of kidney disease.

Whatever else you may neglect, do Wnot overlook the importance of keeping the bowels, the kidneys, and liver in healthful, vigourous action. There is no surer way of avoiding serious disease and prolonging life, and the evidence of the people of this country seems to prove conclusively that by far the most effective treatment in bringing about these results is the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, one pill a dose; 25 cents a box; at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates and Co., Toronto.

"A handsome and useful Christmas present for your mother or grandmother is a copy of Dr. Chase's last and complete Receipt Book. Illustrated folder free."

LORD MORRIS.

His Recent Illness Recalls Good Stories by This Irish Judge.

Lord Morris, the famous Irish judge, has been dangerously ill. Fortunately he has recovered. But in order to be well on time with obituary anecdotes several papers printed stories of this well-known humorist. Among them are the following, all, of course, well authenticated, for Judge Morris more than lives up to his reputation.

It was in Lord Morris' court that one of the strangest judgments on record was once given. It was an abduction case, the offence being of a purely technical character. The judge listened patiently to the whole of the evidence, and then, addressing the jury, said: "I am compelled to direct you to find a verdict of guilty in this case, but you will easily see that I think it is a trifling thing, which I regard as quite unfit to occupy my time. It is more valuable than yours. At any rate, it is much better paid for. Find, therefore, the prisoner guilty of abduction, which rests, mind ye, on four points—the father was not averse, the mother was not opposed, the girl was willing, and the boy was convaynient." The jury found the prisoner guilty, and the judge sentenced him to remain in the dock till the rising of the court! Hardly had he delivered sentence than, turning to the sheriff, Lord Morris said: "Let us go," and, looking at the prisoner, he called across the court: "Marry the girl at once, and God bless you both."

It was Lord Morris who, when somebody spoke of Mr. Gladstone as a Heaven-born genius, hoped that "it may be a long time before Heaven is again in an interesting condition."

At Coleraine, a veterinary surgeon was being sued for damages for the value of a horse which it was said he had poisoned. The case turned on the number of grains which could be administered to the horse with safety, and a dispensary doctor stated that he had often given eight grains to a man, the suggestion being that 12 for a horse could not therefore be excessive. "Never mind your eight grains," said Lord Morris. "We all know that some poisons are cumulative in effect, and ye may go to the edge of ruin with impunity. But the 12 grains—would they kill the Divil himself if he swallowed them?" The doctor, who seemed annoyed, did not know; he had never had "him" for a patient. "Ah, no, docther, ye niver had," came from the bench; "more's the pity. The old bhoy's still alive."

A Big Quarter's Worth

is always found in a bottle of Polson's Nerviline, the best household liniment known. It cures rheumatism, neuralgia, toothache, headache, sick-stomach, in fact is good for everything a liniment ought to be good for. Mothers find it the safest thing to rub on their children for sore throat, cold on the chest, sprains and bruises. Never be without Polson's Nerviline. It will cure the pains and aches of the entire family and relieve a vast amount of suffering every year.

Away Down in Mexico.

there grew two plants known and used before Columbus discovered America. One is a specific for inflamed membranes and the other a certain cure for bronchitis. Combined with Tar, Tamarac, Tolu and other herbs they go to make up Four T's, the only positive cure known to-day for whooping cough and bronchitis. A 25c bottle cures an ordinary cough in 24 hours. Sold at Ormond & Walsh's drug store.

Throw Up the Sponge.

His Loving Spouse (who has been talking for five minutes without a break)—I'd like to know, now, what you've got to say for yourself. When you went down town I told you exactly the kind of bath sponge I wanted, and you wrote it down, and now you bring me this miserable, pitiful, good for nothing. What are you throwing that sponge up in the air for?

Mr. Meeker—My dear, it's the only thing I can do.

Straightforward.

He—You mustn't believe every beggar who comes to your door.

She—But this was no common beggar. He was a sea captain who had lost everything in a shipwreck.

He—How do you know he was?

She—He told a straightforward story about how his ship went to pieces on the coast of Switzerland.

THE OLD IMPERIALISM.

Rev. Dr. Sheraton Argues That It Has Now Passed Away.

A paper on "The Missionary Outlook," prepared by Rev. J. P. Sheraton, D.D., principal of Wycliffe College, Toronto, was read before a missionary conference of the deanery of St. John, N.B., the other day. The paper began by showing that time and space are now no longer barriers against intercourse with far-off lands. The old Imperialism dominated by lust of conquest and love of power was, he trusted, dead. Britons were realizing that a great trust had been committed to them. Britain stood the armed sentinel at the open doors which gave men access to preach the Gospel to myriads of heathens under her protectorate. The greater part of the work was Anglo-Saxon, British protection allowed American missionaries to carry on work in Mohammedan countries. Even in China, where all seemed so dark, a glorious light was beginning to shine, kindled by the fires of persecution. There was much to cause anxiety. The Dowager-Empress might regain her position, and there was fear of Russian intrigue. Christianity was spread in Japan and in Eastern Asia. In Africa the work was going on, its advance being due to the skill of British colonization. The triumph of the British over the Boers meant the protection of the natives and an open highway for the Gospel from the Cape to Cairo. The work demanded more missionaries constantly. There were many hardships, many obstacles, but the life and vigor of the church backing up a vigorous missionary spirit would overcome all and there would resound the joyful paean "City of God, the bond are free; we come to live and reign in Thee."

Wonders of the Alps.

Myriads of British and American tourists are at this moment delighting themselves with the grandeurs of Alpine travel. Nothing in the world's history is more impressive than the story of the Alps. Ten or twelve million years ago, possibly far more, a long, unseen line of weakness, a crack or fissure in the earth's crust, stretched away from France eastward hundreds of miles. On his line followed huge volcanic outbursts. Next ensued a vast slow subsidence, which went on through geologic epochs, until where Mount Blanc now rears its summit 15,780 feet, was a sea fringing an old continent. Large rivers emptied into it. Deposits of mud, sand, gravel were laid on one another as the sinking went on, until the layers became 50,000 feet, nearly ten miles, thick. Then at last commenced a great uplifting; the struggling subterranean forces raised a huge load. For ages this went on until the rocks, crumbled, crushed, contorted, rose above the waters, and continued to rise, forming lines of mountain chains and making Switzerland a tableland. Every hour since then rain and snow, river, glacier and avalanche have been sculpturing into peaks and carving into lakes and valleys that vast platform with its recent sedimentary covering and primeval granite core.

The result is a land of unequaled grandeur. Find you this in the guide books? Not a word of it. Yet Prof. Judd, in his charming "Volcanoes" (Kegan Paul) told the tale years ago in half a dozen pages. Would not the traveler look on the Matterhorn, the Jungfrau, the stupendous Splugen, the massive Gothard, the Mer de Glace, the deep Lake of Geneva, with quickened interest had he this story before him? And it can be told so easily: but 'tis not there.—London Telegraph.

Got the Sovereign and Lunch.

Richard Dobson of Lansing, Mich., says that years ago he came across Mr. Gladstone chopping down a tree near Hawarden. Not recognizing the statesman, the globe trotter exclaimed: "Hello, Johnny Bull! You're making rather a sorry job of cutting down that tree." Mr. Gladstone owned that it would take him an hour. Thereupon Mr. Dobson offered to bet the gentleman a dollar that he would fell the tree in twenty minutes. "You're a little man physically, but large in conceit. I'm not much of a betting man," retorted Mr. Gladstone, "but I'll tell you what I'll do, my little man. I'll give you a sovereign if you can chop down that tree in twenty minutes, and if you don't do it in that time you are to cut it down for nothing." Mr. Dobson swears he performed the operation in 17 minutes 37 seconds. At any rate he pocketed his sovereign and subsequently lunched at Hawarden.

Original Home of Golf.

The Scotchman contends golf is a Scotch sport to which poetical reference was made in Adamson's "Muses Threnodie," published in Perth as long ago as 1638. The terms used in the sport are for the most part Scotch. But the Dutch assert that it was first played in Holland on the ice, and before 1638 the Dutch poet Bredero described how the golfer, with ice spurs on, stands ready to smite with ashen club weighted with lead or his Scottish cleek of leaded box." But while this may be the earliest poetical reference to the game it does not show that Holland is the original home of golf. The reference to the Scottish cleek seems at first sight to point rather to Scotland.

Patti's Complex Genealogy.

Genealogy presents some curious problems. Take the case of Mme. Patti. She was born in Madrid. Her father was a native of Catania, in Sicily, and her mother a native of Rome. She was brought up by an American stepfather in the United States, married two French husbands before she settled down in Wales and is now the wife of a Swedish nobleman. To prevent any difficulty in consequence of this complex state of affairs in connection with her property she has taken out letters of naturalization as a British subject.—London Standard.

Imitations

of Dodd's Kidney Pills are legion. The box is imitated, the outside coating and shape of the pills are imitated and the name—Dodd's Kidney Pills is imitated. Imitations are dangerous. The original is safe. Dodd's Kidney Pills have a reputation. Imitators have none or they wouldn't imitate. So they trade on the reputation of Dodd's Kidney Pills. Do not be deceived. There is only one DODD'S. Dodd's is the original. Dodd's is the name to be careful about—

SORE NECK

Take Scott's Emulsion for scrofula. Children often have sores on the neck that won't heal up. The sores may come and go. Parents may not know what's the matter nor what to do. Scrofula is the trouble and Scott's Emulsion is the medicine.

Scott's Emulsion heals the sores. But that is not all. Scrofula leads to consumption. This is the real danger.

Scott's Emulsion is the "ounce of prevention" that keeps off consumption.

We'll send you a little to try, if you like. SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, Toronto.

A November Farewell.

Goodby, bullfrog; goodby, bee;
You alls has been good to me.
Makes me sorter sad, you knew,
Dat you mus' pack up an' go.

'Twas de bullfrog singin' right
Soothed me when I stay' all night;
'Twas de bee dat buzzed away;
Kep' me doin' all de day.

Now I'se res'less as' forlorn;
Sorry, mos', dat I was born.
Wind comes howlin' thru' de tree;
Goodby, bullfrog; goodby, bee.

"De reason some of us doesn' git along," said Uncle Eben, "is dat we sits down dreamin' of automobiles when we orter be pushin' a wheelbarrer."

The Summer Girl's Defeat.

The bronzed, athletic summer girl pales through her coat of tan
To find that she no more can charm the erstwhile summer man.

For now, with gaze of sad amaze, she sees him in the whirl
Of the dreamy waltz, his fickle arm around the winter girl!

The Important Question.

Mrs. Dashleigh—Do you believe it is possible, as Mrs. Roosevelt says, for a woman to dress on $300 a year?

Mrs. Kafiippe—It may be possible, but what's the use?

Cæsar's Courtship.

A noble young Roman named Cæsar
Once called on a maid—tried to squeeze—
But the girl, with a blush,
Said the Latin for "Tush!
You horrid young thing! Let me leave!"

The Way He Viewed It.

"Well, you went to the horse show, "You bet I did."
"What do you think of it?"
"Prettiest women in the country."

In the Ring.

Now the old time music
Up an' down the hall;
Balance to yer partners;
Hands roun', fellers, all!

The Poor Thing!

"My goodness," remarked old Mrs. Mixem earnestly, "twins are bad, but there's a poor woman down the street who's just had quadrupeds."

Relief.

November is a month when chill
Makes man bemoan his lot,
But when the coal man brings his bill,
Purchases you will be hot.

At the Livery Stable.

"I haven't had much experience in horseback riding."

"Aw, dat's all right. Dat hoss will give you plenty."

Cash Needed.

The while I flounder in deep debt
This thought has crossed my mind:
Soft coal is just as hard to get
As any other kind.

Easy to Correct.

"Is it true that Rhymster wears a celluloid shirt bosom?"

"Yes, but merely as a matter of business. It's no much easier to revise a poem written on that kind, you know. Words and lines can be rubbed out without trouble."—Chicago Post.

Well Bred.

"That looks a well bred dog."

"I should think he was. Why, he won't eat his dinner till he's got his collar on!"

Woman is as old as She Looks.

It is not age but disease, weakness and ill-health that makes women look old, care-worn and wrinkled. You cannot look your best unless you feel well, strong and vigourous with pure, rich blood and steady nerves. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food makes good looks because it makes good health, restores the healthful glow to the complexion, rounds out the form and gives elasticity to every motion of the body.

As Advertised.

Bacon—Did you get anything to eat at the railroad restaurant?

Egbert—Not much; they had very little there to eat.

"Yes; that is as advertised."

"What do you mean?"

"Why, they've been advertising reduced fare on that road."

His Name.

After a thunderstorm Bridget informed her mistress that some one on the golf links had been struck by lightning.

"Was it one of the caddie boys?" inquired the lady.

"No, mum; I think his name was Murphy," replied Bridget.

As Usual.

Mrs. Von Blumer—That cook was the worst thing I ever had in my house.

Von Blumer—Yes, you acted as if you didn't like her.

"I couldn't help it. Why, it was all I could do to write her out a good recommendation."—Life.

It Was.

"Did you hear that drinking song of mine in the last act?" asked the prima donna.

"I thought that was a drinking song," responded the low comedian, "because it was such a high bawl."—Baltimore American.

EIGHT CONVINCING REASONS...

WHY YOU SHOULD INSURE IN

THE IMPERIAL LIFE ASSURANCE CO'Y OF CANADA.

1. It is a purely Canadian Company, having all its funds invested in Canadian securities, and transacting business only in Canada.

2. It maintains the largest Government Deposit of any Canadian Life Insurance Company.

3. It maintains relatively the strongest policy reserves of any Canadian Life Insurance Company.

4. Its past record — the greatest guarantee of the future — has been unparalleled in Canadian life insurance.

5. Its policy contract is one of the most liberal issued, consistent with safety and equity.

6. It has a Capital of $1,000,000, which makes policy-holders' security unquestionable. At the same time, the assured is practically in the same position regarding profits as if he held a policy in a mutual company, the Imperial's charter providing that at least 90 per cent. of all profits shall be divided amongst policy-holders.

7. For every $100 of liability to policy-holders it holds $130 of securely invested assets. These assets are all of the highest order, and will bear the closest scrutiny.

8. An Imperial policy never depreciates in value, but, on the contrary, is constantly becoming more valuable. It is the most valuable estate you can leave behind you.

THE RACE

Does not depend on the start but on the finish. It's staying power which carries many a runner to victory. It's like that in business. Many a man starts off in the race for business success with a burst of speed which seems to assure victory. Presently he begins to falter and at last he falls and fails. The cause? Generally "stomach trouble." No man is stronger than his stomach. Business haste leads to careless and irregular eating. The stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition become diseased. The body is inadequately nourished and so grows weak.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It strengthens the stomach and so strengthens the whole body which depends on the stomach for the nourishment from which strength is made.

There is no alcohol in "Golden Medical Discovery," and it is entirely free from opium, cocaine and all other narcotics.

Accept no substitute for the "Discovery." There is no medicine "just as good" for diseases of the stomach and allied organs.

"Your 'Golden Medical Discovery' has performed a wonderful cure," writes Mr. M. H. House, of Charleston, Franklin Co., Ark. "I had the worst case of dyspepsia, the doctors say, that they ever saw. After trying seven doctors and everything I could hear of, with no benefit, I tried Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and now I am cured."

Prof. O'Brien,

CANADA'S GREATEST PHRENOLOGIST and the only recognized SCIENTIFIC PALMIST (by law) has removed to 363 Hunter street, Terrace, near the railway crossing. See name in window. As Prof. O'Brien is a very busy man, he will not be able to leave Peterborough for a few days yet. The more people he examines the more he has to examine, which fact alone speaks for his ability and the esteem and popularity he has gained during his short stay in Peterborough. It will be well for skeptics of either science to investigate before condemning either Phenology or Scientific Palmistry. The latter should not be confounded with the common fortune telling. Professor O'Brien has proved in open courts before Crown witnesses at the Toronto General Sessions, March 14th, 1901, that Palmistry as demonstrated by him is a pure science, and has no connection with the so-called fortune telling. Anyone wishing to be enlightened on the science should call on Professor O'Brien who will be pleased to explain his scientific methods. A photo read free to patrons. Over 100 persons have consulted him during his short stay in Peterborough. Remember there is only ONE Professor O'Brian. Don't forget his new address. And later on, we think we ought
And as we gaze, presents now,
To buy our presents while we're caught
And not to wait until allow.
When time will not

All other years we've waited till
The latest minute, and
Our sleader purses then we'd fill
And rush to beat the band.
We never found what we desired—
We took what we could get;
We wended home, all cross and tired,
But not this year, you bet.

Now surging, pushing, striving throng
We'll have to struggle in;
But leisurely we'll stroll along,
The while we spend our tin;
We'll take our time, and make our choice.
Select judiciously,
And those who get them will rejoice,
When they their presents see.

But after all, there's no great rush,
There's yet ten days or more
Before there's any awful trush.
Oh, yes, there's time galore.
To-day is—what? Well, never mind,
It doesn't matter. I'm
For shopping not just now inclined—
And, then, there's lots of time!

Malt Breakfast Food

Used by Royalty, Millionaires and the Plain People.

A breakfast dish used by royalty and millionaires is surely adapted for the digestion of all classes of our people. Malt Breakfast Food is so delicately delicious that it captivates the taste of old and young, rich and poor. It is the only grain food that truly imparts energy and strength; it is the most refreshing and invigorating for the stomach. Malt Breakfast Food is the most economical of grain foods; one package makes a meal for thirty persons. One trial usually convinces. Your Grocer has it.

PETERBOROUGH PRESBYTERY.

It met in Port Hope on Tuesday—The Next Meeting Will be in Cobourg.

The Presbytery of Peterborough met at Port Hope on Tuesday, when the attendance was not large. The ministers present were Revs. Wm. Bennett, clerk, Peterborough; Peter Duncan, Colborne; C. S. Lord, B.D., Grafton; Wm. Johnston, Millbrook; J. G. Potter, St. Andrew's, Peterborough; J. W. McIntosh, Centreville; R. F. Hunter, B.D., of Baltimore; A. S. Sinclair, Port Hope; W. Beatty, Cobourg. The elders present were: Mr. Jas. Crafck, of Port Hope; Mr. W. J. Spier, of Grafton and Rev. Mr. McNaughton, of Port Hope.

The committee appointed to arrange for a union of Warsaw and Westwood reported that they had failed to accomplish anything in the matter.

An interesting report was presented by Rev. J. G. Potter on Home Missions, including a report regarding the Cordova church, to the effect that the church building was now well forward, and will be completed in February.

Steps were taken to enlist the sympathies of the congregations of the Presbytery in the Cordova mission work.

The next meeting of Presbytery will be held in Cobourg on the second Monday in March at 7.30 p.m. The opening meeting is held in the evening because of the train arrangements and because this first session is to take the form of a conference on religious subjects.

Several remits from Assembly were considered and dealt with.

One was in regard to the term of eldership, the question being whether the life term should continue, or whether the office should be held only for a term of years with privilege of re-election.

It was decided to recommend that in some cases the election for a stated term of years was preferable.

It was agreed to disapprove of the appointment of Sabbath school field secretaries, suggested in another remit.

It was also agreed to approve of the remit reducing the representation of Assembly to 1 in 6, instead of 1 in 4 members of Presbytery, as at present.

Leave was granted to the congregations of Warsaw, Springville and Mill street, Port Hope, to call Ministers when prepared.

Much consideration was given to the spiritual side of the century fund movement.

A committee was appointed to prepare a programme for the conference at the next meeting of the Presbytery at Cobourg.

A Boon to Business Men.

The man who from business pressure has to bolt his food, suffer mental worry over business and then lose his sleep, will find Merrill's System Tonic a pearl of great price. This medicine purifies the blood, builds up the system, strengthens the nerves, and is the greatest blood regulator known. One bottle is worth $50 to an over-worked man. 50 pleasant-to-take doses 50c. Sold at Ormond & Walsh's drug store.

ST. LUKE'S MISSION.

Last night, Rev. Arthur Murphy took for his text, "Abraham, the Hebrew," Gen. xii, 1-4, and Gen. xi, 31.

The call of Abram is emblematic of the Gospel call, both demanding separation. Abraham had to leave Ur, the heathen country; the Christian has to leave, or to separate from sin. The obedience to the call has a promise of reward. Abram was promised great blessings; the obedient Christian who will separate himself unto God, has the promise of everlasting life. Abram had faith, which was accounted unto him for righteousness. (Heb. xi.); he obeyed the divine call without any argument.

He was called away from Ur to go to the land of Canaan. People think Canaan is Heaven, but it is not; for in Canaan was war, and bloodshed and sin. Nothing of the kind will be in heaven. Canaan represents a higher Christian life; it is better than a wilderness life. But Abram did not enter Canaan at once, as he was told; he lingered on the way. Likewise the Israelites later on did not reach the promised rest as soon as they might, because of unbelief. God told Abram to leave his father and Lot behind, but he disobeyed. Many Christians are kept away from a consecrated life by things they should drop. Worldliness and pleasures will cling to many professing Christians, which prevent the entrance into consecration. Instead of going at once to Canaan, as God had commanded Abram remained for twenty years in Haran. During this time God never spoke to him, either in dreams or open visions. He stopped half way. God spoke to him in Ur, but not in Haran. Likewise many Christians have seen a vision of God in Ur, i.e., at conversion, but never since. They refuse to go to Canaan, they stop at Haran, i.e., in worldliness, and thus God all the time remains silent to them. They read their Bibles, they say their prayers, but it is only a form; their heart is not in their worship; they have no communion or fellowship with God.

At last Abram enters into Canaan, and the very moment he does it God appears unto him, and promises him blessings. And all the time while he was in Canaan God spoke to him.

The life of professing Christians in not what it ought to be. They are only at Haran, have no fellowship with God. When Abram entered Canaan he received a new name; "Abraham, the Hebrew." It was a nick name, and designated his character. "Hebrew" means 'come-across-man." He had come across the country from Ur (Heathenism), to Canaan, (fellowship with God.) It is to be noted that he had no nick-name while he was in Ur, nor in Haran. People took notice of him when he was in Canaan. Through fellowship with God he was enabled to lead a consistent life. The significance of this is evident later on. Abraham left Canaan because of famine, and entered Egypt, because there was plenty. God tested him, but he did not stand the test. It was a lack of faith in God, and while he was in Egypt God never appeared to him; as soon as he was there his troubles began. Egypt represents the world. It shuts out communion and fellowship with God, but when he was back in Canaan God spoke to him again, and renewed His promises.

Should Christians have drifted to Egypt (the world) for help and refuge let them return at once and God will reveal Himself to them. Many a person loses the blessing of Canaan because some forbidden ties chain him to Haran.

To-night the service will again begin at 7.45. The public is cordially invited. Children's service every day at 4.15.

A LIST OF CHRISTMAS BOOKS.

The catalogue of Christmas books issued by the Copp, Clark Publishing Company, affords a great many literary attractions. These embrace the cream of wholesome fiction presented by the publications of this enterprising company. As a sample, one may mention Gilbert Parker's latest book, "The Right of Way," pronounced by critics to be the best of this gifted writer's works. The catalogue contains all the other books of Parker, and books by Cable, Crawford, Merwin, Hewlett, Barrie, Ian McLaren, Churchill, Crockett, Goldwin Smith, and numerous other first-class authors. Apart from the intrinsic literary excellence of the publications of the Copp, Clark Company, the excellent typography, sound paper, and general book-making elegance, make them suitable for holiday purchase. Ask your bookseller for a view of the catalogue in question, and you will have little trouble in making a choice in the matter of holiday book purchases.

BRAKENLAAGTE FIGHT

Lord Kitchener Reports Fearful Boer Atrocities.

BRODRICK CALLS BOERS BANDITS

Boers Robbed the Wounded and Unarmed and Tortured Them as Well—Enemy Is Surrendering in Detail—Report by Way of Paris That Kitchener Is Ill—Dewet's Force Broken Up.

London, Dec. 13.—The War Office issued a statement last night dealing with the Boer treatment of Col. Benson's wounded at Brakenlaagte, which is the result of special investigation of the matter instituted by Lord Kitchener.

The statement sets forth that 18 officers and men of Col. Benson's command were kindly and even carefully treated by the Boers.

The remaining 75 men who were examined testified that they witnessed and suffered atrocities worse than those which followed the Vlakfontein disaster.

These latter said the unarmed and wounded men lying around the guns were killed at close range, and that the survivors of the engagement suffered torture, being robbed and stripped of their clothing, in spite of their wounds and broken limbs.

Lord Kitchener says that, evidently, the Boer leaders are no longer able to repress murder and outrage on the part of their subordinates.

Brodrick Calls Boers Bandits.

London, Dec. 13.—Speaking at Glasgow Wednesday night, Mr. Brodrick, the Secretary of State for War, referred to Lord Kitchener's report on the shooting of blacks by the Boers. Mr. Brodrick said this report made it perfectly clear that these murders were not committed in moments of passion, but were part of an organized system to cover the tracks of the enemy and to prevent possible information of their whereabouts.

Dealing with present aspects of the war, Mr. Brodrick said Boers had accepted parole and broken it, and that there would be no repetition of such leniency. Within recent weeks, Boer commanders had shown less regard for the laws of war than previously, added the speaker, and these bandits would before long reach a crisis when they could no longer be treated as belligerents.

The speaker said the Government was for no half measures in securing a settlement, and that any fresh negotiations must emanate from the Boers.

Boers Surrendering in Detail.

Liverpool, Dec. 13.—The Post says the War Office interprets the large Boer captures to mean that the Boers are yielding with a view to avoiding the humiliation of a general surrender. The War Office, says the paper, expects the war to end soon.

A despatch from Paris says that The Rappel prints a despatch which asserts that Kitchener is ill.

Dewet's Force Broken Up.

New York, Dec. 13.—The Times has the following from London: A correspondent of The Times, telegraphing from Pretoria, says the Boer force which concentrated under Dewet in the Orange River Colony, and was hovering around the line of blockhouses between Kroonstad and Lindley, has been broken up by Broadwood and Byng.

General Dewet, ex-President Steyn and about 100 men had previously withdrawn south.

More Troops Are Needed.

London, Dec. 13.—A despatch to The Times from Wellington, N.Z., says responsible New Zealanders returning from South Africa declare that more soldiers are needed to finish the war. The troops have the utmost confidence in Lord Kitchener, but his efforts are hampered by the ill-advised agitation in the United Kingdom. It is asserted that excessive consideration is shown to the Boers in the refugee camps, while the colonists in Natal are suffering hardships.

British Mad Shown Sympathy.

Buda Pesth, Dec. 13.—Replying in the Hungarian Diet yesterday to a demand that the shipment of horses from Hungary to South Africa be stopped on the ground that it constituted a violation of Hungarian neutrality, the Premier, Koloman de Szell, declared that the question whether, in international law, horses were regarded as war material, and that to supply them constituted a violation of neutrality, had never yet been decided; hence the Government had not stopped, and did not intend to stop, the traffic. While fully sympathising with the Boers, said the Premier, the questioner ought to have realized the impropriety of abusing the British, who, in different times, had shown their sympathy for Hungary. The British nation, he added, deserved Hungary's esteem. The Premier's statement was approved by the majority of the House.

Denounced Chamberlain.

Berlin, Dec. 13.—An anti-British mass meeting at Munich, Bavaria, yesterday, was attended by several thousand people, including a number of Bavarian Deputies. Violent addresses were made, denouncing Chamberlain, the British Colonial Secretary, and a resolution was adopted calling on the Reichstag and the Government to take the initiative in an effort to terminate the war in South Africa. The socialists of Germany are taking advantage of the ill-feeling against Great Britain throughout the country for the purpose of harassing the Government. This they effect by demanding in the Reichstag that Germany shall propose joint intervention in South Africa to the other powers.

Krause Again Remanded.

London, Dec. 13.—In the Bow Street Police Court yesterday, the prosecution against Dr. Krause, ex-Governor of Johannesburg, on charges of high treason and inciting to murder, having concluded its case, counsel for the prisoner announced that he reserved his defence. Dr. Krause was again remanded until Dec. 18, when he will be formally committed for the January Assizes on the charge of having incited Cornelius Brookama to murder Douglas Foster.

THE SAILING DATE.

The Second Canadian Mounted Rifles Will Leave About Jan. 10—Ontario Troops Off For Africa.

Ottawa, Dec. 13.—The third contingent will probably sail from Halifax on the 10th of January. Wednesday evening the Minister of Militia was informed by cable from the War Office that the British troopships Manhattan and Victoria would likely be in Halifax Jan. 7. At this rate the contingent would leave on the 10th, unless indeed the sailors' prejudice against leaving port on Friday should prevail with the authorities. Capt. Church, adjutant of the regiment, and the 11 men recruited in Ottawa, left here yesterday for Halifax. Col. Evans will probably go east to-day or Saturday.

Soo Shipbuilding.

Sault Ste. Marie, Dec. 13.— From undisputed authority it has been learned that the plans for the big ship-building plant, to be located at the Canadian Soo by English capital, headed by Sir Christopher Furness, are now prepared and the site chosen. The plans call for the largest plant on the great lakes, of a sufficient size to allow the building for four lake carriers of the largest type at the same time. The plant is to be located west of and in close proximity to the Clergue Steel Works, the first portion of which is now nearing completion.

St. Kitts' Man Missing.

St. Catharines, Dec. 13.—Mystery surrounds the disappearance of William Gregory, son of W. H. Gregory, Haynes avenue, who left his boarding house in Buffalo in August last, saying he was going to the Fort Erie races, and has not since been seen. He was injured in Boston eight years ago, securing $3,500 damages from the Standard Oil Co., and may have had considerable money on him. It is probable he met with foul play.

The Quebec Assassination.

Quebec, Dec. 13.—The coroner's inquest on the remains of Edmond Landry, who died from wounds received in a quarrel at Thetford Mines as previously reported, took place at the morgue yesterday, and at 5 o'clock the following verdict was rendered:

"That O'Dilon unlawfully struck Edmond Landry on the head with a hammer and assassinated him."

O'Dilon Gregoire has been sent to jail.

To Oppose the Mahsuds.

London, Dec. 13.—A despatch from Calcutta to The Times says the military position on the Waziristan frontier is such that six native battalions and one mounted battery have been sent to Tonk. It is, however, not considered necessary to organize a field force. Gen. Egerton is commanding part of the frontier force. His staff has been increased. Flying columns will be told off to harry the Mahsuds.

To Carry Measure Through.

Berlin, Dec. 13.—In the Reichstag yesterday the Imperial Secretary of State for the Interior, Count Von Posadowsky-Wehner, made a reply to the critics of the tariff and reiterated the Government's determination to carry the measure through.

After the tariff bill had been referred to a committee of 28 members, the Reichstag adjourned until January.

Coronation June 26.

London, Dec. 11.—At a session of the Privy Council yesterday King Edward definitely fixed June 26, 1902, as the date for his coronation. It was also decided that parliament will meet Jan. 16.

Attempt to Break Jail.

SENDING OFF THE SOLDIER BOYS.

Peterborough's Contribution to the S. A. Force.

A DOZEN MEN LEFT HERE.

Great Crowds of Citizens Were in the Streets and the Crush at the Station was Something Terrific.

That military ardour burns fiercely in Peterborough whenever opportunity is afforded for an outburst, has been proven many a time and oft, and consequently when it became known that the quota of volunteers furnished by the town for South African service, was about to leave by the midnight C.P.R. express, the citizens made preparations to give the boys a "send-off" of such a nature as would convince the soldier lads that their heroism in volunteering for active service was not unappreciated.

In the early part of the evening the enlisted men met with hearty handshakes and expressions of good-will, coupled with wishes for a safe return, on every side, and were followed through the streets by enthusiastic crowds of small boys. As the hour grew later the enthusiasm spread, and the men were caught up on the shoulders of their friends and chaired up and down George street, whilst the boom of the horns and wild applause, made the windows shake.

There were three or four banquets taking place and as each one was brought to a close, the banquetetrs streamed out into the street and swelled the crowd, until the pavements were crowded. No. 4 Company had been feasting, and when that aggregation of strong-lunged enthusiasts broke lose, things began to go with a hum.

Shortly after 11 o'clock the drill shed began to fill up, and most of the enlisted men didn't have to walk to get there, being carried in by their friends shoulder high above the crowd. The fire teams came dashing into the shed, and the torches were lighted preparatory to forming a procession to escort the soldier lads to the train. Just before leaving Mr. Roy secured several flash-light photos of the group. There was too large a crowd present to be held under control while Sgt. Trussler and Corp. Reg. Turner, of the 57th, were receiving the purses given them by the Regiment, so the gift was made quietly and unostentatiously.

The roll was called by Corp. Brown and all of the men responded.

Headed by both bands the procession moved off to the station at about 12 o'clock, Reg. Turner being carried to glory on a stretcher by his comrades of the 20th Century Club, Dick Boyle rode on a door. The rest of the contingent occupied seats in the fire department waggons.

The station platforms was a seething mass of humanity, the crush was something terrific. The bugle band enlivened the flying moments with brisk airs, and the express dashed in all too soon to bear the boys away to join those who will be their comrades for many days on the South African veldt. The drafts from Toronto and the west which were on the train were given a rousing reception and the cheering continued until the express pulled out, the last sounds the boys heard being the strains of the National Anthem played by the band and the inspiring calls of the bugle band.

The Peterborough draft was composed as follows:

William Walter Brown,
Major 3rd Dragoons.

Gerald Hayward,
Lieutenant 3rd Dragoons.

Percy Roberts Price,
Lieutenant 3rd Dragoons.

Frank G. Craig,
Private, 3rd Dragoons.

F. J. E. McDonald,
Private, 3rd Dragoons.

Fred S. Hubbs,
Trumpeter, 3rd Dragoons.

George Daniels,
Late of Howard's Scouts.

W. P. K. Milligan,
Captain, 45th Regiment.

John R. Dundass,
Gunner, 14th Field Battery.

Richard Boyle,
Sergeant, 14th Field Battery.

Reginald H. Turner,
Corporal, 57th Regiment.

Alfred Trumler,
Sergeant, 57th Regiment.

NOTES.

Major Brown, of Colborne, who left with the Peterborough contingent of the Second Canadian Mounted Rifles, was placed in a rather deplorable position, just at the last moment. Major Brown's father died on Wednesday and he was unable to remain for the funeral of his parent. The transportation had been arranged for and Major Brown was Corporal of the Peterborough delegation, and notwithstanding that he tried his best to arrange matters he had to report in Peterborough last night, and proceed to Halifax. Major Brown's friends will deeply sympathize with him in his sad predicament.

At the station two large mottoes were stretched across the street. They were placed in position by Mr. J. J. Turner, Sr., and contained the words, "God Bless and Protect our Soldier Boys," and "Success to the British Empire."

Trooper "Happy" McIlroy, of Toronto, whose application was refused on account of his young wife's protests, was a stowaway on the train when it reached Peterborough, and the officials had all kinds of trouble in trying to get rid of him. He fought like a tiger, and was too much for anyone that tried to handle him. After the train had been stopped several times, the effort to put him off was abandoned for the time being.

THE NEW NEST OF TRAITORS.

A Challenge to Whitney and Wright.

Plotting in the Tory Camp to Give Whitney the Knife and rid the Party of an Incompetent Leader.

The following is the rejoinder of the author of the "Mabee Pamphlet" to the strictures of his critics:

THE TALK AT TORY HEADQUARTERS

12. During the time the book was being prepared I did not come very much in contact with any of the members of the Conservative party outside of the city of Toronto and my own constituency of South Norfolk in which I spent part of my time at my home in Vittoria, and consequently did not realize the extent of the dissatisfaction with the leadership and management of the party. I had often heard Wright, Leavitt, Nesbitt and others in the Conservative headquarters on King King street, Toronto, denounce Whitney for his conceit, overbearing manner, and total lack of political tact and business ability, but I did not pay very much attention to this as it was quite apparent that the Wright-Leavitt-Nesbitt crowd were down on Whitney, and that Whitney had no confidence in them but simply tolerated them because he had to. Wright told me one day when he was very angry about something that Whitney was so "self-opinionated that he could not pound an ounce of sense into his head." I am using Wright's actual words with the expletives left out. Wright told me to wait until I got out into the constituencies and I would find out what the workers thought of their leader.

TORY CANDIDATE DEMANDS MONEY.

13. When at my home in Vittoria during the summer, I came in contact with Mr. John L. Buck, the Conservative candidate for South Norfolk. We talked over the political situation and he informed me that Whitney wanted him to run again at the next election, but that he would not take chances again unless his election expenses were put up for him. Knowing that I was in contact with the leaders in Toronto he asked what I thought the chances were for financial help. I agreed to let him know when Whitney was expected in Toronto. I wrote him afterwards from Toronto that Mr. Whitney would be in the city on a certain day, and he wired me that he was coming down. I met him at the Union Depot and we went together to the Conservative headquarters and saw Mr. Whitney. Mr. Buck afterwards told me at lunch in Nasmith's restaurant that he had arranged matters all right, and that Mr. Whitney had assured him that he would have $1,000.00, the whole amount to be paid to his brother at least one month before election. Mr. Buck repeated this again at the Union Depot that same evening to myself and three others. Mr. Buck told me that he had told Mr. Whitney that he wanted the money sent to his brother so that the Tisdale crowd in Simcoe would have nothing to do with it.

THE QUESTION OF LEADERSHIP.

14. In July and August I travelled over the Western part of Ontario in connection with the book. Before starting out Wright gave me a list of candidates in the present election and all the names of the Executive Committee of the Ontario Conservative Association, comprising the names of Presidents of electoral Division Associations, Conservative Members of the House of Commons in Ontario, Conservative Senators in Ontario and defeated candidates for the Legislature and House of Commons in Ontario at the last election. I still have this list in my possession as it was given to me by Wright. He asked me to call upon as many of them as possible and sound them on the question of holding a convention and appointing a new leader. He said that the plans were all laid and that if the fellows in the country were all right, he and Leavitt would resign and close up the headquarters office. "The Toronto World" newspaper would resume the agitation for a convention and six leading Conservatives would issue the call for a convention.

GENERAL DISSATISFACTION WITH WHITNEY.

15. When I came in contact with the leading Conservatives in several constituencies I found a very general dissatisfaction with the leadership of Mr. Whitney and fully as much with the work of the organizers. Some men told me that the Grit organizers had been around helping the local Grits with their voters' lists and holding organization meetings, while the Tory organizers could not be found unless there was a chance to make a speech at some big meeting. They also complained that when they went to Toronto they would find the headquarters office closed and no one to give any information. I informed Wright of what I heard in this respect, and told him that if a convention were held he should be prepared to make some explanation about these matters. A great many country Conservatives complained that the party was being run by the Albany Club, and that it was the only place to go, when in the city, to get any information. Several of them criticised Mr. Whitney very severly for spending $76,000.00 on election protests, all to no purpose, except helping some Toronto lawyers to make a good thing out of it. Some of them remarked that if it were on hand then to distribute amongst the candidates they would have at least $1,000.00 each to help them in looking after their voters' lists and paying the expenses of the campaign. Lack of confidence in Whitney, Foy, and the Albany Club, and disgust with the gross mismanagement of the party were apparent everywhere.

MACLEAN THE FAVOURITE.

16. Some of the candidates whom I saw during my tour were: Charters of Peel, Carscallen of Hamilton, Wardell of North Wentworth, Jessop of Lincoln, Satherland of South Orford, Stewart of North Middlesex, Downey of South Wellington, Monteith of North Perth, Hanna of West Lambton, Beck of West Huron, Snider of North Norfolk, Herring of South Essex and Kribs of South Waterloo. In addition to these I went to some other ridings and did not succeed in finding the candidates at home, but in nearly all the ridings above mentioned I saw some of the men mentioned in the list given me by Wright. I canvassed every man I called upon with reference to the leadership and found an overwhelming feeling against both Whitney and Foy. I was surprised to find so many in favour of Dr. Nesbitt, but on enquiring closely into these causes, his strength seemed to come rather more from the fact that he was looked upon as a genial fellow and a good entertainer than from his being considered a man of any capacity for public life. Maclean was undoubtedly the favourite for leader. He was looked upon as being able and aggressive, and not likely to commit Whitney's fatal blunder of blindly fighting everything proposed by the Liberals.

MONEY, JEALOUSY AND LACK OF UNITY.

17. Charters of Peel told me he would not have taken the nomination if he had thought he would have to pay his own election expenses. He said that Mr. Blain, M. P., was on the Financial Committee of the Ontario Conservative Association, and had promised him that he would see that his campaign did not cost him anything. He complained that he had already been to considerable expense and had not been able to get anything. He was down on Whitney for expending so much money on protests and leaving his candidates to put up their own expenses. He said he had been approached by one, Fitzgerald, who was feeling the ground on behalf of Maclean for leader, and had told Fitzgerald that he would support Maclean if a convention were called. Downey of Guelph told me he had no use for Whitney. One of his objections was that he kept himself at an out of the way hotel in Toronto, and it was hard for any of his followers to see him. He told me that he had remonstrated with Whitney about this. Carscallen of Hamilton said that he had talked with Whitney about the book, and that Whitney thought it would gain him a lot of votes. He said he would have the Hamilton Conservative Association order 1,000 books not later than Oct. 1st. I had a long talk with him. He said that their party could win if there was not so much disorganization, and Whitney did not seem to be able to pull the boys together. He said,

WHITNEY WAS JEALOUS OF EVERYBODY

who possessed any ability or who might be likely to come to the front in the party. Sutherland of South Oxford did not think much of Whitney and favoured Nesbitt. I saw, also, Messrs. Bullock and Patterson, the president and secretary of the Association. Bullock favoured Maclean and Patterson favoured Foy. Jessop of Lincoln was sore on the whole crowd. He said that they hadn't a man fit for a leader, but considered Maclean the best of the crowd, and thought that steps should have been taken to get him into the Legislature. He was in favour of a convention being held to consider the question. Stewart of North Middlesex thought that Whitney lacked the necessary qualifications for a successful leader and seemed to feel sore over the treatment the candidate against Col. Leys, at the last London election had received from Whitney at the Shaw-Wood banquet in London. He did not know whom to favour, but thought that

ANYBODY WOULD BE AS GOOD AS WHITNEY.

Monteith of North Perth condemned Whitney for his management of the large protest fund, and would support either Nesbitt or Maclean. Hanna of West Lambton was for Whitney out and out, and thought he was an ideal leader. Beck of West Huron told me about a $1,000.00 note which had been raised to fight the Garrow protest to which he and five others had attached their names. He claimed that Mr. Whitney had promised him that it would be paid within three months from the time it was made, and that it had then been running in the bank for over a year and nothing paid on it. He favoured Maclean strongly for leader. Kribs of South Waterloo was down on everybody. He did not think that any of them were any good, and was so disgusted that he doubted very much if he would even be a candidate again. Herring of South Essex didn't care who was leader. He was quite satisfied with any of them so long as Herring could be elected for South Essex. He said that was all he cared about. Snider of North Norfolk did not have much to say except that he was disappointed with Whitney's management of the party.

SUCCESS IMPOSSIBLE UNDER WHITNEY.

18. After encountering such a diversity of opinion and such general dissatisfaction, I was convinced that the Conservatives could not succeed under the present leadership, and that if by any chance the Liberal Government should be defeated, the affairs of the province, with Whitney as Premier, should be so grossly mismanaged that the Conservatives would be turned out at the end of four years, and the Liberals again returned to power, probably for another thirty years.

WITHDREW USE OF HIS NAME.

19. While my sympathies were always with the Conservative party, I had gone into the scheme of publishing the book with the expectation of making some money out of it, and I found that I had been grossly misled by Messrs. Whitney, Wright, Nesbitt, and the rest of them. I told Wright, Levitt and Nesbitt, that the only kind of a book which would appeal to the country Conservatives, was one denouncing Whitney as the leader of the party. They were still anxious to have the book brought out, and Wright talked of raising a subscription which they expected W. R. Brock, M.P., to head with $500.00, and then send the book out at a reduced rate, or give it away free. I told them that they could pay me for what work I had done on it, and I would draw out of it, and let them issue it on their own responsibility. I immediately found out that they wanted me to take the responsibility for the many wild and inaccurate statements which they had furnished me with. I then refused to have the book issued in my name, and took the plate of my signature away from the Mail office, with the result that the book still remains in cold type in the office of the Mail Job Printing Company.

WRIGHT PLOTTING AGAINST WHITNEY.

20. When I mentioned to Wright that I thought the best selling book among Conservatives would be one denouncing Whitney as leader, he said it would be a good thing if such a book were got out at once, and not left until it was too late to change leaders. He said he would help me all he could, provided I did not come out in favour of the Government, and he gave me the names of several people who could give me information about Whitney. I saw most of these people, and I have used some of the information gleaned from them, and some I have not used, for reasons which I can give if necessary.

MABEE ISSUES A BOOK OF HIS OWN.

21. I do not pretend to possess any great political virtue, nor am I pharisical, like Organizer Wright. I confess that my sympathies always were, and still are, with the Conservative party. I found out, however, that the weight of argument in the coming campaign was on the side of the Government. I went to Alex. Smith and told him that I proposed to get out a pamphlet setting forth the condition of affairs as I studied them while working with the Conservative organization, and commending the forward policy of the Government. I found that Mr. Smith had known about the Conservative book for months, which somewhat surprised me. He told me plainly, that neither the Government nor the Liberal party, would have anything to do with my proposed new book, but that if I would go ahead and get a book out on my own responsibility, he would write the Liberal candidates for whatever came to his notice of value to them; he made it his business to advise them of the same, so that they would be posted on everything that concerned them in their campaign. This was not exactly what I wanted him to do but I found that he was firm in his attitude, and I decided to go ahead on this plan with all speed, for I felt that 100,000 copies of the book compiled in the Conservative headquarters, would be issued by the Conservative organization by November 1st. The new book, "Our Progress," was issued by Hunter, Rose & Co., shortly after October 1st. The sale of the book has been large, and is increasing, and the matter contained in it speaks for itself. I prepared the book, "Our Progress," myself from material which I looked up myself, and arranged myself, with Hunter, Rose & Co., for its publication.

NOT AIDED BY LIBERALS.

22. I have not received any assistance, financial or otherwise, from any person, in connection with the book, "Our Progress," nor do I expect to receive anything from anybody, except through my publishers on the sale of the book. Wright knows that I have to-day proof-sheets of the book, "Our Progress," with corrections and additions made in his own handwriting. The sentence at the bottom of page 6 in said book, as follows, "$19,500 of this $76,000 is now in the hands of Toronto politicians as profits," was suggested to me by Wright. He gave me the names of two Toronto Conservative lawyers, who he said had got the money, and wanted me to use their names, but I refused. He also wanted me to say that Whitney had got part of the money, but I refused to do this also. Wright was the first man to give me the information about Whitney being deposed from the position of President of a Loan Company. He also asked me to say in the pamphlet that Whitney's greatest man in Toronto was a man who had threatened to expose the secrets of the Conservative party unless he was paid so much money.

23. I have never consulted any member of the Government in his room or elsewhere, with reference to the book, "Our Progress," or had any conversation or communication in any way with any member of the Government with reference thereto, and any statement to the contrary is deliberately false.

DR. NESBITT FEARS RESULTS.

24. Since the publication of the book, "Our Progress," Dr. Beattie Nesbitt sent a messenger to my house, that he wanted me to come and see him at his residence. The message came at a very late hour on Saturday, October 19th last, and I called at his residence on Sunday morning, October 20th, and had a talk with him lasting over an hour. He first said he wanted about 50 copies of the book, and I told him to go to Hunter, Rose & Co. for them, which he did the next morning. He then asked me for the letter which he had given me recommending the book which had been prepared for the Conservative party. I told him that I did not have it with me, but that I would let him have it when I was through with it. He asked me as a personal favour not to let it become public, as it showed that Whitney had read and approved of the book, and that Whitney now denied that. He said that he had no use for Whitney, but the publication of his letter would injure him (Nesbitt) very much with the Conservative party. He pleaded so hard that I would have promised not to publish it, had it not been that it was necessary to do so for my own protection.

And I make this solemn declaration conscientiously believing it to be true, and knowing that it is of the same force and effect as if made under oath and by virtue of the Canada Evidence Act, 1893.

Declared before me at the city of Toronto, in the County of York, this 15th day of November, A. D., 1901.

Crowds Buying Watches AND JEWELRY AT Sanderson's

The rush has set in earnestly. The Holiday season at Sanderson's is now in full swing. This is a Christmas store in the most literal sense. Show cases gleam and glitter with many holiday allurements—Jewelry Trays sparkle with fine Gems—Sterling Silver Novelties—Quadruple-Plated Silverware—Toilet Articles—Clocks—and thousands of other things to brighten and gladden the time of gift giving. Sanderson's is popular the rest of the year, but at Christmas time it fairly surpasses itself. It has the people's confidence and keeps it.

Standard Watches.

Our pride is greater than ever in our Watch stock. As lives depend on accuracy, we give care to every Watch we sell. Only Standard Works go in our Watches. Nothing so intensely personal as the gift of a Watch or tasteful Jewelry. Prices are unquestionably the lowest that we ever quoted. Wish we could get the same prices as the City Jewelers.

Call and inspect our stock. Be early.

WARSAW.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

County Councillor Richard Crowe has so far recovered from his recent illness as to allow his removal from Warsaw to his home.

Judging from present appearances the enormous Christmas trade which Warsaw's departmental store has done in former years will be totally eclipsed this year. Mr. Choate has always been an enemy of the old fogeyism so common to country stores, and his present business is a striking proof of the fact that by modern, up-to-date methods it is quite possible to sell every variety of goods at much closer prices than rule in the towns and cities. In addition to this it may be said that the variety of goods Mr. Choate is showing this season, is equal to that of any other store in Ontario, departmentals only excepted.

A little daughter of Mr. David Anderson had the misfortune to fall off a sleigh this morning, receiving several cuts and bruises about the head and face. At latest accounts she was doing well.

"Man is Filled With Misery."

This is not true of all men. The well, sound of lung, clear of eye, buoyant with health, are not miserable, whatever may be their social condition. To be well is to be happy, and we can all be well by getting and keeping our bodies in a healthy state. Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil will help all to do this.

Victim of His Profession.

Toronto, Dec. 12.—Dr. L. M. Sweetnam of Toronto died yesterday at John Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore, Md. Blood poison was the cause of Dr. Sweetnam's death. He contracted it after amputating the arm of Thomas Ray, a Penetanguishene man, in St. Michael's Hospital here, through a bristle of a brush he was scrubbing his hands with after the operation. Dr. Sweetnam was a clever physician, Professor of Surgery of Toronto University, and was born at Kingston, Ont., Aug. 1, 1859.

MANITOBA LIBERALS

Pleasant Close of the Great Convention at Winnipeg.

THE RESOLUTIONS PASSED.

The Convention Deplores the Introduction of the Spoils System by the Present Conservative Government—Grain Blockade—Manhood Suffrage Endorsed—The Registration Act Condemned, Etc.

Winnipeg, Dec. 18.—The Provincial Liberal convention closed yesterday with a smoking concert, held last evening, at which Hon. Clifford Sifton and other prominent Liberals spoke. The convention was a most representative one, and entirely successful in every respect. A permanent council was constituted to have charge of matters affecting the welfare of the Liberal party in Manitoba. The following resolutions were unanimously adopted at the afternoon session:

The Resolutions.

"(1) That this convention regrets the introduction into the Province by the present Provincial Administration of the spoils system.

"(2) This convention reaffirms and endorses the principle of manhood suffrage—one man one vote—as laid down in the platform of the Association of Manitoba Liberals in 1886, and while we do not disagree with the policy of refusing to extend the franchise to foreigners, wholly unacquainted with our language and institutions, until after a period of probation, we protest against the action of the present Conservative Government of Manitoba in discriminating against particular nationalities.

The Grain Blockade.

"(3) Resolved, that the present grain blockade will cause a very serious loss to the farmers and business community of the Province. It is, therefore, in the best interests of the country at large that the Governments, both of this Province and of the Dominion should take such steps as will as far as possible relieve the present existing conditions, to the end that such amendment should be made to existing legislation as will provide for a better supply of rolling stock and a more equitable distribution thereof, so that every possible facility may be afforded to the farmers of this Province for the transportation of their grain.

"(4) This convention condemns the action of the present Local Government in removing from municipalities the right to tax railway corporations. We also condemn the provisions of the taxation act which deprives municipalities of the 3 per cent. gross earnings, as provided by the railway aid act of 1885.

Inspection Act.

"(5) Whereas, owing to the lack of information respecting the provisions of the inspection act, great losses are incurred by farmers in the marketing of their crops, it is resolved that copies of the said act and elevator act should be distributed as widely as possible, and the clauses especially affecting the grading of grain at the point of delivery should be required to be posted up in every elevator licensed under the act.

"(6) That the system of registration of voters, provided by the Manitoba election act at the last session of the Legislature, is cumbersome, expensive and defective, and by compelling the personal attendance of electors in order to secure registration on the list of electors, many persons will be prevented from making application to be entered as voters, and will be deprived of the franchise that belongs to them as citizens of this Province.

"(7) Resolved, that the formation of a Provincial Liberal platform be referred to the Provincial Council, acting in conjunction with the leader of the party."

Both Legs Cut Off.

Smith's Falls, Dec. 12.—William Yelden, a brakeman on the C.P.R., at midnight was helping to bring the engine for his train out, when the westbound express came down the main track, on which he was standing, and ran over him. Owing to the escaping steam from his own engine he did not hear the other. Both his legs were cut off, and his body was otherwise frightfully mangled.

SIXTY-ONE FROM TORONTO.

Hamilton, Guelph and London Troops Also on Way to Montreal.

Toronto, Dec. 13.—Amidst scenes of the greatest enthusiasm the sixty-one men recruited in Toronto for the new mounted force departed for Montreal at 10 o'clock last night. The men were formed up at the Armouries at 8 o'clock, and headed by the Q.O.R. band, they marched to the depot under command of Col. Otter.

At the depot the crowd was so great and so determined to have a last glimpse of the soldiers that they broke open the doors leading from the waiting room to the overhead arch amid rushed down helter skelter to the tracks below.

The sections from London, Hamilton and Guelph were already there, and were heartily cheered. The band furnished several inspiring selections, and the boys got a reception that it is safe to say they will not soon forget.

Capt. Snider, C.M.R. of Portage La Prairie, has been appointed transport officer for the contingent. He acted in the same capacity for Strathcona's Horse.

The 220 horses for the use of the Second Canadian Mounted Rifles in South Africa were shipped yesterday afternoon by special train to Halifax.

The Hamilton Quota.

Hamilton, Dec. 18.—The 15 brave young fellows who have enlisted in the second mounted infantry regiment for service in South Africa, were given a rousing send-off at the Stuart street station last night. They paraded at the Armouries and marched to the station in charge of Sergt. Patton. At the station fully 2,000 people crowded the platform and when the train carrying the brave boys steamed out for Toronto, hearty cheers were given for them. Lieut. Marshall will not leave for Halifax for a few days.

Ontario Soldier Sick.

Ottawa, Dec. 13.—The Governor-General has received the following cable from Mr. Chamberlain:

"London, Dec. 10.—Regret to inform you Richard Took dangerously ill, enteric, Dec. 8. Mother, Mrs. Took, St. Helens, Ont."

Not Buying Canadian Oats.

Ottawa, Dec. 13.—The scheme arranged by Prof. Robertson to purchase half a million bushels of oats in Alberta for shipment to South Africa has about petered out. Local dealers soon put the price up in the west to such a figure that the War Office is now buying oats in Australia and New Zealand, delivered in South Africa for 14 cents less per bushel than Canadian oats would cost on the basis of current market rates in this country.

A Galt Lady Saved $50.

Mrs. Nesbit of Galt was sure her daughter was dying of consumption. So were two physicians and all the neighbours. Three 25c bottles of Four T's put the girl on her feet. As a positive, safe and speedy cure for coughs, colds or congested lungs this Four T's can't be beaten. Large bottles 25c at Ormond & Walsh's drug store.

Whitney Sells Out.

Boston, Dec. 13.—President Henry M. Whitney has disposed of his controlling interest in the Dominion Steel and Iron Company to James Ross of Montreal and other leading capitalists in the Bank of Montreal. Although Mr. Whitney is president, Mr. Ross has practically had the management of the company for some time and this sale of stock gives him absolute control.

Want Bounties Abolished.

Brussels, Dec. 13.—At a meeting of sugar manufacturers held here in anticipation of the forthcoming international sugar conference, it was decided to oppose any international convention which does not entirely abolish direct and indirect bounties on sugar everywhere.

Vote Before Adjournment.

Washington, Dec. 13.—The Senate Committee on Isthmian Canals passed Morgan's bill for the acquisition of the right of way and the bill was presented to the Senate. The Senate has agreed to vote on the Hay-Pauncefote treaty before adjournment next Monday.

Making Excellent Progress.

Montreal, Dec. 13.—Mr. E. S. Clouston, general manager of the Bank of Montreal, received this afternoon the following cable: "London, Dec. 12.—Lord Strathcona much better again to-day; making excellent progress—Colmer."

GUELPH WINTER FAIR

Everybody Concerned Is Jubilant —A Gratifying Success.

MR. JAMES LEASK'S WINNINGS.

The Bell Organ and Piano Company's Prize and the Holiday Cup Were Both Taken by Him—Magnificent Display of Live Stock—Successful Banquet in the Evening—Hon Wm. Paterson Spoke.

Guelph, Dec. 13.—The all-absorbing topic of conversation in the city is the Fat Stock Show. It is not marvelous that the members of the Farmers' Institute, the poultry men and the exhibitors of stock are jubilant—the winter provincial fair is a gratifying success. The city is thronged with stock men coming from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

Yesterday was a day of practical information for the farmer; the morning session of the Institute dealing with the poultry problem exclusively. The subject was exhaustively discussed by F. C. Hare, Prof. Gilbert of Ottawa and others.

A walk through the shorthorns reveals some magnificent specimens. James Leask of Greenbanks, Ont., ought to be a happy man. He succeeded for the second time in winning that much coveted trophy, the Bell Organ and Piano Company prize, a magnificent silver cup, valued at $230, thereby becoming the owner. Mr. Leask also won the Holiday Cup, value $75, for the best animal, any age or breed. The pair winning the Bell Organ Cup, weighing together 3,740 lbs., were sold to Mr. Slattery of Ottawa, at 10 cents per lb., live weight. His Excellency the Governor-General inspected these animals, and a portion of one of these splendid animals will grace his table at Christmas.

The display in cattle is simply magnificent, and the same may truly be said of every other department. An interesting exhibit was that of 3 Hybrid buffaloes, the property of Mossom Boyd & Co. of Bobcaygeon. By reason of their immense size they attracted much attention. Last night they were taken to the killing room and there slaughtered.

The process of killing the fat cattle, sheep and hogs, entered for this purpose, was completed yesterday afternoon, and last night the refrigerator rooms contained the carcasses of 79 hogs, 83 sheep, 9 cattle and 3 buffaloes. No finer collection of dressed meat has ever been shown in this city. Critical tests will be made, and awards given in accordance with their value for the export trade.

The annual banquet of the Guelph Fat Stock Show, held at the Royal Hotel last night, was in every sense the most representative gathering of stockmen ever held in the Royal City. Covers were laid for more than 100 guests, and the repast was all that could be desired. The chairman of the evening was J. M. Duff, banker, of Guelph. The chairman was supported on his right by Hon. J. M. Gibson, Hon. Wm. Paterson, John A. McGillivray and Mayor Kennedy, and on his left by Col. J. P. Whitney, Hon. John Dryden, Col. Mutrie, M.P.P., and J. P. Downey. Among many other prominent citizens present were: Hugh Guthrie, M.P., James Miller, ex-president of the association, A. F. H. Jones, president Guelph Board of Trade; James Brethour and Capt. Robson, M.P.P.

The toast of the King was honored by the singing of the National Anthem. The Dominion and Provincial Parliaments was responded to by Hon. William Paterson, Minister of Customs, and J. P. Whitney.

The Hon. Mr. Paterson dealt exclusively with trade questions notably that of transportation, and was listened to with the greatest interest. Col. Whitney was in excellent form, and delivered a rattling speech.

An interesting feature of the banquet was the presentation to James Leask, of the Bell Organ and Piano Company's Cup, as well as the Holiday Cup.

Our Guests, proposed by Hugh Guthrie, M.P., was responded to by F. W. Hodson, Dominion Live Stock Commissioner, J. P. Downey, James McQueen and Adam Armstrong. The City of Guelph and County of Wellington, was proposed by John Mutrie, M.P.P., and responded to by Mayor Kennedy, Warden Springer and James Laidlaw, jr. The Press was proposed by the president and responded to by Innes McIntosh of The Mercury, and H. Gummer of The Herald.

DOCTORS AT SEA.

Many a man has to abandon his desk because of neuralgia. The torture sometimes is almost unbearable. E. C. Dean, city editor of the Daily British Whig, Kingston, Ont., suffered with neuralgia in the head for twelve months. Six physicians failed to relieve him, but three bottles of Dr. Hall's Rheumatic Cure completely cured him. This great blood purifier is put up in bottles containing ten days' treatment. Price 50 cents at all drug stores or The Dr. Hall Medicine Co., Kingston, Ont.

France Decorates a Chinaman.

New York, Dec. 12.—A London despatch to The Times says: From Shanghai the correspondent of The Times sends a despatch to the effect that the French Government has conferred the Cross of the Legion of Honor on Wang Chi Chun, Governor of Nuanwhei, and that the throne has sanctioned the acceptance of the order by Wang. Wang was the Chinese envoy to Russia in 1894.

Schults Will Hang.

Sault Ste. Marie, Dec. 12.—Judge Britton of the Canadian Sault sentenced Frederick Schults, alias Lindsley, to hang Feb. 7, for the murder of his paramour, Mrs. Mary Craig, in August last. The crime was an unusually brutal one, Schults killing her in cold blood, without any other apparent reason than that the Craig woman had been down town while he was absent from home. The hanging will be the first to occur in the Algoma district.

Diphtheria and scarlet fever cannot spread where Vapo-Cresolene is used. All Druggists.

UNDER HORSES' FEET.

Annie Brooks of Dundas May Die From Wounds in Temple and Other Severe Injuries.

Hamilton, Dec. 13.— Miss Annie Brooks of Dundas came near being dragged to death by a runaway horse on King street late yesterday afternoon. As it was she received injuries which the doctors think will prove fatal.

The woman was crossing the road to catch a car, when a spirited horse, belonging to J. H. Robinson, undertaker, dashed into her. One of the shafts pierced her right temple, and her skirt got caught in the calks of the horse's front shoes. She was dragged over 75 yards.

In front of Shea's shoe store the infuriated animal ran into a farmer's rig and the sudden stop caused Miss Brooks to slide under a buggy standing near the curb. She was picked up unconscious and hurried to St. Joseph's Hospital, bleeding profusely. It was found that besides the terrible gash on her head, she was suffering from a broken collar bone, and a terribly bruised body. She was resting easily last night, and was partly conscious.

THE FEAR OF HUMBUG

Prevents Many People From Trying a Good Medicine.

Stomach troubles are so common and in most cases so obstinate to cure that people are apt to look with suspicion on any remedy claiming to be a radical, permanent cure for dyspepsia and indigestion. Many such pride themselves on their acuteness in never being humbugged, especially in medicines.

This fear of being humbugged can be carried too far, so far, in fact, that many people suffer for years with weak digestion rather than risk a little time and money in faithfully testing the claims made of a preparation to reliable and universally used as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Now Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are vastly different in one important respect from ordinary proprietary medicines for the reason that they are not a secret patent medicine, no secret is made of their ingredients, although they are sold by all druggists under protection of trademark, but analysis shows them to contain the natural digestive ferments, pure aseptic pepsin, the digestive acids, Golden Seal, bismuth, hydrastis and nux. They are not cathartic, neither do they act powerfully on any organ, but they cure indigestion on the common sense plan of digesting the food eaten thoroughly before it has time to ferment, sour and cause the mischief. This is the only secret of their success.

Cathartic pills never have and never can cure indigestion and stomach troubles because they act entirely on the bowels, whereas the whole trouble is really in the stomach.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets taken after meals digest the food. That is all there is to it. Food not digested or half digested, is poison, as it creates gas, acidity, headaches, palpitation of the heart, loss of flesh and many other troubles which are often called by some other name.

Marconi's Balloon Escapes.

St. John's, Nfld., Dec. 13.— The trial balloon used by William Marconi, the inventor of wireless telegraphy, who is here conducting experiments with his system, broke from its moorings Wednesday night and drove seaward. The accident is not uncommon, and occasions little annoyance. The inventor is prepared for such emergencies, and will send up another balloon to-day.

Fourteen Drowned.

London, Dec. 13.—A fierce gale is sweeping the English and Irish Channels. Many vessels are seeking shelter, and the lifeboats are busy rescuing small craft. Dover is experiencing the full force of the storm, and numbers of ships off there are showing signals of distress. A Belgian fishing boat has foundered in the North Sea, resulting in the drowning of fourteen persons.

A Boon to Business Men.

The man who from business pressure has to bolt his food, suffer mental worry over business and then lose his sleep, will find Merrill's System Tonic a pearl of great price. This medicine purifies the blood, builds up the system, strengthens the nerves, and is the greatest blood regulator known. One bottle is worth $50 to an over-worked man. 50 pleasant-to-take doses 50c. Sold at Ormond & Walsh's drug store.

AT ST. ANDREW'S.

Last Night's Most Forceful Address on Wages.

"The wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord."

This formed the text of an impressive address by Evangelist Walden last night in St. Andrew's church hall. He said that there were three aspects of sin that might be considered. 1st, sin as a burden, hard to carry and growing heavier all the time, while the sinner was becoming less able to carry the load. 2nd, sin as a defilement. It is the little corner in the soul, that once having given place to the germs of sin, becomes the receptacle of filth. 3rd, sin is a mountain. Those who live in valleys can realize the awardness of mountainous surroundings, where the sun is completely hidden from view. So sin hides from God. A condition such as this depicts means the eternal loss of all good. If a man is in a low physical condition, no matter if that has been hereditary, he seeks the best remedy and uses it. It is useless for us to say that because we are not at fault being born in sin, therefore we must die as we are. God has provided the remedy to meet the case. So, he that remaineth in sin is assuredly under the deception and domination of satanic power in their perseverity and opposition to One who loves him. Consequently the sinner is thus included in the agreement that has been made with the evil one that they are going to be satisfied with the reward of their actions.

But the gospel presents a brighter side, for "The gift of God is eternal life." Thus the Child of Evil is made the Child of God, and joint-heir with Christ. This is life eternal, that they may know me—that they may know God—"whom to know is life eternal."

This is a gift—no necessary "pull" needed—no delay in its delivery — no stipulation as to special qualities on part of recipient—no special previous experience required, but the only condition is "surrender" to God, through Christ the Lord.

Mr. Walden will address the closing meeting of this week, and it is confidently expected that many will make a point to be present to-night.

PERSONALS.

Mr. Harry King will arrive home to-morrow for the Christmas holidays, and Dr. Lionel King is expected home a few days later.

Mr. Charles Cambie, of Victoria, B. C., who has been visiting Mr. Holleston Tait, at Lakefield, is in town to-day looking up old friends on his way west.

Annual Dinner of the Sons of England.

A MOST HAPPY SUCCESS

Lansdowne Lodge S. O. E. B. S., do Themselves Credit—Large and Happy Gathering—Toasts and Speeches

"What we have, we'll hold," is a good British bulldog motto, and in respect of their banquet at the Morgan House last night, the Sons of England carried out its spirit to the letter. The occasion was the 19th anniversary of the establishment of the local lodge in Peterborough, and the Sons of England "held" the reputation they "have" for bringing off banquets successfully. There were over a hundred who sat down to the feast of good material things, and to the feast of reason and the flow of soul that followed.

The pillared dining hall of the Morgan House was beautifully decorated by Messrs. J. J. Turner & Sons, members of the lodge. The decorations, as is inevitable, took the form of the display of national and patriotic emblems. As was also to be expected from the fact of the banquet coming coincidently with the departure of the Peterborough members of the third contingent for South Africa, the military and patriotic spirit was especially in evidence. "Reg" Turner, a member of the Lodge, was one of the contingent, and was present. He was given an ovation during the early part of the banquet, and was given a send-off of which any departing warrior might be proud.

Rev. Dr. Symonds, Principal of Trinity College School, Port Hope, occupied the chair, and made a model presiding officer. Though no longer a citizen of this town his enthusiastic reception last night left no doubt that he still lives, and has a warm home, in the hearts of the people, of Peterborough and Ashburnham.

At the hour the guests marched into the dining hall to the stirring strains of "Rule Brittania," took their places at the table, and, standing, sang with great enthusiasm, "God Save the King," Rev. Dr. Symonds saying grace.

Then followed the banquet, which in preparation, service and general excellence, reflected great credit upon Mine Host Robert Munro.

The banquet over, the toast list was entered upon. Rev. Dr. Symonds, in prefacing the health of the "King and Royal Family," remarked upon the enthusiastic reception always given in Canada to this toast. The present occasion would, he was sure, be no exception. We were all charmed with the tactful manner in which the present King had entered upon the difficult task of filling the place of the great Sovereign he had succeeded. He has made no mistakes, and his reign promised to be, if not in length, then in character, a repetition of the reign of his illustrious mother.

The toast was very heartily honoured, the company singing with great fervour, "God Save the King."

Mr. Alf Kingscote sang with fine effect, and amidst great applause, the thrilling, patriotic song, "A Little Patch of Red."

In submitting the toast of the evening, "The Army, Navy and Volunteers," the chairman took occasion to pay an eloquent tribute to the patriotism and valour of Canadian volunteers — soldiers of whom any country might be proud. They had shown in active service in South Africa that they could hold their own with any troops in the world. (Applause.) He felt sure that those leaving for South Africa to-night would give an equally good account of themselves.

"For They are Jolly Good Fellows" was sung with unusual spirit, and Lieut. Cluxton of the 57th responded to the toast. After paying a tribute to the merits of our citizen soldiery, people were urged to encourage the local regiment, which was well represented in the Third Contingent leaving to-night, followed with warm wishes for success.

At this point the chairman drew attention to the presence of Mr. "Reg" Turner, who was one of the contingent, and called upon him for a speech. Mr. Turner said he was proud to be a member of the Third Contingent, and hoped he would do credit to the 57th, the town, and to the Canadian volunteer force.

While he was bidding good-bye to the Company individually "He's a Daisy" was sung and as he left the hall to make preparations for his departure the strain trailed off into "For he's a jolly good fellow," and "Reg." made his exit with the echo of three rousing cheers and a tiger ringing in his ears.

Mr. C. E. Bradburn in a neat speech proposed the toast of toasts—"England." He paid a warm tribute to the Navy and referred eloquently to the intelligent interest taken by the Prince of Wales in the training of Canadian sailors as British Navy sailors.

Song—"The Red, White and Blue."

Mr. J. J. Turner, Jr., in response said the name of England was synonymous with civil and religious liberty and liberty of speech, and the position it held in the world accounted for the hearty response to the call for soldiers to fight the battles of the Empire, from its most distant Colonies. Reference was also made to the pride the Turner family felt in giving another member to the strength of the third contingent.

Mr. Walter Stocker sang with great spirit and effect a robust sea song "The Admiral's Broom."

The president proposed "Canada, our Home," which was enthusiastically honoured, to the singing of "The Maple Leaf."

Mr. Yokome acknowledged the toast in a few appropriate remarks.

Mr. Sturmer sang with great acceptance "The Charge of Balaklava."

In response to the toast of "The Supreme Grand Lodge," Mr. Jos. Aldridge, (by the way, a brother of Mr. Wm. Aldridge, town.) Supreme Grand Vice-President, congratulated Lansdowne Lodge upon the great success of their annual banquet. It was a happy coincidence that the nineteenth anniversary banquet fell upon the 27th anniversary of the establishment of the Sons of England in Canada. "Albion" Lodge, Toronto, the first lodge, was celebrating its 27th anniversary that night. Mr. Aldridge stated, amidst applause, that the growth of the Order had been greater in the first year of the twentieth century than in any year of its history. The funds of the Order were in a better comparative position than those of numerically stronger societies. All over Canada every town of importance had lodges of the Order. Lansdowne Lodge was in a good locality and was exerting a good influence in Peterborough.

"The Mayor and Corporation of Peterborough — and Ashburnham" were responded to by Alderman Bettem and Mr. Reeve Adams. The former referred in warm terms to Peterborough as a growing town and a centre of attraction to manufacturers, and its future was promising. If the people did not take advantage of the present chance to purchase the Waterworks the matter would be delayed five years with possibly expensive arbitration proceedings.

Mr. Adams said that Peterborough was a progressive go-ahead town, and it and Ashburnham should, in his personal opinion, be united. While he spoke a good word for Ashburnham he was glad to see Peterborough progressing, and paid a hearty tribute to Mayor Deane for the persistent manner in which he had, during his career, kept the town and its advantages in the eyes of capitalists and manufacturers.

Mr. Waram proposed "Our Sister Societies," responded to by Mr. John Smith, for the Oddfellows; Mr. Wm. Rudkins, of the Inland Revenue Department, on behalf of the C.M.B.A.; and Mr. Wm. Taylor, a patriarch in Lansdowne Lodge, on behalf of the Canadian Order of Foresters.

Mr. R. Tivey contributed a most humorous recitation, which brought down the house.

Mr. F. D. Kerr, with his usual graceful, but enthusiastic appreciation, proposed "The Ladies," for which toast Mr. Sturmer feelingly responded.

"The Press," by Mr. H. W. Beale, was acknowledged by Mr. Moore, of the Review.

"Our Guests," heartily honoured, brought out Mr. A. R. Kidd, of His Majesty's Customs, in an eloquent little speech.

The chairman, in proposing the toast, "Our Host," took occasion to pay a tribute to the late A. P. Morgan and his many sterling qualities of character and disposition.

Mr. Munro briefly and gratefully responded.

Mr. Yokome, in a few eulogistic remarks, proposed the health of the chairman, Rev. Dr. Symonds, which was enthusiastically honoured.

In reply, Dr. Symonds said that it gave him the greatest happiness to be in Peterborough once more, where he had formed many permanent friendships, and he was always glad to return. His first visit to town since his departure, had been to his former congregation of St. Luke's, and his second was to Lansdowne Lodge, of which he had been chaplain, and was still a member.

With the hearty singing of "God Save the King," one of the most delightful and successful society banquets held in that hall, came to a happy conclusion.

Lansdowne Lodge and the Committee of Management are to be heartily congratulated for the splendidly successful manner in which their nineteenth anniversary banquet passed off.

During the course of the banquet many of the guests had dropped out to go to the station to give the departing Mounted Rifles a God-speed on their journey to South Africa.

BANQUET AT THE "CITY."

Messrs. Boyle, McDonald, Dundas and Craig Given a Send-off

Speeches Made, Songs Sung, Toasts Drunk and a General Good Time by the Young Men.

Mr. R. M. Glover occupied the chair at the banquet which was given in the City Hotel last night to Messrs. Craig, McDonald, Boyle and Dundass by the young men of the town. It was an exceptionally happy gathering, and the young volunteers were toasted in the heartiest possible manner. There were about 100 persons in attendance, all anxious to say a farewell word to the four of their townsmen, and to assist in giving them a suitable send-off. Mr. Dan McCabe occupied the vice chair, and seated around the table were many young men of the town. Mine Host Martin Connor placed before the guests an excellent spread. After supper the toast list was run off, the first toast, that of the King, being right heartily drunk.

In proposing the health of the guests of the evening, the chairman spoke of their unselfishness in offering what might be their lives, for their country. He had no doubt that they would be a credit to the town, and to the corps from which they were drawn. He was pleased to have the privilege of being present on so important occasion, and he was sure that those present joined in wishing the boys an enjoyable journey and a safe return.

Messrs. Boyle, Craig, Dundass and McDonald all made replies, but they were so overcome with the magnificance of the demonstration that they found it difficult to reply in suitable language. They appreciated most heartily the honour the boys had done them and they would endeavour to never disgrace the uniforms they wore nor the town from which they came.

The toast of "Sporting Fraternity" was responded to by Messrs. Jack Sheridan, H. Dunsford, Jack Mulhall, and Jack McCabe, and that of the young men of the town by Dick Cavanah, E. J. Dillon and Joe Picard. Songs were sung by various members of the company, and a splendid evening's entertainment was afforded.

WITH THOMAS MOORE.

An Evening With Ireland's Immortal Bard in the T. A. S. Rooms.

The T. A. S. Rooms, George street, was crowded to the doors last night, and a very enjoyable evening was spent listening to the readings of Thomas Moore, Ireland's immortal bard. The entertainment was given by the Ladies' Reading Circle of the T. A. S., and the Rev. Dr. O'Brien occupied the chair. There was an excellent programme, consisting entirely of Moore's melodies, those who contributed the same being—The Misses Dorris, M. Kelly, M. Doherty, N. Lewis, F. Houlihan and Hallihan and Mrs. Geo. Ball, Messrs. Angus McPherson, Geo. Lynch, A. F. Saunders, F. Pope, Geo. Ball, and T. Fakenham. An excellent paper on Thomas Moore was read in a charming manner by Miss Fannie Holmes. It proved an intellectual treat. A tableaux "Erin," was also presented.

"JUMBO" CRAIG TOO

Was Remembered by the Men of the Peter Hamilton Co.

Mr. Frank Craig, who left last night to join the 2nd Canadian Mounted Rifles was handsomely remembered by his fellow employees of the Peter Hamilton Co. Trooper Craig has been in the employ of the blacksmith department of the Peter Hamilton Company for the past two years, and has proved to be a favourite amongst the men of the shop. Yesterday he was surrounded by his fellow employees, and presented with an appropriately worded address, accompanied by a purse of $30. The address was read by Mr. G. M. Hamilton and the presentation was made by Wm. Moncrief. Trooper Craig made a neat little speech in reply.

A. R. M. Club Social.

The second social of the A. R. M. Bible club of the Y. M. C. A. held last evening partook of a National character. Three sides, composed of English, Irish and Scotch, furnished the programme, which proved to be decidedly interesting and amusing. The forty-one guests all wore colours representing the Nation to which they belonged. Mr. R. Merrill, president, occupied the chair in a happy manner. The English men, led by Mr. F. Trollope, presented the most numbers. Three orations, setting forth the merits of the respective nations, were given by Messrs. Dobbin, Ray and MacCallum. All did credit to their sides, their speeches bristling with points and good humor. The following assisted with the programme—Messrs. Watson, Boomer, Seymour and Galley for the musical part, and for the literary part Messrs. Scott, Frowde, Campbell and Williamson. All who attended expressed themselves as well pleased with the entertainment.

SPECIALTIES AT R. A. DUTTON'S. Fresh tomatoes and cucumbers, new beets and carrots. Fresh sea herring 15 dozen. Phone 304—418 George street.

THEY HELD THEIR ANNUAL DINNER.

Members of No. 4 Company of the 57th Regiment

IN "THE CROWN" LAST NIGHT.

An Elegant Spread—Short Speeches—Songs and Recitations—Lieut. Percy Price was Present—An Enjoyable Affair.

The annual dinner of No. 4 Company, 57th Regiment, which was held in the Crown Hotel last night, came at a singularly appropriate time, in view of the outbursts of military enthusiasm that arose on the occasion of the departure to South Africa of the Peterborough representatives of the 2nd Canadian Mounted Rifles. The enthusiastic martial spirit that has always characterized Capt. Hounsell's Company in the past was stimulated last night by the presence of Lieut. Percy Roberts Price of the 3rd Dragoons, who was invited to attend the annual dinner, ere he took his departure for the seat of war.

The fact that No. Four's annual dinner was going to be held last night had been known for a week or more, and the few outsiders whose honour it was to receive an invitation to attend, had been anxiously looking forward to the affair, and this no doubt was the case as well with the members of the company themselves. The dinner was gotten up by the non-commissioned officers and men of the company, who showed more than ordinary ability in their style, and quite easily maintained the coveted reputation they have of holding first place amongst the companies of the regiment in affairs of the kind.

The cosy little dining hall of the Crown Hotel was very neatly decorated with flags and patriotic designs, while the table was decked out profusely with flowers, etc., in addition, of course, to the regular appetising delicacies.

The chair was occupied by Colour-Sergt. Robert Cottrell, while to his right sat Captain Housell, and to his left Lieut. Hamilton. Seated around the table were Lieut. Percy Roberts Price, 3rd Dragoons, Lieut. E. O. Bradburn, 14th Durham Field Battery, Sergt.-Major A. E. Brittain, Pte. R. H. Henderson, late First Contingent, Sergt. E. S. Clarry, 3rd Dragoons, and the following members of No. 4: Sergts. G. C. Burnham, who occupied the vice-chair, A. E. Jackson, and L. T. Best., Corp. Geo. E. Revell, A. F. Paddon, and E. M. Best, and Ptes. Tom Burnham, C. Sisson, G. L. Guy, Llewellyn Hall, J. Berridale, J. Comstock, George Milne Hamilton, G. K. Dawson, H. MacMorden, O. G. Barnard, Reg. Thompson, G. Lee, F. Collins, and E. Langford.

THE TOAST LIST.

After ample justice had been done to the menu, the chairman proposed the toast of the King, which was honoured, of course, by all present rising and singing the National Anthem.

The Army and Navy brought to their feet Lieut. Bradburn of the 14th Field Battery, and Sgt.-Major Brittain of the 57th Regiment. Lieut. Bradburn made a very appropriate reply in which he expressed the hope that Lieut. Price would return in his present good health at the close of the war in South Africa.

Sgt.-Major Brittain in his reply eulogized No. 4 Company for their progressive spirit and mentioned the large percentage of his class of instruction that No. 4 constituted. The Sgt.-Major's remarks were followed by a recitation from Prof. Drummond by Pte. Hamilton, after which Lieut. Percy Price was called upon to speak. Percy thanked the members of No. 4 very heartily for their kindness in asking him to attend their banquet which he had enjoyed very much. Referring to his departure for South Africa, he thought that they were going to have even a better Company than they had in the last contingent, and he hoped to return to them safely. When he was away before he killed at least one Boer and if every other soldier did the same they would soon have them all exterminated.

When Lieut. Price sat down he was greeted with three cheers and a tiger.

"The officers of the Regiment" was proposed by Sgt. Burnham, and replied to by Capt. Hounsell. Capt. Hounsell claimed that orators, like poets, are born, not made, but he would endeavour to mention a few facts concerning his company, whose guest he was this evening. When in 1867 the 57th Regt. was organized from a rural to a city corps, No. 4 Company held one proud position, inasmuch as it was the best shooting company of the regiment. However, the company had its ups and downs, and their next door neighbour, No. 5, won from them some years ago the honour which they had so proudly maintained. During the past year or two in the general advancement of the company, it had steadily improved in its marksmanship and today it again stands at the top of the ladder. He hoped that the company would continue to hold first place and he saw no reason why they could not be recruited up to full strength. It was encouraging to know that they had so large a percentage of the class of instruction, and he never was so proud of his company as he was to-night. Capt. Hounsell thanked the boys very heartily for their invitation to be present, and then gave way to Lieut. Hamilton.

Perhaps there is no more popular officer in the regiment than Lieut. Hamilton, and as an indication of this, one had only to note the cordial reception he received when he arose to reply. He reminded the boys of the fact that one of the bravest soldiers the world ever knew—a man who would ride up to the mouth of a cannon without the slightest sign of nervousness, would shake at the knees when called upon to reply to a toast at a banquet. He hoped therefore that they would pardon his inability to express in suitable terms the appreciation of the honour he felt in being asked to be present. He was proud of the men under him, and he had to thank them for the interest they took in the company, and their determination to make it the crack company of the regiment. He was always pleased to take part in gatherings of this kind, as it tended to develop in, the men a spirit of fraternity, which is in a sense essential to the success of the regiment.

Pte. Jackson proposed the toast of the ladies, which was responded to by Pte. Morden, who claimed that he had travelled all over the world, and all under the world, and had never found a more enthusiastic lot of soldier girls than in Peterborough.

Llewellyn Hall favoured the gathering with a song entitled "Sweet Marie," after which Pte. Barnard asked the assemblage to drink the toast of the Press. Sergt. E. S. Clarry replied.

"The Kilties," proposed by Sergt. Best, was upheld by Pte. Dawson.

Corp. F. A. Paddon gave a recitation, which was followed by the toasts of the "Chairman," and 'Our Hosts."

Messrs. McDonald and Craig, the two South African volunteers entered the dining room at this juncture, were given three rousing cheers.

The affair dispersed at about 11.15 p.m., in order that those present might attend the farewell demonstration to the South African volunteers.

No. 4 Company's supper was a grand success, and reflected much credit upon the table committee, Colour-Sergt. Cottrell, Sergt. Burnham, Corp. Revell, Pte. Hamilton and Pte. Morden.

Magnificent Lot of Christmas Cattle for

KENNEDY'S MEAT MARKET

A carload of the very choicest Steers and Heifers, personally picked yesterday from the best feeders in the Province for the Peterborough market, including the well-known firms of Tweedle Bros. and Alex. Jeffrey, West Whitby, and Alex. McKenzie, East Whitby. No finer beef will be offered in Canada for the Christmas trade than here. For instance—one steer, 18 months old, tips the scales at nearly 1400 pounds! There's beef for you.

Part of this lot of cattle will be exhibited on the market, on foot, on Saturday next, at 11 a.m., in order to give farmers, as well as the public of Peterborough, an opportunity of seeing choice butcher's cattle, and afford an opportunity, as well, of placing orders for any cut desired. A large number of customers, relying on our judgment, have already placed orders for Christmas beef.

CLEARING SALE—Remember the clearing sale of Meats in stock will be continued Saturday, 14th. all day, at prices ruling on Saturday last. At these prices it pays the housekeeper to buy now.

Prof. O'Brien,

CANADA'S GREATEST PHRENOLOGIST and the only recognized SCIENTIFIC PALMIST (by law) has removed to 283 Hunter street, Terrace, near the railway crossing. See name in window. As Prof. O'Brien is a very busy man, he will not be able to leave Peterborough for a few days yet. The more people he examines the more he has to examine, which fact alone speaks for his ability and the esteem and popularity he has gained during his short stay in Peterborough. It will be well for skeptics of either science to investigate before condemning either Phenology or Scientific Palmistry. The latter should not be confounded with the common fortune telling. Professor O'Brien has proved in open courts before Crown witnesses at the Toronto General Sessions, March 14th, 1901, that Palmistry as demonstrated by him is a pure science, and has no connection with the so-called fortune telling. Anyone wishing to be enlightened on the subject should call on Professor O'Brien who will be pleased to explain his scientific methods. A photo read free to patrons. Over 100 persons have consulted him during his short stay in Peterborough. Remember there is only ONE Professor O'Brien. Don't forget his new address. Office hours, 10 a.m. to 12; 1 p.m. to 6 p.m.; 7 p.m. to 10 p.m.

GUELPH WINTER FAIR

Hon. G. W. Ross Addressed the Stockbreeders of Canada.

LIVE STOCK DEMONSTRATIONS.

Seven Hogs Slaughtered as an Object Lesson—The Sheep Is Next to Furnish Education—Speeches by Many Prominent Men in the Interest of Agriculture—Governor-General Present.

Guelph, Dec. 12.—Last night the Royal City entertained the greatest number of guests in the history of the city. Throughout the day His Excellency the Governor-General had been an active participant in all the events which have taken place. After spending the night in his private car His Excellency, accompanied by the Hon. Sydney Fisher, Dr. Kennedy, Mayor of Guelph, and other notables of the city, was drawn around the city, lunching at the O. A. College, with President Mills and a party of friends at 1 p.m. At 8 p.m. His Excellency was presented with an address of welcome at the City Hall. After leaving the City Hall he visited the Winter Fair building, where the Farmers' Institute was in session, afterwards visiting the cattle, sheep, hogs and poultry departments, where he witnessed for the first time the process of cramming the poultry for the British market. His Excellency left for Ottawa on the 6 p.m. train.

From a practical standpoint yesterday was a most interesting and profitable day at the Fat Stock Show. At 8 a.m. the process of killing the bacon hogs was begun, and continued until some 100 were slaughtered. This was done to determine the relative merits of the several breeds. This morning at 8 o'clock the same process will be continued with sheep.

The afternoon sessions of the Farmers' Institutes yesterday were particularly instructive by reason of the presence of a number of the Dominion and Provincial Cabinets, and the deep interest generally taken in the proceedings. Seated in the sawdust-covered ring were His Excellency Lord Minto, Hon. Sydney Fisher Hon. G. W. Ross, John Smith, M. P.P., Col. Mutrie, His Worship the Mayor, and the chairman, the Hon. John Dryden. An address on the desirable and undesirable points of a beef bullock, by Prof. G. E. Day of the O.A.C., was very instructive, illustrated by a magnificent animal brought into the ring.

A public meeting was held in the City Hall last night, the spacious building being crowded to the doors. The chair was occupied by the Hon. John Dryden. On the platform were the Hon. Sydney Fisher, Hon. G. W. Ross, Mayor Kennedy, President Mills, Capt. Robson, M.P.P., and many others. President Mills delivered a splendid address, bearing on college work. Mr. and Miss Kelly of Guelph rendered a number of songs. Hon. Sydney Fisher eulogized the work of the Farmers' Institute, and urged upon the Provincial Government the necessity of granting some substantial aid in the erection of more suitable and commodious buildings. Capt. Robson gave a patriotic song, and was compelled to respond to an encore.

Premier Ross was in excellent form and delivered an eloquent address, dealing with the agricultural interests of the province. He emphasized the value of concentrated effort along special lines, and drew attention to the unlimited amount of land still available for settlement in Ontario.

NO CORONATION INVITATION.

But When It Does Come, Colonial Conference Will Be Prepared for.

Ottawa, Dec. 12.—Now that the coronation ceremonies have been fixed for June 26, the invitations to the Colonial Premiers will probably be issued at once.

Replying yesterday by cable to Sir Wilfrid Laurier's suggestion that a colonial conference be held in London in June, Premier Barton of Australia intimated that no invitation had yet been received by him to attend the coronation, but that if Australia were represented there his Government would take pleasure in co-operating in the proposed conference. Premier Seddon promised the cheerful co-operation of New Zealand.

Two-Eyed Peacock.

Pekin, Dec. 11.—An edict has appeared bestowing honors on the late Li Hung Chang and on Prince Ching and other officials for participation in the peace negotiations. The most remarkable clause awards Yung Li (who commanded the best disciplined troops which opposed the allies) the two-eyed peacock feather for protecting foreigners against the Boxers.

Jail Warder Resigns.

Ottawa, Ont., Dec. 12.— Warder J. A. Haratty, who was on guard in the County Jail the night Burglar Martin sawed his way out of a cell into the corridor, has resigned. Governor Kehoe was dissatisfied with the way the prisoners were watched the night Martin worked the saw, and Warder Hanratty's resignation is the sequel.

Prince of Wales to Honor Wales.

London, Dec. 12.—The Gazette announces that the Principality of Wales will be represented in the arms of the Prince of Wales. This change is in response to the Welsh request that the Principality figure in the royal standard or in the arms of the heir-apparent.

Miss Barton Again President.

Washington, Dec. 12.—The Red Cross Society had its annual meeting yesterday and unanimously re-elected Miss Clara Barton president of the society.

Dr. Joseph Zemp of Lucerne, vice-president of the Federal Council, has been elected president of the Swiss Confederation for 1902.

William Allen was hanged in the jail at Uniontown, Pa., on Thursday. Fully 1,500 people were jammed in the jail yard to witness the execution.

A southbound passenger train on the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad ran down three workmen in the Belt Line tunnel at Baltimore, Md., Thursday morning, killing one and injuring the others.

The Canadian Pacific Railroad has surveyed a route across Maine to form a connecting link between parts of its system and provide a through line for its traffic from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

Edith, the 15-year-old daughter of W. H. Allems, Orillia, died on Tuesday after a week's illness of blood poisoning. A slight scratch on a foot resulted in inflammation, followed by blood poisoning, and eventually death.

Arrangements are now practically completed for the reception to be tendered to Hon. William Mulock in Massey Hall, Toronto, on Tuesday evening, Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Hon. Mr. Fielding, Hon. Mr. Paterson and Hon. Sydney Fisher will be present and deliver addresses.

Levi Garrett, a young French-Canadian, is in a critical condition at his home at Rumford Falls, Me., as the result of knife wounds received at the hands of highwaymen Wednesday night. The robbers secured $150 which Garrett had drawn from the bank to defray the exponses of his wedding, which was to have taken place Thursday. The assailants escaped, and the police have no clue.

CANADA AT PARIS.

An Echo of the Great Exposition of 1900.

Mr. J. G. Jardine, Canada's Commissioner, Tells an Interesting Story of the Splendid Results Obtained by the Use of a Canadian Remedy.

Toronto, Dec. 11. (special.) — The great World's Exposition held in Paris last year saw very many visitors from all parts of the globe assembled in the gay French capital. Canada was well represented both as an exhibitor among the nations and as a visitor, many of our best people having attended.

The interests of the Dominion were looked after by a very capable and intelligent company of patriotic Canadians among whom one of the most conspicuous was Mr. J. G. Jardine, of 305 Crawford street, this city. Mr. Jardine's duties as Commissioner entailed a vast amount of hard work which made great demands on his physical health and strength.

He is authority for the statement that he found Dodd's Kidney Pills, that best known of Canadian medicines, invaluable as a tonic during those trying times. He says, "They relieve backache instantly and tone up the system generally as nothing else seems to do."

While in Paris Mr. Jardine introduced Dodd's Kidney Pills to Mr. Dupis, the esteemed and popular secretary to the Canadian Commission who was feeling under the weather, with the very happiest results to that gentleman.

By healing and stimulating the kidneys, Dodd's Kidney Pills prove absolutely the very best tonic known to medical science to-day, and both Mr. Jardine and Mr. Dupuis were greatly pleased to find that their own fair country, so distinguished in many other ways, was through this great tonic remedy earning in Europe a glorious reputation in medical lines.

Very few Canadians are aware of the world wide reputation of Dodd's Kidney Pills and many who have been abroad seem surprised at being able to purchase their favourite medicine almost anywhere in the civilized world.

Fell 160 Feet to Death.

Sault Ste. Marie, Dec. 12.— Alfred Rintoul was instantly killed by falling 160 feet down a shaft at the Stobie Mine. He had made the ascent in the bucket safely, but stepped out and slipped backward into the opening. He leaves a widow and five children at Desbares, Ont.

Germans Misunderstand.

London, Dec. 12.—Major-General Creagh, reporting on the Tien Tsin shooting, says he has tendered his deepest regrets to the German general, and adds that no blame attaches to the German guard, who, naturally, did not understand the situation.

Nordica Claims Millions.

Sioux City, Dec. 12.—Mme. Nordica claims $4,000,000 due her from the estate of her relative, Schabod Norton, whose ships were confiscated by the French in the Revolutionary war. The Government secured indemnity, but never paid it out.

TORONTO LIVE STOCK.

Receipts of live stock at the Cattle Market to-day were moderately large—63 carloads, composed of 1072 cattle, 1100 hogs, 1016 sheep and lambs, with about 20 calves.

The receipts of fat cattle were not nearly as large as was expected, and not as many of the choice, well-finished Xmas class as in former years. Many of the best butchers's cattle intended for the Xmas trade were bought up for export purposes.

Trade was generally good, nearly all the fat cattle being bought up at 11 a.m. at firm prices for all of good quality.

MONTREAL LIVE STOCK.

Montreal, Dec. 12.—There were about 800 head of butchers' cattle, 20 calves and 200 sheep and lambs offered for sale at the East End Abattoir to-day. The prices of cattle were fully ½c per lb. higher than on last Thursday, which caused a slow trade; besides several of the butchers bought their supplies yesterday and did not need any more to-day. Prime beeves sold at from 4½c to 5c per lb., and an extra steer was held at 6c per lb. Fair to good medium cattle sold at from 3½c to 4¼c, and the common stock at from 2½c to 3¼c per lb. Canners paid from 1½c to a little over 2c per lb. for small bulls and lean cows. Calves sold at from $2 to $10 each, or from 5c to 5c per lb. Sheep sold at from 2½c to 3c per lb., and lambs at from 3½c to 4c per lb. Fat hogs sold at from 6c to 6¼c per lb., weighed off the cars.

Cadiz Held by Mob.

Cadiz, Dec. 13.—This city was in a state of partial revolution practically all night long. Riotous mobs, led by striking bakers, armed with knives and bludgeons, pillaged stores, attacked peaceable people in the streets, injured a number of persons, threw the whole town into a state of panic. The police were powerless.

Searching For the Lost.

St. Catharines, Dec. 13.—The search for the body of Barnard O'Loughlin, believed to have fallen from the pier at Port Dalhousie, was continued until a late hour Wednesday afternoon, and was continued this morning.

WANT DISEASE KEPT OUT.

Financial Secretary of the Treasury Refuses to Cattle Trade With Argentina.

London, Dec. 13.—Rt. Hon. R. W. Hanbury, Financial Secretary to the Treasury, in moving a vote of thanks to the chairman yesterday at the meeting of the Royal Agricultural Society, referred to a resolution passed by the Council of the Society yesterday with reference to trade with Argentina.

Mr. Hanbury said he was sure that the society did not wish that we should strike any sort of a bargain with Argentina or to say that although there were doubts about the existence of foot and mouth disease we should declare our ports open. Whatever the consequences might be we must keep this country free from cattle disease.

Mr. Hanbury was of the opinion that if it would assist importers of stock that qualified, a declaration should be made stating that no case had occurred since the first of June and no outbreak since the 12th of April. He was prepared to advise that such a declaration should be made.

Eczema's Itch Is Torture.

The Most Exasperating of all Skin Diseases—The Most Difficult to Cure—Dr. Chase's Ointment Proven to be an Effective Treatment.

Eczema's itch is torture, the skin seems on fire with the burning, stinging humour; at times it becomes almost unbearable, and in desperation you could tear the skin to pieces. You dare not exercise for fear of aggravating the itching, neither can you sleep, for no sooner does the body become warm than the trouble begins and instead of restful, refreshing, sleep, it is scratch, scratch, scratch, all night long. There is scarcely a moment's respite from this maddening malady at any time. Of course, you have tried nearly all the washes, salves, lotions and medicated soaps, but, like thousands of others, have been disappointed and disgusted.

Mrs. Ann McDonald, Kingsville, Ont., states: "For about three years I was a dreadful sufferer from Eczema. At times the patches of raw, flaming flesh would extend from my waist to my neck, and from the knees to the ankles. The intense itching almost drove me crazy, and though I tried all the local physicians, they could not even relieve the suffering. The flesh would crack open, and I do not believe that anyone ever suffered more than I did.

"I was told of Dr. Chase's Ointment, but did not believe that it could help me. After the fifth application of this preparation I began to feel the benefit of its soothing, healing effects, and now attribute a cure to the persistent use of this wonderful remedy. It is truly worth its weight in gold, and I never tire of recommending it to other sufferers."

You may be skeptical regarding the ability of Dr. Chase's Ointment to cure you. Most people are, after trying in vain to get relief from a host of remedies, but Dr. Chase's Ointment will not disappoint you. You will be surprised at the marvellous control which it has over all itching, burning inflammations of the skin, and the wonderful healing powers which it possesses. It takes time to thoroughly cure Eczema, but Dr. Chase's Ointment will do it. You will find relief after a few applications, and gradually, and naturally, the cure will follow. Besides being a positive cure for Eczema, Dr. Chase's Ointment comes useful in a hundred ways in every home for every form of skin irritation and eruption, chapped skin and chilblains. 60 cents a box at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto. 7

"A handsome and useful Christmas present for your mother or grandmother is a copy of Dr. Chase's last and complete Receipt Book. Illustrated folder free."

Their Relations Are Strained.

Buenos Ayres, Dec. 13.—The relations between Chili and the Argentine Republic are strained. Chili has not yet replied to the demand for the construction of stragetic roads in the litigated territory. The Chilian answer to this demand will be given to-morrow. The Argentine Government believes the Chilian answer will be satisfactory. A part of the press, however, doubts this. In the meantime both countries are taking protective measures.

Body Found.

Niagara Falls, Dec. 13.—Fred Preston, a riverman, picked up the body of a man floating down stream in the river yesterday at 2.30 p.m. The body was nude. Both legs were torn off, and one arm was missing. The body is that of a man apparently about 30.

THE STIRRUP CUP.

My chest and happy day is done;
The long and lonely night comes on,
And at my door the pale horse stands
To carry me to unknown lands.

His whinny thrill, his pawing hoof,
Sound thunderful as a gathering storm,
And I must leave this chattering roof
And joys of life so soft and warm.

Tender and warm the joys of life;
Good friends, the faithful and the true;
My rosy children and my wife,
So sweet to him, so fair to view.

So sweet to him, so fair to view;
The night comes on, the lights burn blue,
And at my door the pale horse stands
To bear me forth to unknown lands.
—John Hay

A NOVEL HOTEL BILL.

The Man to Whom It Was Presented Could Not Understand It.

"Talking about bookkeeping, there used to be a man in Yankton whose system of bookkeeping accounts was wonderfully efficient. He kept a hotel, and he could neither read nor write. He did not know how to spell his own name, but he did a thriving business and collected every dollar of his accounts. Once, years ago, when I first came to this country, I went to his hotel and stopped there two weeks," writes Milt Brinben.

"When I left, he presented me with a statement of what I owed him, and it was a curiosity. He had copied it from his ledger. At the top of the sheet there was a rude picture of a soldier on the march and after it three straight marks. Then there was a scene showing a man at table eating. Then appeared a bed with a man in it. In the amount column there was a picture of a doll and after it the two letters "RS." After the picture of a man eating there were forty-two marks; after the view of the man in the bed, fourteen marks. I looked at the account, then at the proprietor, and told him it would take me a week to answer that conundrum.

"I was completely stumped, and when that hotel man deciphered the amount for me it was this: The picture of the soldier walking meant march, and the three marks supplied the date, March 3, when I began boarding. The man at the table with forty-two marks after it indicated that I had eaten forty-two meals. The man in bed with fourteen marks showed that I had slept in the house fourteen nights. The doll with the 'RS' after it meant 'dollars,' and in the figure columns appeared the figures 14, which was the amount I owed him. And it was a true bill."

Imitations

of Dodd's Kidney Pills are legion. The box is imitated, the outside coating and shape of the pills are imitated and the name—Dodd's Kidney Pills is imitated. Imitations are dangerous. The original is safe. Dodd's Kidney Pills have a reputation. Imitators have none or they wouldn't imitate. So they trade on the reputation of Dodd's Kidney Pills. Do not be deceived. There is only one DODD'S. Dodd's is the original. Dodd's is the name to be careful about—

A Persian Barber.

A Persian barber works in a style very different from that in vogue in this country. A typical shop is a square room, with one side open to the street. In the center is a tiny bed of flowers sunk in the floor, from the middle of which rises an octagonal stone column about three feet high.

The capital of the column forms a receptacle for the water in which the barber dips his hand as he shaves his customer's scalp. In Persia they do not lather. The shop is very clean. In two recesses stand four vases filled with flowers and the implements of the barber's art—scissors, razors, lancets, hand mirrors, large pinchers to extract teeth, branding irons to cauterize the arteries in amputating limbs, strong combs, but not a hairbrush, for that implement is never used by Persians.

From the barber's girdle hang a round copper water bottle, his strop, and a pouch to hold his instruments. In his bosom is a small mirror, the presentation of which to his customers is a sign that the job is finished and that the barber waits for his pay. The barber shaves the heads of his customers, dyes their beards, pulls their teeth, blisters and bleeds them when ailing, sets their broken bones and shampoos their bodies.

Strange Lapse of Memory.

Cases of forgetfulness on matters of interest are on record. While Dr. Priestley was preparing his work entitled "Harmony of the Gospels" he had taken great pains to inform himself on a subject which had been under discussion relative to the Jewish Passover. He wrote out the result of his researches and laid the paper away. His attention and time being taken with something else, some little time elapsed before the subject occurred to his mind again. Then the same time and pains were given to the subject that had been given to it before, and the results were again put on paper and laid aside. So completely had he forgotten that he had copied the same paragraphs and reflections before that it was only when he had found the papers on which he had transcribed them that it was recalled to his recollection. This same author had frequently read his own published writings and did not recognise them.

An Expert.

Professor—If a person in good health, but who imagined himself sick, should send for you, what would you do?

Medical Student—Give him something to make him sick and then administer an antidote.

Professor—Don't waste any more time here. Hang out your shingle.

Oyster Shells.

One thousand bushels of shucked oysters leave about 1,100 bushels of shells, which accumulate in great heaps about the shucking houses. The oyster shells landed on the shores of Maryland during the last ninety years have been reckoned at 12,000,000 tons—a quantity twice sufficient to overload and sink every sailing vessel steam vessel, barge and canalboat in America.

Attempting to Explain It.

"The male sex," she exclaimed in strident tones, "is all alike wherever you find it. Look at the rooster. When the hen lays an egg, he crows louder than the hen does."

"Perhaps, my dear," timidly spoke Mr. Meeker, "he does it to show how proud he is of the hen."—Chicago Tribune.

Two Girls.

"If ten men should ask you to marry them, what would it be?"

"A tender."

"And if one should ask you, what would that be?"

"I don't know. What?"

"A wonder."—Life.

Young Girls

Are often engaged in doing the work of a home under the most trying conditions. Nature cries out against the stooping and lifting, the running up and down stairs at times when labor should be as light as possible. It is owing to overstrain or self-neglect under these conditions that the foundation is laid for serious womanly disease. Irregularity is the first step to impaired womanly health.

Perfect regularity may be established by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It will heal inflammation and ulceration and cure female weakness. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

"It gives me much pleasure," writes Miss Ella Snipe, of Jamestown, Guilford County, N. C., "to thank Dr. Pierce for the great good received from the use of his 'Favorite Prescription' and 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I had suffered for three years or more at monthly periods. It seemed as though I would die with pains in my back and stomach. I could not stand at all without fainting. Had given up all hope of ever being cured, when one of my friends insisted upon my trying Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. With but little faith I tried it, and before I had taken half a bottle I felt better. Now I have taken two bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and one of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and I am entirely cured, and in two months' time when all other medicines had failed."

FLOWER AND TREE.

A good tree well planted will usually grow whether the work is done in the spring or fall.

A white pine will measure twenty-five feet at twenty years and gain twenty-five feet more in the next ten years.

The smallest tree in the world is the Greenland birch. Its height is less than three inches, yet it covers a radius of two or three feet.

In dealing with your plants be prompt. If one needs attention, see that it gets it at once. This is the only way to have success in plant growing.

Experts assert upon investigation that the fir trees of western Washington grow from 150 to 300 feet high and are from five to thirty-five feet in diameter and are stronger than oak of the Atlantic coast.

If you want your palms to thrive in an ordinary sitting room, sponge the leaves once a week with lukewarm water to which a little milk has been added. Then stand the plant for two hours in lukewarm water deep enough to completely cover the pot. This is the proper way to water palms.

A Toothsome Revenge.

During the reign of Charles II., the age of gallantry, it was the custom among gentlemen when they drank a lady's health, in order that they might do her still more honor, to destroy at the same time some part of their clothing.

Upon one occasion Sir Charles Sedley was dining in a tavern and had a particularly fine necktie on, whereupon one of his friends, to play him a trick, drank to the health of a certain lady, at the same time throwing his necktie in the fire. Of course Sir Charles had to do likewise, but he got even, for not long after that, dining with the same company, he drank the health of a fair one, at the same time ordering a dentist whom he had engaged to be present, to pull out a refractory tooth which had been troubling him. Everyone else was obliged in this manner to mourn a molar.

Sitting Room Drama.

"Who comes there?" called little Willie, the sentry, in threatening tones as he brought his deadly wooden gun into shooting position.

"A friend!" answered little Tommie from behind the rocking chair.

"Advance and give the countersign," hissed the sentry, "or I'll shoot your head off."

An ominous silence followed this terrible threat. Then Tommie said plaintively:

"I've forgot it."

"You can't remember nuthin'," exclaimed Willie in disgust, throwing down his gun. "Cum over here an' I'll whisper it to you ag'in."

Food Receptacles.

All receptacles for food should, as far as possible, be kept germ and insect free. Glass, pottery and metallic wares are therefore preferable to wood. They should have no joints or grooves, as these harbor minute particles of food. Before placing food in them they should be thoroughly washed, scalded with boiling water, wiped dry and then be allowed to cool. Placing them in the sun when practicable for a couple of hours will also add to their purity.

Hopeful.

Editor (to artist)—I refused this drawing a year ago. Why do you bring it here again?

Artist—I thought you would have had more experience by this time and know a good drawing when you see it.

In Temptation's Way.

Jones—Has your wife got her new hat yet?

Brown—No; I've given her the money for it several times, but she has spent it on some great, glorious bargain she saw before she got to the milliner shop.

Some people expect fortune to break in the door and announce her arrival through a megaphone.

JINGLES AND JESTS.

Progress.

This life is full of worthiness,
Observed by circumstances,
But blossoming fully gladness brings
When only it gets a chance.

The pumpkin seems a lowly fruit;
'Tis neither fair nor sweet,

In faith, it can't be beat!

Rats and Dogs.

Gentleman (indignantly)—When I bought this dog, you said he was splendid for rats. Why, he won't touch them.

Dog Dealer—Well, ain't that splendid for rats?

A Stirring Tale.

"Not at all; once I rode in a Philadelphia trolley car."

For All but Fools.

Oh, you who search to find a creed,
Here end the foolish quest.
This little line is all you need:
"Do what you know is best."

Lucky, After All.

She—You're lucky at cards!

He—Very.

She—Lucky at cards, unlucky in love.

He—I don't believe it. I've been rejected three times.

No Chance For War.

"All's fair," they say, "in love and war,"
But think of this a minute—
When love holds sway by night and day,
Why, fighting isn't in it!

She—Well, I am willing to.

Autumn.

Now is the time when bright leaves fall;
But, strange enough, this is not all;
The glories which fill autumn's cup
Work, somehow, to make coal go up.

Away Down in Mexico.

there grow two plants known and used before Columbus discovered America. One is a specific for inflamed membranes and the other a certain cure for bronchitis. Combined with Tar, Tamarac, Tolu and other herbs they go to make up Four T's, the only positive cure known to-day for whooping cough and bronchitis. A 25c bottle cures an ordinary cough in 24 hours. EIGHT CONVINCING REASONS . . .

WHY YOU SHOULD INSURE IN

THE IMPERIAL LIFE ASSURANCE CO'Y OF CANADA.

1. It is a purely Canadian Company, having all its funds invested in Canadian securities, and transacting business only in Canada.

2. It maintains the largest Government Deposit of any Canadian Life Insurance Company.

3. It maintains relatively the strongest policy reserves of any Canadian Life Insurance Company.

4. Its past record—the greatest guarantee of the future—has been unparalleled in Canadian life insurance.

5. Its policy contract is one of the most liberal issued, consistent with safety and equity.

6. It has a Capital of $1,000,000, which makes policy-holders' security unquestionable. At the same time, the assured is practically in the same position regarding profits as if he held a policy in a mutual company, the Imperial's charter providing that at least 90 per cent. of all profits shall be divided amongst policy-holders.

7. For every $100 of liability to policy-holders it holds $106 of securely invested assets. These assets are all of the highest order, and will bear the closest scrutiny.

8. An Imperial policy never depreciates in value, but, on the contrary, is constantly becoming more valuable. It is the most valuable estate you can leave behind you.

CONGREGATIONAL MEETING

Of George Street Church on Wednesday Night.

The Finances of the Church—Very Encouraging Reports Were Received Mr Walden's Departure.

The annual congregational meeting of the George street Methodist church was held Wednesday evening, and was attended with even greater success than usual.

The reports were very favourable, showing that none of the church schemes had failed, that all expectations had been met, and that the church was financially prosperous, increasing its membership, extending its usefullness, and that the relations of the governing bodies, the pastor, choir, leaders and members were of the most cordial character.

After the devotional opening exercises, Rev. Mr. Wilson, the pastor, made a brief address of welcome, and expressed the pleasure his first year's work in Peterborough had given. He found the membership a loyal people, strengthening his hands in every way. He urged that the good work continue.

Mr. Thomas Morrow, Treasurer of the Trustee Board, read a brief financial statement. The finances of the church, other than such as relate to the matter of the pastor's salary and some other details, are in the hands of this Board. The year's operations showed that all expenses had been handsomely met, and that in addition, the payments on account of the church Century Fund had been so liberal and sustained as to enable payments to be made, reducing the church debt by nearly $5,000 in the two years since the inception of the fund. This was a very creditable showing, and a very fine thing for the congregation to do, and the future promised that equally as well would be done. The invitation was extended to all who were not now contributing to do so and help on the good work.

Mr. D. W. Dumble, Recording Steward of the Quarterly Board, read a short statement in connection with the finances of the departments managed by this Board. He was pleased to be able to say that the funds contributed had met the current expenses in a very satisfactory manner. It was a pleasant duty he had to perform, and it gratified him to be able so to do. He urged liberality and a systematic giving as the keynotes of the financial affairs of a successful church.

Touching on another matter, Mr. Dumble referred to the departure of Mr. F. W. Walden, choir master, who was leaving to go to Picton. He was sure he voiced general regret at Mr. Walden's departure, and in recognition of Mr. Walden's great ability and usefulness and his readiness to at all times contribute to the enjoyment of others, and to help the various objects of the church, the Trustee Board had passed the following resolution:—

"The Trustees of the George street Methodist church, on parting with Mr. Walden as their organist, desire to express their gratification in being able to testify to the fact that their association during the four years has been one of continuous harmony. Mr. Walden has maintained most pleasant relations with his choir, and has kept the choir full and effective. They thank him and his wife for the cheerful services of song so ungrudgingly rendered. They wish him and Mrs. Walden a successful and happy career in their new home."

Mr. Dumble added that Mr. Walden had been one of the best and most efficient teachers in the Sabbath school, and that his services in this connection would be missed.

Mr. Walden replied in feeling terms, thanking the officials and congregation for much kindness and all assistance in this department. He said he had tried to do his work faithfully and earnestly, and it was a source of deep gratification to him to find that he had not entirely failed.

Saying that the "King never dies," Mr. Dumble then introduced the new choir master, Mr. G. W. Mulligan, who, with the assistance of Mrs. Mowat, as orgainst, would have the choir in charge. He bespoke for the new director the hearty support of the members of the choir and of the congregation generally.

Interspersed in the proceedings were the numbers of a capital programme of songs and music. The efficient orchestra of the Sunday school played several spirited selections. Mr. Mulligan gave a song, the Misses Gray a vocal duett, Miss Clara Bellegham a song, and Mr. Watson a song.

ST. LUKE'S MISSION.

Last night a large congregation was present to hear Mr. Murphy's address on "God's Jewels." Before introducing his subject, Mr. Murphy referred to the leaving of two members of St Luke's church for South Africa, Mr Percy Price and Mr. Reg Turner. Reading to the congregation the 8th verse of Psalm 17: "Keep me as the apple of the eye, hide me under the shadow of Thy wings," he called upon the audience to unite in silent prayer, commending these two young men to the Heavenly Father's care and protection Malachi iii, 17.—"And they shall be mine, saith the Lord of Hosts, in that day, when I make up My Jewels," was the text for the address. Jewels convey to our mind something of great value. The Lord calling His children "Jewels" gives them much comfort in times of despondency, business-reverse, etc. He tells them that to Him they are of great value.

God in an instant created the light by His Word, but it took God 33 years of humiliation and suffering to make man "His Jewel" by the plan of redemption.

Jewels are kept safely, so that they cannot be stolen. God's Jewels are kept and protected by God's army, by His angels, the same army that fought for Elisha against the Assyrians.

Jewels reflect the light of the sun; they never show their own beauty. God's Jewels must reflect the light of the Son of God. To be a Christian it is essential to reflect the character of Christ.

Jewels grow in value by a process of polishing. Children of God will grow in grace by the polishing process of God in the deep waters of application.

There is a difference in jewels. Many counterfeit diamonds are manufactured in the world, set in probably, 18 k gold, and sold all over the country.

The devil has his factory open day and night manufacturing counterfeit Christians; it is probable that such a counterfeit Christian might be found in a Mission Preacher or Rector, or churchwarden, or member of the church. The world is full of hypocrites. As the existence of counterfeit money proves the existence of good money, so hypocrites prove the existence of real Christians.

It ought to be a personal question: "Am I a counterfeit Christian or a real Christian?"

You will find counterfeit diamonds in a shop window and sometimes worn by people, but you cannot find them in Great Britain's Crown; they would be a disgrace to the Kingdom.

You find hypocrites in and out of Churches, but never among the Crown Jewels of God.

God's power can take men and women out of the depth of the mire and transform them into Jewels of God.

To-night Mr. Murphy will speak on "Carnal Christianity." Service begins at 7.45.

There will be no services on Saturday. Next week the Mission will continue. Remember the men's service, for men only, on Sunday at 4.15 p.m. when Mr. Murphy will speak on a "Bad Choice."

Daily Letter From Haight & Freese's New York Office.

New York, December 13th, 1901.

Market Letter—"Points on Southern Pacific, facts about Manhattan."

People unfamiliar with the Southern Pacific, and have no idea of the immense value or conception of its future greatness. They are not qualified to hazard an opinion as to likehood of continuing to still expand its earning power.

This road will positively astonish investors and speculators, as its resources continue to be developed.

The Louisiana plantations of sugar, cotton, rice, etc., give immense freight to the company. There are miles and miles of these rice plantations, while one may travel at full speed for half a day over the "Sunset Route," seeing for himself what rapid strides cultivation of comparatively new industry is making, that with its oil fields, its health resorts, the growth of its business, its present opportunity, the like of which no other continental company has ever seen.

Manhattan denials are frequent, so it is with every great deal that has ever been consummated in Wall street. For purposes of accomplishment, necessity of "denial," is innumerable.

In a few weeks' time if you will visit 85th or 145th street, either at 3rd or 9th avenue lines, you will see things that will surprise you. The Manhattan is building a modern 600 foot platform, that will extend practically east and west, so that all passengers can be transferred down town, on either the ninth, sixth, third, or second avenue lines. Why do you want a denial of these facts? They are floating around Wall street. If you desire to really know the facts, take a trip up town and investigate for yourselves.

The manipulative drop given Manhattan the past week, has pretty well shaken out the stock, but we consider it a magnificient purchase, and are as bullish upon it as we have been ever since election day.

Why should it stay below 150 very much longer?

Why are the Vanderbilt lines likely to be interested? Because the Grand Central Steamer is becoming congested with the enormous increase in travel, and this dicker would relieve it immeasureably, through affording other means of distributing the travelling public journeying to New York City.

To-day's market was under the influence of the monetary situation, and was lower, as foreshadowed in last night's letter.

The market is now a purchase, on each sharp recession, with realizations in order on rallies. Later on it will be much higher.

Those who take a position on the market for a pull, may buy now with excellent prospects of expecting fair profits.

C. F. I. was the weakest stock, opening off ¾ per cent., declining 2 1-2 more, rallying later.

The general list fell from 1-2 to 2 per cent., rallying at the close.

Some stocks were selling at the highest prices for the last hour, notably Metropolitan, N.Y.C., St. Paul, Manhattan, Norfolk and Western were severely attacked.

Steels had magnificient support, regaining the one per cent. loss made during the day.

Copper was remarkably steady for that specialty, emphasizing the fact of its rapid drift back into the hands of the insiders.

Money was at one time bid up to 13 per cent. Evidences of manipulators to build it up as high as possible were discernable.

Short interest has grown unwieldy, and a rally of at least some proportions should be near.—Haight & Freese Co.

He Tells What the Objects of the Union are and is Greeted With Great Applause—Fifty New Members.

The Sons of England Hall has contained many packed houses in its day, and the audiences may have been enthusiastic, but it is seldom that it has held within its walls a larger audiences, or a more representative audience, than that which last night listened to an address of an hour, in length from Organizer Flett, of the American Federation of Labour.

Mr. Flett's visit to Peterborough has been expected for some time, and he has reason to feel proud, and the local Union has reason to feel proud, of the enthusiastic reception he received, and the stimulation it gave the Peterborough Union last night.

At the close of his address some fifty odd members were initiated into the Order, and a branch of the Painters' and Decorators' Union was organized.

THE CHAIRMAN.

The chair was occupied by Mr. W. Henry, the President of the Peterborough Union, and the proceedings were opened by a few remarks by Mr. R. F. McGreggor and Rev. J. C. Davidson.

Organizer Flett was given a very cordial reception, and during his address he was frequently interrupted by outbursts of applause from his hearers. He is a fluent speaker, is well up in matters pertaining to labour, and was listened to very attentively. After expressing the pleasure he felt at appearing before a Peterborough audience of wage earners he immediately plunged into the matter of monopolies, and more particularly in regard to public franchises. He reminded them that the Intercolonial, the only Government-controlled line that Canadians possessed, was in danger of passing into the hands of capitalists and corporations. A movement is now on foot on behalf of the various Boards of Trade, to petition the Government to place the Intercolonial line under the control of the C.P.R. It is the duty of the labour men of the country to organize and protect the country at large against such a disastrous attempt. The Trades Unions are the safety valves of the nation. In the Trades Unions they met and discussed matters, that all may come to a peaceful solution of, as to matters effecting the interests of them all. They pass resolutions and submit them to the legislators for consideration, and they are then in a position to press their demands. There is actually a movement on foot to suppress Unions, but if such a law were enacted it would be disastrous, as meetings would still be held—they would be held in the garrets, there would be the torch, and then the revolver, and finally open rebellion. For some years past it has been the policy of capitalists to erect gigantic factories, mills and the like, and the little establishments were passing out of existence. Trusts and combines followed, and the few capitalists are controlling the rights of the masses. What consideration do the labouring men receive from such men? Nothing whatever, but they in turn must organize to protect themselves. He would be ordered out of the manager's office if he were to go alone to make certain demands in the interests of himself and his fellow-employees, but when organized they can go and insist on their rights. When asked by a concern "Who do you represent?" he can reply "I represent Union No. —. I represent such a number of men.

The speaker then went on to explain what labour was and what constituted capital. Capital he said was accumulated labour. Speaking of organized labour he said that the systems of Labour Unions of the past 30 years had changed and he illustrated this in several points. There is no doubt that there is something radically wrong in our economic system at the present day, for it is quite apparent that the harder one worked the richer he did not get. We in Canada should be the best off people in the world, but the struggle for an existence is just as keen here as elsewhere. They can't charge this state of affairs to God Almighty for it arises from our own unjust laws that have been placed upon our statute books and until these be removed we will not have access to the actual bases of our condition. The average wage per day of wage earners according to the products they produce, is $10, but do they get this amount? They do not. They are fleeced to the extent of $9.25.

Trades Unions are not for the purpose of promoting strikes, they have not encouraged them in the past, but in order to prevent them they were organized, and the better organized the fewer strikes, for settlements can then be obtained by arbitration. It is said that strikes are failures all along the line, but such is not the case, and he could prove that any strikes that had been failures have been non-union strikes. What they proposed was that they have the right to bite when they are in danger of being kicked. Continuing Mr. Flett spoke of the injustice of the proposed injunctions that companies and corporations are endeavouring to take out against strikers debarring them from reasoning with "scab" men. Mr. Justice Meredith has said that once this is carried into effect, liberty is at an end. They were wanting to get out injunctions, and in London the Militia was called out to give bullets for justice. Then the matter of Union labelled goods was a subject of great importance. How many Union made cigars do you smoke? See that every one of these has on it the Union label, if you don't you are not true to your Order. The same may be said when you purchase a hat or a garment of any kind. The Union mark should be thereon. The speaker made a reference to the importation of Chinese labour, and spoke in the strongest possible terms of the manner in which they were Undermining the labour of our country.

Mr. Flett warned the labour men to beware of the politicam who was always ready to assist them about election time. Leave the politician to where he properly belongs — to the Grit or Tory party and where each thinks each other a party of rogues. We must grapple with these economical questions from a labourer's stand point and we must turn down the politician whose only ambition is to serve the capitalists. Go slowly in your organization—there is a probability of you taking too advanced a position, and let every action be well considered. The results of your work, as in any investment, may not be noticeable the first year, but it will surely follow. In closing Organizer Flett said that strikes were the sign of the highest form of civilization.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

There's a Good Deal in Some Names—Goughs for Instance, the Always Busy Store.

Perhaps not all people are aware that in the business world a name means a good deal. Take Gough Bros., the Great Clothiers, for instance. Not only are they the largest retail clothing buyers in Canada, but they have set the pace for the strongest competition in prices. They buy for seven or eight stores — that means that they buy seven or eight times the stocks that one regular store would require. Of course, that gives them the "pull," and they never miss the opportunity to use the lever of large buying to secure a lower price from the manufacturers. Having to consult and defer to the preferences of their different city and town stores, they are compelled to buy a large variety, and that is why they are able to carry so extensive a stock, and give so wide a choice.

Collected in their Peterborough store there are extraordinary clothing offers always, but, especially, just now, when the holiday buying is on. If you have not yet decided where you are going to buy your winter outfit, quick decision is necessary now. Gough Bros. will help you with everything from top to toe. Go and see them in their holiday dress — bring your sons along and rig them out in holiday style. To see their stock at present is to be convinced that their business is to dress you well at low cost.

The large plate glass show windows of this firm have been artistically dressed and decorated, specially for the Christmas trade. Crowds of people have been attracted by the striking effects which the expert window trimmers have produced. Specially worthy of notice is the ingenious locomotive feature in the furnishing window. In the centre is seen a well-conceived and well-executed design of a railway locomotive—showing cowcatcher, boiler, cylheadlight. Below the headlight, which glows like the single eye of a Cyclops, appears the figures "29," the number of the "Lakefield Flyer." The snow effect adds additional beauty to this tastefully dressed and attractive window, which has other interesting features well worth seeing. To Mr. Will Mitchell, the brainy new furnishing man, is credit due, for this worthy exhibition. "It's a daisy." The clothing and boot and shoe windows, are also splendidly trimmed, and reflect the good taste and skill of Messrs. Merrill and Parks.

WATERWORKS BY-LAW DISCUSSED.

Debentures to the Amount of $230,000 Will be Issued.

PUBLIC MEETING TO BE HELD.

And Citizens Invited to Give Their Views Concerning the Purchase—Volunteers to get $25 Each.

The council met in special session last evening, for the purpose of giving the Waterworks Bylaw its first two readings, and arranging for it to come before the ratepayers on the same date as the municipal elections are held. His Worship, Mayor Deane, presided with the following Alderman present: H. Best, J. Corkery, Jos. Battes, Robt. Clinkscale, H. Rush, G. M. Roger, E. Shortly and Jas. Edgcumbe.

Ald. Best and Clinkscale introduced the bylaw authorising the purchase by the town of the Peterborough Waterworks, and the issue of debentures to the amount of $230,000 in payment thereof. The bylaw provides for the payment of 6 per cent. interest to the Company on the purchase money until the same has been paid over with the amount realized through the sale of the debentures. The total amount to be raised yearly in payment of the interest and sinking fund is $13,459.43. The debentures run for a term of 50 years and will bear 3 3-4 per cent. interest. The vote will be taken on January 6th, the polling places being as follows:

POLLING DIVISION NO. 1.—At M. H. Halpin's Store, corner George and Perry streets, A. Williams to be Deputy Returning Officer.

POLLING DIVISION NO. 2. — At Lewis Spry's Shop, Stewart street, Joseph Lundy to be Deputy Returning Officer.

POLLING DIVISION NO. 3.—At the Town Council Chamber, Charles Cameron to be Deputy Returning Officer.

POLLING DIVISION NO. 4. — At Green Bros.' Store corner Charlotte and Downie streets, Mendal Green to be Deputy Returning Officer.

POLLING DIVISION NO. 5.—At J. & W. Metheral's Shop, Aylmer street, Joseph Metheral to be Deputy Returning Officer.

POLLING DIVISION NO. 6. — At William McCall's Shop, corner Reid and McDonel streets, John Irwin to be Deputy Returning Officer.

POLLING DIVISION NO. 7. — At William Lee's Shop, Smith street, George W. Powell to be Deputy Returning Officer.

The bylaw was read twice, the statute in that behalf requiring that it shall be voted upon and approved by the people before being read a third time.

On motion of Ald. Best and Corkery, the Mayor and Clerk were authorized to sign and attach the Corporation Seal to the petition to the Governor-General-in-Council in reference to the legislation required for the Waterworks Bylaw and the Bylaw granting aid to the American Cereal Company.

Ald. Rush in referring to the fact of four of the town's young citizens having gone to South Africa, moved, seconded by Ald. Corkery, that a grant of $25 be made to Messrs. Turner, Trussler, Dundas and Boyle. The motion was carried. The cheques for the two former will be given to their Commanding Officer, Lieut.-Col. Edwards, and the grants to the latter will be forwarded to their respective mothers.

Ald. Edgcumbe made some pertinent remarks concerning the purchase of the waterworks, and expressed the opinion that it would be a good idea to hold a public meeting for the purpose of hearing the opinion of the citizens on the matter.

On the suggestion of Ald. Roger and the Mayor, it was decided to defer the meeting until the week between nomination and election day, as the new candidates for seats at the Council Board would then have an opportunity of being heard on the subject.

The council adjourned until Monday next, the date of the statutory meeting.

THE LATE MR. SHERLOCK,

His Demise Occurred Yesterday Evening—He was 82 Years of Age.

The death occurred last night at No. 294 Stewart street, of Mr. Lucius Sherlock, after an illness extending over several months. The deceased was a native of Ireland and was 82 years of age. He served some time in the British Army and saw service in West India. He has been a resident of Peterborough for over 40 years having held the position of accountant in various concerns. He was for some years connected with the Evening Review, but of late years was accountant for Mr. E. Neill. During the American war the late Mr. Sherlock left his family in Peterborough while he went over and joined the American service. His wife predeceased him about 17 years, but he leaves to mourn his demise, Messrs. Frank of Peterborough, and Robert and Thomas, of Escanaba, Mich; Mrs. Wm. Thompson and Mrs. W. B. Tapson, of Bowmanville, and Miss Margaret, who resided at home.

The late Mr. Sherlock was a man of more than ordinary knowledge and was highly respected by a very wide circle of friends, all of whom will extend their sympathy to the bereaved family.

The funeral will take place at 2.30 o'clock on Monday afternoon to Little Lake Cemetery.

DYSPEPSIA OF WOMEN

Requires Treatment Which Acts in Harmony With the Female System.

Letter from Mrs. Wright, President of Brooklyn, N.Y., Round Table, Proves this Claim.

A great many women suffer with a form of indigestion or dyspepsia which does not seem to yield to ordinary medical treatment. While the symptoms seem to be similar to those of ordinary indigestion, yet the medicines universally prescribed do not seem to restore the patient's normal condition.

Mrs. Pinkham claims that there is a kind of dyspepsia that is caused by derangement of the female organism, and which while it causes disturbances similar to ordinary indigestion cannot be relieved without a medicine which not only acts as a stomach tonic, but has peculiar utero-tonic effects as well; in other words, a derangement of the female organs may have such a disturbing effect upon a woman's whole system as to cause serious indigestion and dyspepsia, and it cannot be relieved without curing the original cause of the trouble, which seems to find its source in the pelvic organs.

As proof of this theory we beg to call attention to the letter from Mrs. Wright, of Brooklyn, N. Y., herewith published:

MRS. MAGGIE WRIGHT.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—For two years I suffered more or less with dyspepsia which so degenerated my entire system that I was unfit to properly attend to my daily duties. I felt weak and nervous and nothing I ate tasted good and felt like a stone in my stomach. I tried several dyspepsia cures, but nothing seemed to help me permanently. I decided to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial, and was happily surprised to find that it acted like a fine tonic, and in a few days I began to enjoy and properly digest my food. My recovery was rapid, and in five weeks I was a different woman. Seven bottles completely cured me, and a dozen or more of my friends have used it since." —MRS. MAGGIE WRIGHT, 12 Van Voorhis St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

How a Serious Tumor Case Was Cured.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Some time ago I wrote you that my regular physician had made an examination and told me I was afflicted with a tumor in my womb. I had backache, headache, bearing down pains and very profuse menstruation. My limbs would ache so I could not sleep and I was very weak and nervous. I was bloated from my head to my feet. After receiving your letter I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier, and followed all the rest of your advice as near as I could, and the tumor was expelled in pieces, and I regained my natural size. I continued taking your Vegetable Compound for a while longer and felt like a new woman. I cannot thank you enough for your kind advice and what your medicine did for me. It certainly saved my life."—MRS. PERLEY S. WILLIS, Vershire, Vt. (March 11, 1901.)

It would seem by these statements that women would save time and much sickness if they would write to Mrs. Pinkham for advice as soon as any incipient illness appears. Her advice is free, and has put thousands of women on the right road to recovery.

$5000 REWARD.—We have deposited with the National City Bank of Lynn, Mass., which will be paid to any person who can find that the above testimonial letters are not genuine, or were published before obtaining the writer's special permission. Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

BRIDGENORTH BREVITES.

Mr. Gordan Mann Nearly Loses His Life While Skating on Chemong Lake —Other Notes of Interest.

Good sleighing again.

The lake is open in several places.

What happened to the snow plough on Tuesday morning?

Albert Nicholls has gone back to Harvey for a few days.

Mr. A. E. Morrison, who has been out in the Northwest during the past summer, has returned home.

Joe Gravelle, wife and family have moved back from Young's Point to the village.

Mr. Charlie White, who has been making some extensive repairs to his residence, has about completed them.

Mr. G. J. Jopling has commenced his wood harvest in Eanismore. He has some fifteen men employed. Mr. Wm. Coomes has charge of the men at present.

John Turner and Joe Young have taken a contract of cutting some 200 cords of wood for Mr. Percy Udy, some four miles up the lake.

Mr. T. Brown has purchased a fine team of horses during the past week. He intends taking up farming again in the spring.

The excellent skating on the lake during the past week was enjoyed by many both young and old. Telford Bros' bon fire on Saturday night attracted a big crowd.

Everett Mann's many friends will be pleased to know that he is recovering as fast as can be expected, and he will soon be able to return home.

The heavy wind last week, which was blowing from the Eanismore side of the lake, lifted the pier, which the end of the swing rests upon, some five inches and wedged it against the opposite one, so it will be impossible to swing the bridge as it is at present. This misfortune was caused through neglect of having the ice cut around the pier in the proper time. However, the ice has been cut since, but not until it was too late.

On Saturday night while Mr. Gordon Mann was skating up to the village and when passing under the new swing bridge, he plunged headlong into the open water, as at this point the water has not frozen over yet, and Gordon not being aware of the danger came nearly losing his life. However, by the assistance of some boys who were skating near by, succeeded in rescuing him after being in the water some ten minutes.

Cured of Itching Piles.

Edward Dunellen, Wilkesbarre, Pa.: "For seven years I was scarcely ever free from the terrible torture of itching piles. I tried all sorts of remedies. Was told a surgical operation might save. One 50 cent box of Pyramid Pile Cure cured me completely." All druggists sell it. It never fails to quickly cure piles in any form. Free book by mail on piles, causes and cure. THE NORWOOD BUDGET.

What is Going on in the Village to the East.

Mr. W. R. Cameron spent Sunday in Peterborough, the guest of Mrs. G. B. Cameron.

Miss Grace Brown, of Peterborough was the guest of Mrs. W. E. Roxburgh at "Cessanock" on Saturday and Sunday.

Messrs. Buck and Walsh shipped a car load of hogs from here on Tuesday.

The social given by the Mission Band and the W. F. M. Society in connection with the Presbyterian church on Friday evening last, was a great success and all thoroughly enjoyed themselves.

Mrs. John Brackenridge of Westwood was in the village on Wednesday calling on friends.

Inspector J. C. Brown is in town looking after the schools.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of Christ's church here have every reason to congratulate themselves on the success of their entertainment given in the town hall on Monday evening. The ladies who had secured the services of Mr. Frank Conklin, the noted reader and impersonator, promised the public a treat and they certainly had it. The whole entertainment was supplied by Mr. Conklin and from beginning to end was good. The management deserve special credit for the manner in which the seating of the audience was carried out, as not one person who had secured a reserved seat was disappointed. The net proceeds amounted to the handsome sum of $65.00.

Messrs. Roxburgh & Son have secured the agency for the famous Frost & Wood agricultural implements, and have samples of their implements on exhibition at the Norwood elevator.

Mrs. James Carmichael, of Toronto wife of the late Rev. Jas. Carmichael, former pastor of the Presbyterian church here, is the guest at "Ousemore Place," the residence of Mr. J. B. Pearce.

It is our sad duty, this week, to record the death of one of Dummer's most popular young ladies, Rena Marguerete Gardner, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Gardner, of Dummer. The deceased who was an ex-pupil of the Norwood High School, has been sick for some time, and passed away at her father's home on Tuesday. The funeral took place on Thursday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock, to the Norwood cemetery.

The Board of Education met on Monday evening, Dec. 9th, pursuant to notice. Present, W. E. Roxburg, chairman, and Messrs. Jas. Cumming, R. W. Waters, W. H. Brethen, J. L. Squire, P. W. Reynolds, P. Stevenson, Jas. Pengelly, Thos. Robson, Wm. Webster, Thos. Fraser.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and confirmed.

A letter was received from the Minister of Education forwarding a copy of the report of the inspection of the Cadet Corps. On motion of Messrs. Squire and Robson the report was received and fyled and the secretary was instructed to make inquiries as to why bayonet exercise and physical drill with arms are not practised; also to write to the department re grant.—Carried.

The report of the Peterborough County Teachers' Association held in Norwood on Oct. 25th and 26th, re attendance, etc., was received and filed.

A communication was received from Mrs. G. J. Henry, Peterborough, ask the board to make a rebate of half tuition fees of Elsie Taylor, owing to leaving and attending the Collegiate Institute, Peterborough. Moved by Messrs. Stevenson and Brethen, that no action be taken.—Carried.

The report of John Davidson, Esq., M.A., Principal of the High School, was then read, giving a brief report of attendance, work, equipment, etc.

Moved by Messrs. Stevenson and Squire, that the report as read by the chairman, be received, and that the secretary be instructed to hand it to the Norwood Register for publication.—Carried.

The following accounts were then read: J. G. Sherry, acct. for $26.35, award of arbitrators altering sections No. 7 and 8, Asphodel. Moved by Messrs. Waters and Pengelly, that an order be issued on the treasurer for the same.—Carried.

CANADA AT PARIS.

An Echo of the Great Exposition of 1900.

Mr. J. G. Jardine, Canada's Commissioner, Tells an Interesting Story of the Splendid Results Obtained by the Use of a Canadian Remedy.

Toronto, Dec. 11. (special.) — The great World's Exposition held in Paris last year saw very many visitors from all parts of the globe assembled in the gay French capital. Canada was well represented both as an exhibitor among the nations and as a visitor, many of our best people having attended.

The interests of the Dominion were looked after by a very capable and intelligent company of patriotic Canadians among whom one of the most conspicuous was Mr. J. G. Jardine, of 805 Crawford street, this city. Mr. Jardine's duties as Commissioner entailed a vast amount of hard work which made great demands on his physical health and strength.

He is authority for the statement that he found Dodd's Kidney Pills, that best known of Canadian medicines, invaluable as a tonic during these trying times. He says, "They relieve backache instantly and tone up the system generally as nothing else seems to do."

While in Paris Mr. Jardine introduced Dodd's Kidney Pills to Mr. Dupis, the esteemed and popular secretary to the Canadian Commission who was feeling under the weather, with the very happiest results to that gentleman.

By healing and stimulating the kidneys, Dodd's Kidney Pills prove absolutely the very best tonic known to medical science to-day, and both Mr. Jardine and Mr. Dupuis were greatly pleased to find that their own fair country, so distinguished in many other ways, was through this great tonic remedy earning in Europe a glorious reputation in medical lines.

Very few Canadians are aware of the world wide reputation of Dodd's Kidney Pills and many who have been abroad seem surprised at being able to purchase their favourite medicine almost anywhere in the civilized world.

YOUNG'S POINT.

(From our own Correspondent.)

Good sleighing at present, and everyone is taking advantage of it.

The wood drawers have started operations here again and quite a number of loads pass through here daily for Peterborough and Lakefield. Wood is increasing in value in this neighbourhood, and in the near future it will be more economical to burn coal.

Mr. Jas. Reid is erecting a fine residence on a lot adjoining his father's, on the east side of the bridge.

Mr. Edward Quinn of Lakefield has the contract for Mr. Reid's house, and expects to have it completed shortly, as Ned is a hustler. This is the fourth building erected this fall, so the point is growing.

Mr. Wm. Hatton happened with a very painful accident here on Thursday. He was chopping wood when his axe slipped and struck his foot, almost cutting it off. Dr. Fraser of Lakefield dressed the wound.

Mr. and Mrs. McFarlane of Love sick are visiting friends here.

The steamer Majestic was put into dry dock here last week, and Mr. Hickey, of Peterborough, is doing some repairing on her.

The roads have been in better condition this fall than for years.

Capt. Scollard is busily engaged up north measuring logs for Mr. A. McDonald, Peterborough.

The power house is completed now, and is one of the best in the country, considering the immense water power we have here.

A Boon to Business Men.

The man who from business pressure has to bolt his food, suffer mental worry over business and then lose his sleep, will find Morrill's System Tonic a pearl of great price. This medicine purifies the blood, builds up the system, strengthens the nerves, and is the greatest blood regulator known. One bottle is worth $50 to an over-worked man 50 pleasant-to-take doses 50c. Sold at Ormond & Walsh's drug store.

NURSE HAS CONSUMPTION.

Physician Who Made Experiments in Tuberculosis Feared Authorities.

New York, Dec. 14.—Miss Emma King, the trained nurse who voluntarily offered herself to be experimented upon by Dr. George D. Barney of 401 Third street, Brooklyn, and was inoculated with tuberculosis bacteria on Nov. 22, has developed a well defined case of the disease, and has been removed from the city and state to avoid possible interruption of the experiment by the health authorities of the city. Dr. Barney admitted these facts yesterday, emphasizing the statement that Miss King has genuine tuberculosis, by asserting that diagnoses have been made by two eminent lung specialists of Manhattan, who reported the presence of tuberculosis in the right lung, and made affidavits to that effect, which are now in the possession of a New York newspaper, intended for Sunday publication.

Chili Sends an Ultimatum.

Buenos Ayres, Dec. 14.—(Via Galveston, Texas,) — Despatches received here from Santiago de Chili say that Senor Yanez, Chilian Minister of Foreign Affairs, has handed to the Minister of the Argentine Republic to Chili, Senor Portela, the basis of a new proposition to effect the impartial and friendly settlement of the dispute between the two countries. If these basis are refused by the Argentine Republic, Chili will make no further propositions. The refusal of the Argentine Republic will be taken as indicating that that country desires war.

Canada's Pulp Output.

Ottawa, Dec. 14.—George Johnson, Dominion statistician, estimates that during the nine months ending Sept. 30th, the pulp mills of Canada produced 147,095 tons of ground pulp, 61,934 tons of sulphite and 8,485 tons of sodas, having an aggregate value of $6,100,000. Of this Great Britain took $750,000 worth, and the United States $648,000 worth. The capacity of the mills being equal to the production of 316,500 tons in the nine months, they were therefore limited to two-thirds of their capacity of production.

ED. COURTNEY

She Had Weak Lungs

Mrs. John McQueen Suffered Severely---Cured by Powley's Liquified Ozone.

Exposure to draughts brings on lung trouble.

I take much pleasure in giving my testimonial to the benefits I have received from the use of Ozone. I have been troubled with weak lungs for some time. Last March I took a bad cold, and in spite of all I could do it was getting worse. One day my husband went to the store for medicine, but failing to get the kind he wanted, the store-keeper recommended Ozone. I had taken a great deal of medicine, but with very little benefit, but as I had nothing else I began to take it. When I had used one bottle and a half, I knew it was doing me good, so I took it as regularly as I could. It cured my cough and built me up in health and strength. I cannot speak too highly of Ozone.

(Signed) MRS. JOHN MCQUEEN,
Boothville, Ont.

Mrs. McQueen says: "Powley's Liquified Ozone cured my cough and built me up in health and strength." In a nutshell that is the action of this wonderful preparation of liquid oxygen. It first of all corrects the disease, then aids Nature to restore the body to health and strength. Powley's Liquified Ozone is the greatest discovery of the age. It destroys the germs of tuberculosis. Forms healthy flesh. It is blood food inducing a healthy condition of the tissues no matter how badly diseased they may have been. You should at least try one bottle if you are affected in the least degree.

STRENGTHENS THE STATE.

Life Insurance is for the protection of those dependent on a man's life; their dependence makes it an unavoidable duty Those dependent we assume to protect by our contract, at his personal cost; our duty to them is to make that contract as large, as secure, and as certainly available to them as possible; thus every Policy written conserves the interest of the State. A man with a Life Insurance Policy is apt to be a good citizen. Anarchists have no use for Life Insurance, and the state has no use for anarchists. The State should encourage every citizen to carry insurance. This Strengthens the State, abolishes alms-houses, and creates property that can be taxed. Further, the income from Your labour ends with Your life. The cost of living to the family continues. Take measures to have the income continue also. The Life Insurance Policy Does It.

The most enterprising and progressive of all the Canadian Life Offices to-day is the Sun Life of Canada. Ten years ago the Company had Life Assurance in force to the extent of $16,759,355,-92. On the 31st of December last, this amount had been increased to $57,980,634.68. The increase, therefore, of Life Assurance in force during the last ten years amounted to the tremendous sum of $41,221,278.76.

2ND MOUNTED RIFLES

The Regiment May Be Increased by 291 Officers and Men.

NAMES OF ADDITIONAL OFFICERS

Departure of the Montreal, Ottawa, Kingston, Toronto, Hamilton and London Quotas For Halifax—Given a Good Send-Off at the Commercial Metropolis—Chance for the Rejected at Winnipeg.

Ottawa, Dec. 14.—The next few days will decide whether the strength of the second regiment Canadian Mounted Rifles is to be increased. It is quite probable that permission may come from the War Office to recruit a few more desirable men out of the lot that are applying. In such an event eleven officers and 280 troopers would in all likelihood be added to the strength of the regiment. As it is, places are being reserved for a few sturdy fellows who are on their way out from the Yukon. In addition to the officers already mentioned for commissions the following are likely to be appointed: Lieutenant Graham of the 43rd, Ottawa; Major Bliss of the Militia Department; Captain Ramsay of Brandon, Lieutenant Sholto Douglas of Winnipeg, and Captain Bruce Carruthers of Kingston.

Promotions.

It is announced by the Militia Department that non-commissioned officers of the permanent corps, selected for service in the 2nd Regiment, C.M.R., will be promoted in the permanent corps as vacancies occur, as if they were present at their station, and will, upon their return from South Africa, assume their former positions or such positions as they may have been promoted to. Non-commissioned officers and men performing the duties during the absence of such non-commissioned officers will be given acting rank, and will, upon the return of the non-commissioned officers, for whom they have been acting, be carried as supernumeraries of these ranks. Pay will not be issued for supernumerary rank.

An Armourer Sergeant will be needed to accompany the Second Canadian Mounted Rifles. It is likely that one will be detailed from the stores branch at Ottawa.

REGIMENT HAS GONE EAST.

Montreal Quota Given Hearty Send-Off at Bonaventure Station—More Men Required.

Montreal, Dec. 14.—The Montreal detachment for the Second Battalion Canadian Mounted Rifles left for Halifax by special Intercolonial train, along with the detachment from Ottawa, Kingston, Toronto, Hamilton and London, shortly before 10 o'clock yesterday. At 8 o'clock, the men, who numbered 45, paraded at the drill hall, where a final inspection took place before Lieut.-Col. Roy, D.O.C., Major Stewart and Capt. Simpson of the Duke of Connaught's Hussars. At 8.30 the detachment, headed by the Vic's band, started for Bonaventure Station, the streets traversed being: Craig, St. Lambert's, Hill and St. James. The boys were accompanied on their march from the drill hall to the point of entraining by scores of personal friends and by a big crowd of interested citizens. The send-off, in so far as the citizens on the streets were concerned, was not of an exceptionally hearty nature, but at the station it was quite the equal of those that accompanied the departure of the Montreal quotas for the first two contingents.

CHANCE FOR THE REJECTED.

Call Received in Winnipeg For More Men For Contingent.

Winnipeg, Dec. 14.—Major Gardiner received a telegram from Ottawa yesterday, instructing him to secure more men for the South African contingent. He immediately started to select them from the couple of hundred rejected applicants, who have been around the barracks since yesterday morning, in the hope that by some lucky turn of fortune they might be accepted. The recruits were instructed to be at the C.P.R. depot before 10.50 this morning, so that all may be in readiness to start at 11.20 for the east.

Died in South Africa.

Ottawa, Dec. 14.—A cablegram to His Excellency from the Colonial Secretary announces the death of R. W. Took of the South African Constabulary, at Thabanchu, Dec. 10, of enteric fever. Took was previously reported to be ill. His mother lives at St. Helen's, Ont.

GREAT RIFLE FACTORY.

The Famous "Ross" Weapon Will Be Manufactured in Canada.

Ottawa, Dec. 14. — A company which will erect a large arms factory somewhere in the Dominion has just been incorporated by Sir Charles Ross, the inventor of the famous Ross rifle. With Sir Charles are associated some leading financiers. The company has been capitalized at $3,000,000 and the plant which will be erected will cost fully this sum. The company has already a contract with the Australian Government for the sale of fifty thousand small arms for a sum aggregating $1,500,000. A contract with the Imperial Government for one hundred thousand rifles is also expected, the price being about thirty dollars each. The new company is also expecting a large order from the Dominion Government.

The Ross rifle was tested last summer by a commission of military experts, consisting of Col. Hon. J. M. Gibson, Lieut.-Col. Anderson, Lieut.-Col. Cartwright, Lieut.-Col. Sam Hughes and Major Gaudee. The test was a thorough one and satisfactory. The inventor, it is stated, entertains some hopes of obtaining a contract from the Dominion Government. The proposed factory, according to report, is to be located in Quebec, and will employ 400 or 500 hands.

The Government will probably select the location, and the question of safety in time of national peril, so that the manufacture of arms might not be interrupted when most necessary, will, of course, be considered in selecting a site for the factory.

THE INDOOR TEST.

At the Y.M.C.A. Last Night—A Most Successful Affair.

The first indoor test of the season in connection with the "Gym." department of the Y.M.C.A. took place last night and passed off very successfully. The events were, fence vault, standing bread jump, running high jump, and 120 yard potato race.

The fence vaulting was particularly good and the contest was won by Mr. Frank Trollope, whose score was 80 inches, just one inch lower than the world's championship record.

In the standing broad jump Mr. Sandy Hall made 8 feet 9 inches.

In the high jumping there were five contestants, who came out equal.

The potato race of 120 yards was won by Mr. Fred McGrath, whose record was 33 seconds.

The work of the boys was excellent, and reflected much credit upon Mr. H. E. Ayers, the able Physical Director, who acted in the capacity of referee. Messrs. A. H. Stratton, H. B. H. Kenner, and W. W. Daly, kindly officiated as judges.

The "gym" men were then asked to accept of the hospitality of the Leaders' Class. A very enjoyable social time was spent. Speeches, eulogistic of the work of the "gym" were made, and the Physical Director was congratulated on his work.

A PLEASANT EVENING

In the Murray Street Baptist Church —Congregational Social.

The ladies of the Murray street church have an enviable reputation for their skill and success in the matter of social gatherings, and last night's meeting was no exception to the general rule. Before 7 o'clock the members of the church and congregation began to arrive in large numbers and after being made warmly welcome by the pastor and Mrs. Bastow, soon found themselves occupied at the tastefully appointed and bountifully spread tables. The provision made for the creature comfort of those attending was most excellent and told of generous gifts and great trouble on the part of those supplying the tea. Various ladies of the church acted as waitresses, and needless to say everyone was abundantly looked after.

When the tables had been removed the following short programme was rendered:

Quartette, "Gathering Home," Misses Hall and Kindred and Messrs. Martin and Matthews.
Recitation, "The Deacon's Guest," ....

TRENT VALLEY ANNUAL MEETING.

Hockeyists of the District Met This Morning.

MR. W. R. CAMERON, PRES.

Delegates From the Towns and Villages—The Secretary-Treasurer's Encouraging Report—The Officers.

The annual meeting of the Trent Valley Hockey League was held in the Oriental Hotel this morning, when officers were elected for the ensuing year and reports of an encouraging nature were received from the various clubs.

In the absence of the president, Mr. T. J. Wallace, of Keene, who missed the train, the chair was occupied by Mr. W. T. Junkin, of Fenelon Falls.

The following delegates were in attendance:

Fenelon Falls—W. T. Junkin and Alvin Gould.
Bobcaygeon—E. S. Clarry.
Lindsay—W. J. English.
Omemee—J. N. Moffatt.
Millbrook—Herb Wood and F. H. Dixon.
Norwood—J. F. Anderson.
Keene—J. R. McIntyre.
Lakeviews of Peterborough—C. G. Graham.

Campbellford telephoned that they were unable to send a delegate, but that they were in the series to stay.

The minutes of the last annual meeting were read and on motion adopted.

SECRETARY'S REPORT.

The report of the secretary-treasurer, E. S. Clarry, was submitted as follows:—

The Trent Valley Hockey League had a most successful season last winter, and to-day it is in a very encouraging condition, not alone as regards the enthusiasm displayed by the clubs of the League, but from a financial standpoint as well.

This is our third annual meeting, and it is pleasing to the management of the League to know that all the clubs are a unit in their endeavour to carry out the idea expressed at our organization meeting, viz., to foster the game of hockey in the towns and villages where the rink specifications do not come within the requirements of the O. H. A. and in places where it is felt that they cannot afford the expense of maintaining teams in the premier organization, whose efforts to promote a clean game and to discourage professionalism, we heartily endorse. I hope that it is strictly understood that the Trent Valley League is not an organization that is maintained with the object of hampering in what ever way it might, the work of the O. H. A.

The membership of the League will be somewhat larger than it was last year. While there are several new clubs with us, I regret to say that Marmora, through insufficient rink accommodation has been obliged to withdraw. The new ring clubs in the League are Millbrook, Omemee, Beaverton, and perhaps Cannington and Port Perry.

The champion team of the League and the winner of the Stratton Cup was Fenelon Falls, a club which had a very brilliant record for a new organization, whilst the runners-up were Norwood. They made a plucky fight for first place, and the final match for the championship between these two teams was a good exhibition of Canada's national winter sport.

There is in the hands of the treasurer the sum of $35.00, which was realized from the gate receipts of the final matches. The ordinary means of resources of $1.00 membership fee from each club would not have paid the running expenses of the League, and had it not been for these gate receipts we would not be in as healthy financial condition. The net receipts from the Fenelon-Norwood game amounted to $34.00, and from the Campbellford-Fenelon Falls game was $3.75.

The duties of Sec.-treas. were greatly increased last year by the addition of several new clubs to our membership, and certainly require a great deal of time. However, I endeavoured to make the best possible selection for referees, and for the most part they appeared to give satisfaction.

To our retiring President, Mr. T. J. Wallace, who has held office since the organization of the League, I wish to express my sincere thanks for the interest he has shown in the affairs of the League, and I am sure that although he may not be in harness, still he will lend us all possible assistance. We are indebted also to the gentlemen who often at an inconvenience to themselves, officiated in the capacity of referees for various matches.

I feel that you will all join in promoting the best interests of the League, and a successful season is sure to follow.

Respectfully Yours,
E. S. CLARRY,
Sec.-Treas. T.V.H.L.

The report was on motion adopted.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

The election of officers for the ensuing year resulted as follows:

Hon. President — A. H. Stratton, Peterborough.
President — W. Ross Cameron, Norwood.
Vice-President — W. T. Junkin, Fenelon Falls.
Secretary-Treasurer — E. S. Clarry, Peterborough.
Executive Committee — W. F. Wood, Campbellford; E.O. Bradburn, Peterborough; J. N. Moffatt, Omemee, and Lorne Campbell, Lindsay.

NOTES ON THE LEAGUE.

Mr. J. N. Moffatt of Omemee, who represented the club of that town at the annual meeting, is the Principal of the Public School there, and was a member of the second contingent to South Africa. He makes an able delegate.

Mr. W. T. Junkin, the genial representative from Fenelon Falls, was the unanimous choice for the office of first vice-president. He gave the meeting a happy little speech by way of reminiscences of the game in his town. The first three years they didn't win a match at all; last year they won everything, had a $75 gate at 10 and 15c. admission fees, ran special trains out of town, and this year are running the rink. Hockey is the main topic of conversation every day in the week, excepting Sundays, of course, and they have two junior teams that are going to give the seniors a hard chase. The enthusiasm is not confined to the corporation limits, but on the concession lines of the townships adjoining, and in the school yards of the surrounding country, the boys are at it, and the team from Lamb's school house have been training all summer. This is Mr. Junkins' story anyway, and there is no reason to doubt it.

Mr. W. R. Cameron, the new president of the League, is a very enthusiastic follower of the game. He is acting manager of the Union Bank at Norwood, and could not possibly get away to the meeting to-day.

A vote of thanks was passed to the retiring president, Mr. T. J. Wallace, who has held office for the past two years, for his efforts on behalf of the League in the past.

Discussion took place as to the prospects of the League this year, and several minor matters were adjusted.

Vice-President Junkin told of the enthusiasm over the game in his town, and Mr. Moffatt of Lindsay reported favourably on behalf of his club.

The executive will meet in the course of a week or two to arrange the schedule.

THEY HELD THEIR ANNUAL MEETING.

St. Paul's Auxiliary of the W. F. M. Society.

ADDRESS BY MRS. WILKIE.

The Election of Officers—The Secretary's Report—The Reports of the Junior Organizations.

The annual meeting of St. Paul's Auxiliary, of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, was held in the Sunday School Room of St. Paul's yesterday afternoon, and notwithstanding the disagreeable state of the weather, was very largely attended.

The feature of the meeting was the excellent address on the educational work in India by Mrs. Wilkie, who for 22 years has laboured in that far-away land.

The reports of the officers showed the work of the local Auxiliary to be in a very flourishing condition, and that it is doing a fair share in the cause of foreign missions.

The chair was occupied by Miss Dickson, the president of the Society. After devotional exercises, Mrs. A. E. Loch, the secretary of St. Paul's Auxiliary, presented her annual report, which was as follows:

This year marks the close of the twenty-fifth year of our existence as a missionary society, and as we look back we cannot fail to see how the leaven of the missionary spirit has been quietly but steadily at work in our midst; year by year there has been more and more interest evinced in the work, and the little circle that was at first too small to form an organization by itself, but combined with the women of St. Andrew's congregation as one auxiliary, after a few years was strong enough to separate, and form an auxiliary in our own congregation. Since then the progress has been steady, year by year, little by little, increasing in membership, attendance at the monthly meetings, and contributions, till at the present time our auxiliary stands fifth in a list of six hundred and sixty-six auxiliaries, as regards the number of members, third as regards the average attendance at the monthly meetings, and first as to contributions. But this record does not satisfy us as a society, for we would press forward to the time when all the women of the congregation will feel the power of the Spirit, and unite in the great endeavour to bring the kingdoms of this world into the kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. For this we work and pray.

The total membership this year is 169. Forty-nine of our auxiliary members are members of the general society, and fourteen are life members. The average attendance was forty-eight, a slight increase over last year, which was forty-six.

The number of subscribers to the "Missionary Tidings" is 97. This little magazine has been enlarged and greatly improved in the last year, and is worthy a much larger circulation.

The "Missionary Review" for the use of the members of the auxiliary, and the "Interior" for our lady missionaries in India, were again subscribed for.

In September a supply of good—mostly new—clothing was sent to the Crowstand Reserve, for the old and feeble Indian men and women, also a supply for the children under five years of age. Besides the clothing a supply of fine heavy quilts and other useful articles were sent. The value of the box was about $50.00.

In March Miss Hill, of Toronto, delivered a lecture in the Sunday school room of the church, the proceeds of which went to the expense fund of the Auxiliary—a fund which is used for any expenses in connection with the workings of the Society, and is entirely separate from our missionary contributions.

The thank offering received at the Thanksgiving meeting in October was $200.00, the same amount as was given the year before.

Our faithful contributors, the members of the Stewart Settlement Sunday school, sent their usual contribution of four dollars in February. The total amount contributed this year was $369.85.

At our last annual meeting we had the great pleasure of hearing Mrs. Goforth tell of her work among the women in Honan, China, and of the miraculous escape of herself and family together with our other missionaries, from the hands of the Boxers.

It is rarely indeed that a year passes without one or more of our number being called home by the Master; last year there were three, and this year there were two.

Mrs. John A. Cameron was suddenly called away in May. We thought she was only in the midst of her work on earth, when He who knoweth all things, and doeth all things well, called her to the higher service in His home above.

In June Miss Aggie Patterson was also suddenly called away. Miss Patterson was our Literature Secretary for a number of years, and her efficient, faithful service, and gentle presence, will long be remembered by us all.

"Be ye therefore ready also; for the Son of Man cometh at an hour when ye think not."—Luke xii. 40.

M. H. LECH, Sec.

The report of the Treasurer gave an account of the finances in a more detailed form than that contained in Mrs. Lech's report, which was in fact a summary of the Treasurer's report.

Miss Dickson, the President of the Society, gave an interesting talk on the subject of "Our Responsibility as Members of the Foreign Missionary Society."

During the offertory, Miss Montgomery sang very sweetly, "Thy Will be Done."

Miss Bailey read a well prepared paper on "Thanksgiving," and greetings were received during the afternoon from Miss Errett, on behalf of St. John's W.F.M.S.; from Mrs. Kilgour, on behalf of the Charlotte street Methodist Church, and from Mrs. Stuart, on behalf of St. Andrew's.

The report of the Fraser Mission Band, a flourishing organization in connection with St. Paul's, was read by Miss Annie Erskine, on behalf of Miss Lillian Hamilton, who was absent, and a similar report was read by Miss Marlie Hall on behalf of the Faithful Workers' Mission Band. Both these reports showed that excellent work was being done by these societies.

THE OFFICERS.

The election of officers for the ensuing year resulted as follows:—

President—Miss Dickson.
1st Vice-President — Mrs. Dennistoun.
2nd Vice-President — Mrs. McPherson.
Secretary—Mrs. Albert Loch.
Literary Secretary — Mrs. Jas. Paterson.
Treasurer—Miss Kingan.
Librarian—Miss Bertha Brown.
Executive Committee — Mrs. Walsh, Mrs. R. R. Hall, Mrs. Fife, Miss Roger, Mrs. Carmichael, Mrs. Turner, Mrs. Sims, Mrs. Eastwood and Mrs. James A. Hall.

Mrs. Wilkie, of Indore, India, who has resided in that country for the past 22 years, was then introduced and gave a lengthy, but an exceedingly interesting and instructive address upon educational matters in India. Mrs. Wilkie's long experience in missionary work has given her a firm grasp of her subject which she presents in an entertaining manner. She was listened to throughout very Torrance, seconded by Mrs. J. I. remarks the lecturer of the afternoon was the recipient of a hearty vote of thanks, upon motion of Mrs. attentively and at the close of her Davidson.

At the close of the meeting refreshments were served, the members of the Fraser Mission Band very efficiently assisting in the serving of the cake and coffee.

BAND CONCERT,

Market Hall, December 20th,, assisted by Canadian General Glee Club and a Vocal Quartette.

A FORMER PETERBOROUGHNIAN'S BRAVERY.

Lt. H. Clementi-Smith Commended for Gallantry in Kitchener's Despatches.

London, December 13.—Lord Kitchener's mail despatch, dated October 8th, published by the War Office, reports numerous instances of gallantry, from which the following is taken;

"11th Imperial Yeomanry—Lieut. E. Clementi-Smith (since died of wounds) on September 11th, in Harrismith District, advanced alone to occupy a position Boers were making for, and though wounded through right shoulder, continued to fire from left, keeping enemy off till he was re-inforced."

Lieut. Clementi-Smith was formerly a resident of Peterborough, for some time curate of St. John's church. From being a soldier of the church militant, he became a member of the ranks of the army of the Empire, and, as his actions have shown, became a distinguished type of muscular Christianity. His deed recorded and commended by Lord Kitchener—the deed of a dying man—illustrates the spirit, pluck, and ruling passion, strong even in death, that have made the name of the British soldier for centuries traditional for sustained devotion to duty in the arena of war.

Prof. O'Brien,

CANADA'S GREATEST PHRENOLOGIST and the only recognized SCIENTIFIC PALMIST (by law) has removed to 282 Hunter street, Terrace, near the railway crossing. See name in window. As Prof. O'Brien is a very busy man, he will not be able to leave Peterborough for a few days yet. The more people he examines the more he has to examine, which fact alone speaks for his ability and the esteem and popularity he has gained during his short stay in Peterborough. It will be well for skeptics of either science to investigate before condemning either Phrenology or Scientific Palmistry. The latter should not be confounded with the common fortune telling. Professor O'Brien has proved in open courts before Crown witnesses at the Toronto General Sessions, March 14th, 1901, that Palmistry as demonstrated by him is a pure science, and has no connection with the so-called fortune telling. Anyone wishing to be enlightened on the science should call on Professor O'Brien who will be pleased to explain his scientific methods. A photo read free to patrons. Over 150 persons have consulted him during his short stay in Peterborough. Remember there is only ONE Professor O'Brien. Don't forget his new address. CANADIAN BUTTER AND CHEESE.

British Imports Largely in Excess Over Last Year.

Ottawa, Dec. 14.—British market reports received at the Department of Trade and Commerce, covering the five months from July 1 to Nov. 30, show that imports of Canadian butter and cheese keep up their volume, as compared with imports from other countries. It is estimated that arrivals of butter from Australia will, at the end of the year, be 3,106 tons less than last year, while those from New Zealand will be 141 tons in excess. During the five months the total importation of butter was 23,236,192 pounds, of which 20,558,608 pounds came from Canada, an increase of 6,270,320 pounds over last year.

The report says: Canadian butter still meets a good demand, and prices remain unchanged. There is far better value in Canadian than in finest Australian.

As to cheese, it is stated that "the demand continues good, and is doubtless produced by the near approach of Christmas."

Woman is as old as She Looks.

It is not age but disease, weakness and ill-health that makes women look old, care-worn and wrinkled. You cannot look your best unless you feel well, strong and vigourous with pure, rich blood and steady nerves. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food makes good looks because it makes good health, restores the healthful glow to the complexion, rounds out the form and gives elasticity to every motion of the body.

Toronto Capitalists Buy a Railway.

Knoxville, Tenn., Dec. 14.—Messrs. Spond, Peck & Scripture of Toronto, now in this city, have decided to invest a large amount of money in a railway, which is to be built from Knoxville to a point 50 miles into the interior of the Cumberland Mountains, the most famous lumber centre in the South. The building of the road will open up vast tracts of timber land heretofore inaccessible because of mountain fastnesses and no transportation.

Death Ends Pleasure.

Kokoma, Ind., Dec. 14.—Last night a merry hay wagon load of young people started for the farm house of Michael Harness for an evening party. At the Main street crossing of the Panhandle an extra freight struck the wagon, killing Frank Keiffer and injuring three girls, Nora Weishaar, Lizzie Barnhart and Laura McArdle, seriously. Paul Weishaar, the driver, and several others, were less seriously hurt.

A Big Quarter's Worth

is always found in a bottle of Polson's Nerviline, the best household liniment known. It cures rheumatism, neuralgia, toothache, headache, sick-stomach, in fact is good for everything a liniment ought to be good for. Mothers find it the safest thing to rub on their children for sore throat, cold on the chest, sprains and bruises. Never be without Polson's Nerviline. It will cure the pains and aches of the entire family and relieve a vast amount of suffering every year.

In Vat of Boiling Water.

Whitby, Dec. 14.—Isaac Edwards, an unmarried man, aged 50 years, an employe of the King Bros. Co.'s tannery here, was missed from his usual place by his fellow workmen yesterday morning. He was finally found dead in a vat of boiling water used to leach tanbark situated in an upper storey and away from the part of the building where he worked.

AFTER 7-MILE GALLOP

South African Constabulary's Work After a Night March.

CAPTURED BOERS AND HORSES

Capt. Blandy Paid For His Credulity Concerning Boer Honor With His Life—A White Flag Sniper at Moedwill Shot After Court-Martial—How the Boer Ranks Are Recruited.

Bloemfontein, Dec. 13. — Major Pack-Beresford, with 140 men of the South African Constabulary, in the night marched to Nooitgedacht, northeast of Bultfontein, and at dawn sighted a moving convoy under Bester. After a hard gallop of seven miles the Constabulary overtook the enemy at Martinsrust, on the Vet River, and captured seven Boers, 170 horses, and a number of cattle and carts.

Treachery Is Suspected.

Queenstown, Dec. 14.—Capt. Blandy, while patrolling the country with a party of the Molteno District troops, saw some Boers who, he thought, held up their hands in token of surrender. He accordingly rode in their direction, but when he was within 20 yards of the Boers the enemy fired, and he was killed.

White Flag Sniper Shot.

Pretoria, Dec. 13.—At Moedwill, a German, who, with a white handkerchief tied to the muzzle of his rifle, stood behind a Cape cart and alternately fired on our men and raised the flag of surrender, was captured, court-martialled and shot. Before being executed he asked leave to write to his sister, and in the letter he told her he was a prisoner and about to be shot. The reason for this, he said, he did not know, "unless it was in retaliation for the manner in which the Boers had treated the British prisoners they had taken lately."

Few Boers Surrendering.

London, Dec. 14.—The correspondent of The Times at Pretoria says the number of Boers who are now surrendering is extremely small. The enemy has received a severe "hustling" this week from Gen. Bruce Hamilton's columns. Commandant General Botha is probably between Ermelo and Amersfoort, Southwest Transvaal. So long as the personal influence of Gen. Botha is exercised, says the correspondent, large surrenders of Boers may not be expected.

How Boers Recruit Their Ranks.

Pretoria, Dec. 13.—It is high time that the Boers in the concentration camps were required to take the oath of allegiance, or if they refuse to do this that they should be deported from South Africa. They regard the oath of neutrality as of no binding force, and even allege that its obligation has expired by mere lapse of time.

It is well known that there are constant escapes from the towns and refugee camps. Though 2,000 Boers a month are captured or killed, the number in the field does not seem to diminish to any appreciable extent.

The Boer forces can only be kept up by three methods: (1) By rebel recruits, (2) by foreign recruits, (3) by escapes from the camps and towns. The first two may be neglected, as rebels and foreigners are no longer joining the enemy. As to the third, a trooper who was recently captured and released was told by his captors that many of them were men who had at one time or other been prisoners, and that numbers were still escaping.

Another Cape Member Guilty.

London, Dec. 14.—A despatch to The Standard from Oudtshoorn, Cape Colony, reports that Mr. Schoeman, a member of the Cape House of Assembly, has been found guilty by the military court of neglecting to bring in his horses, whereby they fell into the enemy's hands, and also of failing to report the presence of the enemy on his farm.

Boer Sees the President.

Washington, Dec. 14.—Gen. Samuel Pearson, who was Commissary-General in the Boer army for some time at the beginning of the war in South Africa, and is now the Boer representative in this country, called upon President Roosevelt yesterday. The President suggested nothing that would lead to a discussion of affairs in South Africa. It is the intention of the Boer representative to try to present a memorial to the President praying that he take cognizance of affairs in the Transvaal.

Abandoned His Trip.

Winnipeg, Dec. 14.—Norman Luxton of this city, late of St. Paul, son of W. F. Luxton, who started recently from Vancouver to make a tour of the world in a 30-foot boat, with a Captain Voss, has abandoned his trip. Mr. Luxton has received a letter from his son written on board a vessel en route for Sydney, in which he explains his reasons for giving up the trip, but little else.

A Prevailing Scourge.

The "Blighting White Plague." How Catarrh Does Its Deadly Work.

Cooling Off—Taking Cold. Doctor Says It Is Catarrh. Has Developed Bronchitis. In the Grasp of Consumption.

It is just the same old story of exposure to cold. The neglected cold becoming chronic catarrh. Catarrh extending along the delicate mucous membrane to the bronchial tubes and developing chronic bronchitis, causing coughing and expectoration. Still neglected, further submission, the lungs are reached, catarrhal consumption is established. The "White Plague" scores another victory and the grave conceals the record of neglected catarrh. A well-worn road to a withering blight and untimely death. Thousands upon thousands have traveled it, and thousands upon thousands more will travel it. Every year develops a multitude of new victims.

Consumption the foul destroyer is most alarming in its frequency and dire in its results for it annually summons to their long rest over 350,000 victims in the United States alone. It is a disease which spares neither age, nor sex, rank or fortune. It is like the vampire that drinks up the vital stream and still fans with its wings the hopes which perpetually flutter in the hectic breast. It is a terrible and insatiable tyrant, marching down the aisles of time, blasting, devastating, destroying, establishing a gloomy empire of misery and death.

Catarrh is a forerunner of most cases of consumption. The presence of catarrh is evidence of a predisposition to the "Withering White Plague." Do not let it progress, stop it, cure it. Before it has reached the lungs you can do this with very little effort and expense. Stuart's Catarrh Tablets are a sovereign remedy for the peculiar constitutional condition or systemic dyscrasia that permits of chronic catarrh. They drive catarrh out of the system and heal the evidences of its ravages so long as the destructive processes have not been allowed to progress to a point beyond possibility of repair. They will cure catarrh of the head, nose, throat, ears, bronchial tubes, and the alimentary tract, but if once lung substance is destroyed and in the cheeks the hectic spots burn brightly like signal lamps of death, then they are powerless to save. There is a point in the destructive processes of progressive catarrh beyond which no medicine can cure, where no agency yet discovered will arrest or save.

Be timely wise, cure your catarrh while yet it may be cured. Take no chances of some exposure fanning the smouldering fire of chronic catarrh into a devastating conflagration of consumption. You can buy Stuart's Catarrh Tablets at any drug store for 50 cents a box. Try them and you will become their advocate and friend.

Mr. F. N. Benton, whose address is care of Clark House, Troy, N. Y., says: "When I run up against anything that is good I like to tell people of it. I have been troubled with catarrh more or less for some time. Last winter more than ever. Tried several so-called cures, but did not get any benefit from them. About six weeks ago I bought a 50 cent box of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets and I am glad to say that they have done wonders for me and I do not hesitate to let all my friends know that Stuart's Catarrh Tablets are the right thing."

Mr. Geo. J. Casanova, of hotel Grifton, West 9th street, New York City, writes: "I have commenced using Stuart's Catarrh Tablets and already they have given me better results than any catarrh cure I have ever tried."

Mr. A. R. Fernbank of Columbus, Ohio, says: "I suffered so many winters from Catarrh that I took it as a matter of course, and that nothing would cure it except a change of climate, which my business affairs would not permit me to take.

"My nostrils were almost always clogged up, and I had to breathe through the mouth causing an inflamed, irritated throat. The thought of eating breakfast often nauseated me and the catarrh gradually getting into my stomach took away my appetite and digestion.

"My druggist advised me to try a fifty cent box of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, because he said he had so many customers who had been cured of Catarrh by the use of these tablets, that he felt he could honestly recommend them. I took his advice and used several boxes with results that surprised and delighted me.

"I always keep a box of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets in the house and the whole family use them freely on the first appearance of a cough or cold in the head.

"With our children we think there is nothing so safe and reliable as Stuart's Catarrh Tablets to ward off croup and colds, and with older people I have known of cases where the hearing had been seriously impaired by chronic catarrh cured entirely by this new remedy."

Send a postal card to F. A. Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich., requesting their free book on catarrh. Write for it to-day.

Norwegian Steamer Sank.

Halifax, Dec. 11.—Word reached Sydney last night that the Norwegian steamer Ella was disabled off Scatterie Island. She lost her propeller on Monday afternoon. Five men left the steamer to go ashore for assistance. There was a tremendous sea running and the boat filled and sank. Four of the occupants were drowned.

ELEPHANTS IN A WRECK.

The Only Animals That Saved Themselves From a Sinking Ship.

When a number of elephants are shipped, a strong structure is erected on deck, and they are stabled, chained by the feet. No doubt in an emergency they could easily walk away with their chains and the deck flooring, throwing the stable aside if it offered any impediment to their progress and the door happened to be shut. Elephants fortunately are not always putting forth their prowess, and the chains in ordinary weather and ordinary circumstances keep them sufficiently in check.

A number of years ago William Jamrach, who had made a fortune, was returning from India with a cargo of elephants, black panthers, tigers, cheetahs, leopards, hyenas, apes, serpents, orang outangs and rare birds of all kinds. He valued the lot at £7,000. The Agra—that was the name of the ship he was coming home on—was swinging at her anchor off Point de Galle, Ceylon. Suddenly there was heard a fearful crash that gave pause to everything. The chattering, the screaming, the growling and the roaring of the animals stopped dead. The startled men looked for just a moment straight in the face of each other. Then the exclamation, "Great heavens, she's sinking!" was followed by a clamor that just blotted out the stillness.

At one and the same moment both man and beast seemed to realise the situation, and at one and the same moment they all began to exhibit symptoms of the alarm they felt. In the case of the men they were free to devise means of escape, and they immediately busied themselves accordingly. In the case of the animals they were confined and had to undergo the horror of facing a death they were powerless to avert.

It is natural for an animal to die in combat with an enemy, and while the combat lasts there is hope of escape. There is no facing of death here. The animal is otherwise engaged—engaged, too, in a natural way. But with the animals cooped up on the Agra, with never an enemy to fight, it was far different, and they gave vent to cries of unbounded despair. The elephants made a noise, too, but there was not one touch of despair there. It was the businesslike sound of crushing timber, and before the Agra had reached bottom a herd of elephants were swimming to Ceylon!

"DIAMOND CUT DIAMOND."

How the Phrase Became Current In New Orleans.

Diamonds cut diamonds; they who will prove
To thrive in cunning must once love with love.

The three words opening the above quotation from Ford, "The Lover's Melancholy," Thamaston, act 1, scene 3, are recalled by a New Orleans man, who tells how he first heard the expression in 1845, when he was a mere lad.

It was at the race track. Two sportsmen were conversing. One of them admired a flashy diamond breastpin worn by the other.

"That's a fine pin you have," says A.

"Yes," replies B. "If you fancy it, I will sell it to you for $800."

The bargain is consummated, but A notices that B and the other fellows are quietly laughing. He says nothing, and on reaching the city he goes into a jeweler's shop and asks the man behind the counter to examine the diamond.

"It is a fake stone," says the latter.

A then bargains with the jeweler for a handsome money consideration to set a genuine diamond in that pin, and next day he returns to the race track.

B and the gang smile broadly when A comes around.

"What are you laughing at?" he queries.

"We are laughing at that spurious diamond you are wearing."

"I'll bet $5,000 that it's genuine," retorts A.

"We take the bet," reply B and his chums.

The crowd drives to the city and enters a jeweler's shop. The diamond is pronounced genuine. Two other jewelers are seen, and they also find that the stone is perfect.

B hands over the money.

Later A, having had the false diamond reset in the pin, meets B and offers to return the diamond to him on payment of the $800 he had given.

B gleefully accepts, as the stone the gang had noted the day before had been valued at $1,200.

When the story became known, the sports took up the saying, "Diamond cut diamond."

Fooled.

He was a doctor and was patiently waiting for his first patient.

Thought he: "If the mountain will not come to Mahomet, Mahomet must go to the mountain. And as patients will not seek me out I must needs seek them out."

He strolled through the cheap market and presently saw a man buy six nice cucumbers.

"Here's a chance!" said he and followed him home.

Patiently he waited for four long and lonely hours, and about midnight the front door quickly opened, and the man dashed down the steps.

He seized him by the arm and cried earnestly:

"Do you want a doctor?"

"No!" replied the man roughly. "Want more cucumbers!"

Maddening Snuff.

On the Amazon river several Indian tribes use snuff, called pareca, which is made of the seeds of a species of plant. When a bout of snuff taking is determined on, the people become highly intoxicated and then use the snuff. The effect of pareca is so violent that the taker drops as if shot and lies insensible for some time. Those more accustomed to it are highly excited, dancing and singing as if mad. The effect soon subsides. Other tribes use it to repel ague during the wet season.

About to Make a Change.

"What is he going to do now?" breathlessly asked the agitated young woman, with her eyes on the daring aeronaut who was clinging to his parachute.

"He is about to sever his connection with the balloon," replied her escort, "to accept a position a little lower down."

To write a good love letter you ought to begin without knowing what you mean to say and to finish without knowing what you have written.

Thousands of young and middle-aged men are troubled with this disease—many unconsciously. They may have a smarting sensation, sharp, cutting pains at times, weak organs, and all the symptoms of nervous debility—they have STRICTURE. Don't let doctors experiment on you by cutting, stretching or tearing you. This will not cure you, as it will return. Our NEW METHOD TREATMENT absorbs the stricture tissue, hence removes the stricture permanently. It can never return. No pain, no suffering, no detention from business by our method. The sexual organs are strengthened, the nerves are invigorated, and the blues of manhood returned.

Cures Guaranteed

We treat and cure BLOOD POISON, NERVOUS DEBILITY, IMPOTENCY, STRICTURE, VARICOCELE, SEMINAL LOSSES, BLADDER and KIDNEY DISEASES. CONSULTATION FREE. BOOKS FREE. CHARGES MODERATE. If unable to call, write for a QUESTION BLANK for HOME Treatment.

CONSUMPTION

Right food—right medicine—right time—these three things are of the utmost importance to the consumptive. Right food and right medicine—these are contained in Scott's Emulsion of pure cod-liver oil. Right time is at first sign of disease. Right time is now.

Scott's Emulsion always helps, often cures. Ordinary food helps feed. Fresh air helps cure. Scott's Emulsion does both. Begin early.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS.

Scrub white sheepskin rugs with castile soap and water to clean them.

Mother of pearl may be cleaned by washing it with whiting and cold water. Use neither soap nor soda.

Absorbent cotton, it is said, if applied at once will prevent any traces of a stain being left by oil, milk or cream spilled on woolen goods.

Insect specks may be removed from gilded picture frames by dipping a soft camel's hair brush in alcohol and applying it to the spots.

A leak in a gas pipe may be located without the use of a light by painting the pipe with soap and water. Bubbles will indicate where the leak is.

You can drive rats out of the house and away from the barn or granary by scattering strong quicklime in the runways. They cannot stand its action on their feet.

To polish wood take a piece of pumice stone and water and pass regularly over the wood until the rising of the grain is cut down; then take powdered tripoli and boiled linseed oil and polish to a bright surface.

To make dinner plates and dishes hot before sending to the table dip them in very hot water instead of putting them in the oven. This takes only a little more time than putting them in the oven and is less liable to crack the china.

Old Names For Guns.

As the use of artillery became more common and the advantages of portability and a greater rapidity of fire were recognised guns, except among the orientals, became smaller, but of better workmanship and construction. Inventors began to try their hands at all sorts of improvements or attempts at improvement, and in the course of a hundred years or so the number of different pieces of cannon, large and small, mussle or breech loading, was simply legion. There were canaon, cannon royal and demicannon, three or four classes of culverins, bombards, mortars, perriers, serpentines, carthouns, curtails, passevolants or sebrattanas, basilisks, orgues, sakers, minions, mojanes, falcons and falconets, robinets, fowlers, bases, slings, portpieces, murderers, drakes, aspics, double dogs and lagtors, to say nothing of ribadoquins, flying dragons and partridge mortars.

A Long Sleep.

Dr. Soca, an English physician, reported the case of a young girl of seventeen taken with syncope after a cold "tub" who slept for seven months in the hospital to which she was admitted. When she was aroused from sleep, she responded drowsily to questions put and fell asleep again. At the end of seven months she died of pneumonia, having slept herself out of life. Sometimes she was fed in her sleep and at other times while they kept her awake.

Magnanimity.

It became necessary for an Emsworth papa to chastise mildly his small son the other evening. Some time later, wishing to negotiate for a favor, the chastised one stated his wishes and as an inducement added:

"Papa!"

"Well, James?"

"If you'll do this, papa, I'll excuse you for that whipping you gave me."

The Bullet

Of the assassin may be more sudden, but it is not more sure than the dire punishment meted out to the man who abuses his stomach. No man is stronger than his stomach. When the stomach is diseased the whole body is weakened.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It cures diseases of other organs when it cures the diseases of the stomach, on which the several organs depend for nutrition and vitality.

"I would say in regard to your medicines that I have been greatly benefited by them," writes Mr. J. S. Bell, of Leando, Van Buren Co., Ia. "I was at one time so I thought almost at death's door. I was confined to my house and part of the time to my bed. I had taken gallons of medicine, but it only fed the disease; but I must say that 'Golden Medical Discovery' has cured me, and to-day I am stouter than I have been for twenty years. I am now forty-three years old. Have taken in all twenty-nine bottles of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' besides two or three dozen vials of Dr. Pierce's Pellets, but now I take no medicine."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation.

An Appeal To Mothers

To Protect the Little Ones From Coughs and Colds That so Frequently Lead to Consumption in Later Years.

It is possible that you have been accustomed to consider that every advertisement is for the benefit of the advertiser only. In this you have been mistaken, as you will probably admit if you read about Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine, and have an opportunity of testing its value in your family.

Every mother is anxious to learn of effective means of combating the ills which cause her children to suffer. Many have learned how to conquer croup, bronchitis, whooping cough, sore throat, severe coughs and colds, by reading the advertisements of Dr Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine. Some mothers have even taken the trouble to write letters thanking us for making known to the public the merits of this great cough and cold medicine. They realised that to them the advertising was news of great value.

It almost seems like wasting space to tell of Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine. So many know about it, have tested its virtues, and seek its healing power whenever in need of treatment for throat and lungs. But there are many rivals and many imitations. Hosts of druggists stand ready to offer a substitute if the buyer is not firm in his demands for the genuine and reliable Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine.

You cannot afford to let your cold run on and on, developing into chronic bronchitis, serious lung trouble or consumption. You cannot plead ignorance of effective treatment. Prudence suggests the wisdom of keeping Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine in the house all the time to protect the children, and grown people as well, from the ills of cold weather. 25c a bottle. Family size 60 cents. At all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto. 8

"Curing" Married Couples.

If every wife who is trying to cure her husband and every husband who is trying to cure his wife would stop the operation and all the husbands would devote their energies to curing themselves and all the wives devote their energies to curing themselves, the homes would be a great deal happier than they are today.

There are scolding wives who are bending all of their energies to the task of curing their husbands of habits far less detrimental to the happiness of the home than the habit of scolding. There are husbands who have set themselves the task of curing their wives of imperfections of so much less consequence than the infirmities of character and temper possessed by the husband himself.—Edinburgh Scotsman.

Much Cause For Gratitude.

Of a certain bishop the following anecdote is told: While presiding over a conference a speaker began a tirade against the universities and education, expressing thankfulness that he had never been corrupted by contact with a college. After proceeding for a few minutes the bishop interrupted with a question:

"Do I understand that Mr. X. is thankful for his ignorance?"

"Well, yes," was the answer. "You can put it that way if you like."

"Well, all I have to say," said the prelate in sweet and musical tones—"all I have to say is that Mr. X. has much to be thankful for."—London Tit-Bits.

"I was simply incased in oil silk when I had pneumonia. It was a terrible experience."

"That's nothing compared to having an ankle in a plaster cast for months, as I had when I sprained mine."

"Our doctor says I can stand pain better than any one he knows. Why, when my arm was broken"—

"A broken arm is nothing to a sprain. For two weeks I never slept without opiates."

"I couldn't sleep even with them that time I had a neuralgic attack. Dr. Robinson remarked to my husband not once, but many times, 'That little woman is a perfect martyr.'"

"Neuralgia can't be compared so far as pain is concerned with tonsilitis. Four times every winter, as regular as clockwork, my throat is so sore I"—

"Pooh! Just have the neuralgia once, and you'll see."

"Well, just an ordinary headache prostrates me for days. I'm very delicate."

"My doctor says I'm a nervous enigma."

"You can't be as nervous as I am."

"Nor as I"—

The young woman slipped out of her chair and, gathering up her skirts, started out. "Aren't they having a good time?" she murmured to herself, looking back at the group of absorbed women. "I just wish they could hear about the angina pectoris that is my most valued possession. Wouldn't it turn them green with envy, though?"

A Boy's Delight.

Clifford was a good sized boy, but was still in knickerbockers. He had lost a near and dear relative and was heartbroken. A wealthy uncle on a visit to the family undertook to divert his mind.

"Clifford, my boy," said the uncle, "we'll go down town pretty soon, and I want you to think up something you would rather have than anything else in this world. Make up your mind now, and we'll get it, no matter what it is."

Clifford reflected for several minutes. Then his face brightened.

LINDSAY EVIDENCE.

THEIR RIGHT HAND.

Why pin your faith to "a good for all diseases medicine," when such a thing is an impossibility. Use Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets, a medicine confined to, and acting solely on, the kidneys and bladder.

Mrs. A. Miller, Lindsay, made the following statement; "All summer my back has ached hard as the result of trouble with the kidneys. I tried a good many medicines without relief, until I procured a bottle of Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets, and they certainly have done me a great deal of good since I began them. At the present rate of improvement, there will soon be no trouble left. I like them because they begin to act quickly and are so gentle in action.

A VERY BAD BACK.

Mr. George Gain, Lindsay, Ont., gave our representative the following statement of his case: "Hearing of Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets, I procured a bottle from my druggist, and I want to say that they are excellent. I had a very bad backache, the result of cold settling there, and they cured it in very short order, so I feel I can recommend them strongly to anyone suffering from backache or kidney troubles."

PETERBOROUGH PRAISE.

FINE FOR CHILDREN.

Mrs. J. P. Shevlin, King street, Peterborough, says: "I have been troubled for years with my back and kidneys, and with constipation. I tried many things with no relief, until I got a bottle of Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets and they have done what other medicines have failed to do. They have relieved me and improved my digestion as well. I find them gentle and not harsh, like other medicines, and fine for the children. I am glad to recommend them."

FREE OF ALL TROUBLE.

John Armour, collector, Peterborough, says: "I have been in constant trouble for the past five years with my back, kidneys, and stomach. I have tried ever so many patent medicines, and many doctors, with no relief. I got a bottle of Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets and I never had anything act so quickly and so nicely. I took but about one-third of a bottle and began to mend immediately, and soon was free of all trouble, in fact cured. I consider it a truly wonderful remedy, and can freely recommend it to anyone."

ABLE TO WORK.

Mrs. George Noble, Hunter street, Peterborough, says: "My back for four or five years has given me a lot of trouble, and the kidneys were tender and sore. I got a bottle of Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets and they have done me a lot of good. I have been able to work right along. They never upset me a minute. I am very glad to be able to give this good word for the medicine."

PORT PERRY STATEMENTS.

GOOD RESULTS.

Mrs. R. J. Evans, Port Perry, says: "I wish to say that having suffered from backache and kidney trouble for some years, and finding no relief in particular, I obtained a bottle of Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets and must say that I consider them the superior of any medicine of that kind I have ever taken, and I have taken all the others. Your tablets act pleasantly and rapidly, and with good results from the start. Fewer of them are required to produce good results than any other kind."

SUFFERING MANY YEARS.

Hugh Lucas, Port Perry, says: "I have been suffering for many years with kidney trouble and intense pain in the back. I have tried many remedies with only slight relief. I procured a bottle of Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets and am pleased to say that in the length of time I have been using them they have done me a great deal of good, more than anything else ever did. I am by no means young and cannot expect too much. I can recommend them conscientiously to others."

Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets positively cure BAD BACKS and SICK KIDNEYS. Price 50c a box at all druggists or by mail. The Dr. Zina Pitcher Co., Toronto, Ont.

CHAPTER XIII.

The sea was beautifully calm, and since the vessel had gone beyond the realm of terrestial sounds on deck, the silence of that winter's night was unbroken, save for the surging of the water, as it was angrily hurled from the mighty propellor, and the intense throbbing of the ponderous engines amidships. Our sleeping apartments in the dining room, or vice versa, at all events our hammocks were hung from the upper deck, and the tables were directly under them. Our first night's experience in these novel cots proved one of more than ordinary interest. You are all aware how uncomfortable a hammock is when improperly slung, and this was a common defect with ours. We were each supplied with four blankets, but when you couldn't keep them in your bed, they didn't afford much comfort. Some of the boys presented rather amusing spectacles, as they endeavoured to repose in a hammock that almost made them resemble a barrel-hoop; others had the centre cords so tight they had really nothing to lie on, but having got huddled into some of the folds, lay there complacently waiting for the dawn. This they needs must do for any attempt to a change of position, would certainly tumble them out on the tables below. To get everything properly adjusted to insure comfort and rest, was no small task, I can assure you, for the problem was perplexing, the atmosphere hot and heavy, and the constitution, in many instances, greatly out of order.

Personally, I had no reason for complaint, and peacefully slept through the entire night. Early in the morning I arose and rushed on deck to make a close survey of our new abode, and scan the boundless expanse of waters. Our vessel seemed to be the centre of a gigantic circle, and it mattered not to what point of the compass your vision extended, there was nothing but sea and sky. Day after day, for three weeks almost, the scene remained unchanged, except at irregular intervals you might observe a shoal of porpoises as they turned somersaults in their play; a flying-fish dart from the bow; or a sister vessel loom up on the horizon. The sun apparently rose out of the sea every morning, and sank in the sea every evening, in exactly the same points. The monotony was dreadful. Give me almost everything but a perfectly calm sea. I love to see the wild waves, to hear the moaning of the wind, as it sweeps through the rigging, and to feel the pitching of the vessel as it nobly strives to maintain a straight course in the tempestuous waters of the deep. When the bosom of the sea is perfectly smooth, there is something intensely fascinating about it, and it allures some to such an alarming degree that it become extremely difficult for them to liberate themselves from its charming influence. I have experienced this in a lesser degree myself, and while returning from Cape Town to England a Corporal in one of the Imperial regiments after gazing intently upon its placid surface, remarked that he must go down below (between deck) or succumb to its irresistible magnetism and leap overboard to certain death and a watery grave. Most of my esteemed readers in this vicinity I presume, have never seen an ocean vessel, except in a picture, but even by this means a careful observer can gain a pretty fair conception of our gigantic liners; just as the young man from local experience learned what active service meant. He had been boasting a little about his courage, and how he would conduct himself under fire, when an old soldier interrupted him by saying, "You never saw a battle, except in a picture." "No," admitted the Youth, "but I have been on the same street with a policeman who was shooting a dog." Possibly some of you have been in similar circumstances, and, like the youth, can from your experience, imagine how you would act and feel when bullets in greater numbers whistled over your head. This policeman must have been about as clever a marksman as a friend of mine in the Irish army, who received special recognition from the general in command. The regiment in which he had enlisted was practising at the target ranges one day and the general and the staff accompanied them. As the practice went on my friend made some wild firing and the general who was watching him closely said to the captain, "Tell Bob if he isn't careful he'll shoot the whangs out of his shoes." However, all policemen do not tally with the one refered to, nor all soldiers fortunately with my illustrious friend Robert.

The laws of health, I understand, demand exercise for the body before breakfast, so if you have no objections we'll take a "constitutional" stroll around the vessel, and then return for our morning repast. We will proceed from bow to stern on the upper deck, and follow the starboard side.

In the enclosure near the bow is the ponderous machinery used in raising and lowering the anchor. The massive links of the cable attached to the anchor are each a foot long, and every sixth one is marked to show it is the last one of a fathom. These anchors, there are usually two and sometimes more, as I believe some of our warships carry as many as eight, are manipulated by steam, under the careful supervision of one of the ship's senior officers. Advancing, we find on our right more heavy machines, called winches, used in loading and unloading the cargo. These, with the assistance of windlasses, elevate the heaviest materials from the docks, swing them over the open hatchway, and let them gradually descend to the decks below. A little further on we observe the galley or cuisine, where our breakfast will be prepared during our promenade. The cooking is all done by steam, and I often thought tea made by this means was much hotter and remained so for a longer time than when made in the ordinary way. The potatoes, in their jackets, were placed in caldrons, with a capacity of four or five bushels, and then cooked by steam. You can call them baked, boiled, stewed, roasted, fried, poached, or whatever you like, for I never tell you. On our left, at intervals, are wash-houses, water tanks and other necessary conveniences.

(To be continued.)

STOCK EXCHANGE.

Daily Letter From Haight & Freese's New York Offices.

New York, Dec. 13th, 1901.

"A Southern Leader — Louisville and Nashville."

Louisville and Nashville has recently been one of the strongest features of the market. The highest it went in the last boom was 115 3-4, recorded the 17th of last June. It is not surprising that it is so near its record price, as it is paying 5 per cent. dividends, and earning at least twice that much upon its capitalization. It should, and probably will, command much higher prices. It is making an excellent record for itself, and is constantly rising in the investment plane.

An interesting comparison can here be noted between L N and St Paul. The annual statements of these two companies show the Louisville and Nashville earned gross per mile, $3341.00 against a similar showing of St Paul of $6065 per mile. At the same time Louisville and Nashville, earned in excess of St Paul per mile $621 net, with St. Paul selling at 170 or thereabouts.

One could hardly consider L N high around 110. The fine physical condition of L N and with [illegible] so far ahead of present dividend requirements, there is no reason why the present rate of dividend should not only be maintained but more than likely be increased. As an investment it is gilt edged; as a speculation, a purchase—it offers a most favourable opportunity. Should the dividend not be increased in February, as rumoured, the intrinsic value of the stock will not be effected. The earnings for the system continue to show gratifying increases so far for the fiscal year with every reason to expect a continuance of the same. It would certainly appear as if no better speculative proposition was at present offering in the market. It is by long odds the very best road in the South, and is physical condition is equal to that of any of its northern contemporaries. So much money has been spent by the company upon the road in the past few years that it can be operated at a very low percentage of its earnings.

It is also a stock, that if one isleft with it through an unforseen upheaval of the market, he may not be only certain that its decline would be comparatively insignificant, but absolutely sure that it would advance again to figures which would be the equalling original purchasing price.

Money was a more plentiful supply to-day, ruling around 7 per cent. most of the time; prices rallied, as was expected.

The general list has pretty well reached hard pan, and now looks as if it was knocking around bottom prices.

T C I recorded about 1 1-3 per cent P O 1 1-3 per cent., while sugar sold higher than yesterday.

American Locomotive and Steels were steady, the latter in splendid demand. Manhattan was ex-dividended and sold up from 151 1-4 to 153.

N Y C, St Paul and Metropolitan advanced handsomely, while a continuance of the demand for Mop. L N, the Coalers and South Westerns was in evidence.

Stocks bought now should show good profits.

Almost the entire membership of the Knickerbocker Club turned out to last evening's hop, resulting in there being between sixty and seventy on the floor. Music was furnished by Miss McCabe and Miss Bell, pianiste and violinist. By a unanimous vote it was decided that the Club hops be continued after Christmas. The present series closes on Friday evening next.

ACROSS THE RIVER.

Some Interesting News From Ashburnham—The Municipal Situation.

There have been no startlingly new developments in municipal circles during the past week, in Ashburnham and it would not surprise many if the present council went in by acclamation. Whilst the council of 1901 has given very good satisfaction still it is apparent to all that the village possesses a number of men who would make excellent representatives around the civic table. It is not known whether ex-councillor Craig will take the field again. Ex-councillors Alex. Rutherford, George Stevens, T. B. Maniece, Wm. Irwin, Harry Neil, John Kylie, E. Conroy and others have their friends in the village who would like to see them step into municipal matters.

Mr. King, of Ottawa has opened out a picture framing business in one of the stores in the town hall building.

Ashburnham is proud of the showing she has made in the matter of furnishing recruits for the 2nd Canadian Mounted Rifles. Out of the 12 that went from Peterborough four of them are from Ashburnham. They are Messrs. Hubbs, Craig, McDonald and Price.

Mr. Wm. Weir, of Keene, is about to move into his new house, corner of Elizabeth and Stewart streets.

The Bell Telephone Company are replacing their present line of poles through the village with poles much higher and more sightly looking in many ways.

The Otonabee Power Company are running their line through the village.

The village council will meet on Monday night when the business of the season will be wound up.

Mr. John James has removed his establishment into Mr. J. C. Sullivan's building. Mr. John Malone has opened out in the premises vacated by Mr. James in the Albion Hotel building.

Fifteen May Be Lost.

Gloucester, Mass., Dec. 16.— The schooner Iolanthe, with her captain, Julius Oslen, and her crew of 15 men, is believed to have foundered at sea. She sailed from this port twelve weeks ago for the Western Banks, on a fishing trip, and, since then, has been heard from but once, when she called on her way to the banks at Liverpool, N.S., to leave one of her crew, who was ill.

Murderer Attempts Suicide.

Sault Ste. Marie, Dec. 16.— Frederick Shultz, awaiting execution in jail at the Canadian Soo, for the murder of his paramour, Mary Craig, last August, attempted suicide Friday night, by cutting his throat with a piece of corset steel. When found he was underneath the bedclothes covered with blood and in a precarious condition. It is thought he will recover.

Attacked in Morocco.

London, Dec. 16.—The Morning Post announced yesterday that Mr. Harris, The Times' correspondent in Morocco, whose picturesque despatches have recently been widely quoted, has been attacked and robbed while traveling in the interior of Morocco.

VILJOEN SURPRISED

Bruce Hamilton Again Achieves a Notable Success.

A BENSON GUN RECAPTURED

Used With Effect Against the Fleeing Boers—Sixteen Killed and 76 Armed Men Captured—High Death Rate in the Concentration Camps During Past Six Months—Botha Wounded.

London, Dec. 16.—Reporting to the War Office from Pretoria, under date of Saturday, Lord Kitchener says:

"Bruce Hamilton, after a long night march, surprised Piet Viljoen's laager at dawn, Dec. 13, at Witkraens, 25 miles northwest of Ermelo, killed 16 Boers and captured 76 armed prisoners. Many others were wounded and left at farms. He also captured one of Benson's guns, the other having been destroyed. Two field cornets are among the prisoners. The recaptured gun is in good order and was used against the retreating enemy."

Right Hon. W. St. John Brodrick, Secretary of State for War, wired the Government's congratulations upon General Bruce Hamilton's brilliant achievements.

This is Gen. Bruce Hamilton's third notable success within a fortnight, and 328 Boers have been put out of action since Dec. 3 as the result of his operations. Gen. Bruce Hamilton occupies a unique position, being the youngest major-general of the British army. He was born in December, 1857, ten months after Gen. Baden-Powell. At the beginning of the war he went out as chief of staff to Gen. Clery, and later he saw much service in the Orange River Colony, where he was employed in farm burning operations.

HIGH DEATH RATE.

Concentration Camps Show 13,941 For the Last Six Months.

London, Dec. 16.—The delay in the publication of the returns from the concentration camps for October and November, issued Saturday, was apparently due to the Government's desire to accompany the announcement of the pitiably high death rate with some kind of official explanation. The Blue Book shows 3,156 deaths of whites in October, of which number 2,633 were children; 2,807 deaths of whites in November, 2,271 being children. This makes the total number of deaths for the last six months 13,941, or a death rate approximating 253 per year per 1,000. Among the colored prisoners there were 1,308 deaths in two months.

The following figures of population and deaths in the concentration camps in the months of October and November are also given:

	Men.	Women.	Children.
October	17,859	29,895	55,195
November	17,961	43,829	57,945
	—Deaths.—
October	151	372	2,633
November	147	289	2,371

Lord Milner, Governor of the Transvaal and Orange River Colony, proposes to break up some of the worst-situated camps and to reduce the numbers in all the camps by sending the overflow from the Orange River Colony and the Transvaal to Cape Colony and Natal.

General Botha Wounded.

Durban, Dec. 16.—A despatch received here from Nkandhla, Zululand, dated Dec. 5, and delayed in transit by the censor, tells of a recent action near Lueneburg, Transvaal, in which Commandant Louis Botha was severely shot through the left leg below the knee. He only escaped capture by crawling into the bush. His present whereabouts is unknown to his own followers. The despatch adds that the British took 80 prisoners in this action.

Baden-Powell to South Africa.

London, Dec. 16.—General Baden-Powell sailed for South Africa on Saturday.

TOWNS UNDER WATER

Great Floods in the States of New York and Pennsylvania.

500 FAMILIES DRIVEN OUT

A Freshet Which Has Not Been Equalled in the Section Affected For 22 Years—Unprecedented Damages—Loss of Life, There Was, Sub Fortunately as Far as Now Known Not Large.

Binghamton, N.Y., Dec. 16.— The rainstorm which ended here at 4 o'clock yesterday morning sent the Chenango River over its banks, and caused a flood which has not been equalled for 22 years. Hundreds of cellars of dwellings are flooded, that of a large department store to such an extent that the fire department has been called to pump it out, and much damage has been done to the business houses on the river front. A large section of the First Ward is under water, and cut off from the rest of the city except by boat. The river road up the Chenango is under water for five miles, and all travel is suspended. The county farm buildings are surrounded by water several feet deep.

Not an Erie or Lackawanna through train has passed through the city since 9 p.m. Saturday. The Lackawanna main line is clear from here to Scranton. A Lackawanna bridge just west of this city is out of service. High water moved a pier from its foundation.

Canal Boats Released.

Troy, Dec. 16.—The thaw and heavy rains of the past week has opened the canals, and Saturday 17 boats were locked into the Hudson at Watervliet, and towed to New York. They were loaded with flax.

Entire Village Under Water.

Corning, N. Y., Dec. 16.—The Chemung and Canisteo Valleys have had the biggest flood since June, 1889, yesterday. Rail fell in torrents for nine hours, up to 11 o'clock Saturday night. Snow then fell until seven inches was on the ground yesterday morning. The Chemung and Canisteo Rivers overflowed their banks, and for miles east and west of here the lowlands are flooded and great damage has been done.

At Painted Post the entire village has been under water all day, and the water is two feet deep in most of the dwellings. No trains have come through from Buffalo or New York since early Saturday night.

Caused Several Landslides.

Middletown, N. Y., Dec. 16. — The heavy storm Saturday night caused several large landslides on the Erie Railroad between this city and Pond Eddy. In a collision between two trains one man was killed and several injured. The bridge over the Neversink River settled several inches.

Erie Tracks Submerged.

Susquehanna, Pa., Dec. 16.— Owing to the heavy rains and wind of Saturday night business was at a standstill on the Erie Railroad. A mile of track near Oswego on the Susquehanna division and several hundred feet at Rosas Switch on the Deleware division are submerged.

Loss Will Exceed $150,000.

Ithaca, N.Y., Dec. 16.—The most disastrous flood Ithaca has experienced since 1875 resulted from the heavy downpour of Saturday afternoon, and a conservative estimate of the damage caused to property in this city places the loss at $150,000 and it is highly probable the total loss will aggregate $200,000.

Rome Under Water.

Rome, N.Y., Dec. 16.—A phenomenal rise of the Mohawk River early yesterday morning has caused the destruction of thousands of dollars worth of property, as well as privation and distress among hundreds of families in the eastern part of the city. The river is nine feet above its normal level, and the city and its suburbs are under water for miles. One train passed here in the early morning. All other trains are stalled.

Train Through a Bridge.

Williamsport, Pa., Dec. 16.— A freight train on the Pennsylvania Railroad went through the bridge spanning Lycoming Creek, between this city and Newbury, at 6 o'clock yesterday morning. Three lives were lost. The dead are: John Martz, engineer; Frederick Glase, fireman; George Harley, brakeman. All resided at Sunbury. The bridge spanning the creek was a two-span iron structure, the first span of which gave way beneath the train. The engine and nine cars were engulfed in the water. No efforts could be made to reach the bodies. All the streams in this section were greatly swollen, the Susquehanna River here reaching a height of 21 feet.

16 Feet Above Low Water Mark.

Elmira, N.Y., Dec. 16.—The Chemung River overflowed at the Monroe street dyke in the eastern and lower section of the city, it being 16 feet above low water mark at the time. The cellars in that section of the city were flooded. The damage will amount to several thousand dollars.

Saw Mills Swept Away.

Utica, N. Y., Dec. 16.—The rain storm of Saturday night and early yesterday morning did hundreds of thousands of dollars' damage in this vicinity. Along the west Canada Creek, which empties in the Mohawk River, bridges and saw and grist mills have been swept away, and it will be many weeks before traffic can be resumed. The Rome, Watertown and Ogdensburg road is also tied up from the same cause.

500 Families Driven From Home.

Syracuse, N. Y., Dec. 16.— The worst flood ever experienced in Syracuse occurred yesterday, when Onondaga Creek rose six feet in a period of less than nine hours, and, overflowing its banks, spread devastation in all directions. Five hundred families were driven from their homes by the deluge, and as many more were excited almost to a degree of panic. Property was damaged to the extent of $250,000. No life was lost, so far as known.

Havoc in Pennsylvania.

Philadelphia, Pa., Dec. 16.— A storm which, for severity and destructiveness, has not been equalled in this section for 25 years, visited Eastern and Central Pennsylvania on Saturday night, causing almost unprecedented damage and resulting in the loss of at least four lives. The havoc in the coal regions is enormous, and the loss to railroad and mining companies will amount to millions of dollars. The Schuylkill, Lehigh, Susquehanna and Juniata Rivers have risen as high as 15 feet above their levels, and all of their tributaries have overflowed inundating the surrounding country in more than a dozen counties.

RAILWAY WRECK.

Ten Lives Lost on the Illinois Central Railway.

Rockford, Ills., Dec. 16.—Ten or more lives were lost in the wreck of an eastbound Omaha-Chicago express train on the Illinois Central Railroad near Perryville, Ills., at 1 o'clock yesterday morning. The express train collided head-on with a freight train, both running at full speed. An oil tank car in the freight train exploded, throwing burning oil over the wreck, and in an instant the entire mass of wreckage was in flames. Every coach of the passenger train and all of the freight cars, except one tank car and a freight car, were burned. The bodies of the dead are burned in the wreck. The survivors made desperate efforts to rescue the injured, who were pinned in the wreck, but the flames drove them back at every point.

The temperature was near 20 degrees below zero, and the suffering of those who escaped injury was intense. The scantily clad passengers from the sleepers suffered even more than the other passengers. Not more than half a dozen persons escaped from the wreck uninjured. Many suffered severe injuries.

Failure on the part of a conductor to obey orders is supposed to have been the cause of the collision.

Two hours elapsed befor? any relief was at hand. Then an engine arrived and pulled the car to Irene, three miles distant. Later the injured were taken to Rockford.

Eight Were Killed.

Helena, Mont., Dec. 16.—Word from Kalispell, Mont., reports a passenger train wrecked near Essex, on the Great Northern Railway. Eight were killed and several injured.

Train Goes Through Bridge.

Troy, Ohio, Dec. 16.—The last span of the Big Four bridge across the Miami River, one-half mile east of Troy, went down early Saturday as a westbound freight train was crossing. Fireman W. H. Clifford of Indianapolis was killed. The engineer, fireman and conductor were in the cab of the engine at the time,

MINORITY RESPECTED.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier Will Not Appoint French Judge.

Ottawa, Dec. 16.—English speaking members of the Montreal bar interviewed the Premier and Minister of Justice here on Saturday. They emphasized the necessity for appointing an English-speaking judge to succeed Mr. Justice Wurtele, in order to preserve the present representations of two English to three French judges on the Appeals' Bench, in the event of Judge Wurtele's resignation.

The Premier assured the delegation there was no danger of the right of the minority being infringed in this respect. Judge Wurtele had not resigned, and had no intention of resigning to accept the chairmanship of the commission. The position, therefore, has yet to be filled.

BROKE INTO A MONASTERY.

Private Michael Sullivan of 3rd R.C.D. Brutally Assaults a Nun.

Halifax, N.S., Dec. 16.—Private Michael Sullivan of the 3rd Royal Canadian Regiment forced an entrance into the Monastery of the Good Shepherd at 3 o'clock yesterday morning, and, when discovered by Sister St. Paul, he brutally assaulted her. He inflicted a large wound on her head with a stick, and then struck her in the face with his fist, knocking her unconscious to the floor. Sullivan then ran out of the institution, but was captured by the police and taken to the station.

Boy's Neck Broken.

Halifax, Dec. 16.—William Heffer, aged 15 years, while playing on the rafters of an old building yesterday afternoon, was instantly killed. The roof collapsed, and Heffer was crushed to the floor under the falling timbers. His neck was broken, and when he was removed life was extinct.

BENJ. SHORTLY Sign of Horse at the Door, George Street.

Prof. O'Brien,

CANADA'S GREATEST PHRENOLOGIST and the only recognized SCIENTIFIC PALMIST (by law) has removed to 288 Hunter street, Terrace, near the railway crossing. See name in window. As Prof. O'Brien is a very busy man, he will not be able to leave Peterborough for a few days yet. The more people he examines the more he has to examine, which fact alone speaks for his ability and the esteem and popularity he has gained during his short stay in Peterborough. It will be well for skeptics of either science to investigate before condemning either Phenology or Scientific Palmistry. The latter should not be confounded with the common fortune telling. Professor O'Brien has proved in open courts before Crown witnesses at the Toronto General Sessions, March 14th, 1901, that Palmistry as demonstrated by him is a pure science, and has no connection with the so-called fortune telling. Anyone wishing to be enlightened on the science should call on Professor O'Brien who will be pleased to explain his scientific methods. A photo read free to patrons. Over 100 persons have consulted him during his short stay in Peterborough. Remember there is only ONE Professor O'Brien. Don't forget his new address. EXPLOSION AT HARGRAVE, MAN.

Two Men Dead in Consequence and Others Seriously Burned.

Hargrave, Man., Dec. 16.— Fire broke out in the elevator engine house owned by Mr. E. A. Holmes, about 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The fire was caused through the gasoline engine exploding. Five men were in the engine room when the explosion took place. They were unable to get out of the door, and P. A. Knight, being near the window, burst it open. Three escaped through the broken window, and two perished in the flames.

The dead are: Stewart Wright of Kola District, R. D. Sykes, a farmer, eight miles north of here.

The three who escaped were badly burned, the most serious being A. E. Holmes. Doctors were immediately sent for, and have strong hopes for recovery of all three. The engine house is burned to the ground and the engine ruined.

SELLING IRON IN ENGLAND.

Dominion Company of Canada Successfully Enters British Field.

London, Dec. 16.—The Dominion Iron Company of Canada is now apparently well established in this country. Numerous orders have already been placed with the Newfoundland iron, some of which it is unable to execute. Its iron is rapidly competing with the Scotch and Middlesboro classes, being ranked equal to Scotch low grade, while it is cheaper and better than Middlesboro. The latest order comes from Messrs. Stewart, the great Glasgow pipe makers. The contract is for 200,000 tons and the price enables them to compete successfully with the German pipe makers.

piers when the trans-Atlantic liners reached here yesterday, disclosed the fact that they were anxious to apprehend several men suspected of being the authors of the explosion and fire which wrecked the Exchange buildings and Liverpool Town Hall. Several of the Etruria's passengers, who visited the scene of the explosion and fire, say that Superintendent Thomas of the fire brigade told them that the Exchange was destroyed by an infernal machine. He charged that Fenians were at the bottom of the conspiracy.

Died at 101 Years.

Owen Sound, Dec. 16.—Neil McPhee of the Township of Normanby, County of Grey, was born in the last year of the 18th century, lived through the 19th century, and died in the first year of the 20th century, at the age of 101 years, his funeral taking place Friday. He was born in Scotland, married in 1844, came to Normanby in 1846, and resided there ever since. His wife, aged 75, survives him.

Still Going to Pekin.

Pekin, Dec. 15.—It is generally believed here that the court left Kaifeng Fu to-day for Pekin. Wang Wen Shao, the successor to Li Hung Chang as Plenipotentiary, who recently traversed the road which the court will follow, says it will take 18 days to reach the railway at Cheng Ting Fu. The rest of the journey by rail to Pekin will occupy three days more.

A Switchman Killed.

Stratford, Ont., Dec. 16.—A young man about 21 years of age, named John Joseph Bart, met sudden death in the G.T.R. yards here about 6 o'clock yesterday morning. He was employed as switchman, and in helping to shunt some cars, jumped on the brake bar of one of them to ride to the switch, and, slipping off, the cars passed over him, crushing out his life instantly.

Creed Revision Committee.

Washington, D.C., Dec. 16.— The Presbyterian Committee on Creed Revision concluded its session here Saturday afternoon. Before adjournment the committee finished a tentative statement of the revision by declaratory statement, and appointed a sub-committee, composed of Judge Edward Humphrey, Rev. S. J. Nicols, Rev. D. W. Fisher, Rev. William McKibbon and Dr. Hoffatt, to whom was referred the subject of textual revision. The sub-committee was directed to submit its report at the meeting of the full committee to be held in Philadelphia on Feb. 5, next.

The Case of Miss Stone.

Constantinople, Dec. 16.— It is understood here that the legations have handed over the case of Miss Ellen M. Stone and Madame Tsilka to the missionaries, in the hope that the latter will be able to convince the brigands that the sum subscribed in the United States is the actual amount of money available for the ransom of the captives. It is reported that the authorities at Washington have cabled to Spencer Eddy, the United States Charge d'Affaires, approving this course.

No Pardon For Her.

London, Dec. 16.—The Home Office on Saturday notified counsel for Miss Josephine Eastwick of Philadelphia (who pleaded guilty on Nov. 18 to forging a railroad certificate, and was sentenced to six months' imprisonment), that the petition for her pardon, on the ground of insanity, could not be granted. No reason is given.

Mutiny on British Ship.

London, Dec. 16.—The British ship Main, Captain Robinson, from Calcutta, Nov. 7, for Demerara, has put into Mauritius with a mutiny on board.

James A. Harris, of Peoria, Ill., aged 67 years, who went to sleep on the morning of Nov. 7, and had been unconscious almost continually ever since, died at 11 o'clock Sunday. He was unconscious for five weeks.

THE NEW CONTINGENT

280 Men to Be Added to the Second Mounted Rifles.

BRITAIN TAKES ANOTHER DRAFT

A Bearer Company of 48 N.C.O. and Men and Five Officers Offered the Mother Country by Hon. Dr. Borden—A Corps of Ten Trained Scouts to Be Sent—Four Men From Dawson.

Ottawa, Dec. 16.—A cablegram received on Saturday evening from the War Office announced the acceptance of two additional squadrons of Canadian Mounted Rifles, which will bring the total strength of the third contingent up to about 900. The accommodation of the two transports is for 950 non-commissioned officers and men 52 officers and five warrant officers, with the necessary complement of horses, so that with the six squadrons there will still be accommodation to spare.

Hon. Dr. Borden has accordingly cabled to the War Office an offer to send with the contingent a field hospital or bearer company, to consist of 48 non-commissioned officers and men and five officers. This is a branch of the service which, under the present Minister of Militia, has been brought to an admittedly high state of efficiency, and if the offer is accepted it will mean that a thoroughly competent and fully equipped hospital or bearer corps will accompany the Canadian Mounted Rifles to the field.

Another important adjunct to the force, and one which will enhance its efficiency, has been decided upon by the minister, namely, a corps of ten trained scouts. Those will be drawn from the Northwest, where there are scouts in continuous service, who probably cannot be surpassed in any part of the world.

A telegram has reached the Minister of Militia from Dawson, which indicates a strong desire to serve their King and country on the part of at least four good men in the Yukon. The despatch read that three ex-Mounted Policemen, Coats, McLaughlin and Arnold, and G. B. Stewart, formerly of the New Zealand Mounted Infantry, had left Dawson on Monday last on foot, intending to walk the 400 miles to White Horse and travel from there to Victoria, B.C., by rail and steamer, 1,000 miles, at their own expense, in the hope of being in time to enlist for service with the Canadian Mounted Rifles. The minister was asked if the men might be informed by wire when they reached White Horse that places had been reserved for them on the contingent. Hon. Dr. Borden replied at once that places would be kept open for the four men, as long as possible, and requested that they be instructed to advise the Militia Department by wire as soon as they arrived in Victoria.

One of the additional squadrons will be exclusively western, recruited between Vancouver and Winnipeg. The other will be raised in Ontario and the east at the several points at which, as in Toronto, recruits offered in excess of the required number at the first enlistment. The names of these latter recruiting stations and the quota from each, will be published shortly.

The places of enlistment together with the dates and quota to be raised at each in the west are as follows:

Place.	Date.	Quota.
Vancouver	20th	10
Revelstoke	24th	10
Rossland	22nd	10
Nelson	24th	10
Fort Steele	20th	10
Macleod	26th	5
Calgary	24th	15
Moosomin	20th	20
Virden	24th	10
Brandon	24th	10
Portage la Prairie	26th	10
Winnipeg	27th	10

The dates for the enlisting of the quota from Eastern Canada will be officially announced to-day. The dates will probably be Dec. 27 and 28 for Ontario, and the points of enlistment the same as for the 600 men. Toronto will probably be allotted 30 men.

On Their Way to Halifax.

Winnipeg, Dec. 16.—The train with the soldiers from the west arrived here Saturday afternoon. The points from which the men had been selected were as follows: Pincher Creek 9, McLeod 10, Lethbridge 8, Vancouver 20, Rossland 10, Nelson 10, Victoria 10, Fort Steele 19, Edmonton 14, Calgary 26, Revelstoke 10, Maple Creek 11, Regina 18, Moosejaw 14, Virden 10, Brandon 10, Portage la Prairie 10, Winnipeg 28. Total 270 men.

The 50 from Manitoba are under command of Sergt.-Instructor Dyer of Winnipeg, subject, however, to Lieut. Leckie, who has charge of the whole train. The commissary arrangements were all that could be desired, the meals being good and quickly served; in fact, all on board were well pleased with the equipment throughout. The train left for the east at 6 o'clock Saturday.

Kipling's advice to all ambitious boys was to follow in life as in a football game the principle, "Hit the line hard; don't foul and don't shirk, but hit the line hard!"

Not New.

Don't think our Vapo-Cresolene is something new, for it isn't. For more than twenty years it has been extensively used for all forms of bronchial and throat trouble. Mrs. Ballington Booth said of it, years ago, that "No family where there are young children should be without Vapo-Cresolene." You breathe in the vapor, it goes all though the bronchial tubes, soothing, healing, curing. It's pleasant, safe, economical. 13

Vapo-Cresolene is sold by druggists everywhere. The Vaporizer and Lamp, which should last a lifetime, and a bottle of Cresolene complete, $1.50; extra supplies of Cresolene 25 cents and 50 cents. Illustrated booklet containing physicians' testimonials free upon request. Vapo-Cresolene Co., 180 Fulton St., New York, U.S.A.

Recommended and sold in Peterborough by H. H. Edmison, druggist.

Don't Chide the Children.

Don't scold the little ones if the bed is wet in the morning. It isn't the child's fault. It is suffering from a weakness of the kidneys and bladder, and weak kidneys need strengthening—that's all. You can't afford to risk delay. Neglect may entail a lifetime of suffering and misery.

DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS

strengthen the kidneys and bladder, then all trouble is at an end.

Mrs. R. Kidner, a London, Ont., mother, living at 490 Gray St., says:

"My little daughter, six years old, has had weak kidneys since birth. Last February I got a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at Strong's drug store. Since taking them she has had no more kidney trouble of any kind. I gladly make this statement because of the benefit my child has received from this medicine."

A Boon to Business Men.

The man who from business pressure has to bolt his food, suffer mental worry over business and then lose his sleep, will find Morrill's System Tonic a pearl of great price. This medicine purifies the blood, builds up the system, strengthens the nerves, and is the greatest blood regulator known. One bottle is worth $50 to an over-worked man. 50 pleasant-to-take doses 50c. Sold at Ormond & Walsh's drug store.

A Luxury.

Tom—I've got a grand idea about my alarm clock.

John—Neglect to wind it up?

Tom—Better than that. I set it a couple of hours ahead of getting up time.

John—And wake yourself out of a sound sleep? Don't see much sense in that.

Tom—That is because you don't understand the science of the thing. Of course it isn't nice to be waked up, but the luxury in the knowledge that you haven't got to get up for two hours makes up for it many times over.

WIRELESS MESSAGE OVER OCEAN.

Marconi Gets Signals From England at Station on Newfoundland Coast.

St. John's, Nfld., Dec. 16. — Mr. Marconi announced Saturday night the most wonderful discovery of modern times, in stating that he had received electric signals across the Atlantic Ocean from his station in Cornwall, England. He explains that before leaving England he had made his plans for accomplishing this result.

Last Monday he cabled the Poldhu station to begin sending signals at 3 p.m. daily, and to continue them until 6 p.m., these hours being respectively 11.30 a.m. to 2.30 p.m. St. John's time. During these hours Wednesday Mr. Marconi elevated a kite with an aerial wire by means of which signals are sent or received. He remained at the recorder attached to the receiving apparatus, and, to his profound satisfaction, signals were received by him at intervals, according to the program arranged previously with the operator at Poldhu. These signals consisted of repeating at intervals the letter "s," which, in Marconi's code, is made by three dots, or quick strokes. This signal was repeated so frequently, and according to the detailed plan arranged to provide safeguards against possibility of a mistake, that Mr. Marconi was satisfied that it was a genuine transmission from England.

Again on Thursday, during the same hours, the kite was elevated and the same signals were renewed. This made the assurance so complete that Mr. Marconi cabled to his principals in England, and also informed the Governor of Newfoundland, Sir Cavendish Boyle, who apprised the British Cabinet of the success of the experiments.

The Cornwall coast is 1,700 miles from St. John's.

PATIENCE AND PURSE GONE

And still suffered the untold sufferings that are a part of some of the more violent phases of Kidney disorder. Doctors couldn't cure—but South American Kidney Cure put him to rights.

Adam Soper, of Burk's Falls, Ont., was for five years a great sufferer from a most aggravated form of Kidney disease. To use his own words: "I decided to try some of the patent medicines. I was recommended to use South American Kidney Cure. I received great benefit from one bottle, and five bottles completely cured me—and there has never been a symptom of kidney disorder since that time." 85

To Drop Sugar Bounties.

London, Dec. 16.—The British delegates to the Brussels Sugar Conference sailed yesterday morning, confident that the meeting will result in either the abolition or a substantial substraction of the bounties. Free traders are watching the proceedings with the closest interest, believing that the abolition of the bounties will greatly advance their cause.

No Changes Contemplated.

Winnipeg, Dec. 16.—Attorney-General Campbell was asked if he had resigned his portfolio. "The first I saw of it," was his reply, "was when I read it in The Free Press. I have not resigned, and there will be no changes in Mr. Roblin's Cabinet that I am aware of."

STRENGTHENS THE STATE.

Life Insurance is for the protection of those dependent on a man's life; their dependence makes it an unavoidable duty. Those dependent we assume to protect by our contract, at his personal cost; our duty to them is to make that contract as large, as secure, and as certainly available to them as possible; thus every Policy written conserves the interest of the State. A man with a Life Insurance Policy is apt to be a good citizen. Anarchists have no use for Life Insurance, and the state has no use for anarchists. The State should encourage every citizen to carry insurance. This Strengthens the State, abolishes alms-houses, and creates property that can be taxed. Further, the income from Your labour ends with Your life. The cost of living to the family continues. Take measures to have the income continue also. The Life Insurance Policy Does It.

The most enterprising and progressive of all the Canadian Life Offices to-day is the Sun Life of Canada. Ten years ago the Company had Life Assurance in force to the extent of $16,759,355,92. On the 31st of December last, this amount had been increased to $57,980,634.68. The increase, therefore, of Life Assurance in force during the last ten years amounted to the tremendous sum of $41,221,278.76.

WILL HONOR MR. MULOCK.

The Premiers and Several Cabinet Ministers Will Be Present.

Toronto, Dec. 14.—Judging from the hearty and general response by prominent citizens of the Province to the invitations, the receptipn to Hon. William Mulock on Tuesday evening at Massey Hall will be a well-deserved recognition of the eminent services which that gentleman has rendered to Canada as Postmaster-General and Minister of Labor. The appreciation in which Mr. Mulock is held by his colleagues in the Ministry will be indicated by the presence of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, who will speak on behalf of the Government; Hon. Wm. Paterson, Hon. J. I. Tarte, probably Hon. F. W. Borden and several other Cabinet Ministers. Hon. Geo. W. Ross, Hon. E. J. Davis and probably other Provincial Ministers will also be present, and convey the congratulations of the Liberals of Ontario. Lady Laurier will grace the event by her presence, occupying one of the boxes.

JOSEPH LAPLAINE HANGED.

The Murderer of Madame Lefebvre Executed at Montreal.

Montreal, Dec. 14.— Joseph Laplaine was hanged in the Montreal jail yesterday morning at 8.09 o'clock for the murder of Madame Lefebvre of Ste. Cunegonde in May of the present year. The execution was carried out without the slightest hitch, and life was extinct seven minutes after the fall, which broke the condemned man's neck. Prior to the execution the condemned spent the greater part of his time in spiritual preparations, and was quite resigned to his fate when the time came.

Creed Revision Committee.

Washington, Dec. 14.—The Presbyterian Committee on Creed Revision yesterday completed the brief statement of the reformed faith for the information of church members. It consists of 16 articles. The official statement given out, after saying the statement was tentatively adopted, adds: "The Committee is now engaged on the matter of the second instruction from the assembly, the preparation of a declaratory statement to explain certain disputed points in the confession of faith, such as the doctrines of election and of the salvation of all infants."

SCHLEY CONDEMNED

Two Reports of the Recent Court of Inquiry.

ADM. DEWEY SUPPORTS SCHLEY

The Other Two Admirals, Members of the Court, Condemn Him for Vacillation, Dilatoriness and Lack of Enterprise—Benham and Ramsay Against Him on Eleven Counts of Indictment.

Washington, Dec. 14.—The report of the Schley Court of Inquiry was promulgated by Secretary Long last night. There are two reports. Admirals Benham and Ramsay concur in the first, which is signed by Admiral Dewey, also, as a matter of form, Admiral Dewey makes a separate report.

The majority report condemns Admiral Schley on 11 points, while Admiral Dewey sustains him in most particulars.

The majority opinion finds in brief that Admiral Schley should have proceeded with the utmost despatch to Cienfuegos and maintained a close blockade, that he should have endeavored to have obtained information of the Spanish squadron there; that he should have proceeded to Santiago with despatch; that he should not have made the retrograde movement; that he should have obeyed the Department's orders; that he should have endeavored to capture the Spanish vessels in Santiago; that he did not do his utmost to destroy the Colon; that he caused the squadron to lose distance in the loop of the Brooklyn; that he thereby caused the Texas to back; that he did injustice to Hodgson; that his conduct in the campaign was characterized by vacillation, dilatoriness and lack of enterprise; that his official reports on the coal supply were misleading and inaccurate; that his conduct during the battle was self-possessed, and that he encouraged in his own person his subordinates, both officers and men.

Admiral Dewey in his report says that the passage to Cienfuegos was made with all despatch; that in view of his coal supply the blockade of Cienfugos was effective; that he allowed the Adula to enter Cienfuegos to get information; that his passage to Santiago was with as much despatch as possible, keeping the squadron together; that the blockade off Santiago was effective, and finally, that he was the senior officer off Santiago, in absolute command, and entitled to the credit due for the glorious victory, which resulted in the total destruction of the Spanish ships.

BURGLAR MARTIN.

Safe Blower in Ottawa Department Store Nearly Escaped Jail.

Ottawa, Dec. 14.—A sensation is certain when the facts are elicited as to the attempt of Burglar Martin, one of the brace of crackesmen who recently blew up a safe in Bryson & Graham's departmental store, to escape from the County Jail, where both are awaiting trial.

Governor Kehoe gave out to the press that Martin, by means of a fine saw, smuggled mysteriously into his possession, had cut the bars of his cell, and only got as far as the corridor, when he was captured by the turnkey in the morning.

The truth appears to be that Martin, who is known in New York as a desperate burglar, by the name of "Kid" McManus, made his way altogether out of the jail building, and but for the icy condition of the masonry, due to a thaw which set in during the night, would, doubtless, have succeeded in scaling the yard wall and making good his escape.

The night guard, J. A. Hanratty, has been quietly dismissed in consequence.

FEAR ANOTHER MASSACRE.

American Mission Board Expect Repetition of Scenes of 1894.

Boston, Dec. 14.—The American Board of Foreign Missions in its ninety-second annual repoar, made public yesterday, says:

"There is reason to fear a repetition of the wholesale massacres of Armenians in 1894.

"There is good reason to think that the disastrous events in North China, so far from being the destruction or even the permanent injury of the missionary work in China, will prove the opening of all doors of access to the Chinese people."

Fat Stock Show Over.

Guelph, Ont., Dec. 14.—The Fat Stock Show has closed its most successful year. Large crowds, distinguished visitors, excellent and ample exhibits, and keen enthusiasm have aided in making the success unprecedented.

Montreal, Dec. 14.—At a meeting of the Harbor Board yesterday, it was decided to pay back $47,000 of the $50,000 which W. J. Connors deposited as a guarantee in his elevator project; which he had failed to carry out.

Passed the Committee.

Washington, Dec. 14.—The Hepburn bill, authorizing the President to purchase right of way for the Nicaragua Canal and providing $10,000,000 for the beginning of the project, was passed by the committee yesterday.

Request by Hugo's Grandson.

London, Dec. 14.—A despatch from Paris to The Times says that Victor Hugo's only grandson, George Hugo, has applied for permission to put the prefix "Victor" before his family name.

Woman is as old as She Looks.

It is not age but disease, weakness and ill-health that makes women look old, care-worn and wrinkled. TAPS FROM THE WIRES.

It is estimated that the Christmas celebration in London city will cost King Edward over $1,000,000.

Hon. J. R. Straton has been unwell lately, and has left Toronto for his home in Peterboro for a day or so.

A heavy fog that descended on the city in the early morning on Friday, caused a delay of traffic all over New York.

The Socialists in the Reichstag demand that Germany shall propose joint intervention in South Africa to the other powers.

Judge Weller of Peterboro has sentenced Henry Doonan, of Bracebridge, found guilty of perjury, to three months in jail.

The manufacturers throughout Ontario, says Factory Inspector J. T. Burke, are freely equipping their factories with fire escapes.

The House of Lords on Friday unanimously decided the case for the possession of Daly's Theatre in London in favor of the Daly estate.

It is reported here that Kaiser Wilhelm will visit The Hague in the spring, to complete the reconciliation between Queen Wilhelmina and Prince Henry, her husband.

The largest exhibitor at the Birmingham Fat Stock Show was the King, who sent beasts from both the Windsor and Balmoral herds. The entries numbered 4,562.

The Canadian Express Company reports to the Game Warden that they transported 2,372 deer, weighing 256,037 pounds, this fall. Last year only 161,312 pounds were carried.

A report from the Red Desert (Wyo.) sheep range says that Charles Barnes, a herder from Garden City, Kansas, was frozen to death in the blizzard that has raged for the past day or two.

Chief of Police Neil Haller of Niles, O., was called to the door of his residence and shot by an unknown man Friday afternoon. The would-be assassin made his escape but a posse with blood-hounds is on his trail.

The Washington jury in the trial of Mrs. Ida Bonine, accused of the murder of James Seymour Ayres, jr., the young Census Office clerk, Friday night, returned a verdict of not guilty, after being out about four hours.

All efforts to drive the Mormon elders from the mountain counties of West Virginia has been unsuccessful. Instead, their working force has been increased greatly during the present year. It is estimated that in that period they have made 3,000 converts.

The blizzard raging throughout Southern Wyoming is terrific. All trains are delayed from three to five hours, and a blockade is imminent. At Frewen, Sweetwater County, a passenger train ploughed through a bunch of sheep huddled in a cut to keep out of the wind, and over 500 were killed.

Just as Mrs. D'Alton McCarthy alighted from a Belt Line car at Sussex avenue, Toronto, on Friday night, a man grabbed her arm and snatched away her muff, which contained her purse. The miscreant bolted down a nearby lane and was lost sight of. No clue to the robber has been secured so far.

A smallpox quarantine has partially tied up the town of Port Arthur. Two young men, each living in two of the largest boarding houses in the place, were recently taken ill, and their illness was diagnosed as typhoid fever. They were removed to a hospital, and later smallpox developed. As a result, the hospital with seventy patients, and the two boarding houses have been placed under quarantine.

THE FEAR OF HUMBUG

Prevents Many People From Trying a Good Medicine.

Stomach troubles are so common and in most cases so obstinate to cure that people are apt to look with suspicion on any remedy claiming to be a radical, permanent cure for dyspepsia and indigestion. Many such pride themselves on their acuteness in never being humbugged, especially in medicines.

This fear of being humbugged can be carried too far, so far, in fact, that many people suffer for years with weak digestion rather than risk a little time and money in faithfully testing the claims made of a preparation to reliable and universally used as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Now Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are vastly different in one important respect from ordinary proprietary medicines for the reason that they are not a secret patent medicine, no secret is made of their ingredients, although they are sold by all druggists under protection of trademark, but analysis shows them to contain the natural digestive ferments, pure aseptic pepsin, the digestive acids, Golden Seal, bismuth, hydrastis and nux. They are not cathartic, neither do they act powerfully on any organ, but they cure indigestion on the common sense plan of digesting the food eaten thoroughly before it has time to ferment, sour and cause the mischief. This is the only secret of their success.

Cathartic pills never have and never can cure indigestion and stomach troubles because they act entirely on the bowels, whereas the whole trouble is really in the stomach.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets taken after meals digest the food. That is all there is to it. Food not digested or half digested is poison, as it creates gas, acidity, headaches, palpitation of the heart, loss of flesh and many other troubles which are often called by some other name.

CULINARY CAPERS.

Add a little sugar to milk to prevent it sticking to the vessel while boiling.

To keep cheese moist and prevent its molding wrap it in a cloth wet with cider vinegar.

When recooking cold potatoes, cut them in thin slices, dredge with seasoned flour and set in a little hot fat.

If corned beef is very red, which means it is very salt, put it to cook in cold water. This draws out a portion of the salt.

Two teaspoonfuls of cream of tartar and a teaspoonful of baking soda are equal to three teaspoonfuls of baking powder.

To make a boiled fowl look very white put it into a floured cloth and let it simmer very gently from an hour to an hour and a half in boiling water.

When cooking a small roast, first sear it all over on a hot spider. This will immediately drive in the meat juices, and less heat will be required in the oven.

If cod is boiled in salted water with a bouquet of vegetables, a slice of onion, a stalk of celery or a sprig of parsley and half a dozen peppercorns, its tastelessness will be replaced with a very agreeable flavor.

Annual Re-union.

The active members and committee men of the Y.M.C.A. as well as all supporters of the work are cordially invited to the re-union and twentieth business meeting to be held in the parlour on Thursday evening, Dec. 19th, at 8 o'clock. The gathering will partake of a social character. A large attendance is requested.

Stationery in Boxes.

These boxes of stationery and envelopes make pretty, inexpensive and useful gifts, especially for corresponding friends, or for the boy or girl whom you would encourage to neat letter writing. The Peterborough Bookstore has a pleasing display of artistic and dainty note paper papeteries. These will be an ornament to any writing desk. The boxes are decorated with pretty designs, and the paper and envelopes are done up with fancy ribbon and other neat effects. Very distingue. We also beg to assure you of the genuine utility of our fountain pens. A. H. Stratton & Co.

THE MERCHANT OF VENICE

Presented by the Pupils of Norwood Model School on Friday Evening.

Standing room was at a premium in the Norwood town hall on Friday evening, when the pupils of the Model School presented the celebrated Shakesperean drama, "The Merchant of Venice." The crowd was so large in fact that many were turned away at the door.

It has been the custom for the past eighteen years—ever since the Model School opened in the county—for the pupils to give an entertainment at the close of the scholastic year, and Friday night's effort eclipsed all past efforts in this respect, and far exceeded the most sanguine expectations of the performers and their friends. The drama is certainly a very heavy undertaking for amateurs and the manner in which it was presented on Friday evening is deserving of the highest praise, and a repetition of the production would be greeted by a packed house. It was said to be the grandest dramatic effort ever undertaken in Norwood.

The costumes worn on the occasion were magnificent, and were the finest that could be procured in Canada. They were supplied by Mrs. McKenna, the celebrated costumier, of Toronto.

Mr. Davidson, High School Principal, occupied the chair, and opened the concert with a neat speech. The Norwood orchestra furnished excellent music between the acts, and during the evening excellent recitations were given by Miss Maggie Kenneally, and Mr. T. Howson.

Of the different performers it is only fair to state that all took their parts most creditably. Mr. Bart Leahy, as Shylock, the grasping usurer, was conceded by all to be the star of the evening. Miss Laura Holdcroft, (Portia) also came in for her share of congratulations, as the result of her careful portraval of a very difficult role. The two Gobbo's were all that could be desired, and Gratiano made his hit and certainly excelled in the trial scene. Miss M. Kenneally made an ideal Nerissa, and seemed to have a true conception of what the playwright intended Nerissa to be. Her quarrel with Gratiano, in the last act, was indeed a splendid piece of acting. At the close of the presentation the different performers were showered with congratulations. The following was the caste:

Shylock.....Mr. Bart Leahy
Portia... ... ...Miss Laura Holdcroft
Bassanio... ... ...Mr. Chas. Anderson
Antonio..... ....
Gratiano... ... ... Mr. W. Howson
Nerissa ... ...Miss Maggie Kenneally
Jessica... ... ...Miss M. Callahan
Lorenzo... ... ...Mr. L. Learmouth
Launcelot Gobbo... ... ...Mr. B. Huston
Old Gobbo ... ...Arthur Vanvolkenburg
Salanio ... ...T. Coughlin
Guards...D. Carlan and C. Smith
Duke of Venice... ... ...J. McMaster

The drama will be repeated to-night in Hastings. The 40th Regt. Band will assist in the entertainment.

DR. WATSON'S ABLE ADDRESS

In the Opera House on "The Signs of the Times."

An Interesting Address on an Uncommon Subject—He Will Speak Again Next Sunday.

Rev. G. D. Watson, D.D., of Pittsburg, Penn., who is at present conducting a series of meetings at Bethany Tabernacle, gave an address in the Opera House yesterday afternoon on "The Signs of the Times," or Scriptural prophecy on events foretelling the pre-millennial coming of Christ. Dr. Watson is a well-known Bible student and writer for the religious press, and his address was listened to with close attention by the large audience.

Dr. Watson took as his text Matt. xvi, 2-3, "He answered and said unto them, when it is evening ye say it will be fair weather, for the sky is red. And in the morning it will be foul weather to-day, for the sky is red and lowering. O, ye hypocrites, ye can discern the face of the sky; but can ye not discern the signs of the times?"

There were three great ages in the world's history—1. From Adam to Noah's flood; 2. From the flood to the crucifixion of Christ; 3. From the crucifixion of Christ, to His coming again. We were now living at the close of the third—or church—age, which was being wound up rapidly, and which would usher in the millennial age. The first age was 2000 years; the second was 2000 years, and Bible students believed that the third age would be about the same length. The first age ended in the deluge. The death of Jesus was a "red sunrise" to the Jewish people, predicting troublesome times to them, and it was a matter of history how the Jews were massacred at the destruction of Jerusalem, when 1100 thousand were put to the sword, and had been since scattered to the four corners of the earth. The third age would likewise end in tribulation. God's word tells us at the end of the age there shall be electric cars — Nahum ii, 4, "The chariots shall rage in the streets; they shall justle against one another in the broad ways, they shall seem like torches, they shall run like lightning." Was that not a true picture of what was to be seen on the streets of our large cities? In Dan. xii, 4, great travel and knowledge was foretold. People were now living who could remember when railways were first put in operation. Statistics were given of the stupendous number of tickets that were sold yearly, and the preacher said that such travel could not have been foreseen by any human being. Science and art were not by chance, but were over-ruled by God, and prophetic references to the same in Scripture were quoted. If photography had been discovered before the Christian era, every Christian would now have a photograph of the Saviour, and all would be hopeless idolaters. In this materialistic age people bow down to money, science and art, and forget God. Passages of Scripture were quoted showing the status of the Christian church at the close of the church dispensation, and he asserted that the church at the present time was in that condition of unbelief and formality foretold by the inspired writers. The many combines and trusts now forming were unknown a few years ago, but were foretold in James and in other portions of the inspired Word. As Christ had himself foretold that false Christs and prophets would arise, so we had them now. He had seen the formen in Texas and other States of the Union, and there was a self-styled prophet "Elijah" in Chicago. False religions, such as Christian Science and Spiritulism, were also drawing many aside from the true Gospel. In spiritulism, he said, it always appeared much easier to hold communication with a dead saloon keeper than with a departed saint. The parable of the budding of the fig tree, its relation to the Jews, and their return to Palestine, was then spoken of, and he said that more Jews had returned to the Holy Land during the past 15 years, than had gone back during the previous 1500 years.

Dr. Watson will speak next Sunday afternoon in the same place on "The Pre-Millennial Coming of Christ." Each evening during the week, except Saturday, he speaks in Bethany Tabernacle.

PETERBOROUGH IS THE PLACE.

It is emphatically true, speaking of men generally, that the more they have the more they want. This applies to towns as well as men. Peterborough, for its size, is pretty well supplied with important manufactories, and several more are being added to their number. But that does not satisfy us; the more factories and industries we have the more we want. Large and important additions to our industries are now under way and Mayor Danne and his aldermanic colleagues are in hot pursuit of a beet root sugar factory and perhaps other factories. They seem so willing to work that we are justified in pointing out to them a new direction for their energies. And not only the Mayor and aldermen but our representatives in Parliament and all our citizens should co-operate with them in an effort to secure the establishment in Peterborough of the proposed great Rifle Factory which is to be set up in Canada. A despatch from Ottawa printed in the Globe on Saturday says:—

"A company which will erect a large arms factory somewhere in the Dominion has just been incorporated by Sir Charles Ross, the inventor of the famour Ross rifle. With Sir Charles are associated some leading financiers. The company has been capitalized at $3,000,000 and the plant which will be erected will cost fully this sum. The company has already a contract with the Australian Government for the sale of fifty thousand small arms for a sum aggregating $1,500,000. A contract with the Imperial Government for one hundred thousand rifles is also expected, the price being about thirty dollars each. The new company is also expecting a large order from the Dominion Government.

"The Ross rifle was tested last summer by a commission of military experts, consisting of Col. Hon. J. M. Gibson, Lieut.-Col. Anderson, Lieut.-Col. Cartwright, Lieut.-Col. Sam Hughes and Major Gaudee. The test was a thorough one and satisfactory. The inventor, it is stated entertains some hopes of obtaining a contract from the Dominion Government. The proposed factory, according to report, is to be located at Quebec, and will employ 400 or 500 hands.

"The Government will probably select the location, and the question of safety in time of national peril, so that the manufacture of arms might not be interrupted when most necessary, will of course be considered in selecting a site for the factory. Sir Charles Ross, it will be remembered, became largely interested in British Columbia mines some years ago, and served in South Africa with a battery equipped at his own charge. He is very wealthy, and one of the greatest landowners of Scotland. Sir Charles has resided a considerable part of the time in recent years in Canada."

Now there seems to be little or no reason why, except not doing it, this factory should not be established in Peterborough. According to the despatch printed above, it is of sufficient importance and extent to make worth while the most energetic effort to secure it for this town. We have splendid facilities for manufacturing; we have cheap power to offer and we have facilities for transportation that are unsurpassed. We have trunk and subsidiary railway lines radiating from and centreing in Peterborough from almost every point of the compass. The C. P. R. east and west. The Grand Trunk south, south-east, north-east, and north-west. The Trent Valley Canal on the way to completion, and to be, naturally, more rapidly completed, if completion will better serve the interests of a factory for arms, of national and imperial importance, if established here. One circumstance which, it seems will affect the selection of a site is that of "safety in time of national peril, so that the manufacture of arms will not be interrupted by hostilities." Peterborough in its position, over thirty miles from the water front, and seventy-five miles from the United States frontier, and nearly a thousand miles from the seaboard, very suitably fills the conditions in regards to isolation.

It is hinted in the despatch that the proposed factory may be located in Quebec, but there is no centre of population in that province, no site there, in every way so suitable as to transportation facilities, that is facilities for distribution, as Peterborough. This town is inaccessible to attack from the north, east and west, and a wide stretch of water and easily-defended country separate this town on the south from the nearest possible, if not probable, base of attack. All the arguments which have been so frequently urged as to Peterborough's suitability for the site of a central military depot, can be urged in favour of the selection of Peterborough as the site of the proposed great rifle factory. Indeed, the establishment of such a factory here would be an additional reason for the establishment of a central military depot also. The matter is one well worth practically and promptly considering. The Mayor and Aldermen and public-spirited citizens should lose no time in initiating a strong agitation for the purpose of bringing this rifle factory to Peterborough, if possible; all the more, because apart from its essential importance as an addition to our manufacturing industries, it will be a strong lever for the establishment here of a Government military depot. It is to be hoped that investigation, with a view to action in the direction suggested, will at once be begun. There should be hearty co-operation of all classes to bring about so desirable a result. Not only from a local point of view, but, because all things considered, national and imperial interests will be best served by the selection of Peterborough as a site for the Ross rifle factory.

There was a good meeting at the Y. M.C.A. yesterday, when Rev. J. P. Wilson gave a helpful and impressive address on the character of Peter. He drew a sharp contrast between his life before and after Pentecost, drawing from it the grand lesson for young men to learn as announciated by Christ, "Without Me ye can do nothing." Mr. G. W. Mulligan sang "I stood outside the gate," in his usual good style.

CHURCH CHIMES.

MURRAY STREET BAPTIST.

The anthem at the Murray street church yesterday morning was "Our Father, who art in Heaven." The evening anthem was "Evening Hymn."

ST. PAUL'S.

At St. Paul's church yesterday morning the anthem was "I Will Give Thanks." In the evening the anthem "I Will Extole Thee" was rendered. Miss Hall taking the solo. Mr. James Dawson sung a solo entitled "He is Calling."

ST. JOHN'S.

Yesterday morning in St. John's Rev. E. A. Langfeldt preached an appropriate sermon, dealing with the second coming of Christ, which he thought was not far distant in view of certain conditions prevailing in the church and in society. He instanced as some of the many signs, the formality and conventionality, and the degradation of the marriage contract, and the direct prevention of certain of its sacred objects. The hypocrisy evidenced both in and outside the church, was also dealt with.

ALL SAINTS' CHURCH.

In the absence of Miss Bullen, Mr. Fred Bell presided at the organ yesterday in All Saints' Church.

Rev. W. L. Armitage concluded his series of three sermons on "The Holy Communion," yesterday morning. The evening sermon was the third on "Isaiah and the Advent," which dealt with the veil cast over all nations, which is done away with in Christ.

On Friday afternoon contributions for Christmas cheer will be received.

It is just five years ago to-day since Rev. W. L. Armitage assumed his duties in town.

GEORGE STREET CHURCH.

The pulpit of the George street Methodist church was occupied in the morning yesterday by the pastor, and in the evening by Dr. Torrance, with whom Mr. Wilson had exchanged pulpits. The choir under the new leader and organist, Mr. Mulligan and Mrs. Mowat, acquitted themselves very creditably. The morning anthem was "The King of Love my Shepherd Is," by Shelly, and during the collection the hymn, "Knocking, Knocking, Who is There?" was sung in a very effective manner. The anthem of the evening service was "I Am He that Liveth," by Caleb Simper. During the collection Mr. Mulligan sang the solo, "Moment by Moment," in his usual good style. The choir has been augmented by the addition of several new members, and expect to do some good work under their new leadership.

LABOUR SERVICE.

A labour service was held in St. John's last night. Organizer Flett of the American Federation and a large crowd of labour men were present. The hymns were appropriate to the occasion, and the sermon dealt incidentally with several interesting aspects of the labour question. Organizer Flett was invited to give an address on the religious side of the labour movement after the service but it was too unusual a situation and too many bonnets for the man who has addressed throngs of workingmen all over the Dominion.

Rev. J. C. Davidson believed that the time was soon coming when workingmen would feel in the Father's House so thoroughly at home and among sympathetic brethren that they would come even ragged clothes and would feel no hesitation in speaking at proper times for the Carpenter of Nazareth and the cause of humanity. The rector expressed his great satisfaction at the moderate line taken by Organizer Flett. It would be dangerous too, if such positions were held by demagogues inciting men to discontent and rebellion. It was a great mistake for workingmen to imagine that other classes of the community were trampling them down as was asserted by certain labour orators and newspapers. The workingman was held by all in respect and would be respected more as he was seen to respect himself. Workingmen were however to some extent the victims of changed economic conditions which deserved careful investigation and regulation so that they would press hardly on no class of the community. In striving to elevate the world's workers the church and the labour union had a common object Shorter hours and increased wages in certain departments of labour were necessary if men were to have a reasonable chance to cultivate and improve the higher side of their lives. A man wearied with ten hours manual labour and harrassed by the difficulties of providing for a family on a dollar a day, was not in a favourable condition for any kind of improvement. Such improvement could be effected by contact with God, not in one way, but in many ways. Contact with Him in knowledge, in work well and faithfully done, in the sacraments and worship of the church. Each of these had its own importance and was not to be neglected.

MANY MORE DEER SHOT.

Hunters' Results Greatly Above the Average

The Canadian Express Company reports to Chief Game Warden Tinsley that they transported 2,372 deer carcasses, weighing 256,637 pounds, as a result of the campaign in the woods this fall. This is away above the average, the weight of last fall's carcasses having been but 161,312 pounds. Mr. Tinsley thinks this is good proof that deer are holding their own in point of numbers under the present game laws of the Province.

STOCK EXCHANGE.

Daily Letter From Haight & Freese's New York Offices.

New York, Monday, Dec. 16th, 1901

"TOPICS."

The market promises to be irregular to-day with a lower tendency, owing to the damage by the storms in the east, and middle west.

The possibility of dear money, during the week, the fact that copper directors will on Thursday either reduce the dividend of copper or pass it entirely or uncertainly on this point, will be a market factor of importance, and until it is decided traders will be disposed to slow, and work only for quick turns and moderate profits.

The bankers interests are low for market activity, but later on there will be a decided improvement in the railway list, such stocks as steel, Pa, and the traction shares. It is the general opinion that the low point in the market will be reached this week.

It is not yet time to buy stocks.

TRADES UNIONS AND LORD'S DAY ALLIANCE.

Under the above heading a recent issue of the Fernie, B. C., Free Press, contains besides a report of a Lord's Day Alliance mass meeting, a thoughtful editorial from which we reprint the following extracts:—

"It has been supposed by many that the object of the Lord's Day Alliance was to prevent men from working on the Sabbath in order to compel them to attend divine worship. Such a motive is disavowed in the bylaw setting forth the objects of the Alliance. The question as to what a man shall do with his time does not enter into their programme, so long as he refrains from engaging in the labour which occupies his time for six days of the week. The grounds upon which this policy is based is first, that every man needs a day of rest, and second, that throughout the civilized world there is a prevailing sentiment amongst, at any rate, a very large percentage of the community that the seventh day is a day upon which they should be allowed absolute freedom to exercise their religious views and worship in peace and quietness."

"When the Alliance was first formed, men who had had experience in the business world, especially among the labouring classes, realized that apart altogether from the religious or sentimental aspect of the question it was one of vital importance, especially to the labouring classes, and this fact, which was an easy demonstration a few years ago, has only been intensified by the recent trend of events in the industrial world.

"It is absolutely necessary that the Trades' Unions, which are the bulwarks of the liberty of the working classes, should realize how this question affects them, and assist the officers of the Alliance in preserving the rest of the Sabbath Day from the encroachment which will undoubtedly be made upon it under the new conditions. In Eastern Canada the Alliance has succeeded admirably in enlisting both the attention and sympathy of the Labour Unions. In the city of Montreal they are acting in line on this subject and during the last year an important work has been done in checking Sunday labour. In Ontario even more has been effected, owing to the quicker conscience of the public and the absence of any strongly marked difference of opinion between French and English.

"This is neither the time nor place to discuss the merits of the whole question. We are taking it for granted that on all the grounds a day of rest is necessary and desired by our people and we are satisfied that in securing and retaining it no more reasonable coalition could be formed than between the earnest men who are at the head of the Lord's Day Alliance, and the intelligent officers of the Trades Unions of this country, who must realize that they are working for a common object and that it is very important to strive together."

ST. LUKE'S MISSION.

Rev. Arthur Murphy, M.A., spoke Friday night on "Carnal Christianity." He said that St. Paul in writing to the church at Corinth (I Cor. iii, 1-4) recognizes two classes of Christians, carnal and spiritual Christians.

1. They do not grasp spiritual truths; they are like babes, and still fed with milk; they are quite familiar with the latest novels, but know nothing of the Bible.

2. Among carnal Christians is noticed envying, jealousy; there is strife, i.e., quarrels, they are not on speaking terms. Again, you notice divisions among them, little cliques, one thinks himself better than others, it is like the heathenish caste system in India. They also walk as men, i.e., they are inconsistent. There is no distinction whatever between a carnal Christian, and a non-professing man of the world. Carnal Christians like babes, are troublesome, they will leave their church for trifles. If they cannot have it all their own way they get sulky and pouting. They expect to be honoured; and again like babes, they wish to be entertained. The common routine of church work is to them monotonous—they want entertainments.

In contrast to this stands the spiritual believer. His marks are mentioned in Galatians vi, 1 and 2.

1. He is able to assist others by his prayers, influence and example of a Christ-like life.

2. He will look to Christ for keeping the carnal nature in a state of death. He will by his consistency, make the world know that he has been with Jesus.

The difference between the two classes is seen in the works of each. The works of a carnal Christian are pointed out in Galatians v, 19-21; the works of a spiritual Christian in Gal. v, 22, 23.

How can the carnal nature be kept in a state of death?

1. By entire surrender of self to Christ.

2. By expectantly trusting Christ for conquering power.

In doing this the spiritual believer will obtain:

1. Victory over sin.

2. Growth in grace.

The special services will be continued in St. Luke's church during this week.

THAT SNOW BYLAW.

An Ideal Way of Handling the Vexed Question—What Westmount Does.

In connection with the present unsatisfactory state of affairs in connection with the Snow Bylaw, Mr. J. H. Burnham wrote to Westmount, supposed to be the model Canadian city, and has received the following answer to a query asking how sidewalks were cleaned in that municipality:—

Westmount, Dec. 13, 1901.

Sir,—Your card re clearing of sidewalks to Sec.-Treas. Minto, was referred to me. We have no printed regulations on the matter, but I will give you what I can in regard to the work. We have to clear about 23 miles of sidewalk, and this is divided into five sections. The work is done with the corporation horses and men. When we have a fall of snow six inches or greater we send our plough out on each section; this gets over the ground once in every 21-3 hours and gives good walking for three feet in width. After going around once it is necessary to send them again to make the walks wider. Some times it is necessary to use the team plough, and when the banks get high we send gangs of men to trim up and put things in good shape before another storm. These men are hired by the hour and only as required. A great deal of work is done in the early morning from 4 to 9 o'clock. When the snow fall has been less than six inches we have what we call scrapers. These are drawn by horses, and are much lighter than ploughs and do splendid work. These are sent out instead of the ploughs. As the work is done before the citizens are out in the morning we have fairly level walking. But should there be a fall of wet snow during the day when the people are going about, a ridge is formed along the centre of the walk which is very slippery and is called here "hogs back." We have a machine something after the style of a cultivator that cuts this down and makes the walking quite safe. There is another very dangerous state of sidewalk—this is after a sudden thaw or rain freezes up quickly and is glare ice. For this we turn out a machine which sprinkles sand or fine ashes along the walk just on the places necessary. Our sidewalks are cleaned in winter out of our ordinary or maintenance fund without extra charge to the ratepayers, and you would be surprised how cheaply it can be done under a system and good management, the one thing that will keep your sidewalks in good order in winter is attention and I would say attend to them early. All the implements in use here for the work are of my own design and make. I will be pleased at any time to give any further information that I can, or you may require.

Yours truly,
G. A. ROBERTSON,
Supt. of Works.

GLEE CLUB SUPPER.

Members Were Dined Royally at Lane's Restaurant on Friday Evening.

Friday night the C.G.E. Glee Club held their first annual dinner at Lane's restaurant, and to say it was one of the grandest social affairs of the kind of the season, would not be saying too much. Mr. Lane spared no labour or expense to make it such and the gentlemen present voted it the best dinner they ever attended.

The menu is appended:

MENU:

Oysters,
Blue Points.
Leg Southdown lamb, caper sauce,
Spring chicken,
Turkey stuffed, cranberry sauce.
Oyster patties, a la Rhine.
Banana water ice.
Mashed potatoes,
Green peas,
Stewed tomatoes.
Plum pudding, port wine sauce,
Mince pie, calf's foot jelly,
Charlotte de russe,
Assorted cake.
Tutti Frutti ice cream,
Tea, coffee,
Fruit, nuts.

After dinner, Mr. Mulligan, as chairman introduced the following toasts and programme:

The King and Queen—Mr. D. Holt.

The Governor General — Mr. R. Shepphерd.

Ontario Legislature — Mr. Geo. Tovey.

After this toast Mr. Chas. Westbrooke was called on for a song which was admirably rendered.

The toast to the ladies was responded to by Mr. Joe Legg in a most taking speech. Mr. Legg being Sec.-Treas. of the Club was presented with a very handsome writing desk and cabinet as an evidence of the Club's appreciation of his services.

The toast "Our Club" was responded to by Mr. Wm. Hill. After Mr. Hill's address Mr. Legg and Mr. H. Moore presented Mr. J. Rose with a very handsomely decorated comfort pipe. Mr. Rose was so taken by surprise he was unable to speak or sing for the rest of the evening.

Mr. Stevenson then sang Jock O' Hazeldean.

The toast "Mine Host Lane" was a most popular toast.

Mr. W. Freeburn who has been a valuable member of the Club was the happy recipient of a pair of Starrett calipers.

Mr. Burt Turner then sang Jack's the Boy for Me, in fine voice. Before closing the programme Mr. D. Holt, on behalf of the entire Club presented Mr. G. W. Mulligan, the leader, with a very handsomely executed illuminated address and silk hat. This brought the evenings programme to a close, and all feel a deeper interest in music for having met socially and discussed it's many advantages. The Club sung a number of their popular selections.

FAIRYLAND.

The local stores are now looking their prettiest, which befits the holiday season.

As the one presenting the greatest variety in its own legitimate lines, China Hall stands pre-eminently first.

For twenty years this store has invited the public to view its Christmas display, and has received a generous share of patronage.

The assortment of 1901 is more comprehensive than ever before, the stock including graceful ornaments, handsome dinner sets, with their accompanying glasses, dainty China tea sets, lamps, flower pots, celery trays, salad bowls, pudding dishes, bread and butter plates, and fancy cups and saucers galore.

In fact, each article in this vast stock, is suitable for a present, and a gift of China, unlike more ostentatious goods, never offends, but always pleases the recipient.

China Hall, in its present holiday attire, resembles a fairy land, through which you are invited to wander. The store will be kept open every evening until after Xmas. 2d139-1w

SPORTING PASTIMES.

RUGBY.

Mr. A. W. McPherson returned from Toronto on Saturday night after having attended the annual meeting of the O.R.F.U. Mr. McPherson was successful in being elected to a position on the Executive of the Union, and while at the meeting he advocated the adoption of the snap back system of play.

CURLIANA.

An active committee is out canvassing for members for the Granites, and the club will probably be revived and imbued with new life. There are plenty of young men who are available as players.

The Thistles met on Friday night, and decided on account of the absence from town of several skips, to postpone the selection of the rinks until Tuesday night. The Thistles have a membership of 44. Several old players have come into the game again.

HOCKEY.

At the annual meeting of the Fenelon Falls Hockey Club, the following officers were elected:

Patrons and Patronesses — Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Brandon, Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Brandon, Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Heard.

Hon. Pres.—Thos. Robson.
Hon. Vice-Pres.—W. Campbell.
Pres.—M. H. McCallum.
Vice-Pres.—M. DeCew.
Secretary—A. Gould.
Treasurer—H. Sandford.
Committee of Management — W. T. Junkin, John Jones and J. H. Stanton.

The club of course decided to again identify itself with the Trent Valley Hockey League.

BASKET-BALL.

Saturday evening was an exceptional good night for basketball on account of the temperature outside. There were two excellent games between teams of the league. The first to do battle were teams Nos. 2 and 6, and 1 and 3. The first match was hardly contested and resulted in a tie, the score being 3 all. The next match was even more exciting, but Dunsford's team seemed to have the situation of the basket at the right time. The officials of the games were Messrs. Hall, Laing, Merrill and Ayers.

Y. M. C. A. GYMNASTICS.

Among those that participated in the contest last Tuesday night it will prove of interest to know that Mr. Sanford Hall secured the highest number of points, being 293. Mr. Fred Smith came second with a score of 291, and Mr. Frank Trollope third with a score of 284, and the highest in the fence vault. The contest was profitable for several reasons. It proved that all had increased their vital capacity since entering the classes and second, it proved that several of the boys only need practice to become expert in certain of the events.

YACHTING.

Now comes the startling statement that the United States have no right to hold the America's cup. The information is given by H. P. Simonton, secretary of the Chicago yacht club, and a New York attorney. It seems that the deed of gift of the cup to the New York yacht club forbids time allowance. The Shamrock II by being forced to give time allowance, lost two races. Sir Thomas Lipton could appeal.

TRAPPED THE THIEF

HOW ONE DETECTIVE WON A REPUTATION FOR CLEVERNESS.

He Got the Clew While He Was Asleep in the Station House That Resulted in the Arrest and Conviction of the Criminal.

"I was just thinking," said one of a party of old time detectives, "just thinking of how, away back in '00, Ernest Fischer fooled all the other detectives in Newark and cleared up the mystery of a series of house robberies in the upper part of the city. It seems that a happy thought which solved the problem came to him one night when he awoke suddenly from a sound sleep. He couldn't rest after it, and when he got up in the morning, several hours ahead of his usual time, he told me about it. Fischer was an old fashioned German, with an active mind and an ability to see into and reason out things in a remarkable manner. In this way he earned a splendid reputation as a detective.

"There was only one police station in Newark at that time. It served as headquarters and everything else, and from it the whole city had to be covered. What is now the best residential part of the Eighth ward was then nothing but open fields and woodlands. Just before that time Cyrus R. Woolson and a number of others realized the future of that section, invested in large tracts of land there and built and occupied quite a few houses.

"Soon after the houses were taken possession of the police began to get frequent reports of robberies in that section. Detectives and ordinary policemen were put on the matter, but they accomplished nothing. The robberies continued and became so frequent as to cause the police department much worry and the residents of the new settlement in the Eighth ward much alarm.

"Every policeman who did duty in that part of the city was given special instructions and practically was made a detective, while the entire regular detective force was told to devote all the time possible to the series of robberies. Even this resulted in nothing, however.

"No one had worked harder on the mysterious affair than Detective Fischer, but while the others discussed it and ventured guesses and theories he said little.

"'The Dutchman's doing a lot of powerful head work,' was the way his fellow detectives sized up Fischer; but they didn't think it would amount to anything. It came his night to sleep in the station. Before he went to bed he was discussing the Eighth ward robberies with me. He was worried but not hopeless of catching the robbers, as most others were. As he started for bed he laughingly exclaimed, 'We catch him yet!'

"To my surprise, Fischer came down at once in the middle of the night. 'I can't sleep,' he declared. 'Maybe you think I'm crazy on this robbery business, eh? Well, I ain't, and tonight I catch the robber. You don't believe me—what? Well, I get him just the same.'

"'What are you going to do, Ernest?' I asked.

"'Do?' he queried in surprise. 'Just wait until I arrest the mason.'

"Then I laughed heartily. The mason to whom he referred was a well known young man who worked steadily at his trade in and around Newark and who lived in Belleville. He had for some time been working in New York, and every morning had come down from Belleville with his white canvas bag filled with tools thrown across his shoulder. He passed through the newly settled part of the Eighth ward and took a train in Newark. Detectives and policemen knew him and spoke to him nearly every morning. They even asked him to watch out for suspicious characters while on the way from his home to the railroad station. To suspect him of wrongdoing seemed preposterous, and when the other detectives and policemen heard what Fischer had told me they, too, laughed heartily.

"But Fischer didn't propose to be turned aside from his sudden belief about the mason. 'I was many times thinking I would like to see the tools what he carries in that bag,' he said, 'and now I will see 'em. When I was asleep, I could see that bag with more than tools in it. I will arrest the mason, and if he is innocent he won't be mad.'

"Fischer's superior officers were opposed to his arresting the young mason because of what the detective had seen in a dream, but he pleaded his case well, and, as it was every one's desire to catch the thief at whatever risk, he was told to go ahead. The next morning Fischer went to the railroad station. The mason was there as usual waiting for his train. He said such a cheery good morning and seemed so innocent looking that for a few minutes Fischer hesitated to act. Finally, however, he stepped up to the mason and said quietly, 'Leband, we want to see you at headquarters.' The young fellow became indignant and protested vehemently, but Fischer insisted, and they went to the station together.

"All the detectives had come in, and when the mason's tool bag was opened in their presence nearly every one but Fischer almost collapsed. The bag was filled with plunder from the burglarized Eighth ward houses. Fischer didn't exult over his official companions. He simply remarked to the desk sergeant:

"'Lock him up. I had a good dream—what? Anyhow, I was thinking for a good while I would like to see what was in that nice young mason's bag.'

"It developed later that the mason had been employed in the construction of nearly every one of the little colony of Eighth ward houses and was thus familiar with their interiors. He pleaded guilty to some of the charges and was tried and convicted on others, and a long term of imprisonment followed. After that Fischer's reputation as a detective was established and his opinion and theories were much sought after by his brother officers."

Pearls in the Fire.

Pearls are carbonate of lime, the same substance of which the shell of the oyster is composed, and are identical with the "mother of pearl," which forms the interior of the pearl oyster shell. A high temperature will reduce any pearl to common lime, and in the heat of an ordinary fire a pearl will completely lose its identity and become a pinch of white powder. All precious stones are injured by a high temperature. The diamond, being almost pure carbon, is completely consumed at a temperature somewhat greater than white heat.

Why Catarrh is Fatal.

Because it pours a flood of poisons into the circulation that saps strength and digestion so materially, as to render the body incapable of resisting disease and consumption is the result. Catarrh is quickly cured by Catarrhozone, a fragrant germ-destroying vapour that goes to the root of the disease. It soothes and heals the inflamed mucous surfaces, clears the head and throat and positively never fails to cure Bronchitis, Asthma and Catarrh. Nothing is so good for diseases of the respiratory organs as Catarrhozone. Large outfit, $1; small size, 25c. Druggists, or by mail from Polson & Co., Kingston, Ont.

A PUMPKIN PIE SHORTAGE.

There is trouble in the country,
There is trouble in the town,
And 'tis just the sort of trouble
That won't at our bidding down,
For the grangers sadly tell us
That the pumpkin crop is shy,
And that means there'll be a shortage
In the toothsome pumpkin pie.

Many autumns has this viand
Been a feature of each feast,
Tickling palates of all eaters,
From the highest to the least,
It has held a place of honor
Next the famed Thanksgiving bird,
And on all occasions festal
Everywhere its praise was heard.

We began to think about it
Very early in the spring;
Oft we talked about the pleasure
That the autumn days would bring.
Many times our mouths have watered
As we conjured up the scene
Of our teeth so slowly closing
On the pumpkin pie between.

But, alas, for expectations
Of what autumn had in store,
And, alas, for plans of feasting
Based on pumpkin pie galore,
For the crop has badly fooled us,
And our sorrow is profound
As we face this pumpkin shortage,
Not enough to go around.

Of the cause there's no use talking;
That is neither here nor there;
We're confronted by conditions,
And for theories don't care.
We are troubled by this shortage,
And we're thinking, as we sigh,
Life is not so much worth living
When one can't get pumpkin pie.

Extreme Case of Nervousness.

Female Weakness and Exhaustion—Had a Very Painful Operation—Was Pale and Weak and Fainted Often—Doctors Failed to Help her.

There is scarcely a limit to the sufferings which women endure when their nervous system become run down and give way beneath the burdens which they are forced to bear. There are ills peculiar to women, which in nine cases out of ten are the result of a low state of vitality and a depletion of nerve force. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food cures women of their ills, irregularities and weaknesses by thoroughly restoring the vigour of the nerves.

Every woman will read with interest the following letter from a lady who has been cured of a serious illness by Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. She says the testimonials she reads are not half strong enough.

Mrs. Benjamin Hatfield, Hillyard street, St. John, N.B., writes: "For three years I was a sufferer from extreme nervousness and female weakness and found it necessary to undergo a very painful operation. I was pale and weak, had no appetite and would sometimes faint two or three times a day. For seven weeks I was under the doctor's care but he seemed unable to help me. Despairing of recovery, I took the advice of a friend, who told me that Dr. Chase's Nerve Food would build me up and make me strong and well again. After four months' use of this preparation I found myself greatly improved, but continued the treatment for one year, using in all sixteen boxes. I have been blessed with a young daughter now, and believe that I am as strong and well as ever in my life. As a result I cannot say too much in favour of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. It has performed a complete and thorough cure in my case, and I am healthier and fleshier than I have been for years. The testimonials I see are not half strong enough. I tell my friends and neighbours about it, and many of them join me in pronouncing Dr. Chase's Nerve Food the most effective restorative obtainable. Desiring that other sufferers may benefit by my happy experience with Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, I willingly give you permission to use this testimonial."

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is an up-to-date, scientific preparation of most extraordinary merit. It has proven itself the most effective nerve restorative of the age. It is certain to benefit everyone who uses it, because it forms new red corpuscles in the blood and creates new nerve force. It is especially efficacious in the cures of female ills and weaknesses; 50 cents a box, 6 boxes for $2.50. At all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

THE SUSPECTED CUSHION.

Embarrassing Experience of an English Girl in a German City.

A friend of mine had a most embarrassing experience in Freiburg-im-Breisgau. She had received a notice announcing the arrival of a package from England and requesting her presence at the headquarters of the octroi. The lady with whom she was staying was unable to accompany her, and Miss G., being in a hurry for the ball dress which the parcel contained, started off boldly alone notwithstanding her exceedingly limited knowledge of German. After keeping her waiting some considerable time one of the employees deigned to hunt up the package.

She watched the unceremonious handling of her dainty gown with inward qualms as he shook out the folds. Suddenly a vivid blush overspread her face as she saw the man examining a small cushion which was sewed under the back drapery of the skirt. Ladies who recall the fashions of some years ago will remember the article in question. The presence of two students in the office and the evident interest they were taking in her affairs did not lessen her embarrassment either. Had the cushion been stuffed with all manner of contraband goods instead of innocent horsehair she could not have felt more uncomfortable. Every word of German seemed to fade from her memory, and not a syllable could she utter to allay the official's suspicions. The burning flush deepened as he ripped open the cushion and exposed the horsehair to the public gaze, and an intense longing took possession of her to box the ears of the two students, who were in convulsions of suppressed laughter.

"I never felt such a fool in all my life," she said to me when recounting her adventure, "and if those two fellows are at th. all I don't know what I shall do." I believe they were there, but Miss G., who was a very pretty girl and always had hosts of partners, managed to enjoy herself amazingly, all the same.

DOCTORS AT SEA.

Many a man has to abandon his desk because of neuralgia. The torture sometimes is almost unbearable. E. C. Dean, city editor of the Daily British Whig, Kingston, Ont., suffered with neuralgia in the head for twelve months. Six physicians failed to relieve him, but three bottles of Dr. Hall's Rheumatic Cure completely cured him. This great blood purifier is put up in bottles containing ten days' treatment. Price 50 cents at all drug stores or The Dr. Hall Medicine Co., Kingston, Ont.

A Joke on Roosevelt.

When Theodore Roosevelt was governor of New York, one of his customs was to assemble the heads of state departments in the executive chamber once a week in a sort of a cabinet meeting for the purpose of discussing state department matters. At several of these meetings the civil service law came up for discussion, and on all such occasions the jokers would have not a little fun with the governor because of his views growing out of his previous connection with the national civil service commission.

One of the governor's last cabinet meetings was like "Hamlet" without Hamlet, Mr. Roosevelt being in the west. All the other state officers were present. Secretary of State McDonough in a dignified manner rose and offered the following, which was adopted without a dissenting voice:

"Whereas, Governor Theodore Roosevelt has gone to Chicago, and

"Whereas, Oyster Bay has gone Democratic; therefore be it

"Resolved, That the civil service law be suspended for one year."

Pimples and Blotches.

how unsightly, sometimes disgusting, mortifying to the sufferer and unpleasant to all. An evidence of poor blood and lowered vitality of the eliminating organs. JOE AN ABLE PARROT

THE ODD PRANKS PLAYED BY THIS ACCOMPLISHED BIRD.

A Visitor Fooled by Imitation Love-making—An Irritated and Bewildered Teamster—An Elopement Spoiled by Another Parrot.

Joe is an African gray parrot supposed to be about thirty years old. These stories about him are told by his owner:

A friend called one evening and, finding that Mr. T., the parrot's owner, was out, but expected to return shortly, went into the parlor to wait for him. The visitor was left alone, or supposed he was, but something must have happened, as the slamming of the screen door announced his rather hasty departure.

After a time the visitor returned and, upon being questioned regarding his unceremonious departure, said that he heard the most violent lovemaking in the adjoining room.

"The young people were so greatly occupied that they seemed unaware of my presence," he said. "I coughed, made a noise with my chair and dropped a book, but all to no avail, so I thought the best thing for me was to take a walk.

"'Dear Joe, kiss me again, Joe,' some one said, and then the kissing—and such kissing, cooing and lovemaking—was more than I could bear with composure."

"But replied the host, "there are no young people in the house. Our parrot has been fooling you."

"Impossible!" the visitor said. "I was told that I was alone, but before the servant left I was invited to 'walk right in and sit down,' and 'Are you warm?' I was asked, and I had scarcely replied when I was laughed at; then there were two other distinct voices. Besides, the kissing and cooing were altogether too real."

"You are not the first to be fooled by the bird," Mr. T. replied. "Only a few days ago a nearby plumber, whose name happened to be Joe, called to do a small job of repairing, and the work was begun before I left in the morning, but the man left suddenly, the work was unfinished, and no explanations were given.

"The next morning I called at the shop and took the workman to task and was told that unless I could make my servants behave another plumber would have to finish the job. He said that when he began work he was called to an adjoining room only to be laughed at by the servant, who kept out of sight and called out:

"'You old rascal,' and 'You're a beaut, Joe; you are,' and when he answered she cried 'Sick 'em!' and guyed him all the time.

"Well, you can understand I had hard work to make the man believe that it was only a parrot, but he felt cheap enough at being so badly fooled.

"Sometimes Joe is very embarrassing. A very dear old lady friend visits us who is somewhat of an invalid and has rather a distressing cough and other peculiarities that can be plainly heard, all of which Joe imitates in the precise tones, with more than natural emphasis, sneezing and blowing his nose and coughing distressingly.

"He counts, repeats the alphabet, spells many words, whistles, knocks on his perch like some one at the door and then enters into conversation.

"'Why, come right in; sit down; nice day. Are you cold?' he says until he has had enough, and then he says, 'Goodby; come again.' Sometimes we have callers that Joe seems to dislike, and he will keep on with his goodbys until people hurry off, and in these cases he never invites them to come again.

"If there is a doubtful statement made, Joe is sure to cry 'Rats!' with such volume as sometimes to upset the composure of the company. He drives a horse with all the spirit of the horse trainer and seems to enjoy it. You can fairly see the race.

"Last year when we moved to our summer cottage Joe was sent on a load of goods instead of being taken with us on the cars, as usual. Joe's cage was carefully secured on the seat beside the driver.

"We arrived at the cottage several hours beyond the customary time for the arrival of the wagon and became anxious about our goods, but particularly about Joe. Our fears were not relieved when the wagon drew in sight with the parrot cage missing from the driver's seat, and there was a chorus of 'Where's Joe?'

"With face flushed with anger, the driver replied: 'Drat the baste, or burd or whatever he is, not a thing cud I do wid him. You know yourself the load I had on, an' it was all me horses cud pull, an' when everything would be goin' well the burd would scream: "Whoa! Back up!" I thought meself it was me own voice, an' so did me horses, an' it's a wonder we're here yit. That burd is possessed. He has a divil in him. I thought we'd not git here tonight. So I buried the burd wid boxes on the back of the load an' covered him wid a blanket, an', with all respects to you, sor, I hope he is aslape, an' may he niver wake!'

"Joe tells when he is cold or wants anything, and, above all, nothing annoys him so much as to call him 'Polly.' When we put him on the porch, the children, of course, never fail to 'Polly' him, so that now when Joe sees a child he remarks in various tones of children's voices: 'Pretty Polly! Polly wants a cracker!' And that seems to be Joe's estimate of their intelligence.

"A neighbor who had doubtingly heard wonderful stories of Joe took the bird to keep after a serious fire we had one night. When the family were seated for breakfast, Joe in a very sad voice remarked:

"'We are all burned out.'

"The neighbor said to me later, 'I will believe anything I am told about Joe now.'

"It is a fact that not long ago a parrot belonging to a family living not many miles from New York overheard a plot in which one misguided member of the family was to take part, an elopement. While the whole family was seated about the dinner table that evening the parrot repeated enough of the conversation to mortify one person present who was saved from disgrace by this sagacious bird."

Shipping Oranges.

A great many California oranges are shipped east in what are known as "tramp" cars. There is no fruit the price of which fluctuates as much as does that of oranges, and thousands of carloads of oranges are therefore started east with some uncertain destination. The car may be consigned to Kansas City, but in the meantime there are agents watching in the east for the best markets, and on telegraphic information the car may be ordered on to Chicago or New York.

Dodd's Kidney Pills

are the only medicine that will cure Diabetes. Like Bright's Disease this disease was incurable until Dodd's Kidney Pills cured it. Doctors themselves confess that without Dodd's Kidney Pills they are powerless against Diabetes. Dodd's Kidney Pills are the first medicine that ever cured Diabetes. Imitations—box, name and pill, are advertised to do so, but the medicine that does cure is Dodd's Kidney Pills. Dodd's Kidney Pills are fifty cents a box at all druggists.

Diabetes

TORONTO LIVE STOCK.

The run of live stock at the cattle market was light, 61 car loads all told, composed of 737 cattle, 1080 hogs, 1436 sheep and lambs, 20 calves, 1200 turkeys.

The quality of fat cattle prepared for Xmas market was fairly good, but too few to supply the demand, there being many dealers from outside points looking for their Xmas supplies; some of these dealers failed to get what they wanted.

The inferior and common grades of fat cattle were well represented, altho there was no great demand for them, but they all sold, some of them at very low prices.

Away Down in Mexico.

there grow two plants known and used before Columbus discovered America. One is a specific for inflamed membranes and the other a certain cure for bronchitis. Combined with Tar, Tamarac, Tolu and other herbs they go to make up Four T's, the only positive cure known to-day for whooping cough and bronchitis. A 25c bottle cures an ordinary cough in 24 hours. Sold at Ormond & Walsh's drug store.

In the Jungle.

Mrs. Bear—Oh, Mrs. Snake, won't you please shake your rattle? Baby's so fretful I can't quiet him!

The New Neighbor.

Mrs. Smith—Now, if I can be of any assistance to you, Mrs. Jones, don't hesitate to call on me.

Mrs. Jones—Well, seeing that you have been so kind as to offer, those windows need washing pretty bad and there's some curtains to wash and perhaps your boys could clean up this yard and beat some carpets for me, and I think I'd like to borrow some flour and sugar and a carving knife and a little butter.

The Harmattan or Withering Wind.

The name of harmattan has been given a periodical wind which blows from the interior of Africa toward the Atlantic during the three months of December, January and February. It sets in with a fog or dry haze which sometimes conceals the sun for whole weeks together. Every plant, every bit of grass and leaf, in its course is withered as though it had been seared by heat from a furnace; often within an hour after it begins to blow green grass is dry enough to burn like paper. Even the hardened natives lose all of the skin on exposed parts during the prevalence of this withering wind.

Something That Did.

"What did you see in Chicago that particularly impressed you during your visit there, Mr. Globetrott?"

"Well, its parks, its buildings, its crowds, and so on."

"That's the old story. Didn't you see any particular thing that made a permanent impression—that stuck, as it were?"

"Oh, yes! At the stockyards I saw a man that stuck 500 pigs a day."

Utterly Languid.

"Did you know," said the man who is always worrying, "that the coal supply will be exhausted in a few million years?"

"Well," answered the friend with the world weary face, "can you blame it? You would be exhausted too if you were worked for a million years, wouldn't you? Why express surprise at so simple a phenomenon?"

CURE SICK HEADACHE.

Perfect Health

Is within the reach of almost every woman. The weakness, nervousness and irritability from which so many women suffer is in general due to disease of the delicate womanly organism. When the disease is cured the general health is re-established.

Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes weak women strong and sick women well. It promotes regularity, dries disagreeable and enfeebling drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness. When these diseases are cured, headache, backache, nervousness and weakness are cured also.

"I was very weak and nervous when I commenced taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and 'Golden Medical Discovery,' about a year ago," writes Mrs. M. E. Everetts, of 89 Oxford Street, Woodstock, Ont. "I had been suffering for seven long months, and had taken medicine from a physician all the time, but it seemed to make me feel much worse. My stomach was so bad (as my doctor told me), and my nerves were in such a state that I would start at the least noise. I felt irritable at all times; was not able to do any of my own housework; had to keep help all the time. How I suffered God and myself alone know. I was greatly discouraged when I commenced taking your medicines, but the first bottle seemed to help me. I took five bottles of 'Favorite Prescription,' two of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' also two vials of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. I can highly recommend these medicines to all who suffer as I did. I never had better health than I now enjoy, and it is all owing to Dr. Pierce's medicines."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, in paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of customs and mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

THE NEW SLEEVES.

Increase of Fullness Held in Skillfully by Tucks.

The new fall sleeve shows an increase of material in its construction. This material is corded, tucked or gauged to fit in closely at the top, and any fullness of a baggy description occurs either at the elbow or between it and the wrist.

Silk coats with plenty of chiffon frills around the neck and front and under-sleeves of the same soft texture are now being shown in the big shops. Sable capes are again relieved with rich lace. Even the plainest gowns are made elegant with coats or capes of this rich fur. One reason doubtless why it will ever be the fur of the well dressed woman is that it cannot be imitated successfully even in this age of skillful imitations. It is only the real article which is worth buying.

Boleros made of two kinds of fur promise to be among the winter novelties.

In today's cut we have a charming house gown made of old rose taffeta and trimmed with a wide irregular edge of black chantilly lace. The waist is made with a square decolletage which can be worn with or without a lace guimpe. There is a bertha of the old rose mousseline de soie edged with the black lace. The sleeves are also of the mousseline de soie gathered at the seams and finished with a black lace cuff. The narrow crush belt is of black panne. The skirt is cut in four flounces edged with black chantilly applique.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

"Man is Filled With Misery."

This is not true of all men. The well, sound of lung, clear of eye, buoyant with health, are not miserable, whatever may be their social condition. To be well is to be happy, and we can all be well by getting and keeping our bodies in a healthy state. Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil will help all to do this.

EIGHT CONVINCING REASONS . . .

WHY YOU SHOULD INSURE IN

THE IMPERIAL LIFE ASSURANCE CO'Y OF CANADA.

1. It is a purely Canadian Company, having all its funds invested in Canadian securities, and transacting business only in Canada.

2. It maintains the largest Government Deposit of any Canadian Life Insurance Company.

3. It maintains relatively the strongest policy reserves of any Canadian Life Insurance Company.

4. Its past record — the greatest guarantee of the future — has been unparalleled in Canadian life insurance.

5. Its policy contract is one of the most liberal issued, consistent with safety and equity.

6. It has a Capital of $1,000,000, which makes policy-holders' security unquestionable. At the same time, the assured is practically in the same position regarding profits as if he held a policy in a mutual company, the Imperial's charter providing that at least 90 per cent. of all profits shall be divided amongst policy-holders.

7. For every $100 of liability to policy-holders it holds $180 of securely invested assets. These assets are all of the highest order, and will bear the closest scrutiny.

8. An Imperial policy never depreciates in value, but, on the contrary, is constantly becoming more valuable. It is the most valuable estate you can leave behind you.

THE METHODIST MISSIONS.

The Work of the Church for the Year.

Over a Quarter of a Million of Dollars Raised for the Spread of the Gospel Good Outlook in Japan.

The seventy-seventh annual report of the missionary society of the Methodist church in Canada, and which embraces the year from June, 1900, to June, 1901, is just published. It gives evidence of the great success which has attended the society since its formation in 1824, when it had only two or three missionaries and an annual income of $300. The society has now 530 missionaries, of which 421 are domestic missions, and the remainder are French, Indian, Chinese and Japanese. The missions in Japan are twenty-nine in number and on them there are thirty-four missionaries, twenty-three native assistants and two teachers. The membership numbers 2,355. During the past few months a revival has greatly quickened the Japanese church and 6,000 persons are reported to have been awakened so that their numbers are likely to show a large increase next year. There are sixty-two Indian missions, which are found in all the provinces of the dominion though, as might be expected, they are chiefly found in British Columbia, where there are sixty-two, and in Manitoba, where there are sixteen. The number of Indians in church membership is 4,952. The total number of paid agents employed by the society is 618, and the total membership is 45,882. The finances of the society show an increase from all the usual sources, except that of legacies, which in the nature of things, is an uncertain element. The total income for the year is $270,312, which includes $44,597 from the Indian department of the Dominion Government for Indian schools, chiefly industrial. This is a net increase from the contributions of the churches of $8,257. The report shows a growing liberality on the part of the churches. There are several contributions of $500 and upwards. The largest contribution is that of Alexander Fraser and family, Ottawa, who are credited with $900.

"THEATRICAL STEELYARDS."

Interesting Relics of David Garrick in the Harvard Library.

That the proverb, "There's nothing new under the sun," applies to the theater, like everything else, is shown by two old cartoons that form part of a collection of over 200 prints illustrating the life of the great English actor David Garrick which may be seen in the Harvard library. One of the cartoons is called "The Theatrical Steelyards of 1750" and signalises the success of pantomime at Garrick's Drury Lane theater after an unsuccessful period of more seriously written plays—the never ending struggle, that is, between the "legitimate" drama, so called, and the theatrical performance frankly intended to kill time as amusingly as possible. The other reproaches Garrick's desertion of the "legitimate" for spectacular performances in which, even in the eighteenth century, strange as it may seem to those who imagine trick scenery and spectacular effects to be a production of modern times, costumes and stage carpentry were of more importance than dramatic art.

In "The Theatrical Steelyards," or balances, Garrick is depicted as weighing down his contemporary rivals, who are vainly striving to pull down one arm of the balance while Garrick sits triumphantly on the other, and Harlequin dances gleefully in the foreground. The artist is evidently in sympathy with the actor's success. In the other cartoon, however, the artist is in a different mood and represents the great actor as turning from the muses of Tragedy and Comedy to embrace the friendship of mechanics and costumers, one of whom bears the significant placard, "Processions Forever." Roscius, the great Roman actor, was the popular name for Garrick, and the cartoon is labeled:

Behold the Muses Roscius sue in vain.
Taylors and Carpenters usurp their reign.

The same picture, with the name of almost any modern actor substituted for Roscius, could be readily used to illustrate the ups and downs of modern stage history.

Disinfecting Rooms.

It is not sufficient in cleaning rooms that have been occupied by persons sick with contagious diseases to simply expose them to disinfecting vapors. The floors and woodwork should be thoroughly scoured with a disinfecting fluid, and the walls and ceiling should also be carefully cleaned. If the latter are covered with paper, nothing short of its removal will be effectual, as wall paper has unquestionably the power of absorbing contagious matters in a way that prevents the ordinary processes of disinfection reaching them. This is all the more imperative where there are several thicknesses of paper plastered on the walls, for then the deeper layers are beyond the possibility of being cleansed, and the fermentation and decomposition that is apt to take place in such quantities of paste in warm weather becomes an additional source of danger.

The Tertiary Epoch.

The so called mesozoic epoch was brought to a close by the cataclysm due to contraction and consequent crumbling of the earth's crust which upheaved the Rocky mountains and Andes on this hemisphere and the Alps, Pyrenees, Balkans and Himalayas on the other side of the world. Incidentally to this tremendous alteration in the face of the earth all the giant reptiles were wiped out of existence. This event opened what is called today the tertiary epoch. It is in the tertiary epoch that we live now. At the beginning of this epoch the only reptiles which survived were the snakes, lizards, turtles and crocodiles, all of them resembling closely those of their kind which exist today.

Care of the Hair.

To have and to preserve a healthy head of hair requires little more than washing, brushing and combing. As the hair is nourished from the roots attempts to restore it to healthfulness by pomades are useless. Wire brushes are rather rough on the hair. Preference should be given to those with moderately stiff, graduated bristles. Combs should be supple, with teeth of two sizes. Both brushes and combs should be kept scrupulously clean by a bath in soda water twice a week. The head should be shampooed once a month at least.

At Salta, in Argentina, a list of boys and girls who have failed to attend school regularly is published in the newspapers.

Ostrich feathers are an article of import from Argentine Republic to this country.

SOUTH HARVEY.

Mr. Jos. Stevenson's new house is finished on the inside and will get its outside coat in the spring. It is likely to be something new, a cement plaster on lath. The cement will be of sufficient thickness, and when there is a good foundation and a well-constructed frame, the cement is said to stand well, and of course makes a tight wall. If he does not decide for cement it will be brick.

Mr. Alex. Thompson is going to build a comfortable home next year, and a very large one, too. It will be 22 x 40, with a kitchen 18 x 24, the whole building two stories high. Mr. Robert Wright, who has just completed his work at Stevenson's, is to take Mr. Thompson's in hand.

ADVICE ABOUT SHAVING.

A Dull Razor More Liable to Gash You Than a Sharp One.

"How long have you been shaving yourself?" asked a young man during lunch time at one of the Herald square restaurants of his companion, whose face bore marks indicative of an encounter with an angry feline.

"One consecutive time, and I think it will be the last."

"You're too easily discouraged."

"Easily? Why, man, I must have shed about a quart of what they call ruby in prize ring parlance."

"Perhaps, but that was probably because your razor was dull."

"Dull, you say? Why, the thing found its way into my physiognomy with a readiness that was absolutely astonishing."

"Only imaginary. It may sound paradoxical, but you will cut yourself a dozen times with a dull razor to once with a sharp one, and then most likely that once will be due to a pimple or some other excrescence."

"Perhaps you'll elucidate the paradox for my benefit, then?"

"You see, it's this way. If a razor be sharp, it will cut right through the hair, while if it is dull it will catch and even in experienced hands will turn and enter the skin. As a matter of fact, a razor's edge, when the razor is held nearly flat, as it should be, never actually touches the skin. It is only when it turns in the hand of the one using it that it comes in contact with the face. Perhaps you didn't strop your razor the right way."

"Most likely not, though I worked at it hard enough."

"Doubtless, but in the wrong direction. You have probably seen pictures of a razor's edge highly magnified under the microscope. It had teeth like a saw, hadn't it, only more irregular? Well, it is these teeth that catch hold of the hair and cut it when the razor is in use. In order to do this, however, they must be properly set. When you attempt your next shave, just notice whether you give the razor a sliding motion forward—that is, from the heel to the tip or backward from the tip to the heel. In the former case the microscopic teeth should be set toward the tip and in the latter toward the heel, and to do this you must strop your razor in the direction opposite to that in which you shave."

A SCOUTING SQUADRON

Lieut. Casey Callaghan Will Command Canadian Scouts.

COL. EVANS OFF FOR HALIFAX

Enormous Amount of Work Performed by Commander of Second Mounted Rifles—Names of the Eleven Additional Officers Forwarded to the War Office—The Field Hospital—Recruiting Orders.

Ottawa, Dec. 17.—It appears that one whole squadron of the Canadian Mounted Rifles, and not merely ten men, will act as scouts under the command of Lieut. Casey Callaghan formerly of Toronto. The story that ten special scouts were to be chosen arose from the fact that ten pack-saddles have been ordered for the squadron of scouts. The pack-saddles placed on led horses will enable the men on scouting duty to take along three or four days' provisions per man. The western contingent passed through the city about midnight. Col. Evans leaves here at 4 o'clock this afternoon for Halifax. The commander of the Mounted Rifles has performed an enormous amount of work in connection with the organization of the force, and has been haunted by newspaper men anxious for the latest news, but has, notwithstanding, preserved his wonted geniality. The War Office has not yet approved of the names of the officers cabled over a week ago. Yesterday the names of those recommended for the eleven additional commissions were submitted to His Excellency. Col. Macdonald stated last night that the bulk of the stores intended for the regiment had been shipped to Halifax. The balance will be sent with the least possible delay. It is learned that the Victoria, one of the transports ordered to Halifax by the Imperial authorities, belongs to the Leland Line.

The Field Hospital.

If the Imperial authorities accept the offer of a field hospital to accompany the Mounted Rifles Dr. A. N. Worthington of Sherbrooke will go in charge as Surgeon-Colonel. The other officers will consist of a Major, a Captain and two Lieutenants. The hospital will have accommodation for 100 men. The transport will consist of 28 horses and eight waggons. All necessary medical supplies and medical comforts will be taken along. Dr. Worthington is an experienced and capable man, and served in South Africa with the Canadian Artillery. Lieut. Callaghan, who is on his way down with the recruits from western Canada, will have charge of the scouts to accompany the Second Mounted Rifles. Callaghan was eighteen months in South Africa, part of which time was spent with the late Major Howard's scouts. He behaved with great gallantry, and was frequently mentioned in despatches. Capt. J. O. Ruggles of the 75th Regiment, Lunenburg, N.S., despairing of getting a commission in the Mounted Rifles, enlisted as a private, and has been made a sergeant. Now that more officers are going, he wants to be given a commission.

The names of the eleven new officers have been sent to His Excellency for transmission to the War Office.

Recruiting in Ontario.

Recruiting for the second of the two additional squadrons added to the Mounted Rifles will take place as follows:

London, Quota 15, 28th Dec.; recruiting officer, D.O.C.; medical officer, Major C. W. Belton, A.M.S.

Hamilton—Quota 10, 28th Dec.; recruiting officer, Major V. A. S. Williams, R.C.D.; medical officer, Major G. S. Ramie, A.M.S.

Toronto—Quota 30, 26th and 28th Dec.; recruiting officer, D.O.C.; medical officer, officers in medical charge of Stanley Barracks.

Peterboro—Quota 8, 28th Dec.; recruiting officer, Col. F. S. Leonard, C.B., R.C.D.; medical officer, Surg.-Major T. W. H. Young, 3rd Dragoons.

Ottawa—Quota 10, 28th Dec.; recruiting officer, Lt.-Col. W. G. Hurdman; medical officer, Capt. C. W. F. Gorrell, A.M.S.

Kingston—Quota 13, 26th Dec.; recruiting officer District Officer Commanding.

MURDER OR SUICIDE?

W. G. Urlin Found Dead in a Hen Coop at Dutton Early on Sunday—Brother-in-Law's Revolver by Him.

Dutton, Dec. 17.—At about eight o'clock Sunday morning William G. Urlin was found dead in a hen coop in the rear of his residence. The circumstances were such that Dr. Ling, coroner, deemed it necessary to hold an inquest, which was opened yesterday morning.

Deceased was 48 years old, and was at one time a member of the firm of Urlin Bros., who carried on a general store in this place. He was out of employment for a few weeks, and, it is said to have become despondent. Nothing was seen of him by his own family after Saturday evening, until his body was found in the hen coop.

A peculiar circumstance is that two bullets were found back of the right ear. Some physicians say that a man could not shoot himself twice. Other remarkable facts are that the skin was not burned, indicating that the shots were not shot at close range, and no shots were heard, although the family were up all night.

A revolver belonging to Albert Hertel, his brother-in-law, was found close by where the body was lying when found. Three chambers were empty, and two were loaded when the revolver was found. The deceased leaves a wife and four children. A. D. Urlin, who keeps the Queen's Hotel, is a brother.

The inquest was opened last evening before Coroner Ling of Dutton, County Crown Attorney Donahue was present to represent the Crown, C. St. Clair Leitch of Dutton, the family, and W. L. McLaws of St. Thomas. Private parties. After hearing the evidence of Albert Hertel, who found the body, the inquest was adjourned till next Monday.

Before the funeral, however, a postmortem will be held. There was an insurance of $2,000 on the life of the deceased.

STABBED 50 PERSONS.

Curious Attacks on Pedestrians in the Streets of Kiel.

Kiel, Dec. 17.—The curious and unaccountable attacks on pedestrians in the streets of Kiel at night have now assumed an acute phase.

For some time past an unknown individual has stabbed unoffending women, under cover of darkness, until it became dangerous for any female to be about after nightfall. Over 50 were injured, more or less seriously.

Within the last few days the attacks on women have ceased, and men have been the victims.

An extraordinary thing about the mystery is that some marvelously sharp instrument must be used, because the men — even the strong and healthy men—do not seem to know that they are wounded until several minutes after the attack. They notice the loss of blood, and then find that they have been stabbed in three or four places.

A sailor who had been thus attacked caught his assailant and soundly thrashed him, only to find, after he had let him go, that he had been thrice stabbed.

The police have been reinforced, and several Berlin detectives have arrived here but the miscreant has not yet been discovered.

Altogether it is computed that over 80 persons have been stabbed.

Applying the Crimes Act.

Dublin, Dec. 17.—Large numbers of constabulary have been drafted to important points in Mayo and Roscommon, and a proclamation, placing both counties under the Crimes Act, is expected to be issued immediately. The influx of extra policemen is unprecedented since the days of Capt. Boycott. Nationalist members of Parliament and United Irish Leaguers have been most active in Mayo and Roscommon recently, preaching forcible resistance to the authorities. Dublin's reception of Messrs. Redmond, McHugh and O'Donnell, on their return from the United States, will take the form of a torchlight procession and addresses at the Mansion House.

Truly a Narrow Escape.

Brockville, Dec. 17.—Mrs. Henry Warren and her two daughters narrowly escaped being run over by a train on the Brockville and Westport Railway last night. They were driving along the road which crosses the railway track just east of Newboro. They were on the crossing before they noticed the train, and jumped from the rig just in time to save themselves. The horse had a leg cut off, and the cutter was demolished.

Judge Ferguson Fell.

Woodstock, Dec. 17.—His Lordship Judge Ferguson fell heavily when alighting from a hack at the court house yesterday afternoon. He had just stepped from the hack, preparatory to proceeding to the court house to open court, when he fell on the icy sidewalk. The judge, who is a stout, elderly man, was rather badly shaken up, but not hurt.

Forty Smallpox Cases.

Windsor, Dec. 17.—Dr. Bryce is here. He has discovered 40 well-developed cases of smallpox in the townships of Dover and Tilbury. A number of cases have been reported from Walpole Island, among the Indians.

A "DOUBTING THOMAS"

Marconi Replies to Wizard of Menlo Park on His New Role.

TELEGRAPH CO. CLAIM MONOPOLY

Serves Marconi With Notice to Leave Newfoundland—Discoverer of Wireless Telegraphy Pleased With This Little Attention—Maintains That His Results Are Absolutely Genuine—Cabled to King.

London, Dec. 17.—A cable despatch has been received here from St. John's, Nfld., announcing that Signor Marconi will sail for England Dec. 19. At the headquarters here of the inventor of wireless telegraphy, it was said yesterday by the officials in charge, that the experiment at St. John's, so far as they know, are all over. They do not expect to hear any further details until Signor Marconi arrives in London. It was pointed out that storms on both sides of the Atlantic had seriously interfered with the work.

Absolutely Genuine.

St. John's, Nfld., Dec. 19.—Owing to fog and rain, Marconi was unable to swing his kites in mid-air yesterday. He went to Cape Spear to determine on the fitness of that promontary for the wireless telegraphy station. The inventor will use a mast 200 feet high.

Marconi, while at Cape Spear, on being telephoned the newspaper reports that Thomas Edison discredited the announcement of signals having been received here last week from Cornwall, replied that the signals were received by himself, and added that they were absolutely genuine.

Further, Gov. Boyle, at Marconi's request, has cabled the fact to King Edward.

Notice to Quit.

St. John's, Nfld., Dec. 17.— Marconi has just returned here from Cape Spear, where he experienced poor luck. The weather was rendered extremely unpleasant by fog, wind and a rainstorm, and the inventor was unable to decide upon a site for his proposed station.

On returning here from Cape Spear Marconi was served with legal documents from the solicitors of the Anglo-American Telegraph Company, notifying him that the said company possesses an exclusive monopoly of the telegraph business within Newfoundland and its dependencies, and demanding that he cease his experiments and remove his apparatus forthwith, else the company would apply to the Supreme Court for an injunction restraining him from further trials.

Marconi has not yet decided as to what course of action he will take in this matter. But he regards this action on the part of the Anglo-American Telegraph Co. as the best proof of the importance of his new discovery.

Spoke to Each Other Hours Apart.

New York, Dec. 17.—The Cunarder Etruria, which has just arrived here, was in communication for more than five hours in mid-ocean with her sister ship the Umbria. Long before either ship sighted the other their commanders were conversing by the Marconi wireless system. The position of each ship was known to the other hours before their main decks showed above the horizon.

NATURAL GAS FLOW CEASED.

Many Windsor People Had to Go Without Breakfast Monday.

Windsor, Dec. 17.—The natural gas in Windsor ceased to flow at 7 o'clock yesterday morning, and many persons were compelled to go without breakfast.

Windsor hardware dealers were doing a land office business all morning. The call for stoves was incessant, and express wagons had to be impressed to make deliveries.

Dr. King, manager of the United Gas and Oil Company, said that there was no other reason to give for the low pressure than that the wells were becoming exhausted. He does not look for any increase in the flow so long as the cold snap continues.

To Develop African Mines.

London, Dec. 17.—The owners of the principal gold mines in the Gold Coast Colony are organizing a chamber of West African mines in London for the purpose of developing their properties. More than 200 companies, representing an investment of many millions sterling, have already joined the movement, which has been promised the co-operation of the London Chamber of Commerce.

True Bill Against Jackson.

London, Dec. 17.—At the Old Bailey yesterday the grand jury returned a true bill against Theodore Jackson, and Laura Jackson (Ada O'Delia Diss De Bar). The recorder, in charging the jury, commented upon the "horrible and blasphemous character of the evidence."

Express Employes Strike.

Lynn, Mass., Dec. 17.—The American Express Co. employes yesterday began a strike for a new schedule of wages and hours of labor. The strikers were paid off in a body during the forenoon, and men were put at work in their places.

By a Blast of Gas.

Halifax, Dec. 17.—William Morgan, aged 25, a native of Birmingham, Alabama, was killed at Sydney yesterday morning by a blast of gas in the blast furnace.

Broke Jail.

Windsor, Dec. 17.—Alex. Craig, colored, escaped from jail Sunday night. He is still at large.

Prof. O'Brien,

CANADA'S GREATEST PHRENOLOGIST and the only recognized SCIENTIFIC PALMIST (by law) has removed to 283 Hunter street, Terrace, near the railway crossing. See name in window. As Prof. O'Brien is a very busy man, he will not be able to leave Peterborough for a few days yet. The more people he examines the more he has to examine, which fact alone speaks for his ability and the esteem and popularity he has gained during his short stay in Peterborough. It will be well for skeptics of either science to investigate before condemning either Phenology or Scientific Palmistry. The latter should not be confounded with the common fortune telling. Professor O'Brien has proved in open courts before Crown witnesses at the Toronto General Sessions, March 14th, 1901, that Palmistry as demonstrated by him is a pure science, and has no connection with the so-called fortune telling. Anyone wishing to be enlightened on the science should call on Professor O'Brien who will be pleased to explain his scientific methods. A photo read free to patrons. Over 150 persons have consulted him during his short stay in Peterborough. Remember there is only ONE Professor O'Brien. Don't forget his new address. KEEP THE INTERCOLONIAL INDEPENDENT.

Halifax, and the seaboard Maritime Provinces generally, are considerably exercised over the proposal to transfer the people's railway, the Intercolonial, to the Canadian Pacific Railway. A few days ago, a resolution passed the Halifax Board of Trade, unanimously favouring the acquirement of the Intercolonial by the C.P.R., and other Boards of Trade are calling meetings to consider the question. Whatever may be the action of these Boards of Trade, whatever may be the upshot of these meetings — whether an apparent decision in favour of parting with the National Railway, or a decision adopted to indirectly promote the development of the export trade of Maritime Province ports — the surrender of the national railway, under existing conditions, should not be thought of. It is clearly a case of the application and fitness of the motto, "Let well enough alone." "What we have, we'll hold," is another motto pertinent to the situation. The Intercolonial Railway is too important a factor in the Canadian transportation problem to be lightly eliminated. The surrender of national control of the people's railway, is clearly not in the interest of Canada. Apart from the fact that it is to be considered as a vested right of the people, guaranteed by Confederation, its importance as a rate-regulator is a large consideration—it is now run in the people's interests, but if it were transferred to a railway corporation it would be run in the interests of the shareholders, and their interests would be considered as primary, and those of the people at large as secondary. Now, as stated, the people's interests are the first consideration. The Intercolonial has proven a valuable property, and a paying concern, even in the dividend sense. It has been developed into its present position at the expense of the people, and now that it is able to confer benefits upon the people, and give a return for the people's expenditure, it would seem folly to sacrifice these advantages. Since Confederation there has been about sixty millions expended upon it, and in addition, from 1872 up to 1899, there had been a dreary procession of deficits, averaging over $900,000 per year. In 1897 the present Government began to apply business methods to the national railway, and in 1899 the corner was turned, and deficits changed into surpluses, so far as excess of receipts over expenditures were concerned, at any rate. The railway has been extended to Montreal, the commercial centre of the Dominion, and the road made not only a live, paying concern, but a factor with which the other railways must reckon. The fact of the Intercolonial being so formidable a competitor with the C.P.R., and with rates that yield a profit, no doubt influences the latter in the direction of a desire to acquire the Intercolonial. Of course, we could not expect any paternalism on the part of the C.P.R. in its management of the railway. The first aim of the Intercolonial Railway under Government management is to serve the public interests in the matter of transportation rates; dividend or surplus is a secondary consideration. The first aim, and very naturally and rightly too, of the Intercolonial under the control of a joint stock company would be to serve the interests of the shareholders and to give them dividends, and the people would only be considered in the light of contributing to these dividends and in the light of their capicity of paying the highest rates that might be necessary to make sure of good dividends. Railway corporations are not and are not expected to be in business "for their health." It is proposed in case of the transfer of the Intercolonial to the C.P.R. that one of the conditions should be that the Government should control the traffic rates. The Government does that now and much more successfully than it would be able to do if the line were less directly under its control. Everything points to the desirability in the public interests of keeping the Intercolonial an independent line—the people's railway, under the people's control. The Government has made its operation successful and to a large extent have done so by extending the line to Montreal. Is it not probable that corresponding advantages to the public would be gained by further extending it to the inland waters of the north by taking over the Parry Sound and Canada Atlantic railway and giving an independent route from the Atlantic to our northern and north-western regions? These are on the verge of new development, which will be the better promoted by having reasonable rate railway connection with the seaboard. This would mean real competition with other railways; and without Government control there is no real competition. Two rival railways seem to be in competition but we all know, no matter how apparently bitter the ostensible opposition, that there is little difficulty in levelling up rates to mutual advantage. An important function of a Government railway is to control rates, not by Order-in-council but by legitimate competition. It is in a position to fix reasonable rates which private railways have to approximate, at least, or lose traffic. It is quite clear that the public interests at the present time would not be best served by the handing over of the Intercolonial to the C.P.R. or any other railway corporation; indeed the conditions rather suggest the advisability of the amalgamation of the C.P.R. with the Intercolonial railway. Besides at a time when Government ownership of railways is becoming the rule, when the Ontario Government is initiating this principle, it would seem to be a retrograde movement for the Intercolonial to surrender its independence.

INDUSTRIAL DISPUTES.

Representatives of Capital and Labor Meet in an Endeavor to Minimize Effects of Wage Differences.

New York, Dec. 17.—Brought together through the good offices of the National Civic Federation, leading representatives of labor and capital met here yesterday to discuss plans to minimize wage and industrial disputes. Aiding them with counsel were several prominent students of economics, and leading figures in the religious world, and the opening session was notable for a number of striking expressions and comments upon the problem faced by the conferees.

Oscar Strauss, former Minister to Turkey, who acted as chairman, announced that it was planned to form a general Executive Committee, with representation divided among, labor, capital, and the great public, and it was hoped it would become a tribunal of peace. Senator Hanna, Charles M. Schwab, Archbishop Ireland, Bishop Potter and S. R. Callaway, were among those who attended.

Mr. Schwab declared he was opposed to labor unions as they were now constituted, and said they must fail, as the trusts had failed for seeking to limit production and control prices.

Senator Hanna expressed strong approval of the principle of organized labor, and his speech drew apologies from John Phillips and John J. Donnelly, two of the labor delegates, who confessed they had held erroneous and unjust views as to the attitude of the Senator toward organized labor.

Other speakers were strongly in favor of conciliation. President Gompers, John Mitchell, Theodore Shaffer and other leading members of the American Federation, will be here to-day, when the conference will be continued.

RIGHT OF TRANSFER.

Ottawa Jury Gave Salter $100 and Price of Ticket.

Ottawa, Dec. 17.—Judge McTavish and the jury in the County Court yesterday decided a suit involving the right of a passenger on a street railway to transfer at any point on the line. The case was that of Porter versus Ottawa Electric Railway Company. Plaintiff having secured on Rideau street a transfer to Bank, got off the Rideau street car at the corner of Rideau and Sussex, five blocks on the rear side of the transfer point, which is at Sparks and Bank. A minute later he boarded a Bank street car at the corner of Rideau and Sussex, and tendered his transfer slip. The conductor refused to accept it, as it was not a transfer point for that line, and, laying his hand on the passenger's shoulder, ordered him off the car. Porter paid another five, under protest, and took action against the company for assault and damages. The jury awarded him $100 for assault, and held he was entitled to damages in five cents, the price of his second ticket. The verdict makes good plaintiff's contention that notwithstanding the printed conditions on the ticket a passenger is entitled to transfer at any point on the line of a continuous passage.

IT IS IMPORTANT

To Know What You are Taking When Using Catarrh Medicines.

Catarrh is the short route to consumption, and the importance of early and judicious treatment of Catarrh, whether located in the head, throat or bronchial tubes, cannot be too strongly emphasized.

The list of catarrh cures is as long as the moral law and the forms in which they are administered, numerous and confusing, from sprays, inhalers, washes, ointments, and salves to powders liquids and tablets.

The tablet form is undoubtedly the most convenient and the most effective, but with nearly all advertised catarrh remedies it is almost entirely a matter of guess work as to what you are taking into your system, as the proprietors, while making all sorts of claims as to what their medicines will do, always keep it a close secret as to what they are.

The success and popularity of the new catarrh cure, Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, is largely because it not only cures catarrh but because catarrh sufferers who use these tablets know what they are taking into their systems. Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, are composed of Red Gum, Blood Root and similar valuable and antiseptic ingredients, and are pleasant to the taste and being dissolved in the mouth they take immediate effect upon the mucus lining of the throat, nasal passages and whole respiratory tract.

The cures that Stuart's Catarrh Tablets have accomplished in old chronic cases of catarrh are little short of remarkable, and the advantage of knowing what you are putting into your stomach is of paramount importance when it is remembered that the cocaine or morphine habit has been frequently contracted as the result of using secret catarrh remedies.

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets meet with cordial approval from physicians, because their antiseptic character render them perfectly safe for the general public to use and their composition makes them a common sense cure for all forms of catarrhal troubles.

All druggists sell them at 50 cts. for full sized packages.

Federation of Labor.

Scranton, Dec. 14.—The convention of the American Federation of Labor held three sessions yesterday, and disposed of more business than on any previous day of the meeting. A resolution instructing unions to hold aloof from the militia of the several States was debated for a long time, and then the whole subject was tabled.

This is the Way of it.

ISTHMIAN CANAL TREATY.

Ratified by United States Senate by a Vote of 72 to 6.

Washington, Dec. 17.—The Senate yesterday ratified the Hay-Pauncefote Isthmian Canal treaty by the decisive vote of 72 to 6. The vote was reached a few minutes before 5 o'clock, after almost five hours' discussion behind closed doors. There were no sensational incidents during this entire time. The debate was confined exclusively to a discussion of the merits of the agreement, and the policy of its provisions. The principal speech of the day was made by Senator Teller in opposition to the treaty, and he was followed in rapid succession by 12 or 15 other Senators, who spoke briefly either for or against the motion to ratify.

To Equalize Freight Rates.

Stockholm, Dec. 17.—The Government has decided to form a railway council composed of representatives of state and private railways, also delegates from the chief industries of the country, for the purpose of fixing freight rates on a basis calculated to promote the industrial development of the country.

"BLOTCHY" FACES

How many have to say "My pimply face is the bane of my life"—How few would have it to say if they gave Dr. Agnew's Ointment the testing that Mr. Lilly did.

"I have found Dr. Agnew's Ointment the best remedy for pimples and sore faces that I have ever used. I had three trying cases under my care and have cured them with this greatest of skin remedies. All traces of the sores in each case have been cleared off and the skin left as soft as a baby's. I recommend it everywhere."—Chas. H. Lilly, West Pittston. Price 35cts. 67

TO MAKE CATTLE IMMUNE.

Professor Behring Will Use Nobel Prize Money Against Tuberculosis.

Stockholm, Dec. 16.—Professor Behring, a German, who was recently awarded the Nobel medical prize, of 191,200 kroner ($40,500), announced yesterday, during the course of a lecture, that his experiments demonstrated the possibility of immuning cattle from tuberculosis by inoculation. The professor added that he proposed employing the Nobel prize money in combating cattle tuberculosis.

Must Move $500 or Stay Out.

Toronto, Dec. 16.—Last week's Ontario Gazette publishes a despatch received by the Governor-General from the Secretary of State for the Colonies, announcing that persons desiring to go to South Africa after Jan. 1 must provide themselves with permits, which will be issued by a special permit officer, on the production of a certificate, signed by a member of Parliament, justice of the peace, clergyman or minister or officer of His Majesty's forces, to the effect that the applicant has at least £100, or is in a position to maintain himself in South Africa. The applicants are also required to sign a declaration that they will not, directly or indirectly, assist Britain's enemies in South Africa.

STRENGTHENS THE STATE.

Life Insurance is for the protection of those dependent on a man's life; their dependence makes it an unavoidable duty Those dependent we assume to protect by our contract, at his personal cost; our duty to them is to make that contract as large, as secure, and as certainly available to them as possible; thus every Policy written conserves the interest of the State. A man with a Life Insurance Policy is apt to be a good citizen. Anarchists have no use for Life Insurance, and the state has no use for anarchists. The State should encourage every citizen to carry insurance. This Strengthens the State, abolishes alms-houses, and creates property that can be taxed. Further, the income from Your labour ends with Your life. The cost of living to the family continues. Take measures to have the income continue also. The Life Insurance Policy Does It.

The most enterprising and progressive of all the Canadian Life Offices to-day is the Sun Life of Canada. Ten years ago the Company had Life Assurance in force to the extent of $16,739,355.-92. On the 31st of December last, this amount had been increased to $57,980,634.68. The increase, therefore, of Life Assurance in force during the last ten years amounted to the tremendous sum of $41,221,278.76.

BUSINESS AND BEARDS.

Most London Men Clean Shaven or Wear a Mustache Only.

This would appear to be mainly a beardless age, for, though you do not find men in nearly all pursuits who wear beards, they are nevertheless in a vast minority just now. In the first place, let us take the typical city man. He is probably engaged on the Stock Exchange, and if so it will be remarkable if he wears a beard. Most of the frequenters of Throgmorton street are clean shaved or at most a mustache is cultivated. The same applies to most bank clerks and young and middle aged men in insurance and other offices. Secretaries of companies are also generally content with cultivating slight mustaches if they are not altogether clean shaved.
